manded Solomon his son saying, <sup>2</sup> I am going the way of all the earth. Be strong therefore, and show yourself a man; <sup>3</sup> and keep the instruction of Yahweh your God, to walk in His ways, to keep His statutes, His commandments, His ordinances and His testimonies, according to what is written in the law of Moses, that you may prosper in all that you do, and wherever you turn yourself. <sup>4</sup> This is so that Yahweh may establish His word which He spoke concerning me saying, 'If your children take heed to their way, to walk before Me in truth with all their heart and with all their soul, there shall not fail you', He said, 'a man on the throne of Israel'. <sup>5</sup> Moreover you know also what Joab the son of Zeruiah did to me and what he did to the two captains of the armies of Israel, to Abner the son of Ner, and to Amasa the son of Jether, whom he killed, and shed the blood of war in peace, and put the blood of war on his sash that was about his waist, and in his shoes that were on his feet. <sup>6</sup> Do therefore according to your wisdom, and don't let his gray head go down to Sheol in peace. <sup>7</sup> But show kindness to the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them

1:48 My eyes even seeing it – The promise of 2 Sam. 7:16 about David's great son being established on his throne referred to Christ reigning on David's throne at His return to earth, when David would be resurrected to see it. But in his old age, David seems to have lost focus upon Christ and become obsessed with the idea of having God's promises fulfilled in this life, and he came to see Solomon as the fulfilment of the promises more than Christ. No matter how long we have been in Christ, we must be aware that we can always let our focus upon Him slip, and seek for the fulfilment of the Kingdom promises in this life rather than their main, intended fulfilment in the future Kingdom.

be of those who eat at your table; for so they came to me when I fled from Absalom your brother. <sup>8</sup> Behold, there is with you Shimei the son of Gera, the Benjamite of Bahurim, who cursed me with a grievous curse in the day when I went to Mahanaim; but he came down to meet me at the Jordan, and I vowed to him by Yahweh saying, 'I will not put you to death with the sword'. <sup>9</sup> Now therefore don't hold him guiltless, for you are a wise man; and you will know what you ought to do to him, and you shall bring his gray head down to Sheol with blood. <sup>10</sup> David slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David. <sup>11</sup> The days that David reigned over Israel were forty years; he reigned seven years in Hebron, and he reigned thirty-three years in Jerusalem.

Solomon Destroys His Rivals

<sup>12</sup> Solomon sat on the throne of David his father; and his kingdom was firmly established. <sup>13</sup> Then Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon. She said, Do you come peaceably? He said, Peaceably. <sup>14</sup> He said moreover, I have something to tell you. She said, Say on. <sup>15</sup> He said, You know that the kingdom was mine, and that all Israel set their faces on me, that I should reign. However the kingdom is turned around, and has become my brother's; for it was his from Yahweh. <sup>16</sup> Now I ask one petition of you. Don't deny me. She said to him, Say on. <sup>17</sup> He said, Please speak to Solomon the king (for he will not tell you 'no'), that he give me Abishag the Shunammite as wife. <sup>18</sup> Bathsheba said, Alright. I will speak for you to the king. <sup>19</sup> Bathsheba therefore went to king Solomon, to speak to him for Adonijah. The king rose up to meet her, and bowed himself to her, and sat down on his throne, and caused a throne to be set for the king's mother; and she sat on his right hand. <sup>20</sup> Then she said, I ask one small petition of you; don't deny me. The king said to her, Ask on, my mother; for I will not deny you. <sup>21</sup> She said, Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah your brother as wife. <sup>22</sup> King Solomon answered his mother, Why do you ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? Ask for him the kingdom also;

2:7 Let them be of those who eat at your table – To eat at the king's table was a sign of acceptance and special favour; and all believers are invited to eat at Christ's table at the breaking of bread. To refuse or ignore the invitation is to turn down a great honour.

2:8, 9 David graciously overlooked Shimei's cursing, promising him that he would not die because of it (2 Sam. 16:10,11; 19:23). But he didn't keep up that level of grace to the end: here he asks Solomon to ensure that Shimei was killed for that incident. And one wonders whether it was Shimei's words which so broke David's heart that he later wrote the words of Ps. 109:16-18 wishing cursing upon Shimei. We too must struggle to keep up the level of grace we may show to a person, to the end of our lives. Forgiveness in this sense isn't a one time act, but an ever continuing process we engage in.

for he is my elder brother; even for him, and for Abiathar the priest, and for Joab the son of Zeruiah. <sup>23</sup> Then king Solomon vowed by Yahweh saying, God do so to me, and more also, if Adonijah has not spoken this word against his own life. <sup>24</sup> Now therefore as Yahweh lives, who has established me, and set me on the throne of David my father, and who has made me a house, as He promised, surely Adonijah shall be put to death this day. <sup>25</sup> King Solomon sent by Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he fell on him, so that he died. <sup>26</sup> To Abiathar the priest the king said, Go to Anathoth, to your own fields; for you are worthy of death. But I will not at this time put you to death, because you carried the ark of the Lord Yahweh before David my father, and because you were afflicted in all in which my father was afflicted. <sup>27</sup> So

Solomon thrust out Abiathar from being priest to Yahweh, that he might fulfil the word of Yahweh, which He spoke concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh. <sup>28</sup> The news came to Joab; for Joab had turned after Adonijah, though he didn't turn after Absalom. Joab fled to the tabernacle of Yahweh, and caught hold on the horns of the altar. <sup>29</sup> It was told king Solomon, Joab has fled to the tabernacle of Yahweh, and behold, he is by the altar. Then Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada saying, Go, fall on him. <sup>30</sup> Benaiah came to the tabernacle of Yahweh and said to him, Thus says the king, 'Come forth!'. He said, No; but I will die here. Benaiah brought the king word again saying, Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me. <sup>31</sup> The king said to him, Do as he has said, and fall on him, and bury him; that you may take away the blood

2:24 Who has made me a house, as He promised – The promise to David was that he would have a son who on account of his obedience would be given an eternal kingdom / house. The main fulfilment was to be in Messiah, the Son of God. But Solomon too quickly assumed the promise was to him and that his success in establishing his own kingdom was a fulfilment of that promise; and he overlooked the conditions. He does the same in :45 when he pronounces that “king Solomon shall be blessed”, again ignoring the conditions attached to the promised blessings. We too can do the same – overlooking, skimming over, the conditions of immortality, and assuming any present blessing is a sign we are ultimately acceptable with God.

2:28 The legal codes of the surrounding nations held that certain physical, sacred places could be entered and provide even murderers with freedom from judgment. The Torah allows this in some cases, but not in the case of deliberate murder. Thus when Joab grabs the horns of the altar, thinking he therefore couldn't be slain for his sin, he is dragged away and slain. This would've read strangely to many of the surrounding peoples. Hammurabi's laws had a sliding scale of punishment according to the social status of the person who had been harmed by misbehaviour – if a rich man struck out the eye of a 'commoner', he had to pay less compensation than if he did so to a person of higher status. The Torah reflects the immense value placed by God upon the human person; for such distinctions are totally absent in it. We are to likewise perceive the value and meaning of persons, and treat them accordingly.

which Joab shed without cause, from me and from my father's house. <sup>32</sup> Yahweh will return his blood on his own head, because he fell on two men more righteous and better than he, and killed them with the sword, and my father David didn't know it: Abner the son of Ner, captain of the army of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, captain of the army of Judah. <sup>33</sup> So shall their blood return on the head of Joab, and on the head of his seed forever. But to David, and to his seed, and to his house, and to his throne, there shall be peace forever from Yahweh. <sup>34</sup> Then Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up and fell on him, and killed him; and he was buried in his own house in the wilderness. <sup>35</sup> The king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his place over the army; and the king put Zadok the priest in the place of Abiathar. <sup>36</sup> The king sent and called for Shimei and said to him, Build yourself a house in Jerusalem, and dwell there, and don't go out anywhere from there. <sup>37</sup> For on the day you go out, and pass over the brook Kidron, know for certain that you shall surely die: your blood shall be on your own head. <sup>38</sup> Shimei said to the king, The saying is good. As my lord the king has said, so will your servant do. Shimei lived in Jerusalem many days. <sup>39</sup> It happened at the end of three years, that two of the servants of Shimei ran away to Achish, son of Maacah, king of Gath. They told Shimei saying, Behold, your servants are in Gath. <sup>40</sup> Shimei arose, saddled his donkey, and went to Gath to Achish, to seek his servants; and Shimei went, and brought his servants from Gath. <sup>41</sup> It was told Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and had come again. <sup>42</sup> The king sent and called for Shimei, and said to him, Didn't I adjure you by Yahweh and warn you, saying, 'Know for certain, that on the day you go out, and walk abroad any where, you shall surely die?'. You said to me, 'The saying that I have heard is good'. <sup>43</sup> Why then have you not kept the oath of Yahweh, and the commandment that I have instructed you with? <sup>44</sup> The king said moreover to Shimei, You know all the wickedness which your heart knows full well, what you did to David my father. Therefore Yahweh shall return your wickedness on your own head. <sup>45</sup> But king Solomon shall be blessed, and the throne of David shall be established before Yahweh forever. <sup>46</sup> So the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he went out, and fell on him, so that he died. The kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

Solomon Asks for Wisdom

Solomon made affinity with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and took Pharaoh's daughter, and brought her into the city of David, until he had made an end of building his own house, and the house of Yahweh, and the wall of Jerusalem all around. <sup>2</sup> At that time the people sacrificed in the high places, because there was no house built for the name of Yahweh. <sup>3</sup> Solomon loved Yahweh, walking in the statutes of David his father: only he sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places. <sup>4</sup> The king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there; for that was the great high place. Solomon offered a thousand burnt offerings on that altar. <sup>5</sup> In Gibeon Yahweh appeared to Solomon in a dream by night; and God said, Ask what I shall give you. <sup>6</sup> Solomon said, You have shown to Your servant David my father great grace, according as he walked before You in truth, righteousness and in uprightness of heart with You. You have kept for him this great grace, that You have given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day. <sup>7</sup> Now, Yahweh my God, You have made Your servant king instead of David my father. I am but a little child. I don't know how to go out or come in. <sup>8</sup> Your servant is in the midst of Your people which You have chosen, a great people, that can't be numbered nor counted for multitude. <sup>9</sup> Give Your servant therefore an understanding heart to judge Your people, that I may discern between good and evil; for who is able to judge this Your great people? <sup>10</sup> The speech pleased the Lord, that Solomon had asked this thing. <sup>11</sup> God said to him, Because you have asked this thing, and have not asked for yourself long life, neither have asked riches for yourself, nor have asked the life of your enemies, but have asked for yourself understanding to discern justice; <sup>12</sup> therefore I have done according to your word. Behold, I have already given you a wise and an understanding heart; so that there has been none like you before you, neither after you shall any arise like you. <sup>13</sup> I have also given you that which you have not asked, both riches and honour, so that there shall not be any among the kings like you, all your days. <sup>14</sup> If you will walk in My ways, to keep My statutes and My commandments as your father David walked, then I will lengthen your days. <sup>15</sup> Solomon awoke; and behold, it was a dream. Then he came to Jerusalem, and stood before the ark of the covenant of Yahweh, and offered up burnt offerings, offered peace offerings, and made a feast to all his servants.

The Two Prostitutes

3:3 It seems that Solomon loved God insofar as this was a living out of parental expectations; David is spoken of by both Solomon and the record as Solomon's "father" hundreds of times. Yet God will work in our lives so that our love of Him is purely of our own account, rather than the living out of parental or others' expectations.

3:12 I have already given you – God may have prepared great things potentially for us, which are only 'released' by our prayer for them. Solomon asked God for a wise heart – but he was told that God had already given him this. The process of educating Solomon in wisdom would have started long before; but it was released, as it were, by Solomon's specific prayer.

said, Oh my lord, I and this woman live in one house. I gave birth with her in the house. <sup>18</sup> It happened the third day after I gave birth, that this woman gave birth also. We were together. There was no stranger with us in the house, just us two in the house. <sup>19</sup> This woman's child died in the night, because she lay on it. <sup>20</sup> She arose at midnight, and took my son from beside me, while your handmaid slept, and laid it in her bosom, and laid her dead child in my bosom. <sup>21</sup> When I rose in the morning to nurse my child, behold, it was dead; but when I had looked at it in the morning, behold, it was not my son, whom I bore. <sup>22</sup> The other woman said, No; but the living is my son, and the dead is your son. The other said, No; but the dead is your son, and the living is my son. Thus they spoke before the king. <sup>23</sup> Then the king said, The one says, 'This is my son who lives, and your son is the dead'; and the other says, 'No; but your son is the dead one, and my son is the living one'. <sup>24</sup> The king said, Get me a sword. They brought a sword before the king. <sup>25</sup> The king said, Divide the living child in two, and give half to the one, and half to the other. <sup>26</sup> Then the woman whose the living child was spoke to the king, for her heart yearned over her son, and she said, Oh my lord, give her the living child, and in no way kill it! But the other said, It shall be neither mine nor yours. Divide it. <sup>27</sup> Then the king answered, Give her the living child, and in no way kill it. She is its mother. <sup>28</sup> All Israel heard of the judgment which the king had judged; and they feared the king: for they saw that the wisdom of God was in him, to do justice.

The Administration of Solomon's Kingdom

King Solomon was king over all Israel. <sup>2</sup> These were the princes

3:26 Solomon immediately demonstrated his wisdom by the way he judged between the two prostitutes who came to him. They lived in the same house, and had given birth at the same time. The whole situation spoke of the kind of shameless prostitution which the Mosaic Law demanded should be punished by death. But the way of Divine wisdom in this case was not to automatically apply Divine law in condemning sinners. Instead, by cutting to the conscience within those women and appealing to it, they were led to at least the possibility of repentance, transformation and salvation. Solomon's wisdom was given him in order to know how to guide God's great people. The way of wisdom is therefore sometimes not to press a point when someone's in the wrong. We see this in all levels of relationships. There are weak points in relationships, fissure lines, which when pressed or brought under tension will cause earthquakes and destruction. It's best not to press on them; and yet if they are ignored, then the quality of relationship suffers and descends into interacting only over 'safe' matters. So what are we to do? By not raising the obvious issue – you're prostitutes and must be put to death – Solomon showed grace, but he showed it in such a way that those women surely couldn't have felt the same again; rather like the woman taken in adultery in Jn. 8:1-11. The very fact she was not condemned by the One who could condemn her – meant that she went away indeed vowing to "sin no more".

whom he had: Azariah the son of Zadok, the priest; <sup>3</sup> Elihoreph and Ahijah, the sons of Shisha, scribes; Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud, the recorder; <sup>4</sup> Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the army; Zadok and Abiathar were priests; <sup>5</sup> Azariah the son of Nathan was over the officers; Zabud the son of Nathan was chief officer, the king's friend; <sup>6</sup> Ahishar was over the household; and Adoniram the son of Abda was over the men subject to forced labour. <sup>7</sup> Solomon had twelve officers over all Israel, who provided food for the king and his household: each man had to make provision for a month in the year. <sup>8</sup> These are their names: Ben Hur, in the hill country of Ephraim; <sup>9</sup> Ben Deker, in Makaz, and in Shaalbim, and Beth Shemesh, and Elon Beth Hanan; <sup>10</sup> Ben Hessed, in Arubboth (to him belonged Socoh, and all the land of Hephher); <sup>11</sup> Ben Abinadab, in all the height of Dor (he had Taphath the daughter of Solomon as wife); <sup>12</sup> Baana the son of Ahilud, in Taanach and Megiddo, and all Beth Shean which is beside Zarethan, beneath Jezreel, from Beth Shean to Abel Meholah, as far as beyond Jokmeam; <sup>13</sup> Ben Geber, in Ramoth Gilead (to him belonged the towns of Jair the son of Manasseh, which are in Gilead; to him belonged the region of Argob, which is in Bashan, sixty great cities with walls and bronze bars); <sup>14</sup> Ahinadab the son of Iddo, in Mahanaim; <sup>15</sup> Ahimaaz, in Naphtali (he also took Basemath the daughter of Solomon as wife); <sup>16</sup> Baana the son of Hushai, in Asher and Bealoth; <sup>17</sup> Jehoshaphat the son of Paruah, in Issachar; <sup>18</sup> Shimei the son of Ela, in Benjamin; <sup>19</sup> Geber the son of Uri, in the land of Gilead, the country of Sihon king of the Amorites and of Og king of Bashan; and he was the only officer who was in the land. <sup>20</sup> Judah and Israel were many as the sand which is by the sea in multitude, eating and drinking and making merry. <sup>21</sup> Solomon ruled over all the kingdoms from the River to the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt: they brought tribute, and served Solomon all the days of his life. <sup>22</sup> Solomon's provision for one day was thirty measures of fine flour, and sixty measures of meal, <sup>23</sup> ten head of fat cattle, twenty head of cattle out of the pastures, one hundred sheep, besides harts, gazelles, roebucks and fattened fowl. <sup>24</sup> For he had dominion over all on this side of the River, from Tiphseh even to Gaza, over all the kings on this side of the River: and he had peace on all sides around him. <sup>25</sup> Judah and Israel lived

4:20 The promises of the future Kingdom were fulfilled to a limited extent at this time; Israel were multiplied as the sand on the sea shore (2 Sam. 17:11), they possessed the gates of their enemies (Dt. 17:2; 18:6) – all in antitype of how we, Abraham's future seed would also receive the promised blessings in their mortal experience, as well as in the eternal blessedness of the future Kingdom.

4:25 Rabshakeh promised the Jews an Assyrian Kingdom where everyone sat under their own vine and fig tree – consciously parodying Micah's contemporary prophecies of God's future Kingdom (Is. 36:16 cp. Mic. 4:4). The Assyrian Kingdom was being safely, every man under his vine and under his fig tree, from Dan even to Beersheba, all the days of Solomon. <sup>26</sup> Solomon had forty thousand stalls of horses for his chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen. <sup>27</sup> Those officers provided food for king Solomon, and for all who came to king Solomon's table, every man in his month; they let nothing be lacking. <sup>28</sup> Barley also and straw for the horses and swift steeds brought they to the place where the officers were, each man according to his duty.

The Wisdom of Solomon

<sup>29</sup> God gave Solomon great wisdom and understanding, and very great perception, according to the sand which is on the seashore. <sup>30</sup> Solomon's wisdom excelled the wisdom of all the children of the east, and all the wisdom of Egypt. <sup>31</sup> For he was wiser than all men; than Ethan the Ezrahite, Heman, Calcol, Darda, the sons of Mahol: and his fame was in all the nations all around. <sup>32</sup> He spoke three thousand proverbs; and his songs were one thousand and five. <sup>33</sup> He spoke of trees, from the cedar that is in Lebanon even to the hyssop that springs out of the wall; he spoke also of animals, birds, creeping things and fish. <sup>34</sup> There came of all peoples to hear the wisdom of Solomon, from all kings of the earth, who had heard of his wisdom.

Hiram Cooperates with Solomon to Build the Temple

Hiram king of Tyre sent his servants to Solomon; for he had heard that they had anointed him king in the place of his father: for Hiram had always admired David. <sup>2</sup> Solomon sent to Hiram saying, <sup>3</sup> You know how that David my father could not build a house for the name of Yahweh his God for the wars which were about him on every side, until Yahweh put his enemies under the soles of his feet. <sup>4</sup> But now Yahweh my God has given me rest presented as a parody of Solomon's, which was the Kingdom of God (2 Chron. 9:8). Our surrounding world comprises "the kingdoms of this world" (Rev. 11:15); it is a fake kingdom of God. We have a choice between God's Kingdom and that of this world, although to unspiritual eyes, this world with its promises of a wonderful life here and now can appear a replica of God's Kingdom.

4:29 According to the sand which is on the seashore – The same term is used in :20 to describe the number of the Israelites. Solomon was given wisdom in order to assist them. We should search for wisdom in order to be of spiritual assistance to others, to God's glory. Bible study is of no value unless we harness it to the service of God's people. Our search for knowledge in every aspect of life must be because we seek to turn it into wisdom.

5:4 Adversary – Heb. 'satan'. The Greek Septuagint translation of the Old Testament uses the Greek word diabolos to translate the Hebrew 'satan'. Hence Devil and Satan are effectively parallel in meaning. Thus we read in the Septuagint of David being an adversary [Heb. Satan, Gk. diabolos] in 1 Sam. 29:4; the sons of Zeruiah (2 Sam. 19:22), Hadad, Rezon and other opponents to Solomon (1 Kings 5:4; 11:14,23,25). If on every side. There is no adversary nor any evil occurrence. <sup>5</sup> Behold, I purpose to build a house for the name of Yahweh my God, as Yahweh spoke to David my father saying, ‘Your son, whom I will set on your throne in your place, he shall build the house for My name’. <sup>6</sup> Now therefore command that they cut me cedar trees out of Lebanon. My servants shall be with your servants; and I will give you wages for your servants according to all that you shall say. For you know that there is not among us any who knows how to cut timber like the Sidonians. <sup>7</sup> It happened, when Hiram heard the words of Solomon, that he was very pleased and said, Blessed is Yahweh this day, who has given to David a wise son over this great people. <sup>8</sup> Hiram sent to Solomon saying, I have heard the message which you have sent to me. I will do all your desire concerning timber of cedar and concerning timber of fir. <sup>9</sup> My servants shall bring them down from Lebanon to the sea. I will make them into rafts to go by sea to the place that you shall appoint me, and will cause them to be broken up there, and you shall receive them. You shall accomplish my desire, in giving food for my household. <sup>10</sup> So we believe that every reference to ‘Satan’ or ‘Devil’ refers to an evil cosmic being, then we have to assume that these people weren’t people at all, and that even good men like David were evil. The far more natural reading of these passages is surely that ‘satan’ is simply a word meaning ‘adversary’, and can be applied to people [good and bad], and even God Himself – it carries no pejorative, sinister meaning as a word. The idea is sometimes used to describe our greatest adversary, i.e. our own sin, and at times for whole systems or empires.

Hiram gave Solomon timber of cedar and timber of fir according to all his desire. <sup>11</sup> Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand measures of wheat for food for his household, and twenty measures of pure oil. Solomon gave this to Hiram year by year. <sup>12</sup> Yahweh had given Solomon wisdom, as He promised him; and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon; and they two made a treaty together. <sup>13</sup> King Solomon raised a levy out of all Israel; and the levy was thirty thousand men. <sup>14</sup> He sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand a month by courses; a month they were in Lebanon, and two months at home; and Adoniram was over the men subject to forced labour. <sup>15</sup> Solomon had seventy thousand who bore burdens, and eighty thousand who were stone cutters in the mountains; <sup>16</sup> besides Solomon’s chief officers who were over the work, three thousand three hundred, who bore rule over the people who laboured in the work. <sup>17</sup> The king commanded, and they cut out great stones, costly stones, to lay the foundation of the house with worked stone. <sup>18</sup> Solomon’s builders along with Hiram’s builders and the Gebalites cut them, and prepared the timber and the stones to build the house.

5:12 The practical result of wisdom was peace between persons, and this should be the practical outcome of translating all our knowledge of God into practical wisdom.

CHAPTER 6 Aug. 11The Plan of the Temple

It happened in the four hundred and eightieth year after the children of Israel had come out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month Ziv, which is the second month, that he began to build the house of Yahweh. <sup>2</sup> The house which king Solomon built for Yahweh, its length was sixty cubits, and its breadth twenty, and its height thirty cubits. <sup>3</sup> The porch before the temple of the house, twenty cubits was its length, according to the breadth of the house. Ten cubits was its breadth before the house. <sup>4</sup> He made windows of fixed lattice work for the house. <sup>5</sup> Against the wall of the house he built storeys all around, against the walls of the house all around, both of the temple and of the oracle; and he made side rooms all around. <sup>6</sup> The lowest storey was five cubits broad, and the middle was six cubits broad, and the third was seven cubits broad; for on the outside he made offsets in the wall of the house all around, so that the supporting beams should not be inserted into the walls of the house. <sup>7</sup> The house, when it was in building, was built of stone prepared at the quarry; and there was neither hammer nor axe nor any tool of iron heard in the house, while it was in building. <sup>8</sup> The door for the middle side rooms was in the right side of the house: and they went up by winding stairs into the middle storey, and out of the middle into the third. <sup>9</sup> So he built the house, and finished it; and he covered the house with beams and planks of cedar. <sup>10</sup> He built the storeys against the whole house, each five cubits high: and they were attached to the house by cedar beams. <sup>11</sup> The word of Yahweh came to Solomon saying, <sup>12</sup> Concerning this house which you are building, if you will walk in My statutes, and execute My ordinances, and keep all My commandments to walk in them; then will I establish My word with you, which I spoke to David your father. <sup>13</sup> I will dwell among the chil-

6:7 We are represented by these stones of the temple (1 Pet. 2:5); we are being quarried and shaped now by the hand of God in our lives, and will be assembled into the temple at Christ's return. It will be too late then for corners to be knocked off; the shaping process is going on now. Stones need shaping so that they fit nicely with the other stones, in order to be a useful part of the entire house. Spiritual isolation isn't therefore what God intends; the shaping process involves us in inter-personal relationships and getting along with others, rather than walking away every time there is awkward conflict.

6:12 God saw the need to remind Solomon that he was still required to be obedient; the promises about him were always conditional upon this. Solomon was tempted to reason that because of his works and his outstanding effort in building the temple, he was thereby excused from practical obedience in other areas of his life. We too can face the same temptation; to serve God in one area of our lives and think that this excuses us from submitting our entire lives to His word.

6:13 Thanks to Solomon's prayer, and if he had been obedient, all Israel would have dren of Israel, and will not forsake My people Israel. <sup>14</sup> So Solomon built the house, and finished it. <sup>15</sup> He built the walls of the house within with boards of cedar: from the floor of the house to the walls of the ceiling, he covered them on the inside with wood; and he covered the floor of the house with boards of fir. <sup>16</sup> He built twenty cubits on the back part of the house with boards of cedar from the floor to the ceiling: he built them for it within, for an inner sanctuary, even for the most holy place. <sup>17</sup> In front of the temple sanctuary was forty cubits. <sup>18</sup> There was cedar on the house within, carved with buds and open flowers: all was cedar; there was no stone seen.

The Inner Sanctuary

<sup>19</sup> He prepared an inner sanctuary in the midst of the house within, to set there the ark of the covenant of Yahweh. <sup>20</sup> Within the inner sanctuary was twenty cubits in length, and twenty cubits in breadth, and twenty cubits in its height; and he overlaid it with pure gold: and he covered the altar with cedar. <sup>21</sup> So Solomon overlaid the house within with pure gold: and he drew chains of gold across before the inner sanctuary; and he overlaid it with gold. <sup>22</sup> The whole house he overlaid with gold, until all the house was finished: also the whole altar that belonged to the inner sanctuary he overlaid with gold. <sup>23</sup> In the inner sanctuary he made two cherubim of olive wood, each ten cubits high. <sup>24</sup> Five cubits was the one wing of the cherub, and five cubits the other wing of the cherub: from the uttermost part of the one wing to the uttermost part of the other were ten cubits. <sup>25</sup> The other cherub was ten cubits: both the cherubim were of one measure and one form. <sup>26</sup> The height of the one cherub was ten cubits, and so was it of the other cherub. <sup>27</sup> He set the cherubim within the inner house; and the wings of the cherubim were stretched forth, so that the wing of the one touched the one wall, and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall; and their wings touched one another in the midst of the house. <sup>28</sup> He overlaid the cherubim with gold. <sup>29</sup> He carved all the walls of the house around with carved figures of cherubim and palm trees and open flowers, inside and outside. <sup>30</sup> The floor of the house he overlaid with gold, inside and outside. <sup>31</sup> For the entrance of the inner sanctuary he made doors of olive wood: the lintel and door posts were a fifth part of the wall. <sup>32</sup> So he been blessed and experienced Yahweh dwelling amongst them. Our obedience or disobedience really can affect third parties.

6:19 *Inner sanctuary – Translated in some Bibles as “oracle”, the Hebrew word thus translated also means ‘the word’, and can be interpreted as meaning ‘the speaking place’. God speaks to us today in His word; as we read His word and respond to it, we are in the most holy place, as God speaks to us and we respond – whether we read on the bus, hear it on our headphones or read in bed at night. Daily Bible reading is therefore so important in our personal relationship with God.

made two doors of olive wood; and he carved on them carvings of cherubim and palm trees and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold; and he spread the gold on the cherubim, and on the palm trees. <sup>33</sup> In the same way he also made for the entrance of the temple door posts of olive wood, out of a fourth part of the wall; <sup>34</sup> and two doors of fir wood: the two leaves of the one door were folding, and the two leaves of the other door were folding. <sup>35</sup> He carved cherubim and palm trees and open flowers; and he overlaid them with gold fitted on the engraved work. <sup>36</sup> He built the inner court with three courses of cut stone, and a course of cedar beams. <sup>37</sup> In the fourth year was the foundation of the house of Yahweh laid, in the month Ziv. <sup>38</sup> In the eleventh year, in the month Bul, which is the eighth month, was the house finished throughout all its parts, and according to all its fashion. Thus he was seven years in building it.

Solomon's House

Solomon was building his own house thirteen years, and he finished all his house. <sup>2</sup> For he built the house of the forest of Lebanon; its length was one hundred cubits, and its breadth fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits, on four rows of cedar pillars, with cedar beams on the pillars. <sup>3</sup> It was covered with cedar above over the forty-five beams, that were on the pillars; fifteen in a row. <sup>4</sup> There were window frames in three rows, and window was over against window in three ranks. <sup>5</sup> All the doors and posts had square frames: and window was opposite window in three tiers. <sup>6</sup> He made the porch of pillars; its length was fifty cubits, and its breadth thirty cubits; and a porch before them; and pillars and a threshold before them. <sup>7</sup> He made the hall of judgment for the throne where he was to judge, even the porch of judgment: and it was covered with cedar from floor to floor. <sup>8</sup> His house where he was to dwell had another court within the porch, which was of the same plan. He made also a house for Pharaoh's daughter (whom Solomon had taken as wife), like this porch. <sup>9</sup> All these were of costly stones, even of cut stone, according to measure, sawn with saws, inside and outside, even from the foundation to the coping, and so on the outside to the great court. <sup>10</sup> The foundation was of costly stones, even great stones, stones of ten cubits, and stones of eight cubits. <sup>11</sup> Above were costly stones, cut stone, according to measure, and cedar wood. <sup>12</sup> The great

6:38 He was seven years in building it – Perhaps prophetic of God's 7000 year plan to build a spiritual temple for Him to dwell in. Throughout the temple there was the theme of God's glory – the cherubim motif was throughout the building (:29). Our entire purpose both now and eternally is to give glory to God and not to ourselves.

7:1 Solomon spent nearly twice as long building his own house as he did God's house (6:38). He liked building (Ecc. 2:4); he served God in ways convenient to him, rather than taking up a cross and going against his own natural desires. See on 9:1.

court around had three courses of cut stone, and a course of cedar beams; like the inner court of the house of Yahweh, and the porch of the house.

The Two Pillars and Laver

<sup>13</sup> King Solomon sent and fetched Hiram out of Tyre. <sup>14</sup> He was the son of a widow of the tribe of Naphtali, and his father was a man of Tyre, a worker in brass; and he was filled with wisdom and understanding and skill, to work all works in brass. He came to king Solomon, and performed all his work. <sup>15</sup> For he fashioned the two pillars of brass, each eighteen cubits high: and a line of twelve cubits encircled both of them around. <sup>16</sup> He made two capitals of molten brass, to set on the tops of the pillars: the height of the one capital was five cubits, and the height of the other capital was five cubits. <sup>17</sup> There were nets of chequer work, and wreaths of chain work, for the capitals which were on the top of the pillars; seven for the one capital, and seven for the other capital. <sup>18</sup> So he made the pillars; and there were two rows around on the one network, to cover the capitals that were on the top of the pillars: and he did so for the other capital. <sup>19</sup> The capitals that were on the top of the pillars in the porch were of carved lilies, four cubits. <sup>20</sup> There were capitals above also on the two pillars, close by the cushion which was beside the network: and the pomegranates were two hundred, in rows around on the other capital. <sup>21</sup> He set up the pillars at the porch of the temple: and he set up the right pillar, and called its name Jachin; and he set up the left pillar, and called its name Boaz. <sup>22</sup> On the top of the pillars was lily work: so was the work of the pillars finished. <sup>23</sup> He made the molten sea of ten cubits from brim to brim, round in compass, and its height was five cubits; and a line of thirty cubits encircled it. <sup>24</sup> Under its brim around

7:12 Like as the inner court of the house of Yahweh – Solomon was maybe unconsciously playing God, creating a throne for himself in similar and more glorious style to God's throne room in the temple.

7:23 Sometimes the Bible is very vague. There are times when the Spirit uses approximate numbers rather than exact ("about the space of four hundred and fifty years", Acts 13:20 cp. 1 Kings 6:1). The reference to "seventy" in Judges 9:56 also doesn't seem exact. Seven and a half years (2 Sam. 2:11) becomes "seven years" (1 Kings 2:11); three months and ten days (2 Chron. 36:9) becomes "three months" (2 Kings 24:8). And here 1 Kings 7:23 gives the circumference of the laver as "thirty cubits", although it was ten cubits broad. Taking 'pi' to be 3.14, it is apparent that the circumference would have been 31.4 cubits; but the Spirit says, summing up, "thirty". Surely this is to show that God is God, not man, and as such He's not on the back foot, writing under the fear of criticism. His word is not contradictory, but on the other hand, God has more spiritual culture than to sink down to the level of a man who wanted to foresee all criticism in writing something which could stand all petty criticism. He has a spiritual culture much higher than this. And this is the answer to many of the petty objections about 'Bible contradictions' which are raised by cynics.

there were buds which encircled it, for ten cubits, encircling the sea: the buds were in two rows, cast when it was cast. <sup>25</sup> It stood on twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, three looking toward the west, three looking toward the south and three looking toward the east; and the sea was set on them above, and all their hinder parts were inward. <sup>26</sup> It was a handbreadth thick: and its brim was worked like the brim of a cup, like the flower of a lily: it held two thousand baths. <sup>27</sup> He made the ten bases of brass; four cubits was the length of one base, and four cubits its breadth, and three cubits its height. <sup>28</sup> The work of the bases was like this: they had panels; and there were panels between the ledges; <sup>29</sup> and on the panels that were between the ledges were lions, oxen, and cherubim; and on the ledges there was a pedestal above; and beneath the lions and oxen were wreaths of hanging work. <sup>30</sup> Every base had four bronze wheels, and axles of brass; and the four feet of it had supports: beneath the basin were the supports molten, with wreaths at the side of each. <sup>31</sup> The mouth of it within the capital and above was a cubit: and its mouth was round after the work of a pedestal, a cubit and a half; and also on its mouth were engravings, and their panels were foursquare, not round. <sup>32</sup> The four wheels were underneath the panels; and the axles of the wheels were in the base: and the height of a wheel was a cubit and half a cubit. <sup>33</sup> The work of the wheels was like the work of a chariot wheel: their axles, and their rims, and their spokes, and their naves, were all molten. <sup>34</sup> There were four supports at the four corners of each base: its supports were of the base itself. <sup>35</sup> In the top of the base was there a round compass half a cubit high; and on the top of the base its stays and its panels were of the same. <sup>36</sup> On the plates of its stays, and on its panels, he engraved cherubim, lions, and palm trees, according to the space of each, with wreaths all around. <sup>37</sup> In this way, he made the ten bases: all of them had one casting, one measure, and one form. <sup>38</sup> He made ten basins of brass: one basin contained forty baths; and every basin was four cubits; and on every one of the ten bases one basin. <sup>39</sup> He set the bases, five on the right side of the house, and five on the left side of the house: and he set the sea on the right side of the house eastward, toward the south. <sup>40</sup> Hiram made the basins, and the shovels, and the basins. So Hiram made an end of doing all the work that he worked for king Solomon in the house of Yahweh: <sup>41</sup> the two pillars, and the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars; and the two networks to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars; <sup>42</sup> and the four hundred pomegranates for the two networks; two rows of pomegranates for each network, to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the pillars; <sup>43</sup> and the ten bases, and the ten basins on the bases; <sup>44</sup> and the one sea, and the twelve oxen under the sea; <sup>45</sup> and the pots, and the shovels, and the basins: even all these vessels, which Hiram made for king Solomon, in the house of Yahweh, were of burnished brass. <sup>46</sup> The king cast them in the plain of the Jordan, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zarethan. <sup>47</sup> Solomon left all the vessels unweighed, because they were exceeding many: the weight of the brass could not be found out.

7:25 The sea or laver was a washing place in which the priests and sacrifices had to be washed before approaching God. It speaks of baptism under the new covenant, and is alluded to in Tit. 3:5, which speaks of our being saved by faith through the laver or bath of regeneration. Water baptism is part of the process of regeneration, the required expression of our faith in God's salvation, and is therefore vital for all who would come to God in this age.

The Utensils for the Temple

<sup>48</sup> Solomon made all the vessels that were in the house of Yahweh: the golden altar, and the table whereupon the show bread was, of gold; <sup>49</sup> and the lampstands, five on the right side, and five on the left, before the oracle, of pure gold; and the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs, of gold; <sup>50</sup> and the cups, and the snuffers, and the basins, and the spoons, and the fire pan, of pure gold; and the hinges, both for the doors of the inner house, the most holy place, and for the doors of the house, of the temple, of gold. <sup>51</sup> Thus all the work that king Solomon worked in the house of Yahweh was finished. Solomon brought in the things which David his father had dedicated, the silver, the gold and the vessels, and put them in the treasures of the house of Yahweh.

The Temple Is Dedicated

Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the princes of the families of the people of Israel, to king Solomon in Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of Yahweh out of the city of David, which is Zion. <sup>2</sup> All the men of Israel assembled themselves to king Solomon at the feast, in the month Ethanim, which is the seventh month. <sup>3</sup> All the elders of Israel came, and the priests took up the ark. <sup>4</sup> They brought up the ark of Yahweh, and the Tent of Meeting, and all the holy vessels that were in the Tent; all these the priests and the Levites brought up. <sup>5</sup> King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel who were assembled to him, were with him before the ark, sac-

7:50 The hinges... of gold – Gold wasn't the most suitable material for many of the utensils. But it represents faith (1 Pet. 1:7). The life of faith means that we may do things which appear to have a very weak human basis, and yet this is how God loves to work – through the human weakness of decisions taken and work done in faith.

8:5 Sacrificing sheep and cattle, that could not be counted nor numbered – Solomon hadn't learnt the lesson his father David did after his sin with Bathsheba – that God doesn't really want multitudes of animal sacrifices, but rather the sacrifice of a broken heart and true internal spirituality (Ps. 50:8-15; 51:16,17; Is. 1:11; Jer. 7:22; Am.

rificing sheep and cattle, that could not be counted nor numbered for multitude. <sup>6</sup> The priests brought in the ark of the covenant of Yahweh to its place, into the inner sanctuary of the house, the most holy place, even under the wings of the cherubim. <sup>7</sup> For the cherubim spread forth their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim covered the ark and its poles above. <sup>8</sup> The poles were so long that the ends of the poles were seen from the holy place before the inner sanctuary; but they were not seen outside: and there they are to this day. <sup>9</sup> There was nothing in the ark except the two tables of stone which Moses put there at Horeb, when Yahweh made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt. <sup>10</sup> When the priests had come out of the holy place, the cloud filled the house of Yahweh, <sup>11</sup> so that the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud; for the glory of Yahweh filled the house of Yahweh.

Solomon's Prayer of Dedication

<sup>12</sup> Then Solomon said, Yahweh has said that He would dwell in the thick darkness. <sup>13</sup> I have surely built You a house, a place for You to dwell in forever. <sup>14</sup> The king turned his face about, and blessed all the assembly of Israel: and all the assembly of Israel stood. <sup>15</sup> He said, Blessed is Yahweh, the God of Israel, who spoke with His mouth to David my father, and has with His hand fulfilled it, saying, <sup>16</sup> 'Since the day that I brought My people Israel out of Egypt, I chose no city out of all the tribes of Israel to build a house that My name might be there; but I chose David to be over My people Israel'. <sup>17</sup> Now it was with the heart of David my father to build a house for the name of Yahweh, the God of Israel. <sup>18</sup> But Yahweh said to David

5:25). We must be aware that organized religion so easily leads us to think that the externalities of religious devotion are all important; whereas it is internal spirituality which God seeks above all, and any organized religious system we are part of should be merely an assistance towards that, rather than an end in itself.

8:17 It was with the heart of David – In the Hebrew Bible, the idea of being “with” someone means to “be in one’s consciousness, whether of knowledge, memory or purpose”. Thus Job speaks of how what God plans to do to him is “with God”, i.e. in His purpose (Job 23:14); David is spoken of as having the idea about building a temple “with” him (here and 2 Chron. 6:7) – and see too Num. 14:24; 1 Kings 11:11; 1 Chron. 28:12; Job 10:13; 15:9; 23:10; 27:11; Ps. 50:11; 73:23. When we read of Jesus being “with” God from the beginning (Jn. 1:1-3), the Western mind can assume this means sitting literally together with Him. But Jesus didn’t physically pre-exist His birth. It is this refusal to read the Bible within its own Hebraic context which has led to so much misunderstanding, and adopting of doctrines and positions which simply don’t stand up to closer Biblical scrutiny.

8:18 Whether God did in fact say exactly this to David is open to question, because it would contradict God’s own reasoning about why He didn’t want a temple, and the fact the promises to David were mainly about the spiritual temple to be built by God’s my father, ‘Whereas it was in your heart to build a house for My name, you did well that it was in your heart.

<sup>19</sup> Nevertheless, you shall not build the house; but your son who shall come forth out of your body, he shall build the house for My name’.

<sup>20</sup> Yahweh has established His word that He spoke; for I have risen up in the place of David my father, and I sit on the throne of Israel, as Yahweh promised, and have built the house for the name of Yahweh, the God of Israel. <sup>21</sup> There I have set a place for the ark, in which is the covenant of Yahweh which He made with our fathers when He brought them out of the land of Egypt. <sup>22</sup> Solomon stood before the altar of Yahweh in the presence of all the assembly of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward heaven; <sup>23</sup> and he said, Yahweh, the God of Israel, there is no God like You in heaven above nor on earth beneath; who keeps covenant and grace with Your servants who walk before You with all their heart; <sup>24</sup> who has kept with Your servant David my father that which You promised him. Yes, You spoke with Your mouth, and have fulfilled it with Your hand, as it is this day. <sup>25</sup> Now therefore, may Yahweh, the God of Israel, keep with

Your servant David my father that which You have promised him saying, ‘There shall not fail you a man in My sight to sit on the throne of Israel, if only your children take heed to their way, to walk before Me as you have walked before Me’. <sup>26</sup> Now therefore, God of Israel, please let Your word be verified, which You spoke to Your servant David my father. <sup>27</sup> But will God in very deed dwell on the earth? Behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens can’t contain You; how much less this house that I have built! <sup>28</sup> Yet have respect for the prayer of Your servant, and for his supplication, Yahweh my God, to listen to the cry and to the prayer which Your servant prays before You this day; <sup>29</sup> that Your eyes may be open toward this house night and day toward the place of which You have said, ‘My name shall be there;’ to listen to the prayer which Your servant shall pray toward this place. <sup>30</sup> Listen to the supplication of Your servant, and of Your people Israel, when they shall pray toward this place. Yes, hear in heaven, Your dwelling place; and when You hear, forgive. <sup>31</sup> If a man sins against his neighbour, and an oath is laid on him to cause him to swear, and he comes

Son Jesus (Lk. 1:31-35). David assumed this is what God meant; and Solomon now repeats it as if it is the very word of God. This kind of error so often occurs.

8:22 Such public, ostentatious prayer is surely not in the spirit of Christ, who commanded us to pray secretly (Mt. 6:6).

8:29, 30 Listen to the prayer which Your servant shall pray toward this place – Solomon had the wrong idea that the existence of the temple somehow made prayer more noticeable by God. One of the reasons for the destruction of the temple was to bring God’s people into direct, prayerful contact with Him in their exile in the Gentile world. God likewise takes away the props of our religion in order to bring us directly to Him.

and swears before Your altar in this house; <sup>32</sup> then hear in heaven, and do, and judge Your servants, condemning the wicked, to bring his way upon his own head, and justifying the righteous, to give him according to his righteousness. <sup>33</sup> When Your people Israel are struck down before the enemy, because they have sinned against You; if they turn again to You, and confess Your name, and pray and make supplication to You in this house: <sup>34</sup> then hear in heaven, and forgive the sin of Your people Israel, and bring them again to the land which You gave to their fathers. <sup>35</sup> When the sky is shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against You; if they pray toward this place, and confess Your name, and turn from their sin, when You afflict them: <sup>36</sup> then hear in heaven, and forgive the sin of Your servants, and of Your people Israel, when You teach them the good way in which they should walk; and send rain on Your land, which You have given to Your people for an inheritance. <sup>37</sup> If there is famine in the land, if there is pestilence, if there is blight, mildew, locust or caterpillar; if their enemy besieges them in their cities; whatever plague, whatever sickness there is; <sup>38</sup> whatever prayer and supplication is made by any man, or by all Your people Israel, who shall each know the plague of his own heart, and spread forth his hands toward this house: <sup>39</sup> then hear in heaven, Your dwelling place, and forgive, and do, and render to every man according to all his ways, whose heart You know; (for You, even You only, know the hearts of all the children of men;) <sup>40</sup> that they may fear You all the days that they live in the land which You gave to our fathers. <sup>41</sup> Moreover concerning the foreigner, who is not of Your people Israel, when he shall come out of a far country for Your name's sake <sup>42</sup> (for they shall hear of Your great name, and of Your mighty hand, and of Your outstretched arm); when he shall come and pray toward this house; <sup>43</sup> hear in heaven, Your dwelling place, and do according to all that the foreigner calls to You for; that all the peoples of the earth may know Your name, to fear You, as do Your people Israel, and that they may know that this house which I have built is called by Your name. <sup>44</sup> If Your people go out to battle against their enemy, by whatever way You shall send them, and they pray to Yahweh toward the city which You have chosen, and toward the house which I have built for Your name; <sup>45</sup> then hear in heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause. <sup>46</sup> If they sin against You (for there is no man who doesn't

8:39 Hear in heaven Your dwelling place – We are invited to see God as having a “throne” (2 Chron. 9:8; Ps. 11:4; Is. 6:1; 66:1). Such language is hard to apply to an undefined essence which exists somewhere in heavenly realms, but is rather appropriate to a personal God having a specific location. We can better understand the idea of ‘God manifestation’ in personal human beings if we understand Him as being Himself personal. It also provides focus to our prayers, as it did for Solomon here.

sin), and You are angry with them, and deliver them to the enemy, so that they carry them away captive to the land of the enemy, far off or near; <sup>47</sup> yet if they shall repent in the land where they are carried captive, and turn again, and make supplication to You in the land of those who carried them captive, saying, ‘We have sinned, and have done perversely; we have dealt wickedly;’ <sup>48</sup> if they return to You with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their enemies, who carried them captive, and pray to You towards their land, which You gave to their fathers, the city which You have chosen, and the house which I have built for Your name: <sup>49</sup> then hear their prayer and their supplication in heaven, your dwelling place, and maintain their cause; <sup>50</sup> and forgive Your people who have sinned against You, and all their transgressions in which they have transgressed against You; and give them compassion before those who carried them captive, that they may have compassion on them <sup>51</sup> (for they are Your people, and Your inheritance, which You brought out of Egypt, from the midst of the furnace of iron); <sup>52</sup> that Your eyes may be open to the supplication of Your servant, and to the supplication of Your people Israel, to listen to them whenever they cry to You. <sup>53</sup> For You separated them from among all the peoples of the earth to be Your inheritance, as You spoke by Moses Your servant, when You brought our fathers out of Egypt, Lord Yahweh.

A Final Dedication

<sup>54</sup> It was so, that when Solomon had made an end of praying all this prayer and supplication to Yahweh, he arose from before the altar of Yahweh, from kneeling on his knees with his hands spread forth toward heaven. <sup>55</sup> He stood, and blessed all the assembly of Israel with a loud voice saying, <sup>56</sup> Blessed be Yahweh, who has given rest to His people Israel, according to all that He promised. There has not failed one word of all His good promise, which He promised by Moses His servant. <sup>57</sup> May Yahweh our God be with us, as He was with our fathers. Let Him not leave us, nor forsake us; <sup>58</sup> that He may incline our hearts to Him, to walk in all His ways, and to keep His

8:49 Hear their prayer and their supplication in heaven... and maintain their cause – This is legal language, implying that our situations on earth are acted out within the Heavenly throne room, where God is both judge and the one who advocates for us to Himself, maintaining our case and supporting our supplication. We need never feel, therefore, that the complexities of our situations on earth are unnoticed. They are known and analyzed better than we know ourselves, in Heaven itself.

8:58 He may incline our hearts to Him – We’re wrong to think that God passionlessly waits for us to repent or pray to Him, and then He will forgive or act for us. He loves us, simply so; and with all love’s manipulation of circumstances, seeks to pour out His love upon us. Thus repentance itself is a gift which God gives and is not totally upon human initiative (see too Dt. 4:29-31; 30:1-10).

commandments, His statutes and his ordinances which He commanded our fathers. <sup>59</sup> Let these my words, with which I have made supplication before Yahweh, be near to Yahweh our God day and night, that He may maintain the cause of His servant, and the cause of His people Israel, as each day shall require; <sup>60</sup> that all the peoples of the earth may know that Yahweh, He is God. There is none else. <sup>61</sup> Let your heart therefore be perfect with Yahweh our God, to walk in His statutes and to keep His commandments, as you do at this day. <sup>62</sup> The king, and all Israel with him, offered sacrifice before Yahweh. <sup>63</sup> Solomon offered for the sacrifice of peace offerings, which he offered to Yahweh, twenty two thousand head of cattle, and one hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the children of Israel dedicated the house of Yahweh. <sup>64</sup> The same day the king made the middle of the court holy that was before the house of Yahweh; for there he offered the burnt offering, and the meal offering, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the bronze altar that was before Yahweh was too little to receive the burnt offering, the meal offering, and the fat of the peace offerings. <sup>65</sup> So Solomon held the feast at that time, and all Israel with him, a great assembly, from the entrance of Hamath to the brook of Egypt, before Yahweh our God, seven days and seven days, even fourteen days. <sup>66</sup> On the eighth day he sent the people away; and they blessed the king, and went to their tents joyful and glad of heart for all the goodness that Yahweh had shown to David His servant, and to Israel His people.

God Warns Solomon

It happened, when Solomon had finished the building of the house of Yahweh, and the king's house, and all Solomon's desire which he was pleased to do, <sup>2</sup> that Yahweh appeared to Solomon the second time, as He had appeared to him at Gibeon. <sup>3</sup> Yahweh said to him, I have heard your prayer and your supplication, that you have made before Me. I have made this house holy, which you have built, to put My name there forever; and My eyes and My heart shall be there constantly. <sup>4</sup> As for

9:1 Solomon's desire which he was pleased to do – See on 7:1. Solomon's building work was what he naturally desired to do, he built for his personal "pleasure" (:19); he didn't understand that true service of God requires us to go against the grain of our natural desires.

9:3 God didn't ideally want to have a physical temple, in the same way as He didn't want Israel to have a system of human kings. But He made concessions to human weakness, as He does today, so eager is He for fellowship with us.

9:4 Notice all the time God uses the word "if" in this communication. There are times in our lives when like Solomon we need to be reminded that whatever successes we have had in spiritual life, our eternal future is always conditional upon our enduring to the end (Mt. 10:22). The sense of the eternity we might miss should in some form be ever in our consciousness.

you, if you will walk before Me, as David your father walked, in integrity of heart, and in uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded you, and will keep My statutes and My ordinances; <sup>5</sup> then I will establish the throne of your kingdom over Israel forever, according as I promised to David your father saying, ‘There shall not fail you a man on the throne of Israel’. <sup>6</sup> But if you turn away from following Me, you or your children, and don’t keep My commandments and My statutes which I have set before you, but shall go and serve other gods, and worship them; <sup>7</sup> then will I cut off Israel out of the land which I have given them; and this house, which I have made holy for my name, will I cast out of my sight; and Israel shall be a proverb and a byword among all peoples. <sup>8</sup> Though this house is so high, yet shall everyone who passes by it be astonished, and shall hiss; and they shall say, ‘Why has Yahweh done thus to this land, and to this house?’; <sup>9</sup> and they shall answer, ‘Because they forsook Yahweh their God, who brought their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and laid hold of other gods, and worshiped them, and served them. Therefore Yahweh has brought all this evil on them’. <sup>10</sup> It happened at the end of twenty years, in which Solomon had built the two houses, the house of Yahweh and the king’s house <sup>11</sup> (now Hiram the king of Tyre had supplied Solomon with cedar trees and fir trees, and with gold, according to all his desire), that then king Solomon gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee. <sup>12</sup> Hiram came out from Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given him; and they didn’t please him. <sup>13</sup> He said, What cities are these which you have given me, my brother? He called them the land of Cabul to this day. <sup>14</sup> Hiram sent to the king one hundred and twenty talents of gold.

Solomon Strengthens His Kingdom

<sup>15</sup> This is the reason of the levy which king Solomon raised, to build the house of Yahweh, and his own house, and Millo, and the wall of Jerusalem, and Hazor, and Megiddo, and Gezer. <sup>16</sup> Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone up, and taken Gezer, and burnt it with fire, and slain the Canaanites who lived in the city, and given it for a present to his daughter, Solomon’s wife. <sup>17</sup> Solomon built Gezer, and Beth Horon the lower, <sup>18</sup> and Baalath, and Tamar in the wilderness, in the land, <sup>19</sup> and all the storage cities that Solomon had, and the cities for his chariots, and the cities for his horsemen, and that which Solomon desired to build for his pleasure in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion. <sup>20</sup> As for all the people who were left of the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, who were not of the children of Israel; <sup>21</sup> their children who were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel were not able utterly to destroy, of them Solomon raised a levy of bondservants to this day. <sup>22</sup> But of the children of Israel Solomon made no bondservants; but they were the men of war, and his servants, and his princes, and his captains, and rulers of his chariots and of his horsemen. <sup>23</sup> These were the chief officers who were over Solomon's work, five hundred and fifty, who bore rule over the people who laboured in the work. <sup>24</sup> But Pharaoh's daughter came up out of the city of David to her house which Solomon had built for her: then he built Millo. <sup>25</sup> Solomon offered burnt offerings and peace offerings on the altar which he built to Yahweh three times a year, burning incense with them, on the altar that was before Yahweh. So he finished the house. <sup>26</sup> King Solomon made a navy of ships in Ezion Geber, which is beside Eloth, on the shore of the Red Sea, in the land of Edom. <sup>27</sup> Hiram sent in the navy his servants, sailors who had knowledge of the sea, with the servants of Solomon. <sup>28</sup> They came to Ophir, and fetched from there gold, four hundred and twenty talents, and brought it to king Solomon.

The Queen of Sheba Visits Solomon

When the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon concerning the name of Yahweh, she came to test him with hard questions. <sup>2</sup> She came to Jerusalem with a very great train, with camels that carried spices, and very much gold and precious stones; and when she had come to Solomon, she talked with him of all that was in her heart. <sup>3</sup> Solomon told her all her questions: there was not anything hidden from the king which he didn't tell her. <sup>4</sup> When the queen of Sheba had seen all the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he had built, <sup>5</sup> and the food of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and their clothing, and his cup bearers, and his ascent by which he went up to the house of Yahweh; there was no more spirit in her. <sup>6</sup> She said to the king, It was a true report that I heard in my own land of your acts, and of your wisdom. <sup>7</sup> However I didn't believe the words, until I came, and my eyes had seen it. Behold, the half was not told me! Your wisdom and prosperity ex-

9:22 Of the children of Israel Solomon made no bondservants – But he did later, and the people complained bitterly about the harshness he showed them (12:4). He began by being inhumane to unbelievers, and then came to treat God's people with the same hardness he showed people in the world; and we can take a lesson from this.

10:4-8 The Queen of Sheba saw Solomon's wisdom through seeing the "sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and their clothing". It was through her observation of Solomon's people that she perceived and understood his wisdom. The nations will likewise learn the knowledge of Christ through observing the example of natural Israel and ourselves; as they should in this life too. People tend not to believe mere words until they see them lived out in practice before their eyes.

ceed the fame which I heard. <sup>8</sup> Happy are your men, happy are these your servants, who stand continually before you, who hear your wisdom. <sup>9</sup> Blessed is Yahweh your God, who delighted in you, to set you on the throne of Israel. Because Yahweh loved Israel forever, therefore He made you king, to do justice and righteousness. <sup>10</sup> She gave the king one hundred and twenty talents of gold, and of spices very great store, and precious stones. There came no more such abundance of spices as these which the queen of Sheba gave to king Solomon. <sup>11</sup> The navy also of Hiram, that brought gold from Ophir, brought in from Ophir a great quantity of almug trees and precious stones. <sup>12</sup> The king made of the almug trees pillars for the house of Yahweh, and for the king's house, harps also and stringed instruments for the singers: there came no such almug trees, nor were seen, to this day. <sup>13</sup> King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatever she asked, besides that which Solomon gave her of his royal bounty. So she turned, and went to her own land, she and her servants.

Solomon's Wealth

<sup>14</sup> Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred and sixty-six talents of gold, <sup>15</sup> besides that which the traders brought, and the traffic of the merchants, and of all the kings of the mixed people, and of the governors of the country. <sup>16</sup> King Solomon made two hundred bucklers of beaten gold; six hundred shekels of gold went to one buckler. <sup>17</sup> he made three hundred shields of beaten gold; three minas of gold went to one shield: and the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon. <sup>18</sup> Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with the finest gold. <sup>19</sup> There were six steps to the throne, and the top of the throne was round behind; and there were stays on either side by the place of the seat, and two lions standing beside the stays. <sup>20</sup> Twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other on the six steps: there was nothing like it made in any kingdom. <sup>21</sup> All king Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold: none were of silver; it was

10:9 Because of God's enthusiasm for human response to His ways, the exalted language in which He describes believers, even in their weakness, is an essay in His humility. Thus God "delighted" in Solomon – translating a Hebrew word meaning literally 'to bend down to'. It's used about men in love (Gen. 34:19; Dt. 21:14; 25:7), and about Jonathan's deferential attitude to David (1 Sam. 19:2). If God is humble, so should we be.

10:14 Six hundred and sixty-six talents of gold – The connection with 666 as the number of the man of sin (Rev. 13:18), and the similarities between Babylon's merchandise in Rev. 17 and 18 and that which came to Solomon, indicates that all was not spiritually well with Solomon. His kingdom was on one hand God's Kingdom, and yet it was also a kingdom of sin. This is ever our temptation – not atheism, but a serving of sin under the impression of serving God.

nothing accounted of in the days of Solomon. <sup>22</sup> For the king had at sea a navy of Tarshish with the navy of Hiram: once every three years came the navy of Tarshish, bringing gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks. <sup>23</sup> So king Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth in riches and in wisdom. <sup>24</sup> All the earth sought the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart. <sup>25</sup> They brought every man his tribute, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and clothing, and armour, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year. <sup>26</sup> Solomon gathered together chariots and horsemen: and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, that he placed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem. <sup>27</sup> The king made silver to be in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars made he to be as the sycamore trees that are in the lowland, for abundance. <sup>28</sup> The horses which Solomon had were brought out of Egypt; and the king's merchants received them in droves, each drove at a price. <sup>29</sup> A chariot came up and went out of Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for one hundred and fifty; and so for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, they brought them out by their traders.

Solomon Turns Away from God

Now king Solomon loved many foreign women, together with the daughter of Pharaoh, women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Sidonians, and Hittites; <sup>2</sup> of the nations concerning which Yahweh said to the children of Israel, You shall not go among them, neither shall they come among you; for surely they will turn away your heart after their gods. Solomon joined to these in love. <sup>3</sup> He had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines; and his wives turned away his heart. <sup>4</sup> For it happened, when Solomon was old, that his wives turned away his heart after other gods; and his heart was not perfect with Yahweh his God, as was the heart of David his father. <sup>5</sup> For Solomon went after Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, and after Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites. <sup>6</sup> Solomon did that which was evil

10:29 Solomon's love of horses was not right for the king of Israel (Dt. 17:16). He began by being a middleman, bringing horses out of Egypt and selling them on to other nations. But he ended up being addicted to them. We should choose not to have involvement with sinful things, because it's likely that the more we deal with them, the more likely it is we will ourselves start to use them.

11:2, 3 The following passages all make the same connection between marriage out of the covenant, and adopting idolatry: Ex. 34:12-16; Dt. 7:2-9; Jud. 3:6,7; Mal. 2:11; 2 Cor. 6:14. Dt. 7:4 dogmatically predicts that a Gentile man will definitely turn away the heart of his Hebrew son-in-law... So certain is it that marriage to Gentiles leads to accepting their idols that Ezra 9:1,2 reasons that Israel hadn't separated from idols because they had married Gentiles. Marriage to unbelievers is very serious.

in the sight of Yahweh, and didn't go fully after Yahweh, as did David his father. <sup>7</sup> Then Solomon built a high place for Chemosh the abomination of Moab, on the mountain that is before Jerusalem, and for Molech the abomination of the children of Ammon. <sup>8</sup> So he did for all his foreign wives, who burnt incense and sacrificed to their gods. <sup>9</sup> Yahweh was angry with Solomon, because his heart was turned away from Yahweh, the God of Israel, who had appeared to him twice, <sup>10</sup> and had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods: but he didn't keep that which Yahweh commanded. <sup>11</sup> Therefore Yahweh said to Solomon, Because this is done by you, and you have not kept my covenant and my statutes, which I have commanded you, I will surely tear the kingdom from you, and will give it to your servant. <sup>12</sup> Notwithstanding I will not do it in your days, for David your father's sake; but I will tear it out of the hand of your son. <sup>13</sup> However I will not tear away all the kingdom; but I will give one tribe to your son, for David My servant's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake which I have chosen.

Solomon's Adversaries

<sup>14</sup> Yahweh raised up an adversary to Solomon, Hadad the Edomite: he was of the king's seed in Edom. <sup>15</sup> For it happened, when David was in Edom, and Joab the captain of the army was gone up to bury the slain, and had struck every male in Edom <sup>16</sup> (for Joab and all Israel remained there six months, until he had cut off every male in Edom); <sup>17</sup> that Hadad fled, he and certain Edomites of his father's servants with him, to go into Egypt, Hadad being yet a little child. <sup>18</sup> They arose out of Midian, and came to Paran; and they took men with them out of Paran, and they came to Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt, who gave him a house, and appointed him food, and gave him land. <sup>19</sup> Hadad found great favour in the sight of Pharaoh, so that he gave him as wife the sister of his own wife, the sister of Tahpenes the queen. <sup>20</sup> The sister of Tahpenes bore him Genubath his son, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh's house; and

11:6 Anything less than following Yahweh with all our heart is seen as doing evil in His eyes. We see here the logic of total devotion to Him.

11:13 The extent of grace explains many apparent contradictions and paradoxes throughout God's relationships with men – e.g. God repeatedly said that He would leave David with “one tribe”. But actually by grace He gave David and Judah two and a half tribes.

11:14 1 Kings 11 mentions that God raised up ‘adversaries’ to Solomon (see too :23,25). The Hebrew word ‘satan’ used here means simply an adversary. God didn't stir up a supernatural being to be a Satan/adversary to Solomon; He stirred up ordinary men. The original word ‘satan’ has no negative connotation in itself. Mt. 16:22,23 speaks of Peter as a ‘satan’ to Jesus. Note that God is in control of these ‘satans’. He raised them up and put them down; ‘satan’ doesn't refer to anyone in radical opposition to God.

Genubath was in Pharaoh's house among the sons of Pharaoh. <sup>21</sup> When Hadad heard in Egypt that David slept with his fathers, and that Joab the captain of the army was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, Let me depart, that I may go to my own country. <sup>22</sup> Then Pharaoh said to him, But what have you lacked with me, that behold, you seek to go to your own country? He answered, Nothing, however please only let me depart. <sup>23</sup> God raised up an adversary to him, Rezon the son of Eliada, who had fled from his lord Hadadezer king of Zobah. <sup>24</sup> He gathered men to him, and became captain over a troop, when David killed them of Zobah: and they went to Damascus, and lived therein, and reigned in Damascus. <sup>25</sup> He was an adversary to Israel all the days of Solomon, besides the mischief of Hadad: and he abhorred Israel, and reigned over Syria.

Ahijah's Prophecy

Solomon, whose mother's name was Zeruah, a widow, he also opposed the king. <sup>27</sup> This was the reason why he opposed the king: Solomon built Millo, and repaired the breach of the city of David his father. <sup>28</sup> The man Jeroboam was a brave man; and Solomon saw the young man that he was industrious, and he put him in charge of all the labour of the house of Joseph. <sup>29</sup> It happened at that time, when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, that the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite found him in the way; now Ahijah had put on a new garment; and they two were alone in the field. <sup>30</sup> Ahijah laid hold of the new garment that was on him, and tore it in twelve pieces. <sup>31</sup> He said to Jeroboam, Take ten pieces; for thus says Yahweh the God of Israel, 'Behold, I will tear the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon, and will give ten tribes to you' <sup>32</sup> (but he shall have one tribe, for My servant David's sake and for Jerusalem's sake, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel); <sup>33</sup> because they have forsaken

11:28 The final comment upon Jeroboam is that he was not as God's servant David (14:7-9). And yet he was set up with that potential possibility. He was a young "man of valour" as was David (1 Sam. 16:18; 17:58); a ruler over all (as David, 1 Sam. 18:5); taken by God to reign over Israel (:37) as was David (2 Sam. 7:8); would have a house built (:38) as David (2 Sam. 7:11); and compare :40 with 1 Sam. 19:2,10. We are set up with great potentials; our lives are sometimes potentially guided to be similar to those of Biblical characters. But we have to make the right decisions and choices in order to realize that potential.

11:29 The division within Israel was the greatest tragedy to come upon God's people, just as it is today (Is. 7:17). The way the new garment of Ahijah was torn up symbolized the division, and it reflects the utter waste. For an outer cloak was a garment a man could wear for life; to have a new one was something significant. The Lord's coat being unrent at His death may therefore be a reflection of how His death brought about unity amongst His people (Jn. 11:52; 17:21,22). Before Him there, we simply cannot be divided amongst ourselves.

Me, and have worshiped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, Chemosh the god of Moab, and Milcom the god of the children of Ammon. They have not walked in My ways, to do that which is right in My eyes, and to keep My statutes and My ordinances, as David his father did. <sup>34</sup> However I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand; but I will make him prince all the days of his life, for David My servant's sake whom I chose, who kept My commandments and My statutes; <sup>35</sup> but I will take the kingdom out of his son's hand, and will give it to you, even ten tribes. <sup>36</sup> To his son will I give one tribe, that David My servant may have a lamp always before Me in Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen for Me to put My name there. <sup>37</sup> I will take you, and you shall reign according to all that your soul desires, and shall be king over Israel. <sup>38</sup> It shall be, if you will listen to all that I command you, and will walk in My ways, and do that which is right in My eyes, to keep My statutes and My commandments, as David My servant did; that I will be with you, and will build you a sure house, as I built for David, and will give Israel to you. <sup>39</sup> I will for this afflict the seed of David, but not forever'. <sup>40</sup> Solomon sought therefore to kill Jeroboam; but Jeroboam arose, and fled into Egypt, to Shishak king of Egypt, and was in Egypt until the death of Solomon. <sup>41</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, and all that he did, and his wisdom, aren't they written in the book of the acts of Solomon? <sup>42</sup> The time that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel was forty years. <sup>43</sup> Solomon slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David his father: and Rehoboam his son reigned in his place.

The People Complain to Rehoboam

Rehoboam went to Shechem: for all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king. <sup>2</sup> It happened, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard of it (for he was still in Egypt, where he had fled from the presence of king Solomon, and Jeroboam therefore lived in Egypt; <sup>3</sup> and they sent and called him), that Jeroboam and all the assembly of Israel came and spoke to Rehoboam saying, <sup>4</sup> Your father made our yoke grievous: now therefore make the grievous service of your father, and his heavy yoke which he put on us, lighter, and we will serve you. <sup>5</sup> He said to them, Depart for three days, then come back to me. The people departed. <sup>6</sup> King Rehoboam took advice with the old men, who had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, What advice do you give me to return answer to this people? <sup>7</sup> They said, If you will be a servant to this people this day, and will serve them, and answer them, and speak good words to them, then they will be your servants forever.

12:7 We see here the paradox of servant leadership – if Rehoboam had been a servant of his people, then he would have ruled over them. In all ways, Jesus is our pattern. He was a servant of all, and so should we be. His servanthood dominated His conscious-

<sup>8</sup> But he ignored the advice of the old men which they had given him, and took advice with the young men who had grown up with him, who stood before him. <sup>9</sup> He said to them, What advice do you give, that we may return answer to this people, who have spoken to me saying, ‘Make the yoke that your father put on us lighter?’ <sup>10</sup> The young men who had grown up with him spoke to him saying, Thus you shall tell this people who spoke to you saying, ‘Your father made our yoke heavy, but make it lighter to us;’ you shall say to them, ‘My little finger is thicker than my father’s waist. <sup>11</sup> Now whereas my father burdened you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions’. <sup>12</sup> So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king asked, saying, Come to me again the third day. <sup>13</sup> The king answered the people roughly, and forsook the advice of the old men which they had given him, <sup>14</sup> and spoke to them according to the advice of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to your yoke. My father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions. <sup>15</sup> So the king didn’t listen to the people; for it was a thing brought about of Yahweh, that He might establish His word which Yahweh spoke by Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

The Division of the Kingdom

<sup>16</sup> When all Israel saw that the king didn’t listen to them, the people answered the king saying, What portion have we in David? Neither do we have an inheritance in the son of Jesse. To your tents, Israel! Now see to your own house, David. So Israel departed to their tents. <sup>17</sup> But as for the children of Israel who lived in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them. <sup>18</sup> Then king Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was over the men subject to forced labour; and all Israel stoned him to death with stones. King Rehoboam made speed to get himself up to his chariot, to escape to Jerusalem. <sup>19</sup> So Israel rebelled against the house of David to this day. <sup>20</sup> It happened, when all Israel heard that Jeroboam had returned, that they sent and called him to the congregation, and made him king over all Israel: there was none who followed the house of David, but the tribe of Judah only. <sup>21</sup> When Rehoboam had come to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house ness. He said that He came not [so much as] to be ministered unto, but so as to minister, with the end that He gave His life for others (Mk. 10:45). This is what makes Him Lord of all – because He was servant of all.

12:15 There are times when God has influenced men not to respond to the evidently wise words of other men, in order to fulfil His purpose (see too 2 Chron. 25:20).

12:21 The Lord Jesus framed His parable about Satan’s kingdom rising up and being divided against itself (Mk. 3:23-26) in the very language of the Kingdom of Israel being “divided” against itself by Jeroboam’s ‘rising up’ (see too 13:6) – as if Israel’s of Judah and the tribe of Benjamin, a hundred and eighty thousand chosen men who were warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam the son of Solomon. <sup>22</sup> But the word of God came to Shemaiah the man of God saying, <sup>23</sup> Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the rest of the people saying, <sup>24</sup> ‘Thus says Yahweh, You shall not go up, nor fight against your brothers, the children of Israel. Everyone return to his house; for this thing is of Me’. So they listened to the word of Yahweh, and returned and went their way, according to the word of Yahweh. <sup>25</sup> Then Jeroboam built Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and lived in it; and he went out from there, and built Peniel. <sup>26</sup> Jeroboam said in his heart, Now the kingdom will return to the house of David. <sup>27</sup> If this people goes up to offer sacrifices in the house of Yahweh at Jerusalem, then the heart of this people will turn again to their lord, to Rehoboam king of Judah; and they will kill me, and return to Rehoboam king of Judah. <sup>28</sup> Whereupon the king took counsel, and made two calves of gold; and he said to them, It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem. Look and see your gods, Israel, which brought you up out of the land of Egypt! <sup>29</sup> He set the one in Bethel, and the other he put in Dan. <sup>30</sup> This thing became a sin; for the people went to worship before the one, even to Dan. <sup>31</sup> He made houses on high places, and made priests from among all the people, who were not of the sons of Levi. <sup>32</sup> Jeroboam ordained a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like the feast that is in Judah, and he went up to the altar; he did so in Bethel, sacrificing to the calves that he had made: and he placed in Bethel the priests of the high places that he had made. <sup>33</sup> He went up to the altar which he had made in Bethel on the fifteenth day in the eighth month, even in the month which he had devised of his own heart: and he ordained a feast for the children of Israel, and went up to the altar, to burn incense.

A Man of God Condemns

Jeroboam

There came a man of God out of Judah by the word of Yahweh to Beth El: and Jeroboam was stand-

Kingdom was Satan's kingdom. Dividing against our brethren makes us Satan's Kingdom rather than God's.

12:24 So they listened to the word of Yahweh – It requires quite some humility to change our plans when we have already set up a plan of action which involves mobilizing others.

12:26 ‘Said in his heart’ is a common Biblical phrase (e.g. Gen. 17:17; 1 Sam. 27:1; Esther 6:6). The focus of the Bible is upon our spiritual mindedness, rather than upon any cosmic conflict between God and a supposed Satan figure. The arena for spiritual conflict is ultimately within the human heart.

ing by the altar to burn incense. <sup>2</sup> He cried against the altar by the word of Yahweh and said, Altar, altar, thus says Yahweh: ‘Behold, a son shall be born to the house of David, Josiah by name. On you he shall sacrifice the priests of the high places who burn incense on you, and they will burn men’s bones on you’. <sup>3</sup> He gave a sign the same day saying, This is the sign which Yahweh has spoken: Behold, the altar will be split apart, and the ashes that are on it will be poured out. <sup>4</sup> It happened, when the king heard the saying of the man of God which he cried against the altar in Bethel, that Jeroboam put out his hand from the altar, saying, Seize him! His hand, which he put out against him, dried up, so that he could not draw it back again to himself. <sup>5</sup> The altar also was split apart, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given by the word of Yahweh. <sup>6</sup> The king answered the man of God, Now entreat the favour of Yahweh your God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored to me again. The man of God entreated Yahweh, and the king’s hand was restored him again, and became as it was before. <sup>7</sup> The king said to the man of God, Come home with me, and refresh yourself, and I will give you a reward. <sup>8</sup> The man of God said to the king, Even if you gave me half of your house, I would not go in with you, neither would I eat bread nor drink water in this place; <sup>9</sup> for so was it commanded me by the word of Yahweh saying, ‘You shall eat no bread, nor drink water, neither return by the way that you came’. <sup>10</sup> So he went another way, and didn’t return by the way that he came to Bethel.

The Man of God is Disobedient and Punished

<sup>11</sup> Now there lived an old prophet in Bethel; and one of his sons came and told him all the works that the man of God had done that day in Bethel. They also told their father the words which he had spoken to the king. <sup>12</sup> Their father said to them, Which way did he go? Now his sons had seen which way the man of God went, who came from Judah. <sup>13</sup> He said to his sons, Saddle the donkey for me. So they saddled the donkey for him; and he rode on it. <sup>14</sup> He went after the man of God, and found him sitting under an oak. He said to him, Are you the man of God who came from Judah? He said, I am. <sup>15</sup> Then he said to him, Come home with me, and eat bread. <sup>16</sup> He said, I may not return with you, nor go in with you; neither will I eat bread nor drink water with you in this place. <sup>17</sup> For it was said to me by the word of Yahweh, ‘You shall eat no bread nor drink water there, nor turn again to go by the way that you came’. <sup>18</sup> He said to him, I also am a prophet as you are; and an angel spoke to me by the word of Yahweh, saying, ‘Bring him back with you into your house, that he may eat bread and drink water’. He lied to him. <sup>19</sup> So he went back with him, and ate bread in his house, and drank water. <sup>20</sup> It happened, as they sat at the table, that the word of Yahweh came to the prophet who brought him back; <sup>21</sup> and he cried to the man of God who came from Judah, saying, Thus says Yahweh, ‘Because you have been disobedient to the mouth of Yahweh, and have not kept the commandment which Yahweh your God commanded you, <sup>22</sup> but came back, and have eaten bread and drunk water in the place of which He said to you, Eat no bread, and drink no water; your body shall not come to the tomb of your fathers’. <sup>23</sup> It happened, after he had eaten bread, and after he had drunk, that he saddled the donkey for the prophet whom he had brought back. <sup>24</sup> When he had gone, a lion met him by the way, and killed him. His body was cast in the way, and the donkey stood by it. The lion also stood by the body. <sup>25</sup> Behold, men passed by, and saw the body cast in the way, and the lion standing by the body; and they came and told it in the city where the old prophet lived. <sup>26</sup> When the prophet who brought him back from the way heard of it, he said, It is the man of God who was disobedient to the mouth of Yahweh. Therefore Yahweh has delivered him to the lion, which has mauled him and slain him, according to the word of Yahweh, which He spoke to him. <sup>27</sup> He spoke to his sons saying, Saddle the donkey for me. They saddled it. <sup>28</sup> He went and found his body cast in the way, and the donkey and the lion standing by the body. The lion had not eaten the body, nor mauled the donkey. <sup>29</sup> The prophet took up the body of the man of God, and laid it on the donkey, and brought it back. He came to the city of the old prophet to mourn, and to bury him. <sup>30</sup> He laid his body in his own grave; and they mourned over him saying, Alas, my brother! <sup>31</sup> It happened, after he had buried him, that he spoke to his sons saying, When I am dead, then bury me in the tomb in which the man of God is buried. Lay my bones beside his bones. <sup>32</sup> For the saying which he cried by the word of Yahweh against

13:6 The prayer of the man of God caused Jeroboam’s hand to be healed. The prayers of someone else can affect the fortunes of another in a way which would not happen if they just prayed for themselves. What stronger motivation could we have to pray earnestly for each other?

13:18 These two prophets both loved God’s word and showed themselves faithful to Him at a time when God’s people had gone badly astray. But the point of the history is to show that this alone isn’t enough; we must not make assumptions about what God’s word is, nor must we assume that because we love His word therefore our gut feelings and natural desires are thereby justified and we can do as we wish.

13:21 When we read God’s word, we hear His voice from His very mouth. We hear “the mouth of God”. Jeremiah spoke “from the mouth of the Lord” (2 Chron. 36:12). His word brings Him that near to us, if we will perceive it for what it is. Thus “Scripture” is put for “God” (Rom. 9:17; Gal. 3:8) and vice versa (Mt. 19:4,5). When we speak and preach God’s word, we are relaying God’s voice to men, and should make appropriate effort to deport ourselves as the ministers of His word and voice.

the altar in Bethel, and against all the houses of the high places which are in the cities of Samaria, will surely happen. <sup>33</sup> After this thing Jeroboam didn't return from his evil way, but again made priests of the high places from among all the people. Whoever wanted to, he consecrated him, that there might be priests of the high places. <sup>34</sup> This thing became sin to the house of Jeroboam, even to cut it off, and to destroy it from off the surface of the earth.

Abijah's Prophecy against Jeroboam

At that time Abijah the son of Jeroboam fell sick. <sup>2</sup> Jeroboam said to his wife, Please get up and disguise yourself, that you won't be recognized as the wife of Jeroboam. Go to Shiloh. Behold, there is Ahijah the prophet, who spoke concerning me that I should be king over this people. <sup>3</sup> Take with you ten loaves, cakes and a jar of honey, and go to him. He will tell you what will become of the child. <sup>4</sup> Jeroboam's wife did so, and arose, and went to Shiloh, and came to the house of Ahijah. Now Ahijah could not see; for his eyes were set by reason of his age. <sup>5</sup> Yahweh said to Ahijah, The wife of Jeroboam is coming to inquire of you concerning her son; for he is sick. This is what you shall tell her; for it will be, when she comes in, that she will pretend to be another woman. <sup>6</sup> It was so, when Ahijah heard the sound of her feet, as she came in at the door, that he said, Come in, you wife of Jeroboam! Why do you pretend to be another? For I am sent to you with heavy news. <sup>7</sup> Go, tell Jeroboam, 'Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel: Because I exalted you from among the people, and made you prince over My people Israel, <sup>8</sup> and tore the kingdom away from the house of David, and gave it you; and yet you have not been as My servant David who kept My commandments, and who followed Me with all his heart, to do only that which was right in My eyes, <sup>9</sup> but you have done evil above all who were before you, and have gone and made you other gods and molten images, to provoke Me to anger, and have cast Me behind your back: <sup>10</sup> therefore, behold, I will bring evil on the house of Jeroboam, and will cut off from Jeroboam every male, he who is shut up and he who is left free in Israel, and will utterly sweep away the house of Jeroboam, as a man sweeps away dung, until it is all gone. <sup>11</sup> He who dies of Jeroboam in the city shall the dogs eat; and he who dies in the field shall the birds of the sky eat: for Yahweh has spoken it'. <sup>12</sup> Arise therefore, and go to your house. When your feet enter into the city, the child shall die. <sup>13</sup> All Israel shall mourn for him, and bury him; for he only of Jeroboam shall come to the grave, because in him there is found some good thing toward Yahweh, the God of Israel, in the house of Jeroboam. <sup>14</sup> Moreover Yahweh will raise

14:14 Even now – This reflects how God's words are as good as done as soon as they are uttered, so certain are they of fulfilment. This is the way to understand those pas-

Him up a king over Israel, who shall cut off the house of Jeroboam. This is the day! What? Even now. <sup>15</sup> Yahweh will strike Israel, as a reed is shaken in the water; and He will root up Israel out of this good land which He gave to their fathers, and will scatter them beyond the River, because they have made their Asherim, provoking Yahweh to anger. <sup>16</sup> He will give Israel up because of the sins of Jeroboam, which he has sinned, and with which he has made Israel to sin.

The Death of Jeroboam

<sup>17</sup> Jeroboam's wife arose, and departed, and came to Tirzah. As she came to the threshold of the house, the child died. <sup>18</sup> All Israel buried him and mourned for him, according to the word of Yahweh, which He spoke by His servant Ahijah the prophet. <sup>19</sup> The rest of the acts of Jeroboam, how he warred and how he reigned, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. <sup>20</sup> Jeroboam reigned for twenty two years: and he slept with his fathers, and Nadab his son reigned in his place.

Rehoboam's Reign

<sup>21</sup> Rehoboam the son of Solomon reigned in Judah. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which Yahweh had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put His name there: and his mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess. <sup>22</sup> Judah did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, and they provoked Him to jealousy with their sins which they committed, even worse than all that their fathers had done. <sup>23</sup> For they also built themselves high places, and pillars and Asherim on every high hill, and under every green tree; <sup>24</sup> and there were also sodomites in the land: they did according to all the abominations of the nations which Yahweh drove out before the children of Israel. <sup>25</sup> It happened in the fifth year of king Rehoboam, that Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem; <sup>26</sup> and he took away the treasures of the house of Yahweh, and the treasures of the king's house; he took away all: and he took away all the shields of gold which Solomon had made.

sages which appear to teach that both Jesus and ourselves existed physically before our birth. God doesn't completely express Himself in our terms and language (although of course to some degree He does). There is a degree to which God is God, and He expresses Himself as He is. We must bring ourselves to accept His perspective. Indeed, faith is the ability to believe that what God has said will actually happen physically, and that therefore we can live as if we see that future physical event as actually having happened. In other words, faith is about adopting God's time-less perspective.

14:15 As Pharaoh's heart was plagued (Ex. 9:14), so was Israel's (1 Kings 8:38); as Egypt was a reed, so were Israel (1 Kings 14:15). The language of the world is thus applied to God's people because this is how they thought and acted. Apostate Israel are spoken of as the pagan world; and therefore at the day of judgment the rejected of the new Israel will be condemned along with the world (1 Cor. 11:32); assigned their portion "with the unbelievers" (Lk. 12:46).

<sup>27</sup> King Rehoboam made in their place shields of brass, and committed them to the hands of the captains of the guard, who kept the door of the king's house. <sup>28</sup> It was so, that as often as the king went into the house of Yahweh, the guard bore them, and brought them back into the guard room. <sup>29</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Rehoboam, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>30</sup> There was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually. <sup>31</sup> Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David: and his mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess. Abijam his son reigned in his place.

Abijam's Reign

Now in the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam the son of Nebat began Abijam to reign over Judah. <sup>2</sup> He reigned three years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Maacah the daughter of Abishalom. <sup>3</sup> He walked in all the sins of his father, which he had done before him; and his heart was not perfect with Yahweh his God, as the heart of David his father. <sup>4</sup> Nevertheless for David's sake, Yahweh his God gave him a lamp in Jerusalem, to set up his son after him, and to establish Jerusalem; <sup>5</sup> because David had done that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh, and didn't turn aside from anything that He commanded him all the days of his life, except only in the matter of Uriah the Hittite. <sup>6</sup> Now there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of his life. <sup>7</sup> The rest of the acts of Abijam, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? There was war between Abijam and Jeroboam. <sup>8</sup> Abijam slept with his fathers; and they buried him in the city of David: and Asa his son reigned in his place.

Asa's Reign

14:31 His mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess – This is repeated twice (:21). The emphasis is on the fact that Solomon's marriage to a Gentile unbeliever resulted in unbelieving children.

15:11 Asa is recorded as serving God just as well as David, when actually this wasn't the case; but God counted him as righteous. The incomplete faith of men like Baruch was counted as full faith by later inspiration (Jud. 4:8,9 cp. Heb. 11:32). Sometimes the purges of idolatry by the kings is described in undoubtedly exaggerated language – such was God's joy that at least something was being done? Or because, again, He imputed righteousness to those who had some faith in Him?

she had made an abominable image for an Asherah; and Asa cut down her image, and burnt it at the brook Kidron. <sup>14</sup> But the high places were not taken away: nevertheless the heart of Asa was perfect with Yahweh all his days. <sup>15</sup> He brought into the house of Yahweh the things that his father had dedicated, and the things that himself had dedicated, silver, and gold, and vessels. <sup>16</sup> There was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days. <sup>17</sup> Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah and built Ramah, that he might not allow anyone to go out or come in to Asa king of Judah. <sup>18</sup> Then Asa took all the silver and the gold that were left in the treasures of the house of Yahweh, and the treasures of the king's house, and delivered them into the hand of his servants; and king Asa sent them to Ben Hadad son of Tabrimmon son of Hezion, king of Syria, who lived at Damascus, saying, <sup>19</sup> There is a treaty between me and you, between my father and your father. Behold, I have sent to you a present of silver and gold. Go, break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me. <sup>20</sup> Ben Hadad listened to king Asa, and sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel, and struck Ijon, Dan, Abel Beth Maacah and all Chinneroth, with all the land of Naphtali. <sup>21</sup> It happened, when Baasha heard of it, that he left off building Ramah, and lived in Tirzah. <sup>22</sup> Then king Asa made a proclamation to all Judah; none was exempted: and they carried away the stones of Ramah, and its timber, with which Baasha had built; and king Asa built with them Geba of Benjamin and Mizpah. <sup>23</sup> Now the rest of all the acts of Asa, and all his might, and all that he did, and the cities which he built, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? But in the time of his old age he was diseased in his feet. <sup>24</sup> Asa slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father; and Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his place.

15:14 The high places were not taken away: nevertheless the heart of Asa was perfect with Yahweh all his days – God appears prepared to overlook some failures because our conscience is still right with Him. And yet, despite the significance of conscience, we will be judged at the last day according to God's word rather than our own conscience as it were jumping out of us and standing there as the yardstick for our judgment. Asa and Jehoshaphat removed the high places, but in a sense they didn't (1 Kings 15:14 cp. 2 Chron. 14:5; 17:6 cp. 20:33). We read of how the land was purged of Baal, Sodomites etc.; but in a very short time, we read of another purge being necessary. Hezekiah, Manasseh and Josiah all made major purges within a space of 80 years. Jeremiah therefore condemns the Jews who lived at the time of Josiah's reformation for not knowing God in their hearts.

15:15, 18 Asa gathered the gold and silver vessels back into the temple – and then went and used them to make a political treaty. He apparently treated them as God's riches, but then in reality he used them as his own. Many a believer has this very same tendency.

Nadab's Reign

<sup>25</sup> Nadab the son of Jeroboam began to reign over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah; and he reigned over Israel two years. <sup>26</sup> He did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, and walked in the way of his father, and in his sin with which he made Israel to sin. <sup>27</sup> Baasha the son of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against him; and Baasha struck him at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines; for Nadab and all Israel were laying siege to Gibbethon. <sup>28</sup> Even in the third year of Asa king of Judah, Baasha killed him, and reigned in his place. <sup>29</sup> As soon as he was king, he struck all the house of Jeroboam: he didn't leave to Jeroboam any who breathed, until he had destroyed him; according to the saying of Yahweh which He spoke by His servant Ahijah the Shilonite; <sup>30</sup> for the sins of Jeroboam which he sinned, and with which he made Israel to sin, because of his provocation with which he provoked Yahweh the God of Israel, to anger. <sup>31</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Nadab and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>32</sup> There was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days. <sup>33</sup> In the third year of Asa king of Judah, Baasha the son of Ahijah began to reign over all Israel in Tirzah for twenty-four years. <sup>34</sup> He did evil in the sight of Yahweh, and walked in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin with which he made Israel to sin.

The Destruction of Baasha's Family

The word of Yahweh came to Jehu the son of Hanani against Baasha, saying, <sup>2</sup> Because I exalted you out of the dust, and made you prince over My people Israel, and you have walked in the way of Jeroboam, and have made My people Israel to sin, to provoke Me to anger with their sins; <sup>3</sup> behold, I will utterly sweep away Baasha and his house; and I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat. <sup>4</sup> The dogs will eat Baasha's descendants who die in the city; and he who dies of his in the field- the birds of the sky will eat. <sup>5</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Baasha, and what he did, and his might, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>6</sup> Baasha slept with his fathers, and was buried in Tirzah; and Elah his son reigned in his place. <sup>7</sup> Moreover by the prophet Jehu the son of Hanani came the word of Yahweh against Baasha, and against his house, both because of all the evil that he did in the sight of Yahweh, to provoke Him to anger with the work of his hands, in being like the house of Jeroboam, and because he struck him. <sup>8</sup> In the twenty-sixth year of 16:2 We can make others stumble from the path to His salvation. Baasha made other people sin and thus provoke God to anger; his own sin and that of the people are described in identical language, to portray how he influenced them. We have far more spiritual influence upon others than we might think.

Asa king of Judah, Elah the son of Baasha began to reign over Israel in Tirzah for two years. <sup>9</sup> His servant Zimri, captain of half his chariots, conspired against him. Now he was in Tirzah, drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza, who was over the household in Tirzah: <sup>10</sup> and Zimri went in and struck him and killed him, in the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his place. <sup>11</sup> It happened, when he began to reign, as soon as he sat on his throne, that he struck all the house of Baasha: he didn't leave him a single male, neither of his relatives, nor of his friends. <sup>12</sup> Thus Zimri destroyed all the house of Baasha, according to the word of Yahweh, which He spoke against Baasha by Jehu the prophet, <sup>13</sup> for all the sins of Baasha, and the sins of Elah his son, which they sinned, and with which they made Israel to sin, to provoke Yahweh, the God of Israel, to anger with their vanities. <sup>14</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Elah and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>15</sup> In the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, Zimri reigned seven days in Tirzah. Now the people were encamped against Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines. <sup>16</sup> The people who were encamped heard say, Zimri has conspired, and has also struck the king: therefore all Israel made Omri, the captain of the army, king over Israel that day in the camp. <sup>17</sup> Omri went up from Gibbethon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged Tirzah. <sup>18</sup> It happened, when Zimri saw that the city was taken, that he went into the castle of the king's house, and burnt the king's house over himself with fire, and died, <sup>19</sup> for his sins which he sinned in doing that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, in walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin which he did, to make Israel to sin. <sup>20</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Zimri, and his treason that he committed, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>21</sup> Then were the people of Israel divided into two parts: half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath, to make him king; and half followed Omri. <sup>22</sup> But the people who followed Omri prevailed against the people who followed Tibni the son of Ginath: so Tibni died, and Omri reigned. <sup>23</sup> In the thirty-first year of Asa king of Judah, Omri began to reign over Israel for twelve years. He reigned six years in Tirzah. <sup>24</sup> He bought the hill Samaria of Shemer for two talents of silver; and he built on the hill, and called the name of the city which he built Samaria, after the name of Shemer the owner of the hill. <sup>25</sup> Omri did evil in the sight of Yahweh, and dealt wickedly above all who were before him. <sup>26</sup> For he walked in all the way of Jeroboam

16:25 Dealt wickedly above all who were before him – The same is stated about his son, Ahab (:30). The weaknesses of the fathers tend to be repeated by the children, even worse. Sin tends towards a downwards spiral, people become morally worse and worse without the influence of God's word.

the son of Nebat, and in his sins with which he made Israel to sin, to provoke Yahweh, the God of Israel, to anger with their vanities.<sup>27</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Omri which he did, and his might that he showed, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?<sup>28</sup> So Omri slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria; and Ahab his son reigned in his place.

Ahab's Evil Reign

<sup>29</sup> In the thirty-eighth year of Asa king of Judah began Ahab the son of Omri to reign over Israel: and he reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty-two years.<sup>30</sup> Ahab the son of Omri did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh above all that were before him.<sup>31</sup> It happened, as if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that he took as wife Jezebel

the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Sidonians, and went and served Baal, and worshipped him.<sup>32</sup> He reared up an altar for Baal in the house of Baal, which he had built in Samaria.<sup>33</sup> Ahab made the Asherah; and Ahab did yet more to provoke Yahweh, the God of Israel, to anger than all the kings of Israel who were before him.<sup>34</sup> In his days Hiel the Bethelite built Jericho: he laid its foundation with the loss of Abiram his firstborn, and set up its gates with the loss of his youngest son Segub, according to the word of Yahweh, which he spoke by Joshua the son of Nun.

Elijah is Sustained during the Famine

Elijah the Tishbite, who was among the foreigners of Gilead, said to Ahab, As Yahweh, the God of Israel, lives, before whom I stand,

16:31 Ahab's marriage to a Gentile was far worse than all the sins of Jeroboam; the idolatry, the perversion, the making of Israel sin; these were "a light thing" compared to the evil of marriage out of the faith. That perspective on marriage to unbelievers needs to be shared by us today. And further, those who married the daughters of Ahab were led astray by them (2 Kings 8:18,27).

17:1 There shall not be dew – Elijah was motivated in this by the way Gideon asked that there should only be dew upon the ground (or perhaps even upon the whole land of Israel) according to his word of faithful prayer (Jud. 6:37-39). It is quite possible that we, too, may be given certain prompts in life by reason of particular experiences repeating those of a Biblical character. David also prayed just the same things (2 Sam.1:21). When it comes to prayer, there is a positive pattern of influence and example both amongst us as believers and from our absorbing the spirit of Biblical examples.

But according to my word – His faith was based upon being attune to the will of God and His ways of working with His people, to the extent that he knew that because God's word abided in him, he could ask what he wanted and it would be heard, because he asked according to God's will (Jn. 15:7). But when the time comes for rain, we read that "the word of Yahweh [not Elijah's word] came to Elijah... saying... I will send rain on the earth" (18:1). God's word reveals His will, and therefore the more in there shall not be dew nor rain these years, but according to my word.

ing sticks: and he called to her and said, Please get me a little water in a vessel, that I may drink. <sup>11</sup> As she was going to get it, he called to her and said, Please bring me a morsel of bread in your hand. <sup>12</sup> She said, As Yahweh your God lives, I don't have a cake, but a handful of flour in a pitcher, and a little oil in a pitcher. Behold, I am gathering two sticks, that I may go in and bake it for me and my son, that we may eat it, and die. <sup>13</sup> Elijah said to her, Don't be afraid. Go and do as you have said; but make me of it a little cake first, and bring it out to me, and afterward make some for you and for your son. <sup>14</sup> For thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel, 'The jar of meal shall not empty, neither shall the jar of oil fail, until the day that Yahweh sends rain on the earth'. <sup>15</sup> She went and did according to the saying of Elijah: and she, and he, and her house, ate many days. <sup>16</sup> The jar of meal didn't empty, neither did the jar of oil fail, accord-touch we are with His will the more we will be able to confidently ask for things in prayer.

17:6 Ravens – These were unclean animals, and yet God made Elijah depend upon them and the unclean food. He was trying to teach Elijah not to trust in legalistic obedience.

17:9 God had sought to gently teach Elijah his need for others when He told Elijah to go to the widow woman in Zarephath who would “sustain you”; it worked out that Elijah sustained her. And he must have reflected upon this. God's intention was that spiritually, his experience with that woman would sustain him. Our efforts to sustain others lead to our being sustained.

17:12 A handful of flour in a pitcher – The idea is of a handful of meal in a very large container; it's a picture of her poverty, and how she was down to the last little bit of flour in a large container that was once full. And the Lord through Elijah demanded this of her, that He might save her. God can be demanding, but we don't have the same right to be upon others. She had to first feed God's representative, and after feed herself and her son (:13) – rather than give God the leftovers after she had firstly taken what she needed.

ing to the word of Yahweh, which he spoke by Elijah.

Elijah Raises the Widow's Son

<sup>17</sup> It happened after these things, that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, fell sick; and his sickness was so severe, that there was no breath left in him. <sup>18</sup> She said to Elijah, What have I to do with you, you man of God? You have come to me to bring my sin to memory, and to kill my son! <sup>19</sup> He said to her, Give me your son. He took him out of her bosom, and carried him up into the room where he stayed, and laid him on his own bed. <sup>20</sup> He cried to Yahweh and said, Yahweh my God, have You also brought evil on the widow with whom I stay, by killing her son? <sup>21</sup> He stretched himself on the child three times, and cried to Yahweh and said, Yahweh my God, please let this child's soul come into him again. <sup>22</sup> Yahweh listened to the voice of

Elijah; and the soul of the child came into him again, and he revived. <sup>23</sup> Elijah took the child, and brought him down out of the room into the house, and delivered him to his mother; and Elijah said, Behold, your son lives. <sup>24</sup> The woman said to Elijah, Now I know that you are a man of God, and that the word of Yahweh in your mouth is truth.

Elijah and Obadiah

It happened after many days, that the word of Yahweh came to Elijah in the third year, saying, Go, show yourself to Ahab; and I will send rain on the earth. <sup>2</sup> Elijah went to show himself to Ahab. The famine was severe in Samaria. <sup>3</sup> Ahab called Obadiah, who was over the household. (Now Obadiah feared Yahweh greatly: <sup>4</sup> for it was so, when Jezebel cut off the prophets of Yahweh, that Obadiah took one hundred proph-

17:21 Three times – Perhaps the way that the first six prayers of Elijah for rain went unanswered and his need to pray three times for the child to resurrect, were all part of God teaching Elijah that no matter how close we are to Him, we have no right to expect automatic answers to prayer, even if they are according to God's will.

17:22 The woman's son was resurrected because God heard Elijah's faithful prayer; Heb. 11:35 alludes to this incident by saying that through faith – in this case, the faith of Elijah, a third party – women received their dead raised to life. Our prayers really can make a huge difference in the lives of others.

18:4 God tried to correct Elijah's despising of the other prophets of the Lord. Elijah was in a cave, and was also fed bread and water – just as the other prophets were. And yet Elijah didn't see, or didn't want to see, that connection – after having been reminded of this experience of the other prophets, he claims that he alone was a true prophet of Yahweh (:22) – he wrongly believed that all other valid prophets had been slain (19:10). But the record shows how that during Elijah's lifetime there were other prophets of Yahweh active in His service (20:13,35). Yet God still works through the conceited, the spiritually superior, those who despise their brethren. God didn't give up on Elijah because he was like this, and neither should we give up in our relationship with such brethren.

ets, and hid them by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water).

<sup>5</sup> Ahab said to Obadiah, Go through the land, to all the springs of water, and to all the brooks. Perhaps we may find grass and save the horses and mules alive, so that we don't lose all the animals. <sup>6</sup> So they divided the land between them to pass through-out it: Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadiah went another way by himself. <sup>7</sup> As Obadiah was in the way, behold, Elijah met him: and he recognized him and fell on his face and said, Is it you, my lord Elijah?

<sup>9</sup> He said, Wherein have I sinned, that you would deliver your servant into the hand of Ahab, to kill me?

<sup>10</sup> As Yahweh your God lives, there is no nation or kingdom where my lord has not sent to seek you. When they said, 'He is not here', he took an oath of the kingdom and nation, that they didn't find you. <sup>11</sup> Now you say, 'Go, tell your lord, Behold, Elijah is here'. <sup>12</sup> It will happen, as soon as I am gone from you, that the spirit of Yahweh will carry you I don't know where; and so when I come and tell Ahab, and he can't find you, he will kill me. But I, your servant, have feared Yahweh from my youth. <sup>13</sup> Wasn't it told my lord what I did when Jezebel killed the prophets of Yahweh, how I hid one hundred men of Yahweh's prophets with fifty to a cave, and fed them with bread and water? <sup>14</sup> Now you say, 'Go, tell your lord, Behold, Elijah is here!' - and he will kill me. <sup>15</sup> Elijah said, As Yahweh of Armies lives, before whom I stand, I will surely show myself to him today. <sup>16</sup> So Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him; and Ahab went to meet Elijah.

18:8 Go, tell your lord – Elijah didn't have too positive a view of anyone apart from himself – and that included faithful Obadiah. Obadiah repeatedly calls Elijah "my Lord" and describes himself as "your servant"; but Elijah responds to this by calling Obadiah the servant of Ahab – he tells him to go and tell "your Lord", i.e. Ahab. Elijah is insisting that he and Obadiah have nothing in common – Obadiah serves Ahab, and he is nothing to do with Elijah. 'Obadiah' means 'servant of Yahweh' – the name surely reflects very faithful parents to have called him that at the time of the Baal cult. But Elijah insists that Obadiah is really a servant of Ahab, not of Yahweh. The fact Elijah was hidden by God meant that he was forced into fellowship with the prophets of Yahweh whom Obadiah hid in a cave (:4). Elijah was thus intended to see a link between Obadiah and God, and himself and the other prophets of Yahweh. But Elijah's pride didn't let himself make the connection, just as ours often doesn't. For he continued doubtful of Obadiah's sincerity, and still insisted that he alone remained a faithful prophet of Yahweh – even though Obadiah had hidden one hundred other prophets from Jezebel's persecution. Those one hundred prophets were presumably part of the 7,000 who had not bowed the knee to Baal. And maybe they weren't that strong – they are set up as representative of those who will only be saved by grace, not their works (Rom. 11:4-6). But, by implication, Elijah, for all his love of Israel, did not look upon them through the eyes of grace. Elijah insisted that he alone was "left"; yet God says that He has "left" Himself the 7,000 (19:18). The preservation of the people of God, or 'the truth' is done by God Himself; yet the likes of Elijah consider that it is they who 'preserve the truth'. Again, Elijah had to learn that we are all saved by grace. God will leave for and to Himself His people, without requiring the help of man. Elijah struggled with this issue of accepting others and not thinking he was the only one who could do the job right up to the end of his ministry; for he ascends to Heaven clutching his mantle, the sign of his prophetic ministry. It seems he took it with him because he felt that not even Elisha was really fit to do the job and take his place; but perhaps in what were possibly the last seconds of his mortal life, he learnt his lesson and let go of it, allowing it to fall to the earth to let another man take it up.

The Contest on Mount Carmel

<sup>17</sup> It happened that when Ahab saw Elijah, Ahab said to him, Is that you, you troubler of Israel? <sup>18</sup> He answered, I have not troubled Israel; but you, and your father's house, in that you have forsaken the commandments of Yahweh, and you have followed the Baals. <sup>19</sup> Now therefore send, and gather to me all Israel to Mount Carmel, and four hundred and fifty of the prophets of Baal, and four hundred of the prophets of the Asherah who eat at Jezebel's table. <sup>20</sup> So Ahab sent to all the children of Israel, and gathered the prophets together to Mount Carmel. <sup>21</sup> Elijah came near to all the people and said, How long will you waver between the two sides? If Yahweh is God, follow him; but if Baal, then follow him. The people answered him not a word. <sup>22</sup> Then Elijah said to the people, I, even I only, am left a prophet of Yahweh; but Baal's prophets are four hundred and fifty men. <sup>23</sup> Let them therefore give us two bulls; and let them choose one bull for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and lay it on the wood, and put no fire under it; and I will dress the other bull, and lay it on the wood, and put no fire under it. <sup>24</sup> You call on the name of your god, and I will call on the name of Yahweh. The God who answers by fire, let him be God. All

18:15 Elijah assured Obadiah that he was really telling him the truth, because Yahweh of Hosts (Angels) is real, and he stood before those Angels. A sense of Angelic presence and observation will likewise inspire us to transparent lives (1 Cor. 11:10; 1 Tim. 5:21).

18:21 The inertia of indecision is a huge problem. Your own example of making clear choices, doing what is right before God rather than what is wise and smart in human eyes, will reveal a sense of clarity about you which will become inspirational to your brethren. Yours will not be one of those many lives that is paralyzed by constantly postponing the choices, by indecision, like Israel on Carmel, hopping backwards and forwards between two opinions. When Elijah demands that the people chose which lord they will serve – Baal [= 'lord'] or Yahweh, he is really getting to the very crux of spirituality – for truly, there can be no halting between the two opinions of serving Baal and serving Yahweh. Jesus based His words of Lk. 16:13 on those of Elijah here – we can't serve two masters. Although on one hand the Lord Jesus Himself quotes Elijah's 'truth' approvingly, there is evidence galore that at the very same time, Elijah's attitudes were far from Christ-like the people answered, It is well said. <sup>25</sup> Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, Choose one bull for yourselves, and dress it first; for you are many; and call on the name of your god, but put no fire under it. <sup>26</sup> They took the bull which was given to them and they dressed it, and called on the name of Baal from morning even until noon, saying, Baal, hear us! But there was no voice, nor any who answered. They leaped about the altar which was made. <sup>27</sup> It happened at noon, that Elijah mocked them and said, Cry louder; for he is a god! Either he is musing, or he has gone aside to the toilet, or he is on a journey, or perhaps he sleeps and must be awak-

18:26-29 The idea of prophets was well known in the world around ancient Israel. The idea of a prophet was that a person was caught up in some kind of ecstasy, transported into some 'other' world, leaving behind their humanity. The true prophets were different. Their inspiration was about being attuned to the mind of God, they remained very much in the flesh and in the world, and the subjects of their prophecy related to very real, human things – injustice, a guy building an extension on his house without paying the labourers. Not flashing lights and ethereal coasting through space. The pagan prophets (e.g. the prophets of Baal here) worked themselves into a frenzy in order to reach a state of depersonalization and loss of consciousness, in the hope that then they would be filled with Divine consciousness. True prophets were absolutely different; the inspiration process required them to be fully in touch with their own consciousness and personality, and it was exactly through their humanity that the personality of God came through in the inspired words they spoke and wrote. This is why at times the prophets give God's word but then interrupt, as it were, in full consciousness, to plead or even protest (e.g. Am. 7:2). Whereas the false prophets aimed to lose consciousness in order to receive something from God's consciousness, the true prophets received heightened sensitivity and conscience / consciousness in order to receive God's word and to know His mind. The message which the true prophets received wasn't some vague abstraction or personal transport into an unreal world. What they received from God was the sense that this world and its fate are very dear to its creator. It was because the true prophets entered into the mind of God, that this issued in the experience of words. The false prophets tended to experience something happening; whereas the true prophets experienced the thoughts of God, which issued in words. Their experience had form, but no content. The Pentecostal 'Holy Spirit' experiences appear to be the form of ecstasy claimed by the false prophets. Receipt of God's true revelation involved dialogue with God, even disagreement with Him for a moment, response, pleading, speech and counterspeech. It wasn't a case of merely passively hearing a voice and writing it down.

18:27 To the toilet – This kind of mockery and crudeness is surely not how the Father and Son would have us act. We aren't to mock false beliefs in this way. Yet Elijah did this whilst at the same time deeply believing the fire would come down, and bringing it down by his faith. Elijah's mocking attitude is also shown by the way in which he demands they find him four barrels of water – on the top of a mountain, after a major three and a half year drought (:33). Presumably they took the water from the sea at the bottom of the mountain – and thus Elijah's sacrifice would be offered with salt. He was strictly obedient to the requirements for sacrifice – yet amidst an abusive, ened. <sup>28</sup> They cried aloud, and cut themselves in their way with knives and lances, until the blood gushed out on them. <sup>29</sup> It was so, when mid-day was past, that they prophesied until the time of the offering of the offering; but there was neither voice, nor any to answer, nor any who responded. <sup>30</sup> Elijah said to all the people, Come near to me; and all the people came near to him. He repaired the altar of Yahweh that was thrown down. <sup>31</sup> Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the word of Yahweh came, saying, Israel shall be your name. <sup>32</sup> With the stones he built an altar in the name of Yahweh. He made a trench around the altar, large enough to contain two measures of seed. <sup>33</sup> He put the wood in order, and cut the bull in pieces, and laid it on the wood. He said, Fill four jars with water, and pour it on the burnt offering and on the wood. <sup>34</sup> He said, Do it a second time; and they did it the second time. He said, Do it a third time; and they did it the third time. <sup>35</sup> The water ran around the altar; and he also filled the trench with water. <sup>36</sup> It happened at the time of the offering of the offering, that Elijah the prophet came near and said, Yahweh, the God of Abraham, Isaac and of Israel, let it be known this day that You are God in Israel and that I am Your servant, and that I have done all these things at Your word. <sup>37</sup> Answer me, Yahweh, answer me, that this people may know that You, Yahweh, are God, and that You have turned their heart back again. <sup>38</sup> Then self-justifying mindset. The very possession of truth can take our attention away from our need for self-examination and right attitudes towards others. In this lies one of our most subtle temptations.

18:36 Elijah “prayed in his prayer” (James 5:17 Gk.) – there was a deep prayer going on within his prayer, words and feelings within words – the prayer of the very inner being. This was how much he sought their repentance. The James passage sets Elijah up as a pattern for our prayer for our wayward brethren. He really is our pattern here. He clearly saw prayer as requiring much effort; and the way he prays at the time of the evening sacrifice on Horeb suggests that he saw prayer as a sacrifice.

18:37 Answer me – Elijah appears utterly certain that God will answer by a bolt of fire, without having asked Him first. He asks God to “answer me” without specifically requesting for fire to be sent down; he brings the situation before God and asks Him to ‘answer’ that situation. Prayer is often answered in ways we do not perceive, or by an answer which will only much later be revealed. Elijah’s prayer here will only be finally answered when Elijah comes in the last days (Mal. 4:6).

You have turned their heart back – God appeals for people to respond by pointing out that in prospect, He has already forgiven them. Thus Elijah wanted Israel to know that God had already in prospect turned their hearts back to Him (see too Is. 44:22). We preach the cross of Christ, and that through that forgiveness has been enabled for all men; but they need to respond by repentance in order to access it. God has potentially enabled their conversion (see Jn. 1:7). Hence the tragedy of human lack of response; so much has been enabled, the world has been reconciled, but all this is in vain if they will not respond.

the fire of Yahweh fell and consumed the burnt offering and the wood, the stones and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench. <sup>39</sup> When all the people saw it, they fell on their faces. They said, Yahweh, he is God! Yahweh, He is God! <sup>40</sup> Elijah said to them, Seize the prophets of Baal! Don't let one of them escape! They seized them. Elijah brought them down to the brook Kishon, and killed them there.

Elijah Prays for Rain

<sup>41</sup> Elijah said to Ahab, Get up, eat and drink; for there is the sound of abundance of rain. <sup>42</sup> So Ahab went up to eat and to drink. Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; and he bowed himself down on the earth, and put his face between his knees. <sup>43</sup> He said to his servant, Go up now, look toward the sea. He went up and looked, and said, There is nothing. He said seven times, Go again. <sup>44</sup> It happened at the seventh time that he said, Behold, a small cloud, like a man's hand, is rising out of the sea. He said, Go up, tell Ahab, 'Get ready and go down, so that the rain doesn't stop you'. <sup>45</sup> It happened in a little while, that the sky grew black with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain. Ahab rode, and went to Jezreel. <sup>46</sup> The hand of Yahweh was on Elijah; and he tucked his cloak into his belt and ran before Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel.

Elijah Meets God at Horeb

Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and how he had killed all the prophets with the sword. <sup>2</sup> Then Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah saying, So let the gods do to me, and more also, if I don't make your life as the life of one of them by tomorrow about this time! <sup>3</sup> When he saw that, he arose, and went for his life, and came to Beersheba, which belongs to Judah, and left his servant there. <sup>4</sup> But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a juniper tree: and he requested for himself that he might die, and said, It is enough. Now, O Yahweh, take away my life; for I am not better than my fathers. <sup>5</sup> He lay down and slept under a juniper tree; and behold, an angel touched him, and said to him, Arise and eat! <sup>6</sup> He looked, and behold, there was at his head a cake baked on the coals, and a jar of water. He ate and drank, and lay down again. <sup>7</sup> The angel of Yahweh came again the second time, and touched him and said, Arise and eat, because the journey is too great for you. <sup>8</sup> He arose and ate and drank, and went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights to Horeb the Mount of God. <sup>9</sup> He came there to a cave, and lodged there; and behold, the word of Yahweh came to him, and he said to him, What are you doing here, Elijah? <sup>10</sup> He said, I have been very zealous for Yahweh, the God of Armies; for the children of Israel have forsaken Your covenant, thrown down Your altars and slain Your prophets with the sword. I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away. <sup>11</sup> He said, Go out, and stand on the mountain before Yahweh. Behold, Yahweh passed by, and a great and strong wind tore the mountains, and broke in pieces the rocks before Yahweh; but Yahweh was not in the wind. After the wind an earthquake; but Yahweh was not in the earthquake. <sup>12</sup> After the earthquake a fire passed; but Yahweh was not in the fire: and after the fire a still small voice. <sup>13</sup> It was so, when Elijah heard it, that he wrapped his face in his mantle, and went out, and stood in the entrance of the cave. Behold, a voice came to him, and said, Why are you still

18:40-44 Believe that you really will receive; avoid the temptation of asking for things as a child asks for birthday presents, with the vague hope that something might turn up. Remember how Elijah heard, by faith, the noise of rain even before he had formally prayed for it, and when there was no hint of rain.

19:10 “I, even I only am left” was Elijah’s cry to God as he realized the depth of Israel’s apostasy. But this was interpreted by God as a prayer for God to condemn Israel (Rom. 11:2,3). God read what was in Elijah’s heart, and counted this as his prayer.

19:11, 13 The Angel tells Elijah to actually go and stand before the Lord and learn what it really meant; so he had to literally stand before the Angel as He passed by. Yet Elijah hid his face; he was no longer so happy to be before the Lord once he realized the humility and breaking in pieces of a proud man’s spirit that it really implies. So (:13) he wrapped his face [in Hebrew, the words for ‘face’ and ‘before’ are the same] in his mantle and “stood” in the cave mouth before the Angel. Too ashamed to really stand before the Lord, Elijah therefore wrapped his face. Earlier, he had been so keen to use this phrase of himself (17:1; 18:15); he had prided himself on the fact that he stood before the Lord. But now he hid his face, an idiom often used by God for withholding fellowship. The fact we too are God’s covenant people can initially be a source of pride to us as we do our theological gladiatorship with others. But the implications are so far deeper; and through Angelic work in our lives, we too are brought to see this. The word for “mantle” is translated “glory” in Zech. 11:3; Elijah wrapped his presence in his own glory, rather than face up to the implications of God’s glory. A desire for our own glory prevents us perceiving God’s glory. Only at the very end does Elijah cast away his mantle (2 Kings 2:13), his human strength, allowing himself to merge with God’s glory. He should have cast away his mantle earlier, when he stood before the still small voice on Horeb. The question of :13 “Why are you still here, Elijah?” may imply that Elijah should have allowed himself to be carried away by the cherubim, he should have surrendered himself to the progress of God’s glory, rather than so obsessively insist upon his own personal rightness and the wrongness of others. And this was why God’s ultimate response to Elijah’s attitude on Horeb was to dismiss him from his prophetic ministry and instate Elisha as his successor (:16). Elijah seems to have finally learnt his lesson, for he calls Elisha to the ministry by ‘passing by’ Elisha as in a theophany, taking off his mantle and throwing it upon Elisha (:19). He realized that he had hidden behind that mantle, using it to resist participating in the selfless association with God’s glory [rather than his own] to which he was called. But he got there in the end; hence the enormous significance of Elijah giving up his mantle when he finally ascends to Heaven in the cherubim chariot (2 Kings 2:13).

here, Elijah? <sup>14</sup> He said, I have been very zealous for Yahweh, the God of Armies; for the children of Israel have forsaken Your covenant, thrown down your altars and slain Your prophets with the sword. I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away. <sup>15</sup> Yahweh said to him, Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus. When you arrive, you shall anoint Hazael to be king over Syria.

Elisha is Commissioned

<sup>16</sup> You shall anoint Jehu the son of Nimshi to be king over Israel; and you shall anoint Elisha the son of Shaphat of Abel Meholah to be prophet in your place. <sup>17</sup> It shall happen, that he who escapes from the sword of Hazael, Jehu will kill; and he who escapes from the sword of Jehu, Elisha will kill. <sup>18</sup> Yet will I leave seven thousand in Israel, all the knees which have not bowed to Baal, and every mouth which has not kissed him. <sup>19</sup> So he departed to there, and found Elisha the son of Shaphat, who was ploughing, with twelve yoke of oxen before him, and he with the twelfth: and Elijah passed over to him, and threw his mantle on him. <sup>20</sup> He left the oxen, and ran after Elijah, and said, Let me please kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow you. He said to him, Go back again; for what have I done to you? <sup>21</sup> He returned from following him, and took the yoke of oxen, killed them and boiled their flesh with the instruments of the oxen, and gave to the people and they ate. Then he arose, and went after Elijah, and served him.

Conflict between Ahab and Ben Hadad

Ben Hadad the king of Syria gathered all his army together; and there were thirty-two kings with him, and horses and chariots: and he went up and besieged Samaria, and fought against it. <sup>2</sup> He sent messengers to Ahab king of Israel into the city, and said to him, Thus says Ben

19:16 The call of God comes to us right in the midst of ordinary, mundane life. Christ called men in just the same way. This was what was and is so unusual and startling about the ministry of the Lord. His love sought men out, He didn't wait for them to come to Him; and He does the same today in calling us to live as Him, often unexpectedly and in the midst of life's repetitive course. Other examples in 2 Kings 9:1-13,18; Jud. 6:1; 1 Sam. 9:10; 11:5; Am. 7:14.

19:18 There is such a thing as feeling lonely when we needn't. Elijah is an example of this; he felt that he was "left alone" faithful in Israel – even though there were another 7,000 who had not bowed the knee to Baal (Rom. 11:3). The Hebrew could mean that God reserved 7,000 of Elijah's brothers and sisters who potentially would not bow the knee to Baal. Yet Elijah didn't want to see the potential of his brethren. He set himself in a league above them, like the Psalmist, saying in his haste that all men are liars (Ps. 116:11).

19:20 Elisha bade farewell to his family before following Elijah, and Elijah allowed him to do this – but the Lord Jesus was more demanding (Lk. 9:59-61).

Hadad, <sup>3</sup> ‘Your silver and your gold is mine. Your wives also and your children, even the best, are mine’.

<sup>4</sup> The king of Israel answered, It is according to your saying, my lord, O king. I am yours, and all that I have.

<sup>5</sup> The messengers came again and said, Ben Hadad says, ‘I sent indeed to you, saying, You shall deliver me your silver, and your gold, and your wives, and your children; <sup>6</sup> but I will send my servants to you tomorrow about this time, and they shall search your house, and the houses of your servants; and it shall be, that whatever is pleasant in your eyes, they shall put it in their hand, and take it away’.

<sup>7</sup> Then the king of Israel called all the elders of the land and said, Please notice how this man seeks mischief; for he sent to me for my wives, my children, my silver, my gold; and I didn’t deny him. <sup>8</sup> All the elders and all the people said to him, Don’t listen, neither consent.

<sup>9</sup> Therefore he said to the messengers of Ben Hadad, Tell my lord the king, ‘All that you sent for to your servant at the first I will do; but this thing I cannot do’. The messengers departed, and delivered the message.

<sup>10</sup> Ben Hadad sent to him and said, The gods do so to me, and more also, if the dust of Samaria shall suffice for handfuls for all the people who follow me. <sup>11</sup> The king of Israel answered, Tell him, ‘Don’t let him who puts on his armour brag like he who takes it off’.

<sup>12</sup> It happened, when Ben Hadad heard this message, as he was drinking, he and the kings, in the pavilions, that he said to his servants,

Prepare to attack! They prepared to attack the city. <sup>13</sup> Behold, a prophet came near to Ahab king of Israel and said, Thus says Yahweh, ‘Have you seen all this great multitude? Behold, I will deliver it into your hand this day; and you shall know that I am Yahweh’.

Then he said, Who shall begin the battle? He answered, You. <sup>15</sup> Then he mustered the young men of the princes of the provinces, and they were two hundred and thirty-two.

After them, he mustered all the people, even all the children of Israel, being seven thousand. <sup>16</sup> They went out at noon. But Ben Hadad was drinking himself drunk in the pavilions, he and the kings, the thirty-two kings who helped him.

<sup>18</sup> He said, If they have come out for peace, take them alive; or if they have come out for war, take them alive.

Ben Hadad the king of Syria escaped on a horse with horsemen. <sup>21</sup> The king of Israel went out, and struck the horses and chariots, and killed the Syrians with a great slaughter.

and mark, and see what you do; for at the return of the year the king of Syria will come up against you. <sup>23</sup> The servants of the king of Syria said to him, Their god is a god of the hills; therefore they were stronger than we. But let us fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they. <sup>24</sup> Do this thing: take the kings away, every man out of his place, and put captains in their place. <sup>25</sup> Muster an army, like the army that you have lost, horse for horse, and chariot for chariot. We will fight against them in the plain, and surely we will be stronger than them. He listened to their voice, and did so. <sup>26</sup> It happened at the return of the year, that Ben Hadad mustered the Syrians, and went up to Aphek, to fight against Israel. <sup>27</sup> The children of Israel were mustered and were provisioned, and went against them. The children of Israel encamped before them like two little flocks of young goats; but the Syrians filled the country. <sup>28</sup> A man of God came near and spoke to the king of Israel and said, Thus says Yahweh, 'Because the Syrians have said, Yahweh is a god of the hills, but He is not a god of the valleys; therefore I will deliver all this great multitude into your hand, and you shall know that I am Yahweh'. <sup>29</sup> They encamped opposite one another seven days. So it was, that in the seventh day the battle was joined; and the children of Israel killed one hundred thousand footmen of the Syrians in one day. <sup>30</sup> But the rest fled to Aphek, into the city; and the wall fell on twenty-seven thousand men who were left. Ben Hadad fled, and came into the city, into an inner room. <sup>31</sup> His servants said to him, See now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings. Please let us put sackcloth on our bodies, and ropes on our heads, and go out to the king of Israel. Maybe he will save your life. <sup>32</sup> So they put sackcloth on their bodies and ropes on their heads, and came to the king of Israel, and said, Your servant Ben Hadad says, 'Please let me live'. He said, Is he still alive? He is my brother. <sup>33</sup> Now the men observed diligently, and hurried to take this phrase; and they said, Your brother Ben Hadad. Then he said, Go, bring him. Then Ben Hadad came out to him; and he caused him to come up into the chariot. <sup>34</sup> Ben Hadad said to him, The cities which my father took from your father I will restore. You shall make streets for yourself in Damascus, as my father made in Samaria. I, said Ahab, will let you go with this covenant. So he made a covenant with him, and let him go.

A Lesson in the Need for Obedience

<sup>35</sup> A certain man of the sons of the prophets said to his fellow by the word of Yahweh, Please strike me! The man refused to strike him. <sup>36</sup> Then he said to him, Because you have not obeyed the voice of Yahweh, behold, as soon as you are departed from me, a lion shall kill you. As soon as he was departed from him, a lion found him, and killed him. <sup>37</sup> Then he found another man, and said, Please strike me. The man struck him, smiting and wounding him. <sup>38</sup> So the prophet departed, and waited for the king by the way, and disguised himself with his headband over his eyes. <sup>39</sup> As the king passed by, he cried to the king; and he said, Your servant went out into the midst of the battle; and behold, a man turned aside, and brought a man to me and said, ‘Guard this man! If by any means he be missing, then your life shall be for his life, or else you shall pay a talent of silver’. <sup>40</sup> As your servant was busy here and there, he was gone. The king of Israel said to him, So your judgment shall be; you yourself have decided it. <sup>41</sup> He hurried, and took the headband away from his eyes; and the king of Israel recognized that he was of the prophets. <sup>42</sup> He said to him, Thus says Yahweh, ‘Because you have let go out of your hand the man whom I had devoted to destruction, therefore your life shall go for his life, and your people for his people’. <sup>43</sup> The king of Israel went to his house sullen and angry, and came to Samaria.

20:28 Sometimes God gives victory to unspiritual people because He wishes to justify Himself or teach others a lesson through that victory. The fact God uses us doesn't necessarily mean we are therefore acceptable with Him.

Ahab and Naboth's Vineyard

It happened after these things, that Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard, which was in Jezreel, right next to the palace of Ahab king of Samaria. <sup>2</sup> Ahab spoke to Naboth saying, Give me your vineyard, that I may have it for a garden of herbs, because it is near to my house; and I will give you for it a better vineyard than it. Or, if it seems good to you, I will give you its worth in money. <sup>3</sup> Naboth said to Ahab, May Yahweh forbid me, that I should give the inheritance of my fathers to you! <sup>4</sup> Ahab came into his house sullen and angry because of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him; for he had said, I will not give you the inheritance of my fathers. He laid himself down on his bed, and turned away his face, and would eat no bread. <sup>5</sup> But Jezebel his wife came to him and said to him, Why is your spirit so sad, that you eat no bread? <sup>6</sup> He said to her, Because I spoke to Naboth the Jezreelite and said to him, ‘Give me your vineyard for money; or else, if it pleases you, I will give you another vineyard for it’. He answered, ‘I will not give you my vineyard’. <sup>7</sup> Jezebel his wife said to him, Do you really now govern the kingdom of Israel? Arise, and eat bread, and let your heart be merry. I will give you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite. <sup>8</sup> So she wrote letters in Ahab's name, and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters to the elders and to the nobles who were in his city, who lived with Naboth. <sup>9</sup> She wrote in the letters saying, Proclaim a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people. <sup>10</sup> Set two men, base fellows, before him, and let them testify against him saying, 'You cursed God and the king!' Then carry him out, and stone him to death. <sup>11</sup> The men of his city, even the elders and the nobles who lived in his city, did as Jezebel had sent to them, according as it was written in the letters which she had sent to them. <sup>12</sup> They proclaimed a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people. <sup>13</sup> The two men, the base fellows, came in and sat before him. The base fellows testified against him, even against Naboth, in the presence of the people saying, Naboth cursed God and the king! Then they carried him out of the city, and stoned him to death with stones. <sup>14</sup> Then they sent to Jezebel saying, Naboth has been stoned, and is dead. <sup>15</sup> It happened, when Jezebel heard that Naboth was stoned and was dead, that Jezebel said to Ahab, Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give you for money; for Naboth is not alive, but dead. <sup>16</sup> It happened, when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, that Ahab rose up to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it.

20:40 So your judgment shall be; you yourself have decided it – Right now, men are justified by their words before the court of Heaven – for ‘justify’ means to pronounce righteous, and this pronouncement / justification is therefore given even now.

21:4 Sullen and angry – As in 20:43. Living with a bad conscience before God, endlessly seeking our own pleasure, doesn’t bring happiness but rather depression and anger (1 Tim. 6:9,10).

Ahab's Condemnation and Repentance

<sup>17</sup> The word of Yahweh came to Elijah the Tishbite saying, <sup>18</sup> Arise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, who dwells in Samaria. Behold, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, where he has gone down to take possession of it. <sup>19</sup> You shall speak to him saying, 'Thus says Yahweh, Have you killed and also taken possession?'. You shall speak to him saying, 'Thus says Yahweh, In the place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth, dogs will lick your blood, even yours'. <sup>20</sup> Ahab said to Elijah, Have you found me, my enemy? He answered, I have found you, because you have sold yourself to do evil in the sight of Yahweh. <sup>21</sup> Behold, I will bring evil on you, and will utterly sweep you away and will cut off from Ahab every male, and him who is shut up and him who is left at large in Israel. <sup>22</sup> I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat,

21:21 I will bring evil on you – We expect this to be prefaced by a “Thus says Yahweh” – but Elijah was so close to God he assumed he was speaking directly from Him. And yet Elijah doesn't repeat what God had told him to say in :19. Was he too familiar with God? Assuming he knew God's will and words? But Elijah improved – in 2 Kings 1:6 he says that what he says is the word of Yahweh, and he repeats verbatim what he was told to say. We too know God's word. We know the Bible text well. But this can lead to a wrong assumption that we speak for God; that we must be right in all our attitudes and positions we adopt on issues.

and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah for the provocation with which you have provoked Me to anger, and have made Israel to sin. <sup>23</sup> Yahweh also spoke of Jezebel saying, The dogs shall eat Jezebel by the rampart of Jezreel. <sup>24</sup> The dogs will eat him who dies of Ahab in the city; and the birds of the sky will eat him who dies in the field. <sup>25</sup> But there was none like Ahab, who sold himself to do that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, whom Jezebel his wife stirred up. <sup>26</sup> He did very abominably in following idols, according to all that the Amorites did, whom Yahweh cast out before the children of Israel. <sup>27</sup> It happened, when Ahab heard those words, that he tore his clothes, and put sackcloth on his flesh, and fasted, and lay in sackcloth, and went softly. <sup>28</sup> The word of Yahweh came to Elijah the Tishbite saying, <sup>29</sup> See how Ahab humbles himself before Me? Because he humbles himself before Me, I will not bring the evil in his days; but in his son's days will I bring the evil on his family.

Ahab's Alliance with Jehoshaphat

They continued three years without war between Syria and Israel. <sup>2</sup> It happened in the third year, that Jehoshaphat the king of Judah came down to the king of Israel. <sup>3</sup> The king of Israel said to his servants, You know that Ramoth Gilead is ours, and we are sitting still, and don't take it out of the hand of the king of Syria? <sup>4</sup> He said to Jehoshaphat, Will you go with me to battle to Ramoth Gilead? Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses. <sup>5</sup> Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, Please inquire first for the word of Yahweh. <sup>6</sup> Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, about four hundred men, and said to them, Shall I go against Ramoth Gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? They said, Go up; for the Lord will deliver it into the hand of the king. <sup>7</sup> But Jehoshaphat said, Isn't there here a prophet of Yahweh, that we may inquire of Him? <sup>8</sup> The 21:29 Before Me – Yet Elijah also lived a life “before Yahweh” (17:1); it's as if God was trying to get Elijah to see that he wasn't the only person in God's presence. Spiritual elitism is so wrong, and God works hard to bring people out of it.

22:15 Go up and prosper – Like the prophet Nathan in 2 Sam. 7:3, Micaiah initially said what he knew his audience wanted to hear. We who know God's word are tempted likewise; human nature has a strong ability to sense what our audience wants to hear, and to say it. This is where speaking according to God's word is at times counter-instinctive.

22:20 God deceived prophets to speak things in His Name which were actually false (see too Ez. 14:9). He chose Israel's delusions by making their idols answer them (Is. 66:3,4). Jeremiah feared God had deceived him (Jer. 20:7) – showing he knew such a thing was possible. God is constantly pushing people up an upward spiral of spirituality, or further down a downward spiral of unspirituality whereby He makes those who don't love His truth to believe a lie (2 Thess. 2:10,11).

king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man by whom we may inquire of Yahweh, Micaiah the son of Imlah; but I hate him; for he does not prophesy good concerning me, but evil. Jehoshaphat said, Don't let the king say so. <sup>9</sup> Then the king of Israel called an officer, and said, Quickly get Micaiah the son of Imlah. <sup>10</sup> Now the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah were sitting each on his throne, arrayed in their robes, in an open place at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets were prophesying before them. <sup>11</sup> Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made him horns of iron and said, Thus says Yahweh, 'With these you shall push the Syrians, until they are consumed'. <sup>12</sup> All the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth Gilead, and prosper; for Yahweh will deliver it into the hand of the king. <sup>13</sup> The messenger who went to call Micaiah spoke to him saying, See now, the prophets declare good to the king with one mouth. Please let your word be like the word of one of them, and speak good. <sup>14</sup> Micaiah said, As Yahweh lives, what Yahweh says to me, that I will speak. <sup>15</sup> When he had come to the king, the king said to him, Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth Gilead to battle, or shall we forbear? He answered him, Go up and prosper; and Yahweh will deliver it into the hand of the king. <sup>16</sup> The king said to him, How many times do I have to adjure you that you speak to me nothing but the truth in the name of Yahweh? <sup>17</sup> He said, I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd. Yahweh said, 'These have no master. Let them each return to his house in peace'. <sup>18</sup> The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Didn't I tell you that he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil?

A Vision of God's Throne Room

22:22 Here the Angels present their various plans of how to slay Ahab. God says to the one whose plan He accepts that he must go out and "prevail" or 'struggle' to operationalize a command from God which they know is His will to perform. And we have to do likewise, not least in the preaching of the Gospel, both obeying and prevailing. We shouldn't think that God is unaware of our situations on earth. The Angels discuss their plans for us in the court of Heaven, coming up with various possibilities of how to act in our lives, discussing them with God. We will take over the roles of the Angels in administering God's future Kingdom (Lk. 20:35,36; Heb. 2:5). Their knowledge and power isn't total; they still have to go through a process of working out how to operationalize God's will, coming up with differing suggestions.

mouth of all his prophets'. He said, 'You will entice him, and will also prevail. Go out and do so'. <sup>23</sup> Now therefore, behold, Yahweh has put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these your prophets; and Yahweh has spoken evil concerning you. <sup>24</sup> Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near and struck Micaiah on the cheek, and said, Which way did the Spirit of Yahweh go from me to speak to you? <sup>25</sup> Micaiah said, Behold, you will see on that day when you go into an inner room to hide yourself. <sup>26</sup> The king of Israel said, Take Micaiah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son. <sup>27</sup> Say, 'Thus says the king, Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I come in peace'. <sup>28</sup> Micaiah said, If you return at all in peace, Yahweh has not spoken by me. He said, Listen, all you people!

The Battle at Ramoth Gilead

<sup>29</sup> So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead. <sup>30</sup> The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself, and go into the battle; but you put on your robes. The king of Israel disguised himself, and went into the battle. <sup>31</sup> Now the king of Syria had commanded the thirty-two captains of his chariots saying, Fight neither with small nor great, except only with the king of Israel. <sup>32</sup> It happened, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, Surely that is the king of Israel! And they turned aside to fight against him. Jehoshaphat cried out. <sup>33</sup> It happened, when the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him. <sup>34</sup> A certain man drew his bow at random, and struck the king of Israel between the joints of the armour. Therefore he said to the driver of his chariot, Turn your hand, and carry me out of the battle; for I am severely wounded. <sup>35</sup> The battle increased that day. The king was propped up in his chariot facing the Syrians, and died at evening. The blood ran out of the wound into the bottom of the chariot. <sup>36</sup> A cry went throughout the army about the going down of the sun saying, Every man to his city, and every man to his country! <sup>37</sup> So the king died, and was brought to Samaria; and they buried the king in Samaria. <sup>38</sup> They washed the chariot by the pool of Samaria; and the dogs licked up his blood where the prostitutes washed themselves; according to the word of Yahweh which He spoke. <sup>39</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Ahab, and all that he did, and the ivory house which he built, and all the cities that he built, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>40</sup> So Ahab slept with his

22:32 Jehoshaphat nearly lost his life because of his alliance with Ahab. Even though Ahab was nominally one of God's people, he had no respect for Yahweh's word (:8). We have to choose our friendships and associations carefully even amongst those who are numbered amongst the body of believers.

Jehoshaphat's Reign

<sup>41</sup> Jehoshaphat the son of Asa began to reign over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel. <sup>42</sup> Jehoshaphat was thirty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi. <sup>43</sup> He walked in all the way of Asa his father; he didn't turn aside from it, doing that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh: however the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places. <sup>44</sup> Jehoshaphat made peace with the king of Israel. <sup>45</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, and his might that he showed, and how he warred, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>46</sup> The remainder of the sodomites, from the days of his father Asa, he put away out of the land. <sup>47</sup> There was no king in Edom: a deputy was king. <sup>48</sup> Jehoshaphat made ships of Tarshish to go to Ophir for gold: but they didn't go; for the ships were broken at Ezion Geber. <sup>49</sup> Then Ahaziah the son of Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, Let my servants go with your servants in the ships. But Jehoshaphat would not. <sup>50</sup> Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father; Jehoram his son reigned in his place. <sup>51</sup> Ahaziah the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria in the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and he reigned two years over Israel. <sup>52</sup> He did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, and walked in the way of his father and in the way of his mother, and in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, in which he made Israel to sin. <sup>53</sup> He served Baal and worshipped him, and provoked to anger Yahweh, the God of Israel, according to all that his father had done.

22:49 Jehoshaphat had learnt the lesson about not working together with the family of Ahab (:32). Sometimes God repeats situations in our lives so that we learn the lesson and have practice in it; this is why it's clear that our life situations tend to repeat, under God's providential hand. See on 2 Kings 3:7.

THE SECOND BOOK OF KINGS

Ahaziah Condemned by God

Moab rebelled against Israel after the death of Ahab. <sup>2</sup> Ahaziah fell down through the lattice in his upper room that was in Samaria, and was sick. So he sent messengers and said to them, Go, inquire of Baal Zebub, the god of Ekron, whether I will recover of this sickness. <sup>3</sup> But the angel of Yahweh said to Elijah the Tishbite, Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria and tell them, 'Is it because there is no God in Israel that you go to inquire of Baal Zebub, the god of Ekron?' <sup>4</sup> Now therefore thus says Yahweh, You shall not come down from the bed where you have gone up, but shall surely die'. Elijah departed. <sup>5</sup> The messengers returned to him, and he said to them, Why is it that you have returned? <sup>6</sup> They said to him, A man came up to meet us and said to us, 'Go, return to the king who sent you, and tell him, Thus says Yahweh, Is it because there is no God in Israel that you send to inquire of Baal Zebub, the god of Ekron? Therefore you shall not come down from the bed where you have gone up, but shall surely die'. <sup>7</sup> He said to them, What kind of man was he who came up to meet you, and told you these words? <sup>8</sup> They answered him, He was a hairy man, and wearing a leather belt around his waist. He said, It is Elijah the Tishbite.

Elijah Calls Fire Down from Heaven

<sup>9</sup> Then the king sent a captain of fifty with his fifty to him. He went up to him; and behold, he was sit-

1:2 This clearly tells us that Baal Zebub, or Beelzebub, was a false god of the Philistines. When the Jews of the first century accused Jesus of being in league with this god, Jesus did not say, 'Now look, 2 Kings 1:2 says Beelzebub was a false god, so your accusation cannot be true'. Rather He spoke as if Beelzebub existed, because He was interested in getting His message through to His audience. So in the same way Jesus talked about casting out demons – He did not keep saying, 'actually, they do not exist', He just preached the Gospel in the language of the day.

1:9, 10 When Elijah is ordered by the captain of 50 to "come down", Elijah responds by saying "let fire come down". Elijah sees himself as the fire sent from God; he associates himself directly with God and His judgments. He hadn't learnt the lesson that God wasn't in the fire but in the small voice. The captain wanted Elijah to come down from the high hill (cp. Heaven), so Elijah calls fire to come down from Heaven. He sees himself as the fire, as God coming down. The incident is specifically rebuked by the Jesus as not being of His Spirit (Lk. 9:54,55). And He rebukes His followers for assuming that their natural prejudice against others can be justified by an appeal to Elijah's example. Elijah failed to see the value of those 100 lives; the value and meaning of persons was lost on him. All he could think of was fighting apostasy and judging it. Elijah called the fire down in allusion to how fire came down from the Lord to destroy Nadab and Abihu and also Sodom (Lev. 10:2; Gen. 19:24). He did the ting on the top of the hill. He said to him, Man of God, the king has said, 'Come down!' <sup>10</sup> Elijah answered to the captain of fifty, If I am a man of God, let fire come down from the sky, and consume you and your fifty! Fire came down from the sky, and consumed him and his fifty. <sup>11</sup> Again he sent to him another captain of fifty and his fifty. He answered him, Man of God, the king has said, 'Come down quickly!' <sup>12</sup> Elijah answered them, If I am a man of God, let fire come down from the sky, and consume you and your fifty! The fire of God came down from the sky, and consumed him and his fifty. <sup>13</sup> Again he sent the captain of a third fifty with his fifty. The third captain of fifty went up, and came and fell on his knees before Elijah and begged him and said to him, Man of God, please let my life, and the life of these fifty your servants, be precious in your sight. <sup>14</sup> Behold, fire came down from the sky, and consumed the two former captains of fifty with their fifties. But now let my life be precious in your sight. <sup>15</sup> The angel of Yahweh said to Elijah, Go down with him. Don't be afraid of him. He arose, and went down with him to the king. <sup>16</sup> He said to him, Thus says Yahweh, 'Because you have sent messengers to inquire of Baal Zebub, the god of Ekron, is it because there is no God in Israel to inquire of His word? Therefore you shall not come down from the bed where you have gone up, but shall surely die'. <sup>17</sup> So he died according to the word of Yahweh which Elijah had spoken. Jehoram began to reign in his place in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah; because he had no son. <sup>18</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Ahaziah which he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

Elijah's Public Ministry Ends

It happened, when Yahweh would take up Elijah by a whirlwind into heaven, that Elijah went with Elisha from Gilgal. <sup>2</sup> Elijah said to Elisha, Please wait here, for Yahweh has sent me as far as Bethel. Elisha said, As Yahweh lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you. So they went down to Bethel. <sup>3</sup> The sons of the prophets who were at Bethel came wrong thing from wrong motives and yet he Biblically justified it – for the prophets themselves saw an apostate Israel as being like Sodom (Is. 1:10). Elijah had the wrong attitude, lacking the spirit of Christ, and yet God still heard his prayers; God worked with Elijah as Elijah wanted. And so we perceive the subtleties of a man's relationship with God. Prayer may be answered, and the extent of Elijah's faith in 'commanding' the fire to come down is indeed awesome, but we may even then still be 'playing God' in a wrong way.

1:15 Don't be afraid of him – Elijah may appear to have been a fearless aggressor, but underneath he was fearful, just as the Canaanites seemed so strong but in fact they were very fearful. Others' aggression to us is sometimes simply because they fear us on some level.

out to Elisha and said to him, Do you know that Yahweh will take away your master from your head today? He said, Yes, I know it. Hold your peace. <sup>4</sup> Elijah said to him, Elisha, please wait here, for Yahweh has sent me to Jericho. He said, As Yahweh lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you. So they came to Jericho. <sup>5</sup> The sons of the prophets who were at Jericho came near to Elisha and said to him, Do you know that Yahweh will take away your master from your head today? He answered, Yes, I know it. Hold your peace. <sup>6</sup> Elijah said to him, Please wait here, for Yahweh has sent me to the Jordan. He said, As Yahweh lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you. They both went on. <sup>7</sup> Fifty men of the sons of the prophets went, and stood opposite them at a distance; and they both stood by the Jordan. <sup>8</sup> Elijah took his mantle, wrapped it together and struck the waters, and they were divided here and there, so that they two went over on dry ground. <sup>9</sup> When they had gone over, Elijah said to Elisha, Ask what I shall do for you, before I am taken from you. Elisha said, Please let a double portion of your spirit be on me. <sup>10</sup> He said, You have asked a hard thing. If you see me when I am taken from you, it shall be so for you; but if not, it shall not be so. <sup>11</sup> It happened, as they still went on, and talked, that behold, a chariot of fire and horses of fire separated them; and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into the sky. <sup>12</sup> Elisha saw it, and he cried, My father, my father, the chariots of Israel and its horseman! He saw him no more: and he took hold of his own clothes, and

2:11 Into the sky – This doesn't mean that Elijah went to get his reward in Heaven. Nobody has ascended to Heaven (Jn. 3:13). Jesus was the first person to be given immortality (1 Cor. 15:20), and was the only person who never sinned. Elijah therefore had to die, because the wages of sin is death (Rom. 6:23). The Bible presents the Kingdom of God on earth as the reward for the righteous, not going to Heaven at death. The dramatic snatching away of Elijah was in order to openly demonstrate that his public ministry had ended and been passed on to Elisha. It seems Elijah was snatched away into the sky and returned to earth somewhere else – hence the men go searching for him (:16). It seems this happened often in Elijah's life (1 Kings 18:12). Some time after this, Elijah sent a letter (2 Chron. 21:12) – implying he was on earth.

2:12 The chariots and horseman of God appeared; and Elisha perceived that Elijah had finally become identified with them. For Elisha sees them and then describes Elijah as being them – the chariot and horseman of Israel. The Hebrew word for "mantle" is translated "glory" in Zech. 11:3. Elijah had earlier wrapped his presence in his own mantle / glory, rather than face up to the implications of God's glory. But he got there in the end; hence the enormous significance of Elijah giving up his mantle when he finally ascends to Heaven in the cherubim chariot. Finally, Elijah became part of God's glory; He merged into it rather than resisting it for the sake of his own glory. He was the charioteer of the cherubim; for his prayers had controlled their direction. This identification of ourselves with God's glory, this losing of ourselves and our own insistence upon our rightness, and our focus on others' wrongness... this is the end result of our lives if they are lived out after the pattern of Elijah's. See on 13:14.

tore them in two pieces. <sup>13</sup> He took up also the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and went back, and stood by the bank of the Jordan. <sup>14</sup> He took the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and struck the waters, and said, Where is Yahweh, the God of Elijah? When he also had struck the waters, they were divided here and there; and Elisha went over. <sup>15</sup> When the sons of the prophets who were at Jericho opposite him saw him, they said, The spirit of Elijah rests on Elisha. They came to meet him, and bowed themselves to the ground before him. <sup>16</sup> They said to him, See now, there are with your servants fifty strong men. Please let them go and seek your master. Perhaps the spirit of Yahweh has taken him up, and put him on some mountain, or into some valley. He said, You shall not send them. <sup>17</sup> When they urged him until he was ashamed, he said, Send them. They sent therefore fifty men; and they searched for three days, but didn't find him. <sup>18</sup> They came back to him while he stayed at Jericho; and he said to them, Didn't I tell you, 'Don't go?'

Elisha's First Miracles

<sup>19</sup> The men of the city said to Elisha, Behold, please, the situation of this city is pleasant, as my lord sees; but the water is bad, and the land miscarries. <sup>20</sup> He said, Bring me a new jar, and put salt in it. They brought it to him. <sup>21</sup> He went out to the spring of the waters, and threw salt into it, and said, Thus says Yahweh, 'I have healed these waters. There shall not be from there any more death or miscarrying'. <sup>22</sup> So the waters were healed to this day, according to the word of Elisha which he spoke. <sup>23</sup> He went up from there to Bethel. As he was going up by the way,

2:19 It could be that the people thought that the barren land was causing their women to be barren. This was evidently an incorrect superstition of the time; barren ground cannot make the women who live on it barren. But Elisha does not specifically rebuke them for believing such nonsense. Instead he performed the miracle of curing the barrenness of the land. The record says that there was no more barrenness of the land or women "according to the saying of Elisha which he spake". Normally the people would have resorted to wizards to drive away the relevant demon which they thought was causing the problem. But the miracle made it evident that ultimately God had caused the problem, and He could so easily cure it. This was a far more effective way of sinking the people's foolish superstition than a head-on frontal attack upon it. The way Jesus dealt with the demons issue in the first century is identical in principle. 2:21 Land and water were seen as barren and bad because they were salty (Dt. 29:23; Jud. 9:45; Jer. 17:6); to put salt into bad water to cure it was therefore counter-instinctive. But this is how God loves to operate; we have to recognize the badness and acknowledge that God can work through it. Hence in this case, salt was used to cure saltiness.

2:23 Go up, you baldhead – They were doubting that Elisha was really in Elijah's place, and were asking him to go up into the sky as Elijah had done; and they mocked the difference between hairy Elijah and Elisha's baldness.

some youths came out of the city and mocked him, and said to him, Go up, you baldy! Go up, you baldhead! <sup>24</sup> He looked behind him and saw them, and cursed them in the name of Yahweh. Two female bears came out of the woods, and mauled forty-two of those youths. <sup>25</sup> He went from there to Mount Carmel, and from there he returned to Samaria.

War with Moab

Now Jehoram the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned twelve years. <sup>2</sup> He did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, but not like his father or his mother; for he put away the pillar of Baal that his father had made. <sup>3</sup> Nevertheless he held to the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin; he didn't depart from them. <sup>4</sup> Now Mesha king of Moab was a sheep breeder; and he rendered to the king of Israel the wool of one hundred thousand lambs, and of one hundred thousand rams. <sup>5</sup> But it happened, when Ahab was dead, that the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel. <sup>6</sup> King Jehoram went out of Samaria at that time, and mustered all Israel. <sup>7</sup> He went and sent to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, saying, The king of Moab has rebelled against me. Will you go with me against Moab to battle? He said, I will go up. I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses. <sup>8</sup> He said, Which way shall we go up? He answered, The way of the wilderness of Edom. <sup>9</sup> So the king of Israel went, and the king of Judah, and the king of Edom; and they made a circuit of seven days' journey. There was no water for the army, nor for the animals that followed them. <sup>10</sup> The king of Israel said, Alas! For Yahweh has called these three kings together to deliver them into the hand of Moab. <sup>11</sup> But Jehoshaphat said, Isn't there here a prophet of Yahweh, that we may inquire of Yahweh by him? One of the king of Israel's servants answered, Elisha the son of Shaphat is here, who poured water on the hands of Elijah. <sup>12</sup> Jehoshaphat said, The word of Yahweh is with him. So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him. <sup>13</sup> Elisha said to the king of Israel, What have I to do with you? Go to the prophets of your father, and to the prophets of your mother. The king of Israel said to him, No; for Yahweh

3:7 Jehoshaphat had been taught in 1 Kings 22:32 the error of association with the wicked kings of Israel; he learnt the lesson when it was repeated in 1 Kings 22:49; but now he fails the test again. Thus Jehoshaphat found himself repeating his words of 1 Kings 22:7 when he says "Isn't there here a prophet of Yahweh, that we may inquire of Yahweh by him?" (:11). This is too often the pattern of our lives; God brings repeat situations, in essence, into our lives; sometimes we learn the lesson, other times we don't. But through it all, He seeks to patiently teach us His principles and obedience to His ways. See on 7:18.

has called these three kings together to deliver them into the hand of Moab. <sup>14</sup> Elisha said, As Yahweh of Armies lives, before whom I stand, surely, were it not that I respect the presence of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, I would not look toward you, nor see you. <sup>15</sup> But now bring me a minstrel. It happened, when the minstrel played, that the hand of Yahweh came on him. <sup>16</sup> He said, Thus says Yahweh, ‘Make this valley full of trenches’. <sup>17</sup> For thus says Yahweh, ‘You will not see wind, neither will you see rain; yet that valley shall be filled with water, and you will drink, both you and your livestock and your animals. <sup>18</sup> This is but a light thing in the sight of Yahweh. He will also deliver the Moabites into your hand. <sup>19</sup> You shall strike every fortified city, and every choice city, and shall fell every good tree, and stop all springs of water, and spoil every good piece of land with stones’. <sup>20</sup> It happened in the morning, about the time of making the offering, that behold, water came by the way of Edom, and the country was filled with water.

The Moabites Defeated

<sup>21</sup> Now when all the Moabites heard that the kings had come up to fight against them, they gathered themselves together, all who were able to put on armour, young and older, and stood on the border. <sup>22</sup> They rose up early in the morning, and the sun shone on the water, and the Moabites saw the water over against them as red as blood. <sup>23</sup> They said, This is blood. The kings are surely destroyed, and they have struck each other. Now therefore, Moab, to the spoil! <sup>24</sup> When they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and struck the Moabites, so that they fled before them; and they went forward into the land smiting the Moabites. <sup>25</sup> They beat down the cities; and on every good piece of land they cast every man his stone, and filled it. They stopped all the springs of water, and felled all the good trees, until in Kir Hareseth only they left its stones; however the men armed with slings surrounded it, and struck it. <sup>26</sup> When the king of Moab saw that the battle was too severe for him, he took with him seven hundred men who drew sword, to break through to the king of Edom; but they could not. <sup>27</sup> Then he took his eldest son who would have reigned in his place, and offered him for a burnt offering on the wall. There was great wrath against Israel, who departed from him, and returned to their own land.

CHAPTER 4 Aug. 30

Elisha Multiplies Oil

Now there cried a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets to Elisha, saying, Your servant my husband is dead. You know that your servant feared Yahweh. Now the creditor has come to take for himself my two children to be slaves. <sup>2</sup> Elisha said to her, What shall I do for you? Tell me: what do you have in the house? She said, Your handmaid has nothing in the house, except a pot of oil. <sup>3</sup> Then he said, Go, borrow containers, empty ones, from of all your neighbours. Don't borrow just a few. <sup>4</sup> You shall go in, and shut the door on yourself and on your sons, and pour out into all those containers; and you shall set aside that which is full. <sup>5</sup> So she went from him, and shut the door on herself and on her sons; they brought the containers to her, and she poured out. <sup>6</sup> It happened, when the containers were full, that she said to her son, Bring me another container. He said to her, There isn't another container. The oil stopped flowing. <sup>7</sup> Then she came and told the man of God. He said, Go, sell the oil, and pay your debt; and you and your sons shall live on the rest.

Elisha and the Shunammite Woman

<sup>8</sup> It fell on a day, that Elisha passed to Shunem, where there was a prominent woman; and she persuaded him to eat bread. So it was, that as often as he passed by, he turned in there to eat bread. <sup>9</sup> She said to her husband, See now, I perceive that this is a holy man of God that passes by us continually. <sup>10</sup> Please let us make a little room on the wall. Let us set for him there a bed, a table, a chair, and a lamp stand. It shall be, when he comes to us, that he shall turn in there. <sup>11</sup> One day he came there, and he turned into the room and lay there. <sup>12</sup> He said to Gehazi his servant, Call this Shunammite. When he had called her, she stood before him. <sup>13</sup> He said to him, Say now to her, 'Behold, you have cared for us with all this care. What is to be done for you? Would you like to be spoken for to the king, or to the captain of the army?' She answered, I dwell among my own people. <sup>14</sup> He said, What then is to be done for her? Gehazi answered, Most certainly she has no son, and her husband is old. <sup>15</sup> He said, Call her. When he

4:3 Don't borrow just a few – According to the level of our faith, so life will be unto us. The more and the larger the containers borrowed, the more oil they would have. God's power and ability is unlimited; it is us through our faith who control the extent of His activity (Mk. 9:23).

4:4 Shut the door – This is emphasized (:5). God's response to human faith is a very personal thing, not to be bragged about. Our relationship with Him is ultimately personal.

4:9 I perceive that this is a holy man of God – It seems Elisha said nothing of his ministry as a prophet; he simply stayed at the woman's house when travelling. But our relationship with God will be perceived by others in the end, even without our specific preaching (1 Pet. 3:1).

4:13 This care – The Hebrew word for "care" here also means "reverence". To reverence someone is to care for them. Care therefore comes out of a respect / reverence for the person. If we respect persons for who they are, we will care. Care in that sense can't in any sense be properly done or shown if it's simply from a sense of duty, because we're paid to do it, because we might get some benefit from doing so, etc. It arises out of a basic respect for the human person, made as we are in the image of God.

had called her, she stood in the door. <sup>16</sup> He said, At this season, when the time comes around, you will embrace a son. She said, No, my lord, you man of God, do not lie to your handmaid. <sup>17</sup> The woman conceived, and bore a son at that season, when the time came around, as Elisha had said to her. <sup>18</sup> When the child was grown, it happened one day that he went out to his father to the reapers. <sup>19</sup> He said to his father, My head! My head! He said to his servant, Carry him to his mother. <sup>20</sup> When he had taken him, and brought him to his mother, he sat on her knees until noon, and then died. <sup>21</sup> She went up and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and shut the door on him, and went out. <sup>22</sup> She called to her husband and said, Please send me one of the servants, and one of the donkeys, that I may run to the man of God, and come again. <sup>23</sup> He said, Why would you want go to him today? It is neither new moon nor Sabbath. She said, It's alright. <sup>24</sup> Then she saddled a donkey, and said to her servant, Drive, and go forward! Don't slow down for me, unless I ask you to. <sup>25</sup> So she went, and came to the man of God to Mount Carmel. It happened, when the man of God saw her afar off, that he said to Gehazi his servant, Behold, there is the Shunammite. <sup>26</sup> Please run now to meet her, and ask her, 'Is it well with you? Is it well with your husband? Is it well with the child?' She answered, It is well. <sup>27</sup> When she came to the man of God to the hill, she caught hold of his feet. Gehazi came near to thrust her away; but the man of God said, Leave her alone; for her soul is troubled within her; and Yahweh has hidden it from me, and has not told me. <sup>28</sup> Then she said, Did I desire a son of my lord? Didn't I say, Do not deceive me? <sup>29</sup> Then he said to Gehazi, Tuck your cloak into your belt, take my staff in your hand, and go your way. If you meet any man, don't greet him; and if anyone greets you, don't answer him again. Then lay my staff on the face of the child. <sup>30</sup> The mother of the child said, As Yahweh lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you. He arose, and followed her. <sup>31</sup> Gehazi passed on before them, and laid the staff on the face of the child; but there was neither voice nor hearing. Therefore he returned to meet him, and told him, saying, The child has not awakened. <sup>32</sup> When Elisha had come into the house, behold, the child was dead, and laid on his bed. <sup>33</sup> He went in therefore, and shut the door on them both, and prayed to Yahweh. <sup>34</sup> He went up, and cast himself on the child, and put his mouth on his mouth, and his eyes on his eyes,

4:29 Christ's command in Lk. 10:4 to go preach the Gospel and greet nobody by the way (greetings in the East can take a long time) clearly alludes here. We are all to have the urgent intensity of Gehazi in taking the hope of resurrection to others.

4:33 Shut the door... and prayed – Jesus as it were takes a snapshot of this moment and posts it as a pattern to each of us (Mt. 6:6). Biblical characters like Elisha thus cease to be distant figures, but are to be realistically followed by us as living examples.

and his hands on his hands. He lay upon him; and the flesh of the child grew warm. <sup>35</sup> Then he returned, and walked in the house once back and forth; and went up, and cast himself on him. Then the child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes. <sup>36</sup> He called Gehazi, and said, Call this Shunammite! So he called her. When she had come in to him, he said, Take up your son. <sup>37</sup> Then she went in, and fell at his feet, and bowed herself to the ground; and she took up her son, and went out.

Elisha's Miracles

<sup>38</sup> Elisha came again to Gilgal. There was a famine in the land; and the sons of the prophets were sitting before him. He said to his servant, Set on the great pot, and boil stew for the sons of the prophets. <sup>39</sup> One went out into the field to gather herbs, and found a wild vine, and gathered of it a lapful of wild gourds, and came and shred them into the pot of stew; for they didn't recognize them. <sup>40</sup> So they poured out for the men to eat. It happened, as they were eating of the stew, that they cried out, and said, Man of God, there is death in the pot! They could not eat of it. <sup>41</sup> But he said, Bring meal, then. He cast it into the pot; and he said, Pour out for the people, that they may eat. There was now no harm in the pot. <sup>42</sup> A man from Baal Shalishah came, and brought the man of God bread of the first fruits, twenty loaves of barley, and fresh ears of grain in his sack.

4:34, 35 1 Kings 18:42 says that Elijah cast himself down in prayer. The Hebrew word occurs again only here, as if it was Elijah's example which inspired Elisha likewise to cast himself down upon the child. The implication is that Elisha did so in prayer; and we wonder whether this implies that Elijah's stretching himself upon another child, although a different Hebrew word, was also in prayer (1 Kings 17:21). Elijah's prayerful example inspired another. Our attitude to prayer is so easily influential upon others, and we ourselves are likewise easily influenced. It should be no shame nor embarrassment to us to instantly break into prayer, nor to kneel down to further our intensity in prayer, regardless of the social embarrassment this may involve in some cultures. But we have to ask: Do we cast ourselves down in prayer as Elijah and Elisha? Do we know that kind of intensity in prayer?

4:42, 43 This incident presents Elisha as a clear type of Christ, who did the same in His feeding miracles (Mk. 8:6-8). Those who know God's word will find encouragement there in their experiences of life – but that encouragement is dependent upon their appreciation of the word, and their ability to see the similarities between their situation and that of others who have gone before. An example is to be found in the way the Lord told the disciples to feed the crowd, when they had nothing to give them (Mk. 6:37). He was actually quoting from :42, where the man of God told his servant to do the same. He gave what bread he had to the people, and miraculously it fed them. The disciples don't seem to have seen the point; otherwise, they would have realized that if they went ahead in faith, another such miracle would likely be wrought. But it seems that God almost over-ruled them to make the response of the faithless servant of :43: "Shall we... give them to eat?" (Mk. 6:37). They were almost 'made' to do this to make them later see the similarity with the 2 Kings 4 incident. If they

He said, Give to the people, that they may eat. <sup>43</sup> His servant said, What, should I set this before a hundred men? But he said, Give the people, that they may eat; for thus says Yahweh, ‘They will eat, and will have some left over’. <sup>44</sup> So he set it before them, and they ate, and left some of it, according to the word of Yahweh.

Elisha Heals Naaman

Now Naaman, captain of the army of the king of Syria, was a great man with his master, and honourable, because by him Yahweh had given victory to Syria. He was also a mighty man of valour, but he was a leper. <sup>2</sup> The Syrians had gone out in companies, and had brought away captive out of the land of Israel a little maiden; and she waited on Naaman’s wife. <sup>3</sup> She said to her mistress, I wish that my lord would visit the prophet who is in Samaria! Then he would heal him of his leprosy. <sup>4</sup> Someone went in, and told his lord, saying, The maiden who is from the land of Israel said this. <sup>5</sup> The king of Syria said, Go now, and I will send a letter to the king of Israel. He departed, and took with him ten talents of silver, and six thousand pieces of gold, and ten changes of clothing. <sup>6</sup> He brought the letter to the king of Israel, saying, Now when this letter has come to you, behold, I have sent Naaman my servant to you, that you may heal him of his leprosy. <sup>7</sup> When the king of Israel had read the letter, he tore his clothes and said, Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man sends to me to heal a man of his leprosy? Surely he is seeking a quarrel against me. <sup>8</sup> It was so, when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, that he sent to the king saying, Why have you torn your clothes? Let him come now to me, and he shall know that there is a prophet in Israel. <sup>9</sup> So Naaman came with his horses and with his chariots, and stood at the door of the house of Elisha. <sup>10</sup> Elisha sent a messenger to him saying, Go and wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall be restored, and you shall be clean. <sup>11</sup> But Naaman had been more spiritually aware at the time, the Lord’s quotation would have been an encouragement for their faith.

5:3 The girl said this in total faith; because at that time, no lepers had been healed by Elisha in Israel (Lk. 4:27). This girl had great spirituality; she had been taken captive by the Syrians (:2) and so had almost certainly been raped and abused, and now she was a domestic slave, possibly still liable to abuse. But she so loved her enemies that she wanted the army commander to be healed – when he was the visible figurehead of the organization (i.e. the Syrian army) which had abused her.

5:9, 10 Naaman was the chief of the Syrian army and could easily have killed Elisha or destroyed his home. But Elisha isn’t courteous to him, doesn’t open the door of his home, but just sends someone to Naaman to tell him to go and wash in Jordan. This wasn’t rudeness, but rather a desire for Naaman to respond to God’s word. Sometimes God presents His word to us in such a way, without any attractive packaging, just bald demands – to test and develop our obedience.

was angry, and went away, and said, I thought, ‘He will surely come out to me, and stand, and call on the name of Yahweh his God, and wave his hand over the place, and heal the leprosy’. <sup>12</sup> Aren’t Abanah and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Couldn’t I wash in them, and be clean? So he turned and went away in a rage. <sup>13</sup> His servants came near and spoke to him and said, My father, if the prophet had asked you do some great thing, wouldn’t you have done it? How much rather then, when he says to you, ‘Wash, and be clean?’ <sup>14</sup> Then went he down, and dipped himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the saying of the man of God; and his flesh was restored like the flesh of a little child, and he was clean. <sup>15</sup> He returned to the man of God, he and all his company, and stood before him; and he said, See now, I know that there is no God in all the earth, but in Israel. Now therefore, please take a gift from your servant. <sup>16</sup> But he said, As Yahweh lives, before whom I stand, I will receive none. He urged him to take

5:14 The way Naaman was effectively born again by dipping in water looks forward to Christian baptism, which also requires humility to accept.

5:15, 16 Elisha was accustomed to thinking of himself in terms of a man who stood before Yahweh, in His presence, before His face (3:14 Hebrew). Naaman and his “company” ‘stood before’ Elisha. Remember that this was the Syrian army General, standing with a “company” in Israelite territory, at Elisha’s house – at a time when ‘companies’ of Syrian soldiers carried out raids upon Israel (:2). Any Israelite would’ve been terrified. But Elisha responds that he ‘stands before’ Yahweh more than before Naaman (:16). Elisha was so aware of how we live in God’s presence, before His very face, that he wasn’t the least phased by this. If only we can share this sense, of standing in God’s presence... the most frightening of human situations will have little effective ‘presence’ because we know we are ultimately in God’s presence, 24/7. But how, concretely and actually, did Elisha come to have this serenity? A clue is to be found in how in 6:17, Elisha prays that God will open the eyes of his frightened servant to behold the Angelic horses and chariots around him. Elisha was so confident they were there, that he didn’t ask to see them himself. He knew they were there; he simply asked that his servant be enabled to see the unseen reality which he calmly knew was there. He of course had had first hand experience of the Angelic horses and chariots (a kind of cherubim) when he had been parted from Elijah in 2:11. This must have left an abiding impression upon him – he knew that those Angelic horses and chariots were in fact permanently encamped around him (cp. Ps. 34:7). And so we see significance in the way that Naaman came to Elisha’s house with his horses and chariot – for this is surely a development of a theme of connection between Elisha, horses and chariots (:9). Most other Israelites would’ve been petrified to have the horses and chariots of Naaman and a company of Syrians pull up at their door. But Elisha was quite unphased. He didn’t even bother coming out to meet Naaman, knowing this was an insult to Naaman’s pride, and was humanly certain to result in Naaman simply killing him and burning his house. Surely the horses-chariot-Elisha connection taught Elisha that in fact there were Angelic horses and chariots around him – he need it; but he refused. <sup>17</sup> Naaman said, If not, then please let two mules' burden of earth be given to your servant; for your servant will from now on offer neither burnt offering nor sacrifice to other gods, but to Yahweh. <sup>18</sup> In this thing may Yahweh pardon your servant: when my master goes into the house of Rimmon to worship there, and he leans on my hand, and I bow myself in the house of Rimmon. When I bow myself in the house of Rimmon, may Yahweh pardon your servant in this thing. <sup>19</sup> He said to him, Go in peace. So he departed from him a little way.

Gehazi's Greed

<sup>20</sup> But Gehazi the servant of Elisha the man of God said, My master has spared this Naaman the Syrian, in not receiving at his hands that which he brought. As Yahweh lives, I will run after him, and take something from him. <sup>21</sup> So Gehazi followed after Naaman. When Naaman saw one running after him, he came down from the chariot to meet him, and said, Is all well? <sup>22</sup> He said, All is well. My master has sent me, saying, 'Behold, even now two young men of the sons of the prophets have come to me from the hill country of Ephraim. Please give them a talent of silver and two changes of clothing'. <sup>23</sup> Naaman said, Please take two talents. He urged him, and bound two talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of clothing, and laid them on two of his servants; and they carried them before him. <sup>24</sup> When he came to the hill, he took them from their hand, and stored them in the house. Then he let the men go, and not fear any human horse and chariot. There is no hint that Angelic activity is any less for us today.

5:17 This shows that Naaman was influenced by the surrounding superstition that one could only worship a god of another nation whilst on their soil. But this is not explicitly corrected by Elisha; he simply but powerfully comments: "Go in peace". In other words, Elisha was saying that the peace experienced by Naaman in his daily life was so wondrous that it obviated the need for worshipping on Israeli soil. This is a similar approach to that taken by Jesus with regard to demons. See on 5:27.

5:18 This disproves the theory of guilt by association. God was willing to tolerate this believer in Him still being associated with a pagan religion. This concession to weakness shouldn't be used to justify us in living lives which are indistinguishable from those of unbelievers; we are the light of the world, and if we hide that light, then it will go out (Mt. 5:14). But there are times when our faith in the true God is a matter of the heart, and our external appearance may have to be otherwise because of the life situation we are in; and God is understanding of that, as we should be towards other believers. And yet Naaman chose a lower level of serving God than he could have chosen. The higher level would surely have been, as Daniel's friends, not to bow down to an idol. And when we ask what the rest of the Jews in Babylon did on that occasion, it seems hard to avoid the conclusion that they took the lower level which Naaman did – and bowed down. But when we choose a lower level of service, God works to inspire us to take higher levels – see on 6:11.

they departed. <sup>25</sup> But he went in, and stood before his master. Elisha said to him, Where did you come from, Gehazi? He said, Your servant went nowhere. <sup>26</sup> He said to him, Didn't my heart go with you, when the man turned from his chariot to meet you? Is it a time to receive money, to receive garments and olive groves and vineyards, sheep and cattle, and male servants and female servants? <sup>27</sup> Therefore the leprosy of Naaman will cling to you and to your seed forever. He went out from his presence a leper, as white as snow.

The Iron Floats

The sons of the prophets said to Elisha, See now, the place where we dwell before you is too small for us. <sup>2</sup> Please let us go to the Jordan, and every man take a beam from there, and let us make us a place there, where we may dwell. He answered, Go! <sup>3</sup> One said, Please go with your servants. He answered, I will go. <sup>4</sup> So he went with them. When they came to the Jordan, they cut down wood. <sup>5</sup> But as one was felling a beam, the axe head fell into the water. Then he cried and said, Alas, my master! For it was borrowed. <sup>6</sup> The man of God asked, Where did it fall? He showed him the place. He cut down a stick, threw it in there, and made the iron float. <sup>7</sup> He said, Take it. So he put out his hand and took it.

Elisha Traps the Syrians

<sup>8</sup> Now the king of Syria was warring against Israel; and he took counsel with his servants, saying, My camp will be in such and such a place. <sup>9</sup> The man of God sent to the king of Israel saying, Beware that you not pass such a place; for the Syrians are coming that way. <sup>10</sup> The king of Israel sent to the place which the man of God told him and warned him of; and he saved himself there, not once nor twice. <sup>11</sup> The heart of the king of Syria was very troubled about this. He called his servants, and said to

5:27 The idea of transference of disease from one to another was a common Semitic perception, and it's an idea accommodated by God although it's incorrect. God threatened to make the diseases of the inhabitants of Canaan and Egypt to cleave to Israel if they were disobedient (Dt. 28:21,60). Here too, as with the curing of Legion, there is Divine accommodation to the ideas of disease transference which people had at the time. This explains why the New Testament can speak of 'demons' whilst also denying their actual existence – it's an accommodation to the ideas of the time. This is in harmony with similar accommodations in the Old Testament. See on 5:17.

6:11 Naaman wanted to be a secret believer, even bowing down to Rimmon to keep his boss happy. God seems to have allowed this, but He worked in Naaman's life, so that his faith was no longer secret. For soon after his conversion, his master got the hunch that one of his courtiers was "for the king of Israel". And Naaman would have been the obvious suspect, as he had gone to Israel and been cured of his leprosy by an Israeli prophet. We then read that the army of Syria came against Elisha the prophet and sought to surround him in order to capture him. They were then judged by God. Could it really be so that Naaman would have led that army? Surely the situation arose them, Won't you show me which of us is for the king of Israel? <sup>12</sup> One of his servants said, No, my lord, O king; but Elisha, the prophet who is in Israel, tells the king of Israel the words that you speak in your bedroom. <sup>13</sup> He said, Go and see where he is, that I may send and get him. It was told him saying, Behold, he is in Dothan. <sup>14</sup> Therefore he sent horses, chariots and a great army there. They came by night, and surrounded the city. <sup>15</sup> When the servant of the man of God had risen early and gone out, behold, an army with horses and chariots was around the city. His servant said to him, Alas, my master! What shall we do? <sup>16</sup> He answered, Don't be afraid; for those who are with us are more than those who are with them. <sup>17</sup> Elisha prayed and said, Yahweh, please open his eyes, that he may see. Yahweh opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw that the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire around Elisha. <sup>18</sup> When they came down to him, Elisha prayed to Yahweh, and said, Please strike this people with blindness. He struck them with blindness according to the word of Elisha. <sup>19</sup> Elisha said to them, This is not the way, neither is this the city. Follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom you seek. He led them to Samaria. <sup>20</sup> It happened, when they had come into Samaria, that Elisha said, Yahweh, open the eyes of these men, that they may see. Yahweh opened their eyes, and they perceived that they were in the midst of Samaria. <sup>21</sup> The king of Israel said to Elisha, when he saw them, My father, shall I strike them? Shall I strike them? <sup>22</sup> He answered, You shall not strike them. Would you strike those whom you have taken captive with your sword and with your bow? Set bread and water before them, that they may eat and drink, and go to their master. <sup>23</sup> He prepared a great feast for them. When they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away, and they went to their master. The bands of Syria stopped raiding the land of Israel.

so as to force Naaman to resign the job. Thus God worked to stop him being a secret believer, and to remove him from a position where he could not live with a free conscience before the Father. And so God will do in our lives – if we respond.

6:17 Elisha saw with the eyes of faith that the horses and chariots of their enemies were matched by the Angel cherubim around them. He was so certain they were there that he didn't need to physically see them for himself, but he asked that the eyes of his servant would be opened to see them. We imagine Peter walking confidently through the dark streets with his Angel next to him, and then perhaps phased for a moment by the Angel's disappearance. But the truth is that the Angel walked with him through every street he ever walked along (Acts 12:10). The actual presence of the Angels in our lives ought to motivate us to live as in the presence of God; the fact we don't physically see them doesn't mean they aren't literally present (1 Cor. 11:10; 1 Tim. 5:21; see on 1 Kings 18:15). See on 5:15,16.

6:23 The showing of such great grace, to the extent of making a feast for them, stopped the aggression recurring. Grace is ultimately the only way to conflict resolution.

Samaria Besieged

flesh. <sup>31</sup> Then he said, God do so to me, and more also, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat shall stay on him this day. <sup>32</sup> But Elisha was sitting in his house, and the elders were sitting with him. Then the king sent a man from before him; but before the messenger came to him, he said to the elders, Do you see how this son of a murderer has sent to take away my head? When the messenger comes, shut the door, and hold it shut against him. Isn't the sound of his master's feet behind him? <sup>33</sup> While he was still talking with them, the messenger came down to him. Then he said, This evil is from Yahweh. Why should I wait for Yahweh any longer?

The Syrians Destroyed

Elisha said, Hear the word of Yahweh. Thus says Yahweh, 'Tomorrow about this time a measure of fine flour will be sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, in the gate of Samaria'. <sup>2</sup> Then the captain on whose hand the king leaned

6:33 This evil is from Yahweh – Evil in the sense of disaster comes from God; it's not true that only good things come from God and all negative things from some cosmic 'Satan'; both good and "evil" come from God (Is. 45:5-7).

Why should I wait for Yahweh any longer? – Elisha here has an apparent roughness with the Almighty that could only surely come from his knowing that God fully viewed and knew his inner feelings; and so like David in some of the Psalms, he speaks his rough thoughts before God just as they are, because he knows God sees them anyway. Elisha's roughness with God isn't good, but it does reflect a level of intimacy with God which is commendable.

7:2 If Yahweh made windows in heaven – He forgot that there are windows in Heaven (Gen. 7:11; Mal. 3:10) through which blessing can be given. He believed in God's existence. But he didn't think this God could do much, and he doubted whether He would ever practically intervene in human affairs. We must be aware of this same tendency.

answered the man of God and said, Behold, if Yahweh made windows in heaven, could this thing be? He said, You shall see it with your eyes, but shall not eat of it. <sup>3</sup> Now there were four leprous men at the entrance of the gate. They said one to another, Why do we sit here until we die? <sup>4</sup> If we say, ‘We will enter into the city’, then the famine is in the city, and we shall die there. If we sit still here, we also die. Now therefore come, and let us surrender to the army of the Syrians. If they save us alive, we will live; and if they kill us, we will only die. <sup>5</sup> They rose up in the twilight, to go to the camp of the Syrians. When they had come to the outermost part of the camp of the Syrians, behold, there was no man there. <sup>6</sup> For the Lord had made the army of the Syrians to hear a noise of chariots, and a noise of horses, even the noise of a great army. They said one to another, Behold, the king of Israel has hired against us the kings of the Hittites, and the kings of the Egyptians, to come on us. <sup>7</sup> Therefore they arose and fled in the twilight, and left their tents, and their horses, and their donkeys, even the camp as it was, and fled for their life. <sup>8</sup> When these lepers came to the outermost part of the camp, they went into one tent, and ate and drank, and carried from there silver, and gold, and clothing, and went and hid it. Then they came back and entered into another tent, and carried from there also, and went and hid it. <sup>9</sup> Then they said one to another, We aren’t doing the right thing. This day is a day of good news, and we keep silent. If we wait until the morning light, punishment will overtake us. Now therefore come, let us go and tell the king’s household. <sup>10</sup> So they came and called to the porter of the city and said, We came to the camp of the Syrians, and, behold, there was no man there, neither voice of man, but the horses tied, and the donkeys tied, and the tents as they were. <sup>11</sup> He called the porters; and they told it to the king’s household within. <sup>12</sup> The king arose in the night and said to his servants, I’ll tell you what the Syrians are doing to us. They know that we are hungry. Therefore are they gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the field saying, ‘When they come out of the city, we shall take them alive, and get into the city’. <sup>13</sup> One of his servants answered, Please let some men take five of the horses that remain in the city. Behold, they are like all the multitude of Israel who are left in it. They would perish anyway, like all the many Israelites

7:4 These utterly desperate men were chosen by God to be the heralds of good news (:9) – the Gospel. He uses desperate people today, even middle class comfortable people who perceive their desperation, as the means of His witness.

7:8 Jesus used this as the basis for His parable about the man who finds the Gospel, as the treasure in a field, and hides it (Mt. 13:44). But surely He intended us to think of what those men did afterwards. They even felt that woe would be unto them if they did not share the good news of what they had found. The same joyful urgency must be ours; and there is a “woe” unto us if we don’t share that good news (1 Cor. 9:16).

who have already died. Let us send and see. <sup>14</sup> They took therefore two chariots with horses; and the king sent after the army of the Syrians saying, Go and see. <sup>15</sup> They went after them to the Jordan; and behold, all the way was full of garments and vessels, which the Syrians had cast away in their haste. The messengers returned and told the king. <sup>16</sup> The people went out, and plundered the camp of the Syrians. So a measure of fine flour was sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, according to the word of Yahweh. <sup>17</sup> The king appointed the captain on whose hand he leaned to be in charge of the gate; and the people trod on him in the gate, and he died as the man of God had said when the king came down to him. <sup>18</sup> It happened, as the man of God had spoken to the king saying, Two measures of barley for a shekel, and a measure of fine flour for a shekel, shall be tomorrow about this time in the gate of Samaria; <sup>19</sup> and that captain answered the man of God and said, Now, behold, if Yahweh should make windows in heaven, might such a thing be? And he said, Behold, you shall see it with your eyes, but shall not eat of it. <sup>20</sup> It happened like that to him; for the people trod on him in the gate, and he died.)

A Divinely Arranged Coincidence

Now Elisha had spoken to the woman whose son he had restored to life, saying, Arise and go, you and your household, and stay for a while wherever you can; for Yahweh has called for a famine. It shall also come on the land seven years. <sup>2</sup> The woman arose, and did according to the word of the man of God. She went with her household, and lived in the land of the Philistines seven years. <sup>3</sup> It happened after the seven years, that the woman returned out of the land of the Philistines. Then she went forth to plead to the king for her house and for her land. <sup>4</sup> Now the king was talking with Gehazi the servant of the man of God saying, Please tell me all the great things that Elisha has done. <sup>5</sup> It happened, as he was telling the king how he had restored to life him who was dead, that the woman whose son he had restored to life, cried to the king for her house and for her land. Gehazi said, My lord, O king, this is the woman, and this is her son whom Elisha restored to life. <sup>6</sup> When the king asked the woman, she told him. So the king appointed to her a certain officer saying, Restore all that was hers, and all the fruits of the field since the day that she left the land, even until now.

7:18 Jehoshaphat was on balance a righteous man, but his association with the sinful family of Ahab (see on 3:7) led to his children going astray from God because of his weakness in that area, which they repeated (:28). Whilst we may retain the faith, our spiritual weaknesses can lead to our children losing it.

8:5 There are no coincidences in the lives of those with whom God is working; there is meaning attached to events, and perceiving this will preserve us from the sense of meaninglessness and pointlessness which afflicts so many unbelievers.

The Death of Ben Hadad

<sup>7</sup> Elisha came to Damascus; and Ben Hadad the king of Syria was sick. It was told him saying, The man of God has come here. <sup>8</sup> The king said to Hazael, Take a present in your hand, and go, meet the man of God, and inquire of Yahweh by him, saying, ‘Will I recover from this sickness?’ <sup>9</sup> So Hazael went to meet him, and took a present with him, even of every good thing of Damascus, forty camels’ burden, and came and stood before him and said, Your son Ben Hadad king of Syria has sent me to you, saying, ‘Will I recover from this sickness?’ <sup>10</sup> Elisha said to him, Go, tell him, ‘You shall surely recover;’ however Yahweh has shown me that he shall surely die. <sup>11</sup> He settled his gaze steadfastly on him, until he was ashamed. Then the man of God wept. <sup>12</sup> Hazael said, Why do you weep, my lord? He answered, Because I know the evil that you will do to the children of Israel. You will set their strongholds on fire, kill their young men with the sword, dash in pieces their little ones and rip up their women with child. <sup>13</sup> Hazael said, But what is your servant, is he a dog, that he should do this awful thing? Elisha answered, Yahweh has shown me that you will be king over Syria. <sup>14</sup> Then he departed from Elisha, and came to his master, who said to him, What did Elisha say to you? He answered, He told me that you would surely recover. <sup>15</sup> It happened on the next day, that he took a thick cloth, dipped it in water, and spread it on his face, so that he died. Then Hazael reigned in his place.

Jehoram Becomes King

<sup>16</sup> In the fifth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel, Jehoshaphat being king of Judah then, Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah began to reign. <sup>17</sup> He was thirty-two years old when he began to reign. He reigned eight years in Jerusalem. <sup>18</sup> He walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab; for he had the daughter of Ahab as wife. He did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh. <sup>19</sup> However, Yahweh would not destroy Judah, for David His servant’s sake, as He promised him to give to him a lamp for his children always. <sup>20</sup> In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made a king over themselves. <sup>21</sup> Then Joram passed over to Zair, and all his chariots with him. He rose up by night, and struck the Edomites who surrounded him, and the captains of the chariots; and the people fled to their tents. <sup>22</sup> So Edom revolted from under the hand

8:9 Even unbelievers in their extremity try to turn to God; there is in all people some level of conscience toward God, a sense of their need for Him, however deeply buried it is. The task of preaching is to reach down through their defences and connect with that sense.

8:10 Here we see how God is aware of multiple possible futures. To see individuals time and again messing up what He has made potentially possible must be so sad for Him (see too Mt. 11:21,22).

of Judah to this day. Then Libnah revolted at the same time. <sup>23</sup> The rest of the acts of Joram, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>24</sup> Joram slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David; and Ahaziah his son reigned in his place. <sup>25</sup> In the twelfth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel, Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah began to reign. <sup>26</sup> Twenty-two years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign; and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah the daughter of Omri king of Israel. <sup>27</sup> He walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, as did the house of Ahab; for he was the son-in-law of the house of Ahab. <sup>28</sup> He went with Joram the son of Ahab to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth Gilead; and the Syrians wounded Joram. <sup>29</sup> King Joram returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had given him at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Joram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.

Jehu Is Anointed

Elisha the prophet called one of the sons of the prophets and said to him, Put your belt on your waist, take this vial of oil in your hand, and go to Ramoth Gilead. <sup>2</sup> When you come there, find Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi, and go in, and make him arise up from among his brothers, and carry him to an inner room. <sup>3</sup> Then take the vial of oil, and pour it on his head, and say, 'Thus says Yahweh, I have anointed you king over Israel'. Then open the door, flee, and don't wait. <sup>4</sup> So the young man, even the young man the prophet, went to Ramoth Gilead. <sup>5</sup> When he came, behold, the captains of the army were sitting. Then he said, I have a message for you, captain. Jehu said, To which of us all here? He said, To you, O captain. <sup>6</sup> He arose, and went into the house. Then he poured the oil on his head and said to him, Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel, 'I have anointed you king over the people of Yahweh, even over Israel. <sup>7</sup> You shall strike the house of Ahab your master, that I may avenge the blood of My servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of Yahweh, at the hand of Jezebel. <sup>8</sup> For the whole house of Ahab shall perish. I will cut off from Ahab every male, both him who is shut up and him who is left at large in Israel. <sup>9</sup> I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah. <sup>10</sup> The dogs will eat Jezebel on the plot of ground of Jezreel, and there shall be none to bury her'. He opened the door, and fled. <sup>11</sup> Then Jehu came forth to the servants of his lord; and one said to him, Is all well? Why did this mad fellow come to you? He said to them, You know the man and what his talk was. <sup>12</sup> They said, That is a lie. Tell us now. He said, He told me, 'Thus says Yahweh, I have anointed you king over Israel'. <sup>13</sup> Then they hurried, and took every man his garment, and put it under him on the top of the stairs and blew the trumpet, saying, Jehu is king.

9:2 Jehu arising from amongst his brethren and being anointed pointed forward to how Christ was anointed with oil above His brethren – for He was of our nature, one of us (Heb. 1:9). Jehu could have been a Messiah figure, but his pride in later life stopped him realizing his potential.

Jehu Kills Joram, Ahaziah and Jezebel

<sup>14</sup> So Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi conspired against Joram. (Now Joram was keeping Ramoth Gilead, he and all Israel, because of Hazael king of Syria; <sup>15</sup> but king Joram had returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had given him, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria). Jehu said, If this is your thinking, then let no one escape and go out of the city to go to tell it in Jezreel. <sup>16</sup> So Jehu rode in a chariot, and went to Jezreel; for Joram lay there. Ahaziah king of Judah had come down to see Joram. <sup>17</sup> Now the watchman was standing on the tower in Jezreel, and he spied the company of Jehu as he came, and said, I see a company. Joram said, Take a horseman, and send to meet them, and let him say, 'Is it peace?' <sup>18</sup> So there went one on horseback to meet him and said, Thus says the king, 'Is it peace?' Jehu said, What do you have to do with peace? Fall in behind me! The watchman said, The messenger came to them, but he isn't coming back. <sup>19</sup> Then he sent out a second on horseback, who came to them, and said, Thus says the king, 'Is it peace?' Jehu answered, What do you have to do with peace? Fall in behind me! <sup>20</sup> The watchman said, He came to them, and isn't coming back. The driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi; for he drives angrily. <sup>21</sup> Joram said, Get ready! They got his chariot ready. Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah went out, each in his chariot, and they went out to meet Jehu, and found him in the portion of Naboth the Jezreelite. <sup>22</sup> It happened, when Joram saw Jehu, that he said, Is it peace, Jehu? He answered, What peace, so long as the prostitution of your mother Jezebel and her witchcraft abound? <sup>23</sup> Joram turned around to flee, and said to Ahaziah, There is treason, Ahaziah! <sup>24</sup> Jehu drew his bow with his full strength, and struck Joram between his arms; and the arrow went out at his heart, and he sunk down

9:19 Fall in behind me – The emphasis is on the word “me” (:18,32; 10:6). Jehu did God's work at this time, and yet he was very self-centred in doing it, seeking a personal following and glory to himself rather than to God. Our involvement in God's work doesn't automatically make our attitudes correct in all ways. Jehu seems to have used his service of God as an outlet for his anger (:20). See on 10:11.

in his chariot. <sup>25</sup> Then Jehu said to Bidkar his captain, Pick him up, and throw him in the plot of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite; for remember how, when you and I rode together after Ahab his father, Yahweh laid this burden on him: <sup>26</sup> ‘Surely I have seen yesterday the blood of Naboth, and the blood of his sons’, says Yahweh; ‘and I will repay you in this plot of ground’, says Yahweh. Now therefore take and cast him onto the plot of ground, according to the word of Yahweh. <sup>27</sup> But when Ahaziah the king of Judah saw this, he fled by the way of the garden house. Jehu followed after him, and said, Strike him also in the chariot! They struck him at the ascent of Gur, which is by Ib-learn. He fled to Megiddo, and died there. <sup>28</sup> His servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his tomb with his fathers in the city of David. <sup>29</sup> In the eleventh year of Joram the son of Ahab began Ahaziah to reign over Judah. <sup>30</sup> When Jehu had come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; and she painted her eyes, and attired her head, and looked out at the window. <sup>31</sup> As Jehu entered in at the gate she said, Do you come in peace, Zimri, you murderer of your master? <sup>32</sup> He lifted up his face to the window and said, Who is on my side? Who? Two or three eunuchs looked out at him. <sup>33</sup> He said, Throw her down! So they threw her down; and some of her blood was sprinkled on the wall, and on the horses. Then he trampled her under foot. <sup>34</sup> When he had come in, he ate and drank; and he said, See now to this cursed woman, and bury her; for she is a king’s daughter. <sup>35</sup> They went to bury her; but they found no more of her than the skull, and the feet, and the palms of her hands. <sup>36</sup> Therefore they came back, and told him. He said, This is the word of Yahweh which He spoke by His servant Elijah the Tishbite saying, ‘The dogs will eat the flesh of Jezebel on the plot of Jezreel, <sup>37</sup> and the body of Jezebel shall be as dung on the face of the field in the portion of Jezreel, so that they shall not say, This is Jezebel’.

Jehu Kills Ahab’s Family

Now Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria. Jehu wrote letters and sent to Samaria, to the rulers of Jezreel, even the elders, and to those who brought up the sons of Ahab, saying, <sup>2</sup> Now as soon as this letter comes to you, since your master’s sons are with you, and there are with you chariots and horses, a fortified city also, and armour: <sup>3</sup> Select the best and fittest of your master’s sons, set him on his father’s throne, and fight for your master’s house. <sup>4</sup> But they were exceedingly afraid and said, Behold, the two kings didn't stand before him! How then shall we stand? <sup>5</sup> He who was over the household, and he who was over the city, the elders also, and those who raised the children, sent to Jehu saying, We are your servants, and will do all that you ask us. We will not make any man king. You do that which is good in your eyes. <sup>6</sup> Then he wrote a letter the second time to them saying, If you are on my side, and if you will listen to my voice, take the heads of the men your master's sons, and come to me to Jezreel by tomorrow this time. Now the king's sons, being seventy persons, were with the great men of the city who brought them up. <sup>7</sup> It happened, when the letter came to them, that they took the king's sons and killed them, all seventy persons, and put their heads in baskets, and sent them to him to Jezreel. <sup>8</sup> A messenger came and told him, They have brought the heads of the king's sons. He said, Lay them in two heaps at the entrance of the gate until the morning. <sup>9</sup> It happened in the morning, that he went out and stood and said to all the people, You are righteous. Behold, I conspired against my master, and killed him; but who struck all these? <sup>10</sup> Know now that nothing shall fall to the earth of the word of Yahweh, which Yahweh spoke concerning the house of Ahab. For Yahweh has done that which He spoke by His servant Elijah. <sup>11</sup> So Jehu struck all that remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel, with all his great men, his familiar friends, and his priests, until he left him none remaining. <sup>12</sup> He arose and departed, and went to Samaria. As he was at the shearing house of the shepherds on the way, <sup>13</sup> Jehu met with the brothers of Ahaziah king of Judah and said, Who are you? They answered, We are the brothers of Ahaziah. We are going down to greet the children of the king and the children of the queen. <sup>14</sup> He said, Take them alive! They took them alive, and killed them at the pit of the shearing house, even forty-two men. He didn't leave any of them. <sup>15</sup> When he had departed from there, he met Jehonadab the son of Rechab coming to meet him. He greeted him and said to him, Is your heart right, as my heart is with your heart? Jehonadab answered, It is. If it is, give me your hand. He gave him his hand; and he took him up to him into the chariot. <sup>16</sup> He said, Come with me, and see

9:27 Ahaziah failed to learn from Biblical history – that association with the wicked kings of Israel would be to his own hurt (see on 3:7; 7:18). The Bible is largely history, specially selected for us to learn from and discern the relevance to our own lives (Rom. 15:4).

9:36 This is the word of Yahweh – God’s word is put for its fulfilment – so certain is it of fulfilment.

10:11 This would seem unethical; Jehu was being wilfully aggressive and bloodthirsty, justifying it in the name of zeal for God. Likewise he killed Ahaziah simply on the basis of 'guilt by association' with Joram, and then killed 42 of Ahaziah's relatives by taking 'guilt by association' to yet another degree (:14). Defence of God's Truth must never become an outlet for our native anger and dysfunction; see on 9:19.

10:16 See my zeal for Yahweh – True zeal for God is never so overtly self projected. Pride in spirituality means we're not spiritual and simply 'don't get it'. Claiming to be obedient to God's word (:17) can never justify such spiritual pride; pride is utterly reprehensible to God and we likewise should turn away from it when we encounter it.

my zeal for Yahweh. So they made him ride in his chariot. <sup>17</sup> When he came to Samaria, he struck all who remained to Ahab in Samaria, until he had destroyed him, according to the word of Yahweh, which He spoke to Elijah.

Jehu Kills the Baal Worshipers

<sup>18</sup> Jehu gathered all the people together and said to them, Ahab served Baal a little; but Jehu will serve him much. <sup>19</sup> Now therefore call to me all the prophets of Baal, all of his worshippers, and all of his priests. Let none be absent; for I have a great sacrifice to Baal. Whoever is absent, he shall not live. But Jehu did it in subtlety, intending that he might destroy the worshippers of Baal.

<sup>21</sup> Jehu sent through all Israel; and all the worshippers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left that didn't come. They came into the house of Baal; and the house of Baal was filled from one end to the other. <sup>22</sup> He said to him who was over the vestry, Bring out robes for all the worshippers of Baal! He brought robes out to them. <sup>23</sup> Jehu went with Jehonadab the son of Rechab into the house of Baal. Then he said to the worshippers of Baal, Search, and look that there are here with you none of the servants of Yahweh, but the worshippers of Baal only. <sup>24</sup> They went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings. Now Jehu had appointed him eighty men outside and said, If any of the men whom I bring into your hands escape, he who lets him go, his life shall be for the life of him.

<sup>25</sup> It happened, as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, that Jehu said to the guard and to the captains, Go in, and kill them! Let none escape. They struck them with the edge of the sword; and the guard and the captains cast them out, and went into the inner room of the house of Baal. <sup>26</sup> They brought out the pillars that were in the house of Baal, and burned them. <sup>27</sup> They broke down the pillar of Baal, and broke down the house of Baal and made it a latrine, to this day. <sup>28</sup> Thus Jehu destroyed Baal out of Israel.

Jehu's Weakness

<sup>29</sup> However Jehu didn't depart from following the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin: the golden calves that were in Bethel, and in Dan. <sup>30</sup> Yahweh said to Jehu, Because you have done well in executing that which is right in My eyes, and have done to the house of Ahab according to

10:18 This deceitful behaviour is surely unethical. We cannot justify unethical behaviour in the name of obeying God and defending His Truth against apostasy. So many sins have been committed in the name of this. Elijah gathered together all the Baal worshippers to a showdown on Carmel, but he did so on a transparent basis.

10:30 Hosea says that the blood of Jezreel would be visited upon the house of Jehu (Hos. 1:4). At Jezreel, Jehu had killed Ahab's family in a quite literal bloodbath. And God had commented that because Jehu had done this and thus fulfilled His word, Je-all that was in My heart, your sons of the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel. <sup>31</sup> But Jehu took no heed to walk in the law of Yahweh, the God of Israel, with all his heart. He didn't depart from the sins of Jeroboam, with which he made Israel to sin. <sup>32</sup> In those days Yahweh began to weaken Israel; and Hazael struck them in all the borders of Israel: <sup>33</sup> from the Jordan eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and the Manassites, from Aroer, which is by the valley of the Arnon, even Gilead and Bashan. <sup>34</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Jehu, and all that he did, and all his might, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>35</sup> Jehu slept with his fathers; and they buried him in Samaria. Jehoahaz his son reigned in his place. <sup>36</sup> The time that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty-eight years.

Joash Is Crowned King

Now when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the seed royal. <sup>2</sup> But Jehosheba, the daughter of king Joram, sister of Ahaziah, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him away from among the king's sons who were slain, even him and his nurse, and put them in the bedroom. They hid him from Athaliah, so that he was not slain; <sup>3</sup> he was with her hidden hu's family would reign for the next four generations. So why, then, does Hosea start talking about punishing the house of Jehu for what they did to the house of Ahab? Jehu became proud about the manner in which he had been the channel for God's purpose to be fulfilled, inviting others to come and behold his zeal for God (:16). Jehu and his children showed themselves to not really be spiritually minded, and yet they prided themselves in having physically done God's will. And because of this, Hosea talks in such angry terms about retribution for what they had done; the house of Jehu's act of obedience to God actually became something his family had to be punished for, because they had done it in a proud spirit. We see this all the time around us. Men and women who clearly are instruments in God's hand, like the Assyrians were, doing His will... but being proud about it and becoming exalted in their own eyes because of it. And God through Hosea is so sensitive to the awfulness of this.

10:31 Jehu took no heed to walk in the law of Yahweh – Jehu had been obedient to God's word about Ahab's family and Baal as an outlet for his own aggression, anger and pride. But Jehu clearly didn't really have a heart for God, because he only focused on those aspects of God's word which were convenient to him and reinforced his own personality type. An obsession with criticism of others for their doctrinal and moral weaknesses has often been passed off as zeal for God's word, when the whole spirit of God's word in other matters has been totally ignored. God asks for our devotion to His word in every part of our hearts and living, not just as a justification for what we naturally would like to do.

11:1 In response to the murder of her son, Athaliah murdered others. The cycle of hurt continues like this in so many lives, doing to others what was done to us. Only the gospel of grace in Christ can break this cycle.

in the house of Yahweh six years. Athaliah reigned over the land. <sup>4</sup> In the seventh year Jehoiada sent and fetched the captains over hundreds of the Carites and of the guard, and brought them to him into the house of Yahweh. He made a covenant with them, and took an oath of them in the house of Yahweh, and showed them the king's son. <sup>5</sup> He commanded them saying, This is the thing that you shall do: a third part of you, who come in on the Sabbath, shall be keepers of the watch of the king's house; <sup>6</sup> a third part shall be at the gate Sur; and a third part at the gate behind the guard. So you shall keep the watch of the house, and be a barrier. <sup>7</sup> The two companies of you, even all who go out on the Sabbath, shall keep the watch of the house of Yahweh around the king. <sup>8</sup> You shall surround the king, every man with his weapons in his hand; and he who comes within the ranks, let him be slain. Be with the king when he goes out, and when he comes in. <sup>9</sup> The captains over hundreds did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded; and they took every man his men, those who were to come in on the Sabbath, with those who were to go out on the Sabbath, and came to Jehoiada the priest. <sup>10</sup> The priest delivered to the captains over hundreds the spears and shields that had been king David's, which were in the house of Yahweh. <sup>11</sup> The guard stood, every man with his weapons in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left side of the house, along by the altar and the house, around the king. <sup>12</sup> Then he brought out the king's son and put the crown on him, and gave him the testimony. They made him king and anointed him; and they clapped their hands, and said, Long live the king! <sup>13</sup> When Athaliah heard the noise of the guard and of the people, she came to the people into the house of Yahweh. <sup>14</sup> She looked, and behold, the king stood by the pillar, as the tradition was, and the captains and the trumpets near the king; and all the people of the land rejoiced, and blew trumpets. Then Athaliah tore her clothes and cried, Treason! Treason! <sup>15</sup> Jehoiada the priest commanded the captains of hundreds who were set over the army, and said to them, Bring her out between the ranks. Kill him who follows her with the sword. For the priest said, Don't let her be slain in the house of Yahweh. <sup>16</sup> So they made way for her; and she went by the way of the horses' entry to the king's house. She was slain there. <sup>17</sup> Jehoiada made a covenant between Yahweh and the king and the people, that they should be Yahweh's people; also between the king and the people. <sup>18</sup> All the people of the land went to the house

11:17 The covenant between Yahweh and the king was related to the covenant between the king and the people. Our covenant relationship with God isn't just between Him and us. It demands that we are in covenant with His people; we can't love Him that begat without loving those others begotten by Him (1 Jn. 4:9).

11:18 This purge of Baal worship came soon after Jehu's purge of Baal worship of Baal, and broke it down. They broke his altars and his images in pieces thoroughly, and killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. The priest appointed officers over the house of Yahweh. <sup>19</sup> He took the captains over hundreds, and the Carites, and the guard, and all the people of the land; and they brought down the king from the house of Yahweh, and came by the way of the gate of the guard to the king's house. He sat on the throne of the kings. <sup>20</sup> So all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet. Athaliah they had slain with the sword at the king's house. <sup>21</sup> Jehoash was seven years old when he began to reign.

Joash Repairs the Temple

In the seventh year of Jehu began Jehoash to reign; and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zibiah of Beersheba. <sup>2</sup> Jehoash did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh all the days in which Jehoiada the priest instructed him. <sup>3</sup> However the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places. <sup>4</sup> Jehoash said to the priests, All the money of the holy things that is brought into the house of Yahweh, in current money, the money of the persons at which each man is rated, and all the money that it comes into any man's heart to bring into the house of Yahweh, <sup>5</sup> let the priests take it to them, every man from his acquaintance; and they shall repair the breaches of the house, wherever any breach shall be found. <sup>6</sup> But, in the twenty third year of king Jehoash the priests had not repaired the breaches of the house. <sup>7</sup> Then king Jehoash called for Jehoiada the priest, and for the other priests, and said to them, Why don't you repair the breaches of the house? Now therefore take no more money from your treasurers, but deliver it for the breaches of the house. <sup>8</sup> The priests agreed that they should take no more money from the people, neither repair the breaches of the house themselves. <sup>9</sup> Jehoiada the priest took a chest, and bored a hole in its lid, and set it beside the altar, on the right side as one comes into the house of Yahweh. The priests who kept the threshold put therein all the money that was brought into the house of Yahweh. <sup>10</sup> It was so, when they saw that there was much money in the chest, that the king's scribe and the high priest came up, and they put up in bags and counted the money that was found in the house of Yahweh. <sup>11</sup> They gave the money that was weighed out into the hands of those who did the work, who had the oversight of the house of Yahweh. They paid it out to the carpenters and the builders, who worked on the house of Yahweh, <sup>12</sup> and to the masons and the stone cutters, and for buying timber and cut stone to repair the breaches of the house of Yahweh, and for all that was laid out for the house to repair it. <sup>13</sup> But there were not made for the house of Yahweh cups of silver, snuffers, basins, trumpets, any vessels of gold, or vessels of silver, of the money that was brought into the house of Yahweh; <sup>14</sup> for they gave that to those who did the work, and repaired therewith the house of Yahweh. <sup>15</sup> Moreover they didn't demand an accounting from the men into whose hand they delivered the money to give to those who did the work; for they dealt faithfully. <sup>16</sup> The money for the trespass offerings, and the money for the sin offerings, were not brought into the house of Yahweh: it was the priests'.

(10:18). The reforms were obviously never far reaching. We can remove the external appearance of sin from our lives, but it will come back quickly unless we replace sinful practices with dedication to the true God. Otherwise, the void created will again be filled by sin, in one form or another. Breaking sinful habits must be followed up by replacing them with something spiritual, or else we will revert again to sin.

12:2 Our spirituality can be dominated by others for a time, but in the end, God wants us to have a personal relationship with Him – and therefore He has a way of removing all the props which we have had holding up our faith, and then we are left alone to directly engage with Him totally on our own initiative. This may account for some of the midlife crises of faith which there are amongst believers who were raised in the Faith.

The Death of Jehoash

up to Jerusalem. <sup>18</sup> Jehoash king of Judah took all the holy things that Jehoshaphat, Jehoram and Ahaziah, his fathers, kings of Judah, had dedicated, and his own holy things, and all the gold that was found in the treasures of the house of Yahweh, and of the king's house, and sent it to Hazael king of Syria; and he went away from Jerusalem. <sup>19</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>20</sup> His servants arose, and made a conspiracy, and struck Joash at the house of Millo, on the way that goes down to Silla. <sup>21</sup> For Jozacar the son of Shimeath, and Jehozabad the son of Shomer, his servants, struck him, and he died; and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David. Amaziah his son reigned in his place.

Jehoahaz's Reign

In the twenty-third year of Joash son of Ahaziah king of Judah, Jehoahaz the son of Jehu began to reign over Israel in Samaria for seventeen years. <sup>2</sup> He did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, and followed the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, in which he made Israel to sin. He didn't depart from it. <sup>3</sup> The anger of Yahweh was kindled against Israel, and He delivered them into the hand of Hazael king of Syria, and into the hand of Ben Hadad

12:18 He went away from Jerusalem – Sometimes our faithless actions appear to have worked out and bought us the deliverance we sought, but the parallel record in Chronicles makes it clear that Jehoash paid for this with the loss of his personal faith.

the son of Hazael, continually. <sup>4</sup> Jehoahaz begged Yahweh, and Yahweh listened to him; for He saw the oppression of Israel, how that the king of Syria oppressed them. <sup>5</sup> Yahweh gave Israel a saviour, so that they went out from under the hand of the Syrians; and the children of Israel lived in their tents as before. <sup>6</sup> Nevertheless they didn't depart from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, with which he made Israel to sin, but walked therein. There remained the Asherah also in Samaria. <sup>7</sup> For the king of Syria didn't leave to Jehoahaz of the people any more than fifty horsemen, ten chariots and ten thousand footmen; for the king of Syria destroyed them, and made them like the dust in threshing. <sup>8</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz, and all that he did, and his might, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>9</sup> Jehoahaz slept with his fathers; and they buried him in Samaria: and Joash his son reigned in his place.

Jehoash's Reign

<sup>10</sup> In the thirty-seventh year of Joash king of Judah, Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz began to reign over Israel in Samaria for sixteen years. <sup>11</sup> He did that which was evil in the sight of

Yahweh; he didn't depart from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin; but he walked therein. <sup>12</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, and his might with which he fought against Amaziah king of Judah, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>13</sup> Joash slept with his fathers; and Jeroboam sat on his throne. Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel. <sup>14</sup> Now Elisha contracted a sickness of which he would die. Joash the king of Israel came down to him and wept over him and said, My father, my father, the chariots of Israel and its horsemen! <sup>15</sup> Elisha said to him, Take bow and arrows; and he took to him bow and arrows. <sup>16</sup> He said to the king of Israel, Put your hand on the bow; and he put his hand on it. Elisha laid his hands on the king's hands. <sup>17</sup> He said, Open the window eastward; and he opened them. Then Elisha said, Shoot! And he shot. He said, Yahweh's arrow of victory, even the arrow of victory over Syria; for you shall strike the Syrians in Aphek, until you have consumed them. <sup>18</sup> He said, Take the arrows; and he took them. He said to the king of Israel, Strike the ground; and he struck three times, and stopped. <sup>19</sup> The man of God was angry with him and said, You should have struck five or six times. Then you would have struck Syria until you had consumed it, whereas now you shall strike Syria just three times.

13:14 Elijah's example clearly influenced Elisha, both in the nature of the miracles which he performed, and in how when Elisha died, he was likewise seen as "My father, the chariot of Israel, and the horseman thereof". How Elisha related to Elijah, was how people came to relate to Elisha. This is not only a neat cameo of the immense personal influence which we have upon each other; it reflects how Elisha learnt the lesson from Elijah, which we too must learn, of freely and totally absorbing ourselves in the progress of God's Angelic, cherubic work to bring about His glory and not our own. See on 2:12.

The Death of Elisha and of Hazael

<sup>20</sup> Elisha died, and they buried him. Now the bands of the Moabites invaded the land at the coming in of the year. <sup>21</sup> It happened, as they were burying a man, that behold, they spied a band; and they cast the man into the tomb of Elisha. As soon as the man touched the bones of Elisha, he revived, and stood up on his feet. <sup>22</sup> Hazael king of Syria oppressed Israel all the days of Jehoahaz. <sup>23</sup> But Yahweh was gracious to them and had compassion on them, and had respect to them because of His covenant with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and would not destroy them, neither did He cast them out from His presence at that time. <sup>24</sup> Hazael king of Syria died; and Ben Hadad his son reigned in his place. <sup>25</sup> Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz took again out of the hand of Ben Hadad the son of Hazael the cities which he had taken out of the hand of Jehoahaz his father by war. Joash struck him three times, and recovered the cities of Israel.

Amaziah Becomes King of Judah

In the second year of Joash son of Joahaz king of Israel began Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah to reign. <sup>2</sup> He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jehoaddin of Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup> He

13:19 Yahweh in some ways and at some times allows Himself to be limited by the perceptions and faith of His people. If Joash had perceived deeper what Elisha meant and discerned the symbolism of the arrows, he would have smitten many times and the Syrian threat would have been eliminated entirely. But he didn't, and therefore Elijah was frustrated with him; the great potential victory was limited by a man's lack of spiritual perception. Whilst theoretical understanding alone can't save anyone, it plays a part in the quality and nature of a person's relationship with their God.

13:21 Jesus was the first person to be given immortality (1 Cor. 15:20,23); the people resurrected before His time must therefore have died again. God's plan is that all His people will be rewarded with immortality together, at the final resurrection and judgment (Heb. 11:39,40; 2 Tim. 4:8).

14:2 His mother's name – So often this is mentioned in the records of the kings, teaching us the huge spiritual influence of a mother upon her children throughout their lives.

14:3 There are levels of devotion to God, reflected in the different levels of reward at the last day (Lk. 19:17-19; 1 Cor. 15:41). If we have a heart for God, we won't be minimalists in His service; motivated by love for Him rather than any seeking of personal glory in the future, we will seek to always serve Him on the highest level we can. Amaziah served God on the same level as his father; our service of God shouldn't be a living out of parental expectation, nor should we feel content and self satisfied did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh, yet not like David his father: he did according to all that Joash his father had done. <sup>4</sup> However the high places were not taken away. The people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places. <sup>5</sup> As soon as the kingdom was established in his hand, he killed his servants who had slain the king his father. <sup>6</sup> But the children of the murderers he didn't put to death; as written in the book of the law of Moses, that Yahweh commanded, saying, The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, nor the children be put to death for the fathers; but every man shall die for his own sin. <sup>7</sup> He killed of Edom in the Valley of Salt ten thousand and took Sela by war, and called its name Joktheel to this day. <sup>8</sup> Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash, the son of Jehoahaz son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, let us look one another in the face. <sup>9</sup> Jehoash the king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah saying, The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon saying, 'Give your daughter to my son as wife. Then a wild animal that was in Lebanon passed by, and trampled down the thistle. <sup>10</sup> You have indeed struck Edom, and your heart has lifted you up. Enjoy the glory of it, and stay at home; for why should you because we serve God on the level of our parents. We are to be motivated by our personal engagement with the fact God has loved us and His Son died for us, rather than comparing ourselves amongst ourselves; for Christ is to be for us the only standard of comparison (2 Cor. 10:12). The common phrase in the record of the Kings of Judah "he did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh", used here in :3 about both Joash and Amaziah, is hard to conclusively interpret. Many of the men of whom this was said were not very righteous, and some (e.g. Uzziah, 15:34) were punished for their later apostasy. Possible explanations are that they repented at the end, although unrecorded; or that they were initially righteous; or that God counted them as righteous although they did wrong things. Or perhaps a man can do (and maybe this is the word that needs emphasis) what is right in God's eyes, but still ultimately be condemned because his heart is far from God. Amaziah "did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh, yet not like (i.e. he didn't do his works like) David his father" must be paralleled with 2 Chron. 25:2: "he did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh, but not with a perfect heart". Working for God as David did therefore involved doing the works with a perfect heart, the open conscience which David so often displayed in the Psalms. But Amaziah was deceived by the fact he was doing good works, and the real essence of his relationship with God was thereby overlooked. And we too can project a shadow-self to others, an image of spirituality, which eventually we come to believe ourselves; when our heart is far from God. This feature of human nature explains why a man or woman can reach such heights of devotion and then turn round and walk away from it all, out into the darkness of the world.

14:10 Success in the cut and thrust of worldly life shouldn't lead us to have the same attitude to our brethren, even if we consider ourselves stronger than them spiritually. We shouldn't treat our weaker brethren as if they are unbelieving worldlings; that was the mistake Amaziah made here.

meddle to your harm, that you should fall, even you, and Judah with you?"

<sup>14</sup> He took all the gold and silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of Yahweh and in the treasures of the king's house, with hostages also, and returned to Samaria.

they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>19</sup> They made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem; and he fled to Lachish; but they sent after him to Lachish, and killed him there. <sup>20</sup> They brought him on horses; and he was buried at Jerusalem with his fathers in the city of David. <sup>21</sup> All the people of Judah took Azariah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in the place of his father Amaziah. <sup>22</sup> He built Elath, and restored it to Judah, after that the king slept with his fathers.

Jeroboam's Reign

<sup>23</sup> In the fifteenth year of Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah, Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel began to reign in Samaria for forty-one years. <sup>24</sup> He did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh: he didn't depart from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin. <sup>25</sup> He restored the border of Israel from the entrance of Hamath to the sea of the Arabah, according to the word of Yahweh, the God of Israel, which He spoke by His servant Jonah the son of Amittai, the prophet who was of Gath Hepher. <sup>26</sup> For Yahweh saw the affliction of Israel, that it was very bitter; for

14:12 Each man to his tent – Although by this time the people were living in houses, their home was described idiomatically as their 'tent' (8:21). This was a reflection of the fact that God always wants His people to live in recognition of the fact that this life isn't permanent, we are travellers on a journey towards His future Kingdom, which will be our permanent home (Heb. 13:14). We need to bear this in mind in how we perceive our room, apartment, house or mansion in which we live. All is temporary, a mere tent on the journey; and our resources of time and money should go towards the final destination rather than our temporary abode.

14:26 We must watch out for the tendency to think that because a man has dug a hole and then fallen into it, well, that's his problem. But we have all done this, hopelessly there was none shut up nor left at large, neither was there any helper for Israel. <sup>27</sup> Yahweh didn't say that He would blot out the name of Israel from under the sky; but He saved them by the hand of Jeroboam the son of Joash. <sup>28</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, and all that he did, and his might, how he warred, and how he recovered for Israel Damascus and Hamath, which had belonged to Judah, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>29</sup> Jeroboam slept with his fathers, even with the kings of Israel; and Zechariah his son reigned in his place.

The Reigns of Azariah and Zechariah

In the twenty-seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel began Azariah son of Amaziah king of Judah to reign. <sup>2</sup> Sixteen years old was he when he began to reign; and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jecoliah of Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup> He did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh, according to all that his father Amaziah had done. <sup>4</sup> However the high places were not taken away: the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places. <sup>5</sup> Yahweh struck the king, so that he was a leper to the day of his death, and lived in a separate house. Jotham the king's son was over the household, judging the people of the land. <sup>6</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Azariah, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>7</sup> Azariah slept with his fathers; and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David. Jotham his son reigned in his place. <sup>8</sup> In the thirty-eighth year of Azariah king of Judah, Zechariah the son of Jeroboam reigned over Israel in Samaria six months. <sup>9</sup> He did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, as his fathers had done: he didn't depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin. <sup>10</sup> Shallum the son of Jabesh conspired against

so. We only have ourselves to blame. And yet God has rushed to us in Christ. He was grieved for the affliction of Israel, even though it was purely due to their own sin and wilful rebellion. If a man has fallen into his own hole, he is still down there and needs help, however he got there.

15:3 According to all that his father Amaziah had done – See on 14:3.

15:9 The sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin – This phrase runs like a refrain throughout the record of Israel's kings. The sinfulness of sin is that it leads others into sin; Jeroboam's sin influenced many generations to sin in the same way. The Biblical record so strongly emphasizes this. Our behaviour has more influence upon others, for good or for bad, than we may realize; and it continues after our death, even if in this life we may consider ourselves insignificant to others. Jeroboam's sin was in creating another centre of worship apart from the temple; thus he divided God's people. It could be argued that this sin of division was what was so extremely serious to God. Our divisive behaviour, or upholding the divisions created by others, will have serious consequence to the next generation of believers.

him, and struck him before the people, and killed him, and reigned in his place. <sup>11</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Zechariah, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. <sup>12</sup> This was the word of Yahweh which He spoke to Jehu, saying, Your sons to the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel. So it came to pass.

Wicked Kings of Israel

<sup>13</sup> Shallum the son of Jabesh began to reign in the thirty-ninth year of Azariah king of Judah; and he reigned for a month in Samaria. <sup>14</sup> Menahem the son of Gadi went up from Tirzah, and came to Samaria, and struck Shallum the son of Jabesh in Samaria, and killed him, and reigned in his place. <sup>15</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Shallum, and his conspiracy which he made, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. <sup>16</sup> Then Menahem struck Tiphseh, and all who were therein, and its borders, from Tirzah, because they didn't open to him. Therefore he struck it; and all the women therein who were with child he ripped up. <sup>17</sup> In the thirty-ninth year of Azariah king of Judah, Menahem the son of Gadi began to reign over Israel for ten years in Samaria. <sup>18</sup> He did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh. He didn't depart all his days from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin. <sup>19</sup> There came against the land Pul the king of Assyria; and Menahem gave Pul one thousand talents of silver, that he might help him to confirm the kingdom in his hand. <sup>20</sup> Menahem exacted the money of Israel, even of all the mighty men of wealth, of each man fifty shekels of silver, to give to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria turned back, and didn't stay there in the land. <sup>21</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Menahem, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>22</sup> Menahem slept with his fathers; and Pekahiah his son reigned in his place. <sup>23</sup> In the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah Pekahiah the son of Menahem began to reign over Israel in Samaria for two years. <sup>24</sup> He did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh. He didn't depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin. <sup>25</sup> Pekah the son of Remaliah, his captain, conspired against him and struck him in Samaria, in the castle of the king's house, with Argob and Arieah; and with him were fifty men of the Gileadites. He killed him, and reigned in his place. <sup>26</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Pekahiah, and all that he did, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. <sup>27</sup> In the fifty-second year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekah the son of Remaliah began to reign over Israel in Samaria for twenty years. <sup>28</sup> He did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh. He didn't depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin. <sup>29</sup> In the days of Pekah king of Israel came Tiglath Pileser king of Assyria, and took Ijon, Abel Beth Maacah, Janoah, Kedesh, Hazor, Gilead, Galilee all the land of Naphtali; and he carried them captive to Assyria. <sup>30</sup> Hoshea the son of Elah made a conspiracy against Pekah the son of Remaliah, and struck him, and killed him, and reigned in his place, in the twentieth year of Jotham the son of Uzziah. <sup>31</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Pekah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

Jotham's Reign

<sup>32</sup> In the second year of Pekah the son of Remaliah king of Israel began Jotham the son of Uzziah king of Judah to reign. <sup>33</sup> He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jerusha the daughter of Zadok. <sup>34</sup> He did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh; he did according to all that his father Uzziah had done. <sup>35</sup> However the high places were not taken away: the people still sacrificed and burned incense in the high places. He built the upper gate of the house of Yahweh. <sup>36</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>37</sup> In those days Yahweh began to send against Judah Rezin the king

Ahaz's Reign

In the seventeenth year of Pekah the son of Remaliah Ahaz the son of Jotham king of Judah began to reign. <sup>2</sup> Twenty years old was Ahaz when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. He didn't do that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh his God, like David his father. <sup>3</sup> But he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, yes, and made his son to pass through the fire, according to the abominations of the nations, whom Yahweh cast out from before the children of Israel. <sup>4</sup> He sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places and on the hills, and under every green tree. <sup>5</sup> Then Rezin king of Syria and Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel came up to Jerusalem to war; and they besieged Ahaz, but could not overcome him. <sup>6</sup> At that time Rezin king of Syria recovered Elath to Syria, and drove the Jews from Elath; and the Syrians came to Elath, and lived there, to this day. <sup>7</sup> So Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath Pileser king of As-

16:2 In the eyes of Yahweh – This could be a reference to the Angels. Although God can see and know and do all things directly of Himself, it seems He always prefers to work through some kind of mechanism. The Angels are perhaps the mechanism by which He is aware of all things in the lives of people on earth; we are continually in their presence, with them feeding back to God the situations on earth, and perhaps discussing them in the court of Heaven (1 Kings 22:22).

16:7 I am your servant and your son – Ahaz ought to have been aware that he was syria saying, I am your servant and your son. Come up, and save me out of the hand of the king of Syria, and out of the hand of the king of Israel, who are rising up against me. <sup>8</sup> Ahaz took the silver and gold that was found in the house of Yahweh, and in the treasures of the king's house, and sent it for a present to the king of Assyria. <sup>9</sup> The king of Assyria listened to him. The king of Assyria went up against Damascus, and took it, and carried its people captive to Kir, and killed Rezin. <sup>10</sup> King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath Pileser king of Assyria, and saw the altar that was at Damascus; and king Ahaz sent to Urijah the priest the fashion of the altar, and its pattern, according to all its workmanship. <sup>11</sup> Urijah the priest built an altar: according to all that king Ahaz had sent from Damascus, so Urijah the priest made it for the coming of king Ahaz from Damascus. <sup>12</sup> When the king had come from Damascus, the king saw the altar, and the king drew near to the altar, and offered on it. <sup>13</sup> He burnt his burnt offering and his meal offering, and poured his drink offering, and sprinkled the blood of his peace offerings on the altar. <sup>14</sup> The bronze altar, which was before Yahweh, he brought from the forefront of the house, from between his altar and the house of Yahweh, and put it on the north side of his altar. <sup>15</sup> King Ahaz commanded Urijah the priest saying, On the great altar burn the morning burnt offering, and the evening meal offering, and the king's burnt offering, and his meal offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, and their meal offering and their drink offerings; and sprinkle on it all the blood of the burnt offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice; but the bronze altar shall be for me to inquire by. <sup>16</sup> Urijah the priest did so, according to all that king Ahaz commanded. <sup>17</sup> King Ahaz cut off the panels of the bases, and removed the basins from off them, and took down the sea from off the bronze oxen that were under it, and put it on a pavement of stone. <sup>18</sup> The covered way for the Sabbath that they had built in the house, and the king's entry outside the house of Yahweh, he changed because of the king of Assyria. <sup>19</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Ahaz which he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>20</sup> Ahaz

Yahweh's servant and son, and that Yahweh's claims upon us are total. We can't serve two masters. Ahaz likely justified himself by arguing that this was merely a form of words which was common at the time; but words have meanings and power, and by them we shall be judged at the last day (Mt. 12:37). We use so many of them each day that we can forget their colossal significance to God.

16:13 He offered a peace offering, when actually he was not at peace with God at all (other examples in 1 Sam. 13:9; Prov. 7:14; Am. 5:22). We must examine ourselves to know whether we are at peace with God before offering the "peace offering" of the breaking of bread service.

16:20 Wicked kings usually had wicked sons, but good king Hezekiah demonstrates that bad parents don't have to have bad children; the power of God's word is such that slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David; and Hezekiah his son reigned in his place.

Israel Are Taken Captive into Assyria

In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah, Hoshea the son of Elah began to reign in Samaria over Israel for nine years. <sup>2</sup> He did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, yet not as the kings of Israel who were before him. <sup>3</sup> Against him came up Shalmaneser king of Assyria; and Hoshea became his servant, and brought him tribute. <sup>4</sup> The king of Assyria found conspiracy in Hoshea; for he had sent messengers to So king of Egypt, and offered no tribute to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year. Therefore the king of Assyria shut him up, and bound him in prison. <sup>5</sup> Then the king of Assyria came up throughout all the land, and went up to Samaria, and besieged it three years. <sup>6</sup> In the ninth year of Hoshea the king of Assyria took Samaria, and carried Israel away to Assyria, and placed them in Halah, and on the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes. <sup>7</sup> It was so, because the children of Israel had sinned against Yahweh their God, who brought them up out of the land of Egypt from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt. They had feared other gods, <sup>8</sup> and walked in the statutes of the kings of Israel which they had made, and of the nations, whom Yahweh cast out from before the children of Israel. <sup>9</sup> The children of Israel did secretly things that were not right against Yahweh their God. They built them high places in all their cities, from the tower of the watchmen to the fortified city; <sup>10</sup> and they set them up pillars and Asherim on every high hill, and under every green tree. <sup>11</sup> There they burnt incense in all the high places, as did the nations whom Yahweh carried away before them; and they worked wicked things to provoke Yahweh to anger; <sup>12</sup> and they served idols, of which Yahweh had said to them, You shall not do this thing. <sup>13</sup> Yet Yahweh testified to Israel and to Judah, by every prophet and every seer, saying, Turn from your evil ways, and keep My commandments and My stat-

the vicious circle can be broken. For in God's word and for those baptized into Christ, there is the power of new creation whereby we can be genuinely born again (Jn. 3:3-5; 2 Cor. 5:17).

17:13-18 Sinfulness is sometimes attached to people apart from the things which they currently do wrong. Sin is serious. The last generation of Israel were judged for their sins not because they had sinned more than any other generation, but because the collective, unforgiven sin of Israel had accumulated with God to such an extent that His judgments fell (:2,13-18; Ez. 9:9). God is not passive and overlooking of unrepented sin, even though His patience and the high threshold level He sets before releasing judgment may make it look like this. The Amorites were likewise only judged once the cup of their iniquities reached a certain level (Gen. 15:16). The passage of time doesn't work some kind of atonement for our sins.

utes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by My servants the prophets. <sup>14</sup> Notwithstanding, they would not listen, but stiffened their neck, like the neck of their fathers, who didn't believe in Yahweh their God. <sup>15</sup> They rejected His statutes and His covenant that He made with their fathers, and His testimonies which He had testified to them; and they followed vanity, and became vain, and followed the nations that were around them, concerning whom Yahweh had commanded them that they should not do like them. <sup>16</sup> They forsook all the commandments of Yahweh their God, and made them molten images, even two calves, and made an Asherah, and worshipped all the army of the sky, and served Baal. <sup>17</sup> They caused their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire, and used divination and enchantments, and sold themselves to do that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, to provoke Him to anger. <sup>18</sup> Therefore Yahweh was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of His sight. There was none left but the tribe of Judah only. <sup>19</sup> Also Judah didn't keep the commandments of Yahweh their God, but walked in the statutes of Israel which they made. <sup>20</sup> Yahweh rejected all the seed of Israel, and afflicted them and delivered them into the hand of spoilers, until He had cast them out of His sight. <sup>21</sup> For He tore Israel from the house of David; and they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king. Jeroboam drove Israel from following Yahweh, and made them sin a great sin. <sup>22</sup> The children of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did; they didn't depart from them; <sup>23</sup> until Yahweh removed Israel out of His sight, as He spoke by all His servants the prophets. So Israel was carried away out of their own land to Assyria to this day. <sup>24</sup> The king of Assyria brought men from Babylon, Cuthah, Avva, Hamath and Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria instead of the children of Israel; and they possessed Samaria, and lived in the cities of it. <sup>25</sup> So it was, at the beginning of their dwelling there, that they didn't fear Yahweh; therefore Yahweh sent lions among them, which killed some of them. <sup>26</sup> Therefore they spoke to the king of Assyria saying, The nations which you have carried away and placed in the cities of Samaria, don't know the law of the god of the land. Therefore

17:15 They followed vanity, and became vain – The idols are referred to as ‘vanities’; those who served them became like them (Ps. 115:8; 135:18). Whilst we may not worship pieces of wood and stone, modern society is full of vain things such as never before. The internet has encouraged this to a huge extent, so that by the end of many modern lives all a person has done is to click a mouse and hit some keys millions of times in vain entertainment and frivolous social commentary, and watched thousands of hours of movies flickering on a screen. Yet the service of the true God provides us with opportunities to use our lives with ultimate, eternal significance and purpose. If we serve Him, the God of ultimate purpose, the antithesis of vanity, we shall become like Him.

he has sent lions among them, and behold, they kill them, because they don't know the law of the god of the land. <sup>27</sup> Then the king of Assyria commanded saying, Carry there one of the priests whom you brought from there; and let them go and dwell there, and let him teach them the law of the god of the land. <sup>28</sup> So one of the priests whom they had carried away from Samaria came and lived in Bethel, and taught them how they should fear Yahweh. <sup>29</sup> However every nation made gods of their own, and put them in the houses of the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in their cities in which they lived. <sup>30</sup> The men of Babylon made Succoth Benoth, the men of Cuth made Nergal, the men of Hamath made Ashima, <sup>31</sup> the Avvites made Nibhaz and Tartak; and the Sepharvites burnt their children in the fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim. <sup>32</sup> So they feared Yahweh, and made to them from among themselves priests of the high places, who sacrificed for them in the houses of the high places. <sup>33</sup> They feared Yahweh, and served their own gods, after the ways of the nations from among whom they had been carried away.

The Broken Covenant

<sup>34</sup> To this day they do what they did before: they don't fear Yahweh, neither do they follow their statutes, or their ordinances, or the law or the commandment which Yahweh commanded the children of Jacob, whom He named Israel. <sup>35</sup> Yahweh had made a covenant with them and commanded them saying, You shall not fear other gods, nor bow yourselves to them nor serve them nor sacrifice to them; <sup>36</sup> but you shall fear Yahweh, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt with great power and with an outstretched arm, and you shall bow yourselves to Him, and you shall sacrifice to Him. <sup>37</sup> The statutes and the ordinances, the law and the commandment which He wrote for you, you shall observe to do for evermore. You shall not fear other

17:33, 34 They feared Yahweh... they don't fear Yahweh – To serve God and also other gods isn't serving God at all – because we simply can't serve two masters (Mt. 6:24). There is no third way – devotion to God must be total, for anything less than that is effectively not serving Him at all. This explains the apparently exaggerated language of :15,16 – that Israel rejected all God's laws and broke every one of His commandments. It's clear they didn't become atheists, they didn't formally reject Yahweh, they kept some of His laws. But because their obedience was so incomplete, God counted them as effectively not being obedient at all. Clearly enough, our relationship with God can't be a mere hobby, an intellectual assent, an occasional fascination, a Sundays only affair. It has to be of the heart.

17:37 The commandment which He wrote for you – God's word is personally written to each generation; the words of the Bible aren't of merely historical interest. God's word is a living word, speaking to and written for each generation in a way which human words and documents can never be. Because the Bible is literature, we can too gods. <sup>38</sup> You shall not forget the covenant that I have made with you; neither shall you fear other gods. <sup>39</sup> But you shall fear Yahweh your God; and He will deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies. <sup>40</sup> However they did not listen, but they did what they did before. <sup>41</sup> So these nations feared Yahweh, and served their engraved images. Their children likewise, and their children's children, as their fathers did, so they do to this day.

Hezekiah Becomes King of Judah

Now it happened in the third year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, that Hezekiah the son of Ahaz king of Judah began to reign. <sup>2</sup> He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abi the daughter of Zechariah. <sup>3</sup> He did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh, according to all that David his father had done. <sup>4</sup> He removed the high places, and broke the pillars, and cut down the Asherah. He also broke in pieces the bronze serpent that Moses had made; for in those days the children of Israel burned incense to it; and he called it Nehushtan. <sup>5</sup> He trusted in Yahweh the God of Israel; so that after him was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor among them that were before him. <sup>6</sup> For he joined with Yahweh; he didn't depart from following Him, but kept His commandments which Yahweh commanded Moses. <sup>7</sup> Yahweh was with him; wherever he went forth he prospered. He rebelled against the king of Assyria, and didn't serve him. <sup>8</sup> He struck the Philistines to Gaza and its borders, from the tower of the watchmen to the fortified city. <sup>9</sup> It happened in the fourth year of king Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, that Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Samaria, and besieged it. <sup>10</sup> At the end of three years they took it: in the sixth year of Hezekiah, which was the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel, Samaria was taken. <sup>11</sup> The king of Assyria carried Israel away to Assyria, and put them in Halah, and on the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes, <sup>12</sup> because they didn't obey the voice of Yahweh their God, easily assume it is only literature. As a genre of communication, it is unique; such is the wonder of the inspired Bible.

18:4 The bronze serpent had become a totem and idol, it was worshipped for what it physically was rather than there being any perception of the salvation in Christ which it had prefigured. The cross has been likewise abused in many Christian traditions.

18:6 He joined with Yahweh – This is what God seeks – that we should intertwine our life and spirit with His. The Hebrew idea of ‘joining’ suggests marriage (Mt. 19:6), and by entering covenant relationship with God through joining to Christ in baptism, this is effectively what we have done. This is an amazing concept – that the God of the universe would join in such intimate relationship with tiny people on this earth. The difference between us is huge beyond words; no wonder we have such difficulty in understanding and responding to His love.

but transgressed His covenant, even all that Moses the servant of Yahweh commanded, and would not hear it, nor do it.

The Assyrian Invasion

<sup>14</sup> Hezekiah king of Judah sent to the king of Assyria to Lachish saying, I have offended; return from me. That which you put on me, I will bear. The king of Assyria appointed to Hezekiah king of Judah three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold. <sup>15</sup> Hezekiah gave him all the silver that was found in the house of Yahweh, and in the treasures of the king's house. <sup>16</sup> At that time, Hezekiah cut off the gold from the doors of Yahweh's temple, and from the pillars which Hezekiah king of Judah had overlaid, and gave it to the king of Assyria. <sup>17</sup> The king of Assyria sent Tartan and Rabsaris and Rab-shakeh from Lachish to king Hezekiah with a great army to Jerusalem. They went up and came to Jerusalem. When they had come up, they came and stood by the conduit of the upper pool, which is in the highway of the fuller's field. <sup>18</sup> When they had called to the king, there came out to them Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebnah the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder.

Rabshakeh's Speech

<sup>19</sup> Rabshakeh said to them, Say now to Hezekiah, 'Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria, What confidence is this in which you trust? <sup>20</sup> You say (but they are but vain words), 'There is counsel and strength for war'. Now on whom do you trust, that you have rebelled against me? <sup>21</sup> Now, behold, you trust in the staff of this bruised reed, even in Egypt. If a man leans on it, it will go into his hand, and pierce it. So is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all

18:13 This stands in intended contrast to the chapter so far, which has described Hezekiah's obedience in such stellar language. The point simply is that bad things happen to good people; commitment to God doesn't shield us from disaster.

In the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah – Hezekiah was mortally sick but then healed by God and given an extra 15 years to live (2 Kings 20:6). He reigned 29 years (:2); therefore this sickness was also in the fourteenth year of his reign. The invasion and his sickness were at the same time. Sometimes the coincidence of serious trials in our lives is such that we are left with no other conclusion but that this has to be God's hand; of itself this destroys any possibility that God gives only the good and there is some cosmic 'Satan' being bringing the evil. Hezekiah's sickness may explain his uncharacteristic lack of faith displayed in :14-16 and :21; or it could be that those decisions were taken in his name by others due to his sickness.

18:20 In the face of overwhelming human odds against him, Hezekiah trusted in the more abstract things of faith in God's word; to the eyes of the world, this is simply laughable. But in life after life, situation after situation, such faith is justified – not only in Biblical history but in examples of faithful believers all around us.

who trust on him. <sup>22</sup> But if you tell me, 'We trust in Yahweh our God'; isn't that He whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has taken away, and has said to Judah and to Jerusalem, 'You shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem?' <sup>23</sup> Now therefore, please give pledges to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able on your part to set riders on them. <sup>24</sup> How then can you turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put your trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? <sup>25</sup> Have I now come up without Yahweh against this place to destroy it? Yahweh said to me, 'Go up against this land, and destroy it'. <sup>26</sup> Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiyah, Shebnah and Joah said to Rabshakeh, Please speak to your servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it. Don't speak with us in the Jews' language, in the hearing of the people who are on the wall. <sup>27</sup> But Rabshakeh said to them, Has my master sent me to your master, and to you, to speak these words? Hasn't he sent me to the men who sit on the wall, to eat their own dung, and to drink their own water with you? <sup>28</sup> Then Rabshakeh stood and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and spoke, saying, Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria: <sup>29</sup> Thus says the king, 'Don't let Hezekiah deceive you; for he will not be able to deliver you out of his hand. <sup>30</sup> Neither let Hezekiah make you trust in Yahweh saying, Yahweh will surely deliver us, and this city shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria. <sup>31</sup> Don't listen to Hezekiah'. For thus says the king of Assyria, 'Make your peace with me, and come out to me; and every one of you will eat of his vine, and every one of his fig tree, and everyone will drink the waters of his own cistern; <sup>32</sup> until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive trees and of honey, that you may live, and not die. Don't listen to Hezekiah when he persuades you saying, Yahweh will deliver us. <sup>33</sup> Has any of the gods of the nations ever delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria? <sup>34</sup> Where are the gods of Hamath, and of Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena and Ivvah? Have they delivered Samaria out of my hand? <sup>35</sup> Who are they among all the gods of the 18:26 The fact Rabshakeh spoke Hebrew suggests he was a Jew who had turned traitor. Hence he was aware of the prophet Micah's words (see on :31).

18:31 Eating from one's own vine and fig tree is the very language which the contemporary prophet Micah had used to describe God's Kingdom on earth (Mic. 4:4). Rabshakeh was presenting the kingdom of Assyria as being the promised Kingdom of God on earth. The kingdoms of this world stand as an imitation Kingdom of God; the subliminal message of advertising and much human reasoning is that if we go the way of the world, we can have our promised Kingdom here and now. This was the very temptation with which Jesus struggled and overcame in the wilderness (Mt. 4:8).

countries, that have delivered their country out of my hand, that Yahweh should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?’<sup>36</sup> But the people held their peace, and answered him not a word; for the king’s commandment was, Don’t answer him.<sup>37</sup> Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, came with Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

Isaiah Prophesies Deliverance

It happened, when king Hezekiah heard it, that he tore his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of Yahweh.<sup>2</sup> He sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz.<sup>3</sup> They said to him, Thus says Hezekiah, ‘This day is a day of trouble, of rebuke, and of re-jection; for the children have come to the point of birth, and there is no strength to deliver them.<sup>4</sup> It may be Yahweh your God will hear all the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master has sent to defy the living God, and will rebuke the words which Yahweh your God has heard. Therefore lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left’. So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah.<sup>6</sup> Isaiah said to them, Thus you shall tell your master, ‘Thus says Yahweh, Don’t be afraid of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed Me.<sup>7</sup> Behold, I will put a spirit in him, and he will hear news, and will return to his own land. I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land’.<sup>8</sup> So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah; for he had heard that he had departed from Lachish.<sup>9</sup> When

19:1, 2 Our response to crisis should be like Hezekiah’s – to turn to God in prayer, and to His word and His people, rather than to desperate worldly alternatives.

19:3 A day of trouble – The phrase in the Greek Septuagint version is that also used in Dan. 12:1 and Mt. 24:21 about the latter day “time of trouble” for Israel. There will therefore be an equivalent of the Assyrian invader in the last days, and Jerusalem’s deliverance will be by means of God’s dramatic intervention in the return of Christ to earth to save Israel from their Middle Eastern invaders. The whole incident can be read as a detailed type of the latter day invasion of Israel before Christ returns.

19:4 The words which Yahweh your God has heard – God hears every word and is fully aware of the detail of every situation which we face. Isaiah picks up this sentence and rephrases it by telling Hezekiah to not “be afraid of the words that you have heard” (:6). The words we hear which so frighten us are in fact heard by God.

19:7 I will put a spirit in him – The Hebrew word translated “spirit” in the Old Testament has a wide range of meaning, but here it refers to the mind. God can give people an attitude of mind; He can give us a holy spirit or mindset if we seek it. And He can just as easily give people a spirit of fear, making them turn away from doing what is the humanly obvious thing to do, as He did here with Rabshakeh.

he heard it said of Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, Behold, he has come out to fight against you, he sent messengers again to Hezekiah saying, <sup>10</sup> Thus you shall speak to Hezekiah king of Judah saying, Don't let your God in whom you trust deceive you saying, Jerusalem will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria. <sup>11</sup> Behold, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly. Will you be delivered? <sup>12</sup> Have the gods of the nations delivered them, which my fathers have destroyed, Gozan, Haran, Rezeph and the children of Eden that were in Telassar? <sup>13</sup> Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena and Ivvah?

Hezekiah's Prayer and God's Response

<sup>14</sup> Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it. Then Hezekiah went up to the house of Yahweh, and spread it before Yahweh. <sup>15</sup> Hezekiah prayed before Yahweh and said, Yahweh, the God of Israel, Who sits above the cherubim, You are the God, even You alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth. <sup>16</sup> Incline Your ear, Yahweh, and hear. Open your eyes, Yahweh, and see. Hear the words of Sennacherib, with which he has sent to defy the living God. <sup>17</sup> Truly, Yahweh, the kings of Assyria have laid waste the nations and their lands, <sup>18</sup> and have cast their gods into the fire; for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone. Therefore they have destroyed them. <sup>19</sup> Now therefore, Yahweh our God, save us, I beg You, out of his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that You, Yahweh, are God alone. <sup>20</sup> Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah saying, Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel, 'Whereas you have prayed to Me against Sennacherib

19:14 Whilst God sees and knows all things, it can be psychologically good for us to place the documents which are causing us grief 'before the Lord' and pray over them. God hears and reads those words just as much as we do (see on :4).

19:16 Hear the words of Sennacherib – On one level, Hezekiah knew that Yahweh had heard those words (:4), but he still asks God to hear them and respond to them. And God patiently assures him, that He has indeed heard (:20). Our faith is rarely if ever total; we know of God's possibilities on one level, and yet doubt them in practice. When the disciples prayed "Look upon their threatenings..." (Acts 4:29), they were surely inspired by the praying of Hezekiah here, and used the same words. Daniel seems to also have paraphrased Hezekiah's prayer in his prayer of Dan. 9:18. And these examples ought to specifically fire our prayer life, too, quoting words of Biblical prayers as part of our prayers. And yet Hezekiah's prayer had been inspired by the prayers of those who had in turn gone before him – he is alluding to the prayers of repentant Israel (1 Kings 18:39), Jehoshaphat (2 Chron. 20:6) and Solomon (2 Chron. 6:40).

19:19 That all the kingdoms of the earth may know – The motivation for our prayer requests should always be the ultimate glory of God.

king of Assyria, I have heard you. <sup>21</sup> This is the word that Yahweh has spoken concerning him: The virgin daughter of Zion has despised you and ridiculed you. The daughter of Jerusalem has shaken her head at you. <sup>22</sup> Whom have you defied and blasphemed? Against whom have you exalted your voice and lifted up your eyes on high? Against the Holy One of Israel. <sup>23</sup> By your messengers you have defied the Lord, and have said, ‘With the multitude of my chariots I have come up to the height of the mountains, to the innermost parts of Lebanon; and I will cut down its tall cedars, and its choice fir trees; and I will enter into His deepest dwelling place, the forest of His fruitful field. <sup>24</sup> I have dug and drunk strange waters, and with the sole of my feet will I dry up all the rivers of Egypt’. <sup>25</sup> Haven’t you heard how I have done it long ago, and formed it of ancient times? Now have I brought it to pass, that it should be yours to lay waste fortified cities into ruinous heaps. <sup>26</sup> Therefore their inhabitants were of small power. They were dismayed and confounded. They were like the grass of the field, and like the green herb, like the grass on the housetops, and like grain blasted before it has grown up. <sup>27</sup> But I know your sitting down, and your going out, and your coming in, and your raging against Me. <sup>28</sup> Because of your raging against Me, and because your arrogance has come up into My ears, therefore will I put my hook in your nose and My bridle in your lips, and I will turn you back by the way by which you came. <sup>29</sup> This shall be the sign to you: You shall eat this year that which grows of itself, and in the second year that which springs of the same; and in the third year sow, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat its fruit. <sup>30</sup> The remnant that has escaped of the house of Judah shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward. <sup>31</sup> For out of Jerusalem a remnant will go out, and out of Mount Zion those who shall escape. The zeal of Yahweh will perform this’. <sup>32</sup> Therefore thus says Yahweh concerning the king of Assyria, ‘He shall not come to this city, nor shoot an arrow there, neither shall he come before it with shield, nor cast up a mound against it. <sup>33</sup> By the way that he came, by

19:21 The “daughter of Zion” refers to the faithful remnant within Jerusalem, centred around Hezekiah. But they hardly appeared to be confidently ridiculing the Assyrians; they were scared and doubting whether God really could save them (see on :16). But because they did have some faith, God counted this as total faith, in the same way as He imputes righteousness to those in Christ. Their weak faith was counted by God as utter confidence.

19:22 That attitudes are read as prayers is reflected in the way that Rabshakeh’s arrogance against Yahweh is described as him lifting up his eyes against God. By contrast, Hezekiah prayed at the same time: “Unto you do I lift up my eyes” (Ps. 123:1). ‘Lifting up eyes’ is therefore an idiom for prayer. Rabshakeh didn’t consciously pray blasphemous words to God, but his attitude was counted as a prayer.

the same shall he return, and he shall not come to this city', says Yahweh. <sup>34</sup> 'For I will defend this city to save it, for My own sake and for My servant David's sake'. <sup>35</sup> It happened that night, that the angel of Yahweh went out and struck one hundred and eighty-five thousand in the camp of the Assyrians. When men arose early in the morning, behold, these were all dead bodies. <sup>36</sup> So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went and returned, and lived at Nineveh. <sup>37</sup> It happened, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer struck him with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Ararat. Esar Haddon his son reigned in his place.

CHAPTER 20 Sep. 14 Hezekiah's Illness

In those days was Hezekiah sick to death. Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came to him and said to him, Thus says Yahweh, 'Set your house in order; for you shall die, and not live'. <sup>2</sup> Then he turned his face to the wall, and prayed to Yahweh saying, <sup>3</sup> Remember now, Yahweh, I beg You, how I have walked before You in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in Your sight. Hezekiah wept bitterly. <sup>4</sup> It happened, before Isaiah had gone out into the middle part of the city, that the word of Yahweh came to him saying, <sup>5</sup> Turn back and tell Hezekiah the prince of My people, 'Thus says Yahweh the God of David your father, I have heard your prayer. I have seen your tears. Behold, I will heal you. On the third day, you shall go up to the house of Yahweh. <sup>6</sup> I will add to your days fifteen years. I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria. I will defend this city for My own sake, and for My servant David's sake'. <sup>7</sup> Isaiah said, Take a cake of figs. They took and laid it on the boil, and he recovered. <sup>8</sup> Hezekiah said to Isaiah, What shall be the sign that Yahweh will heal me, and that I shall go up to the house of Yahweh the third day? <sup>9</sup> Isaiah said, This

20:1-3 Here we see how God can state an intended purpose of His in very definite terms, as if there is no changing it – and yet such is His sensitivity to human prayer and love for Him, that He is willing to change it. He did the same when Moses persuaded Him not to destroy Israel as He planned (Ex. 32). There is often a gap between God's statement of His purpose and the fulfilment of it, and during that gap period we can reason with Him to act otherwise. His purpose is perhaps structured this way so that we can learn to pray more intensely and connect with Him more intimately than would otherwise be the case. It also inspires us to be spiritually ambitious enough to think of changing God's intended plan of action.

20:5 Prayer isn't always specific words; God understands situations as prayers. Thus here we see Hezekiah's tears paralleled with his words. God interpreted his tears as a prayer. Hezekiah had earlier requested for God to both hear and see the words of Sennacherib (19:26), as if these too were to be read as a prayer for Divine intervention.

shall be the sign to you from Yahweh, that Yahweh will do the thing that He has spoken: shall the shadow go forward ten steps, or go back ten steps? <sup>10</sup> Hezekiah answered, It is a light thing for the shadow to go forward ten steps. Nay, but let the shadow return backward ten steps. <sup>11</sup> Isaiah the prophet cried to Yahweh; and He brought the shadow ten steps backward, by which it had gone down on the dial of Ahaz.

Hezekiah's Failure

<sup>12</sup> At that time Berodach Baladan the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah; for he had heard that Hezekiah had been sick. <sup>13</sup> Hezekiah listened to them, and showed them all the house of his precious things, the silver, the gold, the spices, the precious oil, the house of his armour and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah didn't show them. <sup>14</sup> Then Isaiah the prophet came to king Hezekiah and said to him, What did these men say? From where did they come to you? Hezekiah said, They have come from a far country, even from Babylon. <sup>15</sup> He said, What have they seen in your house? Hezekiah answered, They have seen all that is in my house. There is nothing among my treasures that I have not shown them. <sup>16</sup> Isaiah said to Hezekiah, Hear the word of Yahweh. <sup>17</sup> 'Behold, the days come, that all that is in your house, and that which your fathers have laid up in store to this day, shall be carried to Babylon. Nothing shall be left', says Yahweh. <sup>18</sup> 'Of your sons who shall issue from you, whom you shall father, shall they take away; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon'. <sup>19</sup> Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, The word of Yahweh which you have spoken is good. He said moreover, Isn't it so, if peace and truth shall be in my days? <sup>20</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah and all his might, and how he made the pool and the conduit and brought water into the city, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>21</sup> Hezekiah slept with his fathers; and Manasseh his son reigned in his place.

Manasseh's Reign

Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign; and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hephzibah. <sup>2</sup> He did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, after the abominations of the nations whom Yahweh cast out before the children of Israel. <sup>3</sup> For he built again the high places which Hezekiah his father had destroyed; and he reared up altars for

20:19 This seems a very selfish and short termist thing to say. It seems Hezekiah overcame so much – bad parental background, apostasy in his nation, terminal sickness, invasion – and yet failed to get through the hoop of materialism, acclaim, acceptance and the soft life. Many modern disciples are challenged likewise. We must realize the massive power of these temptations. See on 23:3.

Baal, and made an Asherah, as did Ahab king of Israel, and worshiped all the host of the sky, and served them. <sup>4</sup> He built altars in the house of Yahweh, of which Yahweh said, I will put My name in Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup> He built altars for all the host of the sky in the two courts of the house of Yahweh. <sup>6</sup> He made his son to pass through the fire, and practised sorcery, used enchantments and dealt with those who had familiar spirits and with wizards. He worked much evil in the sight of Yahweh, to provoke Him to anger. <sup>7</sup> He set the engraved image of Asherah that he had made, in the house of which Yahweh said to David and to Solomon his son, In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, will I put My name forever; <sup>8</sup> neither will I cause the feet of Israel to wander any more out of the land which I gave their fathers, if only they will observe to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the law that My servant Moses commanded them. <sup>9</sup> But they didn't listen: and

Manasseh seduced them to do more evil than the nations did whom Yahweh destroyed before the children of Israel. <sup>10</sup> Yahweh spoke by His servants the prophets saying, <sup>11</sup> Because Manasseh king of Judah has done these abominations, and has done wickedly above all that the Amorites did who were before him, and has made Judah also to sin with his idols; <sup>12</sup> therefore thus says Yahweh the God of Israel, 'Behold, I bring such evil on Jerusalem and Judah, that whoever hears of it, both his ears shall tingle. <sup>13</sup> I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab; and I will wipe Jerusalem as a man wipes a dish, wiping it and turning it upside down. <sup>14</sup> I will cast off the remainder of My inheritance and deliver them into the hand of their enemies. They will become a prey and a spoil to all their enemies; <sup>15</sup> because they have done that which is evil in My sight, and have provoked Me to anger, since the day their fathers came forth out of Egypt even to this day'. <sup>16</sup> Moreover Manasseh shed

21:4, 7 Because the Name was called upon the temple, therefore it should have been simply impossible that those who realized this could worship idols in it; whatever has God's Name called upon it, whatever bears His image, must be devoted to Him alone. We who are baptized into His Name, who have that Name called upon us, cannot have idols in our lives.

21:14 I will cast off – God has cast off His people (see too Zech. 10:6); and yet, because a minority of them will always accept Christ, it is not true that God has cast off His people in a total sense (Rom. 11:1). It was only because of this remnant that Israel have not become like Sodom (Rom. 9:29) – even though Old Testament passages such as Ezekiel 16 clearly liken Jerusalem to Sodom. Yet they are not as Sodom ultimately, for the sake of the remnant who will believe. In all this we see the very real tension within God, reflective of His extreme love for His wayward people.

21:16 2 Chron. 33:13,23 describe Manasseh's repentance and humbling of himself; but that isn't mentioned in the record here in 2 Kings. We learn from this the impor-

very much innocent blood, until he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another; besides his sin with which he made Judah to sin, in doing that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh. <sup>17</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh and all that he did, and his sin that he sinned, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>18</sup> Manasseh slept with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of Uzza; and Amon his son reigned in his place.

Amon's Reign

<sup>19</sup> Amon was twenty-two years old when he began to reign; and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Meshullemeth the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah. <sup>20</sup> He did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, as Manasseh his father did. <sup>21</sup> He walked in all the way that his father walked in, and served the idols that his father served, and worshipped them: <sup>22</sup> and he forsook Yahweh the God of his fathers, and didn't walk in the way of Yahweh. <sup>23</sup> The servants of Amon conspired against him and put the king to death in his own house. <sup>24</sup> But the people of the land killed all those who had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his place. <sup>25</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Amon which he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>26</sup> He was buried in his tomb in the garden of Uzza; and Josiah his son reigned in his place.

Josiah's Reign

Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign; and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jedidah the daughter of Adaiah of Bozkath. <sup>2</sup> He did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh, and walked in all the way of David his father, and didn't turn aside to the right hand or to the left. <sup>3</sup> It happened in the eighteenth year of king Josiah that the king sent Shaphan, the son of Azaliah the son of Meshullam, the scribe, to the house of Yahweh, saying, <sup>4</sup> Go up to Hilkiyah the high priest, that he may sum the money which is brought into the house of Yahweh, which the keepers of the threshold have gathered of the people. <sup>5</sup> Let them deliver it into the hand of the workmen who have the oversight of the house of Yahweh; and let them give it to the workmen who are in the house of Yahweh, to repair the breaches of the house, <sup>6</sup> to the carpenters, to the builders and to the masons, and for buying timber and cut stone to repair the house. <sup>7</sup> However there was no accounting made with them of the money that was delivered into their hand; for they dealt faithfully.

tance of comparing Scripture with Scripture in order to build up a more complete picture. Perhaps God wrote the Bible in this way in order to reveal things in truth to those who humbly and sensitively read all His word, and to confuse those who read partially without due reverence toward it.

The Book of the Law Is Found

<sup>8</sup> Hilkiah the high priest said to Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of Yahweh. Hilkiah delivered the book to Shaphan, and he read it. <sup>9</sup> Shaphan the scribe came to the king, and brought the king word again and said, Your servants have emptied out the money that was found in the house, and have delivered it into the hand of the workmen who have the oversight of the house of Yahweh. <sup>10</sup> Shaphan the scribe told the king saying, Hilkiah the priest has delivered a book to me. Shaphan read it before the king. <sup>11</sup> It happened, when the king had heard the words of the book of the law, that he tore his clothes. <sup>12</sup> The king commanded Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Achbor the son of Micaiah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the king's servant saying, <sup>13</sup> Go inquire of Yahweh for me, and for the people, and for all Judah, concerning the words of this book that is found; for great is the wrath of Yahweh that is kindled against us, because our fathers have not listened to the words of this book, to do according to all that which is written concerning us. <sup>14</sup> So Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam, Achbor, Shaphan and Asaiah went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe (now she lived in Je-

22:11 Josiah lived a life pleasing to God, as did others of his generation, and yet he was in ignorance of all the details of God's law. Full knowledge, even of some quite important things, didn't stop Josiah from being credited with doing what was right before God and not 'turning aside to the right hand or to the left' (:2). He was judged according to how well he responded to that which he did know. And this may be a helpful window for us into how we should feel towards those who sincerely seek to follow the Lord and yet with imperfect knowledge. Time and again the prophets judged Israel according to their "ways", rather than according to their theological or academic knowledge (Ez. 18:30). We must bear this in mind in considering the status of those who only have partial access to or understanding of God's word. And yet once Josiah knew these words of God, he eagerly obeyed them as far as he could and asked for forgiveness for his disobedience to them – thus recognizing that sins of ignorance are still a felt offence against God. Our ignorance doesn't stop Him being hurt by our disobedience, just as others' ignorance doesn't mean they don't hurt us by their inappropriate words or actions. Hence sins of ignorance still required atonement under the Law of Moses.

22:13 It would seem that the part of the book of the law which was found included God's threatened judgments against Israel for their disobedience; it was "the book of the covenant" (23:2) and likely included the curses of Lev. 26 and Dt.28. Yet Jeremiah comments that when this was discovered, this word of God was for him the joy and rejoicing of his heart and he fed on it with joy (Jer. 15:16). All of God's word, including those parts of the Old Testament which some may consider as repetitive judgments which we'd rather not read, should be fed on by us and be some source of joy to us.

22:14 The fact that a woman was a prophetess at this time shows that women aren't always disqualified from speaking forth God's word.

rusalem in the second quarter); and they talked with her. <sup>15</sup> She said to them, Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel: ‘Tell the man who sent you to Me, <sup>16</sup> Thus says Yahweh, Behold, I will bring evil on this place and on its inhabitants, even all the words of the book which the king of Judah has read. <sup>17</sup> Because they have forsaken Me, and have burned incense to other gods, that they might provoke Me to anger with all the work of their hands, therefore My wrath shall be kindled against this place, and it shall not be quenched. <sup>18</sup> But to the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of Yahweh, thus you shall tell him, Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel: Concerning the words which you have heard, <sup>19</sup> because your heart was tender, and you humbled yourself before Yahweh when you heard what I spoke against this place and against its inhabitants, that they should become a desolation and a curse, and have torn your clothes, and wept before Me; I also have heard you, says Yahweh. <sup>20</sup> Therefore behold, I will gather you to your fathers, and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace, neither shall your eyes see all the evil which I will bring on this place’. They brought back this message to the king.

Josiah’s Reforms

The king sent, and they gathered to him all the elders of Judah and of Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup> The king went up to the house of Yahweh, and all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the people, both small and great. He read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant which was found in the house of Yahweh. <sup>3</sup> The king stood by the pillar and made a covenant before Yahweh, to walk after Yahweh and to keep His commandments, His testimonies and His statutes with all his heart and all his soul, to confirm the words of this covenant that were written in this book; and all the people stood to the covenant. <sup>4</sup> The king

22:19 Your heart was tender – How is our response when a new understanding of the word’s teaching in practical, everyday issues stares us in the face from the pages of Scripture?

23:3 God had promised Josiah that all would be well in his lifetime, but He would judge the next generation for their sins. Josiah learnt the lesson of Hezekiah, who appeared to be satisfied with that (see on 20:19); for Josiah launches a major campaign to return Judah to Yahweh and to re-enter covenant with Him. It seems that Josiah believed that Judah’s repentance could really change the intention of God to destroy Israel in the next generation. We too should have this kind of concern for the body of believers in the next generation, rather than being merely content that we ourselves remain in fellowship with God.

23:4 When last did you read / understand something from Scripture, and then get up and do something real, concrete and actual about it? Josiah discovered the book of the Law – and he then went on to do something about it in practice. Reflect through what he did: Passover kept in Jerusalem (23:21–23) = Dt. 16:1–8; removed Asherahs commanded Hilkiah the high priest, and the priests of the second order, and the keepers of the threshold, to bring forth out of Yahweh's temple all the vessels that were made for Baal, and for the Asherah, and for all the host of the sky; and he burned them outside of Jerusalem in the fields of the Kidron, and carried their ashes to Bethel. <sup>5</sup> He put down the idolatrous priests, whom the kings of Judah had ordained to burn incense in the high places in the cities of Judah and in the places around Jerusalem; those also who burned incense to Baal, to the sun, the moon, to the planets and to all the host of the sky. <sup>6</sup> He brought out the Asherah from the house of Yahweh, outside of Jerusalem, to the brook Kidron, and burned it at the brook Kidron, and beat it to dust, and cast its dust on the graves of the common people. <sup>7</sup> He broke down the houses of the sodomites that were in the house of Yahweh, where the women wove hangings for the Asherah. <sup>8</sup> He brought all the priests out of the cities of Judah and defiled the high places where the priests had burned incense, from Geba to Beersheba; and he broke down the high places of the gates that were at the entrance of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which were on a man's left hand at the gate of the city. <sup>9</sup> Nevertheless the priests of the high places didn't come up to the altar of Yahweh in Jerusalem, but they ate unleavened bread among their brothers. <sup>10</sup> He defiled Topheth, which is in the valley of the children of Hinnom, that no man might make his son or his daughter to pass through the fire to Molech. <sup>11</sup> He took away the horses that the kings of Judah had given to the sun, at the entrance of the house of Yahweh, by the room of Nathan Melech the officer, who was in the court; and he burned the chariots of the sun with fire. <sup>12</sup> The king broke down the altars that were on the roof of the upper room of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and (23:4,6,14) = Dt. 12:3; 16:21; star worship (23:4,11) = Dt. 17:3; the 'high places' and cults (23:8-20) = Dt. 12; child sacrifice (23:10) = Dt. 12:31; 18:10; the cultic stones (23:14) = Dt. 12:3; 16:22; conjuring up the dead (23:24) = Dt. 18:11. It would seem that Josiah was motivated by Deuteronomy 12-18, perhaps this was part of the book of the covenant which was discovered. Here we have a man who allowed Scripture to live in his life, and who was immediately motivated by it to tangible action. His was not a religion of fine Sunday morning words, intellectually admired and aesthetically pleasing. The word should likewise be made flesh in us as it was in Christ. What is required is passionate, real, actual, tangible, concrete action and re-action to what we read and understand.

23:7 The fact these sexual abominations were committed within the temple of God suggests that they had become part of the ritual of Yahweh worship, in the same way as the letters of Paul and Christ to the churches suggest that sexual immorality became part of apostate Christian worship in the first century. The tendency to mix spirituality with illicit sexuality has always been a temptation for the people of God and one of their most persistent weaknesses; we must beware of it.

the altars which Manasseh had made in the two courts of the house of Yahweh, and beat them down from there, and cast their dust into the brook Kidron. <sup>13</sup> The king defiled the high places that were before Jerusalem, which were on the right hand of the mountain of corruption, which Solomon the king of Israel had built for Ashtoreth the abomination of the Sidonians, and for Chemosh the abomination of Moab, and for Milcom the abomination of the children of Ammon. <sup>14</sup> He broke in pieces the pillars, and cut down the Asherim, and filled their places with the bones of men. <sup>15</sup> Moreover the altar that was at Bethel, and the high place which Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, had made, even that altar and the high place he broke down; and he burned the high place and beat it to dust, and burned the Asherah. <sup>16</sup> As Josiah turned himself, he spied the tombs that were there in the mountain; and he sent, and took the bones out of the tombs and burned them on the altar and defiled it, according to the word of Yahweh which the man of God proclaimed, who proclaimed these things. <sup>17</sup> Then he said, What monument is that which I see? The men of the city told him, It is the tomb of the man of God, who came from Judah, and proclaimed these things that you have done against the altar of Bethel. <sup>18</sup> He said, Let him be! Let no man move his bones. So they let his bones alone, with the bones of the prophet who came out of Samaria. <sup>19</sup> All the houses also of the high places that were in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to provoke Yahweh to anger, Josiah took away, and did to them according to all the acts that he had done in Bethel. <sup>20</sup> He killed all the priests of the high places that were there, upon the altars, and burned men's bones on them; and he returned to Jerusalem.

Josiah's Passover

23:21 The Law of Moses stated that Israel must keep the Passover, and if they didn't, or kept it incorrectly, then their covenant relationship with God would be fractured (Num. 9:13). But it seems that whilst the legislation about the Passover had been lost, they hadn't kept the Passover properly, if at all. And yet there were many faithful individuals who lived during that time when the book was lost who still retained relationship with God. This is no reason to conclude that obedience to God's covenant is irrelevant, or that it's all simply a matter of the heart and conscience; but it does show the extent of God's eager acceptance of people despite their ignorance of His word.

firm the words of the law which were written in the book that Hilkiah the priest found in the house of Yahweh. <sup>25</sup> Like him was there no king before him, who turned to Yahweh with all his heart and with all his soul and with all his might, according to all the law of Moses; neither after him arose there any like him. <sup>26</sup> Notwithstanding, Yahweh didn't turn from the fierceness of His great wrath with which His anger was kindled against Judah, because of all the provocation with which Manasseh had provoked Him. <sup>27</sup> Yahweh said, I will remove Judah also out of My sight as I have removed Israel, and I will cast off this city which I have chosen, even Jerusalem, and the house of which I said, 'My name shall be there'. <sup>28</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>29</sup> In his days Pharaoh Necho king of Egypt went up against the king of Assyria to the river Euphrates. King Josiah went against him; and Pharaoh Necho killed him at Megiddo when he had seen him. <sup>30</sup> His servants carried him in a chariot dead from Megiddo, and brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own tomb. The people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and anointed him, and made him king in his father's place.

The Reigns of Jehoahaz and Jehoiakim

old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. <sup>32</sup> He did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, according to all that his fathers had done. <sup>33</sup> Pharaoh Necho put him in bonds at Riblah in the land of Hamath, that he might not reign in Jerusalem; and put the land to a tribute of one hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold. <sup>34</sup> Pharaoh Necho made Eliakim the son of Josiah king in the place of Josiah his father, and changed his name to Jehoiakim; but he took Jehoahaz away; and he came to Egypt, and died there. <sup>35</sup> Jehoiakim gave silver and the gold to Pharaoh; but he taxed the land to give the money according to the commandment of Pharaoh. He exacted the silver and the gold of the people of the land, of each one according to his taxation, to give it to Pharaoh Necho. <sup>36</sup> Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zebidah the daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah. <sup>37</sup> He did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, according to all that his fathers had done.

The Last Kings of Judah

In his days Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up, and Jehoiakim became his servant three years, then rebelled against him. <sup>2</sup> Yahweh sent against him bands of the Chaldeans,

24:1 Three years – During which time the attacks of :2 occurred. This corresponds exactly with other indications that in the latter day judgment of Israel there will be an

the Syrians, Moabites and of the children of Ammon, and sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of Yahweh, which He spoke by His servants the prophets.

city while his servants were besieging it; <sup>12</sup> and Jehoiachin the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon, he, his mother, his servants, his princes and his officers; and the king of Babylon took him prisoner in the eighth year of his reign. <sup>13</sup> He carried out from there all the treasures of the house of Yahweh and the treasures of the king's house, and cut in pieces all the vessels of gold, which Solomon king of Israel had made in Yahweh's temple, as Yahweh had said. <sup>14</sup> He carried away all Jerusalem, all the princes and all the mighty men of valour, even ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen and the smiths; none remained, except the poorest sort of the people of the land. <sup>15</sup> He carried away Jehoiachin to Babylon; and the king's mother, the king's wives, his officers and the chief men of the land, he carried into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon. <sup>16</sup> All the men of might, even seven thousand, and the craftsmen and the smiths one thousand, all of them strong and apt for war, even them the king of Babylon brought captive to Babylon. <sup>17</sup> The king of Babylon made Mataniah, Jehoiachin's father's brother, king in his place, and changed his name to Zedekiah. <sup>18</sup> Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was extended period of Arab raiding and desolation of Israel (for three and a half years?), culminating in the final invasion of the land by 'Babylon' and her smaller Arab allies in order to take Jerusalem.

24:3 For the sins of Manasseh – A whole community can be damaged by the long term influence and consequence of one man's sin, even if he later repents as Manasseh did.

Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. <sup>19</sup> He did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. <sup>20</sup> For through the anger of Yahweh, it happened in Jerusalem and Judah, until He had cast them out from His presence, that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

The Fall of Jerusalem

It happened in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and encamped against it; and they built forts against it around it.

<sup>2</sup> So the city was captured, by the eleventh year of king Zedekiah. <sup>3</sup> On the ninth day of the fourth month the famine was severe in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land. <sup>4</sup> Then a breach was made in the city, and all the men of war fled by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden (now the Chaldeans were against the city around it); and the king went by the way of the Arabah. <sup>5</sup> But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king, and overtook him in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him. <sup>6</sup> Then they took the king, and carried him up to the king of Babylon to Riblah; and they gave judgment on

24:20 God's anger was such that He propelled Zedekiah and Judah further down the downward spiral they had chosen. He has the ability to give people mindsets and to make decisions which are humanly unwise; and we see Him doing this here, by making Zedekiah rebel against the king of Babylon, when this was political suicide. And yet as the book of Jeremiah makes clear, God at the same time was pleading with Zedekiah through the prophet Jeremiah to repent. So whilst God confirms people in the downward spiral in which they chose to go, He still earnestly seeks their repentance and doesn't abandon them totally until they themselves have totally broken away from Him and He can do no more without excessively controlling their own freewill.

25:2 The city was entered into – Judging Israel like this wasn't done by God in a flash of anger, but after huge internal turmoil. He had passionately declared in an outburst of love for His wayward people “I will not enter into the city” (Hos. 11:9 – the same Hebrew word is used as here). His condemnation of His people is very hard for Him, and is a result of much thinking, re-thinking and struggle about it (Hos. 11:8). Those believers who fear God will condemn them should take comfort from this – that He reveals Himself as struggling within Himself about doing this, and it is not something He wishes to do.

25:5 Overtook him in the plains of Jericho – The parable of the good Samaritan speaks about a man taking this same journey, from Jerusalem to Jericho, and being attacked and overcome on the way – and yet restored by grace (Lk. 10:30). The injured man of the parable represents each of us; and yet he is based upon Zedekiah, who had been given every opportunity to heed God's word through Jeremiah and yet through human weakness and peer pressure had not done so. Zedekiah in all his pathetic weakness represents each of us; Christ, the good Samaritan, really does save each of us by grace alone.

him. <sup>7</sup> They killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound him in fetters, and carried him to Babylon.

<sup>8</sup> Now in the fifth month, on the seventh day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of king Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, came Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, a servant of the king of Babylon, to Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup> He burnt the house of Yahweh and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, even every great house, burnt he with fire. <sup>10</sup> All the army of the Chaldeans, who were with the captain of the guard, broke down the walls around Jerusalem.

basins, whatever was of gold, and of silver. <sup>16</sup> The two pillars, the one sea and the bases which Solomon had made for the house of Yahweh, the brass of all these things was without weight. <sup>17</sup> The height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits, and a capital of brass was on it; and the height of the capital was three cubits, with network and pomegranates on the capital around it, all of brass, similarly the second pillar with its network. <sup>18</sup> The captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the threshold; <sup>19</sup> and out of the city he took an officer who was set over the men of war; and five men of those who saw the king's face, who were found in the city; and the scribe, the captain of the army, who mustered the people of the land; and sixty men of the people of the land, who were found in the city. <sup>20</sup> Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah. <sup>21</sup> The king of Babylon struck them, and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was carried away captive out of his land. <sup>22</sup> As for the people who were left in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left, even over them he made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, governor.

25:19 Those who saw the king's face – This is a technical term describing the king's inner circle. Yet we are promised that we shall see God's face at Christ's return (Job 19:25-27; Rev. 22:4). The prospect is wonderful, almost beyond our grasp to comprehend – that we shall be as it were in God's inner circle, at the very hub of all existence, His special friends. We who are so weak, dysfunctional, often disinterested and limited; we shall be His special people, forever and ever. See on :29.

God's Grace

<sup>23</sup> Now when all the captains of the bands of soldiers, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah governor, they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah the son of the Maacathite, they and their men. <sup>24</sup> Gedaliah swore to them and to their men and said to them, Don't be afraid because of the servants of the Chaldeans. Dwell in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you. <sup>25</sup> But it happened in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the royal seed, came with ten men and struck Gedaliah so that he died, and the Jews and the Chaldeans that were with him at Mizpah. <sup>26</sup> All the people, both small and great, and the captains of the forces, arose and came to Egypt; for they were afraid of the Chaldeans. <sup>27</sup> It happened in the thirty-seventh year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, that Evilmerodach king of Babylon, in the year that he began to reign, lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah out of prison. <sup>28</sup> He spoke kindly to him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings who were with him in Babylon, <sup>29</sup> and changed his prison garments. Jehoiachin ate bread before him continually all the days of his life. <sup>30</sup> For his allowance, there was a continual allowance given him of the king, every day a portion, all the days of his life.

25:25 The fact Ishmael, one of the royal family of Judah still at large, killed the Chaldean garrison would have suggested that the response of the Chaldeans would have been to destroy all the Jews who were left in the land. But strangely there's no record of this. Coupling this with the information in :28 that the king of Babylon for no apparent reason showed great kindness to the king of Judah, we are left with the impression that despite all Judah's sin and the inevitable punishment, God's grace shone through and He didn't punish them as their iniquities deserved, but in wrath remembered mercy and grace (Ezra 9:13), perhaps in specific response to Habakkuk's prayer for this to be the case (Hab. 3:2).

25:29 To eat bread at the king's table was a sign of special favour. And yet Jesus, King of the cosmos, invites us to do this weekly, as if we are His specially favoured inner circle of friends; to refuse the table is strange indeed, and rejecting an amazing grace. See on :19.

THE FIRST BOOK OF CHRONICLES

Israel's Roots

father of Nimrod, who began to be a mighty one in the earth. <sup>11</sup>Mizraim became the father of Ludim, Anamim, Lehabim, Naphtuhim, <sup>12</sup>Pathrusim, Casluhim (where the Philistines came from) and Capthorim. <sup>13</sup>Canaan became the father of Sidon his firstborn, Heth, <sup>14</sup>the Jebusite, the Amorite, the Girgashite, <sup>15</sup>the Hivite, the Arkite, the Sinite, <sup>16</sup>the Arvadite, the Zemarite and the Hamathite. <sup>17</sup>The sons of Shem: Elam, Asshur, Arpachshad, Lud, Aram, Uz, Hul, Gether and Meshech. <sup>18</sup>Arpachshad became the father of Shelah, and Shelah became the father

It seems the genealogies of 1 Chron. 1-9 were completed at the time of the restoration from Babylon, when there was a problem in finding a High Priest and priesthood because it was hard to prove who was descended from Aaron, presumably because the genealogies were destroyed when the temple was burnt. The genealogies give much emphasis to the descendants of Aaron, far more than to the other tribes. There are a number of references to faithless men being punished by invasions (e.g. 5:6). Ezra 8 contains a genealogy recorded in similar style and language to these in Chronicles. Nehemiah made a special study of the genealogies in order to find an acceptable priesthood (Neh. 7:5,64). So there were Israel returning from captivity, led by a faithful remnant of the priests, looking back through their history, right back to Abraham and beyond, and seeing that their history was shot through with failure. Such self-examination extended even to considering the names parents gave their children, which frequently included the names of false gods like Baal. Marriage out of the faith was a problem at the time of the restoration (Ezra 9:1,2), and therefore the records of the genealogies stress how this had been a problem in the past – and had still not been forgotten by God. The prophets foretold that Israel's restoration would only come once they achieved a suitable recognition of their sinfulness. The priests who wrote those records in Chronicles were writing down the result of their national self-examination. This was the record of their lessons from Chronicles. Ezra 2:62 records Judah being 'reckoned by genealogies', using the same Hebrew word which is the hallmark of 1 Chronicles (4:33; 5:1,7,17; 7:5,7,9,40; 9:1,22). And in this context, Is. 40:26 compares God's 'bringing out' of Judah from Babylon with His 'bringing out' the stars by their individual names, all wonderfully known to Him. Ps. 87:6 had prophesied something similar about the restoration of Zion's fortunes: "Yahweh shall count, when He writes up the people, that this man was born there". Each individual was and is significant to God.

of Eber. <sup>19</sup> To Eber were born two sons: the name of the one was Peleg; for in his days the land was divided; and his brother's name was Joktan. <sup>20</sup> Joktan became the father of Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah, <sup>21</sup> Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah, <sup>22</sup> Ebal, Abimael, Sheba, <sup>23</sup> Ophir, Havilah and Jobab. All these were the sons of Joktan. <sup>24</sup> Shem, Arpachshad, She-lah, <sup>25</sup> Eber, Peleg, Reu, <sup>26</sup> Serug, Nahor, Terah, <sup>27</sup> Abram (the same is Abraham). <sup>28</sup> The sons of Abraham: Isaac, and Ishmael. <sup>29</sup> These are their generations: the firstborn of Ishmael, Nebaioth; then Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam, <sup>30</sup> Mishma, Dumah, Massa, Hadad, Tema, <sup>31</sup> Jetur, Naphish and Kedemah. These are the sons of Ishmael. <sup>32</sup> The sons of Keturah, Abraham's concubine: she bore Zimran, Jokshan, and Medan, and Midian, and Ishbak, and Shuah. The sons of Jokshan: Sheba and Dedan. <sup>33</sup> The sons of Midian: Ephah, Ephraim, Hanoch, Abida and Eldaah. All these were the sons of Keturah. <sup>34</sup> Abraham became the father of Isaac. The sons of Isaac: Esau and Israel. <sup>35</sup> The sons of Esau: Eliphaz, Reuel, Jeush, Jalam

The Kings of Edom

<sup>43</sup> Now these are the kings who reigned in the land of Edom, before there reigned any king over the children of Israel: Bela the son of Beor; and the name of his city was Dinhabah. <sup>44</sup> Bela died, and Jobab the son of Zerah of Bozrah reigned in his place. <sup>45</sup> Jobab died, and Husham of the land of the Temanites reigned in his place. <sup>46</sup> Husham died, and Hadad the son of Bedad, who struck Midian in the field of Moab, reigned in his place;

1:19 The land was divided – This doesn't refer to any movement of the earth's plates. Rather is it a reference to the division of languages at the time of Babel, as recorded in Gen. 11. It seems that any revival of God's Truth has given way to apostacy within two or three generations. Gen.11:11-16 shows that from the time of Shem (living after the flood) to Peleg was three generations. Thus in the three generations from the time of the flood to Babel, the revival of God's people had faded away again.

1:43 The point is being made that Israel's desire for a king was influenced by the fact the surrounding peoples had kings. The world is always trying to conform us into its mould, whereas we are to be transformed by the Spirit (Rom. 12:1,2).

1:44, 45 The Septuagint states that Job was the "Jobab" of :44,45, who lived five generations after Abraham. Job lived in the land of Uz (1:1) mentioned in :17,42. The books of the Bible aren't always in chronological order, and it's likely that the book of Job is set quite early on in Biblical history.

and the name of his city was Avith.<sup>47</sup> Hadad died, and Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his place.<sup>48</sup> Samlah died, and Shaul of Rehoboth by the River reigned in his place.<sup>49</sup> Shaul died, and Baal Hanan the son of Achbor reigned in his place.<sup>50</sup> Baal Hanan died, and Hadad reigned in his place; and the name of his city was Pai: and his wife's name was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Mezahab.<sup>51</sup> Hadad died. The chiefs of Edom were: chief Timna, chief Aliah, chief Jetheth,<sup>52</sup> chief Oholibamah, chief Elah, chief Pinon,<sup>53</sup> chief Kenaz, chief Teman, chief Mibzar,<sup>54</sup> chief Magdiel, chief Iram. These are the chiefs of Edom.

CHAPTER 2 Sep. 19

These are the sons of Israel: Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Zebulun,<sup>2</sup> Dan, Joseph, Benjamin, Naphtali, Gad and Asher.

The Children of Judah

of Shua's daughter the Canaanitess. Er, Judah's firstborn, was wicked in the sight of Yahweh; and He killed him.<sup>4</sup> Tamar his daughter-in-law bore him Perez and Zerah. All the sons of Judah were five.<sup>5</sup> The sons of Perez: Hezron, and Hamul.<sup>6</sup> The sons of Zerah: Zimri, Ethan, Heman, Calcol and Dara; five of them in all.<sup>7</sup> The sons of Carmi: Achar the troubler of Israel, who committed a trespass in the devoted thing.<sup>8</sup> The son of Ethan: Azariah.<sup>9</sup> The sons also of Hezron, who were born to him: Jerahmeel, Ram and Chelubai.

The Children of Ram

<sup>10</sup> Ram became the father of Amminadab, and Amminadab became the father of Nahshon, prince of the children of Judah;<sup>11</sup> and Nahshon became the father of Salma, and Salma became the father of Boaz,<sup>12</sup> and Boaz became the father of Obed, and Obed became the father of Jesse;<sup>13</sup> and Jesse became the father of his firstborn Eliab, Abinadab the second, Shimea the third,<sup>14</sup> Nethanel the

2:4 Israel's sinfulness seems to be emphasized in the various 'interruptions' in the flowing list of names. Thus it is sometimes stressed that a man did not have many children (e.g. 1:4,6,16), as if to indicate that God's blessing was not with him (there seems an undoubted connection in Old Testament times between blessing and number of sons). This information such as that Jether died without children, Sheshan had no sons but daughters, Shimei had sixteen sons and six daughters; but his brothers had few children (2:32,34; 4:27) ... all this would have been read as highly significant in spiritual terms. Some outstanding weaknesses amongst the patriarchs are recorded (e.g. 5:1), and the fact that the duty of the priests was to make an atonement for Israel (6:49) appears to be an obvious detail added in passing – until it is appreciated that these genealogies are highlighting the historical weakness of Israel. This is one of the major lessons from Chronicles.

2:12 Boaz's marriage to a Gentile is not highlighted; simply "Boaz begat Obed", whereas others' marriage out of the faith is recorded in the same chapter (2:3,34). The same action – in this case, marriage to a Gentile – can be done by different people fourth, Raddai the fifth, <sup>15</sup> Ozem the sixth, David the seventh; <sup>16</sup> and their sisters were Zeruiah and Abigail. The sons of Zeruiah: Abishai, Joab and Asahel, three. <sup>17</sup> Abigail bore Amasa; and the father of Amasa was Jether the Ishmaelite.

The Children of Caleb

<sup>18</sup> Caleb the son of Hezron fathered children by Azubah his wife, and by Jerioth; and these were her sons: Jesher, Shobab and Ardon. <sup>19</sup> Azubah died, and Caleb took to him Ephrath, who bore him Hur. <sup>20</sup> Hur became the father of Uri, and Uri became the father of Bezalel. <sup>21</sup> Afterward Hezron went in to the daughter of Machir the father of Gilead, whom he took as wife when he was sixty years old; and she bore him Segub. <sup>22</sup> Segub became the father of Jair, who had twenty-three cities in the land of Gilead. <sup>23</sup> Geshur and Aram took the towns of Jair from them, with Kenath, and its villages, even sixty cities. All these were the sons of Machir the father of Gilead. <sup>24</sup> After that Hezron was dead in Caleb Ephrathah, then Abijah Hezron's wife bore him Ashhur the father of Tekoa.

with different motives. For one it may be an act of righteousness, for another – a sin. Thus when Uzziah acted as a priest he was condemned for it (2 Chron. 26:17-21), but when David (as a non-Levite also) did the same, it was a reflection of his spirituality. Seeing the inner motives and spirituality of others are hidden to us, we must be very careful not to judge by outward appearances; and we must resign all ultimate judgment to God, not least because of our total inability to make it.

2:16 Zeruiah was a sister of David, and David laments how her sons were very “hard” (2 Sam. 3:39; 16:10; 19:22). The fact that the hardness of those three men seems to be associated with their mother would lead us to conclude that David's sister Zeruiah was an extremely hard woman. Inevitably there must have been strands of hardness in David too (consider his treatment of Uriah, his intended massacre of Nabal's encampment, torturing the Ammonites etc.); and yet more often than not, we get the impression that David was a real softy. His experience of life made him progressively more soft, whilst his sister and nephews went the other way. Truly could he comment towards the end of it all that God's gentleness had made him great (2 Sam. 22:36).

2:18 It's unusual for the name of the wives or mothers to be recorded as we have here and in :24; perhaps the idea is to show the significance of women in Caleb's family.

2:22 Some Jews reject our belief that Jesus is the promised seed of Abraham and David by claiming that Hebrew genealogy wasn't reckoned through women in Biblical times. But that isn't the case. We see here that Jair's father was of the tribe of Judah, yet in Num.32:41 he is described as “the son of Manasseh”, showing that his mother must have been of the tribe of Manasseh. His descent was reckoned through his mother rather than his father. Likewise :34 records that Sheshan “had no sons, but daughters”. According to the objection that genealogy cannot be reckoned through the woman, Sheshan would have no subsequent genealogy. However, he is described in :31 as having a son, presumably from the fact that he gave his daughter in marriage to his Egyptian servant (:34). Thus his seed was still reckoned through a woman. Note that Hiram is described as “the son of a woman of the daughters of Dan” (2 Chron.2:14).

the father of Nathan, and Nathan became the father of Zabad, <sup>37</sup> Zabad became the father of Ephlal, Ephlal became the father of Obed, <sup>38</sup> Obed became the father of Jehu, Jehu became the father of Azariah, <sup>39</sup> Azariah became the father of Helez, Helez became the father of Eleasah, <sup>40</sup> Eleasah became the father of Sismai, Sismai became the father of Shallum, <sup>41</sup> Shallum became the father of Jekamiah and Jekamiah became the father of Elishama. <sup>42</sup> The sons of Caleb the brother of Jerahmeel were Mesha his firstborn, who was the father of Ziph. The son of Mareshah was Hebron. <sup>43</sup> The sons of Hebron: Korah, Tapuah, Rekem and Shema. <sup>44</sup> Shema became the father of Raham, the father of Jorkeam; and Rekem became the father of Shammai. <sup>45</sup> The son of Shammai was Maon; and Maon was the father of Beth Zur. <sup>46</sup> Ephah, Caleb's concubine, bore Haran, Moza and Gazez; and Haran became the father of Gazez. <sup>47</sup> The sons of Jahdai: Regem, Jothan, Geshan, Pelet, Ephah and Shaaph. <sup>48</sup> Maacah, Caleb's con-

2:46 Some of the names given to children seem to hint at a weakness in the parents. One wonders why Caleb called his illegitimate son "Haran", after the city which Abraham left behind in order to attain God's promises.

2:48 Caleb's concubine – The genealogies seem to stress the weakness and occasional strength of the people of God. Occasionally the list of names is interrupted by a piece of information which indicates God's awareness of their spirituality. For example, the fact some men had more than one wife or a wife from a nation other than Israel is often recorded (as here and also in 1:32; 2:3,26,35; 4:18; 5:1; 7:14; 8:8). The way these interruptions occur in the lists of names stands out. This is surely to indicate two things: that many faithful men made mistakes in this area of life, and secondly that all down the centuries God has not forgotten that they married out of the faith, or that they allowed the pressures of their surrounding world to influence them to break away from the ideal one man: one woman standard of Eden. These two facts provide us with both warning and comfort, in that although God is sensitive to failure, He is still able to justify men, to count them as if they are righteous for the sake of their covcubine, bore Sheber and Tirhanah.<sup>49</sup> She bore also Shaaph the father of Madmannah, Sheva the father of Machbena, and the father of Gibeai; and the daughter of Caleb was Achsah.<sup>50</sup> These were the sons of Caleb, the son of Hur, the firstborn of Ephraim: Shobal the father of Kiriath Jearim,<sup>51</sup> Salma the father of Bethlehem, Hareph the father of Beth Gader.<sup>52</sup> Shobal the founder of Kiriath Jearim was the ancestor of the people Haroeh and half of the people of Menuthoth.<sup>53</sup> The families of Kiriath Jearim: The Ithrites, Puthites, Shumathites and the Mishraites; of them came the Zorathites and the Eshtaolites.<sup>54</sup> The sons of Salma: Bethlehem and the Netophathites, Atroth Beth Joab, and half of the Manahathites, the Zorites.<sup>55</sup> The families of scribes who lived at Jabez: the Tirathites, the Shimeathites, the Sucathites. These are the Kenites who came of Hammath, the father of the house of Rechab.

The Children of David

Now these were the sons of David, who were born to him in Hebron: the firstborn, Amnon, of Ahinoam the Jezreelitess; the second, Daniel, of Abigail the Carmelitess;<sup>2</sup> the third, Absalom the son of Maacah the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur; the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith;<sup>3</sup> the fifth, Shephatiah of Abital; the sixth, Ithream by Eglah his wife.<sup>4</sup> Six were born to him in Hebron; and there he reigned seven years and six months. In Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three years.<sup>5</sup> These were born to him in Jerusalem: Shimea, Shobab, Nathan and Solomon, four, of Bathshua the daughter of Ammiel;<sup>6</sup> and Ithar, Elishama, Eliphelet,<sup>7</sup> Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia,<sup>8</sup> Elishama, Eliada and Eliphelet, nine.<sup>9</sup> All these were the sons of David, besides the sons of the concubines; and Tamar was enant relationship with Him, even though (e.g.) their married life was not completely in order.

2:54 Bethlehem clearly refers to the city rather than a person of that name. Chronicling which Israelite families came from which towns in Judah confirms the suggestion made on 1:1 that these records were written up in the context of the return from exile clarifying who came from which town (see too 4:28-34).

3:3 Solomon wished to imitate his father David; his own real personality only came out in the Ecclesiastes years, when he took to alcohol, materialism, women and idolatry. It took the influence of his parents many years to wear off. David had weaknesses for horses (2 Sam. 8:4) and many wives; and Solomon followed in these steps too.
Note here that David had six sons in seven years by six different women, including Gentiles. And in addition to these, David had children by “the concubines” (:9).
Doubtless Solomon reasoned, albeit deep within his psyche, that such behaviour was legitimate because David his father had done it.

3:9 The repeated reference to the possession of concubines can be read as an indication of Israel’s weakness in abandoning the ideal standards of God regarding marriage. Yet we read that even David had concubines – as if to show the extent of Israel’s weakness in the area of marriage.

their sister. <sup>10</sup> Solomon's son was Rehoboam, Abijah his son, Asa his son, Jehoshaphat his son, <sup>11</sup> Joram his son, Ahaziah his son, Joash his son, <sup>12</sup> Amaziah his son, Azariah his son, Jotham his son, <sup>13</sup> Ahaz his son, Hezekiah his son, Manasseh his son, <sup>14</sup> Amon his son, Josiah his son. <sup>15</sup> The sons of Josiah: the firstborn Johanan, the second Jehoiakim, the third Zedekiah, the fourth Shallum. <sup>16</sup> The sons of Jehoiakim: Jeconiah his son, Zedekiah his son. <sup>17</sup> The sons of Jeconiah the captive: Shealtiel his son, <sup>18</sup> and Malchiram, and Pedaiiah, and Shenazzar, Jekamiah, Hoshama, and Nedabiah. <sup>19</sup> The sons of Pedaiiah: Zerubbabel, and Shimei. The sons of Zerubbabel: Meshullam, and Hananiah; and Shelomith was their sister; <sup>20</sup> and Hashubah, Ohel, Berechiah, Hasadiah and Jushab Hessed, five. <sup>21</sup> The sons of Hananiah: Pelatiah and Jeshaiah; the sons of Rephaiah, the sons of Arnan, the sons of Obadiah, the sons of Shecaniah. <sup>22</sup> The sons of Shecaniah: Shemaiah. The sons of Shemaiah: Hattush, Igal, Bariah, Neariah and Shaphat, six. <sup>23</sup> The sons of Neariah: Elioenai, Hizkiah and Azrikam, three. <sup>24</sup> The sons of Elioenai: Hodaviah, Eliashib, Pelaiah, Akkub, Johanan, Delaiah and Anani, seven.

The Children of Judah

the son of Shobal became the father of Jahath; and Jahath became the father of Ahumai and Lahad. These are the families of the Zorathites. <sup>3</sup> These were the sons of the father of Etam: Jezreel, Ishma and Idbash; and the name of their sister was Hazzelelponi; <sup>4</sup> and Penuel the father of Gedor, and Ezer the father of Hushah. These are the sons of Hur, the firstborn of Ephrathah, the founder of Bethlehem. <sup>5</sup> Ashhur the father of Tekoa had two wives, Helah and Naarah. <sup>6</sup> Naarah bore him Ahuzzam, Hephher, Temeni and Haahashtari. These were the sons of Naarah. <sup>7</sup> The sons of Helah were Zereth, Izhar and Ethnan. <sup>8</sup> Hakkoz became the father of Anub, Zobebah, and the families of Aharhel the son of Harum. <sup>9</sup> Jabez was more honourable than his brothers: and his mother named him Jabez saying, Because I bore him with sorrow. <sup>10</sup> Jabez called on the God of Israel saying, Oh that You would bless me indeed, and enlarge my border, and that Your hand might be with me, and that You would keep me from evil, that it not be to my sorrow! God granted him that which he requested. <sup>11</sup> Chelub the brother of Shuhah became the father of Mehir, who was the father of Eshton. <sup>12</sup> Eshton became the father of Beth Rapha, Paseah and Tehinnah the father of Ir Nahash. These are the men of Recah. <sup>13</sup> The sons of Kenaz: Othniel, and Seraiah. The son of Othniel: Hathath. <sup>14</sup> Meonothai became the father of Ophrah: and Seraiah became the father of Joab the father of Ge Harashim; for they were craftsmen. <sup>15</sup> The sons of Caleb the son of Jephunneh: Iru, Elah and Naam; and the son of Elah: Kenaz. <sup>16</sup> The sons of Jehallelel: Ziph, Ziphah, Tiria and Asarel. <sup>17</sup> The sons of Ezrah: Jether, Mered, Ephraim and Jalon; and she bore Miriam, Shammai and Ishbah the father of Eshtemoa. <sup>18</sup> His wife the Jewess bore Jered the father of Gedor, Heber the father of Soco and Jekuthiel the father of Zanoah. These are the sons of Bithiah the daughter of Pharaoh, whom Mered took. <sup>19</sup> The sons of the wife of Hodiah, the sister of Naham, were the fathers of Keilah the Garmite and Eshtemoa the Maacathite. <sup>20</sup> The sons of Shimon: Amnon, Rinnah, Ben Hanan and Tilon. The sons of Ishi: Zoheth and Ben Zoheth. <sup>21</sup> The sons of Shelah the son of Judah: Er the father of Lecah, Laadah the father of Mareshah, and the families of the house of those who worked fine linen, of the house of Ashbea; <sup>22</sup> and Jokim, the men of Cozeba, Joash and Saraph, who had dominion in Moab, and Jashubilehem. The records are ancient. <sup>23</sup> These were the potters, and the inhabitants of Netaim and Gederah where they lived and worked for the king.

4:10 This is an example of spiritual ambition, requesting that their border be enlarged, at the expense of driving out neighbouring Canaanite tribes. Jesus uses Jabez's phrase "Keep me from evil" and inserts it into His model prayer, "deliver us from evil" (Mt. 6:13).

Jamin, Jarib, Zerah and Shaul; <sup>25</sup> Shallum his son, Mibsam his son, Mishma his son. <sup>26</sup> The sons of Mishma: Hammuel his son, Zaccur his son, Shimei his son. <sup>27</sup> Shimei had sixteen sons and six daughters; but his brothers didn't have many children, neither did all their family multiply like the children of Judah. <sup>28</sup> They lived at Beersheba, Moladah and Hazarshual, <sup>29</sup> and at Bilhah, Ezem, Tolad, <sup>30</sup> Bethuel, Hormah, Ziklag, <sup>31</sup> Beth Marcaboth and Hazar Susim, Beth Biri and at Shaaraim. These were their cities to the reign of David. <sup>32</sup> Their villages were Etam, Ain, Rimmon, Tochen and Ashan, five cities; <sup>33</sup> and all their villages that were around the same cities, to Baal. These were their habitations, and they have their genealogy. <sup>34</sup> Meshobab, Jamlech, Joshah the son of Amaziah, <sup>35</sup> Joel, Jehu the son of Joshibiah, the son of Seraiah, the son of Asiel, <sup>36</sup> and Eliezer, Jaakobah, Jeshohaiah, Asaiah, Adiel, Jesimiel, Benaiah, <sup>37</sup> Ziza the son of Shiphi, the son of Allon, the son of Jedaiah, the son of Shimri, the son of Shemaiah— <sup>38</sup> these mentioned by name were princes in their families; and their fathers' houses increased greatly. <sup>39</sup> They went to the entrance of Gedor, even to the east side of the valley, to seek pasture for their flocks. <sup>40</sup> They found fat pasture and good, and the land was wide, quiet and peaceable; for those who lived there before were of Ham. <sup>41</sup> These written by name came in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and attacked their tents, and the Meunim who were found there, and destroyed them utterly to this day, and lived in their place; because there was pasture there for their flocks. <sup>42</sup> Some of them, even of the sons of Simeon, five hundred men, went to Mount Seir, having for their captains Pelatiah, Neariah, Rephaiah and Uzziel, the sons of Ishi. <sup>43</sup> They struck the remnant of the Amalekites who escaped, and have lived there to this day.

4:24 The sons of Simeon were Nemuel, Jamin... and Shaul – But Gen. 46:10 shows that Shaul was Simeon's son by a wrong, casual relationship. Yet this is not recorded in Chronicles, even though so many other weaknesses are. Perhaps this is to demonstrate how if God imputes righteousness for a repented of sin, there really is no record of this kept by Him.

The Children of Reuben

The sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel (for he was the firstborn; but, because he defiled his father's bed, his birthright was given to the sons of Joseph the son of Israel; and the genealogy is not to be reckoned after the birthright. <sup>2</sup> For Judah prevailed above his brothers, and of him came the prince; but the birthright was Joseph's): <sup>3</sup> the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel: Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron and Carmi. <sup>4</sup> The sons of Joel: Shemaiah his son, Gog his son, Shimei his son, <sup>5</sup> Micah his son, Reaiah his son, Baal his son, <sup>6</sup> and Beerah his son, whom Tiglath Pileser king of Assyria carried away captive: he was prince of the Reubenites. <sup>7</sup> His brothers by their families, when the genealogy of their generations was reckoned: the chief, Jeiel, and Zechariah, <sup>8</sup> and Bela the son of Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Joel, who lived in Aroer, even up to Nebo and Baal Meon: <sup>9</sup> and eastward he lived even to the entrance of the wilderness from the river Euphrates, because their livestock were multiplied in the land of Gilead. <sup>10</sup> In the days of Saul, they made war with the Hagrites, who fell by their hand; and they lived in their tents throughout all the land east of Gilead.

5:4 Gog is mentioned in Ez. 38 as leading a latter day invasion of Israel. The background to 'Gog' given here is that he was an apostate Jew who went away from the God of Israel, attracted by the grazing grounds to the north east of Israel, and who eventually ended up living permanently in the land of Israel's enemies, the land of the Hagarenes (sons of Hagar) and Assyria. The Gog of Ez. 38 may well be an apostate Jew (after the pattern of Rabshakeh) who leads an invasion of his ancient homeland. He attacks because he loves cattle (Ez. 38:11,12) – which was a characteristic of the Gog of 1 Chron. 5.

son of Abdiel, the son of Guni, chief of their fathers' houses. <sup>16</sup> They lived in Gilead in Bashan, and in its towns, and in all the suburbs of Sharon, as far as their borders. <sup>17</sup> All these were reckoned by genealogies in the days of Jotham king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam king of Israel. <sup>18</sup> The sons of Reuben, and the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, of valiant men, men able to bear buckler and sword, and to shoot with bow, and skilful in war, were forty-four thousand seven hundred and sixty, that were able to go forth to war. <sup>19</sup> They made war with the Hagarites, with Jetur, Naphish and Nodab. <sup>20</sup> They were helped against them, and the Hagarites were delivered into their hand, and all who were with them; for they cried to God in the battle, and He was entreated of them, because they put their trust in Him. <sup>21</sup> They took away their livestock; of their camels fifty thousand, and of sheep two hundred and fifty thousand, and of donkeys two thousand, and of men one hundred thousand. <sup>22</sup> For there fell many slain, because the war was of God. They lived in their place until the captivity.

The Children of Levi

The sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath and Merari. <sup>2</sup> The sons of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel. <sup>3</sup> The children of Amram: Aaron, Moses and Miriam. The sons of Aaron: Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. <sup>4</sup> Eleazar became the father of Phinehas, Phinehas became the father of Abishua, <sup>5</sup> Abishua became the father of Bukki, Bukki became the father of Uzzi, <sup>6</sup> Uzzi became the father of Zerahiah, Zerahiah became

5:26 God... stirred up the spirit of Pul – God is able to work directly on the mind or spirit of people, even of unbelievers. What we are desperate for is spiritual mindedness, strength of mind / spirit against the flesh; and surely God is willing to give this to us if we ask Him.

To this day – This implies the Chronicles were written whilst Judah were in captivity; the genealogical records therefore had primary relevance to the exiles returning to Judah.

the father of Meraioth, <sup>7</sup> Meraioth became the father of Amariah, Amariah became the father of Ahitub, <sup>8</sup> Ahitub became the father of Zadok, Zadok became the father of Ahimaaz, <sup>9</sup> Ahimaaz became the father of Azariah, Azariah became the father of Johanan, <sup>10</sup> Johanan became the father of Azariah (he it is who executed the priest's office in the house that Solomon built in Jerusalem), <sup>11</sup> Azariah became the father of Amariah, Amariah became the father of Ahitub, <sup>12</sup> Ahitub became the father of Zadok, Zadok became the father of Shallum, <sup>13</sup> Shallum became the father of Hilkiah, Hilkiah became the father of Azariah, <sup>14</sup> Azariah became the father of Seraiah, Seraiah became the father of Jehozadak. <sup>15</sup> Jehozadak went into captivity when Yahweh carried away Judah and Jerusalem by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar. <sup>16</sup> The sons of Levi: Gershom, Kohath and Merari. <sup>17</sup> These are the names of the sons of Gershom: Libni and Shimei. <sup>18</sup> The sons of Kohath were Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel. <sup>19</sup> The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites according to their fathers' households. <sup>20</sup> Of Gershom: Libni his son, Jahath his son, Zimmah his son, <sup>21</sup> Joah his son, Iddo his son, Zerah his son, Jeatherai his son. <sup>22</sup> The sons of Kohath: Amminadab his son, Korah his son, Assir his son, <sup>23</sup> Elkanah his son, and Ebiasaph his son and Assir his son, <sup>24</sup> Tahath his son, Uriel his son, Uzziel his son and Shaul his son. <sup>25</sup> The sons of Elkanah: Amasai and Ahimoth. <sup>26</sup> As for Elkanah, the sons of Elkanah: Zophai his son, and Nahath his son, <sup>27</sup> Eliab his son, Jeroham his son, Elkanah his son. <sup>28</sup> The sons of Samuel: the firstborn Joel and the second Abijah. <sup>29</sup> The sons of Merari: Mahli, Libni his son, Shimei his son, Uzzah his son, <sup>30</sup> Shimea his son, Haggiah his son, Asaiah his son.

The Temple Musicians

<sup>31</sup> These are they whom David set over the service of song in the house of Yahweh, after that the ark had rest. <sup>32</sup> They ministered with song before the tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting, until Solomon had built the house of Yahweh in Jerusalem; and they served in their office according to their order. <sup>33</sup> These are those who waited, and their sons. Of the sons of the Kohathites: Heman the singer, the son of Joel, son of Samuel, <sup>34</sup> son of Elkanah, son of Jeroham, son of Eliel, son of Toah, <sup>35</sup> son of Zuph, son of Elkanah, son of Mahath, son of Amasai, <sup>36</sup> son of Elkanah, son of Joel, son of Azariah, son of Zephaniah, <sup>37</sup> son of Tahath, son of Assir, son of Ebiasaph, son of Korah, <sup>38</sup> son of Izhar, son of Kohath, son of Levi, the son of Israel. <sup>39</sup> His brother Asaph, who stood on his right hand, even Asaph the son of Berechiah, son of Shimea, <sup>40</sup> son of Michael, son of Baaseiah, son of Malchijah, <sup>41</sup> son of Ethni, son of Zerah, son of Adaiah, <sup>42</sup> son of Ethan, son of Zimmah, son of Shimei, <sup>43</sup> son of Jahath, son of Gershom, the son of Levi. <sup>44</sup> On the left hand were their brothers the sons of Merari: Ethan the son of

Kishi, son of Abdi, son of Malluch, <sup>45</sup> son of Hashabiah, son of Amaziah, son of Hilkiah, <sup>46</sup> son of Amzi, son of Bani, son of Shemer, <sup>47</sup> son of Mahli, son of Mushi, son of Merari, the son of Levi. <sup>48</sup> Their brothers the Levites were appointed for all the service of the tabernacle of God's house. <sup>49</sup> But Aaron and his sons offered on the altar of burnt offering, and on the altar of incense, for all the work of the most holy place, and to make atonement for Israel, according to all that Moses the servant of God had commanded. <sup>50</sup> These are the sons of Aaron: Eleazar, Phinehas his son, Abishua his son, <sup>51</sup> Bukki his son, Uzzi his son, Zerahiah his son, <sup>52</sup> Meraioth his son, Amariah his son, Ahitub his son, <sup>53</sup> Zadok his son, Ahimaaz his son. <sup>54</sup> Now these are their dwelling places according to their encampments in their borders: to the sons of Aaron, of the families of the Kohathites (for theirs was the first lot), <sup>55</sup> to them they gave Hebron in the land of Judah, and its suburbs around it; <sup>56</sup> but the fields of the city, and its villages, they gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh. <sup>57</sup> To the sons of Aaron they gave the cities of refuge: Hebron; Libnah also with its suburbs, Jattir, Eshtemoa with its suburbs; <sup>58</sup> Hilen with its suburbs; Debir with its suburbs; <sup>59</sup> Ashan with its suburbs and Beth Shemesh with its suburbs; <sup>60</sup> and out of the tribe of Benjamin, Geba with its suburbs; Allemeth with its suburbs and Anathoth with its suburbs. All their cities throughout their families were thirteen cities. <sup>61</sup> To the rest of the sons of Kohath were given by lot, out of the family of the tribe, out of

6:57, 58 The cities of refuge represented Christ as the ultimate place of refuge for those like us who have sinned, deserve to die, and yet didn't wilfully sin (Heb. 6:18). It should be noted that these cities were generally in areas which required some effort to get to – in the wilderness, in the mountains (:67) etc. This teaches that there must be some conscious effort on our side in fleeing to Christ; repentance and entry into Christ aren't momentary actions, they are highly deliberate and conscious acts from us. Jesus likewise went up into a mountain and invited those seriously interested in Him to come to Him there (Mk. 3:13).

6:61 Ten cities – The parable of the pounds describes the reward of the faithful in terms of being given ten or five cities (Lk. 19:17). This idea of dividing up groups of cities was surely meant to recall the way Israel in their wilderness years were each promised their own individual cities and villages, which they later inherited. The idea of inheriting “ten cities” occurs here and in Josh. 15:57; 21:5,26, all in the context of the priests receiving their cities, and “five cities” in 4:32. As each Israelite was promised some personal inheritance in the land, rather than some blanket reward which the whole nation received, so we too have a personal reward prepared. The language of inheritance (e.g. 1 Pet. 1:4) and preparation of reward (Mt. 25:34; Jn. 14:1) in the New Testament is alluding to this Old Testament background of the land being prepared by the Angels for each person amongst God's people to specifically inherit (Ex. 15:17; 23:20; Ps. 68:9,10). Our promised inheritance is not only eternal life; it is something being personally prepared for each of us. The language of preparation seems inap-

the half-tribe, the half of Manasseh, ten cities.<sup>62</sup> To the sons of Gershon, according to their families, out of the tribe of Issachar, out of the tribe of Asher, out of the tribe of Naphtali and out of the tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, thirteen cities.<sup>63</sup> To the sons of Merari were given by lot, according to their families, out of the tribe of Reuben, out of the tribe of Gad and out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities.<sup>64</sup> The children of Israel gave to the Levites the cities with their suburbs.<sup>65</sup> They gave by lot out of the tribe of the children of Judah, out of the tribe of the children of Simeon and out of the tribe of the children of Benjamin, these cities which are mentioned by name.<sup>66</sup> Some of the families of the sons of Kohath had cities of their borders out of the tribe of Ephraim.<sup>67</sup> They gave to them the cities of refuge: Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim with its suburbs; Gezer also with its suburbs;<sup>68</sup> Jokmeam with its suburbs; Beth Horon with its suburbs;<sup>69</sup> Aijalon with its suburbs and Gath Rimmon with its suburbs;<sup>70</sup> and out of the half-tribe of Manasseh, Aner with its suburbs and Bileam with its suburbs, for the rest of the family of the sons of Kohath.<sup>71</sup> To the sons of Gershon were given, out of the family of the half-tribe of Manasseh: Golan in Bashan with its suburbs, and Ashtaroth with its suburbs;<sup>72</sup> and out of the tribe of Issachar: Kedesh with its suburbs; Daberath with its suburbs;<sup>73</sup> Ramoth with its suburbs; Anem with its sub-

The Children of Issachar

Of the sons of Issachar: Tola, Puah, Jashub and Shimron, four.<sup>1</sup> The sons of Tola: Uzzi, Rephaiah, Jeriel, Jahmai, Ibsam and Shemuel, heads of their fathers' houses, of Tola; mighty men of valour in their generations. Their number in the days of David was twenty-two thousand six hundred.<sup>2</sup> The son of Uzzi: Izrahiah. The sons of Izrahiah: Michael, Obadiah, Joel and Isshiah, five; all of them chief men.<sup>3</sup> With them, by their generations, after their fathers' houses, were bands of the army for war, thirty-six thousand; for they had many wives and sons. <sup>5</sup> Their brothers among all the families of Issachar, mighty men of valour, reckoned in all by genealogy, were eighty-seven thousand.

The Children of Benjamin

hundred, who were able to go forth in the army for war. <sup>12</sup> Shuppiim also, and Huppiim, the sons of Ir, Hushim, the sons of Aher.

The Children of Naphtali

The Children of Manasseh

7:14 His concubine the Aramitess – Here and so often in the genealogies we have evidence that from earliest times, the Jews weren't ethnically pure. And intermarriage with Gentiles has continued to be a feature of the community throughout the millennia. Jewishness is therefore cultural more than genetic; which provides another perspective on Paul's argument that fleshly descent from Abraham counts for nothing.

7:15 Zelophehad had only daughters; usually, in his context, a man would have taken concubines in order to produce sons. The record of his only having daughters is presented in the context of genealogies which show that many Israelite men had more than one wife. But Zelophehad wasn't dragged down by this; God inspired him to maintain the higher level which he had chosen to live by. We too must seek to do what is ultimately right before God and not be influenced by the standards of our brethren who surround us in the body of believers.

vah, Ishvi, Beriah, and Serah their sister. <sup>31</sup> The sons of Beriah: Heber and Malchiel, who was the father of Birzaith. <sup>32</sup> Heber became the father of Japhlet, Shomer, Hotham and Shua their sister. <sup>33</sup> The sons of Japhlet: Pasach, Bimhal and Ashvath. These are the children of Japhlet. <sup>34</sup> The sons of Shemer: Ahi, Rohgah, Jehubbah and Aram. <sup>35</sup> The sons of Helem his brother: Zophah, Imna, Shelesh and Amal. <sup>36</sup> The sons of Zophah: Suah, Harnepher, Shual, Beri, Imrah, <sup>37</sup> Bezer, Hod, Shamma, Shilshah, Ithran and Beera. <sup>38</sup> The sons of Jether: Jephunneh, Pispah and Ara. <sup>39</sup> The sons of Ulla: Arah, Hanniel and Rizia. <sup>40</sup> All these were the children of Asher, heads of the fathers' houses, choice and mighty men of valour, chief of the princes. The number of them reckoned by genealogy for service in war was twenty-six thousand men.

7:24 One feature of these genealogies is that they mention the significance of women as mothers and wives by naming them; and the achievements of women like Sherah, who built Beth-Horon. This sharply contrasts with contemporary king lists of the time, which mention only the males and their exploits. This indicates that the Bible isn't as it were anti-women, as has been ignorantly claimed, but rather God's perception of the value and meaning of the human person is such that His word is very positive about women.

of fathers' households of the inhabitants of Geba, and they carried them captive to Manahath: <sup>7</sup> Naaman, Ahijah and Gera. He carried them captive, and he became the father of Uzza and Ahihud. <sup>8</sup> Shaharaim divorced his two wives, Hushim and Baara. Later, when he lived in the country of Moab, he married Hodesh <sup>9</sup> his wife and had seven sons: Jobab, Zibia, Mesha, Malcam, <sup>10</sup> Jeuz, Shachia and Mirmah. These were his sons, heads of fathers' households. <sup>11</sup> By Hushim he became the father of Abitub and Elpaal. <sup>12</sup> The sons of Elpaal: Eber, Misham and Shemed, who built Ono and Lod with its towns; <sup>13</sup> and Beriah and Shema, who were heads of fathers' households of the inhabitants of Aijalon, who put to flight the inhabitants of Gath; <sup>14</sup> and Ahio, Shashak, Jeremoth, <sup>15</sup> Zebadiah, Arad, Eder, <sup>16</sup> Michael, Ishpah and Joha, the sons

8:8 It would seem that the genealogies of the books of Chronicles, with all their emphasis on the priesthood and temple service under Solomon, were produced at the time of the restoration – in order to encourage the people to restore the Kingdom of God as it had been, and thereby bring in the Kingdom. References to “Jeconiah the captive” (3:17) make sense in the context of the records being written up in the captivity. And we can understand why the story of Shaharaim is mentioned here – a Jewish refugee in Moab, who sent away his two Gentile wives [cp. what was done in Ezra 10:44] but ended up being blessed with more children. “Seven sons” would’ve been understood as a completeness of blessing. Note that God still recognized his later wife as just that – his wife, even though he had been married previously. No sin or failure leads to a position whereby someone is intrinsically unable to be accepted by God.

8:30–34 When a passage is repeated twice, surely God wishes us to perceive something. 8:30–34 is repeated in 9:36–40. The reason may be that the name ‘Baal’ was used by the leaders of Israel. Gibeon’s children included Kish and Baal, Kish’s son was king Saul, Saul had a son called Eshbaal as well as Jonathan, David’s beloved friend; and Jonathan had a son called Merib Baal. These are not the names as recorded elsewhere; the Chronicles record is highlighting the fact that there was a strand of weakness for idols in the family of Saul, including in faithful Jonathan. We note that his love of God, of David, his appreciation of David’s righteousness, his belief that Kish; and Kish became the father of Saul; and Saul became the father of Jonathan, Malchishua, Abinadab and Eshbaal. <sup>34</sup> The son of Jonathan was Merib Baal; and Merib Baal became the father of Micah. <sup>35</sup> The sons of Micah: Pithon, Melech, Tarea, and Ahaz. <sup>36</sup> Ahaz became the father of Jehoaddah; and Jehoaddah became the father of Alemeth, Azmaveth and Zimri; and Zimri became the father of Moza. <sup>37</sup> Moza became the father of Binea; Raphah was his son, Eleasah his son, Azel his son. <sup>38</sup> Azel had six sons, whose names are these: Azrikam, Bocheru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah and Hanan. All these were the sons of Azel. <sup>39</sup> The sons of Eshek his brother: Ulam his first-born, Jeush the second, and Eliphelet the third. <sup>40</sup> The sons of Ulam were mighty men of valour, archers, and had many sons, and sons' sons, one hundred and fifty. All these were of the sons of Benjamin.

The Exiles Who Returned

So all Israel were reckoned by genealogies — they are written in the book of the kings of Israel. Judah was carried away captive to Babylon for their disobedience. <sup>2</sup> Now the first inhabitants who lived in their possessions in their cities were Israel, the priests, the Levites and the Nethinim.

David would have the future Kingdom, struggled against the fact that the worldly influence of his father and great-grandfather still rubbed off upon him. We find ourselves so often in similar situations.

8:33 In all close friendships there are some aspects which just could not have been contrived by human arrangement, and which add to the closeness and sense of specialness which those relationships have. There were such aspects with David and Jonathan, intensifying the love of David for Jonathan. For example, it was a beautiful coincidence that they both happened to have a brother called Abinadab (1 Sam. 16:8).

hundred and sixty; very able men for the work of the service of God's house. <sup>14</sup> Of the Levites: Shemaiah son of Hasshub, son of Azrikam, son of Hashabiah, of the sons of Merari; <sup>15</sup> and Bakbakkar, Heresh, Galal, and Mattaniah son of Mica, son of Zichri, son of Asaph, <sup>16</sup> and Obadiah son of Shemaiah, son of Galal, son of Jeduthun, and Berechiah son of Asa, son of Elkanah, who lived in the villages of the Netophathites. <sup>17</sup> The porters: Shallum, Akkub, Talmon and Ahiman, and their brothers (Shallum was the chief), <sup>18</sup> who previously served in the king's gate eastward: they were the porters for the camp of the children of Levi. <sup>19</sup> Shallum the son of Kore, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, and his brothers, of his father's house, the Korahites, were over the work of the service, keepers of the thresholds of the tent. Their fathers had been over the camp of Yahweh, keepers of the entry. <sup>20</sup> Phinehas the son of Eleazar was ruler over them in time past, and Yahweh was with him. <sup>21</sup> Zechariah the son of Meshelemiah was porter of the door of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>22</sup> All these who were chosen to be porters in the thresholds were two hundred and twelve. These were reckoned by genealogy in their villages, whom David and Samuel the prophet ordained in their office of trust. <sup>23</sup> So they and their children had the oversight of the gates of the house of Yahweh, even the house of the tent, as guards. <sup>24</sup> On the four sides were the porters, toward the east, west, north, and south. <sup>25</sup> Their brothers, in their villages, were to come in every seven days from time to time to be with them; <sup>26</sup> for the four chief porters, who were Levites, were in an office of trust, and were over the rooms and over the treasur-

9:17-19 The genealogy of the sons of Korah is significant in that Korah was the ringleader of the rebellion against Moses which led to his destruction. His children however obeyed the command to leave the tents of their father Korah when he was consumed in the earthquake. Num. 16:27 mentions Dathan and Abiram's children standing outside their tents at this time, but there is the pointed omission of Korah's children; they had left the tents, in recognition of Korah's sin and dissociation from it. The descendants of Korah wrote at least 11 of the Psalms and protected the purity of temple worship. Conscious dissociation from sin is required of us; and it's often very hard, especially when it concerns family members. We also learn from this family that the spiritual failure of a father figure doesn't have to mean that the rest of the family likewise fail; in fact, they can learn from the tragedy and become strengthened spiritually by responding to God's judgment of sin as He intends.

9:22 Their office of trust – As any employer soon learns, delegation is a risk. We have been “entrusted with the Gospel” (Tit. 1:3); the world God so wants to love, the world God is appealing to, do not directly see Him; for He makes His appeal through us. We are all that many people will ever see of Christ; for we are His body. God has trusted us with representing Him, and put His work into our hands. Those who did God's work in the Old Testament temple were similarly given a “trust”, they were entrusted with God's work.

ies in God's house. <sup>27</sup> They lodged around God's house, because that duty was theirs. To them pertained its opening morning by morning. <sup>28</sup> Certain of them were in charge of the vessels of service; for by count were these brought in and by count were these taken out. <sup>29</sup> Some of them also were appointed over the furniture, and over all the vessels of the sanctuary, and over the fine flour, the wine, the oil, the frankincense and the spices. <sup>30</sup> Some of the sons of the priests prepared the mix of the spices. <sup>31</sup> Mattithiah, one of the Levites, who was the firstborn of Shalum the Korahite, had the office of trust over the things that were baked in pans. <sup>32</sup> Some of their brothers, of the sons of the Kohathites, were over the show bread, to prepare it every Sabbath. <sup>33</sup> These are the singers, heads of fathers' households of the Levites, who lived in the rooms and were free from other service; for they were employed in their work day and night. <sup>34</sup> These were heads of fathers' households of the Levites, throughout their generations, chief men. They lived at Jerusalem.

The Children of Jeiel

and Mikloth. <sup>38</sup> Mikloth became the father of Shimeam. They also lived with their brothers in Jerusalem, over against their brothers. <sup>39</sup> Ner became the father of Kish; and Kish became the father of Saul; and Saul became the father of Jonathan, Malchishua, Abinadab and Eshbaal. <sup>40</sup> The son of Jonathan was Merib Baal; and Merib Baal became the father of Micah. <sup>41</sup> The sons of Micah: Pithon, Melech, Tahrea and Ahaz. <sup>42</sup> Ahaz became the father of Jarah; and Jarah became the father of Alemeth, Azmaveth and Zimri; and Zimri became the father of Moza; <sup>43</sup> and Moza became the father of Binea, and Rephaiah his son, Eleasah his son, Azel his son. <sup>44</sup> Azel had six sons, whose names are: Azrikam, Bocheru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah and Hanan. These were the sons of Azel.

The Death of Saul

Now the Philistines fought against Israel: and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down slain on Mount Gilboa. <sup>2</sup> The Philistines followed hard after Saul and after his sons; and the Philistines killed Jonathan, Abinadab and Malchishua, the sons of Saul. <sup>3</sup> The battle went hard against Saul, and the archers overtook him; and he was badly wounded by the archers. <sup>4</sup> Then Saul said to his armour

9:40 There are clear connections between Jonathan and Gideon; compare 1 Sam.14:10-20 with Jud.7:3,10,11,14,22. Jonathan's son was called Merib Baal, meaning 'rebellion against Baal', an epithet for 'Gideon'. It's not wrong to have Biblical heroes, and to be inspired by their examples in the life decisions we make, even to the naming of our children.

bearer, Draw your sword, and thrust me through with it, lest these uncircumcised come and abuse me. But his armour bearer would not; for he was terrified. Therefore Saul took his sword and fell on it. <sup>5</sup> When his armour bearer saw that Saul was dead, he likewise fell on his sword and died. <sup>6</sup> So Saul died, and his three sons; and all his family died together. <sup>7</sup> When all the men of Israel who were in the valley saw that they fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook their cities and fled; and the Philistines came and lived in them. <sup>8</sup> It happened on the next day, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa. <sup>9</sup> They stripped him, and took his head, and his armour, and sent into the land of the Philistines all around, to carry the news to their idols, and to the people. <sup>10</sup> They put his armour in the house of their gods, and fastened his head in the house of Dagon. <sup>11</sup> When all Jabesh Gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul, <sup>12</sup> all the valiant men arose and took away the body of Saul, and the bodies of his sons, and brought them to Jabesh, and buried their bones under the oak in Jabesh, and fasted seven days. <sup>13</sup> So Saul died for his trespass which he committed against Yahweh, against the word of Yahweh, which he didn't keep; and also because he asked counsel of one who had a familiar spirit, to inquire, <sup>14</sup> and didn't inquire of Yahweh. Therefore He

10:4 Although the armour bearer was one of Saul's men, in the anti-David camp, yet David's example of not killing Saul must have deeply influenced him. We do make a difference. We have more influence upon others than we may think. It can be that an illiterate sister in a male dominated society can think that her attendance at church meetings cannot encourage anyone. It can be that the Christian stockbroker feels that it is impossible for him to influence those he works with. But we do have influence. We have become so humiliated by a shame based society that we can underestimate the value and power of our own personhood.

10:13 Against Yahweh, against the word of Yahweh – God and His word are here paralleled; for “the word was [and is] God” (Jn. 1:1). Our attitude to God's word is our attitude to Him.

10:13, 14 Just before his final fight with the Philistines, “Saul enquired of Yahweh (but) Yahweh answered him not” (1 Sam. 28:6), and therefore he went to a witch. But in God's final analysis of Saul, Yahweh says that He smote Saul because Saul sinned against God's word by not enquiring of God, but of a witch. But Saul did enquire of God (see 1 Sam. 14:27 s.w.; 28:6), but God didn't answer him (note how often in the records it is stated by contrast that David enquired successfully of Yahweh). The point is that although Saul prayed to God and enquired of His word on the surface, in his heart, he did nothing of the sort; and therefore his prayer and enquiry was reckoned never to have happened. And we must ask how much of our prayer and Bible study is seen by God as being only spoken and read on a surface level. This was exactly the problem of natural Israel. “They have not cried unto Me with their heart, when they howled (in prayer) upon their beds” (Hos. 7:14). “Though they called them to the Most High, none at all would exalt Him” (Hos. 11:7).

David Is Made King

Then all Israel gathered themselves to David to Hebron saying, Behold, we are your bone and your flesh. <sup>2</sup> In times past, even when Saul was king, it was you who led out and brought in Israel. Yahweh your God said to you, ‘You shall be shepherd of My people Israel, and you shall be prince over My people Israel’. <sup>3</sup> So all the elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron; and David made a covenant with them in Hebron before Yahweh; and they anointed David king over Israel, according to the word of Yahweh by Samuel. <sup>4</sup> David and all Israel went to Jerusalem (the same is Jebus). The Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land, were there. <sup>5</sup> The inhabitants of Jebus said to David, You shall not come in here. Nevertheless David took the stronghold of Zion. The same is the city of David. <sup>6</sup> David said, Whoever strikes the Jebusites first shall be chief and captain. Joab the son of Zeruiah went up first, and was made chief. <sup>7</sup> David lived in the stronghold; therefore they called it the city of David. <sup>8</sup> He built the city all around, from Millo and all around; and Joab repaired the rest of the city. <sup>9</sup> David grew greater and greater; for Yahweh of Armies was with him.

David's Mighty Men

11:1 We are your bone and your flesh – An idiom meaning that they were in every sense his brethren. Here and in 2 Sam. 19:12 the phrase is used in the context of human beings wanting to have someone exactly like them, of their ‘bone and flesh’, as their leader. We find the same term used in Eph. 5:30, where we are told that those who are baptized into the body of Christ have in Him someone of their own bone and flesh; He urges His disciples to physically touch His bones and flesh after His resurrection to make the same point, that despite His changed nature, we can totally identify with Him and He with us because He too was totally human (Lk. 24:39). Hence Hebrews 2 labours the point that because Jesus was of our nature, therefore and thereby is He our inspiration and spiritual leader. In this we see the importance of understanding the nature of Christ properly, and the practical spiritual advantage of rejecting the Trinitarian view of Jesus.

Yahweh saved them by a great victory. <sup>15</sup> Three of the thirty chief men went down to the rock to David, into the cave of Adullam; and the army of the Philistines were encamped in the valley of Rephaim. <sup>16</sup> David was then in the stronghold, and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem. <sup>17</sup> David was thirsty and said, Oh that one would give me water to drink of the well of Bethlehem, which is by the gate! <sup>18</sup> The three broke through the army of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David. David would not drink of it, but poured it out to Yahweh, <sup>19</sup> and said, My God forbid it me, that I should do this! Shall I drink the blood of these men who have put their lives in jeopardy? For they risked their lives to bring it. Therefore he would not drink it. The three mighty men did these things. <sup>20</sup> Abishai, the brother of Joab, he was chief of the three; for he lifted up his spear against three hundred and killed them, and had a name among the three. <sup>21</sup> Of the three, he was more honourable than the two, and was made their captain: however he didn't attain to the three. <sup>22</sup> Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man of Kabzeel, had done mighty deeds. He killed two lion-like men of Moab. He went down also and killed a lion in the midst of a pit in time of snow. <sup>23</sup> He killed an Egyptian, a man of great stature, five cubits high; and in the Egyptian's hand was a spear like a weaver's beam; and he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with his own spear. <sup>24</sup> Benaiah the son of Jehoiada did these things, and had a name among the three mighty men. <sup>25</sup> Behold, he was more honourable than the thirty, but he didn't attain to the three; and David set him over his guard. <sup>26</sup> Also the mighty men of the armies: Asahel the brother of Joab, Elhanan the son of Dodo of Bethlehem, <sup>27</sup> Shammoth the Harorite, Helez the Pelonite, <sup>28</sup> Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite, Abiezer the Anathothite, <sup>29</sup> Sibbecai the Hushathite, Ilai the Ahohite, <sup>30</sup> Maharai the Netophathite, Heled the son of Baanah the Netophathite, <sup>31</sup> Ithai the son of Ribai of Gibeah of the children of Benjamin, Benai-

11:18 David is a type of Christ; the loyalty he inspired amongst his men was a foretaste of the effect Christ should have upon us. See on :23.

11:19 That water came to represent the lives or blood of those men. We see here a basis for understanding the wine at the communion service; it represents life, the life of Christ; the water here was just water, and the wine we drink is just wine, but it represents the life of another.

11:22 Benaiah killed a lion in order to prepare him for killing two lionlike men. God often works like this, using one experience in life to prepare us for another one.

11:23 This act of bravery was clearly inspired by how David had killed Goliath, which speaks of Christ's victory over sin on the cross. This should be repeated in essence by us in our spiritual battles. See on :18.

The Names of David's Followers

Now these are those who came to David to Ziklag, while he yet kept himself in secret because of Saul the son of Kish; and they were among the mighty men, his helpers in war. <sup>2</sup> They were armed with bows, and could use both the right hand and the left in slinging stones and in shooting arrows from the bow. They were of Saul's brothers of Benjamin. <sup>3</sup> The chief was Ahiezer; then Joash, the sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite, and Jeziel, and Pelet, the sons of Azmaveth, and Beracah, and Jehu the Anathothite, <sup>4</sup> and Ishmaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the thirty, and over the thirty, and Jeremiah, and Jahaziel, and Johanan, and Jozabad the Gederathite, <sup>5</sup> Eluzai, and Jerimoth, and Bealiah, and Shemariah, and Shephatiah the Haruphite, <sup>6</sup> Elkanah, and Isshiah, and Azarel, and Joezer, and Jashobeam, the Korahites, <sup>7</sup> and Joelah, and Zebadiah, the sons of Jeroham of Gedor. <sup>8</sup> Of the Gadites there separated themselves to David to the stronghold in the wilderness, mighty men of valour, men trained for war, that could handle shield and spear; whose faces were like the faces of lions, and they were as swift as the roes on the mountains: <sup>9</sup> Ezer the chief, Obadiah the second, Eliab the third, <sup>10</sup> Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth, <sup>11</sup> Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh, <sup>12</sup> Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth, <sup>13</sup> Jeremiah the tenth, Machbannai the eleventh. <sup>14</sup> These of the sons of Gad were captains of the 12:1 Those who followed David in his wilderness years were remembered by God by name for millennia afterwards. They became leaders in David's Kingdom after the death of Saul. We who follow Christ now, even though at times it may seem we are supporting a humanly hopeless case, will finally be rewarded in the future Kingdom.

12:14 This alludes to how one faithful man would chase one thousand unbelievers (Dt. 32:30). We could infer that those who followed David in the wilderness years

army: he who was least was equal to one hundred, and the greatest to one thousand. <sup>15</sup> These are those who went over the Jordan in the first month, when it had overflowed all its banks; and they put to flight all them of the valleys, both toward the east, and toward the west. <sup>16</sup> There came of the children of Benjamin and Judah to the stronghold to David. <sup>17</sup> David went out to meet them and responded to them: If you have come peaceably to me to help me, my heart shall be knit to you; but if you have come to betray me to my adversaries, since there is no wrong in my hands, may the God of our fathers look thereon, and rebuke it. <sup>18</sup> Then the Spirit came on Amasai, who was chief of the thirty, and he said, We are yours, David, and on your side, you son of Jesse. Peace, peace be to you, and peace be to your helpers; for your God helps you. Then David received them, and made them captains of the band. <sup>19</sup> Of Manasseh also there fell away some to David, when he came with the Philistines against Saul to battle; but they didn't help them; for the lords of the Philistines sent him away after consultation, saying, He will fall away to his master Saul to the jeopardy of our heads. <sup>20</sup> As he went to Ziklag, there joined him of Manasseh, Adnah, Jozabad, Jediael, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu and Zilethai, captains of thousands who were of Manasseh. <sup>21</sup> They helped David against the band of rovers; for they were all mighty men of valour, and were captains in the army. <sup>22</sup> For from day to day men came to David to help him, until there was a great army, like the army of God.

The Numbers of David's Supporters

came to faith in God although perhaps they initially came to him more because of their own dissatisfaction with life (1 Sam. 22:2; Ps. 57:4). Some start their spiritual journey with one motivation and yet become more spiritual over time, influenced by Godly examples like David.

12:17 There is no wrong in my hands – Saul had falsely accused David of many things, but he refused to take false guilt because of them. When we are under false accusation, we tend to become very self-justificatory and refuse to accept true guilt before God (as opposed to before men) for our real sins, for which we should feel guilty. David sets a great example to us here and in his Psalms about these matters; he refuses to accept he had done anything wrong to Saul, and yet openly confesses his real sins to God.

12:22 David's army increased, until it became "a great army, like the army of God". The parallel between David's men and the Angelic hosts is clear. Significantly, the Angelic armies that destroyed the Syrians are called 'a great army' in 2 Kings 7:6. Asa and his army defeated the Ethiopians – and it's described as them being "destroyed before Yahweh and before His army" (2 Chron. 14:13). Again, the hosts of Israel become the hosts of God. Significantly in this context, 11:9 speaks of David's God as Yahweh of Armies. As the cherubim visions demonstrated, we on earth are to be reflective of God's heavenly armies, and if we walk in step with them, victory is assured. See on 14:15.

war, who came to David to Hebron, to turn the kingdom of Saul to him, according to the word of Yahweh. <sup>24</sup> The children of Judah who bore shield and spear were six thousand eight hundred, armed for war. <sup>25</sup> Of the children of Simeon, mighty men of valour in war, seven thousand one hundred. <sup>26</sup> Of the children of Levi four thousand six hundred. <sup>27</sup> Jehoiada was the leader of the household of Aaron; and with him were three thousand seven hundred, <sup>28</sup> and Zadok, a young man mighty of valour, and of his father's house twenty-two captains. <sup>29</sup> Of the children of Benjamin, the brothers of Saul, three thousand; for hitherto the majority of them had kept their allegiance to the house of Saul. <sup>30</sup> Of the children of Ephraim twenty thousand eight hundred, mighty men of valour, famous men in their fathers' houses. <sup>31</sup> Of the half-tribe of Manasseh eighteen thousand, who were mentioned by name, came and made David king. <sup>32</sup> Of the children of Issachar, men who had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do, their heads were two hundred; and all their brothers were under their command. <sup>33</sup> Of Zebulun, such as were able to go out in the army, who could set the battle in array, with all kinds of instruments of war, fifty thousand, who could command and were not of double heart. <sup>34</sup> Of Naphtali one thousand captains, and with them with shield and spear thirty-seven thousand. <sup>35</sup> Of the Danites who could set the battle in array, twenty-eight thousand six hundred. <sup>36</sup> Of Asher, such as were able to go out in the army, who could set the battle in array, forty thousand. <sup>37</sup> On the other side of the Jordan, of the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and of the half-tribe of Manasseh, with all kinds of instruments of war for the battle, one hundred and twenty thousand. <sup>38</sup> All these being men of war, who could order the battle array, came with a perfect heart to Hebron, to make David king over all Israel. All the rest of Israel were also of one heart to make David king. <sup>39</sup> They were there with David three days, eating and drinking; for their brothers had made preparation for them. <sup>40</sup> Moreover those who were near to them, as far as Issachar and Zebulun and Naphtali, brought bread on donkeys, and on camels, mules and oxen, food of meal, cakes of figs, and clusters of raisins, and wine and oil, and cattle and sheep in abundance; for there was joy in Israel.

CHAPTER 13 Sep. 30

David Takes the Ark of God

David consulted with the captains of thousands and of hundreds, even with every leader. <sup>2</sup> David said to all the assembly of Israel, If it seems good to you, and if it is of Yahweh our God, let us send abroad everywhere to our brothers who are left in all the land of Israel, with whom the priests and Levites are in their cities that have suburbs, that they may gather themselves to us. <sup>3</sup> Let us bring again the ark of our God to us; for we didn't seek it in the days of Saul. <sup>4</sup> All the assembly said that they would do so; for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people. <sup>5</sup> So David assembled all Israel together, from Shihor the brook of Egypt even to the entrance of Hamath, to bring the ark of God from Kiriath Jearim. <sup>6</sup> David went up, and all Israel, to Baalah, that is, to Kiriath Jearim, which belonged to Judah, to bring up from there the ark of Yahweh God who dwells between the cherubim, that is called by the Name. <sup>7</sup> They carried the ark of God on a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab; and Uzza and Ahio drove the cart. <sup>8</sup> David and all Israel played before God with all their might, even with songs, harps, stringed instruments, tambourines, cymbals and trumpets. <sup>9</sup> When they came to the threshing floor of Chidon, Uzza put forth his hand to hold the ark; for the oxen stumbled. <sup>10</sup> The anger of Yahweh was kindled against Uzza, and He struck him, because he put forth his hand to the ark; and there he died before God. <sup>11</sup> David was displeased, because Yahweh had broken forth on Uzza; and he called that place Perez Uzza, to this day. <sup>12</sup> David was afraid of God that day saying, How shall I bring the ark of God home to me? <sup>13</sup> So David didn't move the ark to him into the city of David, but carried it aside into the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite. <sup>14</sup> The ark of God remained with the family of Obed-Edom in his house three months; and Yahweh blessed the house of Obed-Edom, and all that he had.

12:23 Those who supported David at this time were very significant to God, and their numbers have been recorded for millennia in His word. Our support for Christ's cause in this world is highly significant to God, and He likewise remembers all the moments when we have in one way or another stood up for His cause in an unbelieving and spiritually hostile world.

David Defeats the Philistines

Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, and masons, and carpenters, to build him a house. <sup>2</sup> David perceived that Yahweh had established him king

13:2 If it seems good to you, and if it is of Yahweh our God – Alluded to in Acts 15:25,28, where the elders of the new Israel, the church, said that it ‘seemed good unto them and to the Holy Spirit’ to bring Gentiles into the church. We see that in both cases, decisions weren’t taken just because it seemed right to a majority; they weren’t pure democrats. They recognized another, Divine, element in decision making which was over and above the simple will of men, even if they were believers.

13:10 Uzza was a Levite but not a priest; and the Law clearly emphasized that the sons of Kohath were to carry the ark on staves on their shoulders, not on a cart as David was doing (Num. 4:15). David almost boasted in Ps. 119 that he studied God’s law day and night, but he obviously didn’t see the obvious; he blanked off those commands in his mind, assuming the spirit of serving God would make the details of God’s requirements superfluous. Because of our inattention to God’s word, others may die; and we also see that God’s holiness is never to be simply disregarded because we in one sense love Him and are joyful before Him. See on 15:2.

over Israel; for his kingdom was exalted on high, for His people Israel's sake. <sup>3</sup> David took more wives at Jerusalem; and David became the father of more sons and daughters. <sup>4</sup> These are the names of the children whom he had in Jerusalem: Sham-mua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon, <sup>5</sup> Ibhar, Elishua, Elpelet, <sup>6</sup> Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia, <sup>7</sup> Elishama, Beel-ada and Eliphelet. <sup>8</sup> When the Philistines heard that David was anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up to seek David. David heard of it, and went out against them. <sup>9</sup> Now the Philistines had come and made a raid in the valley of Rephaim. <sup>10</sup> David inquired of God saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will You deliver them into my hand? Yahweh said to him, Go up; for I will deliver them into your hand. <sup>11</sup> So they came up to Baal Perazim, and David struck them there; and David said, God has broken my enemies by my hand, like the breach of waters. Therefore they called the name of that place Baal Perazim. <sup>12</sup> They left their gods there; and David gave commandment, and they were burned with fire. <sup>13</sup> The Philistines yet again made a raid in the valley. <sup>14</sup> David inquired again of God; and God said to him, You shall not go up after them. Turn away from them, and come on them opposite the mulberry trees. <sup>15</sup> It shall be, when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the mulberry trees, that then you shall go out to battle; for God has gone out before you to strike the army of the Philistines. <sup>16</sup> David did as God commanded him; and they struck the army of the Philistines from Gibeon even to Gezer. <sup>17</sup> The fame of David went out into all lands; and Yahweh brought the fear of him on all nations.

The Ark Is Brought to Zion

David made himself houses in the city of David; and he prepared a place for the ark of God, and pitched a tent for it. <sup>2</sup> Then David said, No one ought to carry the ark of God but the Levites; for Yahweh has chosen them to carry the ark of

14:2 Any exaltation we may receive in life is ultimately for the benefit of God's people, and not to be selfishly enjoyed just by ourselves.

14:14 God varied the pattern here as a test to David's obedience, rather like He did to Moses in asking Him to speak to the rock rather than striking it. And He does the same in our lives too. Often God's battle plans involved an initial turning away from the face of enemies, and then giving victory. To turn away from enemies was an indication of unworthiness and suffering for sin (Dt. 28:25). God wished to teach that victory can only come if we accept our unworthiness of that victory, and how as sinners we deserve only defeat.

14:15 The "sound of marching" was of the Angel cherubim. David was being taught that victory only comes through walking in step with the armies of Heaven which are above; see on 12:22.

15:2 It took some time for David to repent over his failure in transporting the ark of God in disobedience to God's commands (see on 13:10). The lag time between sin

God, and to minister to Him forever. <sup>3</sup> David assembled all Israel at Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of Yahweh to its place, which he had prepared for it. <sup>4</sup> David gathered together the sons of Aaron and the Levites: <sup>5</sup> of the sons of Kohath, Uriel the chief, and his brothers one hundred and twenty; <sup>6</sup> of the sons of Merari, Asaiah the chief, and his brothers two hundred and twenty; <sup>7</sup> of the sons of Gershon, Joel the chief, and his brothers one hundred and thirty; <sup>8</sup> of the sons of Elizaphan, Shemaiah the chief, and his brothers two hundred; <sup>9</sup> of the sons of Hebron, Eliel the chief, and his brothers eighty; <sup>10</sup> of the sons of Uzziel, Amminadab the chief, and his brothers one hundred and twelve. <sup>11</sup> David called for Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites, for Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel and Amminadab, <sup>12</sup> and said to them, You are the heads of the fathers' households of the Levites. Sanctify yourselves, both you and your brothers, that you may bring up the ark of Yahweh, the God of Israel, to the place that I have prepared for it. <sup>13</sup> For because you didn't carry it at first, Yahweh our God broke out against us, because we didn't seek Him according to the ordinance. <sup>14</sup> So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of Yahweh, the God of Israel. <sup>15</sup> The children of the Levites bore the ark of God with its poles on their shoulders, as Moses commanded according to the word of Yahweh. <sup>16</sup> David spoke to the chief of the Levites to appoint their brothers the singers, with instruments of music, stringed instruments and harps and cymbals, sounding aloud and lifting up the voice with joy. <sup>17</sup> So the Levites appointed Heman the son of Joel; and of his brothers, Asaph the son of Berechiah; and of the sons of Merari their brothers, Ethan the son of Kushaiah; <sup>18</sup> and with them their brothers of the sec-

and repentance ought to be as short as possible; we see a similar lag time in the gap between David's sin with Bathsheba and his repentance for it. God will work in our lives to bring us to repentance, but this often involves much suffering to ourselves and others; that can all be avoided if we have a sensitive conscience to God's word and the humility to repent immediately. Yet even here, David appears to shift the blame from himself onto others (:13). Repentance has various shades and degrees, and God seeks totality of repentance and acceptance of the fact we personally have sinned.

15:12 The place that I have prepared for it – David's bringing the ark to the place which he had prepared is the basis of Christ's words in Jn. 14:1-3. Clearly Christ saw David as Himself, and us as the ark. The 'bringing up' or 'lifting up' of the ark (Heb.) to a permanent dwelling place has reference to the resurrection. And when the ark was finally brought or lifted up to Zion, David / Jesus dealt bread and wine to the people (16:3). One practical encouragement from this typology is that the memorial feast is a celebration that in fact we, the ark, have in prospect already been brought or lifted up into the eternal place prepared for us in the Kingdom.

ond degree, Zechariah, Ben, Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed-Edom and Jeiel, the doorkeepers. <sup>19</sup> So the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were given cymbals of brass to sound aloud; <sup>20</sup> and Zechariah, Aziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaseiah and Benaiah, with stringed instruments set to Alamoth; <sup>21</sup> and Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed-Edom, Jeiel and Azaziah, with harps tuned to the eight-stringed lyre, to lead. <sup>22</sup> Chenaniah, chief of the Levites, was over the song: he instructed about the song, because he was skilful. <sup>23</sup> Berechiah and Elkanah were doorkeepers for the ark. <sup>24</sup> Shebaniah, and Joshaphat, and Nethanel, and Amasai, and Zechariah, and Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, blew the trumpets before the ark of God. Obed-Edom and Jehiah were doorkeepers for the ark. <sup>25</sup> So David, and the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands, went to bring up the ark of the covenant of Yahweh out of the house of Obed-Edom with joy. <sup>26</sup> It happened, when God helped the Levites who bore the ark of the covenant of Yahweh, that they sacrificed seven bulls and seven rams. <sup>27</sup> David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, and all the Levites who bore the ark, and the singers, and Chenaniah the master of the song with the singers; and David wore an ephod of linen. <sup>28</sup> Thus all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of Yahweh with shouting, and with sound of the cornet, and with trumpets, and with cymbals, sounding aloud with stringed instruments and harps. <sup>29</sup> As the ark of the covenant of Yahweh came to the city of David, that Michal the daughter of Saul looked out at the window, and saw king David dancing and playing; and she despised him in her heart.

David's Song of Praise

They brought in the ark of God, and set it in the midst of the tent that David had pitched for it. They offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before God. <sup>2</sup> When David had made an end of offering the burnt offering and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of Yahweh. <sup>3</sup> He dealt to each

15:21 Obed-Edom – He was the one who had faithfully looked after the ark when others feared to have anything to do with it (13:14). He may have expected some great recognition for that, but he is listed along with many others as simply having a relatively small role in looking after it. If we are genuinely motivated by wishing to simply serve God's people and maintain His presence amongst His people, we will not seek for recognition or status for it.

15:29 Despised him in her heart – The feelings we have about our brethren and their service of God are recorded indelibly by God.

16:2, 3 Here and in 15:27 David acts as a priest, even though he was from the tribe of Judah and not Levi. On one hand, our understanding of the spirit and essence of God frees us from the need for literalistic obedience; but as David experienced at the one of Israel, both man and woman, to every one a loaf of bread, a portion of meat and a cake of raisins.

<sup>4</sup> He appointed certain of the Levites to minister before the ark of Yahweh, and to celebrate and to thank and praise Yahweh, the God of Israel:

the judgments of His mouth, <sup>13</sup> you seed of Israel His servant, you children of Jacob, His chosen ones.

<sup>17</sup> He confirmed the same to Jacob for a statute, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant <sup>18</sup> saying, ‘I will give you the land of Canaan, the lot of your inheritance;’

time of the breach upon Uzza (13:10) and his sin with Bathsheba, this can lead us to disregard His principles to a point where it is counted as sin. On the other hand, when Uzziah acted as a priest he was condemned for it (2 Chron. 26:19-21). The same actions can be righteousness for one person and sin for another. In this lies the impossibility of our ultimately judging the outward actions of others; we simply must leave it to God.

16:3 Raisins were made from grapes, so we have here a prefigurement of the bread and wine of the communion service. It is a celebration of the blessing we have received from our high priest, the Lord Jesus.

16:21 He reproved kings for their sakes – This is a reference to the rebuking of Abimelech in Gen. 20; yet in this case Abimelech was in the right and is portrayed as the honourable one, and Abraham and Sarah as less than honourable and in need of reproof (Gen. 20:16). David is therefore asking Israel to glory in God’s undeserved kindness, His grace, towards them (:34,41).

above all gods. <sup>26</sup> For all the gods of the peoples are idols, but Yahweh made the heavens. <sup>27</sup> Honor and majesty are before Him. Strength and gladness are in His place. <sup>28</sup> Ascribe to Yahweh, you relatives of the peoples, ascribe to Yahweh glory and strength! <sup>29</sup> Ascribe to Yahweh the glory due to His name. Bring an offering, and come before Him. Worship Yahweh in holy array. <sup>30</sup> Tremble before Him, all the land. The world also is established that it can't be moved. <sup>31</sup> Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice! Let them say among the nations, Yahweh reigns! <sup>32</sup> Let the sea roar, and its fullness! Let the field exult, and all that is therein! <sup>33</sup> Then the trees of the forest will sing for joy before Yahweh, for He comes to judge the earth. <sup>34</sup> Oh give thanks to Yahweh, for He is good, for His grace endures forever. <sup>35</sup> Say, 'Save us, God of our salvation! Gather us together and deliver us from the nations, to give thanks to Your holy name, to triumph in Your praise'. <sup>36</sup> Blessed be Yahweh, the God of Israel, from everlasting even to everlasting. All the people said, 'Amen', and praised Yahweh. <sup>37</sup> So he left there, before the ark of the covenant of Yahweh, Asaph and his brothers, to minister before the ark continually, as every day's work required; <sup>38</sup> and Obed-Edom with their brothers, sixty-eight; Obed-Edom also the son of Jeduthun and Hosah to be doorkeepers; <sup>39</sup> and Zadok the priest, and his brothers the priests, before the tabernacle of Yahweh in the high place that was at Gibeon, <sup>40</sup> to offer burnt offerings to Yahweh on the altar of burnt offering continually morning and evening, even according to all that is written in the law of Yahweh, which He commanded to Israel. <sup>41</sup> With them were Heman and Jeduthun, and the rest who were chosen, who were mentioned by name, to give thanks to Yahweh, because His grace endures forever; <sup>42</sup> and with them Heman and Jeduthun with trumpets and cymbals for those that should sound aloud, and with instruments for the songs of God; and the sons of Jeduthun to be at the gate. <sup>43</sup> All the people departed each man to his family; and David returned to bless his family.

The Covenant with David

It happened that as David lived in this house, David said to Nathan the prophet, Behold, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the ark of the covenant of Yahweh is under cur-

16:26 The Truth of the Gospel is the only way to come to salvation. All other religions apart from true Christianity will not give salvation nor a relationship with God. Realising this, David pleads with his people to be a missionary nation (:8,25,26). The more we realise the pathetic fallacy of human religion, indeed the whole and utter vanity of life under this sun, the more we will preach Yahweh's Truth to a tragically wandering, aimless world.

tains. <sup>2</sup> Nathan said to David, Do all that is in your heart; for God is with you. <sup>3</sup> It happened the same night, that the word of God came to Nathan saying, <sup>4</sup> Go and tell David My servant, ‘Thus says Yahweh, You shall not build Me a house to dwell in; <sup>5</sup> for I have not lived in a house since the day that I brought up Israel to this day, but have gone from tent to tent, and from one tent to another. <sup>6</sup> In all places in which I have walked with all Israel, did I speak a word with any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to be shepherd of My people saying, ‘Why have you not built Me a house of cedar?’ <sup>7</sup> Now therefore, you shall tell My servant David, ‘Thus says Yahweh of Armies, I took you from the sheep pen, from following the sheep, that you should be prince over My people Israel. <sup>8</sup> I have been with you wherever you have gone, and have cut off all your enemies from before you. I will make you a name, like the name of the great ones who are in the earth. <sup>9</sup> I will appoint a place for My people Israel and will plant them, that they may dwell in their own place, and be moved no more. Neither shall the children of wickedness waste them any more, as at the first, <sup>10</sup> and from the day that I commanded judges to be over My people Israel; and I will subdue all your enemies. Moreover I tell you that Yahweh will build you a house. <sup>11</sup> It shall happen, when your days are fulfilled that you must go to be with your fathers, that I will set up your seed after you, who shall be of your sons; and I will establish his kingdom. <sup>12</sup> He shall build Me a house, and I will establish his throne forever. <sup>13</sup> I will be his father, and he shall be My son. I will not take My sure mercies away from him, as I took it from him that was before you;

17:2 Nathan replied too quickly, assuming that he knew God’s will and what God’s word ought to say in response to such a desire. But he was wrong. We see here a lesson in our need to base our response to situations strictly upon God’s revealed word rather than our assumption of what He probably meant.

17:10 I tell you that Yahweh will build you a house – God’s grace is reflected in all this; David wanted to build God a physical house, and God responds by saying He doesn’t need that but rather He will build David an eternal house in the sense of a family, based around David’s descendant who would be Yahweh’s own Son (Lk. 1:31-35). God loves to do for us above all we can ask or imagine of asking (Eph. 3:20); He delights to lavish grace upon us and we should delight to do the same to others, thinking what we could do for them that would make them say “Wow!” to God’s grace.

17:13 I will be his father; and he shall be My son – The only way for this to be fully fulfilled would be that a woman who was a direct descendant of David would have a child whose father was God. The account of the virgin birth shows how it all came to pass. It’s impossible therefore that Christ physically pre-existed before His birth. Notice the future tenses here. We note too that Jesus was therefore the direct descendant of David and the rightful king of Israel. Yet He lived as a poor, despised working man

<sup>14</sup> but I will settle him in My house and in My kingdom forever. His throne shall be established forever'. <sup>15</sup> According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so Nathan spoke to David.

David's Response to the Covenant

<sup>16</sup> Then David the king went in and sat before Yahweh; and he said, Who am I, Yahweh God, and what is my house, that You have brought me thus far? <sup>17</sup> This was a small thing in Your eyes, O God; but You have spoken of your servant's house for a great while to come, and have respected me according to the estate of a man of high degree, Yahweh God. <sup>18</sup> What can David say yet more to You concerning the honour which is done to Your servant? For You know Your servant. <sup>19</sup> Yahweh, for Your servant's sake, and according to Your own heart, You have worked all this greatness, to make known all these great things. <sup>20</sup> Yahweh, there is none like You, neither is there any God besides You, according to all that we have heard with our ears. <sup>21</sup> What single nation in the earth is like Your people Israel, whom God went to redeem to Himself for a people, to make You a name by great and awesome things, in driving out nations from before Your people, whom You redeemed out of Egypt? <sup>22</sup> For Your people Israel You made Your very own people forever; and You, Yahweh, became their God. <sup>23</sup> Now, Yahweh, let the word that You have spoken concerning Your servant and concerning his house be established forever, and do as You have spoken. <sup>24</sup> Let Your name be established and magnified forever, saying, 'Yahweh of Armies is the God of Israel, even a God to Israel. The house of David Your servant is established before You'. <sup>25</sup> For You, my God, have revealed to Your servant that You will build him a house. Therefore Your servant has found courage to pray before You. <sup>26</sup> Now, Yahweh, You are God, and have promised this good thing to and died the death of a rejected criminal. We who are in Him by baptism into Him will likewise not be discerned for who we really are by the unbelieving society in which we live.

Sure mercies – “The sure mercies of David” result in the wicked man forsaking his way (Is. 55:3); they therefore inspire us in forsaking sinful thoughts and wicked ways (Is. 55:7).

17:16 Who am I – This should be our response also, for the covenants of promise have been made with us too in that we are in Christ and they therefore concern us (Gal. 3:27-29). It was because David was truly humble that he could immediately respond in genuine humility to God's promises to him; whereas Solomon became proud because of them. Note how “David the king... sat before Yahweh, and said, Who am I...?”. Grace produces quite different responses in different people; some it humbles, others misinterprets it to justify continuing in sin.

17:17 Respected me according to the estate of a man of high degree – This could be rendered: “You have seen me as a type of the man on high”. David understood himself as a type of Christ.

Your servant. <sup>27</sup> Now it has pleased You to bless the house of Your servant, that it may continue forever before You; for You, Yahweh, have blessed, and it is blessed forever.

David's Prosperity

After this, it happened that David struck the Philistines and subdued them, and took Gath and its towns out of the hand of the Philistines. <sup>2</sup> He struck Moab; and the Moabites became servants to David, and brought tribute. <sup>3</sup> David struck Hadadezer king of Zobah to Hamath, as he went to establish his dominion by the river Euphrates. <sup>4</sup> David took from him one thousand chariots, seven thousand horsemen and twenty thousand footmen; and David hamstrung all the chariot horses, but reserved of them enough for one hundred chariots. <sup>5</sup> When the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David struck of the Syrians twenty-two thousand men. <sup>6</sup> Then David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus; and the Syrians became servants to David, and brought tribute. Yahweh gave victory to David wherever he went. <sup>7</sup> David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem. <sup>8</sup> From Tibhath and from Cun, cities of Hadadezer, David took very much brass, with which Solomon made the bronze laver, the pillars and the vessels of brass. <sup>9</sup> When Tou king of Hamath heard that David had struck all the army of Hadadezer king of Zobah, <sup>10</sup> he sent Hadoram his son to king David to greet him and to bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer and struck him (for Hadadezer had wars with Tou); and he had with him all kinds of vessels of gold and silver and brass. <sup>11</sup> King David also dedicated these to Yahweh, with the silver and the gold that he carried away from all the nations; from Edom, Moab, the children of Ammon, the Philistines and from Amalek. <sup>12</sup> Moreover Abishai the son of Zeruiah struck of the Edomites in the Valley of Salt eighteen thousand. <sup>13</sup> He put garrisons in Edom; and all the Edomites became servants to David. Yahweh gave victory to David wherever he went. <sup>14</sup> David reigned over all Israel; and he executed justice and righteousness to all his people. <sup>15</sup> Joab son of Zeruiah was over the army; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was recorder; <sup>16</sup> Zadok son of Ahitub and Abimelech son of Abiathar were priests; Shavsha was scribe; <sup>17</sup> Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and the sons of David were chief around the king.

18:1-3 After David received the promises about the future Messianic Kingdom, he went out and established his Kingdom, attacking Israel's enemies and driving them out of the land. Our response to the future Hope of the Kingdom, which we too have through the very same promises, should also be to try to live the Kingdom life now, as far as we can.

18:4 But reserved of them for one hundred chariots – The king of Israel was not supposed to multiply horses and chariots but rather trust in God (Dt. 17:16). David allowed himself a little weakness in this matter; and his son Solomon used it as an excuse to multiply so many horses and chariots that he had to build cities to store them in. The problem with allowing ourselves a 'little' sin is that sin by its nature spreads and multiplies, and is repeated in others for whom we are an example (like our children) to a far greater extent.

David's Conflict with Ammon

It happened after this, that Nahash the king of the children of Ammon died, and his son reigned in his place. <sup>2</sup> David said, I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father showed kindness to me. So David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. David's servants came into the land of the children of Ammon to Hanun, to comfort him. <sup>3</sup> But the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanun, Do you think that David honours your father, in that he has sent comforters to you? Haven't his servants come to you to search, to overthrow, and to spy out the land? <sup>4</sup> So Hanun took David's servants, shaved them, cut off their garments in the middle, even to their buttocks, and sent them away. <sup>5</sup> Then there went certain persons and told David how the men were served. He sent to meet them; for the men were greatly ashamed. The king said, Stay at Jericho until your beards have grown, and then return. <sup>6</sup> When the children of Ammon saw that they had made themselves odious to David, Hanun and the children of Ammon sent one thousand talents of silver to hire them chariots and horsemen out of Mesopotamia, and out of Arammaacah, and out of Zobah. <sup>7</sup> So they hired for themselves thirty-two thousand chariots, and the king of Maacah and his people, who came and encamped before Medeba. The children of Ammon gathered themselves together from their cities, and came to battle. <sup>8</sup> When David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the army of the mighty men. <sup>9</sup> The children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array at the gate of the city. The kings who had come were by themselves in the field. <sup>10</sup> Now when Joab saw that the battle was set against him before and behind, he chose of all the choice men of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians. <sup>11</sup> The rest of the people he committed into the hand of Abishai his brother; and

19:2 I will show kindness to Hanun... because his father showed kindness to me – Jesus in Lk. 6:32–34 may have this incident in mind when He taught that kindness to those who love us isn't at all the radical love and grace which He taught. Loving those who love us doesn't always work out well, as David's experience here shows.

19:4 Earlier in his life, David had had a similar experience with Nabal; he sent messengers to him, who were abused. But David at that time over-reacted, and was only saved from destruction by the wisdom of Nabal's wife Abigail (1 Sam. 25). There are times when God arranges for circumstances to repeat in our lives to test whether we have learnt a lesson, or to reinforce the lesson we learnt.

they put themselves in array against the children of Ammon. <sup>12</sup> He said, If the Syrians are too strong for me, then you are to help me; but if the children of Ammon are too strong for you, then I will help you. <sup>13</sup> Be courageous, and let us be strong for our people, and for the cities of our God. May Yahweh do that which seems good to Him. <sup>14</sup> So Joab and the people who were with him drew near before the Syrians to the battle; and they fled before him. <sup>15</sup> When the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians had fled, they likewise fled before Abishai his brother, and entered into the city. Then Joab came to Jerusalem. <sup>16</sup> When the Syrians saw that they were defeated by Israel, they sent messengers, and drew forth the Syrians who were beyond the River, with Shophach the captain of the army of Hadadezer at their head. <sup>17</sup> It was told David; and he gathered all Israel together, passed over the Jordan and came on them, and set the battle in array against them. So when David had put the battle in array against the Syrians, they fought with him. <sup>18</sup> The Syrians fled before Israel; and David killed of the Syrians seven thousand charioteers, and forty thousand footmen, and killed Shophach the captain of the army. <sup>19</sup> When the servants of Hadadezer saw that they were defeated by Israel, they made peace with David, and served him. From then on, the Syrians would not help the children of Ammon.

CHAPTER 20 Oct. 5

At the time of the return of the year, at the time when kings go out, Joab led forth the army, and wasted the country of the children of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah. But David stayed at Jerusalem. Joab struck Rabbah and overthrew it. <sup>2</sup> David took the crown of their king from off his head, and found it to weigh a talent of gold, and there were precious stones in it; and it was set on David's head; and he brought forth the spoil of the city, a great amount. <sup>3</sup> He brought forth the people who were therein, and cut them with saws, and with iron picks, and with axes. David did so to all the cities of the children of Ammon. David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

19:13 May Yahweh do that which seems good to Him – There is an element of predestination in our lives; but the fact that God will do His will shouldn't lead us to complacency nor resignation to fatalism, but rather to zeal to do His will as far as we can perceive it, knowing that He will bless the doing of His will. In Joab's case, understanding this led him to a zealous attempt to fight for the Lord, which God blessed with victory.

20:1 But David stayed at Jerusalem – 2 Sam. 11 fills in the significant detail that during this period, David had an affair with Bathsheba and arranged for her husband Uriah to be killed. Simple lesson: to properly understand the Bible we must read it all and compare it against itself in order to get the full picture.

20:3 This seems an unnecessarily cruel way of punishing enemies. This is the period in between David's sin with Bathsheba and his repentance. His own bad conscience

The Sons of the Giant Are Killed

<sup>4</sup> After this, there arose war at Gezer with the Philistines. Then Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Sippai, of the sons of the giant; and they were subdued. <sup>5</sup> There was again war with the Philistines; and Elhanan the son of Jair killed Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the staff of whose spear was like a weaver's beam. <sup>6</sup> There was again war at Gath, where there was a man of great stature, whose fingers and toes were twenty-four, six on each hand, and six on each foot; and he also was born to the giant. <sup>7</sup> When he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimea David's brother killed him. <sup>8</sup> These were born to the giant in Gath; and they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

CHAPTER 21 Oct. 5David Numbers Israel

Satan stood up against Israel, and provoked David to number Israel. <sup>2</sup> David said to Joab and to the princes of the people, Go, number Israel from Beersheba even to Dan; and bring me word, so that I may know the sum of them. <sup>3</sup> Joab said, May Yahweh make His people a hundred times as many as they are; but, my lord the king, aren't they all my lord's servants? Why does my lord require this thing? Why will he be a cause of guilt for Israel? <sup>4</sup> Nevertheless the king's word prevailed with God led him to such excessive punishment of God's enemies. Psychologically, it's understandable; he realized he had sinned and deserved to be punished. But instead of confessing his sin and accepting the consequences as rightful and just, he psychologically transferred the sin onto others, and punished them instead of seeing himself punished. Judgmentalism and aggressive attitudes toward others often arise from a bad conscience within a person; the answer is to confess our sins to God, repent before Him and accept any consequences. We are thereby made free from the need to transfer sin and guilt onto others and judge them for our own sin.

20:5-8 These battles with giant Philistines have many similarities with David's victory over Goliath in 1 Sam. 17. His victory there inspired his men, just as Christ's victory on the cross ['Golgotha' = 'skull of Goliath'] should inspire us and be replicated by us in our spiritual struggles.

21:1 'Satan' is a Hebrew word meaning 'adversary'. It has no evil connotation of itself. The parallel 2 Sam. 24:1 says that God provoked David to number Israel. God therefore worked as a satan, an adversary, to David. Good people like Peter can be termed 'satan' (Mt. 16:21-23); the greatest adversary to us is our own internal tendency to sin. There's no sinful cosmic being called 'Satan'.

21:3 It wasn't a sin to take a census of the people, but each time they were numbered, they had to pay a tax to the tabernacle; if they refused, they would be plagued (Ex. 30:12-15). David's desire to know how many soldiers he had was a trusting in human strength. But it was also wrong in that Joab knew that the people likely wouldn't pay the tax, and therefore they would be plagued. David could've argued that this would be Israel's problem, not his, if they chose to be disobedient. But we ought to be sensitive to the likely spiritual failures of others and not lead them into sin by forcing them into positions where they have to take choices which they will probably fail in. God against Joab. Therefore Joab departed, and went throughout all Israel, and came to Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup> Joab gave up the sum of the numbering of the people to David. All those of Israel were one million one hundred thousand men who drew sword; and in Judah were four hundred and seventy thousand men who drew sword. <sup>6</sup> But he didn't count Levi and Benjamin among them; for the king's word was abominable to Joab. <sup>7</sup> God was displeased with this thing; therefore He struck Israel. <sup>8</sup> David said to God, I have sinned greatly, in that I have done this thing. But now, put away, I beg You, the iniquity of Your servant; for I have done very foolishly. <sup>9</sup> Yahweh spoke to Gad, David's prophet, saying, <sup>10</sup> Go and speak to David saying, 'Thus says Yahweh, I offer you three things. Choose one of them, that I may do it to you'. <sup>11</sup> So Gad came to David and said to him, Thus says Yahweh, 'Take your choice: <sup>12</sup> either three years of famine; or three months to be consumed before your foes, while the sword of your enemies overtakes you; or else three days' suffering the sword of Yahweh, even plague in the land, and the angel of Yahweh destroying throughout all the borders of Israel'. Now therefore consider what answer I shall return to Him who sent me. <sup>13</sup> David said to Gad, I am in distress. Let me fall, I pray, into the hand of Yahweh; for His mercies are very great. Let me not fall into the hand of man. <sup>14</sup> So Yahweh sent a plague on Israel; and seventy thousand men of Israel fell. <sup>15</sup> God sent an angel to Jerusalem to destroy it. As he was about to destroy, Yahweh saw, and He relented of the disaster, and said to the destroying angel, It is enough; now stay your hand. The angel of Yahweh was standing by the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

David's Intercession for Israel

<sup>16</sup> David lifted up his eyes, and saw the angel of Yahweh standing between earth and sky, having a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, fell on their faces. <sup>17</sup> David said to God, Isn't it I who commanded the people to be numbered? It is even was angry with Israel and therefore He punished them (:7) – because they failed to pay the temple tax.

21:13 God is more merciful than people. This thought is a great encouragement when we at times worry as to whether God will be merciful to us at the last day. One factor in such fears is that we have only visibly known human mercy, but this is far inferior in quality and extent to God's grace.

21:15 He relented – God can change His planned judgments upon His people for the sake of the intercession of one faithful person who is willing to take their sin upon him; which is what David did in :16–:27. David pointed forward to Christ at this time.

21:17 David sinned only in the matter of Uriah and Bathsheba (1 Kings 15:5); the people were punished by plague because they hadn't paid the tax required of them whenever a census was taken (Ex. 30:12-15). There are times when our conscience can smite us for things of which we are not fully guilty; but see on :3.

I who have sinned and done very wickedly; but these sheep, what have they done? Please let Your hand, O Yahweh my God, be against me, and against my father's house; but not against Your people, that they should be plagued. <sup>18</sup> Then the angel of Yahweh commanded Gad to tell David that David should go up, and make an altar to Yahweh in the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite. <sup>19</sup> David went up at the saying of Gad, which he spoke in the name of Yahweh. <sup>20</sup> Ornan turned back, and saw the angel; and his four sons who were with him hid themselves. Now Ornan was threshing wheat. <sup>21</sup> As David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David, and went out of the threshing floor, and bowed himself to David with his face to the ground. <sup>22</sup> Then David said to Ornan, Give me the place of this threshing floor, that I may build thereon an altar to Yahweh. You shall sell it to me for the full price, that the plague may be stopped from afflicting the people. <sup>23</sup> Ornan said to David, Take it for yourself, and let my lord the king do that which is good in his eyes. Behold, I give the oxen for burnt offerings, and the threshing instruments for wood, and the wheat for the meal offering. I give it all. <sup>24</sup> King David said to Ornan, No; but I will most certainly buy it for the full price. For I will not take that which is yours for Yahweh, nor offer a burnt offering without cost. <sup>25</sup> So David gave to Ornan six hundred shekels of gold by weight for the place. <sup>26</sup> David built an altar to Yahweh there, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and called on Yahweh; and He answered him from the sky by fire on the altar of burnt offering. <sup>27</sup> Yahweh commanded the angel; and he put up his sword again into its sheath. <sup>28</sup> At that time, when David saw that Yahweh had answered him in the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite, then he sacrificed there. <sup>29</sup> For the tabernacle of Yahweh, which Moses made in the wilderness, and the altar of burnt offering, were at that time in the high place at Gibeon. <sup>30</sup> But David couldn't go before it to inquire of God; for he was afraid because of the sword of the angel of Yahweh.

David Prepares for the Temple

Then David said, This is the house of Yahweh God, and this is the altar of burnt offering for Israel. <sup>2</sup> David gave orders to gather together the foreigners who were in the land of Israel; and he set masons to cut worked stones to build God's house. <sup>3</sup> David prepared iron in abundance for the nails for the doors of the gates, and for the couplings; and brass in abundance without weight; <sup>4</sup> and cedar trees without number; for 21:24 We shouldn't appear to make a sacrifice when actually it costs us nothing; e.g. to serve God in a way which naturally reinforces our natural interests and personality type. Sacrifice is to be after the pattern of Christ on the cross, and therefore has to involve real cost and pain for us; otherwise the concept of sacrifice loses any real meaning.

the Sidonians and Tyrians brought cedar trees in abundance to David.

<sup>5</sup> David said, Solomon my son is young and tender, and the house that is to be built for Yahweh must be exceedingly magnificent, of fame and of glory throughout all nations. I will therefore make preparation for it. So David prepared abundantly before his death. <sup>6</sup> Then he called for Solomon his son, and commanded him to build a house for Yahweh, the God of Israel. <sup>7</sup> David said to Solomon his son, As for me, it was in my heart to build a house to the name of Yahweh my God. <sup>8</sup> But the word of Yahweh came to me saying, ‘You have shed blood abundantly, and have made great wars. You shall not build a house to My name, because you have shed much blood on the earth in My sight. <sup>9</sup> Behold, a son shall be born to you, who shall be a man of peace. I will give him peace from all his enemies all around; for his name shall be Solomon, and I will give peace and quietness to Israel in his days. <sup>10</sup> He shall build a house for

My name; and he shall be My son, and I will be his father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel for ever’. <sup>11</sup> Now, my son, may Yahweh be with you and prosper you, and build the house of Yahweh your God, as He has spoken concerning you. <sup>12</sup> May Yahweh give you discretion and understanding, and put you in charge of Israel; that so you may keep the law of Yahweh your God. <sup>13</sup> Then you will prosper, if you observe to do the statutes and the ordinances which Yahweh gave Moses concerning Israel. Be strong and courageous. Don’t be afraid, neither be dismayed. <sup>14</sup> Now, behold, I have made a great effort in preparing for the house of Yahweh one hundred thousand talents of gold, one million talents of silver, and brass and iron without weight; for it is in abundance. I have also prepared timber and stone; and you may add to them. <sup>15</sup> There are also workmen with you in abundance, cutters and workers of stone and timber, and all kinds of men who are skilful in every kind of work: <sup>16</sup> of the gold, silver, brass and iron, there is no number. Arise and be doing, and may Yahweh be with you. <sup>17</sup> David also commanded all the princes of Israel to help Solomon his son, saying, <sup>18</sup> Isn't Yahweh your God with you? Hasn't He given you rest on every side? For He has delivered the inhabitants of the land into my hand; and the land is subdued before Yahweh and before His people. <sup>19</sup> Now set your heart and your soul to seek after Yahweh your God. Arise therefore, and build the sanctuary of Yahweh God, to bring the ark of the covenant of Yahweh, and the holy vessels of God, into the house that is to be built to the name of Yahweh.

22:8 Solomon slightly spins this when he tells Hiram that his father David hadn’t himself had the time to get around to the job of building the temple because of being busy fighting wars (1 Kings 5:3). He says nothing about David shedding blood; the moral aspect of it all is nicely ignored by Solomon. But David in his turn appears to be twisting the promises to him given in 1 Chron. 17 and 2 Sam. 7. The house referred to was God’s Kingdom, God’s family of people; and the great son referred to was prophetic of Christ (Lk. 1:31-35). Indeed, God clarified that He didn’t want man to build Him a temple, instead He wanted to build us up to be His house in Christ. One wonders therefore if God really did tell David that he couldn’t build the temple because he had killed many people; and whether the building plans David claimed to have received from God were really from Him. All we have here is the record of David claiming God had told him that He did want a house built, but not by David because of his bloodshed. There are other Biblical examples of men assuming they know what God wants to the point of claiming that their hunch is in fact God’s word (2 Sam. 7:3,4; 1 Kings 22:15-17).

The Number and Genealogy of the Levites

Now David was old and full of days; and he made Solomon his son king over Israel. <sup>2</sup> He gathered together all the princes of Israel, with the priests and the Levites. <sup>3</sup> The Levites were numbered from thirty years old and over: and their number by their polls, man by man, was thirty-eight thousand. <sup>4</sup> David said, Of these, twenty-four thousand are to oversee the work of the house of Yahweh; six thousand are to be officers and judges; <sup>5</sup> four thousand are to be doorkeepers; and four thousand are to praise Yahweh with the instruments which I made for giving praise. <sup>6</sup> David divided them into divisions according to the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. <sup>7</sup> Of the Gershonites: Ladan and Shimei. <sup>8</sup> The sons of Ladan: Jehiel the chief, Zetham and Joel, three. <sup>9</sup> The sons of Shimei: Shelomoth, Haziël and Haran, three. These were the heads of the fathers' households of Ladan. <sup>10</sup> The sons of Shimei: Jahath, Zina, Jeush and Beriah. These four were the sons of Shimei. <sup>11</sup> Jahath was the chief, and Zizah the second: but Jeush and Beriah didn't have many

23:4 To oversee the work of the house of Yahweh – This system of arrangements in God's house would've been practically experienced by Solomon. He twice uses the Hebrew word translated "oversee" in Proverbs. He says that ants are self-motivated; they need no "guide, overseer or ruler" (Prov. 6:6,7). This seems a critique of the complex system of overseers which Solomon had to place over Israel in order to build the temple and build up the Kingdom. Ideally, he seems to be saying, every Israelite ought to be a zealous worker. Prov. 12:24 says the same: "The hand of the diligent [whoever he / she is] shall bear rule [in practice]" [s.w. Prov. 6:7 "ruler"]. And we must ask ourselves, whether for whatever reason the new Israel hasn't slumped into the same problem, of lack of self-motivation, waiting to be asked to do something before we do it, over-relying upon our "overseers". The ants aren't like this. They see the job to be done, and naturally get on with it.

Sanctified, that he should sanctify – This is alluded to in Jn. 17:17-19 where Jesus says that He sanctified Himself on the cross in order to sanctify us. Our sanctification is ultimately in order to do the same for others; because we are a Kingdom of priests (1 Pet. 2:5,6), the Levites are our pattern. Salvation and acceptance by God aren't given to us simply to personally enjoy, but so that we may serve others with them.

sons; therefore they combined to become a father's house. <sup>12</sup> The sons of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, four. <sup>13</sup> The sons of Amram: Aaron and Moses; and Aaron was sanctified, that he should sanctify the most holy things, he and his sons, forever, to burn incense before Yahweh, to minister to Him, and to bless in His name, forever. <sup>14</sup> But as for Moses the man of God, his sons were named among the tribe of Levi. <sup>15</sup> The sons of Moses: Gershom and Eliezer. <sup>16</sup> The sons of Gershom: Shebuel the chief. <sup>17</sup> The sons of Eliezer were: Rehabiah the chief. Eliezer had no other sons; but the sons of Rehabiah were very many. <sup>18</sup> The sons of Izhar: Shelomith the chief. <sup>19</sup> The sons of Hebron: Jeriah the chief, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth. <sup>20</sup> The sons of Uzziel: Micah the chief, and Isshiah the second. <sup>21</sup> The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Mahli: Eleazar and Kish. <sup>22</sup> Eleazar died, and had no sons, but daughters only; and their brothers the sons of Kish took them as wives. <sup>23</sup> The sons of Mushi: Mahli, and Eder, and Jeremoth, three. <sup>24</sup> These were the sons of Levi after their fathers' houses, even the heads of the fathers' houses of those who were counted individually, in the number of names by their polls, who did the work for the service of the house of Yahweh, from twenty years old and over. <sup>25</sup> For David said, Yahweh, the God of Israel, has given rest to His people; and He dwells in Jerusalem forever. <sup>26</sup> Also the Levites will no longer need to carry the tabernacle and all its vessels for its service. <sup>27</sup> For by the last words of David the sons of Levi were numbered, from twenty years old and over. <sup>28</sup> Their ministry was to wait on the sons of Aaron for the service of the house of Yahweh, in the courts, and in the rooms, and in the purifying of all holy things, even the work of the service of God's house; <sup>29</sup> for the showbread also, and for the fine flour for a meal offering, whether of unleavened wafers, or of that which is baked in the pan, or of that which is soaked, and for all kinds of measure and size. <sup>30</sup> And to stand every morning to thank and praise Yahweh, and likewise in the evening; <sup>31</sup> and to offer all burnt offerings to Yahweh, on the Sabbaths, on the new moons, and on the set feasts, in number according to the ordinance concerning them, continually before Yahweh; <sup>32</sup> and that they should keep the duty of the Tent of Meeting, and the duty of the holy place, and the duty of the sons of Aaron their brothers, for the service of the house of Yahweh.

The Divisions of the Descendants of Aaron

These were the divisions of the sons of Aaron. The sons of Aaron: Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. <sup>2</sup> But Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and had no children; therefore Eleazar and Ithamar executed the priest's office. <sup>3</sup> David with Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, divided them according to their ordering in their service.

<sup>4</sup> There were more chief men found of the sons of Eleazar than of the sons of Ithamar. They were divided like this: of the sons of Eleazar there were sixteen, heads of fathers' houses; and of the sons of Ithamar, according to their fathers' houses, eight. <sup>5</sup> Thus were they divided impartially by drawing lots; for there were princes of the sanctuary, and princes of God, both of the sons of Eleazar, and of the sons of Ithamar.

the eighteenth to Happizzetz, <sup>16</sup> the nineteenth to Pethahiah, the twentieth to Jehezkel, <sup>17</sup> the twenty-first to Jachin, the twenty-second to Gamul, <sup>18</sup> the twenty-third to Delaiah, the twenty-fourth to Maaziah. <sup>19</sup> This was their ordering in their service, to come into the house of Yahweh according to the ordinance given to them by Aaron their father, as Yahweh, the God of Israel, had commanded him. <sup>20</sup> Of the rest of the sons of Levi: of the sons of Amram, Shubael; of the sons of Shubael, Jehdeiah. <sup>21</sup> Of Rehabiah: of the sons of Rehabiah, Isshiah the chief. <sup>22</sup> Of the Izharites, Shelomoth; of the sons of Shelomoth, Jahath. <sup>23</sup> The sons of Hebron: Jeriah, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, Jekameam the fourth. <sup>24</sup> The sons of Uzziel, Micah; of the sons of Micah, Shamir. <sup>25</sup> The brother of Micah, Isshiah; of the sons of Isshiah, Zechariah. <sup>26</sup> The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Jaaziah: Beno. <sup>27</sup> The sons of Merari: of Jaaziah, Beno, and Shoham, and Zaccur, and Ibri. <sup>28</sup> Of Mahli: Eleazar, who had no sons. <sup>29</sup> Of Kish; the sons of Kish: Jerahmeel. <sup>30</sup> The sons of Mushi: Mahli, and Eder, and Jerimoth. These were the sons of the Levites after their fathers' houses. <sup>31</sup> These likewise cast lots even as their brothers the sons of 24:19 The 24 orders of priests are alluded to in the vision of the Heavenly court in Rev. 4:4; 5:8; 11:16; 19:4, where again there are 24 elders. God's people on earth are to reflect the system of their representative Angels in Heaven. But Israel tragically perverted this; in Ez. 8:16-18 we read of how the High Priest and the 24 elders worshipped idols within the temple. We on earth are not alone as we do God's work; we are part of a reflection on earth of the situation which is now in Heaven.

24:31 These likewise – Notice the stress on the equality of the priests and the irrel-

Aaron in the presence of David the king, and Zadok, and Ahimelech, and the heads of the fathers' households of the priests and of the Levites; the fathers' households of the chief even as those of his younger brother.

The Sons of Asaph, Heman and Jeduthun

Moreover, David and the captains of the army set apart for the service certain of the sons of Asaph, Heman and Jeduthun, who should prophesy with harps, stringed instruments and cymbals. The number of those who did the work according to their service was: <sup>2</sup> Of the sons of Asaph: Zaccur, Joseph, Nethaniah and Ashareliah, the sons of Asaph, under the hand of Asaph, who prophesied after the order of the king. <sup>3</sup> Of Jeduthun; the sons of Jeduthun: Gedaliah, Zeri, Jeshaiiah, Hashabiah and Mattithiah, six, under the hands of their father Jeduthun with the harp, who prophesied in giving thanks and praising Yahweh. <sup>4</sup> Of Heman; the sons of Heman: Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shebuel, Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, Romamti-Ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir and Mahazioth. <sup>5</sup> All these were the sons of Heman the king's prophet of the words of God, to lift up the horn. God gave to Heman fourteen sons and three daughters. <sup>6</sup> All these were under the hands of their father for the singing ministry in the house of Yahweh, with cymbals, stringed instruments and harps, for the service of God's house: Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman being under the order of the king. <sup>7</sup> The number of them, with their brothers who were instructed in singing to Yahweh, even all who were skilful, was two hundred and eighty-eight. <sup>8</sup> They cast lots for their offices, all alike, as well the small as the great, the teacher as the scholar. <sup>9</sup> Now the first lot of Asaph came forth to Joseph: the second to Gedaliah, he and his brothers and sons were twelve: <sup>10</sup> the third to Zaccur, his sons and his brothers, twelve; <sup>11</sup> the fourth to Izri, his sons and evance of their personal status (25:8; 26:12). We are the new priesthood (1 Pet. 2:5,6). The greatness, urgency and very nature of the work before us as a community of believers ought to make worldly differences of status and age irrelevant.

25:6 The service of God's house – The temple project became an obsession with Solomon; after his death, his people complained at the "grievous servitude" which Solomon had subjected them to (2 Chron. 10:4). But the Hebrew word "servitude" is that repeatedly used to describe the "service" of the temple by the people (here and 26:8,30; 27:26; 28:13-15,20,21; 29:7; 2 Chron. 8:14). Solomon became obsessed with making others 'serve God' when it was effectively serving him; he came to be abusive to God's people, when the initial idea of the temple was that it was to be built in order to help God's people serve Him. And such obsession, turning well motivated projects into means of personal ego tripping, with all the resultant abuse, has sadly not been unknown amongst the believers of our generation.

his brothers, twelve; <sup>12</sup> the fifth to Nethaniah, his sons and his brothers, twelve; <sup>13</sup> the sixth to Bukkiah, his sons and his brothers, twelve; <sup>14</sup> the seventh to Jesharelah, his sons and his brothers, twelve; <sup>15</sup> the eighth to Jeshaiah, his sons and his brothers, twelve; <sup>16</sup> the ninth to Mattaniah, his sons and his brothers, twelve; <sup>17</sup> the tenth to Shimei, his sons and his brothers, twelve; <sup>18</sup> the eleventh to Azarel, his sons and his brothers, twelve; <sup>19</sup> the twelfth to Hashabiah, his sons and his brothers, twelve; <sup>20</sup> the thirteenth to Shubael, his sons and his brothers, twelve; <sup>21</sup> the fourteenth, to Mattithiah, his sons and his brothers, twelve; <sup>22</sup> the fifteenth to Jeremoth, his sons and his brothers, twelve; <sup>23</sup> the sixteenth to Hananiah, his sons and his brothers, twelve; <sup>24</sup> the seventeenth to Joshbekashah, his sons and his brothers, twelve; <sup>25</sup> the eighteenth to Hanani, his sons and his brothers, twelve; <sup>26</sup> the nineteenth to Mallothi, his sons and his brothers, twelve; <sup>27</sup> the twentieth to Eliathah, his sons and his brothers, twelve; <sup>28</sup> the twenty-first to Hothir, his sons and his brothers, twelve; <sup>29</sup> the twenty-second to Giddalti, his sons and his brothers, twelve; <sup>30</sup> the twenty- third to Mahazith, his sons and his brothers, twelve; <sup>31</sup> the twenty-fourth to Romamti-Ezer, his sons and his brothers, twelve.

The Doorkeepers

FOR the divisions of the doorkeepers: of the Korahites, Meshelemiah the son of Kore, of the sons of Asaph. <sup>2</sup> Meshelemiah had sons: Zechariah the firstborn, Jedaiel the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth, <sup>3</sup> Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth, Eliehoenai the seventh. <sup>4</sup> Obed-Edom had sons: Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, Sacar the fourth, Nethanel the fifth, <sup>5</sup> Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, Peul-lethai the eighth; for God blessed him. <sup>6</sup> Also to Shemaiah his son were sons born, who ruled over the house of their father; for they were mighty men of valour. <sup>7</sup> The sons of Shemaiah: Othni, Rephael, Obed and Elzabad, whose brothers were capable men, Elihu and Semachiah. <sup>8</sup> All these were of the sons of Obed-Edom: they and their sons and their brothers, able men in strength for the service; sixty-two of Obed-Edom.

26:4 Obed-Edom... God blessed him – Obed-Edom bravely had the ark stay in his home, when at the time all others thought that it would lead to the death of his family (2 Sam. 6:11,12). God blessed him for this – by giving him many children and grandchildren, 62 in all (:8). And yet Obed-Edom wasn't highly rewarded for this in human terms; his many children were doorkeepers in the temple, which Ps. 84:10 implies was seen as the lowest and least honourable work. There are times when we have to do what is right and disregard the fears of others in the ecclesia, even those of the leaders [cp. David]. Reward and honour for such faithfulness will not necessarily come in this life, nor should we expect it now, if our focus is upon the future Kingdom of God on earth as the time and arena for our reward.

<sup>9</sup> Meshelemiah had sons and brothers, valiant men, eighteen. <sup>10</sup> Also Hosah, of the children of Merari, had sons: Shimri the chief, (for though he was not the firstborn, yet his father made him chief), <sup>11</sup> Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth. All the sons and brothers of Hosah were thirteen. <sup>12</sup> Of these were the divisions of the doorkeepers, even of the chief men, having offices like their brothers, to minister in the house of Yahweh. <sup>13</sup> They cast lots, the small as well as the great, according to their fathers' houses, for each gate. <sup>14</sup> The lot eastward fell to Shelemiah. Then for Zechariah his son, a wise counsellor, they cast lots; and his lot came out northward. <sup>15</sup> To Obed-Edom southward; and to his sons, the storehouse. <sup>16</sup> To Shupim and Hosah, westward, by the gate of Shallecheth, at the causeway that goes up, watch against watch. <sup>17</sup> Eastward were six Levites, northward four a day, southward four a day, and for the storehouse two and two. <sup>18</sup> For the colonnade on the west, four at the causeway, and two at the colonnade. <sup>19</sup> These were the divisions of the doorkeepers; of the sons of the Korahites, and of the sons of Merari.

The Keepers of the Treasury

<sup>20</sup> Of the Levites, Ahijah was over the treasures of God's house, and over the treasures of the dedicated things. <sup>21</sup> The sons of Ladan, the sons of the Gershonites belonging to Ladan, the heads of the fathers' households belonging to Ladan the Gershonite: Jehieli. <sup>22</sup> The sons of Jehieli: Zetham and Joel his brother were over the treasures of the house of Yahweh. <sup>23</sup> Of the Amramites, of the Izharites, of the Hebronites, of the Uzzielites: <sup>24</sup> and Shebuel the son of Gershom, the son of Moses, was ruler over the treasures. <sup>25</sup> His brothers: of Eliezer, Rehabiah his son, Jeshaiiah his son, Joram his son, Zichri his son and Shelomoth his son. <sup>26</sup> This Shelomoth and his brothers were over all the treasures of the dedicated things, which David the king, and the heads of the fathers' households, the captains over thousands and hundreds, and the captains of the army, had dedicated. <sup>27</sup> They dedicated some of

26:26 David... had dedicated – God swore to David “by My holiness” (Ps. 89:35). The Hebrew for “holiness” is the same word translated “dedication”. David’s response to God’s dedication to him was to dedicate [s.w.] all the silver and gold which he had won from this world, to the service of God’s house (see too 1 Kings 7:51; 2 Chron. 5:1). Our response to God’s dedication to us should be a like dedication of what we have to Him. Covenant relationship with God requires much of both Him and us. The case of David is a nice illustration of the meaning of grace. David wanted to do something for God – build Him a house, spending his wealth to do so. God replied that no, He wanted to build David a house. And He started to, in the promises He gave David. And David’s response to that grace is to still do something – to dedicate his wealth to God’s house, as God had dedicated Himself to David’s house. This is just how grace and works should be related in our experience.

the spoil won in battles to repair the house of Yahweh. <sup>28</sup> All that Samuel the seer, Saul the son of Kish, Abner the son of Ner and Joab the son of Zeruiah had dedicated, whoever had dedicated anything, it was under the hand of Shelomoth, and of his brothers.

Other Officials

<sup>29</sup> Of the Izharites, Chenaniah and his sons were for the outward business over Israel, for officers and judges. <sup>30</sup> Of the Hebronites, Hashabiah and his brothers, men of valour, one thousand seven hundred, had the oversight of Israel beyond the Jordan westward, for all the business of Yahweh, and for the service of the king. <sup>31</sup> Of the Hebronites was Jerijah the chief, even of the Hebronites, according to their generations by fathers' households. In the fortieth year of the reign of David they were sought for, and there were found among them mighty men of valour at Jazer of Gilead. <sup>32</sup> His brothers, men of valour, were two thousand seven hundred, heads of fathers' households, whom king David made overseers over the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of the Manassites, for every matter pertaining to God, and for the affairs of the king.

The Monthly Battalions

Now the children of Israel after their number, the heads of fathers' households and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and their officers who served the king, in any matter of the divisions which came in and went out month by month throughout all the months of the year — of every division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>2</sup> Over the first division for the first month was Jashobeam the son of Zabdiel; and in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>3</sup> He was of the children of Perez, the chief of all the captains of the army for the first month. <sup>4</sup> Over the division of the second month was Dodai the Ahohite, and his division; and Mikloth the ruler; and in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>5</sup> The third captain of the army for the third month was Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada the priest, chief; and in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>6</sup> This is that Benaiah, who was the mighty man of the thirty, and over the thirty; and of his division was Ammizabad his son. <sup>7</sup> The fourth captain for the fourth month was Asahel the brother of Joab, and Zebadiah his son after him; and in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>8</sup> The fifth captain for this fifth month was Shamhuth the Izrahite; and in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>9</sup> The sixth captain for the sixth month was Ira the son of Ikkesheh the Tekoite; and in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>10</sup> The seventh captain for the seventh month was Helez the Pelonite, of the children of Ephraim; and in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>11</sup> The eighth captain for the eighth month was Sibbecai the Hushathite, of the Zerahites; and in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>12</sup> The ninth captain for the ninth month was Abiezer the Anathothite, of the Benjamites; and in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>13</sup> The tenth captain for the tenth month was Maharai the Netophathite, of the Zerahites; and in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>14</sup> The eleventh captain for the eleventh month was Benaiah the Pirathonite, of the children of Ephraim; and in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>15</sup> The twelfth captain for the twelfth month was Heldai the Netophathite, of Othniel; and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

The Rulers of the Tribes

These were the captains of the tribes of Israel. <sup>23</sup> But David didn't take the number of them from twenty years old and under, because Yahweh had said He would increase Israel like the stars of the sky. <sup>24</sup> Joab the son of Zeruiah began to number, but didn't finish; and there came wrath for this upon Israel; neither was the number put into the account in the chronicles of king David. <sup>25</sup> Over the king's treasures was Azmaveth the son of Adiel. Over the treasures in the fields, in the cities, and in the villages, and in the towers, was Jonathan the son of Uzziah. <sup>26</sup> Over those who did the work of the field for tillage of the ground was Ezri the son of Chelub. <sup>27</sup> And over the vineyards was Shimei the Ramathite. And over the increase of the vineyards for the winecellars was Zabdi the Shiphmite. <sup>28</sup> And over the olive trees and the sycamore trees that were in the lowland was Baal Hanan the Gederite. And over the cellars of oil was Joash. <sup>29</sup> And over the herds that fed in Sharon was Shitrai the Sharonite. and over the herds that were in the valleys was Shaphat the son of Adlai. <sup>30</sup> And over the camels was Obil the Ishmaelite. And over the donkeys was Jehdeiah the Meronothite. And over the flocks was Jaziz the Hagrite. <sup>31</sup> All these were the rulers of the substance which was king David's. <sup>32</sup> Also Jonathan, David's uncle, was a counsellor, a man of understanding, and a scribe. Jehiel the son of Hachmoni was with the king's sons. <sup>33</sup> Ahithophel was the king's counsellor. Hushai the Archite was the king's advisor; <sup>34</sup> and after Ahithophel was Jehoiada the son of Benaiah, and Abiathar. The captain of the king's army was Joab.

27:23 There would've been nothing morally wrong with taking a census of Israel's young people, the next generation; but David believed in the promise that Abraham's seed would be many, and so he didn't. We can count every penny of our resources if we wish, but the higher level is to live in faith that God will fulfil His promise to provide for His people on their journey towards His Kingdom.

David Charges Solomon about the Temple

David assembled all the princes of Israel, the princes of the tribes, the captains of the companies who served the king by division, the captains of thousands and hundreds, and the rulers over all the substance and possessions of the king and of his sons, with the officers and the mighty men, even all the mighty men of valour, to Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup> Then David the king stood up on his feet and said, Hear me, my brothers and my people! As for me, it was in my heart to build a house of rest for the ark of the covenant of Yahweh, and for the footstool of our God; and I had prepared for the building. <sup>3</sup> But God said to me, 'You shall not build a house for My name, because you are a man of war, and have shed blood'. <sup>4</sup> However Yahweh, the God of Israel, chose me out of all the house of my father to be king over Israel forever. For He has chosen Judah to be prince; and in the house of Judah, the house of my father; and among the sons of my father He took pleasure in me to make me king over all Israel. <sup>5</sup> Of all my sons (for Yahweh has given me many sons), He has chosen Solomon my son to sit on the throne of Yahweh's kingdom over Israel. <sup>6</sup> He said to me, 'Solomon, your son, shall build My house and My courts; for I have chosen him to be My son, and I will be his father. <sup>7</sup> I will establish his kingdom forever, if he continues to do My commandments and My ordinances as he does at this time'. <sup>8</sup> Now therefore, in the sight of all Israel, the assembly of Yahweh, and in the audience of our God, observe and seek out all the commandments of Yahweh your God; that you may possess this good

28:3-6 These words of David appear to be his claims as to what God had told him; but what he says here appears to be a mixture of God's actual words with some wishful thinking on his own part. The reasons God gave for not wanting David to build a temple are different to what David here claims God said, and clearly David was obsessed with justifying Solomon as his heir, even claiming that God had commanded Solomon to be king and to build the temple. David had lost his Christ-centeredness in his zeal to see his son become the major fulfilment of the promises to him in 2 Sam. 7. This desire to declare Solomon right and as God's man at all costs was very damaging for Solomon, for it led him to a loss of conscience, chronic selfishness and loss of faith in the end. See on :19.

28:8 Seek out all the commandments of Yahweh – If we love God, we will not have a minimalistic attitude to serving Him, doing as little as we can get away with. We will eagerly seek out how to please Him, what principles we should live by, what we should and should not do or be in order to please Him.

land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children after you forever. <sup>9</sup> You, Solomon my son, know the God of your father, and serve Him with a perfect heart and with a willing mind; for Yahweh searches all hearts, and understands all the imaginations of the thoughts. If you seek Him, He will be found by you; but if you forsake Him, He will cast you off forever. <sup>10</sup> Take heed now; for Yahweh has chosen you to build a house for the sanctuary. Be strong, and do it.

David's Preparation for the Temple

<sup>11</sup> Then David gave to Solomon his son the pattern of the porch of the temple, and of its houses, and of its treasuries, and of the upper rooms of it, and of the inner rooms of it, and of the place of the mercy seat; <sup>12</sup> and the pattern of all that he had in mind for the courts of the house of Yahweh, and for all the surrounding rooms, for the treasuries of God's house, and for the treasuries of the dedicated things; <sup>13</sup> also for the divisions of the priests and the Levites, and for all the work of the service of the house of Yahweh, and for all the vessels of service in the house of Yahweh; <sup>14</sup> of gold by weight for the gold, for all vessels of every kind of service; for all the vessels of silver by weight, for all vessels of every kind of service; <sup>15</sup> by weight also for the lampstands of gold, and for its lamps, of gold, by weight for every lampstand and for its lamps; and for the lampstands of silver, by weight for every lampstand and for its lamps, according to the use of every lampstand; <sup>16</sup> and the gold by weight for the tables of show bread, for every table; and silver for the tables of silver; <sup>17</sup> and the forks, and the basins, and the cups, of pure gold; and for the golden bowls by weight for every bowl; and for the silver bowls by weight for every bowl; <sup>18</sup> and for the altar of incense refined gold by weight; and gold for the pattern of the chariot, the cherubim, that spread out, and covered the ark of the covenant of Yahweh. <sup>19</sup> All this, said David, I have been made to understand in writing from the hand of Yahweh, even all the works of this pattern. <sup>20</sup> David said to Solomon his son, Be strong and courageous, and do it. Don't be afraid, nor be dismayed; for Yahweh God, even my God, is with you. He will not fail you, nor forsake you, until all the work for the service of the house of Yahweh is finished. <sup>21</sup> Behold, there are the divisions of the priests and the Levites, for all the service of God's house. There shall be with you in all kinds of work every willing man who has skill, for any kind of service. Also the captains and all the people will be entirely at your command.

28:19 This, said David, I have been made to understand in writing from the hand of Yahweh – The implication could be that David was only claiming to have been given the temple plans from Yahweh (see on 28:3-6). David like many today mixed God's word with his own wishes and speculations, and ended up assuming that what he wished to be true was in fact God's word.

CHAPTER 29 Oct. 12David Addresses Israel and They Respond Generously

David the king said to all the assembly, Solomon my son, whom alone God has chosen, is yet young and tender, and the work is great; for the palace is not for man, but for Yahweh God. <sup>2</sup> Now I have prepared with all my might for the house of my God the gold for the things of gold, the silver for the things of silver, the brass for the things of brass, the iron for the things of iron and wood for the things of wood; onyx stones and stones to be set, stones for inlaid work and of various colours, all kinds of precious stones, and marble stones in abundance. <sup>3</sup> In addition, because I have set my affection on the house of my God, since I have a treasure of my own of gold and silver, I give it to the house of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the holy house, <sup>4</sup> even three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, with which to overlay the walls of the house; <sup>5</sup> of gold for the things of gold, and of silver for the things of silver, and for all kinds of work to be made by the hands of artisans. Who then offers willingly to consecrate himself this day to Yahweh? <sup>6</sup> Then the princes of the fathers' households, and the princes of the tribes of Israel, and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, with the rulers over the king's work, offered willingly; <sup>7</sup> and they gave for the service of God's house five thousand talents and ten thousand darics of gold, and of silver ten thousand talents, of brass eighteen thousand talents and of iron a hundred thousand talents. <sup>8</sup> They with whom precious stones were found gave them to the treasure of the house of Yahweh, under the hand of Jehiel the Gershonite. <sup>9</sup> Then the people rejoiced, because they offered willingly, because with a complete heart they offered willingly to Yahweh: and David the king also rejoiced with great joy. <sup>10</sup> Therefore David blessed Yahweh before all the assembly; and David said, You are blessed, Yahweh, the God of Israel our father, forever and ever. <sup>11</sup> Yours, Yahweh, is the great-

29:1 Whom alone God has chosen – God hadn't said this, but David made his personal wishes and preferences to sound as if they were God's word; see on 28:3-6,19.

29:5 To be made by the hands of artisans – Solomon's temple is described as being made with hands. The word "made" is stressed in the record of Solomon's building the temple (2 Chron. 3:8,10,14-16; 4:1,2,6-9,14,18,19,21). The work of the temple was very much produced by men's hands (2 Chron. 2:7,8). 'Things made with hands' is a phrase referring to idols in several passages (e.g. Is. 2:8; 17:8; 31:7). And it may be significant that the words of Is. 66:1,2 concerning God not living in temples are quoted by Paul with reference to pagan temples in Acts 17:24, and concerning the temple in Jerusalem by Stephen. The building of the temple became an idol to Solomon, just as the service of God can be twisted by us into a form of self-worship.

29:6 David's generosity inspired his brethren to do the same; generosity to God's work is contagious.

ness, the power, the glory, the victory and the majesty! For all that is in the heavens and in the earth is Yours. Yours is the kingdom, Yahweh, and You are exalted as head above all.

<sup>12</sup> Both riches and honour come from You, and You rule over all; in Your hand is power and might; it is in Your hand to make great, and to give strength to all. <sup>13</sup> Now therefore, our God, we thank You and praise Your glorious name. <sup>14</sup> But who am I, and what is my people, that we should be able to offer so willingly as this? For all things come from You, and of Your own have we given You.

<sup>15</sup> For we are strangers before You, and foreigners, as all our fathers were. Our days on the earth are as a shadow, and there is no remaining.

<sup>16</sup> Yahweh our God, all this store that we have prepared to build You a house for Your holy name comes from Your hand, and is all Your own.

<sup>17</sup> I know also, my God, that You try the heart, and have pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of my heart I have willingly offered all these things. Now have I seen with joy Your people, that are present here, offer willingly to You.

<sup>19</sup> Give to Solomon my son a perfect heart, to keep Your commandments, Your testimonies and Your statutes, and to do all these things, and to build the palace, for which I have made provision. <sup>20</sup> David said to all the assembly, Now bless Yahweh your God!

29:14 Of Your own have we given You – We are not our own: how much less is ‘our’ money or time our own! Like David, we need to realize that all our giving is only a giving back to God of what we have been given by Him. The myth of materialism is the assumption that we are ultimate owners of what we ‘have’. Connected to this is David’s argument that we ought to be generous to God’s work because of our mortality (:15) – seeing we can take nothing with us, we should give it all to God. This is one outcome of believing that man is mortal and that we have no immortal soul which consciously survives death.

29:19 David earnestly prayed in Psalm 72 for Solomon to be the Messianic King, and therefore David asked for Solomon to be given a truly wise heart. These prayers were answered in a very limited sense – in that Solomon was given great wisdom, and his Kingdom was one of the greatest types of Christ’s future Kingdom. Thus our prayers for others really can have an effect upon them, otherwise there would be no point in the concept of praying for others. But each individual has an element of spiritual freewill; we can’t force others to be spiritual by our prayers; yet on the other hand, our prayers can influence their spirituality. David’s prayers for Solomon is an example of this. Those prayers were heard, in that God helped Solomon marvellously, giving him every opportunity to develop a superb spirituality; but he failed to have the genuine personal desire to be like this in his heart, in his heart he was back in Egypt, and therefore ultimately David’s desire for Solomon to be the wondrous Messianic King of his dreams had to go unfulfilled.

The Death of David

All the assembly blessed Yahweh, the God of their fathers, and bowed down their heads and prostrated themselves before Yahweh and the king. <sup>21</sup> They sacrificed sacrifices to Yahweh, and offered burnt offerings to Yahweh, on the next day after that day, even one thousand bulls, one thousand rams and one thousand lambs, with their drink offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel, <sup>22</sup> and ate and drink before Yahweh on that day with great gladness. They made Solomon the son of David king the second time, and anointed him to Yahweh to be prince, and Zadok to be priest. <sup>23</sup> Then Solomon sat on the throne of Yahweh as king instead of David his father, and prospered; and all Israel obeyed him. <sup>24</sup> All the princes, the mighty men, and also all the sons of king David submitted themselves to

Solomon the king. <sup>25</sup> Yahweh magnified Solomon exceedingly in the sight of all Israel, and bestowed on him such royal majesty as had not been on any king before him in Israel. <sup>26</sup> Now David the son of Jesse had reigned over all Israel. <sup>27</sup> The time that he reigned over Israel was forty years; he reigned seven years in Hebron, and he reigned thirty-three years in Jerusalem. <sup>28</sup> He died in a good old age, full of days, riches and honour; and Solomon his son reigned in his place. <sup>29</sup> Now the acts of David the king, first and last, behold, they are written in the history of Samuel the seer, in the history of Nathan the prophet and in the history of Gad the seer, <sup>30</sup> with accounts of all his reign and his might, and the circumstances which he and all Israel experienced, and those of all the kingdoms of the surrounding countries.

29:23 Solomon sat on the throne of Yahweh as king – Note that the Kingdom of Israel was in fact God's Kingdom; the re-establishment of God's Kingdom on earth (Ez. 21:27; Acts 1:6) therefore requires that the arena of that Kingdom will likewise be here on earth – not in Heaven.

THE SECOND BOOK OF CHRONICLES

Solomon Asks for Wisdom

Solomon the son of David was strengthened in his kingdom, and Yahweh his God was with him, and magnified him exceedingly.

<sup>2</sup> Solomon spoke to all Israel, to the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and to the judges, and to every prince in all Israel, the heads of the fathers' households. <sup>3</sup> So Solomon, and all the assembly with him, went to the high place that was at Gibeon; for there was the Tent of Meeting of God, which Moses the servant of Yahweh had made in the wilderness.

<sup>4</sup> But David had brought the ark of God up from Kiriath Jearim to the place that David had prepared for it; for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup> Moreover the bronze altar, that Bezalel the son of Uri the son of Hur had made, was there before the tabernacle of Yahweh; and Solomon and the assembly were seeking counsel there. <sup>6</sup> Solomon went up there to the bronze altar before Yahweh which was at the Tent of Meeting and offered one thousand burnt offerings on it. <sup>7</sup> In that night God appeared to Solomon and said to him, Ask what I shall give you. <sup>8</sup> Solomon said to God, You have shown great grace to David my father, and have made me king in his place. <sup>9</sup> Now, Yahweh God, let your promise to David my father be established; for you have made me king over a people like the dust of the earth in multitude. <sup>10</sup> Now give me wisdom and knowledge, that I may go out and come in before this people; for who can judge this your people, that is so great? <sup>11</sup> God said to Solomon, Because this was in your heart, and you have not asked riches, wealth, or honour, nor the life of those who hate you, neither yet have asked long life; but have asked

1:6 The Chronicles record is very positive compared to the accounts of Solomon in 1 Kings. But Solomon's many sacrifices must be compared with Mic. 6:7, which says that God isn't impressed by such "thousands" of sacrifices, but looks instead for humility, justice and kindness in a person. Solomon's father had likewise appreciated that the cattle on one thousand hills are God's and so we can't give Him anything materially which He doesn't have, but we can give Him our personalities and characters (Ps. 50:10). But Solomon thought that external generosity to God was what He wanted, and he ignored the spiritual sacrifices which are far more important to God.

1:10 'Going out and coming in' is an idiom for leadership. Solomon was asking for wisdom because he thought that he was the Messiah, and he saw wisdom as a Messianic characteristic. He failed to realize that the promises to Abraham and David were only being primarily fulfilled in him (e.g. 1 Kings 4:20); he thought that he was the ultimate fulfilment of them (1 Kings 8:20 states this in so many words). His lack of faith and vision of the future Kingdom lead him to this proud and arrogant conclusion (cp. building up our own 'Kingdom' in this life through our lack of vision of the future Kingdom which is to come at Christ's return).

wisdom and knowledge for yourself, that you may judge my people, over whom I have made you king: <sup>12</sup> wisdom and knowledge is granted to you. I will give you riches, wealth, and honour, such as none of the kings have had who have been before you; neither shall there any after you have the like.

Solomon's Prosperity

<sup>13</sup> So Solomon came from the high place that was at Gibeon, from before the Tent of Meeting, to Jerusalem; and he reigned over Israel. <sup>14</sup> Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen: and he had one thousand four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, that he placed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem. <sup>15</sup> The king made silver and gold to be in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars made he to be as abundant as the sycamore trees that are in the lowland. <sup>16</sup> The horses which Solomon had were brought out of Egypt and from Kue; the king's merchants purchased them from Kue. <sup>17</sup> They brought out of Egypt a chariot for six hundred pieces of silver, and a horse for one hundred and fifty. They also brought them out for all the kings of the Hittites, and the kings of Syria.

Solomon Arranges Raw Materials for the Temple from Hiram

Now Solomon purposed to build a house for the name of Yahweh, and a house for his kingdom. <sup>2</sup> Solomon counted out seventy thousand men to bear burdens, and eighty thousand men who were stone cutters in the mountains, and three thousand six hundred to oversee them. <sup>3</sup> Solomon sent to Hiram the king of Tyre saying, As you dealt with David my father, and sent him cedars to build

1:11 We too can prefer wisdom over wealth when we decide to turn down a more demanding or a second job or course of education because we don't want to be left without time or heart for God's word.

1:16 The king's merchants purchased them – This was specific disobedience to Dt. 17:16, which taught that Israel's king shouldn't cause the people to go to Egypt to buy horses. And Solomon would have copied out this section of the law and memorized it (Dt. 17:18). This shows how we have a tendency to not only ignore God's word but actually to do exactly the opposite. Israel was strategically situated between Egypt and other nations, and so Solomon became a middleman for the horse and chariot trade (:17); but Israel were not to have horses and chariots themselves (Dt. 17:16). Inevitably, Solomon ended up keeping horses for himself because he was 'in the trade', and became obsessed with them. It's rather like a person dealing in alcohol becoming themselves an alcoholic; and in more subtle ways we too can fall for the goods of Egypt through wilful association with them and enabling others to enjoy them.

2:1 Solomon wanted to build two houses, one for God and another for himself. There was always a duality in Solomon's service, rather than a total commitment to God alone.

him a house in which to dwell, so deal with me. <sup>4</sup> Behold, I am about to build a house for the name of Yahweh my God, to dedicate it to Him, and to burn before Him incense of sweet spices, and for the continual showbread, and for the burnt offerings morning and evening, on the Sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the set feasts of Yahweh our God. This is an ordinance forever to Israel. <sup>5</sup> The house which I build is great; for our God is great above all gods. <sup>6</sup> But who is able to build Him a house, since heaven and the heaven of heavens can't contain Him? Who am I then, that I should build Him a house, except just to burn incense before Him? <sup>7</sup> Now therefore send me a man talented to work in gold, silver, brass, iron, purple, crimson and blue, and who knows how to produce engravings, to be with the talented men who are with me in Judah and in Jerusalem, whom David my father provided. <sup>8</sup> Send me also cedar trees, fir trees, and algum trees, out of Lebanon; for I know that your servants know how to cut timber in Lebanon. My servants shall be with your servants, <sup>9</sup> even to prepare me timber in abundance; for the house which I am about to build shall be great and wonderful. <sup>10</sup> Behold, I will give to your servants, the cutters who cut timber, twenty thousand measures of beaten wheat, and twenty thousand measures of barley, and twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil. <sup>11</sup> Then Hiram the king of Tyre answered in a writing which he sent to Solomon, Because Yahweh loves His people, therefore He has made you king over them. <sup>12</sup> Hiram continued, Blessed be Yahweh, the God of Israel That made heaven and earth, Who has given to David the king a wise son, endowed with discretion and understanding, that should build a house for Yahweh, and a house for His kingdom. <sup>13</sup> Now I have sent a talented man endowed with understanding, of Hiram my fathers, <sup>14</sup> the son of a woman of the daughters of Dan; and his father was a man of Tyre, talented to work in gold, silver, brass, iron, stone, timber, purple, and then concludes: "Who am I then, that I should build (God) an house?". Confirmation of this is provided by the way in which Jer. 22:13-17 describes Jehoiakim's proud building of his own cedar house in the language of Solomon's building of the temple. We can serve God with pride, in which case it is an abomination. There's an obvious contradiction in Solomon's reasoning; if God is indeed so great that He doesn't dwell in human houses (Acts 7:48; 17:24), then why build Him a house? This was all false humility, draped, as it were, in out of context Biblical quotation and spiritual allusion.

2:5 *The house which I build is great – The Hebrew word translated "great" is used again by Solomon at the end of his life when he lost his faith and looked back at how he had built "great" buildings (Ecc. 2:4) in a vain search for self-fulfilment which he ultimately found to be vanity. The lesson of Solomon is that we can serve God on a surface level whilst our heart is far from Him, and the works we do for Him are in fact only a living out of our vain search for self-fulfilment, rather than a total devotion to Him and His causes.

blue, fine linen and crimson, also to engrave any kind of engraving, and to devise any device. Let there be a place appointed to him with your talented men, and with the talented men of my lord David your father. <sup>15</sup> Now therefore the wheat and the barley, the oil and the wine, which my lord has spoken of, let him send to his servants; <sup>16</sup> and we will cut wood out of Lebanon, as much as you shall need. We will bring it to you in floats by sea to Joppa; and you shall carry it up to Jerusalem. <sup>17</sup> Solomon numbered all the foreigners who were in the land of Israel, after the numbering with which David his father had numbered them; and they were found one hundred and fifty-three thousand six hundred. <sup>18</sup> He set seventy thousand of them to bear burdens, and eighty thousand to be stone cutters in the mountains, and three thousand six hundred overseers to set the people to work.

The Dimensions and Specifications of the Temple

Then Solomon began to build the house of Yahweh at Jerusalem on Mount Moriah, where Yahweh appeared to David his father, which he prepared in the place that David had appointed, in the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite. <sup>2</sup> He began to build in the second day of the second month, in the fourth year of his reign. <sup>3</sup> Now these are the foundations which Solomon laid for the building of God's house. The length by cubits after the first measure was sixty cubits and the breadth twenty cubits. <sup>4</sup> The porch that was in front, its length, according to the breadth of the house, was twenty cubits, and the height one hundred and twenty; and he overlaid it within with pure gold. <sup>5</sup> The greater house he made with a ceiling of fir wood which he overlaid with fine gold, and ornamented it with palm trees and chains. <sup>6</sup> He garnished the house with precious stones for beauty; and the gold was gold of Parvaim. <sup>7</sup> He overlaid also the house, the beams, the thresholds and its walls and its doors, with gold; and engraved cherubim on the walls. <sup>8</sup> He made the most holy place: its length, according to the breadth of the house, was twenty cubits, and its breadth twenty cubits; and he overlaid it with fine gold, amounting to six hundred talents. <sup>9</sup> The weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold. He overlaid the upper rooms with gold. <sup>10</sup> In the most holy place he made two cherubim of wood; and

3:1 This implies David assumed that the spot where the Angel appeared to him in 2 Sam. 24:17,18 was where he should build the temple. But this could be one of several examples of David wildly over-interpreting in order to justify his obsession with his son building a temple.

Mount Moriah – This was where Abraham offered Isaac (Gen. 22:2), and it was near Jerusalem – further strengthening the connections between that offering and the sacrifice of Christ on a hill outside Jerusalem.

3:3 A cubit was the distance from the elbow to the tip of the middle finger.

they overlaid them with gold. <sup>11</sup> The wings of the cherubim were twenty cubits long. The wing of the one was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house; and the other wing was five cubits, reaching to the wing of the other cherub. <sup>12</sup> The wing of the other cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house; and the other wing was five cubits, joining to the wing of the other cherub. <sup>13</sup> The wings of these cherubim spread themselves forth twenty cubits. They stood on their feet, and their faces were toward the house. <sup>14</sup> He made the veil of blue, purple, crimson and fine linen, and decorated it with cherubim. <sup>15</sup> Also he made before the house two pillars of thirty-five cubits high, and the capital that was on the top of each of them was five cubits. <sup>16</sup> He made chains in the oracle, and put them on the tops of the pillars; and he made one hundred pomegranates, and put them on the chains. <sup>17</sup> He set up the pillars before the temple, one on the right hand, and the other on the left; and called the name of that on the right hand Jachin, and the name of that on the left Boaz.

Details of the Temple Furniture

Then he made an altar of brass, twenty cubits in length, and

3:12 Joining to the wing of the other cherub – The cherubim totally covered the ark. In the Psalms, David reflects that the righteous dwell under the shadow of God's wings (Ps. 17:8; 36:7), as if we are located on the atonement cover which was on top of the ark, where the blood of atonement was sprinkled, which represented Christ's blood. Our covering by God's Angelic cherubim protection is therefore total and complete. But the cherubim described here aren't those which covered the ark; these covered the entire Most Holy Place. Likewise the constant theme of cherubim everywhere in the temple suggests that Solomon wished to expand the concept of the holiness and protection of the atonement cover to the entire temple. The temple represents all God's people; for we are His temple. The New Testament expands the theme further – the person of each individual believer is the temple of God (1 Cor. 3:17; 6:19). Each of us personally becomes as it were within the Most Holy Place and likewise constantly in God's most intense presence and covered by His wings.

4:1 Stephen says that David tried to find a tabernacle for God, "But Solomon built him an house. Howbeit the most High dwelleth not in temples made with hands; as saith the prophet, Heaven is my throne... what house will ye build me?" (Acts 7:46-49 AV). This cannot mean 'God no longer dwells in the temple as He used to before Christ's death', because the reason given is that the prophet Isaiah says that God cannot live in houses. This reason was true in Isaiah's time, before the time of Christ. It would seem that Stephen is politely saying: 'Solomon made this mistake of thinking that God can be limited to a physical building. You're making just the same mistake'. And he goes on to make a comment which could well allude to this: "Ye do always resist the Holy Spirit: as your fathers (including Solomon) did, so do ye" (Acts 7:51 AV). Further evidence that Stephen saw Solomon's building of the temple in a negative light is provided by the link between Acts 7:41 and 48: "They made a calf... and rejoiced in the works of their own hands... howbeit the Most High dwelleth not in twenty cubits in breadth, and ten cubits in height. <sup>2</sup> Also he made the molten sea of ten cubits from brim to brim, round in compass; and its height was five cubits; and a line of thirty cubits encircled it. <sup>3</sup> Under it was the likeness of oxen which encircled it for ten cubits, encircling the sea. The oxen were in two rows, cast when it was cast. <sup>4</sup> It stood on twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, three looking toward the west, three looking toward the south and three looking toward the east. The sea was set on them above, and all their back parts were inward. <sup>5</sup> It was a handbreadth thick; and its brim was worked like the brim of a cup, like the flower of a lily. It received and held three thousand baths. <sup>6</sup> He made also ten basins, and put five on the right hand and five on the left, to wash in them. Such things as related to the burnt offering they washed in them; but the sea was for the priests to wash in. <sup>7</sup> He made the ten lampstands of gold according to the command concerning them; and he set them in the temple, five on the right hand and five on the left. <sup>8</sup> He made also ten tables, and placed them in the temple, five on the right side and five on the left. He made one hundred basins of gold. <sup>9</sup> Furthermore he made the court of the priests, and the great court, and doors for the court, and overlaid their doors with brass. <sup>10</sup> He set the sea on the right side of the house eastward, toward the south. <sup>11</sup> Hiram made the pots, the shovels and the basins. So Hiram made an end of doing the work that he did for king Solomon in God's house: <sup>12</sup> the two pillars, and the bowls, and the two capitals which were on the top of the pillars, and the two networks to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars, <sup>13</sup> and the four hundred pomegranates for the two networks; two rows of pomegranates for each network, to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the pillars. <sup>14</sup> He made also the bases, and the basins he made on the bases; <sup>15</sup> one sea, and the twelve oxen under it. <sup>16</sup> Hiram his father also made the pots, the shovels, the forks, and all its vessels for king Solomon for the house of Yahweh of bright brass. <sup>17</sup> The king cast them in the plain of the Jordan, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zeredah. <sup>18</sup> Thus Solomon made all these vessels in great abundance; for the weight of the brass could not be estimated. <sup>19</sup> Solomon made all the vessels that were in God's house, the golden altar also, and the tables temples made with hands" (AV). The word "made" is stressed here in the record of Solomon's building the temple (3:8,10,14-16; 4:1,2,6-9,14,18,19,21). The work of the temple was very much produced by men's hands (2:7,8). Things made with hands refers to idols in several Old Testament passages (e.g. Is. 2:8; 17:8; 31:7). Significantly, Solomon's temple is described as being made with hands in 1 Chron. 29:5. The lesson ought to be clear: we can expend huge effort in apparently serving God when in fact we are only serving ourselves; and thus we can turn the supposed service of God into an idol.

with the showbread on them; <sup>20</sup> and the lampstands with their lamps, to burn before the oracle according to the commandment, of pure gold; <sup>21</sup> and the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs, of gold (perfect gold); <sup>22</sup> and the snuffers, basins, spoons and fire pans, of pure gold. As for the entry of the house, the inner doors of it for the most holy place, and the doors of the main hall of the temple were of gold.

The Temple Is Dedicated with Praise

Thus all the work that Solomon did for the house of Yahweh was finished. Solomon brought in the things that David his father had dedicated, even the silver and the gold, and all the vessels, and put them in the treasuries of the house of God. <sup>2</sup> Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the princes of the fathers' households of the children of Israel, to Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of Yahweh out of the city of David, which is Zion. <sup>3</sup> And all the men of Israel assembled themselves to the king at the feast, which was in the seventh month. <sup>4</sup> All the elders of Israel came. The Levites took up the ark; <sup>5</sup> and they brought up the ark, and the Tent of Meeting, and all the holy vessels that were in the Tent; these the priests the Levites brought up. <sup>6</sup> King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel, that were assembled to him, were before the ark, sacrificing sheep and cattle, that could not be counted nor numbered for multitude. <sup>7</sup> The priests brought in the ark of the covenant of Yahweh to its place, into the oracle of the house, to the most holy place, even under the wings of the cherubim. <sup>8</sup> For the cherubim spread forth their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim covered the ark and its poles. <sup>9</sup> The poles were so long that the ends of the poles were seen from the ark before the oracle; but they were not seen outside. It is there to this day. <sup>10</sup> There was nothing in

5:6 Sacrificing sheep and cattle, that could not be counted – Whilst the record here isn't specifically critical of Solomon, he failed to understand his father David's reflection that all the cattle on every hill are God's (Ps. 50:10) and therefore God doesn't so much as seek animal sacrifice from us as desire faith and a broken casting of ourselves upon God. David came to that understanding because his sin against Uriah and Bathsheba deserved death and there was no animal sacrifice which could take away that guilt – he had to throw himself upon God's grace and learn that the real sacrifice God sought was that of a broken, penitent heart (Ps. 51:16,17). Solomon didn't recognize his sins as David did, he didn't mess up so publically as David did, and therefore he failed to appreciate this, focussing instead on the external rather than the internal. It's amazing how God uses human sin and failure to teach us; those like Solomon who don't sin publically and don't recognize the weight of their private sins are often lead into the shallow, empty spirituality and surface level service of God which we see in Solomon at this time. See on 7:5.

5:8 The cherubim covered the ark – See on 3:12.

the ark except the two tables which Moses put in it at Horeb, when Yahweh made a covenant with the children of Israel when they came out of Egypt. <sup>11</sup> The priests came out of the holy place, (for all the priests who were present had sanctified themselves, and didn't keep their divisions; <sup>12</sup> also the Levites who were the singers, all of them, even Asaph, Heman, Jeduthun, and their sons and their brothers, arrayed in fine linen, with cymbals and stringed instruments and harps, stood at the east end of the altar, and with them one hundred twenty priests sounding with trumpets). <sup>13</sup> The trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking Yahweh; and they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of music, and praised Yahweh, saying, For He is good; for His loving kindness endures forever! Then the house was filled with a cloud, even the house of Yahweh, <sup>14</sup> so that the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud; for the glory of Yahweh filled God's house.

Solomon Addresses the People

Then Solomon said, Yahweh has said that He would dwell in the thick darkness. <sup>2</sup> But I have built You a house of habitation, and a place for You to dwell in forever. <sup>3</sup> The king turned his face and blessed all the assembly of Israel; and all the assembly of Israel stood. <sup>4</sup> He said, Blessed be Yahweh the God of Israel, Who spoke with His mouth to David my father and has with His hands fulfilled it saying, <sup>5</sup> Since the day that I brought forth My people out of the land of Egypt, I chose no city out of all the tribes of Israel to build a house in, that My name might be there; neither chose I any man to be prince over My people Israel. <sup>6</sup> But I have chosen Jerusalem, that

6:2 A place for You to dwell in forever – This is one of several hints that Solomon felt that the full fulfilment of the Davidic promises was to be found in him (see on :10). He failed to look forward to the spirit of Christ, instead becoming obsessed with the achievement of his own works. He was largely encouraged in this by David, who seems to have felt that Solomon was the Messiah figure the promises spoke about. Thus Ps.72 is dedicated to Solomon, and yet it speaks clearly of the messianic Kingdom. David thus came to misquote and misapply the promises God made to him in his obsession about his own family, rather than seeing the promises as concerning the great spiritual family which would be built by Messiah. Solomon repeated his father's error. God had told David that He did not want a physical house, because He had never commanded this to be done at any time in the past. Solomon misquotes this in :5,6 to mean that God had never asked for a physical house in the past, but now He had asked David's son to build such a house in Jerusalem. This is a lesson to us all against misquoting and misapplying Scripture to justify how we would like things to be for us and our immediate family.

6:6. Solomon claims that God said: "But I have chosen Jerusalem, that My name might be there". God had chosen no resting place, although it would have been po-

My name might be there; and have chosen David to be over My people Israel. <sup>7</sup> Now it was in the heart of David my father to build a house for the name of Yahweh, the God of Israel. <sup>8</sup> But Yahweh said to David my father, Whereas it was in your heart to build a house for My name, you did well that it was in your heart. <sup>9</sup> Nevertheless you shall not build the house; but your son who shall come forth out of your body, he shall build the house for My name. <sup>10</sup> Yahweh has performed His word that He spoke; for I have risen up in the place of David my father, and sit on the throne of Israel, as Yahweh promised, and have built the house for the name of Yahweh, the God of Israel. <sup>11</sup> Therein I have set the ark, in which is the covenant of Yahweh, which He made with the children of Israel.

Solomon's Prayer of Dedication

scaffold, five cubits long, five cubits broad and three cubits high, and had set it in the midst of the court; and on it he stood, and kneeled down on his knees before all the assembly of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward heaven). <sup>14</sup> He said, Yahweh, the God of Israel, there is no God like You, in heaven or on earth; You Who keep covenant and loving kindness with Your servants who walk before You with all their heart; <sup>15</sup> Who has kept with Your servant David my father that which You promised him: yes, You spoke with Your mouth, and have fulfilled it with Your hand, as it is this day. <sup>16</sup> Now therefore, Yahweh the God of Israel, keep with Your servant David my father that which You promised him saying, There shall not fail you a man in My sight to sit on the throne of Israel, if only your children take heed to their way, to walk in My law as you have walked before Me. <sup>17</sup> Now therefore, Yahweh the God of Israel, let Your word be verified which You spoke to Your servant David. <sup>18</sup> But will God indeed dwell with men on litically convenient for Solomon if Jerusalem as a city was where God had chosen to dwell. And so he kept thinking that way until he persuaded himself that in fact this was what God had said, and misquoted God's word to that end.

6:10 Yahweh has performed His word that He spoke – The promise to David about his great son building God's house was a promise of Messiah building a house in the sense of a spiritual family (Lk. 1:31-35). The promise was given in response to David's desire to build a physical house for God. But Solomon was too eager to see the prophecy fulfilled in him and before his eyes, and this lack of Christ-centeredness and focus on the future, ultimate Kingdom of God on earth led him astray.

6:12, 13 The record emphasizes how Solomon prayed in front of everyone and showed his apparent humility before all. Christ's teaching condemning such behaviour may well allude to Solomon's failures in these things (Mt. 6:6).

6:18 These fine words contradict what Solomon just said in :2, that he was building a house where God would dwell, and would do so, he claimed, "for ever". This is all the earth? Behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens can't contain You; how much less this house which I have built! <sup>19</sup> Yet have respect for the prayer of Your servant and to his supplication, Yahweh my God, to listen to the cry and to the prayer which Your servant prays before You; <sup>20</sup> that Your eyes may be open toward this house day and night, even toward the place where you have said that You would put Your name; to listen to the prayer which Your servant shall pray toward this place. <sup>21</sup> Listen to the petitions of Your servant and of Your people Israel when they shall pray toward this place. Yes, hear from Your dwelling place, even from heaven; and when You hear, forgive. <sup>22</sup> If a man sin against his neighbour, and an oath is laid on him to cause him to swear, and he comes and swears before your altar in this house; <sup>23</sup> then hear from heaven, and do, and judge your servants, bringing retribution to the wicked, to bring his way on his own head; and justifying the righteous, to give him according to his righteousness. <sup>24</sup> If Your people Israel be struck down before the enemy because they have sinned against You, and shall turn again and confess Your name, and pray and make supplication before You in this house; <sup>25</sup> then hear from heaven, and forgive the sin of your people Israel, and bring them again to the land which You gave to them and to their fathers. <sup>26</sup> When the sky is shut up and there is no rain because they have sinned against You; if they pray toward this place, and confess Your name and turn from their sin, when You afflict them; <sup>27</sup> then hear in heaven, and forgive the sin of Your servants and of Your people Israel, when You teach them the good way in which they should walk; and send rain on Your land, which You have given to Your people for an inheritance. <sup>28</sup> If there is famine in the land, if there is plague, blight or mildew, locust or caterpillar; if their enemies besiege them in the land of their cities; whatever plague or whatever sickness there is; <sup>29</sup> whatever prayer and supplication be made by any man, or by all Your people Israel who shall know every man his own plague and his own sorrow of heart,

6:20 Pray toward this place – Prayer should've been directed toward God, but Solomon gave in to the human tendency to want a buffer between God and man, just as Israel didn't want to hear God speaking directly with them. Popular religion has pandered to this tendency through hierarchical systems of priesthood etc., but God has always revealed Himself as thirsting for relationship with man and therefore is eager for the most direct form of contact with us which our humanity permits. This is supremely enabled for those who are by status "in Christ" who can come directly to God because of Christ's achievement for us.

6:24 Turn again and confess Your name – God's Name refers to the declaration of His characteristics (Ex. 34:4-6). Repentance involves a recognition both of our wrongness, and God's rightness. See on 12:6.

and shall spread forth his hands toward this house; <sup>30</sup> then hear from heaven Your dwelling place and forgive, and render to each man according to all his ways, whose heart You know; (for You, even You only, know the hearts of the children of men;) <sup>31</sup> that they may fear You, to walk in Your ways, so long as they live in the land which You gave to our fathers. <sup>32</sup> Moreover concerning the foreigner, who is not of Your people Israel, when he shall come from a far country for Your great name's sake and because of Your mighty hand and Your outstretched arm; when they shall come and pray toward this house; <sup>33</sup> then hear from heaven, even from Your dwelling place, and do according to all that the foreigner calls to You for; that all the peoples of the earth may know Your name and fear You, as does Your people Israel, and that they may know that this house which I have built is called by Your name. <sup>34</sup> If Your people go out to battle against their enemies, by whatever way You shall send them, and they pray to You toward this city which You have chosen, and the house which I have built for your name; <sup>35</sup> then hear from heaven their prayer and their supplication, and uphold their case. <sup>36</sup> If they sin against You (for there is no man who sins not) and You are angry with

6:30 Render to every man according to all his ways – This will happen when Christ returns at the final day of judgment (Rev. 22:12). And yet it is said to happen in response to prayer now. When we pray, we come before God's throne; the experience of prayer is therefore a foretaste of the day of judgment. As we feel toward the Lord now when we are in His presence in prayer, so we will then.

6:33 Solomon speaks as if the heavens where God lived were actually the temple; he bid men pray towards the temple where God lived, rather than to God in Heaven. Yet theoretically he recognized the magnitude of God (:18); yet the vastness of God, both in power and spirituality, meant little to him; it failed to humble him as it should have done. It is a feature of human nature to be able to perceive truth and yet act the very opposite. His enthusiasm for his own works lead him to lose a true relationship with God. The idea of salvation by grace became lost on him, loving response to God's forgiveness was not on his agenda, he felt true humility was unnecessary for him, given his certainty that he was King as God intended.

6:35 Uphold their case – The crises encountered by God's people on earth are as it were considered by the court of Heaven, with God acting as both the advocate and judge, upholding their case. But this is if we bring our case before Him in prayer. This is why simply telling God the situation we're in, although He knows it in the sense that He knows all things, is so necessary.

6:36 Solomon is alluding in this verse to God's threatened punishments for Israel if they totally rebelled against Him. But Solomon seems to minimize that sin by describing it as if it's inevitable – "for there is no man who sins not". God set before Israel the blessings for obedience and abiding in the covenant, and the curses for disobedience and breaking covenant with God, which included being scattered amongst the Gentiles and losing their land. And Solomon minimizes such serious rebellion as something ordinary. This minimizing of sin is what led him to spiritual self-destruction.

them, and deliver them to the enemy, so that they carry them away captive to a land far off or near; <sup>37</sup> yet if they shall repent themselves in the land where they are carried captive, and turn again, and make supplication to You in the land of their captivity saying, We have sinned, we have done perversely, and have dealt wickedly; <sup>38</sup> if they return to You with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their captivity to where they have carried them captive, and pray toward their land which You gave to their fathers and to the city which You have chosen, and toward the house which I have built for Your name: <sup>39</sup> then hear from heaven, even from Your dwelling place, their prayer and their petitions, and uphold their case and forgive Your people who have sinned against You. <sup>40</sup> Now, my God, let, I beg You, Your eyes be open, and let Your ears be attentive, to the prayer that is made in this place. <sup>41</sup> Now therefore arise, Yahweh God, into Your resting place, You and the ark of Your strength: let Your priests, Yahweh God, be clothed with salvation, and let Your saints rejoice in goodness. <sup>42</sup> Yahweh God, don't turn away the face of Your anointed. Remember Your graces to David Your servant.

God Accepts the Temple

Now when Solomon had made an end of praying, the fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of Yahweh filled the house. <sup>2</sup> The priests could not enter into the house of Yahweh, because the glory of Yahweh filled Yahweh's house. <sup>3</sup> All the children of Israel looked on, when the fire came down, and the glory of Yahweh was on the house; and they bowed themselves with their faces to the ground on the pavement and worshipped and gave thanks to Yahweh saying, For He is good; for His grace endures for ever. <sup>4</sup> Then the king and all the people offered sacrifice before Yahweh. <sup>5</sup> King Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty-two thousand head of cattle, and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the people dedicated God's house. <sup>6</sup> The priests stood, according to their positions; the Levites also with instruments

7:1 Although God had clearly told David that He didn't want a physical house built for Him, He made a concession to Israel's weakness as He did in allowing them to have a human king – and worked through that concession, that lower level of spiritual life which His people had chosen. Such is His thirst for relationship with us His people. Therefore His glory filled the temple as a sign that despite Solomon's pompous prayer of chapter 6, He was willing to accept that system of temple presence.

7:5 These huge numbers of animal sacrifices weren't really what God was looking for; each animal represented the dedication of one person, and we cannot dedicate other people's devotion; they must themselves offer it. The fact Solomon's animal sacrifices were too many or too large to fit on the altar God had designed and specified the size of (:7) indicates that they weren't what God had intended. See on 5:6.

of music of Yahweh, which David the king had made to give thanks to Yahweh, when David praised by their ministry saying, For His grace endures forever. The priests sounded trumpets before them; and all Israel stood. <sup>7</sup> Moreover Solomon made the middle of the court holy that was before the house of Yahweh; for there he offered the burnt offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the bronze altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt offering, and the meal offering, and the fat. <sup>8</sup> So Solomon held the feast at that time seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great assembly, from the entrance of Hamath to the brook of Egypt. <sup>9</sup> On the eighth day they held a solemn assembly; for they kept the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days. <sup>10</sup> On the twenty-third day of the seventh month he sent the people away to their tents, joyful and glad of heart for the grace that Yahweh had shown to David, and to Solomon, and to Israel His people. <sup>11</sup> Thus Solomon finished the house of Yahweh, and the king's house. He successfully completed all that came into Solomon's heart to make in the house of Yahweh, and in his own house.

God Responds to Solomon's Prayer

<sup>12</sup> Yahweh appeared to Solomon by night and said to him, I have heard your prayer, and have chosen this place to Myself for a house of sacrifice. <sup>13</sup> If I shut up the sky so that there is no rain, or if I command the locust to devour the land, or if I send plague among My people; <sup>14</sup> if My

7:11 The house of Yahweh, and in his own house – Twice in this verse and often elsewhere we see God's house paralleled with Solomon's house. His dedication to God's house wasn't total and undivided.

7:12 <sup>2</sup> God accepted the temple only as a place of sacrifice, i.e. a glorified altar (cp. 2 Sam. 24:17,18). And yet – God didn't really want sacrifice (Ps. 40:6; Heb. 10:5). It was a concession to weakness.

7:14 Solomon in his prayer had said that if Israel sinned and then prayed toward the temple, God would then forgive them. But God corrects this; He wants sinners to pray directly to Him, and He will forgive them – the temple was not to be seen as the instrument or mediatrix of forgiveness which Solomon envisaged. Likewise, Solomon's implication that prayer offered in the temple would be especially acceptable was not upheld by God's reply to him about this (6:24-26 cp. 7:12,13). Again and again we see that God thirsts for direct relationship with Him, rather than via any system of priesthood or human religion, even attending meetings because that's our social club and family background. Solomon says that God will hear the prayers of His people because the temple is called by God's Name; but God's response is that "My people who are called by My name" would pray to Him themselves and be heard, quite apart from the temple (6:33 cp. 7:14). He sees them as bearing His Name rather than the temple building, as Solomon perceived it. God goes on to parallel the temple and His people in :21,22, saying that if He punishes the temple He will punish the people. Solomon seems to have thought that the temple would still stand favourably in God's eyes even people who are called by My name shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land. <sup>15</sup> Now My eyes shall be open and My ears sensitive to the prayer that is made in this place. <sup>16</sup> For now have I chosen and made this house holy, that My name may be there forever; and My eyes and My heart shall be there perpetually. <sup>17</sup> As for you, if you will walk before Me as David your father walked, and do according to all that I have commanded you and will keep My statutes and My ordinances; <sup>18</sup> then I will establish the throne of your kingdom, according as I covenanted with David your father saying, There shall not fail you a man to be ruler in Israel. <sup>19</sup> But if you turn away and forsake My statutes and My commandments which I have set before you, and shall go and serve other gods, and worship them; <sup>20</sup> then I will pluck them up by the roots out of My land which I have given them; and this house, which I have made holy for My name, I will cast out of My sight, and I will make it a proverb and a byword among all peoples. <sup>21</sup> This house, which is so high, everyone who passes by it shall be astonished, and shall say, ‘Why has Yahweh done thus to this land, and to this house?’ <sup>22</sup> They shall answer, ‘Because they abandoned Yahweh, the God of their fathers, who brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, and took other gods, worshipped them, and served them. Therefore He has brought all this evil on them’.

Solomon's Building Projects

It happened at the end of twenty years, in which Solomon had built the house of Yahweh and his own

if the people were punished. The lesson is that it's individual people rather than religious structures, of whatever sort, which God is interested in.

7:16 This is a conditional promise, followed by five verses of conditions concerning Solomon's spirituality which he overlooked. Like Solomon, we too can fix upon promises without considering their conditionality. There is good reason to think that communally and individually we so easily shut our eyes to the possibility of our spiritual failure and disaster, the sense of the future we might miss. God constantly warned Solomon about the conditionality of the promises, before the building started (2 Sam. 7:14), during it (1 Kings 6:11-13) and immediately after completing it (1 Kings 9:2-9).

7:20 God here corrects Solomon's idea that if Israel were dispersed, then the temple would still stand and they could pray to it from their dispersion.

8:1 Solomon had built the house of Yahweh and his own house – Again Solomon's building of God's house is paralleled with building his own house, implying his dedication to God's house wasn't wholehearted, unlike David his father. This chapter goes on to use the word “built” many times. Solomon's building of God's house is set within the context of the way he liked building anyway. At the end of his life, he admits that he went through a phase of being obsessed with building, in some vain search to house, <sup>2</sup> that the cities which Hiram had given to Solomon, Solomon built them, and caused the children of Israel to dwell there. <sup>3</sup> Solomon went to Hamath Zobah, and prevailed against it. <sup>4</sup> He built Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the storage cities which he built in Hamath. <sup>5</sup> Also he built Beth Horon the upper, and Beth Horon the lower, fortified cities, with walls, gates, and bars; <sup>6</sup> and Baalath, and all the storage cities that Solomon had, and all the cities for his chariots, and the cities for his horsemen, and all that Solomon desired to build for his pleasure in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion. <sup>7</sup> As for all the people who were left of the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, who were not of Israel; <sup>8</sup> of their children who were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel didn't consume, of them Solomon conscripted forced labour to this day. <sup>9</sup> But of the children of Israel, Solomon made no servants for his work; but they were men of war, and chief of his captains, and rulers of his chariots and of his horsemen. <sup>10</sup> These were the chief officers of king Solomon, even two-hundred and fifty, who ruled over the people. <sup>11</sup> Solomon brought up the daughter of Pharaoh out of the city of David to the house that he had built for her; for he said, My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, because the places where the ark of Yahweh has come are holy. <sup>12</sup> Then Solomon offered burnt offerings to Yahweh on the altar of Yahweh, which he had built before the porch, <sup>13</sup> even as the duty of every day required, offering according to the commandment of Moses, on the Sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the set feasts, three times in the year, in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tents. <sup>14</sup> He appointed, according to the ordinance of David his father, the divisions of the priests to their service, and the Levites to their offices, to praise, and to minister before the priests, as the duty of every day required; the doorkeepers also by their divisions at every gate; for so had David the man of God find self-fulfilment without God (Ecc. 2:4). In his apparently zealous building of the temple, Solomon was therefore only serving God in ways which he enjoyed, which reinforced his own personality type. Hence :6 speaks of how he "desired to build for his pleasure". On one hand, we must use our God-given talents to serve Him; and yet on the other, we are asked to take up Christ's cross and follow Him, going right against the grain of how we would naturally like to be.

8:6 Solomon had so many horses and chariots that he needed to build cities to store them. This was a specific disobedience to the command that the king of Israel was not to multiply horses to himself (Dt. 17:16). Yet that was the very section of the Law which he had to copy out and remember (Dt. 17:19). He had the ability, like all of us, to know God's requirements and yet do the very opposite. He must've assumed that somehow he was an exception... but if we accept and love God's principles we will not wish to make ourselves any exception to them.

commanded. <sup>15</sup> They didn't depart from the commandment of the king to the priests and Levites concerning any matter, or concerning the treasures. <sup>16</sup> Now all the work of Solomon was prepared to the day of the foundation of the house of Yahweh, and until it was finished. So the house of Yahweh was completed. <sup>17</sup> Then went Solomon to Ezion Geber, and to Eloth, on the seashore in the land of Edom. <sup>18</sup> Hiram sent him ships and servants who had knowledge of the sea by the hands of his servants; and they came with the servants of Solomon to Ophir, and fetched from there four hundred and fifty talents of gold, and brought them to king Solomon.

The Visit of the Queen of Sheba

When the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to Jerusalem to prove Solomon with hard questions, with a very great train, and camels that bore spices, and gold in abundance and precious stones. When she had come to Solomon, she talked with him of all that was in her heart. <sup>2</sup> Solomon told her all her questions; and there was not anything hidden from Solomon which he didn't tell her. <sup>3</sup> When the queen of Sheba had seen the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he had built, <sup>4</sup> and the food of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers and their clothing, his cup bearers also and their clothing, and his ascent by which he went up to the house of Yahweh; there was no more spirit in her. <sup>5</sup> She said to the king, It was a true report that I heard in my own land of your acts and of your wisdom. <sup>6</sup> However I didn't believe their words until I came, and my eyes had seen it; and behold, the half of the greatness of your wisdom wasn't told me: you exceed the fame that I heard. <sup>7</sup> Happy are your men, and happy are these your servants who stand continually before you, and hear your wisdom. <sup>8</sup> Blessed be Yahweh your God, who delighted in you to set you on His throne, to be king for Yahweh your God: because your God loved Israel to establish them forever, therefore He made you

9:5 No more spirit in her— The Hebrew word translated “spirit” has a wide range of meaning. It can refer to the life force within people; or as here, it can refer to the mind.

9:6 People usually need to see intellectual truths lived out in practice before they will really believe them. This is why the Gospel is more powerfully taught by people, rather than through impersonal mediums like the internet or reading books.

9:8 To be king for Yahweh your God – Israel were God's Kingdom on earth, and their kings were reigning on God's behalf. The Kingdom was therefore overturned when the last king of Israel was deposed; but it will be re-established at Christ's return (Ez. 21:25-27; Acts 1:6). The hope of the coming Kingdom of God on earth is therefore the hope of the re-establishment of God's Kingdom which once was upon earth. Again we see that the promised Kingdom will be on earth – this is the Biblical hope, not going to Heaven on death.

king over them, to do justice and righteousness. <sup>9</sup> She gave the king one hundred and twenty talents of gold, and spices in great abundance, and precious stones. Neither was there any such spice as the queen of Sheba gave to king Solomon. <sup>10</sup> The servants also of Hiram, and the servants of Solomon, who brought gold from Ophir, brought algum trees and precious stones. <sup>11</sup> The king made of the algum trees terraces for the house of Yahweh and for the king's house, and harps and stringed instruments for the singers. There were none like these seen before in the land of Judah. <sup>12</sup> King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatever she asked, besides that which she had brought to the king. So she returned to her own land, she and her servants.

Solomon's Wealth

six hundred and sixty-six talents of gold, <sup>14</sup> besides that which the traders and merchants brought. All the kings of Arabia and the governors of the country brought gold and silver to Solomon. <sup>15</sup> King Solomon made two hundred large shields of beaten gold; six hundred shekels of beaten gold went to one large shield. <sup>16</sup> He made three hundred other shields of beaten gold; three hundred shekels of gold went to one shield: and the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon. <sup>17</sup> Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with pure gold. <sup>18</sup> And there were six steps to the throne, with a footstool of gold, which were fastened to the throne, and stays on either side by the place of the seat, and two lions standing beside the stays. <sup>19</sup> Twelve lions stood there on both sides of the six steps: there was nothing like it made in any kingdom. <sup>20</sup> All king Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels

9:13 The reference to 666 cannot be coincidental; this is the number of a man who is the epitome of "the beast" (Rev. 13:18). There are many other similarities between the descriptions of the beast's kingdom and that of Solomon's kingdom. And yet his kingdom was clearly a type of Christ's kingdom. We see in this the terrible duality possible within human beings; and we see how what may appear very spiritual and wonderful on the surface can in fact be very sinful. This is true of both individuals and communities.

9:19 Solomon came to see his throne as the throne of God; he seemed to think that the promise to David that Messiah would sit on his throne could be fulfilled if he built the most amazing throne ever seen in the world. He made 12 lions to stand on either side of his throne, perhaps in imitation of how the Angels were perceived to be on either side of God's throne (1 Kings 22:19). He was indeed sitting on the throne of the Lord as king over Israel, but in the sense that he was reigning on God's behalf; for God was Israel's true king. Solomon seems to have thought that he himself was some kind of God over Israel. And the lesson for us is to perceive ourselves as God's servants and representatives, but not to take this to the extent that we think that all of our actions are thereby justified as somehow Divinely sanctioned. The end result was that Solo-of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold. Silver was nothing accounted of in the days of Solomon. <sup>21</sup> For the king had ships that went to Tarshish with the servants of Hiram; once every three years came the ships of Tarshish, bringing gold, silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks. <sup>22</sup> So king Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom. <sup>23</sup> All the kings of the earth sought the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart. <sup>24</sup> They brought each man his tribute, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and clothing, armour, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year. <sup>25</sup> Solomon had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen that he stationed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem. <sup>26</sup> He ruled over all the kings from the River even to the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt. <sup>27</sup> The king made silver to be in Jerusalem as stones, and he made cedars to be as the sycamore trees that are in the lowland, for abundance. <sup>28</sup> They brought horses for Solomon out of Egypt, and out of all lands. <sup>29</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, first and last, aren't they written in the history of Nathan the prophet, and in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Iddo the seer concerning Jeroboam the son of Nebat? <sup>30</sup> Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel forty years. <sup>31</sup> Solomon slept with his fathers, and he was buried in the city of David his father. Rehoboam his son reigned in his place.

The Division of the Kingdom

Rehoboam went to Shechem; for all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king. <sup>2</sup> When Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard of it (for he was in Egypt, where he had fled from the presence of king Solomon), then Jeroboam returned out of Egypt. <sup>3</sup> They sent and called him; and Jeroboam and all Israel came, and they spoke to Rehoboam saying, <sup>4</sup> Your father made our yoke grievous. Now therefore make lighter the grievous mon lost sight of the future Kingdom – and we too will likewise lose our way if we de facto consider our little kingdoms to effectively be God's Kingdom.

9:23 Solomon had God's wisdom throughout his apostasy (Ecc. 2:9), as the Truth ever remains with us in intellectual terms. God put that wisdom in his heart in order for him to help others, both in Israel and in the world; yet Solomon failed to realize that he needed to apply it to himself. The more truth passes through our lips to others, the stronger we are tempted to not apply it to ourselves personally.

10:4 The temple project became an obsession with Solomon; after his death, his people complained at the "grievous service" which Solomon had subjected them to. But the Hebrew word translated "service" is that repeatedly used to describe the "service" of the temple by the people (1 Chron. 25:6; 26:8,30; 27:26; 28:13-15,20,21; 29:7; 2 Chron. 8:14). Solomon became obsessed with making others 'serve God' when it was effectively serving him; he came to be abusive to God's people, when the initial idea of the temple was that it was to be built in order to help God's people serve Him. And service of your father, and his heavy yoke which he put on us, and we will serve you. <sup>5</sup> He said to them, Come again to me after three days. The people departed. <sup>6</sup> King Rehoboam took counsel with the old men who had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, What advice do you give me to return answer to this people? <sup>7</sup> They spoke to him saying, ‘If you are kind to this people, and please them, and speak good words to them, then they will be your servants forever’. <sup>8</sup> But he forsook the counsel of the old men which they had given him, and took counsel with the young men who had grown up with him, who stood before him. <sup>9</sup> He said to them, What advice do you give, that we may return answer to this people who have spoken to me saying, ‘Make the yoke that your father put on us lighter?’ <sup>10</sup> The young men who had grown up with him spoke to him saying, Thus you shall tell the people who spoke to you saying, Your father made our yoke heavy, but make it lighter on us; thus you shall say to them, My little finger is thicker than my father’s waist. <sup>11</sup> Now whereas my father burdened you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke. My father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions. <sup>12</sup> So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king asked, saying, Come to me again the third day. <sup>13</sup> The king answered them roughly; and king Rehoboam forsook the advice of the old men, <sup>14</sup> and spoke to them after the advice of the young men saying, My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to it. My father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions. <sup>15</sup> So the king didn’t listen to the people; for it was brought about of God, that Yahweh might establish His word, which He spoke by Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat. <sup>16</sup> When all Israel saw that the king didn’t listen to them, the people answered the king saying, What portion have we in David? Neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse! Every man to your tents, Israel! Now see to your own house, David. So all Israel departed to their tents. <sup>17</sup> But as for the such obsession, turning well motivated projects into means of personal ego tripping, with all the resultant abuse, has sadly damaged so many within the body of Christ. Jesus invited people who were heavily burdened under a hard yoke to come to Him and have that yoke made lighter (Mt. 11:29,30). He was clearly alluding to this incident, where heavily burdened people ‘came’ seeking a lighter yoke.

10:10 Younger people are often harsher than older ones, and therefore make good soldiers in wars of aggression, both literal and figurative. As we grow older we ought to become softer and the more influenced by God’s grace, rather than growing hard and gnarled as some do.

10:15 It was brought about of God – Rehoboam’s response to the people seems obviously wrong and unwise. Yet this error of judgment was worked through by God to fulfil His prophetic word. Whilst we have freewill, God confirms us in the attitudes and choices which we make.

children of Israel who lived in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them. <sup>18</sup> Then king Rehoboam sent Hadoram, who was over the men subject to forced labour; and the children of Israel stoned him to death with stones. King Rehoboam made speed to get himself up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem. <sup>19</sup> So Israel rebelled against the house of David to this day.

Rehoboam Begins Well

When Rehoboam had come to Jerusalem, he assembled the house of Judah and Benjamin, one hundred and eighty thousand chosen men who were warriors, to fight against Israel, to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam. <sup>2</sup> But the word of Yahweh came to Shemaiah the man of God saying, <sup>3</sup> Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin saying, <sup>4</sup> Thus says Yahweh, ‘You shall not go up nor fight against your brothers! Return every man to his house; for this thing is of Me’. So they listened to the words

11:4 So they listened to the words of Yahweh – This is very commendable. When we’ve prepared to do something on a major scale, turning back from the project because we perceive God’s word to teach otherwise is a hard thing to do. But this must be the power of God’s word in our lives. Any war of aggression against our brethren just has to be wrong; and we as the Israel of God should bear this always in mind regardless of what provocation we receive from our brethren.

11:14 Despite Jeroboam being so apostate from the true God, the ten tribes are still called the “brothers” of Judah (:4). No matter how far some go from the Lord or His truth, once a brother always a brother. Once a person is within the family of God through baptism into Christ, it is not for us to ever say in this life that they are no longer in that family.

11:16 In times when the children of God turn away from Him, the faithful minority will go to great lengths to meet with others who are still faithful; and it may even to Yahweh, the God of their fathers. <sup>17</sup> So they strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and made Rehoboam the son of Solomon strong, three years; for they walked three years in the way of David and Solomon. <sup>18</sup> Rehoboam took him a wife, Mahalath the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David and of Abihail the daughter of Eliab the son of Jesse. <sup>19</sup> She bore him sons: Jeush, and Shemariah, and Zaham. <sup>20</sup> After her he took Maacah the daughter of Absalom. She bore him Abijah, Attai, Ziza and Shelomith. <sup>21</sup> Rehoboam loved Maacah the daughter of Absalom above all his wives and his concubines. (He took eighteen wives, and sixty concubines, and became the father of twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters.) <sup>22</sup> Rehoboam appointed Abijah the son of Maacah to be chief, the prince among his brothers; for he intended to make him king. <sup>23</sup> He dealt wisely, and settled some of his sons throughout all the lands of Judah and Benjamin, to every fortified city: and he gave them food in abundance. He sought for them many wives.

The Invasion of Shishak

When the kingdom of Rehoboam was established and he had made himself strong, he forsook the law of Yahweh, and all Israel with him. <sup>2</sup> It happened in the fifth year of king Rehoboam, that Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, because they had trespassed against Yahweh, <sup>3</sup> with twelve hundred chariots and sixty thousand horsemen. The people were without number who came with him out of Egypt: the Lubim, the Sukkiim and the Ethiopians. <sup>4</sup> He took the fortified cities which pertained to Judah and came to Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup> Now Shemaiah the prophet came to Rehoboam and to the princes of Judah, who were gathered together to Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said to them, Thus require our geographical relocation, with all the economic costs associated with that (:13).

11:18 This implies that David married his own niece. There were many anomalies in David's life, especially in his personal relationships; and yet God accepted him and spoke so highly of him. This isn't to justify any sin or complacent attitude in ourselves personally; but to encourage us in the hard work of being patiently acceptive of those who have similar anomalies in their lives.

11:21 Eighteen wives, and sixty concubines – The weakness of Solomon his father was repeated in Solomon's son. Justifying sin and worldly behaviour inevitably influences our children to think such behaviour is acceptable. And in their turn, Solomon's son sought to lead his children into failure in this area of polygamy (:23).

12:1 Made himself strong – The Hebrew word translated “strong” is hezek. Good king Hezekiah had the same word within his name, but with ‘Yah’ added on the end – ‘the one made strong by Yah’. Human strength and prowess is the very opposite to God's strength. We wonder why we don't always have all we want – wealth, health, acceptance, good relationships, praise of men, nice homes and vehicles... but it's not surprising really, because human strength nearly always leads us away from God.

says Yahweh, You have forsaken Me, therefore have I also left you in the hand of Shishak. <sup>6</sup> Then the princes of Israel and the king humbled themselves; and they said, Yahweh is righteous. <sup>7</sup> When Yahweh saw that they humbled themselves, the word of Yahweh came to Shemaiah, saying, They have humbled themselves. I will not destroy them; but I will grant them some deliverance. My wrath shall not be poured out on Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak. <sup>8</sup> Nevertheless they shall be his servants, that they may know My service, and the service of the kingdoms of the countries. <sup>9</sup> So Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took away the treasures of the house of Yahweh, and the treasures of the king's house. He took it all away. He also took away the shields of gold which Solomon had made. <sup>10</sup> King Rehoboam made in their place shields of brass, and committed them to the hands of the captains of the guard who kept the door of the king's house. <sup>11</sup> It was so, that as often as the king entered into the house of Yahweh, the guard came and carried them back into the guard room. <sup>12</sup> When he humbled himself, the wrath of Yahweh turned from him, so as not to destroy him altogether. Moreover, in Judah there were good things found. <sup>13</sup> So king Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem, and reigned. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which Yahweh had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put His name there. His mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess. <sup>14</sup> He did that which was evil, because he didn't set his heart to seek Yahweh. <sup>15</sup> Now the acts of Rehoboam, first and last, aren't they written in the histories of Shemaiah the prophet and of Iddo the seer, after the way of genealogies? There were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually. <sup>16</sup> Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David; and Abijah his son reigned in his place.

Abijah's Reign

In the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam began Abijah to reign over Judah. <sup>2</sup> He reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Micaiah the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah. There was war between Abijah and Jeroboam. <sup>3</sup> Abijah joined battle with an army of valiant men of war, even four hundred thousand chosen men. Jeroboam set the battle in array against him with eight hundred thousand chosen men, who were mighty men of valour. <sup>4</sup> Abijah stood up on Mount Zemaraim, which is in the hill country of Ephraim, and said, Hear me, Jeroboam and all Israel. <sup>5</sup> Ought you not to know that Yahweh, the God of Israel, gave the kingdom over Israel to David forever, even to him and to his sons by a covenant of salt? <sup>6</sup> Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon the son of David, rose up, and rebelled against his lord. <sup>7</sup> There were gathered to him vain men, base fellows, who strengthened themselves against Rehoboam the son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was young and tenderhearted, and could not withstand them. <sup>8</sup> Now you think to withstand the kingdom of Yahweh in the hand of the sons of David. You are a great multitude, and there are with you the golden calves which Jeroboam made you for gods. <sup>9</sup> Haven't you driven out the priests of Yahweh, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and made priests for yourselves after the ways of the peoples of other lands? So that whoever comes to consecrate himself with a young bull and seven rams, the same may be a priest of those who are not gods. <sup>10</sup> But as for us, Yahweh is our God, and we have not forsaken Him. We have priests ministering to Yahweh, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites in their work: <sup>11</sup> and they burn to Yahweh every morning and every evening burnt offerings and sweet incense. They also set the showbread in order on the pure table; and the lampstand of gold with its lamps, to burn every evening. We keep the instruction of Yahweh our God; but you have forsaken Him. <sup>12</sup> Behold, God is with us at our head, and His priests with the trumpets of alarm to sound an alarm against you. Children of Israel, don't fight against Yahweh, the God of your fathers; for you shall not prosper. <sup>13</sup> But Jeroboam caused an ambush to come about behind them:

12:6 Yahweh is righteous – Repentance involves not only a recognition of our wrongness, but of God's rightness. See on 6:24.

12:8 They shall be his servants, that they may know My service – Sometimes God teaches us how to relate to Him by putting us in situations where we simply have to be obedient to some human entity or person. In this way we can serve our worldly masters in our employment as if we are serving Christ (Col. 3:22-24; it seems Paul there is alluding to the LXX here).

This was an exaggeration, because he was 41 when he became king (12:13). We can so easily justify the sins and weakness of others whom we perceive as being 'on our side', trying to reduce everything to a simplistic black and white view of the world, whereby people are either wonderfully good or totally bad (:11). Reality is far different – we only have to realistically analyze our own lives and personalities.

13:12 Don't fight against Yahweh – It seems Abijah was assuming that he was as it were in the place of God. He had picked a fight with Jeroboam (:3), but then realized he was outnumbered and wanted a way out – and so he starts claiming how righteous Judah are (:10-12) even though they were rebellious against God from the day He knew them (Is. 65:2; Ez. 16:20) and were worshipping idols (14:3). He also starts playing God, by assuming that his enemy is God's enemy. Therefore God brought Judah's strong men into a situation where they were about to be destroyed, and had to throw themselves upon His grace (:14).

13:13 This was exactly the situation which the Gentile people of Ai were in as described in Josh. 8:21,22. They were caught in an ambush and hemmed in on all sides. Judah who thought they were so superior spiritually were being taught they were no better than Gentiles who had to be cast out by God.

so they were before Judah, and the ambush was behind them. <sup>14</sup> When Judah looked back, behold, the battle was before and behind them; and they cried to Yahweh, and the priests sounded with the trumpets. <sup>15</sup> Then the men of Judah gave a shout; and as the men of Judah shouted, it happened, that God struck Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah. <sup>16</sup> The children of Israel fled before Judah; and God delivered them into their hand. <sup>17</sup> Abijah and his people killed them with a great slaughter; so there fell down slain of Israel five hundred thousand chosen men. <sup>18</sup> Thus the children of Israel were overcome at that time, and the children of Judah prevailed, because they relied on Yahweh, the God of their fathers. <sup>19</sup> Abijah pursued after Jeroboam, and took cities from him: Bethel with its suburbs, Jeshanah with its suburbs and Ephron with its suburbs. <sup>20</sup> Jeroboam didn't recover strength again in the days of Abijah. Yahweh struck him, and he died. <sup>21</sup> But Abijah grew mighty, and took to himself fourteen wives, and became the father of twenty-two sons, and sixteen daughters. <sup>22</sup> The rest of the acts of Abijah, and his ways and his sayings, are written in the commentary of the prophet Iddo.

King Asa Begins Well

So Abijah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of

David; and Asa his son reigned in his place. In his days the land was quiet ten years. <sup>2</sup> Asa did that which was good and right in the eyes of Yahweh his God. <sup>3</sup> He took away the foreign altars, and the high places, and broke down the pillars, and cut down the Asherim, <sup>4</sup> and commanded Judah to seek Yahweh, the God of their fathers, and to obey the law and the commandment. <sup>5</sup> Also he took away out of all the cities of Judah the high places and the sun images. The kingdom was quiet before him. <sup>6</sup> He built fortified cities in Judah; for the land was quiet, and he had no war in those years, because Yahweh had given him rest. <sup>7</sup> For he said to Judah, Let us build these cities, and make walls around them, with towers, gates, and bars. The land is yet before us, because we have sought Yahweh our God. We have sought Him, and He has given us rest on every side. So they built and prospered. <sup>8</sup> Asa had an army that carried shields and spears: out of Judah three hundred thousand; and out of Benjamin, that bore shields and drew bows, two hundred and eighty thousand. All these were mighty men of valour. <sup>9</sup> There came out against them Zerah the Ethiopian with an army of a million troops, and three hundred chariots; and he came to Mareshah. <sup>10</sup> Then Asa went out to meet him, and they set the battle in array in the valley of Zephathah at Mareshah. <sup>11</sup> Asa cried to Yahweh his God and said, Yahweh, there

14:11 Him who has no strength – All Asa's human strength he considered as non-is none apart from You to help, between the mighty and him who has no strength. Help us, Yahweh our God; for we rely on You, and in Your name are we come against this multitude. Yahweh, You are our God. Don't let man prevail against You. <sup>12</sup> So Yahweh struck the Ethiopians before Asa and before Judah; and the Ethiopians fled. <sup>13</sup> Asa and the people who were with him pursued them to Gerar. There fell of the Ethiopians so many that they could not recover themselves; for they were destroyed before Yahweh and before His army; and they carried away very much booty. <sup>14</sup> They struck all the cities around Gerar; for the fear of Yahweh came on them. They despoiled all the cities; for there was much spoil in them. <sup>15</sup> They struck also the tents of the herdsmen, and carried away sheep in abundance, and camels, and returned to Jerusalem.

Asa's Dedication to God

The Spirit of God came on Azariah the son of Oded: <sup>2</sup> and he went out to meet Asa and said to him, Hear me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin! Yahweh is with you, while you are with Him; and if you seek Him, He will be found by you; but if you forsake Him, He will forsake you. <sup>3</sup> Now for a long time Israel was without the true God, and without a teaching priest, and without law. <sup>4</sup> But when in their distress they turned to Yahweh the God of Israel and sought Him, He was found by them. <sup>5</sup> In those times there was no peace to him who went out, nor to him who came in; but great troubles were on all the inhabitants of the lands. <sup>6</sup> They were broken in pieces, nation against nation, and city against city; for God troubled them with all adversity. <sup>7</sup> But you be strong, and don't let your hands be slack; for your work shall be rewarded. <sup>8</sup> When Asa heard these words, and the prophecy of Oded the prophet, he took courage, and put away the abominations out of all the land of Judah and Benjamin, and out of the cities which he had taken from the hill country of Ephraim; and he renewed the altar of Yahweh that was before the porch of Yahweh. <sup>9</sup> He gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and those who lived with them out of Ephraim and Manasseh, existent. He had learnt the lesson of 12:3 [see note there]; that the only strength is in God. God brought Asa to this realization by putting him in a situation where he was hopelessly outnumbered, just as He tried to teach Abijah in 13:12. We see God working to a pattern in these men's lives, just as He does with us. He puts us in situations which are quite beyond our own strength – and then makes a way of escape (1 Cor. 10:13; 2 Cor. 1:8; 8:3). This not only strengthens our faith for the next crisis we face, but awes us into an appropriate humility.

15:8 And put away the abominations out of all the land of Judah – But 14:3 says that Asa did this at the start of his reign. Whenever we root out weakness from our lives, it tends to return. The records of Judah's kings are full of such accounts of purging out the idols – and then we read the same again soon afterwards. The tendency to idol worship was and is very strong.

and out of Simeon; for they fell to him out of Israel in abundance, when they saw that Yahweh his God was with him. <sup>10</sup> So they gathered themselves together at Jerusalem in the third month, in the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa. <sup>11</sup> They sacrificed to Yahweh in that day, of the spoil which they had brought, seven hundred head of cattle and seven thousand sheep. <sup>12</sup> They entered into the covenant to seek Yahweh the God of their fathers, with all their heart and with all their soul; <sup>13</sup> and that whoever would not seek Yahweh the God of Israel, should be put to death, whether small or great, whether man or woman. <sup>14</sup> They swore to Yahweh with a loud voice, and with shouting, trumpets and cornets. <sup>15</sup> All Judah rejoiced at the oath; for they had sworn with all their heart, and sought Him with their whole desire; and He was found of them: and Yahweh gave them rest all around. <sup>16</sup> Also Maacah, the mother of Asa the king, he removed from being queen, because she had made an abominable image for an Asherah. Asa cut down her image, and made dust of it, and burnt it at the brook Kidron. <sup>17</sup> But the high places were not taken away out of Israel. Nevertheless the heart of Asa was perfect all his days. <sup>18</sup> He brought into God's house the things that his father had dedicated, and that he himself had dedicated, silver, and gold, and vessels. <sup>19</sup> There was no more war until the thirty-fifth year of the reign of Asa.

Asa Falls Away from God

In the thirty sixth year of the reign of Asa, Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah, and built Ramah, that he might not allow anyone to go out or come in to Asa king of Judah. <sup>2</sup> Then Asa brought out silver and gold out of the treasures of the house of Yahweh and of the king's house, and sent to Ben Hadad king of Syria,

15:9 The faithful in the 10 tribes relocated to be near the believers in Judah. We should make every effort to fellowship with other believers, even if it may mean relocating.

15:15 All Judah rejoiced at the oath – Joy comes from full dedication to God; indeed true joy can come from nothing else.

Sought Him... and He was found – Christ's invitation to seek knowing that we shall find is in the context of His teaching that whatever we ask for in prayer will be given; if we knock, the door will be opened (Mt. 7:7; Lk. 11:9). However, this isn't a blank cheque offer to give us whatever we wish; rather is it teaching that if we pray to find God, if we really seek relationship with Him – we will find it, and thereby all other requests and needs in our lives will appear far less significant.

16:2 By giving the wealth of the temple to Ben Hadad, Asa was acting as if it was his personal wealth, to spend as he wished. But those things had been given or dedicated to God; if you give somebody something, it's theirs and no longer yours. Although God was invisible to Asa, it's as if He was sitting there in that temple with His silver and gold – which had been given to Him in thanks for what He had done for His people. And then Asa walks up to God and takes that silver and gold right from His presence and gives it to a pagan idolater whom he considers a better defence against who lived at Damascus saying, <sup>3</sup> Let there be a covenant between me and you, as there was between my father and your father. Behold, I have sent you silver and gold. Go, break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me. <sup>4</sup> Ben Hadad listened to king Asa, and sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel; and they struck Ijon, and Dan, and Abel Maim, and all the storage cities of Naphtali. <sup>5</sup> It happened, when Baasha heard of it, that he left off building Ramah, and let his work cease. <sup>6</sup> Then Asa the king took all Judah; and they carried away the stones of Ramah, and its timber, with which Baasha had built; and he built therewith Geba and Mizpah.

<sup>7</sup> At that time Hanani the seer of visions came to Asa king of Judah and said to him, Because you have relied on the king of Syria, and have not relied on Yahweh your God, therefore is the army of the king of Syria escaped out of your hand. <sup>8</sup> Weren't the Ethiopians and the Lubim a huge army, with exceeding many chariots and horsemen? Yet, because you relied on Yahweh, He delivered them into your hand. <sup>9</sup> For the eyes of Yahweh run back and forth throughout the whole earth, to show Himself strong in the behalf of them whose heart is perfect toward Him. Herein you have done foolishly; for from henceforth you shall have wars. <sup>10</sup> Then Asa was angry with the seer enemies than God. The more we sense the presence of God, the more we perceive His total ownership. What we dedicate to God is His, it's not for us to 'play God' by then taking it back and acting as if it's ours. And we are asked to dedicate our whole lives to God.

16:3 Let there be a covenant – Asa's covenant or treaty with Yahweh in 15:12,13 demanded total dedication to Him; he should therefore have trusted in Yahweh rather than now making another covenant with a pagan king. Covenant relationship with God is all demanding, as Asa had said at the time; we can't be in covenant with more than one God.

16:8 God gave Asa a test of faith when He sent a huge army against him earlier; and Asa passed the test. But like any good teacher, God repeats the circumstances in our lives; and sometimes like Asa we may do well in one test, but fail when it is repeated. God gave Asa more such wars (:9) – not simply as a punishment, but so he would learn the lesson of trusting in God and not men against our enemies.

16:9 These "eyes of Yahweh" refer to the Angels. If we ask how, mechanically, as it were, God sees and knows all things, the answer is perhaps 'Through His Angels'. Their activity is amazing; because their work is invisible to us, we may get the impression at times that God is somehow silent and inactive. But the colossal network of Angelic work on earth is constantly humming with activity – for our sakes (Heb. 1:14).

16:10 Asa oppressed some of the people at the same time – In our deepest conscience, we know when we sin; even if we don't consciously recognize every sin. We also realize that sin must be punished. When we sin but don't confess that sin, or if we refuse to accept the punishment for sin, we have a tendency to subconsciously transfer that sin onto others and punish them for it. This is why religious people can be capable of the greatest hypocrisies and inconsistencies, punishing others for the very sins which of visions, and put him in the prison; for he was in a rage with him because of this thing. Asa oppressed some of the people at the same time. <sup>11</sup> Behold, the acts of Asa, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. <sup>12</sup> In the thirty-ninth year of his reign, Asa was diseased in his feet. His disease was exceeding great; yet in his disease he didn't turn to Yahweh, but to the physicians. <sup>13</sup> Asa slept with his fathers, and died in the forty-first year of his reign. <sup>14</sup> They buried him in his own tombs, which he had dug out for himself in the city of David, and laid him in the bed which was filled with sweet odours and various kinds of spices prepared by the perfumer's art; and they made a very great burning for him.

Jehoshaphat Strengthens Judah Spiritually

Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his place, and strengthened himself against Israel. <sup>2</sup> He placed forces in all the fortified cities of Judah, and set garrisons in the land of Judah, and in the cities of Ephraim which Asa his father had taken. <sup>3</sup> Yahweh was with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the first ways of his father David, and didn't seek the Baals, <sup>4</sup> but sought to the God of his father, and walked in His commandments and not after the doings of Israel. <sup>5</sup> Therefore Yahweh established the kingdom in his hand. All Judah brought to Jehoshaphat tribute; and he had riches and honour in abundance. <sup>6</sup> His heart was lifted up in the ways of Yahweh. Furthermore, he removed the high places and the Asherim out of Judah. <sup>7</sup> Also in the third year of his reign he sent his princes, even Ben Hail, Obadiah, Zechariah, Nethanel and Micaiah, to teach in the cities of Judah; <sup>8</sup> and with them the Levites, even Shemaiah, Nethaniah, Zebadiah, Asahel, Shemiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonijah, Tobijah and Tobadonijah the Levites; and with them Elishama and Jehoram, the priests. <sup>9</sup> They taught in Judah, having the book of the law of Yahweh with them. They went about throughout all the cities of Judah, and taught among the people. <sup>10</sup> The fear of Yahweh fell on all the kingdoms of the lands that were around Judah, so that they made no war against Jehoshaphat. <sup>11</sup> Some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat presents, and silver for tribute. The Arabians also brought him flocks, seven thousand seven hundred rams, and seven thousand seven hundred male goats. <sup>12</sup> Jehoshaphat grew great exceedingly; and he built in Judah fortified and store cities. <sup>13</sup> He had many works in the cities of Judah; and men of war, mighty men of valour, in Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup> This was the numbering of them they commit, or falsely accusing others of committing the sins they commit and then eagerly punishing them for them. Asa's bad conscience at this time is reflected in how he treated others.

17:3 In the first ways of his father David – Does this imply that David became less spiritually committed as he got older?

according to their fathers' houses. Of Judah, the captains of thousands: Adnah the captain, and with him mighty men of valour three hundred thousand; <sup>15</sup> and next to him Jehohanan the captain, and with him two hundred and eighty thousand; <sup>16</sup> and next to him Amasiah the son of Zichri, who willingly offered himself to Yahweh; and with him two hundred thousand mighty men of valour. <sup>17</sup> Of Benjamin: Eliada a mighty man of valour, and with him two hundred thousand armed with bow and shield; <sup>18</sup> and next to him Jehozabad; and with him one hundred and eighty thousand prepared for war. <sup>19</sup> These were those who waited on the king, besides those whom the king put in the fortified cities throughout all Judah.

Jehoshaphat Makes a Wrong Alliance with Ahab

Now Jehoshaphat had riches and honour in abundance; and he joined affinity with Ahab. <sup>2</sup> After certain years he went down to Ahab to Samaria. Ahab killed sheep and cattle for him in abundance, and for the people who were with him, and moved him to go up with him to Ramoth Gilead. <sup>3</sup> Ahab king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat king of Judah, Will you go with me to Ramoth Gilead? He answered him, I am as you are, and my people as your people. We will be with you in the war. <sup>4</sup> Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, Please inquire first for the word of Yahweh. <sup>5</sup> Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, four hundred men, and said to them, Shall we go to Ramoth Gilead to battle, or shall I desist? They said, Go up; for God will deliver it into the hand of the king. <sup>6</sup> But Jehoshaphat said, Isn't there here a prophet of Yahweh besides, that we may inquire of him? <sup>7</sup> The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man by whom we may inquire of Yahweh; but I hate him, for he never prophesies good concerning me, but always evil. He is Micaiah the son of Imla. Jehoshaphat said, Don't let the king say so. <sup>8</sup> Then the king of Israel called an officer and said, Get Micaiah the son of Imla quickly. <sup>9</sup> Now the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah sat each on his throne, arrayed in their robes. They were sitting in an open place at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets were prophesying before them. <sup>10</sup> Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made him horns of iron and said, Thus says Yahweh, 'With these you shall push the Syrians,

18:1 This chapter shows how Jehoshaphat was wrong to make this alliance with Ahab; our covenant with Yahweh precludes any other covenant. Ahab was one of God's people, but clearly his faith in Yahweh was weak and he had surrounded himself with false prophets who claimed that whatever Ahab wanted to be true was in fact the word of Yahweh (:4-7). Even within those who are externally the children of God, we must be careful whom we choose to closely associate with; for not all are seriously interested in following God's word.

until they are consumed'. <sup>11</sup> All the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth Gilead, and prosper; for Yahweh will deliver it into the hand of the king. <sup>12</sup> The messenger who went to call Micaiah spoke to him saying, Behold, the words of the prophets declare good to the king with one mouth. Let your word therefore, please be like one of theirs, and speak good. <sup>13</sup> Micaiah said, As Yahweh lives, what my God says, that will I speak. <sup>14</sup> When he had come to the king, the king said to him, Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth Gilead to battle, or shall I desist? He said, Go up, and prosper. They shall be delivered into your hand. <sup>15</sup> The king said to him, How many times shall I adjure you that you speak to me nothing but the truth in the name of Yahweh? <sup>16</sup> He said, I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd. Yahweh said, These have no master. Let them return every man to his house in peace. <sup>17</sup> The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Didn't I tell you that he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil?

Micaiah's Vision of Angels

18:14 Considering Micaiah had already seen the vision of :18-21, this was a significant failure of his. In some contexts, we all have a tendency to quickly perceive and then say what we think the other person wants us to say. The fact we know God's word means that we are now bound not to do that, but to speak according to how His word has influenced us.

18:18-21 We have here a unique insight into how the court of Heaven operates. God states His plan, but the Angels discuss how they will operationalize it. The "spirit" in :20 refers to an Angel – for God makes His Angels spirits (Ps. 104:4). One Angel had the idea that Ahab's false prophets could be moved to prophesy to him a false prophesy about going to Ramoth Gilead, where he would die. God liked that idea, perhaps because it was an appropriate way to punish Ahab for his rejection of the true prophets. That Angel was empowered to bring that about, and went out from the court of Heaven to do it. God confirms people in the way they wish to go, and He can do this through leading them into mindsets and theological understandings which are false (2 Thess. 2:11). The amazing thing is that God is holding case conferences about us in Heaven, with Angels discussing how best to bring about God's will in our lives.

cheek, and said, Which way did the spirit of Yahweh go from me to speak to you? <sup>24</sup> Micaiah said, Behold, you shall see on that day, when you shall go into an inner room to hide yourself. <sup>25</sup> The king of Israel said, Take Micaiah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son. <sup>26</sup> Say, 'Thus says the king, Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I return in peace'. <sup>27</sup> Micaiah said, If you return at all in peace, Yahweh has not spoken by me. He said, Listen, you peoples, all of you!

The Battle at Ramoth Gilead

<sup>28</sup> So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead. <sup>29</sup> The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself, and go into the battle; but you put on your robes. So the king of Israel disguised himself; and they went into the battle. <sup>30</sup> Now the king of Syria had commanded the captains of his chariots saying, Fight neither with small nor great, except only with the king of Israel. <sup>31</sup> It happened that when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, they said, It is the king of Israel! Therefore they turned around to fight against him. But Jehoshaphat cried out, and Yahweh helped him; and God moved them to depart from him. <sup>32</sup> It happened, when the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him. <sup>33</sup> A certain man drew his bow at random, and struck the king of Israel between the joints of the armour. Therefore he said to the driver of the chariot, Turn your hand, and carry me out of the army; for I am severely wounded. <sup>34</sup> The battle increased that day. However the king of Israel propped himself up in his chariot against the Syrians until the evening. About the time of the going down of the sun, he died.

Jehoshaphat Reforms Judah

Jehoshaphat the king of Judah returned to his house in peace to Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup> Jehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him, and said to king Jehoshaphat, Should you help the wicked, and love those who hate Yahweh? Because of this, wrath is on you from before Yahweh. <sup>3</sup> Nevertheless there are good things found in you, in that you have put away Asheroth out of the land, and

19:2 Love those who hate Yahweh – We can imagine how Jehoshaphat would've justified the alliance he made with Ahab in 18:1,2 – 'We both serve the same God... believe more or less the same things... face a common enemy...'. But God's wrath was upon Jehoshaphat for saying this. Ahab's refusal to hear Yahweh's word in 18:4-17 was counted as hating Yahweh.

19:3 Nevertheless – God didn't reject Jehoshaphat because of his failure in one area in one period of life; He saw the bigger picture. When one aspect of another believer's failure is extremely difficult for us to tolerate, we too need to see this bigger picture and think of the other areas of their lives where they are spiritual.

have set your heart to seek God. <sup>4</sup> Jehoshaphat lived at Jerusalem. He went out again among the people from Beersheba to the hill country of Ephraim, and brought them back to Yahweh, the God of their fathers. <sup>5</sup> He set judges in the land throughout all the fortified cities of Judah, city by city, <sup>6</sup> and said to the judges, Consider what you do. You don't judge for man, but for Yahweh; and He is with you in the judgment. <sup>7</sup> Now therefore let the fear of Yahweh be upon you. Be careful and do so; for there is no iniquity with Yahweh our God, nor respect of persons, nor taking of bribes. <sup>8</sup> Moreover in Jerusalem Jehoshaphat appointed Levites and priests, and of the heads of the fathers' households of Israel, for the judgment of Yahweh, and for controversies. They returned to Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup> He commanded them saying, Thus you shall do in the fear of Yahweh, faithfully, and with a perfect heart. <sup>10</sup> Whenever any controversy shall come to you from your brothers who dwell in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandment, statutes and ordinances, you shall warn them, that they not be guilty towards Yahweh, and so wrath come on you and on your brothers. Do this, and you shall not be guilty. <sup>11</sup> Behold, Amariah the chief priest is over you in all matters of Yahweh; and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the ruler of the house of Judah, in all the king's matters. The Levites shall be officers before you. Deal courageously, and may Yahweh be with the good.

Jehoshaphat Prays to God for Deliverance

It happened after this that the children of Moab, and the children of Ammon, and with them some of the other Ammonites, came against Jehoshaphat to battle. <sup>2</sup> Then some came who told Jehoshaphat saying, A great multitude is coming against you from beyond the sea from Syria. Behold, they are in Hazazon Tamar (that is, En Gedi). <sup>3</sup> Jehoshaphat was alarmed, and set himself to seek to Yahweh. He proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah. <sup>4</sup> Judah gathered themselves together to seek help from Yahweh. They came out of all the cities of Judah to seek Yahweh. <sup>5</sup> Jehoshaphat stood in the assembly of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of Yahweh, before the new court; <sup>6</sup> and he said, Yahweh, the God of our fathers, aren't You God in heaven? Aren't You ruler over all the kingdoms of the nations? Power and might are in Your hand, so that no one is able to stand against You. <sup>7</sup> Didn't You, our God, drive out the inhabitants of this land before Your people Israel, and give it to the seed of Abraham Your friend forever? <sup>8</sup> They lived in it, and have built You a sanctuary in it for Your name saying, <sup>9</sup> If evil comes on us—the sword, judgment, plague or famine—we will stand before this house and before You, (for Your name is in this house), and cry to You in our affliction, and You will hear and save. <sup>10</sup> Now, consider the children of Ammon and Moab and Mount Seir, whom You would not let Israel invade when they came out of the land of Egypt, but they turned aside from them, and didn't destroy them. <sup>11</sup> See how they reward us, to come to cast us out of Your possession which You have given us to inherit. <sup>12</sup> Our God, will You not judge them? For we have no might against this great company that comes against us; neither know we what to do, but our eyes are toward You. <sup>13</sup> All Judah stood before Yahweh, with their little ones, their wives and their children.

19:10 Between blood and blood – Perhaps a reference to controversies about revenging bloodshed, alluding to Dt. 17:8.

20:2 A great multitude is coming – Jehoshaphat was expected to have learnt the lesson from Asa's experience when hugely outnumbered (16:8), and it seems he did. The whole purpose of Biblical history is for our sakes, that we might learn from the experiences of others who in essence were in our situation – and be strengthened, warned and encouraged (Rom. 15:4).

Judah Win the Battle without Fighting

<sup>14</sup> Then the Spirit of Yahweh came on Jahaziel the son of Zechariah, son of Benaiah, son of Jeiel, son of Mattaniah, the Levite, of the sons of

Asaph, in the midst of the assembly. <sup>15</sup> He said, Listen, all Judah and you inhabitants of Jerusalem, and you, king Jehoshaphat. Thus says Yahweh to you, 'Don't be afraid, neither be dismayed by reason of this great multitude; for the battle is not yours, but God's. <sup>16</sup> Tomorrow go down against them. Behold, they are coming up by the ascent of Ziz. You shall find them at the end of the valley, before the wilderness of Jeruel. <sup>17</sup> You will not need to fight this battle. Set yourselves, stand still, and see the salvation of Yahweh with you, O Judah and Jerusalem. Don't be afraid, nor be dismayed. Go out against them tomorrow, for Yahweh is with you'. <sup>18</sup> Jehoshaphat bowed his head with his face to the ground; and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell down before Yahweh, worshipping Yahweh. <sup>19</sup> The Levites, of the children of the Kohathites and of the children of the Korahites, stood up to praise Yahweh, the God of Israel, with an exceeding loud voice. <sup>20</sup> They rose early in the morning and went forth into the wilderness of Tekoa. As they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said, Listen to me, Judah, and you inhabitants of Jerusalem! Believe in Yahweh your God, so you shall be established! Believe His prophets, so you shall prosper. <sup>21</sup> When he had taken counsel

20:12 God, will You not judge them? – Jehoshaphat like David in the Psalms saw the crises of life as a foretaste of the final judgment; he stated the situation before God in detail (:10) and felt his prayer was a coming before God's throne of judgment. Our prayers likewise come before the throne of grace (Heb. 4:16); our feelings toward God in prayer now are as they will be in essence at the final judgment.

with the people, he appointed those who should sing to Yahweh and give praise in holy array, as they went out before the army, and say, Give thanks to Yahweh; for His grace endures forever. <sup>22</sup> When they began to sing and to praise, Yahweh set ambushers against the children of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir, who had come against Judah; and they were struck. <sup>23</sup> For the children of Ammon and Moab stood up against the inhabitants of Mount Seir, utterly to kill and destroy them. When they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, each one helped to destroy another. <sup>24</sup> When Judah came to the place overlooking the wilderness, they looked at the multitude which were now dead bodies fallen to the earth, and there were none who escaped. <sup>25</sup> When Jehoshaphat and his people came to take their spoil, they found among them in abundance both riches and dead bodies, and precious jewels, which they stripped off for themselves, more than they could carry away. They were three days in taking the spoil, it was so much. <sup>26</sup> On the fourth day they assembled themselves in the valley of Beracah; for there they blessed Yahweh. Therefore the name of that place is called The valley of Beracah to this day. <sup>27</sup> Then they returned, every man of Judah and Jerusalem, and Jehoshaphat in their forefront, to go again to Jerusalem with joy; for Yahweh had made them to rejoice over their enemies. <sup>28</sup> They came to Jerusalem with stringed instruments and harps and trumpets to the house of Yahweh. <sup>29</sup> The fear of God was on all the kingdoms of the countries, when they heard that Yahweh fought against the enemies of Israel.

Jehoshaphat's Last Years

after a victory, not before it. Humanly, they must have feared that they were being asked to trust in mere words. Yet Jehoshaphat praised God for the assurance of victory as if it had already happened; and his battle plan was hardly humanly wise. He sent out ahead of his troops a group of priests who were praising God for the victory. Such faith is all about adopting God's perspective, who speaks of things which are not yet as if they are, so sure is His word of promise of fulfilment (Rom. 4:17).

20:35 Jehoshaphat king of Judah joined himself with Ahaziah king of Israel – When he earlier joined himself with a king of Israel, he nearly lost his life and was rebuked

hoshaphat king of Judah joined himself with Ahaziah king of Israel, who did very wickedly. <sup>36</sup> He joined himself with him to make ships to go to Tarshish; and they made the ships in Ezion Geber. <sup>37</sup> Then Eliezer the son of Dodavahu of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat saying, Because you have joined yourself with Ahaziah, Yahweh has destroyed your works. The ships were broken, so that they were not able to go to Tarshish.

CHAPTER 21 Oct. 25

The Bad Reign of Jehoram

Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David; and Jehoram his son reigned in his place. <sup>2</sup> He had brothers, the sons of Jehoshaphat: Azariah, Jehiel, Zechariah, Azariah,

Michael and Shephatiah. All these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of Israel. <sup>3</sup> Their father gave them great gifts, of silver, and of gold, and of precious things, with fortified cities in Judah; but the kingdom gave he to Jehoram, because he was the first-born. <sup>4</sup> Now when Jehoram was risen up over the kingdom of his father, and had strengthened himself, he killed all his brothers with the sword, and various also of the princes of Israel. <sup>5</sup> Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. <sup>6</sup> He walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab; for he had the daughter of Ahab as wife: and he did that which was evil in the eyes of Yahweh. <sup>7</sup> However Yahweh would not destroy the house of David, because of the covenant for it severely in 19:2. We too can deal with a situation in the wrong way, repent for doing so, and then the essence of the situation is repeated in another context – and again we fail. And yet although at the end of his life, Jehoshaphat failed in this matter, he was on balance reckoned as righteous (:32). This shouldn't lead us to think that some aspects of human behaviour don't matter and we can 'get away' with them. But it helps us in not rejecting brothers or sisters who clearly have weakness in one point of their lives at some period of their spiritual journey, even if as with Jehoshaphat it's right at the end of their lives when we might expect more spiritual maturity from them. We will all come to the end of our journeys with some incomplete spirituality, and we should show others the same grace God shows us.

21:6 Jehoshaphat his father had been rebuked for his alliance with Ahab (19:2) and had continued to fail in making alliances with the rulers of Israel (see on 20:35). The result of this was that although he himself was righteous, his son committed failure in the same area but went much further to the point of becoming totally sinful and being rejected by God. The problem with sin and permitting ourselves weaknesses is that our children and others will likely commit the same weaknesses but take them much further; the mother who gets drunk once a year on her birthday shouldn't be surprised if her son becomes alcoholic.

For he had the daughter of Ahab as wife – The history of the kings often stresses the huge influence of women upon a man, especially his wife or mother. Women at that time were considered mere chattels, but the Biblical record grants them human dignity and significance, and stresses their huge influence especially in spiritual matters.

that He had made with David, and as He promised to give a lamp to him and to his children always. <sup>8</sup> In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made a king over themselves. <sup>9</sup> Then Jehoram passed over with his captains, and all his chariots with him. He rose up by night, and struck the Edomites who surrounded him, along with the captains of the chariots. <sup>10</sup> So Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah to this day. Then Libnah revolted at the same time from under his hand, because he had forsaken Yahweh, the God of his fathers. <sup>11</sup> Moreover he made high places in the mountains of Judah, and made the inhabitants of Jerusalem to play the prostitute, and led Judah astray. <sup>12</sup> A letter came to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, Thus says Yahweh, the God of David your father, ‘You have not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat your father, nor in the ways of Asa king of Judah, <sup>13</sup> but have walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and have made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to play the prostitute like the house of Ahab did, and also have slain your brothers of your father’s house, who were better than yourself. <sup>14</sup> Therefore, Yahweh will strike with a great plague your people and your children and your wives, and all your substance; <sup>15</sup> and you shall have great sickness by disease of your bowels, until your bowels fall out by reason of the sickness, day by day’.

Jehoram’s Punishments

<sup>16</sup> Yahweh stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines, and of the Arabians who are beside the Ethiopians. <sup>17</sup> They came up against Judah and broke into it, and carried away all the substance that was found in the king’s house, and his sons also and his wives; so that there was no son left him except Jehoahaz, the youngest of his sons. <sup>18</sup> After all this Yahweh struck him in his bowels with an incurable disease. <sup>19</sup> It happened, in process of time, at the end of two years, that his bowels fell out by reason of his sickness, and he died of severe diseases. His people made no burning for him, like the burning for his fathers. <sup>20</sup> Thirty-two years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years. He departed without being desired; and they buried him in the city of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.

21:12 This incident is well after the time when Elijah had ascended into the sky at the close of his public ministry. It seems that Elijah was simply taken up into the sky and put down somewhere else, which is why his servants went out looking for him; it was done in this dramatic public manner to indicate to all that his public ministry had come to an end. But it seems that he returned to earth and continued a more discrete ministry, as this incident demonstrates. The Bible doesn’t teach that we go to Heaven at death; Jesus was the first person to be raised from the dead and given eternal life, and all the faithful will receive eternity together at the day of judgment when Christ returns.

21:16 God is able to work directly on the mind or “spirit” of people, according to His will. We should therefore eagerly ask Him to work on our spirit / mind to make it holy; for the human mind is the ultimate arena of our spiritual warfare.

Ahaziah Reigns One Year

The inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ahaziah his youngest son king in his place; for the band of men who came with the Arabians to the camp had slain all the older ones. So Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah reigned. <sup>2</sup> Forty-two years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign; and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah the daughter of Omri. <sup>3</sup> He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab; for his mother was his counsellor to do wickedly. <sup>4</sup> He did that which was evil in the eyes of Yahweh, as did the house of Ahab; for they were his counsellors after the death of his father, to his destruction. <sup>5</sup> He walked also after their counsel, and went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth Gilead; and the Syrians wounded Joram. <sup>6</sup> He returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which they had given him at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick. <sup>7</sup> Now the destruction of Ahaziah was of God, in that he went to Joram; for when he had come, he went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom Yahweh had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab. <sup>8</sup> It happened, when Jehu was executing judgment on the house of Ahab, that he found the princes of Judah, and the sons of the brothers of Ahaziah, ministering to Ahaziah, and killed them. <sup>9</sup> He sought Ahaziah, and they caught him (now he was hiding in Samaria), and they brought him to Jehu, and killed him. They buried him, for they said, He is the descendant of Jehoshaphat, who sought Yahweh with all his heart. The house of Ahaziah had no power to hold the kingdom. <sup>10</sup> Now when Athaliah the mother of Ahaz-

22:3 His mother was his counsellor to do wickedly – Again we see the influence of women on the spiritual lives of their children; see on 21:6. Her ‘counsel’ to him likely refers to the way she raised him in his youth. His grandfather, righteous king Jehoshaphat, had a weakness with respect to his friendship with the Ahab family (19:2). Jehoshaphat’s son Jehoram even more so (see on 21:6), and the grandson likewise. The failure of a righteous man had disastrous spiritual consequence even for his grandchild. Grandfather Jehoshaphat nearly lost his life by going to war in tandem with Ahab king of Israel; and the grandson failed in exactly the same way (:5), at the very same place, Ramoth Gilead (18:11). He didn’t learn the lesson of his grandfather’s failure but rather repeated it.

22:6 Ahaziah was severely punished because he didn’t learn the lesson from spiritual history. Jehoshaphat had been nearly killed because of his union with Ahab the king of Israel; we really are intended to learn from Biblical history and take concrete action based upon what we perceive within it, rather than let these records drift over us without taking a grip upon our lives in practice.

iah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the royal seed of the house of Judah. <sup>11</sup> But Jehoshabeath, the daughter of the king, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him away from among the king's sons who were slain, and put him and his nurse in the bedroom. So Jehoshabeath, the daughter of king Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest (for she was the sister of Ahaziah), hid him from Athaliah, so that she didn't kill him. <sup>12</sup> He was with them hidden in God's house six years; and Athaliah reigned over the land.

Jehoiada the Priest Supports Joash

In the seventh year Jehoiada strengthened himself, and took the captains of hundreds, Azariah the son of Jeroham, Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, Azariah the son of Obed, Maaseiah the son of Adaiah and Elishaphat the son of Zichri, into covenant with him. <sup>2</sup> They went about in Judah, and gathered the Levites out of all the cities of Judah, and the heads of fathers' households of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup> All the assembly made a covenant with the king in God's house. He said to them, Behold, the king's son shall reign, as Yahweh has spoken concerning the sons of David.

<sup>4</sup> This is the thing that you shall do. A third part of you, who come in on the Sabbath, of the priests and of the Levites, shall be porters at the thresholds. <sup>5</sup> A third part shall be at the king's house; and a third part at the gate of the foundation. All the people shall be in the courts of Yahweh's house. <sup>6</sup> But let no one come into the house of Yahweh, except the priests, and those who minister of the Levites. They shall come in, for they are holy, but all the people shall follow Yahweh's instructions. <sup>7</sup> The Levites shall surround the king, every man with his weapons in his hand. Whoever comes into the house, let him be slain. Be with the king when he comes in, and when he goes out. <sup>8</sup> So the Levites and all Judah did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded. They took every man his men, those who were to come in on the Sabbath, with those who were to go out on the Sabbath; for Jehoiada the priest didn't dismiss the shift. <sup>9</sup> Jehoiada the priest delivered to the captains of hundreds the spears, large shields and shields that had been king David's, which were in God's house. <sup>10</sup> He set all the people, each man with his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left side of the house, along by the altar and the house, surrounding the king. <sup>11</sup> Then they brought out

23:1 Took... into covenant with him – Note how at this same time they made a covenant with God (:3). Our covenant with God is often connected with our covenant with each other; covenant relationship isn't just a deal between God and us, rather does our relationship with Him involve us in relationship with the rest of His true people. We can't be in relationship with God and isolate ourselves from His people.

the king's son and put the crown on him, and gave him the testimony, and made him king. Jehoiada and his sons anointed him; and they said, Long live the king! <sup>12</sup> When Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people into the house of Yahweh. <sup>13</sup> She looked, and, behold, the king stood by his pillar at the entrance, and the captains and the trumpets by the king; and all the people of the land rejoiced, and blew trumpets. The singers also played musical instruments, and led the singing of praise. Then Athaliah tore her clothes, and said, Treason! Treason! <sup>14</sup> Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds who were set over the army and said to them, Bring her out between the ranks; and whoever follows her, let him be slain with the sword. For the priest said, Don't kill her in Yahweh's house. <sup>15</sup> So they made way for her. She went to the entrance of the horse gate to the king's house; and they killed her there.

Jehoiada Reforms Judah

<sup>16</sup> Jehoiada made a covenant between himself and all the people, and the king, that they should be Yahweh's people. <sup>17</sup> All the people went to the house of Baal and broke it down, and broke his altars and his images in pieces, and killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. <sup>18</sup> Jehoiada appointed the officers of the house of Yahweh under the hand of the priests the Levites, whom David had distributed in the house of Yahweh, to offer the burnt offerings of Yahweh, as it is written in the law of Moses, with rejoicing and with singing, according to the order of David. <sup>19</sup> He set the porters at the gates of the house of Yahweh, that no one who was unclean in any matter should enter in. <sup>20</sup> He took the captains of hundreds, and the nobles, and the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought down the king from the house of Yahweh. They came through the upper gate to the king's house, and set the king on the throne of the kingdom. <sup>21</sup> So all

Joash was later to ungratefully murder for daring to criticize him (24:20-22). Indeed, 24:25 says that Joash killed all these sons. Ingratitude is a sin because the kindness we were shown is a reflection of God's grace to us through a human channel, and to be ungrateful for it is thereby a rejection of God's grace.

23:16 The parallel record in 2 Kings 11:17 says this covenant was between Yahweh and the people, but here we read that it was between Jehoiada and the people. Jehoiada as the priest was God's representative, and therefore what he did was on God's behalf. God's representatives can be spoken of as if they are God, even though they aren't God Himself in person. This principle, which is found throughout the Old Testament, should prepare us to accept that God's Son, Jesus, as His Father's total representative, isn't God Himself but can be spoken of as God, as Jehoiada was, because He functions so completely on God's behalf.

23:21 The people of the land rejoiced – In the same way as “all the people” destroyed the temple of Baal (:17) and “all the people” rejoiced at the idea of Joash being made king (:13). Although the people were spiritually weak at this time, there was deep the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet. Athaliah they had slain with the sword.

Joash Zealously Restores the Temple

Joash was seven years old when he began to reign; and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zibiah of Beersheba. <sup>2</sup> Joash did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh all the days of Jehoiada the priest. <sup>3</sup> Jehoiada took for him two wives; and he fathered sons and daughters. <sup>4</sup> It happened after this that Joash intended to restore the house of Yahweh. <sup>5</sup> He gathered together the priests and the Levites and said to them, Go out to the cities of Judah, and gather money to repair the house of your God from all Israel from year to year. See that you hasten this matter. However the Levites didn't do it right away. <sup>6</sup> The king called for Jehoiada the chief and said to him, Why haven't you required of the Levites to bring in the tax of Moses the servant of Yahweh, and of the assembly of Israel, out of Judah and out of Jerusalem, for the tent of the testimony? <sup>7</sup> For the sons of Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken up God's house; and they also gave all the dedicated things of the house of Yahweh to the Baals. <sup>8</sup> So the king commanded, and they made a chest, and set it outside at the gate of the house of Yahweh. <sup>9</sup> They made a proclamation through Judah and Jerusalem, to bring in for Yahweh the tax that Moses the servant of God laid on Israel in the wilderness. <sup>10</sup> All the princes and all the people rejoiced, and brought in, and cast into the chest, until they had made an end. <sup>11</sup> It was so, that whenever the chest was brought to the king's officers by the hand of the Levites, and when they saw that there was much money, the king's scribe and the chief priests' officer came and emptied the chest, and took it, and carried it to its place again. Thus they did day by day, and gathered money in abundance. <sup>12</sup> The king and Jehoiada gave it to those who did the work of the service of the house of Yahweh. They hired masons and carpenters to restore the house of Yahweh, and also those who worked iron and brass, so as to repair the house of Yahweh. <sup>13</sup> So the workmen worked, and the work of repairing advanced in their hands, and they restored God's house to its proper condition and strengthened it. <sup>14</sup> When they had finished, they brought the rest within them a desire to do the right thing – they just lacked the strength to do it, and needed someone like Jehoiada to present it clearly to them. We may consider those around us to be totally disinterested in spiritual things, but if we present them with the right way, we will be surprised how this is passively and unconsciously what a lot of apparently 'worldly' people are in fact looking for. See on 24:10.

24:14 All the days of Jehoiada – Joash's zeal for restoring the temple appears to have been all on his own initiative. But clearly his zeal for God was all the result of Je-of the money before the king and Jehoiada, from which were made vessels for the house of Yahweh, even vessels with which to minister and to offer, and spoons, and vessels of gold and silver. They offered burnt offerings in the house of Yahweh continually all the days of Jehoiada. <sup>15</sup> But Jehoiada grew old and was full of days, and he died. He was one hundred and thirty years old when he died. <sup>16</sup> They buried him in the city of David among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, and toward God and His house.

Joash Departs from Yahweh

<sup>17</sup> Now after the death of Jehoiada came the princes of Judah, and made obeisance to the king. Then the king listened to them. <sup>18</sup> They forsook the house of Yahweh, the God of their fathers, and served the Asherim and the idols. Wrath came on Judah and Jerusalem for this their guiltiness. <sup>19</sup> Yet He sent prophets to them, to bring them again to Yahweh; and they testified against them. But they would not listen. <sup>20</sup> The spirit of God came on Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest; and he stood above the people and said to them, Thus says God, ‘Why do you disobey the commandments of Yahweh, so that you can’t prosper? Because you have forsaken Yahweh, He has also forsaken you’. <sup>21</sup> They conspired against him, and stoned him with stones at the commandment of the king in the court of the house of Yahweh. <sup>22</sup> Thus Joash the king didn’t remember the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but killed his son. When he died, he hioiada’s influence upon him, and as soon as Jehoiada was dead, he turned to other gods (:17,18). People can serve God, even in a very zealous way, purely as the result of others’ influence upon them. This is why how we end our spiritual journey is so important – when those who influenced our youth are no longer with us, and we serve God with no possibility of the motivation of pleasing those we respect. It seems Joash was grateful to Jehoiada for saving his life and organizing the coup which led to his having the kingdom at seven years old – when his gratitude should’ve been to God, who used Jehoiada merely as a human channel. If we don’t see our spiritual elders as channels used by God, but glorify them in themselves, then we will tend to do spiritual things just to please those elders. And when they are no more, we are left with no real relationship with God Himself. This would explain how immediately on the death of Jehoiada, Joash turned to other gods.

24:17 The king listened to them – So often the history of the kings repeats itself. This was exactly the mistake of Rehoboam – listening to bad advisors and rejecting the Godly advice of older men (1 Kings 12:8,10). Our life situations likewise tend to repeat in essence the situations faced by Biblical characters; and we really are expected to learn the lessons. We have to ask how often it is that we base a life decision specifically upon a Biblical precedent... How much does Bible history really affect our life choices today?

24:22 May Yahweh look at it, and require it – This is one of many Biblical indications that at the day of judgment, situations in this life will as it were be played back to said, May Yahweh witness it, and require it.<sup>23</sup> It happened at the end of the year, that the army of the Syrians came up against him. They came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the princes of the people from among the people, and sent all their spoil to the king of Damascus.<sup>24</sup> For the army of the Syrians came with a small company of men; and Yahweh delivered a very great army into their hand, because they had forsaken Yahweh, the God of their fathers. So they executed judgment on Joash.<sup>25</sup> When they had departed from him (for they left him very sick), his own servants conspired against him for the blood of the sons of Jehoiada the priest, and killed him on his bed, and he died; and they buried him in the city of David, but they didn't bury him in the tombs of the kings.<sup>26</sup> These are those who conspired against him: Zabad the son of Shimeath the Ammonitess and Jehozabad the son of Shimrith the Moabitess.<sup>27</sup> Now concerning his sons, and the greatness of the burdens laid on him, and the rebuilding of God's house, behold, they are written in the commentary of the book of the kings. Amaziah his son reigned in his place.

Amaziah's Incomplete Devotion

Amaziah was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.<sup>2</sup> He did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh, but not with a complete heart.<sup>3</sup> Now it happened that when the kingdom was established to him, he killed his servants who had killed the king his father.<sup>4</sup> But he didn't put their children to death, but did according to that which is written in the law in the book of Moses, as the wicked, and be 'required' from them. All their sins will be mentioned unto them, whereas this will not be the case for the righteous, whose sins have been forgiven (Ez. 18:22; 33:16).

25:3 When the kingdom was established to him, he killed his servants – This sentence structure is common in the record of the kings; when they became strong, once they were set up in life, then they did wrong (11:17; 12:1; 17:1; 21:4; 26:8,16). Some people never get set up in life or become financially or domestically 'strong' as they would wish, and resent it. But remember this formula; perhaps if that had been granted them by God, they would turn away from Him. Amaziah repeated the pattern of Jehoram, who became strong in his kingdom, and then killed his brothers (21:4). Again we see how God intended Amaziah, as He intends all of us, to perceive how we should be and live on the basis of the examples in the history of His people. This is why reading the records of these kings is so valuable for us; and more than valuable, God intends us to be familiar with the history He has recorded and carefully preserved for so long, and learn from it, applying it specifically in our lives.

25:4 Despite committing murder after the pattern of wicked Jehoram (21:4), he was careful to be obedient to part of God's law. We so often justify wrong behaviour by mixing it with some element of legalistic obedience to God's word, just as we see in

Yahweh commanded saying, The fathers shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the fathers; but every man shall die for his own sin. <sup>5</sup> Moreover Amaziah gathered Judah together, and ordered them according to their fathers houses, under captains of thousands and captains of hundreds, even all Judah and Benjamin. He numbered them from twenty years old and upward, and found them three hundred thousand chosen men, able to go forth to war, who could handle spear and shield. <sup>6</sup> He hired also one hundred thousand mighty men of valour out of Israel for one hundred talents of silver. <sup>7</sup> A man of God came to him, saying, O king, don't let the army of Israel go with you; for Yahweh is not with Israel, with all the children of Ephraim. <sup>8</sup> But if you will go, go and take action, be strong for the battle. God will overthrow you before the enemy; for God has power to help, and to overthrow. <sup>9</sup> Amaziah said to the man of God, But what shall we do for the hundred talents which I have given to the army of Israel? The man of God answered, Yahweh is able to give you much more than this. <sup>10</sup> Then Amaziah separated them, the army that had come to him out of Ephraim, to go home again. Therefore their anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned home in fierce anger. <sup>11</sup> Amaziah took courage, and led forth his people, and went to the Valley of Salt, and struck ten thousand of the children of Seir. <sup>12</sup> The children of Judah carried away ten thousand alive, and brought them to the top of the rock, and threw them down from the top of the rock, so that they all were broken in pieces. <sup>13</sup> But the men of the army whom Amaziah sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, fell on the cities of Judah, from Samaria even to Beth Horon, and struck of them three thousand, and took much spoil.

Amaziah's Spiritual Decline

<sup>14</sup> Now it happened, after that Amaziah had come from the slaughter of the Edomites, that he brought the gods of the children of Seir,

the account of the judgment and crucifixion of Jesus, with the Jews careful to obey parts of the Mosaic Law in detail – whilst totally missing the bigger picture

25:6 Jehoshaphat (19:2) and other kings of Judah had always gotten into trouble by making military alliances with Israel; but still the lesson wasn't learnt, spiritual history wasn't allowed by Amaziah to really have a practical impact upon him.

25:8 But if you will go, go and take action, be strong for the battle – A classic example of the downward spiral, whereby God pushes people along the road of self-destruction if this is the path they choose.

25:13 We might be surprised at this; Amaziah had paid money to hire this army, but in humility to God's word had dismissed them and as it were wasted his money, just because God had told him not to use them but trust in Him. But then they do so much damage to Amaziah's kingdom. Perhaps this was because his obedience to God's word was only external, and not with a complete heart (:2). Likewise Amaziah won a great victory by faith in Yahweh, but immediately adopted pagan gods (:14,15).

and set them up to be his gods, and bowed down himself before them, and burned incense to them. <sup>15</sup> Therefore the anger of Yahweh was kindled against Amaziah, and He sent to him a prophet who said to him, Why have you sought after the gods of the people, which have not delivered their own people out of your hand? <sup>16</sup> It happened, as he talked with him, that the king said to him, Have we made you one of the king's counsellors? Stop! Why should you be struck down? Then the prophet stopped, and said, I know that God has determined to destroy you, because you have done this, and have not listened to my counsel. <sup>17</sup> Then Amaziah king of Judah consulted his advisers, and sent to Joash, the son of Jehoahaz the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, let us face off against each other. <sup>18</sup> Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah saying, The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon saying, Give your daughter to my son as his wife. Then a wild animal that was in Lebanon passed by, and trampled down the thistle. <sup>19</sup> You say to yourself that you have struck Edom; and your heart lifts you up to boast. Now stay at home. Why should you meddle with trouble, that you should fall, even you, and Judah with you? <sup>20</sup> But Amaziah would not listen; for it was of God, that He might deliver them into the hand of their enemies, because they had sought after the gods of Edom. <sup>21</sup> So Joash king of Israel went up; and he and Amaziah king of Judah confronted each other at Beth Shemesh, which belongs to Judah. <sup>22</sup> Judah was defeated by Israel; and they fled every man to his tent. <sup>23</sup> Joash king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash the son of Jehoahaz, at Beth Shemesh, and brought him to Jerusalem, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim to the corner gate, four hundred cubits. <sup>24</sup> He took all the gold and silver, and all the vessels that were found in God's house with Obed-Edom, and the treasures of the king's house, the hostages also, and returned to Samaria. <sup>25</sup> Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived after the death of Joash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel fifteen years. <sup>26</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, first and last, behold, aren't they written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel? <sup>27</sup> Now from the time that Amaziah turned away from following Yahweh, they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem. He fled to Lachish; but they sent after him to Lachish, and killed him there. <sup>28</sup> They brought him on horses, and buried him with his fathers in the city of David.

25:17 Earlier Amaziah had wanted to make an alliance with Israel (:6,7); now he picks an argument with them and purposefully provokes a war with them. This unstable, inconsistent attitude arose from his incomplete devotion to God (:2). The instability and inconsistency evident in so many aspects of so many lives is reflective of a lack of steady, consistent devotion to the God who is eager to be our rock.

CHAPTER 26 Oct. 29Uzziah's Industry and Success

All the people of Judah took Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in the place of his father Amaziah. <sup>2</sup> He built Elloth and restored it to Judah, after that the king slept with his fathers. <sup>3</sup> Sixteen years old was Uzziah when he began to reign; and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jechiliah of Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup> He did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh, according to all that his father Amaziah had done. <sup>5</sup> He set himself to seek God in the days of Zechariah, who had understanding in the vision of God. As long as he sought Yahweh, God made him to prosper. <sup>6</sup> He went forth and warred against the Philistines, and broke down the walls of Gath, Jabneh and Ashdod; and he built cities in the country of Ashdod and among the Philistines. <sup>7</sup> God helped him against the Philistines, and against the Arabians who lived in Gur Baal and the Meunim. <sup>8</sup> The Ammonites gave tribute to Uzziah. His name spread abroad even to the entrance of Egypt; for he grew extremely strong. <sup>9</sup> Moreover, Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the corner gate and the valley gate, and at the turning of the wall, and fortified them. <sup>10</sup> He built towers in the wilderness, and dug out many cisterns, for he had much live-stock; in the lowland also, and in the plain. He had farmers and vineyard keepers in the mountains and in the fruitful fields; for he loved farming. <sup>11</sup> Moreover Uzziah had an army of fighting men, who went out to war by bands, according to the number of their reckoning made by Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the officer, under the hand of Hananiah, one of the king's captains. <sup>12</sup> The whole number of the heads of fathers' households, even the mighty men of valour, was two thousand six hundred. <sup>13</sup> Under their hand was an army, three hundred and seven thousand five hundred, who made war with mighty power, to help the king against the enemy. <sup>14</sup> Uzziah prepared for them, even for all the army, shields, spears, helmets, coats of armour, bows and stones for slinging. <sup>15</sup> He made in Jerusalem engines, invented by skilful men, to be on the towers and on the battlements, with which to shoot arrows and great stones. His name spread far abroad; for he was marvelously helped, until he was strong.

Uzziah's Failure

<sup>16</sup> But when he was strong, his heart was lifted up, so that he did corruptly, and he trespassed against Yahweh

26:4 But Amaziah only did a few things right before God and turned to other gods in the end (25:20). God so thirsts for human response to Him that He writes these records so positively, in recognition of any spirituality which there was.

26:16 But when he was strong – He was strong only in his own self-perception, because his strength was only the result of God's help (:15). Again we see how human strength precedes spiritual failure, which is a common theme in these lives of the kings and indeed throughout history; see on 25:3.

his God; for he went into Yahweh's temple to burn incense on the altar of incense. <sup>17</sup> Azariah the priest went in after him, and with him eighty priests of Yahweh, who were valiant men. <sup>18</sup> They resisted Uzziah the king, and said to him, It isn't for you, Uzziah, to burn incense to Yahweh, but for the priests the sons of Aaron, who are consecrated to burn incense. Go out of the sanctuary; for you have trespassed; neither shall it be for your honour from Yahweh God. <sup>19</sup> Then Uzziah was angry; and he had a censer in his hand to burn incense; and while he was angry with the priests, the leprosy broke forth in his forehead before the priests in the house of Yahweh, beside the altar of incense. <sup>20</sup> Azariah the chief priest, and all the priests, looked on him, and behold, he was leprous in his forehead, and they thrust him out quickly from there. Yes, he himself hurried also to go out, because Yahweh had struck him. <sup>21</sup> Uzziah the king was a leper to the day of his death, and lived in a separate house, being a leper; for he was cut off from the house of Yahweh; and Jotham his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the land. <sup>22</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, first and last, Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, wrote. <sup>23</sup> So Uzziah slept with his fathers; and they buried him with his fathers in the field of burial which belonged to the kings; for they said, He is a leper. Jotham his son reigned in his place.

Jotham's Good Reign

Jotham was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jerushah the daughter of Zadok. <sup>2</sup> He did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh, according to all that his father Uzziah had done. However he didn't enter into Yahweh's temple.

26:17 Azariah was very brave to do this; for kings, especially like Uzziah at this time, considered themselves all powerful and beyond such criticism. We shouldn't fear to bring God's word to those who are 'senior' in rank, even if it criticizes them explicitly or implicitly; for compared to God's word, all men are as grass, of whatever rank they are in human society (Is. 40:6-8).

26:18 Uzziah is here condemned for doing what only the priests could do. However, David also did what only the priests (of the tribe of Levi) could do; but he was of the tribe of Judah and therefore not a priest (1 Chron. 15:27; 16:3). So we conclude that the same action can be sinful for one person but a sign of spiritual maturity in another. We need to bear this in mind when considering the behaviour of others, and try not to legislate against it in a legalistic manner but treat each case on its merits. We also learn from this that motive and not external action nor appearance are of ultimate importance to God. All our works need careful analysis once we grasp this point. It could be that Uzziah was trying to imitate David in acting as a priest when he wasn't; for 2 Kings 14:3 emphasizes that Uzziah did not do his good deeds in the spirit of David. It was all just an attempt to externally mimic a righteous man when the heart was far from spirituality; and God judges such hypocrisy very hard.

The people still did corruptly. <sup>3</sup> He built the upper gate of the house of Yahweh, and on the wall of Ophel he built much. <sup>4</sup> Moreover he built cities in the hill country of Judah, and in the forests he built castles and towers. <sup>5</sup> He fought also with the king of the children of Ammon, and prevailed against them. The children of Ammon gave him the same year one hundred talents of silver, ten thousand measures of wheat and ten thousand of barley. The children of Ammon gave that much to him in the second year also, and in the third. <sup>6</sup> So Jotham became mighty, because he prepared his ways before Yahweh his God. <sup>7</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all his wars and his ways, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. <sup>8</sup> He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup> Jotham slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David; and Ahaz his son reigned in his place.

CHAPTER 28 Oct. 30

The Wickedness of Ahaz

Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: and he didn't do that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh, as David his father did; <sup>2</sup> but he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and additionally made molten images for the Baals. <sup>3</sup> Moreover he burnt incense in the valley of the son of Hinnom, and burnt his children in the fire, according to the abominations of the nations whom Yahweh cast out before the children of Israel. <sup>4</sup> He sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places and on the hills, and under every green tree. <sup>5</sup> Therefore Yahweh his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Syria; and they struck him, and carried away from him a great multitude of captives, and brought them to Damascus. He was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who struck him with a great slaughter. <sup>6</sup> For Pekah the son of Remaliah killed in Judah one hundred and twenty thousand in one day, all of them valiant men; because they had forsaken Yahweh, the God of their fathers. <sup>7</sup> Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, killed Maaseiah the king's son, and Azrikam the ruler of the house, and Elkanah who was next to the king. <sup>8</sup> The children of Israel carried away captive of their brothers two hundred thousand, women, sons and daughters, and took also away much spoil from them, and brought

27:6 If a man prepares his way after God's principles (see too Prov. 4:26), then God will 'prepare' that man's way too (Ps. 37:23; 119:5), confirming him in the way he chooses to go.

28:5 Therefore Yahweh his God – Yahweh was still his God even through this very evil part of his life when Ahaz had forsaken God (:6); we too shouldn't give up on our brethren who clearly leave God's principles. Even if we disbelieve God, He still remains faithful to us (2 Tim. 2:13). God is still working with our lost brethren, and so should we, after the pattern of the shepherd who searches until he finds the lost sheep.

the spoil to Samaria. <sup>9</sup> But a prophet of Yahweh was there, whose name was Oded. He went out to meet the army that came to Samaria and said to them, Behold, because Yahweh, the God of your fathers, was angry with Judah, He has delivered them into your hand, and you have slain them in a rage which has reached up to heaven. <sup>10</sup> Now you purpose to oppress the children of Judah and Jerusalem for bondservants and bondmaids for yourselves. Aren't there even with you trespasses of your own against Yahweh your God? <sup>11</sup> Now hear me therefore, and send back the captives, that you have taken captive from your brothers; for the fierce wrath of Yahweh is on you. <sup>12</sup> Then some of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, and Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against those who came back from the war. <sup>13</sup> They said to them, You shall not bring in the captives here; for you purpose that which will bring on us a trespass against Yahweh, to add to our sins and to our trespass; for our trespass is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel. <sup>14</sup> So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the princes and all the assembly. <sup>15</sup> The men mentioned by name rose up and took the captives, and with the spoil clothed all who were naked among them, dressed them, gave them sandals, and gave them something to eat and to drink, anointed them, carried all the feeble of them on donkeys, and brought them to Jericho, the city of palm trees, to their brothers. Then they returned to Samaria. <sup>16</sup> At that time king Ahaz sent to the kings of Assyria to help him. <sup>17</sup> For again the Edomites had come and struck

28:9 The "rage" of sinful Israel against sinful Judah was likely because they transferred their own sins onto their brethren, and then eagerly punished them for them. This psychological phenomenon explains why there is so much judgmentalism and anger against other members within the church. To avoid it, we must face up to our own sins, and believe that the judgment for them has truly been laid upon Jesus. We will therefore know our guilt to have been lifted and will not feel the need to transfer it onto others.

28:11 Fierce wrath – This seems a stronger term than the 'anger' of God with Judah for their idolatry (:9). Hypocrisy and harshly judging our brethren when we too are sinners is something which makes God fiercely angry.

28:13 This kind of thing happens several times in the record of the kings; men had committed themselves already to a significant plan like hiring many soldiers and are then told to not go ahead with the plan (e.g. 25:9) at the risk of loss of face or money. This kind of thing ought to be a regular aspect of our lives – stopping in our tracks and turning back from a course of action because of God's word.

28:15 Clothing the naked, putting them on donkeys and taking them to Jericho is all the basis of the good Samaritan parable (Lk. 10). We can therefore understand that parable in terms of our having compassion upon those within the ecclesia who are suffering for their sins; we are to take care of them, considering our own sins deserve the same judgment (:10).

Judah, and carried away captives. <sup>18</sup> The Philistines also had invaded the cities of the lowland, and of the South of Judah, and had taken Beth Shemesh, Aijalon, Gederoth, Soco with its towns, Timnah with its towns, Gimzo also and its towns; and settled there. <sup>19</sup> For Yahweh brought Judah low because of Ahaz king of Israel; for he had dealt wantonly in Judah, and trespassed severely against Yahweh. <sup>20</sup> Tilgath Pilneser king of Assyria came to him and distressed him, but didn't strengthen him. <sup>21</sup> For Ahaz took away a portion out of the house of Yahweh, and out of the house of the king and of the princes, and gave it to the king of Assyria: but it didn't help him. <sup>22</sup> In the time of his distress, he trespassed yet more against Yahweh, this same king Ahaz. <sup>23</sup> For he sacrificed to the gods of Damascus which struck him. He said, Because the gods of the kings of Syria helped them, so I will sacrifice to them, that they may help me. But they were the ruin of him, and of all Israel. <sup>24</sup> Ahaz gathered together the vessels of God's house, cut in pieces the vessels of God's house, and shut up the doors of the house of Yahweh; and he made him altars in every corner of Jerusalem. <sup>25</sup> In every city of Judah he made high places to burn incense to other gods, and provoked to anger Yahweh, the God of his fathers. <sup>26</sup> Now the rest of his acts, and all his ways, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. <sup>27</sup> Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, even in Jerusalem; for they didn't bring him into the tombs of the kings of Israel; and Hezekiah his son reigned in his place.

Hezekiah Cleanses the Temple

Hezekiah began to reign when he was twenty-five years old; and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abijah, the daughter of Zechariah. <sup>2</sup> He did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh, according to all

28:27 They didn't bring him into the tombs of the kings – This is mentioned several times about the sinful kings. Although the people were themselves sinful and rebellious, they recognized that the kings who hadn't followed the spirit of king David shouldn't be buried together with him. There is in society a basic sense of right and wrong, which is reflected in such decisions as this. It's not the case, therefore, that people are totally disinterested in spirituality and have no sense of right or wrong. There is interest in spirituality in people; it's just connecting with it in an appropriate way which is our challenge.

29:2 We wonder how it could be that such an evil man as Ahaz had such a righteous son as Hezekiah. Perhaps the extreme sinfulness of Ahaz made Hezekiah reflect upon the wrongness of sin; perhaps Hezekiah was angry with his father for killing his brothers and sisters in sacrifice to stupid idols (28:3) and so he went the other way, as it were. Whatever, we learn that bad background doesn't force people into sin; Hezekiah had an awful spiritual background but he was righteous. We can't blame our sin on anything, including bad background.

that David his father had done. <sup>3</sup> In the first year of his reign, in the first month, he opened the doors of the house of Yahweh, and repaired them. <sup>4</sup> He brought in the priests and the Levites and gathered them together into the broad place on the east, <sup>5</sup> and said to them, Listen to me, you Levites! Now sanctify yourselves, and sanctify the house of Yahweh, the God of your fathers, and carry all the abominations out of the holy place. <sup>6</sup> For our fathers have trespassed and done that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh our God, and have forsaken Him, and have turned away their faces from the habitation of Yahweh, and turned their backs. <sup>7</sup> Also they have shut up the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps, and have not burned incense nor offered burnt offerings in the holy place to the God of Israel. <sup>8</sup> Therefore the wrath of Yahweh was on Judah and Jerusalem, and He has delivered them to be tossed back and forth, to be an astonishment and a hissing, as you see with your eyes. <sup>9</sup> For, behold, our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives are in captivity for this. <sup>10</sup> Now it is in my heart to make a covenant with Yahweh, the God of Israel, that His fierce anger may turn away from us. <sup>11</sup> My sons, don't be negligent now; for Yahweh has chosen you to stand before Him to minister to Him, and that you should be His ministers, and burn incense. <sup>12</sup> Then the Levites arose, Mahath son of Amasai, and Joel son of Azariah, of the sons of the Kohathites; and of the sons of Merari, Kish son of Abdi and Azariah son of Jehallelel; and of the Gershonites, Joah son of Zimmah and Eden son of Joah; <sup>13</sup> and of the sons of Elizaphan, Shimri and Jeuel; and of the sons of Asaph, Zechariah and Mattaniah; <sup>14</sup> and of the sons of Heman, Jehuel and Shimei; and of the sons of Jedut-

In the eyes of Yahweh – These “eyes of Yahweh” refer to the Angels (16:9). If we ask how, mechanically, as it were, God sees and knows all things, the answer is perhaps ‘Through His Angels’. Their activity is amazing; because their work is invisible to us, we may get the impression at times that God is somehow silent and unobservant. But His “eyes” are constantly informing Him of our situations and forming an opinion about them.

29:3 There is a frequent cycle in the record of the kings of mass apostasy by the people, reformation by a faithful king and then quick descent into apostasy again. This mirrors the cycle of sin, repentance, devotion and sin which is seen in so many personal lives. One of the greatest joys we can look forward to in the Kingdom of God is not just the eternity of the life, but the spiritual quality of it, never able to sin again. The cycle of the kings suggests, however, that much of the reformation was as a result of the personal leadership of the king; people go back to the easier way of the flesh very easily, and good leadership can only go so far in personal reformation; because our relationship with God is ultimately so very personal.

29:11 My sons – Hezekiah was only 25 years old when he said this (:1), but when others are spiritually weak and someone takes spiritual leadership, they become the elder – regardless of their age.

hun, Shemaiah and Uzziel. <sup>15</sup> They gathered their brothers and sanctified themselves, and went in, according to the commandment of the king by the words of Yahweh, to cleanse the house of Yahweh. <sup>16</sup> The priests went in to the inner part of the house of Yahweh to cleanse it, and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in Yahweh's temple into the court of the house of Yahweh. The Levites took it, to carry it out abroad to the brook Kidron. <sup>17</sup> Now they began on the first day of the first month to sanctify, and on the eighth day of the month came they to the porch of Yahweh. They sanctified the house of Yahweh in eight days, and on the sixteenth day of the first month they made an end. <sup>18</sup> Then they went in to Hezekiah the king within the palace and said, We have cleansed all the house of Yahweh, and the altar of burnt offering, with all its vessels, and the table of showbread, with all its vessels. <sup>19</sup> Moreover all the vessels which king Ahaz in his reign threw away when he trespassed, have we prepared and sanctified; and behold, they are before the altar of Yahweh.

A Service of Re-dedication

<sup>20</sup> Then Hezekiah the king arose early, and gathered the princes of the city, and went up to the house of Yahweh. <sup>21</sup> They brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven lambs, and seven male goats for a sin offering for the kingdom and for the sanctuary and for Judah. He commanded the priests the sons of Aaron to offer them on the altar of Yahweh. <sup>22</sup> So they killed the bulls, and the priests received the blood, and sprinkled it on the altar. They killed the rams, and sprinkled the blood on the altar: they killed also the lambs, and sprinkled the blood on the altar. <sup>23</sup> They brought near the male goats for the sin offering before the king and the assembly; and they laid their hands on them: <sup>24</sup> and the priests killed them, and they made a sin offering with their blood on the altar, to make atonement for all Israel; for the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering should be made for all Israel. <sup>25</sup> He set the Levites in the house of Yahweh with cymbals, with stringed instruments, and with harps, according to the commandment of David, and of

29:23 It would seem from :21 that the male goats were the sin offering. Jesus understood goats to represent those who would be rejected at the final judgment (Mt. 25:33). We are to put our hand as it were on the head of such goats, recognizing that we should come to judgment day and be condemned, treated as goats. We need to imagine how it would feel to be at the judgment and be sent to the left hand side. This is what we deserve, and we recognize that by placing our hand on the head of the goat, as it were. But we are saved by the blood of the lamb; we are identified with Him and will therefore be treated as Him, and moved to the right hand side where the sheep are. All these principles are brought together in baptism into Christ, whereby through that immersion in water we die the death of a sinner and yet rise again with Christ; and we are to continue living out the essence of baptism in an ongoing sense throughout our lives.

Gad the king's seer and Nathan the prophet; for the commandment was of Yahweh by His prophets. <sup>26</sup> The Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets. <sup>27</sup> Hezekiah commanded to offer the burnt offering on the altar. When the burnt offering began, the song of Yahweh began also, and the trumpets, together with the instruments of David king of Israel. <sup>28</sup> All the assembly worshipped, and the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded. All this continued until the burnt offering was finished. <sup>29</sup> When they had made an end of offering, the king and all who were present with him bowed themselves and worshipped. <sup>30</sup> Moreover Hezekiah the king and the princes commanded the Levites to sing praises to Yahweh with the words of David, and of Asaph the seer. They sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshipped. <sup>31</sup> Then Hezekiah answered, Now you have consecrated yourselves to Yahweh; come near and bring sacrifices and thank offerings into the house of Yahweh. The assembly brought in sacrifices and thank offerings; and as many as were of a willing heart brought burnt offerings. <sup>32</sup> The number of the burnt offerings which the assembly brought was seventy bulls, one hundred rams, and two hundred lambs. All these were for a burnt offering to Yahweh. <sup>33</sup> The consecrated things were six hundred head of cattle and three thousand sheep. <sup>34</sup> But the priests were too few, so that they could not flay all the burnt offerings. Therefore their brothers the Levites helped them, until the work was ended, and until the priests had sanctified themselves; for the Levites were more upright in heart to sanctify themselves than the priests. <sup>35</sup> Also the burnt offerings were in abundance, with the fat of the peace offerings, and with the drink offerings for every burnt offering. So the service of the house of Yahweh was set in order. <sup>36</sup> Hezekiah rejoiced, and all the people, because of that which God had prepared for the people; for this was done suddenly.

Hezekiah's Great Passover

Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of Yahweh at Jerusalem, to keep the Passover to Yahweh, the God of Israel. <sup>2</sup> For the king had taken counsel, and his princes, and all the assembly in Je-

30:1 By doing so, Hezekiah was seeking to bring together the spiritually minded of both Israel and Judah (see too :5). Technical divisions between God's people are always ended 'on the ground' when like minded believers find they have so much in common, and the official divides between them only exist from a human viewpoint; God sees His people as one, whatever divisions between them there may be from human perspectives.

30:2 The second month – Passover was to be kept in the first month; but Hezekiah perceived the urgency which there is in serving God, and he rightly perceived it was better to technically infringe the Law in order to keep the spirit of it.

rusalem, to keep the Passover in the second month. <sup>3</sup> For they could not keep it at that time, because the priests had not sanctified themselves in sufficient number, neither had the people gathered themselves together to Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup> The thing was right in the eyes of the king and of all the assembly. <sup>5</sup> So they established a decree to make proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beersheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the Passover to Yahweh, the God of Israel, at Jerusalem; for they had not kept it in great numbers in the manner that is written. <sup>6</sup> So the couriers went with the letters from the king and his princes throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king saying, You children of Israel, turn again to Yahweh, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, that He may return to the remnant that have escaped of you out of the hand of the kings of Assyria. <sup>7</sup> Don't be like your fathers, and like your brothers, who trespassed against Yahweh, the God of their fathers, so that He gave them up to destruction, as you see. <sup>8</sup> Now don't be stiff-necked, as your fathers were; but yield yourselves to Yahweh, and enter into His sanctuary which He has sanctified forever. Serve Yahweh your God, that His fierce anger may turn away from you. <sup>9</sup> For if you turn again to Yahweh, your brothers and your children shall find compassion before those who led them captive, and shall come again into this land: for Yahweh your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn away His face from you if you return to Him. <sup>10</sup> So the couriers passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh, even to Zebulun; but there they were ridiculed and despised. <sup>11</sup> Nevertheless certain men of Asher and Manasseh and of Zebulun humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem. <sup>12</sup> Also on Judah came the hand of God to give them one heart, to do the commandment of the king and of the princes by the word of Yahweh. <sup>13</sup> Many people assembled at Jerusalem to keep the feast of unleavened bread in the second month, a very great assembly. <sup>14</sup> They arose and took away the altars that were in Jerusalem, and all the altars for incense took they away, and cast them into the brook Kidron. <sup>15</sup> Then they killed the Passover on the fourteenth day of the second month. The priests and the Levites were ashamed, and sanctified themselves, and brought burnt offerings into the house of Yahweh. <sup>16</sup> They stood in their place after their order, according to the law of Moses the man of God, and the priests sprinkled the blood which they received of the hand of the Levites.

30:9 Note that if they turned to Yahweh, then their spiritually weak brethren currently in captivity would be blessed; to some extent, our spirituality can affect third parties.

30:12 God is capable of working directly on the human heart to make us obedient to His word; given the tragic weakness of our will, we should also ask Him to be with us in this way, as David often does in Ps. 119.

The Passover Kept in Uncleaness

<sup>17</sup> There were many in the assembly who had not sanctified themselves: therefore the Levites were in charge of killing the Passovers for everyone who was not clean, to sanctify them to Yahweh. <sup>18</sup> For a multitude of the people, even many of Ephraim and Manasseh, Issachar and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet they ate the Passover otherwise than it is written. For Hezekiah had prayed for them saying, May the good Yahweh pardon everyone <sup>19</sup> who sets his heart to seek God, Yahweh, the God of his fathers, even if they aren't clean according to the purification of the sanctuary. <sup>20</sup> Yahweh listened to Hezekiah, and healed the people. <sup>21</sup> The children of Israel who were present at Jerusalem kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with great gladness; and the Levites and the priests praised Yahweh day by day, singing with loud instruments to Yahweh. <sup>22</sup> Hezekiah spoke to the heart of all the Levites who had good understanding in the service of Yah-

weh. So they ate throughout the feast for the seven days, offering sacrifices of peace offerings, and making confession to Yahweh, the God of their fathers. <sup>23</sup> The whole assembly took counsel to keep another seven days; and they kept another seven days with gladness. <sup>24</sup> For Hezekiah king of Judah gave to the assembly for offerings one thousand bulls and seven thousand sheep; and the princes gave to the assembly a thousand bulls and ten thousand sheep; and a great number of priests sanctified themselves. <sup>25</sup> All the assembly of Judah, with the priests and the Levites, and all the assembly who came out of Israel, and the foreigners who came out of the land of Israel, and who lived in Judah, rejoiced. <sup>26</sup> So there was great joy in Jerusalem; for since the time of Solomon the son of David king of Israel there was not the like in Jerusalem. <sup>27</sup> Then the priests and the Levites arose and blessed the people; and their voice was heard, and their prayer came up to His holy habitation, even to heaven.

30:18 They ate the Passover otherwise than it is written – This needs to be ever remembered by those who fear they aren't worthy to participate in the breaking of bread service, which is the Christian equivalent of the Passover feast. Our desire for God and His thirst for relationship with us are between them more than enough to make our weaknesses no barrier to remembering the great salvation He achieved for us in Christ. However, the reference in :20 to God's healing of the people at this time suggests that although He agreed with their keeping of Passover in an unclean state (:12 "by the word of Yahweh"), He also made them recognize their sinfulness at this time.

30:23 If we truly love God, we will not be minimalists, doing the minimum required by His word; we will joyfully go beyond. For His commandments are but a springboard to more total dedication by us on our own initiative. We need to ask, when was the last time we decided to do something for God as it were "extra", on our own initiative?

Now when all this was finished, all Israel who were present went out to the cities of Judah, and broke in pieces the pillars, and cut down the Asherim, and broke down the high places and the altars out of all Judah and Benjamin, in Ephraim also and Manasseh, until they had destroyed them all. Then all the children of Israel returned each man to his possession, into their own cities.

Yahweh. <sup>4</sup> Moreover he commanded the people who lived in Jerusalem to give the portion of the priests and the Levites, that they might give themselves to the law of Yahweh.

31:3 The king's portion of his substance – Hezekiah led this reformation by his personal example – absolutely vital in any leadership role within God's people.

31:7 There are many 'small' details in the Biblical record which indicate that we are reading real history, inspired by God and infallible. The third month was at the end of the grain harvest, the time of the feast of Pentecost. The seventh month was at the end of the fruit and wine harvest, the time of the feast of tabernacles.

31:8 The Hebrew idea of 'blessing' carries more weight than a casual 'Bless you!' or 'Well done!'. It was loaded with the solemn belief that something actual would happen as a result of the blessing being pronounced (the same is true of the idea of 'cursing'). Passages like Ez. 44:30; Hag. 2:19 and Mal. 3:10,11 state that there would be material blessing in the homes of those who gave the tithe, and Hezekiah surely had this in mind. Our giving to God is responded to by Him; maybe not in cash terms (otherwise the concepts of giving and generosity lose their significance), but we can be assured that there will be a real blessing in response.

31:10 Several times in the record of Israel's history we have this feature – of response began to bring the offerings into the house of Yahweh, we have eaten and had enough, and have left plenty; for Yahweh has blessed His people. That which is left is this great store.

<sup>13</sup> Jehiel, Azariah, Nathath, Asahel, Jerimoth, Jozabad, Eliel, Ismachiah, Mahath and Benai-hah were overseers under the hand of Conaniah and Shimei his brother, by the appointment of Hezekiah the king, and Azariah the ruler of God's house. <sup>14</sup> Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, the porter at the east gate, was over the freewill offerings of God, to distribute the offerings of Yahweh and the most holy things.

<sup>15</sup> Under him were Eden, Miniamin, Jeshua, Shemaiah, Amariah and Shecaniah, in the cities of the priests, in their office of trust, to give to their brothers by divisions, both to the great and small. <sup>16</sup> Also under him were those who were reckoned by genealogy of males, from three years old and upward, even each one who entered into the house of Yahweh, as the duty of every day required, for their service in their offices according to their divisions; <sup>17</sup> and those who were reckoned by genealogy of the priests by their fathers' houses; and the Levites from twenty years old and upward, in their offices by their divisions; <sup>18</sup> and those who were reckoned by genealogy of all their little ones, their wives, their sons and their daughters, through all the congregation. In their office of trust they sanctified themselves in holiness. <sup>19</sup> Also for the sons of Aaron the priests, who were in the fields of the suburbs of their cities, in every city, there were men who were mentioned by name, to give portions to all the males among the priests, and to all who were reckoned by genealogy among the Levites. <sup>20</sup> Hezekiah did so throughout all Judah; and he worked that which was good and right and faithful before Yahweh his God. <sup>21</sup> In every work that he began in the service of God's house, and in the law, and in the commandments, to seek his God, he did it with all his heart, and prospered.

The Assyrian Invasion

After these things, and this faithfulness, Sennacherib king of

to a call for donations far over what was required (e.g. 24:10). And yet the prophets emphasize that Israel never really quit idol worship and were constantly rebellious against Yahweh. We observe from this that there was a conscience toward God amongst them, and people love and need to be given some concrete way of serving God; generally, people lack initiative and need to have a structure given to them within which they can serve God. But we also see that it's far easier to give material things at one point in time than to give our hearts to God for a lifetime.

32:1 After these things, and this faithfulness – This is clear enough evidence that devotion to God doesn't save us from trial, nor guarantee us an easy life in the flesh.

Assyria came, and entered into Judah, and encamped against the fortified cities, and thought to win them for himself. <sup>2</sup> When Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come, and that he was set to fight against Jerusalem, <sup>3</sup> he took counsel with his princes and his mighty men to stop the waters of the springs which were outside of the city; and they helped him. <sup>4</sup> So many people gathered together, and they stopped all the springs, and the brook that flowed through the midst of the land saying, Why should the kings of Assyria come, and find much water? <sup>5</sup> He took courage, and built up all the wall that was broken down, and raised it up to the towers, and the other wall outside, and strengthened Millo in the city of David, and made weapons and shields in abundance. <sup>6</sup> He set captains of war over the people, and gathered them together to him in the broad place at the gate of the city, and spoke to their hearts saying, <sup>7</sup> Be strong and courageous, don't be afraid nor dismayed for the king of Assyria, nor for all the multitude who is with him; for there is a greater One with us than with him. <sup>8</sup> With him is an arm of flesh; but with us is Yahweh our God to help us, and to fight our battles. The people rested themselves on the words of Hezekiah king of Judah. <sup>9</sup> After this, Sennacherib king of Assyria sent his servants to Jerusalem, (now he was before Lachish, and all his power with him), to Hezekiah king of Judah, and to all Judah who were at Jerusalem saying, <sup>10</sup> Thus says Sennacherib king of Assyria, In whom do you trust, that you remain under siege in Jerusalem? <sup>11</sup> Doesn't Hezekiah persuade you, to give you over to die by famine and by thirst by saying, 'Yahweh our God will deliver us out of the hand of the king of Assyria?' <sup>12</sup> Hasn't the same Hezekiah taken away His high places and His altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, You shall worship before one altar, and on it you shall burn incense? <sup>13</sup> Don't you know what I and my fathers have done to all the peoples of the lands? Were Hezekiah's devotion was extraordinary – and now calamity came. Although it could be that his dedication wasn't matched by Israel's, and the Assyrian crisis came as a result of their unfaithfulness.

32:12 His high places and His altars – We see in this comment the nature of Israel's apostasy. They hadn't rejected Yahweh totally, become atheists; rather they had proclaimed the pagan high places and altars as actually being Yahweh's, thus justifying pagan idol worship as if it were a form of Yahweh worship. Something similar happened when the pagan feast of December 25th and the worship of the evergreen tree was declared a Christian festival, and the pagan tree turned into the "Christmas tree". But we make the same mistake countless times, in justifying fleshly behaviour (e.g. anger, judgmentalism, gossip, pride, exclusivity, character destruction etc.) as a form of serving Yahweh.

32:13 All this was true; but to the faithful mind, it was actually an encouragement, although a discouragement to the weak in faith. Truly the pagan gods had been powerless, and so too would be the Assyrian gods.

the gods of the nations of the lands in any way able to deliver their land out of my hand? <sup>14</sup> Who was there among all the gods of those nations which my fathers utterly destroyed, that could deliver his people out of my hand, that your God should be able to deliver you out of my hand? <sup>15</sup> Now therefore don't let Hezekiah deceive you, nor persuade you in this way, neither believe him; for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of my hand, and out of the hand of my fathers. How much less will your God deliver you out of my hand? <sup>16</sup> His servants spoke yet more against Yahweh God, and against His servant Hezekiah. <sup>17</sup> He also wrote letters insulting Yahweh, the God of Israel, and to speak against Him saying, As the gods of the nations of the lands, which have not delivered their people out of my hand, so shall the God of Hezekiah not deliver His people out of my hand. <sup>18</sup> They cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language to the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall, to frighten them, and to trouble them; that they might take the city. <sup>19</sup> They spoke of the God of Jerusalem, as of the gods of the peoples of the earth, which are the work of men's hands. <sup>20</sup> Hezekiah the king, and Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz, prayed because of this, and cried to heaven. <sup>21</sup> Yahweh sent an angel, who cut off all the mighty men of valour, and the leaders and captains, in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned with shame of face to his own land. When he had come into the house of his god, those who came forth from his own bowels killed him there with the sword. <sup>22</sup> Thus Yahweh saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all others, and guided them on every side. <sup>23</sup> Many brought gifts to Yahweh to Jerusalem, and precious things to Hezekiah king of Judah; so that He was exalted in the sight of all nations from thenceforth.

Hezekiah's Poor Response to Grace

<sup>24</sup> In those days Hezekiah was sick even to death. He prayed to Yahweh; and He spoke to him, and gave him a sign. <sup>25</sup> But Hezekiah didn't render again according to the grace done to him. His heart was lifted up; therefore there was wrath on him, and on Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>26</sup> Notwithstanding, Hezekiah humbled himself for the pride of his heart, both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of Yahweh didn't come on them in the days of Hezekiah. <sup>27</sup> Hezekiah had exceeding much riches and honour and he set up treasuries for silver, and for gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for shields, and for all kinds of goodly vessels; <sup>28</sup> store-houses also for the increase of grain and new wine and oil; and stalls for all kinds of animals, and flocks in folds. <sup>29</sup> Moreover he provided him cities, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance; for God had given him very much substance. <sup>30</sup> This same Hezekiah also stopped the upper spring of the waters of Gihon, and brought them straight down on the west side of the city of David. Hezekiah prospered in all his works. <sup>31</sup> However concerning the ambassadors of the princes of Babylon, who sent to him to inquire of the wonder that was done in the land, God left him, to try him, that He might know all that was in his heart. <sup>32</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his good deeds, behold, they are written in the vision of Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz, in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. <sup>33</sup> Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the ascent of the tombs of the sons of David; and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem did him honour at his death. Manasseh his son reigned in his place.

32:21 Those who came forth from his own bowels – The reference is to his sons. But children come forth from the “bowels” or inner parts of a woman, not a man. But husband and wife are seen as one in the production of children; ‘they’ become pregnant and jointly bring forth children. This was a radical perspective in a society where women existed basically to bear children and the fathers carried little responsibility for their children.

32:24 In those days Hezekiah was sick even to death – 2 Kings 14:2 shows that Hezekiah reigned for 29 years, and the Assyrian invasion came in the 14th year of his reign. At the time of his sickness, God gave him another 15 years of life; hence his sickness and the invasion were at the same time. When circumstances come together in such an awful way, we know this is the hand of God trying to develop us; not coincidence, nor any personal Satan being, of whom the Bible knows nothing.

Manasseh's Great Wickedness

Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign; and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup> He did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, after the abominations of the nations whom Yahweh cast out before the children of Israel. <sup>3</sup> For he built again the high places which Hezekiah his father had broken down; and he reared up altars for the Baals, and made Asheroth, and worshipped all the army of the sky, and served them. <sup>4</sup> He built altars in the house of Yahweh, of which Yah-

32:25 We have all received grace; and the intended response to it is humility. It is because God so hugely values humility that He has arranged the whole concept of grace as the basis of our salvation. Those who deny grace and rather trust in works will therefore tend towards pride and away from humility.

33:2 Manasseh's father Hezekiah was a righteous man; his grandfather Ahaz a very wicked man. This just shows that spirituality isn't totally the result of our upbringing and background. We each stand as individuals before God and can overcome the influence of where we came from; and on the other hand, faithful parents are no guarantee of personal spirituality. It could be that Hezekiah in the last 15 years of his life was somewhat switched off from devotion to God, resting on his laurels and enjoying the good life in retirement. Whilst he didn't himself turn to other gods, this laid back attitude to the true God meant that his son turned away from Him.

weh said, My name shall be in Jerusalem forever. <sup>5</sup> He built altars for all the army of the sky in the two courts of the house of Yahweh. <sup>6</sup> He also made his children to pass through the fire in the valley of the son of Hinnom; and he practised sorcery and used enchantments, and practised witchcraft and dealt with those who had familiar spirits, and with wizards. He worked much evil in the sight of Yahweh, to provoke Him to anger. <sup>7</sup> He set the engraved image of the idol, which he had made, in God's house, of which God said to David and to Solomon his son, In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, will I put My name forever: <sup>8</sup> neither will I any more remove the foot of Israel from off the land which I have appointed for your fathers, if only they will observe to do all that I have commanded them, even all the law and the statutes and the ordinances given by Moses. <sup>9</sup> Manasseh seduced Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that they did more evil than the nations did whom Yahweh had destroyed before the children of Israel. <sup>10</sup> Yahweh spoke to Manasseh, and to his people; but they gave no heed. <sup>11</sup> Therefore Yahweh brought on them the captains of the army of the king of Assyria, who took Manasseh in chains, and bound him with fetters, and carried him to Babylon.

Manasseh's Repentance

<sup>12</sup> When he was in distress, he begged Yahweh his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers. <sup>13</sup> He prayed to Him; and He was entreated by him, and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that Yahweh was God. <sup>14</sup> Now after this he built an outer wall to the city of David, on the west side of Gihon, in the valley, even to the entrance at the fish gate; and he encircled Ophel with it, and raised it up to a very great height; and he put valiant captains in all the fortified cities of Judah. <sup>15</sup> He took away the foreign gods, and the idol out of the house of Yahweh, and all the altars that he had built in the mountain of the house of Yahweh, and in Jerusalem, and cast them out of the city. <sup>16</sup> He built up the altar of Yahweh, and offered thereon

33:12 Yahweh his God – God was still his God even in those years of revolt against Him; God never gives up with us so long as we live on this earth. Although Yahweh was his God, only on repentance years later did “Manasseh [know] that Yahweh was God” (:13), and we read of Yahweh as “his God” (:18). Thus in repentance, a man makes Yahweh's knowledge of him mutual; and in that meeting of God and man in repentance there is a huge synergy. All the Angels of God rejoice when one person repents (Lk. 15:10). Hence the huge, cosmic joy at each repentant baptism into Christ.

Humbled himself – This shows that no matter how wicked a person is, there is always a way back to God; but the supreme requirement is of humility. We should therefore never give up on people as too far gone. Self humbling is spoken of in :19 as the same as repentance; this is what repentance is all about, not a passing recognition on a mental level of a small slip, but a deep humbling of self.

sacrifices of peace offerings and of thanksgiving, and commanded Judah to serve Yahweh, the God of Israel. <sup>17</sup> Nevertheless the people sacrificed still in the high places, but only to Yahweh their God. <sup>18</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and his prayer to his God, and the words of the seers who spoke to him in the name of Yahweh, the God of Israel, behold, they are written among the acts of the kings of Israel. <sup>19</sup> His prayer also, and how God was entreated of him, and all his sin and his trespass, and the places in which he built high places, and set up the Asherim and the engraved images, before he humbled himself: they are written in the history of Hozai. <sup>20</sup> So Manasseh slept with his fathers, and they buried him in his own house; and Amon his son reigned in his place.

Amon's Wicked Reign

<sup>21</sup> Amon was twenty-two years old when he began to reign; and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. <sup>22</sup> He did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, as did Manasseh his father; and Amon sacrificed to all the engraved images which Manasseh his father had made, and served them. <sup>23</sup> He didn't humble himself before Yahweh, as Manasseh his father had humbled himself; but this same Amon trespassed more and more.

<sup>24</sup> His servants conspired against him, and put him to death in his own house. <sup>25</sup> But the people of the land killed all those who had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his place.

Josiah's Good Reign

Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign; and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup> He did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh, and walked in the ways of David his father, and didn't turn aside to the right hand or to the left. <sup>3</sup> For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet young, he began to seek after the God of David his father. In the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, and the Asherim, and the engraved images, and the molten images. <sup>4</sup> They broke down the altars of the Baals in his presence. He cut down the incense altars that were on high above them. He broke in pieces the Asherim, and the engraved images, and the molten images, and made dust of them, and strewed it on the graves of those who had sacrificed to them. <sup>5</sup> He burnt the bones of the priests on their altars, and purged Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>6</sup> He did this in the cities of Manasseh and Ephraim

33:22 The consequence of sin, even if we ourselves repent of it, is in the bad pattern it sets to others. Our examples are more powerful than we think; sin is largely sin because of the effect it has upon others.

34:3 A 16 year old can significantly search after God; and a 20 year old isn't too young to do major things for God or take a leadership role if there are no others willing to do so.

and Simeon, even to Naphtali, in their surrounding ruins. <sup>7</sup> He broke down the altars, and beat the Asherim and the engraved images into powder, and cut down all the incense altars throughout all the land of Israel, and returned to Jerusalem. <sup>8</sup> Now in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder, to repair the house of Yahweh his God. <sup>9</sup> They came to Hilkiah the high priest, and delivered the money that was brought into God's house, which the Levites, the keepers of the threshold, had gathered of the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, and of all the remnant of Israel, and of all Judah and Benjamin, and of the inhabitants of Jerusalem. <sup>10</sup> They delivered it into the hand of the workmen who had the oversight of the house of Yahweh. The workmen who laboured in the house of Yahweh gave it to mend and repair the house; <sup>11</sup> even to the carpenters and to the builders they gave it, to buy cut stone, and timber for couplings, and to make beams for the houses which the kings of Judah had destroyed. <sup>12</sup> The men did the work faithfully; and their overseers were Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites, of the sons of Merari; and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to set it forward; and others of the Levites, all who were skilful with instruments of music. <sup>13</sup> Also they were over the bearers of burdens, and set forward all who did the work in every kind of service. Of the Levites there were scribes, and officers, and porters.

The Book of the Law Discovered

<sup>14</sup> When they brought out the money that was brought into the house of Yahweh, Hilkiah the priest found

34:14 Hilkiah the priest found the book of the law of Yahweh given by Moses – Jeremiah (Jer. 15:16) says that when this book was found, it was to him the joy of his heart and he as it were ate it. Yet the part of the Law which was found listed the judgments for disobedience and the explanation of the terms of the covenant (:31). He didn't regard these things as some might – the boring droning on of God about sin. Jeremiah perceived in it God's requirements and the blessings for obedience, and rejoiced in it all, as only one who truly loves God can do. Note that in the generations that didn't have access to this book of the Law, there were still people who pleased God greatly, including Josiah. And yet they did so in ignorance of all His word. We who have the completed word of God so conveniently accessible can come to think that therefore anyone without a complete knowledge of God's word on every point cannot please Him or have a relationship with Him. But this is clearly not the case; for those at Josiah's time and the generation before who were ignorant of parts of God's word could still please Him. However we who have God's completed word have a far higher level of responsibility before Him. It could also be argued that God revealed more of His word and requirements to Josiah in response to Josiah's zeal to do the right thing before God so far as he knew, as with Cornelius in the New Testament. Those who truly seek after God will have His true word revealed to them.

the book of the law of Yahweh given by Moses. <sup>15</sup> Hilkiah answered Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of Yahweh. Hilkiah delivered the book to Shaphan. <sup>16</sup> Shaphan carried the book to the king, and moreover brought back word to the king, saying, All that was committed to your servants, they are doing. <sup>17</sup> They have emptied out the money that was found in the house of Yahweh, and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers, and into the hand of the workmen. <sup>18</sup> Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, Hilkiah the priest has delivered me a book. Shaphan read therein before the king. <sup>19</sup> It happened, when the king had heard the words of the law, that he tore his clothes. <sup>20</sup> The king commanded Hilkiah, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Abdon the son of Micah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the king's servant saying, <sup>21</sup> Go inquire of Yahweh for me, and for those who are left in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the book that is found. Great is the wrath of Yahweh that is poured out on us, because our fathers have not kept the word of Yahweh, to do according to all that is written in this book. <sup>22</sup> So Hilkiah, and they whom the king had commanded, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tokhath, the son of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe; (now she lived in Jerusalem in the second quarter), and they spoke to her to that effect. <sup>23</sup> She said to them, Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel: 'Tell the man who sent you to me, <sup>24</sup> Thus says Yahweh, Behold, I will bring evil on this place, and on its inhabitants, even all the curses that are written in the book which they have read before the king of Judah. <sup>25</sup> Because they have forsaken Me, and have burned incense to other gods, that they might provoke Me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore is My wrath poured out on this place, and it shall not be quenched'. <sup>26</sup> But to the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of Yahweh, thus you shall tell him, Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel: 'As touching the words which you have heard, <sup>27</sup> because your heart was tender, and you humbled yourself before God when you heard His words against this place, and against

34:19 He tore his clothes – He realized that sins of ignorance are still sins; hence the Law of Moses required offerings for sin once the sin was recognized. “Great wrath” was from God because of this disobedience, albeit performed in ignorance (:21). The fact sins of ignorance are still felt by God should lead us to search His word the more diligently to know what exactly He requires and hopes for from us. Spare a thought for God in this; He feels sin, all sin, committed by whoever, even in ignorance. His sensitivity to sin should lead us to vow the more passionately to live pleasingly before Him.

its inhabitants, and have humbled yourself before Me and have torn your clothes, and wept before Me; I also have heard you, says Yahweh. <sup>28</sup> Behold, I will gather you to your fathers, and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace, neither shall your eyes see all the evil that I will bring on this place, and on its inhabitants'. They brought back word to the king. <sup>29</sup> Then the king sent and gathered together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>30</sup> The king went up to the house of Yahweh, and all the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the priests, and the Levites, and all the people, both great and small; and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant that was found in the house of Yahweh. <sup>31</sup> The king stood in his place, and made a covenant before Yahweh, to walk after Yahweh, and to keep His commandments, His testimonies and His statutes, with all his heart, and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant that were written in this book. <sup>32</sup> He caused all who were found in Jerusalem and Benjamin to stand to it. The inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers. <sup>33</sup> Josiah took away all the abominations out of all the countries that pertained to the children of Israel, and made all who were found in Israel to serve, even to serve Yahweh their God. All his days they didn't depart from following Yahweh, the God of their fathers.

Josiah's Passover

Josiah kept a Passover to Yahweh in Jerusalem: and they killed the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month. <sup>2</sup> He set the priests in their offices, and encouraged them to the service of the house of Yahweh. <sup>3</sup> He said to the Levites who taught all Israel, who were holy to Yahweh, Put the holy ark in the house which Solomon the son of David king of Israel built. There shall no more be a burden on your shoulders. Now serve Yahweh your God and His people Israel. <sup>4</sup> Prepare yourselves after your fathers' houses by your divisions, according to the writing of David king of Israel, and according to the writing of Solomon his son. <sup>5</sup> Stand in the holy place according to the divisions of the fathers' houses of your brothers the children of the people, and let there be for each a portion of a father's house of the Levites. <sup>6</sup> Kill the Passover and sanctify yourselves, and prepare for your brothers, to do

34:31 Josiah didn't just accept the threatened judgment to come as inevitable. He believed that by repentance it could possibly be averted by God's grace, just as the people of Nineveh believed.

35:3 Serve Yahweh your God and His people – We serve God through serving His people; our attitude to them, our care for them, is effectively our attitude to the Lord, and will be the basis upon which we are judged at the last day (Mt. 25:40). We can't simply believe in God from the isolation of our own homes or computer screens, and not get involved with actively serving His people.

according to the word of Yahweh by Moses. <sup>7</sup> Josiah gave to the children of the people of the flock, lambs and young goats, all of them for the Passover offerings, to all who were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bulls. These were of the king's substance. <sup>8</sup> His princes gave for a freewill offering to the people, to the priests, and to the Levites. Hilkiah and Zechariah and Jehiel, the rulers of God's house, gave to the priests for the Passover offerings two thousand and six hundred small livestock, and three hundred head of cattle. <sup>9</sup> Conaniah also, and Shemaiah and Nethanel, his brothers, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jozabad, the chiefs of the Levites, gave to the Levites for the Passover offerings five thousand small livestock, and five hundred head of cattle. <sup>10</sup> So the service was prepared, and the priests stood in their place, and the Levites by their divisions, according to the king's commandment. <sup>11</sup> They killed the Passover, and the priests sprinkled the blood which they received of their hand, and the Levites flayed them. <sup>12</sup> They removed the burnt offerings, that they might give them according to the divisions of the fathers' houses of the children of the people, to offer to Yahweh, as it is written in the book of Moses. So they did with the cattle. <sup>13</sup> They roasted the Passover with fire according to the ordinance. They boiled the holy offerings in pots, in caldrons and in pans, and carried them quickly to all the children of the people. <sup>14</sup> Afterward they prepared for themselves, and for the priests, because the priests the sons of Aaron were busy with offering the burnt offerings and the fat until night; therefore the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the priests the sons of Aaron. <sup>15</sup> The singers the sons of Asaph were in their place, according to the commandment of David, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun the king's prophet. The porters were at every gate: they didn't need to depart from their service; for their brothers the Levites prepared for them. <sup>16</sup> So all the service of Yahweh was prepared the same day, to keep the Passover, and to offer burnt offerings on the altar of Yahweh, according to the commandment of king Josiah. <sup>17</sup> The children of Israel who were present kept the Passover at that time, and the feast of unleavened bread seven days. <sup>18</sup> There was no Passover like that kept in Israel from the days of Samuel the prophet; neither did any of the kings of Israel keep such a Passover as Josiah kept, and the priests, and the Levites, and all Judah

35:11 Flayed them— This seems to imply that the skin was flayed off the lambs, in uncanny prediction of Christ's whipping and scourging before His offering as the ultimate Passover lamb.

35:18 Neither did any of the kings of Israel keep such a Passover as Josiah kept — Kings like David and Solomon were more prosperous than Josiah was, and yet he was the more generous in his Passover celebration. Seeing that God isn't impressed by numbers of sacrifices, this may not necessarily be an indication of Josiah's spirituality; and Israel who were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. <sup>19</sup> In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah was this Passover kept.

Josiah's Death

<sup>20</sup> After all this, when Josiah had prepared the temple, Neco king of Egypt went up to fight against Carchemish by the Euphrates; and Josiah went out against him. <sup>21</sup> But he sent ambassadors to him saying, What have I to do with you, you king of Judah? I come not against you this day, but against the house with which I have war. God has commanded me to make haste. Beware and know that it is God who is with me, that he not destroy you. <sup>22</sup> Nevertheless Josiah would not turn his face from him, but disguised himself, that he might fight with him, and didn't listen to the words of Neco from the mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of Megiddo. <sup>23</sup> The archers shot at king Josiah; and the king said to his servants, Take me away, because I am seriously wounded! <sup>24</sup> So his servants took him out of the chariot, and put him in the second chariot that he had, and brought him to Jerusalem; and he died, and was buried in the tombs of his fathers. All Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah. <sup>25</sup> Jeremiah lamented for Josiah. All the singing men and singing women spoke of Josiah in their lamentations to this day; and they made them an ordinance in Israel. These are written in the lamentations. <sup>26</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and his good deeds, according to that which is written in the law of Yahweh, <sup>27</sup> and his acts, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

he should've learnt the lesson from the success of David and the failure of Solomon, that God seeks a broken heart rather than physical sacrifice. In any case, the people of Judah were soon taken into captivity because of their wickedness; Josiah gave them sacrifices to offer, whereas ideally they should've brought their own. We simply can't give spirituality to others.

35:21 This spirit of seeking a fight was his destruction; he should've learnt the lessons from Abijah in 13:3 who made the same mistake. God's history is written so that we might learn from it; but whilst it remains in our minds as mere history for the sake of it and doesn't become a living word speaking to us personally, it won't fulfil its intention. Perhaps Josiah's zeal for God had lifted him up in pride, and he thought that he could show his zeal for God by aggression towards 'the world', represented as always by Egypt. But aggression for the sake of it is so displeasing to God; God gave His Son to die for this world, this Egypt, rather than to try to destroy it for the sake of it. And it cost Josiah his life. Spiritual superiority, arrogance and aggression are simply so abhorrent to God.

35:22 The words of Neco from the mouth of God – The words of pagan Neco weren't inspired by God but were indirectly from Him, just as the words of Caiaphas were in Jn. 12:49-51. We mustn't think that unbelievers have nothing to teach us; God may be trying to communicate with us through them, although this doesn't make the channel of His communication righteous.

Then the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in his father's place in Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup> Joahaz was twenty-three years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup> The king of Egypt deposed him at Jerusalem, and fined the land one hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold. <sup>4</sup> The king of Egypt made Eliakim his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. Neco took Joahaz his brother, and carried him to Egypt. <sup>5</sup> Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. He did that which was evil in the eyes of Yahweh his God. <sup>6</sup> Against him came up Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and bound him in fetters, to carry him to Babylon. <sup>7</sup> Nebuchadnezzar also carried of the vessels of the house of Yahweh to Babylon, and put them in his temple at Babylon. <sup>8</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and his abominations which he did, and that which was found in him, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. Jehoiachin his son reigned in his place. <sup>9</sup> Jehoiachin was eight years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem. He did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh. <sup>10</sup> At the return of the year king Nebuchadnezzar sent, and brought him to Babylon, with the beautiful vessels of the house of Yahweh, and made Zedekiah his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>11</sup> Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. <sup>12</sup> He did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh his God; he didn't humble himself before Jeremiah the prophet speaking the words of Yahweh. <sup>13</sup> He also rebelled against king Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear by God; but he stiffened his neck, and hardened his heart against turning to Yahweh, the God of Israel. <sup>14</sup> Moreover all the chiefs of the priests, and the people, trespassed very greatly after all the abominations of the nations; and they polluted the house of Yahweh which He had made holy in Jerusalem. <sup>15</sup> Yahweh, the God of their fathers, sent to them by His messengers, rising up early and sending, because He had compassion on His people and on His dwelling place. <sup>16</sup> But they mocked the messengers of God, and despised His words and scoffed at His prophets, until the wrath of Yahweh arose against His people, until there was no remedy.

36:9 Jehoiachin was eight years old when he began to reign – 2 Kings 24:8 says he was 18, and Ez. 19:5-9 speaks of him as a young lion who killed people – relevant to an 18 year old but not an 8 year old. The Septuagint – the Greek version of the Old Testament which the New Testament writers tend to quote rather than the Hebrew text – gives “eighteen” here. This is an example of where although the Bible text itself is inspired, there may be slight errors of copying in a few places as the manuscripts were transmitted over the centuries.

Judah Taken Into Captivity

sia: <sup>21</sup> to fulfil the word of Yahweh by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed its Sabbaths. As long as it lay desolate it kept Sabbath, to fulfil seventy years. <sup>22</sup> Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of Yahweh by the mouth of Jeremiah might be accomplished, Yahweh stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, so that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing saying, <sup>23</sup> Thus says Cyrus king of Persia, Yahweh, the God of heaven has given all the kingdoms of the earth to me; and He has commanded me to build Him a house in Jerusalem which is in Judah. Whoever there is among you of all his people, Yahweh his God be with him, and let him go up.

36:17 King of the Chaldeans – Assyria is here called ‘Chaldea’ perhaps to bring out the fact the people of Abraham, who had been called out of Ur in Chaldea, were now returning there. The call of the Gospel is a call to separation; if we don't want to be separate from this world, we shall be returned there. When Christ returns, those responsible to Him will come before His judgment, and the rejected will be sent back into the world to share the judgments coming upon it (1 Cor. 11:32). But that will be the last thing they want – seeing the eternity of God's new world stretching before them, to be sent back into this world which they so preferred in this their day of opportunity.

36:22 Yahweh stirred up the spirit of Cyrus – Although God can work directly on the mind / spirit of people, Dan. 10:13 says that the Angel who brought this about was initially resisted by the king of Persia for 21 days. This amazing proclamation by Cyrus, to allow the Jews to return to their land with his blessing and rebuild their temple, was genuinely from him; and yet the Angel had worked through various ways to stir him up to it. The amount of Angelic activity going on behind the scenes in our lives and in the geopolitics of the world is amazing; God isn't indifferent nor inactive, but is ceaselessly at work to bring about His Kingdom plans for us His people.

The Temple to Be Rebuilt

Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of Yahweh by the mouth of Jeremiah might be accomplished, Yahweh stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, so that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying, <sup>2</sup> Thus says Cyrus king of Persia, ‘Yahweh, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth; and He has commanded me to build Him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. <sup>3</sup> Whoever there is among you of all His people, may his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the house of Yahweh, the God of Israel (He is God), which is in Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup> Whoever is left, in any place where he lives, let the men of his place help him with silver, with gold, with goods, and with animals, besides the freewill offering for God’s house which is in Jerusalem’.

Offerings for the Temple

<sup>5</sup> Then the heads of fathers’ households of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests, and the Levites, even all whose spirit God had stirred to go up, rose up to build the house of Yahweh which is in Jerusalem. <sup>6</sup> All those who were around them strengthened their hands with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods, and with animals, and with precious things, besides all that was willingly offered. <sup>7</sup> Also Cyrus the king brought forth the vessels of the house of Yahweh, which Nebuchadnezzar had brought out of Jerusalem, and had put in the house of his gods; <sup>8</sup> even those, Cyrus king of Persia brought out by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and numbered them to Sheshbazzar, the prince of Judah. <sup>9</sup> This is the number of them: thirty platters of

1:1 God ‘stirred up’ the spirit of Cyrus and also of the Jews who returned (:1,5). Isaiah uses the same Hebrew term to describe how Israel’s saviour would be “raised up” [s.w.] – Is. 41:2,25; 45:13. And yet Isaiah pleads with Zion, i.e. the faithful, to indeed be stirred up – Is. 51:17; 52:1 appeals to Zion to “Awake!” – the same word translated “stirred up”. But Isaiah tragically concluded that there were so few who would ‘stir up themselves’ (Is. 64:7). God had given them the potential to be ‘stirred up’ in their hearts and minds to leave Babylon and return – but they wouldn’t respond. And today, the same happens. God is willing to change hearts, to stir up materialistic and complacent spirits – but because we’re not robots, we have to respond. And yet, God’s grace still shines through. 1 Kings 8:47-50 had predicted that God would give the exiles compassion before their captors if they repented. They didn’t repent, as passages like Ez. 18 make clear (they blamed everything on their fathers and protested their personal innocence) – and yet still God gave them compassion in the eyes of their captors, through the amazing decrees of Cyrus enabling them to return to their land and rebuild the temple at his expense.

gold, one thousand platters of silver, twenty-nine knives, <sup>10</sup> thirty bowls of gold, silver bowls of a second sort four hundred and ten, and other vessels one thousand. <sup>11</sup> All the vessels of gold and of silver were five thousand four hundred. Sheshbazzar brought all these up, when the captives were brought up from Babylon to Jerusalem.

List of Those Who Returned from Exile

Now these are the children of the province, who went up out of the captivity of those who had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away to Babylon, and who returned to Jerusalem and Judah, each one to his city; <sup>2</sup> who came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah, Reeliah, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvai, Rehum, Baanah. The number of the men of the people of Israel: <sup>3</sup> The children of Parosh, two thousand one hundred and seventy-two. <sup>4</sup> The children of Shephatiah, three hundred and seventy-two. <sup>5</sup> The children of Arah, seven hundred and seventy-five. <sup>6</sup> The children of Pahathmoab, of the children of Jeshua and Joab, two thousand eight hundred and

2:1 The majority of Jews preferred to stay in Babylon. “The province” (singular) suggest that only a few Jews who lived in the province of Babylon returned (one out of 127 provinces; see 7:16 too), even though there were significant numbers of Jews in all the provinces, as the book of Esther makes clear (as also does Neh. 1:8, which says that the Babylonian captivity fulfilled God’s prophecy to scatter Israel amongst all nations). Those who did return were very significant to God, and He has therefore recorded their names and numbers to the individual, even how many donkeys went with them – each one who returned was so special to Him, just as we will be if we respond to the call of the restored Kingdom and come out from ‘Babylon’.

their mules, two hundred and forty-five; <sup>67</sup> their camels, four hundred and thirty-five; their donkeys, six thousand seven hundred and twenty.

More Offerings for the Temple

<sup>68</sup> Some of the heads of fathers' households, when they came to the house of Yahweh which is in Jerusalem, offered willingly for God's house to set it up in its place: <sup>69</sup> they gave after their ability into the treasury of the work sixty-one thousand darics of gold, five thousand minas of silver and one hundred priests' garments. <sup>70</sup> So the priests, and the Levites, and some of the people, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nethinim, lived in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.

Burnt Offerings Resume

When the seventh month had come and the children of Israel were in the cities, the people gath-

2:64 Haggai's criticism of the returnees is more understandable if we understand that most of them were the poor, who hadn't 'made it' in Babylon and who went to Judah hoping to get nice houses, great harvests and material blessings – rather than to rebuild God's house. It would be fair to infer that only the poor Jews returned from Babylon. The record here in :64-70 speaks of 42,360 people returning, along with 7,337 servants and 200 singers, making a total of 49,837. And yet only 8,100 animals went with them to transport them. This means that many would have walked. They carried 5,400 vessels for use in the temple – so the picture could be that their more wealthy brethren laded them with goods, but only the poor returned. Further, the list of towns of origin in Ezra 2 suggests it was mainly those who had originally lived in peripheral villages who returned, rather than the inhabitants of Jerusalem and larger cities. It's stressed twice that only "some" of the returned exiles supported the work of the temple (:68-70) – which was supposed to be the main reason for their return. We too can leave 'Babylon' by responding to the call of the Kingdom when actually our motivation is simply a disillusion with our present life, with life in 'Babylon', rather than a serious desire to work for the establishment of God's Kingdom.

ered themselves together as one man to Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup> Then Jeshua the son of Jozadak stood up with his brothers the priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and his brothers, and built the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt offerings thereon as it is written in the law of Moses the man of God. <sup>3</sup> In spite of their fear because of the peoples of the surrounding lands, they set the altar on its base; and they offered burnt offerings on it to Yahweh, even burnt offerings morning and evening. <sup>4</sup> They kept the feast of tents, as it is written, and offered the daily burnt offerings by number, according to the ordinance, as the duty of every day required; <sup>5</sup> and afterwards the continual burnt offering, the offerings of the new moons, of all the set feasts of Yahweh that were consecrated, and of each one who willingly offered a freewill offering to Yahweh. <sup>6</sup> From the first day of the seventh month, they began to offer burnt offerings to Yahweh; but the foundation of Yahweh's temple was not yet laid. <sup>7</sup> They also gave money to the masons, and to the carpenters. They also gave food, drink and oil to the people of Sidon and Tyre, to bring cedar trees from Lebanon to the sea, to Joppa, according to the grant that they had from Cyrus King of Persia.

The Rebuilding of the Temple Begins

<sup>8</sup> Now in the second year of their coming to God's house at Jerusalem, in the second month, Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the rest of their brothers the priests and the Levites, and all those who had come out of the captivity to Jerusalem, began the work and appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to have the oversight of the work of Yahweh's house. <sup>9</sup> Then Jeshua stood with his sons and his brothers, Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of Judah, together, having the oversight of the workmen in God's house: the sacrificial life before God and a genuine desire to hear God's word and obey it (:2-4).

3:3 Their fear – The promises of the restoration from Babylon had repeatedly emphasized that they were not to fear nor be dismayed because God would be behind their return – if they were returning to rebuild God's house and Kingdom rather than seek their own houses and kingdom (Jer. 30:10; Is. 41:10,13,14; 43:1,5; 44:2,8; 51:7; 54:4). This is such strong emphasis that we have to conclude that their fear was because they didn't allow God's prophetic word to influence them as they should have done.

3:7 According to the grant that they had from Cyrus King of Persia – Hag. 1:8, a prophecy given 18 years after the decree of Cyrus, orders the people to go up into the hills of Judah and get wood with which to build the temple. And yet we read here that the decree of Cyrus 18 years earlier had resulted in cedar wood being brought from Tyre and Sidon, enough for the temple to be built. Where did that wood go? Is the implication that the leadership had used it for their own wood ceilinged houses (Hag. 1:4)? It all seems so petty minded. But this is what we are tempted to do, time and again – build up our own house and leave God's house desolate and in a very poor second place.

sons of Henadad, with their sons and their brothers the Levites. <sup>10</sup> When the builders laid the foundation of Yahweh's temple, they set the priests in their clothing with trumpets, with the Levites the sons of Asaph with cymbals, to praise Yahweh, according to the directions of David king of Israel. <sup>11</sup> They sang to one another in praising and giving thanks to Yahweh: For He is good, for His grace endures forever toward Israel. All the people shouted with a great shout when they praised Yahweh, because the foundation of the house of Yahweh had been laid.

Joy and Weeping

<sup>12</sup> But many of the priests and Levites and heads of fathers' households, the old men who had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice. Many also shouted aloud for joy, <sup>13</sup> so that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people; for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard far away.

CHAPTER 4 Nov.9

Opposition to Rebuilding the Temple

Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity were building a temple to Yahweh, the God of Israel; <sup>2</sup> then they drew near to Zerubbabel, and to the heads of fathers' households and said to them, Let us build with you; for we seek your God, as you do; and we sacrifice to Him since the days of Esar Haddon king of Assyria, who brought us up here. <sup>3</sup> But Zerubbabel, and Jeshua, and the rest of the heads of fathers' households of Israel, said to them, You have nothing in common with us in building a house to our God; but we ourselves together will build to Yahweh, the God of Israel, as king Cyrus the king of Persia has commanded us. <sup>4</sup> Then the people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Judah, and troubled them in building, <sup>5</sup> and hired counsellors against them to frustrate their purpose, all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia.

A Letter Sent to the King of Persia

<sup>6</sup> In the reign of Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, they wrote an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>7</sup> In the days of Artaxerxes wrote Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel and the rest of his companions, to Artaxerxes king of Persia; and the writing of the letter was written in Syrian, and set forth

3:12 The young and old didn't rejoice together as required by the restoration prophecy of Jer. 31:12-13. Instead the old men wept, perhaps at how small the temple was compared even with Solomon's, at how Ezekiel's temple wasn't being rebuilt; whilst the younger ones rejoiced.

4:2 We seek your God, as you do – They didn't actually seek the God of Israel. The fact people have some belief in a 'god' and perform religious worship doesn't mean in the Syrian language. <sup>8</sup> Rehum the chancellor and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king in this way: <sup>9</sup> then Rehum the chancellor, and Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their companions, the Dinaites, and the Apharsathchites, the Tarpelites, the Apharsites, the Archevites, the Babylonians, the Shushanchites, the Dehaites, the Elamites, <sup>10</sup> and the rest of the nations whom the great and noble Osnappar brought over, and set in the city of Samaria, and in the rest of the country beyond the River, and so forth, wrote. <sup>11</sup> This is the copy of the letter that they sent to Artaxerxes the king:

Opposition to Rebuilding Jerusalem

Your servants the men beyond the River, and so forth. <sup>12</sup> Be it known to the king, that the Jews who came up from you have come to us to Jerusalem; they are building the rebellious and the bad city, and have finished the walls, and repaired the foundations. <sup>13</sup> Be it known now to the king that if this city is built, and the walls finished, they will not pay tribute, custom, or toll, and in the end it will be hurtful to the kings. <sup>14</sup> Now because we eat the salt of the palace, and it is not right for us to see the king's dishonour, therefore have we sent and informed the king; <sup>15</sup> that search may be made in the book of the records of your fathers: so you shall find in the book of the records, and know that this city is a rebellious city, and hurtful to kings and provinces, and that they have made rebellion within the same city from old time; for which cause this city was laid waste. <sup>16</sup> We inform the king that if this city be built and the walls finished, because of this you shall have no portion beyond the River.

The King Orders the Rebuilding to Stop

<sup>17</sup> Then the king sent an answer to Rehum the chancellor, and to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of their companions who dwell in Samaria, and in the rest of the country beyond the River: Peace, and so forth. <sup>18</sup> The letter which you sent to us has been plainly read before me. <sup>19</sup> I decreed, and search has been made, and it is found that this city of old time has made insurrection against kings, and that rebellion and sedition have been made in it. <sup>20</sup> There have been mighty kings also over Jerusalem, who have ruled over all the country beyond the River; and tribute, custom, and toll, was paid to them. <sup>21</sup> Make a decree now to cause these men to cease, and that this city not be built, until a decree shall be made by me. <sup>22</sup> Take heed that you not be slack herein: why should damage grow to that the people of the true God have anything in common with them. The mantra of 'unity' has often been used in attempts to undermine the work of the true God. We live in a world of reductionism whereby the lowest common denominator is often used as a tool for manipulation. Yet the true God stands revealed in His word as He is and the core of the Gospel is in that sense non-negotiable.

the hurt of the kings? <sup>23</sup> Then when the copy of king Artaxerxes' letter was read before Rehum and Shimshai the scribe and their companions, they went in haste to Jerusalem to the Jews, and made them to cease by force and power. <sup>24</sup> Then ceased the work of God's house which is at Jerusalem; and it ceased until the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

Rebuilding the Temple Starts Again

Now the prophets, Haggai the prophet, and Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied to the Jews who were in Judah and Jerusalem; in the name of the God of Israel they prophesied to them. <sup>2</sup> Then rose up Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and began to build God's house which is at Jerusalem; and with them were the prophets of God, helping them. <sup>3</sup> At the same time came to them Tattenai, the governor beyond the River, and Shetharbozenai, and their companions, and said thus to them, Who gave you a decree to build this house, and to finish this wall? <sup>4</sup> Then we told them in this way, what the names of the men were who were making this building. <sup>5</sup> But the eye

4:24 This means that the work of rebuilding the temple was suspended for 21 years. This corresponds to the 21 days (a day representing a year) during which the Angel Gabriel worked on the prince of Persia to make him genuinely support the work of rebuilding, even though during that period the prince of Persia resisted him (Dan. 10:13). This was in response to Daniel's 21 days of prayer (Dan. 10:1,12). So although it may seem that God is distant and everything is in the hands of human rulers, in fact the Angels are actively at work, not forcing people to do what they don't want, but seeking to arrange circumstances so that they make the choices which favour God's work going forward. But because of this desire not to 'force' men, there are such delays. This is one way to explain the apparent silence of God at times in our lives, and the way that humanly, things can appear to 'go wrong'.

5:1 Ezra 4 says that the reason the temple was not further rebuilt was because of the decree of Artaxerxes suspending the building programme; then Haggai came and told Israel that the temple wasn't built because they had preferred to build their own ceiled houses (Hag. 1:4). So God had confirmed the people in the way they chose. They preferred to build their houses rather than His, so He stopped them from building His house altogether until they wholeheartedly recommitted themselves to Him. God arranges circumstances in our lives to try to bring us toward total commitment rather than a surface level devotion which is made out of social necessity.

5:2 With them were the prophets of God, helping them – The prophets didn't merely speak God's word and think they had done their job by relaying it; they proactively worked to as it were bring about the fulfilment of the things they predicted. We should have the same spirit, living according to the good news of the Kingdom which we preach.

5:3, 4 This is a situation very similar to that in Acts 4:18-21, where the early Christians were ordered not to preach about Christ and likewise threatened, but they felt they must do God's will above the will of man. And true believers often have this of their God was on the elders of the Jews, and they did not make them cease, until the matter should come to Darius, and then answer should be returned by letter concerning it. <sup>6</sup> This is the copy of the letter that Tattenai, the governor beyond the River, and Shetharbozenai, and his companions the Apharsachites, who were beyond the River, sent to Darius the king.

A Letter Sent to Darius

<sup>7</sup> They sent a letter to him, in which was written thus: To Darius the king, all peace. <sup>8</sup> Be it known to the king, that we went into the province of Judah, to the house of the great God, which is built with great stones, and timber is laid in the walls; and this work goes on with diligence and prospers in their hands. <sup>9</sup> Then we asked those elders, and said to them thus, Who gave you a decree to build this house, and to finish this wall? <sup>10</sup> We asked them their names also, to inform you that we might write the names of the men who were at their head. <sup>11</sup> Thus they returned us answer saying, We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and are building the house that was built these many years ago, which a great king of Israel built and finished. <sup>12</sup> But after that our fathers had provoked the God of heaven to wrath, He gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this house, and carried the people away into Babylon. <sup>13</sup> But in the first year of Cyrus king of Babylon, Cyrus the king made a decree to build this house of God. <sup>14</sup> The gold and silver vessels also of God's house, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem, and brought into the temple of Babylon, those Cyrus the king took out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered to one whose name was Sheshbazzar, whom he had made governor; <sup>15</sup> and he said to him, 'Take these vessels, go, put them in the temple that is in Jerusalem, and let God's house be built in its place'. <sup>16</sup> Then the same Sheshbazzar came, and laid the foundations of God's house which is in Jerusalem: and since that time even until now has it been in building, and yet it is not completed. <sup>17</sup> Now therefore, if it seem good to the king, let a search be made in the king's treasure house, which is there at Babylon, whether it be so, that a decree was made of Cyrus the king to build this house of God at Jerusalem; and let the king send his pleasure to us concerning this matter.

The Search for Cyrus' Decree

Then Darius the king made a decree, and search was made in the house of the archives, where the treasures were laid up in Babylon. <sup>2</sup> There was found at Achmetha, in choice; we are to seek to live obediently in the societies within which we live, but we cannot obey any command (especially relating to military service) which causes us to disobey God's principles. God's word must come before the word of men.

the palace that is in the province of Media, a scroll, and therein was thus written for a record: <sup>3</sup> In the first year of Cyrus the king, Cyrus the king made a decree: Concerning God's house at Jerusalem, let the house be built, the place where they offer sacrifices, and let its foundations be strongly laid; its height sixty cubits, and its breadth sixty cubits; <sup>4</sup> with three courses of great stones, and a course of new timber: and let the expenses be given out of the king's house. <sup>5</sup> Also let the gold and silver vessels of God's house, which Nebuchadnezzar took forth out of the temple which is at Jerusalem and brought to Babylon, be restored, and brought again to the temple which is at Jerusalem, each one to its place; and you shall put them in God's house.

A New Decree for the Work to Continue

<sup>6</sup> Now therefore, Tattenai, governor beyond the River, Shetharbozenai, and your companions the Apharsachites, who are beyond the River, you must not hinder this matter. <sup>7</sup> Leave the work of this house of God alone;

let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews build this house of God in its place. <sup>8</sup> Moreover I make a decree what you shall do to these elders of the Jews for the building of this house of God: that of the king's goods, even of the tribute beyond the River, expenses be given with all diligence to these men, that they be not hindered. <sup>9</sup> That which they have need of, both young bulls, and rams, and lambs, for burnt offerings to the God of heaven; also wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the word of the priests who are at Jerusalem, let it be given them day by day without fail; <sup>10</sup> that they may offer sacrifices of pleasant aroma to the God of heaven, and pray for the life of the king and of his sons. <sup>11</sup> Also I have made a decree, that whoever shall alter this word, let a beam be pulled out from his house, and let him be lifted up and fastened thereon; and let his house be made a dunghill for this: <sup>12</sup> and the God who has caused His name to dwell there overthrow all kings and peoples who shall put forth their hand to alter the same, to destroy this house of God which is at Jerusalem. I Darius have made a decree; let it be done with all diligence. <sup>13</sup> Then Tattenai, the governor beyond the River, Shetharbozenai, and their companions, because Darius the king had sent a decree, did accordingly with all diligence. <sup>14</sup> The elders of the Jews built and prospered, through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. They built and finished it, according to the commandment of the God of Israel, and according to the decree of Cyrus, and Darius, and Artaxerxes king of Persia. <sup>15</sup> This house was finished on the third day of the month Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of Darius the king.

6:3 Sixty cubits – The temple which Cyrus commanded the Jews to build in Jerusalem was of different (smaller) dimensions to that of Ezekiel. Two possibilities arise here. Either Israel chose to listen to the words of man rather than those of God through Ezekiel; or perhaps God reduced the dimensions, knowing that this was within the capability of Israel to achieve. In any case, Israel were encouraged by Divine prophesy in the work of building according to the pattern which Cyrus had given (:14). God is so eager to work with men that He will work with us on our lower level, even if it is a level lower than what we are capable of. And so we should treat our weaker brethren.

6:10 Paul exhorts us to pray for kings and governors, in the very language of the LXX here about the returnees praying in the new temple for the kings of Babylon (1 Tim. 2:1,2).

Joyous Dedication of the Temple

<sup>16</sup> The children of Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the rest of the children of the captivity, kept the dedication of this house of God with joy. <sup>17</sup> They offered at the dedication of this house of God one hundred bulls, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; and for a sin offering for all Israel, twelve male goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel. <sup>18</sup> They set the priests in their divisions, and the Levites in their courses, for the service of God, which is at Jerusalem; as it is written in the book of Moses. <sup>19</sup> The children of the captivity kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month. <sup>20</sup> For the priests and the Levites had purified themselves together; all of them were pure: and they killed the Passover for all the children of the captivity, and for their brothers the priests, and for themselves. <sup>21</sup> The children of Israel who had come again out of the captivity, and all such as had separated themselves to them from the filthiness of the nations of the land, to seek Yahweh, the God of Israel, ate, <sup>22</sup> and kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with joy: for Yahweh had made them joyful, and had turned the heart of the king of Assyria to them, to strengthen their hands in the work of God's house, the God of Israel.

Ezra Comes to Jerusalem

Now after these things, in the reign of Artaxerxes king of Persia, Ezra the son of Seraiah, the son

6:21 The account of Judah's separation from the surrounding peoples reads similarly to that of the purges from idolatry during the reign of the kings. They separated / purged, and then, within a few years, we read of them doing so again. Initially, the exiles separated from the peoples of the land; by 9:1 they are in need of separating again; and by 10:11 likewise; then they separate (10:16), only to need another call to separation by the time of Neh. 9:2; 13:3. Our natures gravitate downwards, and any personal spiritual reformation we achieve has to be consciously maintained.

6:22 Yahweh had made them joyful, and had turned the heart of the king of Assyria – Constantly we see evidence of God's ability to give people attitudes of mind, e.g. joy, and to affect how even unbelieving kings think about His people (Prov. 21:1). As believers in Christ, our greatest need is for spiritual mindedness, to think spiritually rather about worldly and fleshly things; and we can ask God to help us in this. For He surely has the power to change our hearts.

of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah, <sup>2</sup> the son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub, <sup>3</sup> the son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth, <sup>4</sup> the son of Zerahiah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki, <sup>5</sup> the son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest; <sup>6</sup> this Ezra went up from Babylon: and he was a willing scribe in the law of Moses, which Yahweh, the God of Israel, had given; and the king granted him all his request, according to the hand of Yahweh his God on him. <sup>7</sup> There went up some of the children of Israel, and of the priests, the Levites, the singers, the porters and the Nethinim, to Jerusalem, in the seventh year of Artaxerxes the king. <sup>8</sup> He came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king. <sup>9</sup> For on the first day of the first month began he to go up from Babylon; and on the first day of the fifth month came he to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of his God on him. <sup>10</sup> For Ezra had set his heart to seek the law of Yahweh, and to do it, and to teach in Israel statutes and ordinances.

The Letter of Artaxerxes

<sup>11</sup> Now this is the copy of the letter that the king Artaxerxes gave to Ezra the priest, the scribe, even the scribe of the words of the commandments

7:2 *Son of Zadok – It could have been possible for the Messianic Kingdom to have been established at the time of the restoration, and Ezekiel's temple prophecies would then have been fulfilled. Ezekiel emphasised that the sons of Zadok were to organize priestly work in the temple (Ez. 40:46; 43:19; 44:15; 48:11); Ezra, the leader of the initial restoration, was one of the sons of Zadok. He was in a position to fulfil those prophecies, although the bulk of his brethren seem to have precluded this. Ezra was enabled to 'beautify' the temple (:27), the very same word used in Is. 60:7,9,13 about how God would "glorify" [s.w.] His temple with merchandise from throughout the Babylonian empire – all of which was willingly offered by Cyrus and Darius. Ez. 40-48 stress the "gates" dozens of times; and Nehemiah's account likewise stresses many times the attention he paid to setting up the "gates" [s.w.], as if he saw his work as fulfilling Ezekiel's words. Ez. 40:42 speaks of the vessels to be used in the temple [AV "instruments"] with the same word used for the temple vessels which were brought up out of Babylon back to Judah, in fulfilment of several of Isaiah's 'Kingdom' passages (Ezra 1:6-11; 8:25-33 cp. Is. 52:11; 66:20). God's relationship with Israel has in a sense been one long story of Him working out amazingly detailed and extensive potentials, which human inattention and lack of faith and vision meant didn't come true. But still He endures, trying to work with us, and is so thrilled at our attempts to respond. What relief and rejoicing and fulfilment God will have when His Son finally fulfils all these potential scenarios in their essence at His return.

7:10 *For Ezra had set his heart – Ezra went up to Jerusalem with his heart set on fulfilling God's word there; and this was exactly the attitude of Jesus. It was evident from His body language that His heart was set upon going to Jerusalem to die there (Lk. 9:51,53). Ezra's single-minded focus upon his objective should be our pattern too; not gaining worldly wealth or honour, but rather the building up of God's house and people, and the things of His Kingdom.

of Yahweh, and of His statutes to Israel: <sup>12</sup> Artaxerxes, king of kings, to Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, perfect peace and so forth. <sup>13</sup> I make a decree, that all those of the people of Israel, and their priests and the Levites, in my realm, who are minded of their own free will to go to Jerusalem, go with you. <sup>14</sup> Because you are sent of the king and his seven counsellors, to inquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem, according to the law of your God which is in your hand, <sup>15</sup> and to carry the silver and gold, which the king and his counsellors have freely offered to the God of Israel whose habitation is in Jerusalem, <sup>16</sup> and all the silver and gold that you shall find in all the province of Babylon, with the freewill offering of the people, and of the priests, offering willingly for the house of their God which is in Jerusalem; <sup>17</sup> therefore you shall with all diligence buy with this money bulls, rams, lambs, with their meal offerings and their drink offerings, and shall offer them on the altar of the house of your God which is in Jerusalem. <sup>18</sup> Whatever shall seem good to you and to your brothers to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, do that after the will of your God. <sup>19</sup> The vessels that are given to you for the service of the house of your God, deliver before the God of Jerusalem. <sup>20</sup> Whatever more shall be needful for the house of your God, which you shall have occasion to grant, grant it out of the king's treasure house. <sup>21</sup> I, even I Artaxerxes the king, do make a decree to all the treasurers who are beyond the River, that whatever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, shall require of you, it be done with all diligence, <sup>22</sup> to one hundred talents of silver, one hundred measures of wheat, one hundred baths of wine, one hundred baths of oil, and salt without prescribing how much. <sup>23</sup> Whatever is commanded by the God of heaven, let it be done exactly for the house of the God of heaven; for why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and his sons? <sup>24</sup> Also we inform you, that concerning any of the priests and Levites, the singers, porters, Nethinim, or servants of this house of God, it shall not be lawful to impose tribute, custom, or toll on them. <sup>25</sup> You, Ezra, after the wisdom of your God which is in your hand, appoint magistrates and judges who may judge all the people who are beyond the River, all such as know the laws of your God; and teach him who doesn't know them. <sup>26</sup> Whoever will not do the law of your God, and the law of the king, let judgement be executed on him with all diligence, whether it be to death, or to banishment, or to confiscation of goods, or to imprisonment.

Ezra's Response

<sup>27</sup> Blessed be Yahweh, the God of our fathers, who has put such a thing as this in the king's heart, to beautify the house of Yahweh which is in Jerusalem; <sup>28</sup> and has extended grace to me before the king, his counselors and before all the king's mighty princes. I was strengthened according to the hand of Yahweh my God upon me, and I gathered together out of Israel chief men to go up with me.

The People Who Returned with Ezra

Now these are the heads of their fathers' households, and this is the genealogy of those who went up with me from Babylon, in the reign of Artaxerxes the king: <sup>2</sup> Of the sons of Phinehas, Gershom. Of the sons of Ithamar, Daniel. Of the sons of David, Hattush. <sup>3</sup> Of the sons of Shecaniah, of the sons of Parosh, Zechariah; and with him were reckoned by genealogy of the males one hundred and fifty. <sup>4</sup> Of the sons of Pahathmoab, Eliehoenai the son of Zerariah; and with him two hundred males. <sup>5</sup> Of the sons of Shecaniah, the son of Jahaziel; and with him three hundred males. <sup>6</sup> Of the sons of Adin, Ebed the son of Jonathan; and with him fifty males. <sup>7</sup> Of the sons of Elam, Jeshaiiah the son of Athaliah; and with him seventy males. <sup>8</sup> Of the sons of Shephatiah, Zebadiah the son of Michael; and with him eighty males. <sup>9</sup> Of the sons of Joab, Obadiah the son of Jehiel; and with him two hundred and eighteen males. <sup>10</sup> Of the sons of Shelomith, the son of Josiphiah; and with him one hundred and sixty males. <sup>11</sup> Of the sons of Bebai, Zechariah the son of Bebai; and with him twenty-eight males. <sup>12</sup> Of the sons of Azgad, Johanan the son of Hakkatan; and with him one hundred and ten males. <sup>13</sup> Of the sons of Adonikam, who were the last; and these are their names: Eliphelet, Jeuel, and Shemaiah; and with them sixty males. <sup>14</sup> Of the sons of Bigvai, Uthai and Zabbud; and with them seventy males.

Ezra Finds Levites for the Temple

<sup>15</sup> I gathered them together to the river that runs to Ahava; and there we encamped three days: and I viewed the people and the priests, and found there none of the sons of Levi. <sup>16</sup> Then sent I for Eliezer, for Ariel, for Shemaiah, and for Elnathan, and for Jarib, and for Elnathan, and for Nathan, and for Zechariah, and for Meshullam, chief men; also for Joiarib, and for Elnathan, who were teachers. <sup>17</sup> I sent them forth to Iddo the chief at the place Casiphia; and I told them what they should tell Iddo, and his brothers the Nethinim, at the place Casiphia, that they should bring to us ministers for the house of our God. <sup>18</sup> According to the good hand of our God on us they brought us a man of discretion, of the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel; and Sherebiah, with his sons and his brothers, eighteen; <sup>19</sup> and Hashabiah, and with him Jeshaiiah of the sons of Merari, his brothers and their sons, twenty; <sup>20</sup> and of the Nethinim, whom David and the princes had given for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Nethinim: all of them were mentioned by name.

Fasting and Prayer

at the river Ahava, that we might humble ourselves before our God, to seek of Him a straight way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our substance. <sup>22</sup> For I was ashamed to ask of the king a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy in the way, because we had spoken to the king saying, The hand of our God is on all those who seek Him for good; but His power and His wrath is against all those who forsake Him. <sup>23</sup> So we fasted and begged our God for this: and He was entreated of us.

Offerings for the Temple

<sup>24</sup> Then I set apart twelve of the chiefs of the priests, even Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brothers with them, <sup>25</sup> and weighed to them the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, even the offering for the house of our God, which the king, and his counsellors, and his princes, and all Israel there present, had offered: <sup>26</sup> I weighed into their hand six hundred fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels one hundred talents; of gold one hundred talents; <sup>27</sup> and twenty bowls of gold, of one thousand darics; and two vessels of fine bright brass, precious as gold. <sup>28</sup> I said to them, You are holy to Yahweh, and the vessels are holy; and the silver and the gold are a freewill offering to Yahweh, the God of your fathers. <sup>29</sup> Guard and keep them, until you weigh them before the chiefs of the priests and the Levites, and the princes of the fathers' households of Israel, at Jerusalem, in the rooms of the house of Yahweh. <sup>30</sup> So the priests and the Levites received the weight of the silver and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem to the house of our God.

Return to Jerusalem

8:21 A straight way for us – God's people had been prophesied as returning, walking "by the rivers of waters in a straight way, wherein they shall not stumble" (Jer. 31:9). Ezra fasted for them to be given a "straight way", as Jeremiah had foretold they could have. He saw the need for them to make the effort to fulfil the prophecy of Ezekiel's vision in which the cherubim made "straight" progress (Ez. 1:12); the wheels on earth surely connect with how Israel should have been, moving in a straight way back to the land, in harmony with the Angel-cherubim above them likewise moving in a straight way. But they failed to "keep in step with the Spirit" (Gal. 5:25). They were to walk "each one straight before him" (Is. 57:2 Heb.), as each of the cherubim went straight ahead (Ez. 1:12). We too are not alone in this world, we are being guided by the Angels above, and are to walk in step with them.

8:22 The returning exiles had been comforted by the prophetic word: "Fear not... I will help you" (Is. 41:10). Ezra was ashamed to ask for help against Judah's enemies, the implication being that he wanted that human help but was ashamed to ask for it from the King. He had initially believed those words of Isaiah, but found it hard to maintain that level of faith. We find ourselves so often in this situation as we struggle to believe God's promises in the midst of our secular lives.

hand of our God was on us, and He delivered us from the hand of the enemy and the bandit by the way. <sup>32</sup> We came to Jerusalem, and stayed there three days. <sup>33</sup> On the fourth day the silver and the gold and the vessels were weighed in the house of our God into the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the priest; and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas; and with them was Jozabad the son of Jeshua, and Noadiah the son of Binnui, the Levite. <sup>34</sup> Everything was counted and weighed: and all the weight was written at that time. <sup>35</sup> The children of the captivity, who had come out of exile, offered burnt offerings to the God of Israel, twelve bulls for all Israel, ninety-six rams, seventy-seven lambs and twelve male goats for a sin offering: all this was a burnt offering to Yahweh. <sup>36</sup> They delivered the king's commissions to the king's satraps, and to the governors beyond the River: and they furthered the people and God's house.

Ezra Learns of Mixed Marriages

Now when these things were done, the princes drew near to me saying, The people of Israel, and the priests and the Levites, have not separated themselves from the peoples of the lands and are following their abominations, even those of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites. <sup>2</sup> For they have taken of their daughters for themselves and for their sons, so that the holy seed have mixed themselves with the peoples of the lands. Yes, the hand of the princes and rulers has been chief in this trespass.

Ezra Is Distressed and Prays

<sup>3</sup> When I heard this thing, I tore my garment and my robe, and plucked off the hair of my head and of my beard, and sat down confounded.

<sup>4</sup> Then were assembled to me all who

9:1 The Levites in the restored Kingdom were not to marry divorcees or Gentiles (Ez. 44:22); but they did just this (see too Mal. 2:11-16). Time and again, they didn't have the Kingdom experience because they didn't want it. All who truly love the Kingdom and want it to ultimately be real for them will have it (2 Tim. 4:8).

9:2 For they have taken of their daughters – This was why they were following the idols of the Gentiles (:1). Marriage out of the faith is strongly associated with adopting the religion of the unbelieving partner. Whatever exceptions there are to this rule, that is the general pattern – be it the worship of Baal in those times, or agnosticism today. This is the spiritual danger of marriage to unbelievers.

9:3 Plucked off the hair of my head – The very punishment for marriage out of the faith at this time (Neh. 13:25). Ezra so identified with his weak brethren that he felt as if he himself had committed the sin; he even blushed before God because of the failure of His people with whom He was so closely identified (:6). This should be our response when we encounter weakness in our brethren, rather than self-righteousness and mental or physical separation from them as persons. The Lord Jesus supremely identified with us as sinners in His time of dying; our similar identity with our sinful brethren is therefore one way of living out the spirit of the cross.

trembled at the words of the God of Israel, because of the transgression of those that had been carried away; and I sat confounded until the evening offering. <sup>5</sup> At the evening offering I arose up from my humiliation, even with my garment and my robe torn; and I fell on my knees, and spread out my hands to Yahweh my God; <sup>6</sup> and I said, My God, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to You, my God; for our iniquities have increased over our head, and our guiltiness has grown up to the heavens. <sup>7</sup> Since the days of our fathers we have been exceeding guilty to this day; and for our iniquities we, our kings and our priests, have been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, to plunder and to confusion of face, as it is this day. <sup>8</sup> Now for a little moment grace has been shown from Yahweh our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a nail in His holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes, and give us a little reviving in our bondage. <sup>9</sup> For we are bondservants; yet our God has not forsaken us in our bondage, but has extended loving kindness to us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to give us a reviving, to set up the house of our God, to repair its ruins, and to give us a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem. <sup>10</sup> Now, our God, what shall we say after this? For we have forsaken Your commandments <sup>11</sup> which You have commanded by Your servants the prophets saying, ‘The land, to which you go to possess it, is an unclean land through the uncleanness of the peoples of the lands, through their abominations, which have filled it from one end to another with their filthiness. <sup>12</sup> Now therefore don’t give your daughters to their sons, neither take their daughters to your sons, nor seek their peace or their prosperity forever; that you may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children forever’. <sup>13</sup> After all that has come upon us for

9:4 The sins of those who returned are called “the transgression of those that had been carried away”. Yet those who returned to the land weren’t mainly the generation who had been carried away. The intended confusion is surely to suggest that those who returned committed the same sins as had led Judah into captivity a generation earlier. Ezra comments on this fact in his subsequent prayer (:7). One sad thing about spiritual history is that so few learn the lessons from others’ failures; the entire Bible is in one sense a history of spiritual failure, written for our learning (Rom. 15:4).

9:9 Ezra referred to the Jews in Babylon as those “bondservants... in bondage” – when historical records, as well as the book of Esther and the fact Nehemiah the Jew was the king’s cupbearer, show that the Jews were very far from being servants in Babylonian society. Yet Ezra perceived the spiritual poverty and servanthood of remaining in that affluent society, compared to the freedom of giving it all up and going to rebuild the ruins of Zion.

9:13 Ezra said that God had punished them less than their iniquities deserved; yet he appears to have in mind Is. 40:2, where God said that at the time of Zion’s restoration, He would admit to having punished her “double for all her sins”. Yahweh in His love our evil deeds and for our great guilt, since You, our God, has punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and has given us such a remnant, <sup>14</sup> shall we again break Your commandments, and join in affinity with the peoples that do these abominations? Wouldn't You be angry with us until You had consumed us, so that there should be no remnant, nor any to escape? <sup>15</sup> Yahweh, the God of Israel, You are righteous; for we are left a remnant that has escaped, as it is this day. Behold, we are before You in our guiltiness; for we cannot remain before You because of this.

A Plan to End Mixed Marriages

Now while Ezra prayed and made confession, weeping and casting himself down before God's house, there was gathered together to him out of Israel a very great assembly of men and women and children; for the people wept very bitterly. <sup>2</sup> Shecaniah the son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, answered Ezra, We have trespassed against our God, and have married foreign women of the peoples of the land. Yet now there is hope for Israel concerning this thing. <sup>3</sup> Now therefore let us make a and pity felt that He had punished them twice as much as they deserved; but Ezra realized that it was less than what they deserved. His love is so abounding that He almost rushes to take guilt for having justly punished sin. Another example is 9:8: "And now for a little moment grace has been shown from Yahweh". This uses the same relatively rare Hebrew construction as in Is. 54:6-8, which likens Judah to a young wife who had been "refused" during the 70 years captivity: "For a little moment have I forsaken you... in a little wrath I hid My face from you for a moment". Here is Yahweh, likening Himself to a faithful husband feeling more guilty than He was, taking upon Himself the fault for it all, saying that for the "small moment" of the captivity, He had forsaken His people. But Ezra saw that "little moment" as a time when they received grace; what may appear to some as forsaking is in fact God's grace to us, when spiritually discerned – whether it be deep within our own lives, or in the state of affairs upon this planet.

9:14 The covenant was not to be broken in the restored Kingdom; the temple had been destroyed before because of breaking covenant with Yahweh (Ez. 44:7). But now, Judah broke covenant [s.w.] with Yahweh at the time of the restoration by marrying Gentiles and worshipping their gods.

9:15 We cannot remain before You – Ezra is recognizing that the prophecies of the restored Kingdom which speak of God's returned people standing or remaining [same Hebrew words] before Him for ever were not going to come true (Is. 66:20-22; Ez. 44:15).

10:3 The suggestion to divorce their Gentile wives and send them away to their Gentile families, even with the children they had had by them (:44), was on their initiative. When there was a similar repentance about marriage out of the faith in Nehemiah's time, this wasn't done. There are degrees to which we can repent; the word 'repent' literally means a change of mind. Repentance is a matter of the heart, hence we can't judge others' repentance. But it will be articulated to different levels by different people. The fact there are different levels on which we can respond to God shouldn't covenant with our God to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, according to the counsel of my lord, and of those who tremble at the commandment of our God. Let it be done according to the law. <sup>4</sup> Arise; for the matter belongs to you, and we are with you. Be courageous, and do it. <sup>5</sup> Then Ezra arose, and made the chiefs of the priests, the Levites, and all Israel, to swear that they would do according to this word. So they swore. <sup>6</sup> Then Ezra rose up from before God's house, and went into the chamber of Jehohanan the son of Eliashib: and when he came there, he ate no bread, nor drank water; for he mourned because of the trespass of the captives. <sup>7</sup> They made proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem to all the children of the captivity, that they should gather themselves together to Jerusalem; <sup>8</sup> and that whoever didn't come within three days, according to the counsel of the princes and the elders, all his substance should be forfeited, and himself separated from the assembly of the captives. <sup>9</sup> Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered themselves together to Jerusalem within the three days; it was the ninth month, on the twentieth day of the month: and all the people sat in the broad place before God's house, trembling because of this matter, and because of the great rain. <sup>10</sup> Ezra the priest stood up and said to them, You have trespassed, and have married foreign women, to increase the guilt of Israel. <sup>11</sup> Now therefore make confession to Yahweh, the God of your fathers, and do His will; and separate yourselves from the peoples of the land, and from the foreign women. <sup>12</sup> Then all the assembly answered with a loud voice, As you have said concerning us, so must we do. <sup>13</sup> But the people are many, and it is a time of much rain, and we are not able to stand outside; neither is this a work encourage a spirit of minimalism within us, but rather a desire to serve Him on as high a level as we can.

10:9 In the context of the restoration, Is. 66:1,2 had stated that having a humble spirit which trembled at God's word was more important than building a physical house for Him. The Jews did tremble at the word at the beginning of the rebuilding. But it was a momentary thing; they came to see the building of the walls as more important than keeping a trembling spirit. Works eclipsed spirituality. Yet Isaiah had taught that the trembling at the word was more essentially important than building temples. But Judah paid no attention in the long term.

10:13 We are not able to stand outside – Literally, 'we are not strong enough to be outside'. The returned exiles were prophesied as having increased strength and energy for their task of rebuilding the temple and God's Kingdom; their strength would not fail (Is. 40:29-41:1), in contrast to how for the idolater, "his strength fails" (Is. 44:12). But the same word is used here about how the strength of the redeemed exiles did become weak; and again in Neh. 4:10 about how the Jewish builders didn't have strength to remove all the rubble to rebuild the walls. God will strengthen us in all our weakness – if we are truly committed to His work, His people, His house and His Kingdom. Resources will be provided and our personal weaknesses overcome – if these things are the true yearning of our hearts.

of one day or two; for we have greatly transgressed in this matter. <sup>14</sup> Let now our princes be appointed for all the assembly, and let all those who are in our cities who have married foreign women come at appointed times, and with them the elders of every city, and its judges, until the fierce wrath of our God be turned from us, until this matter is resolved. <sup>15</sup> Only Jonathan the son of Asahel and Jahzeiah the son of Tikvah stood up against this; and Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite helped them. <sup>16</sup> The children of the captivity did so. Ezra the priest, with certain heads of fathers' households, after their fathers' houses, and all of them by their names, were set apart; and they sat down in the first day of the tenth month to examine the matter. <sup>17</sup> They made an end with all the men who had married foreign women by the first day of the first month.

Those Who Had Married Foreign Wives

<sup>18</sup> Among the sons of the priests there were found who had married foreign women: of the sons of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and his brothers, Maaseiah, and Eliezer, and Jarib, and Gedaliah. <sup>19</sup> They gave their hand that they would put away their wives; and being guilty, they offered a ram of the flock for their guilt. <sup>20</sup> Of the sons of Immer: Hanani and Zebadiah. <sup>21</sup> Of the sons of Harim: Maaseiah, and Elijah, and Shemaiah, and Jehiel, and Uziah. <sup>22</sup> Of the sons of Pashhur: Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethanel, Jozabad, and Elasah. <sup>23</sup> Of the Levites: Jozabad, and Shimei, and Kelaiah (the same is Kelita), Pethahiah, Judah, and Eliezer. <sup>24</sup> Of the singers: Eliashib. Of the porters: Shallum, and Telem, and Uri. <sup>25</sup> Of Israel: Of the sons of Parosh: Ramiah, and Izziah, and Malchijah, and Mijamin, and Eleazar, and Malchijah, and Benaiah. <sup>26</sup> Of the sons of Elam: Mattaniah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, and Abdi, and Jeremoth, and Elijah. <sup>27</sup> Of the sons of Zattu: Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, and Jeremoth, and Zabad, and Aziza. <sup>28</sup> Of the sons of Bebai: Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai, Athlai. <sup>29</sup> Of the sons of Bani: Meshullam, Malluch, and Adaiah, Jashub, and Sheal, Jeremoth. <sup>30</sup> Of the sons of Pahathmoab: Adna, and Chelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezalel, and Binnui, and Manasseh. <sup>31</sup> Of the sons of Harim: Eliezer, Isshijah, Malchijah, Shemaiah, Shimeon, <sup>32</sup> Benjamin, Malluch, Shemariah. <sup>33</sup> Of the sons of Hashum: Mattenai, Mattattah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh, Shimei. <sup>34</sup> Of the sons of Bani: Maadai, Amram, and Uel, <sup>35</sup> Benaiah, Bedeiah, Cheluhi, <sup>36</sup> Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib, <sup>37</sup> Mattaniah, Mattenai, and Jaasu, <sup>38</sup> and Bani, and Binnui, Shimei, <sup>39</sup> and Shelemiah, and Nathan, and Adaiah, <sup>40</sup> Machnadebai, Shashai, Sharai, <sup>41</sup> Azarel, and Shelemiah, Shemariah, <sup>42</sup> Shallum, Amariah, Joseph. <sup>43</sup> Of the sons of Nebo: Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Iddo, and Joel, Benaiah. <sup>44</sup> All these had taken foreign wives; and some of them had wives by whom they had children.

NEHEMIAH

Difficulties in Jerusalem

The words of Nehemiah the son of Hacaliah. Now it happened in the month Chislev, in the twentieth year, as I was in Shushan the palace, <sup>2</sup> that Hanani one of my brothers came, he and certain men out of Judah; and I asked them concerning the Jews who had escaped, who were left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup> They said to me, The remnant who are left of the captivity there in the province are in great affliction and reproach. The wall of Jerusalem also is broken down, and its gates are burned with fire.

Nehemiah's Prayer

<sup>4</sup> It happened, when I heard these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned certain days. I fasted and prayed before the God of heaven <sup>5</sup> and said, I beg you, Yahweh the God of heaven, the great and awesome God, Who keeps covenant and grace with those who love Him and keep His commandments: <sup>6</sup> Let

Your ear now be attentive, and Your eyes open, that You may listen to the prayer of Your servant which I pray before You at this time, day and night, for the children of Israel Your servants; while I confess the sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned against You. Yes, I and my father's house have sinned. <sup>7</sup> We have dealt very corruptly against You, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the ordinances which You commanded Your servant Moses. <sup>8</sup> Remember, I beg You, the word that You commanded Your servant Moses saying, 'If you trespass, I will scatter you abroad among the peoples; <sup>9</sup> but if you return to Me and keep My commandments and do them, though your outcasts were in the uttermost part of the heavens, yet will I gather them from there, and will bring them to the place that I have chosen, to cause My name to dwell there'. <sup>10</sup> Now these are Your servants and Your people whom You have redeemed by Your great power, and by Your strong hand. <sup>11</sup> Lord,

1:2 Who had escaped – The urgency of 'fleeing' from Babylon was understood by Nehemiah; he speaks of those who had returned to the land as those who has "escaped" from Babylon – even though they had returned with every blessing from the authorities. He perceived as few did the danger of remaining in the soft life of Babylon. The call to leave Babylon is used in the New Testament as the basis of the appeal to mentally leave this world and start a journey towards the restored Kingdom of God on earth at Christ's return.

1:10 When Nehemiah speaks of them having been redeemed by Yahweh's "strong hand" he is using the language of Is. 40:10, regarding how Yahweh would come and save Israel from Babylon and make them 'come to Jerusalem' "with strong hand". Nehemiah saw the prophecy could have been fulfilled then. The way Zerubbabel (Ezra 2:2; Neh. 7:5-7), Ezra (Ezra 7:8; 8:32) and Nehemiah (Neh. 2:11; 13:7) are described as 'coming to Jerusalem' may hint that they could have fulfilled this coming of Yah-

I beg You, let Your ear be attentive now to the prayer of Your servant, and to the prayer of Your servants, who delight to fear Your name; and please prosper Your servant this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man. Now I was cup-bearer to the king.

The King Allows Nehemiah to Go to Jerusalem

It happened in the month Nisan, in the twentieth year of Artaxerxes the king, when wine was before him, that I took up the wine and gave it to the king. Now I had not been sad before in his presence. <sup>2</sup> The king said to me, Why is your face sad, since you are not sick? This is nothing else but sorrow of heart. Then I was very much afraid. <sup>3</sup> I said to the king, Let the king live forever! Why shouldn't my face be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers' tombs, lies waste, and its gates have been consumed with fire? <sup>4</sup> Then the king said to me, For what do you make weh to Zion; they could have been Messianic figures. So much potential was set up – and wasted – at the time of the return from exile.

1:11 Your servant – It seems that Nehemiah could have been a Messiah figure. He 'came up' from Babylon, and was "the servant" who 'prospered' Yahweh's work (also 2:20), just as the servant prophecies required (Is. 53:10; 48:15); and he was thereby the redeemer of his brethren (5:8). He encouraged the singing of praise on the walls of Zion (9:5; 12:46), surely in a conscious effort to fulfil the words of Is. 60:18 – that Zion's gates in Messiah's Kingdom would be praise. He was "despised" as Messiah would be (2:19; Is. 53:3 s.w.). He entered Jerusalem on a donkey, as Messiah would (2:12 cp. Zech. 9:9); and 2:16 sounds very much like "of the people there was none with me" (Is. 63:3). The Gentiles round about came to sit at Nehemiah's table to eat and drink (5:17), just as Isaiah had prophesied could happen on a grander scale at the restoration of the Kingdom. One wonders if the potential fulfilment of the Messianic prophecies was transferred to him? And yet Nehemiah returned to Babylon at least once, and there is no record that on his second visit to Judah he stayed on, but rather, the implication seems to be, he returned again to the service of Babylon. The total lack of Biblical information about his later life may reflect this disappointing decision. This train of thought enables us to appreciate the joy and pleasure which the Father had when finally His beloved Son lived up to all that He sought and expected. It seems Nehemiah could have been a Messiah figure but failed, as did others, to live up to what was potentially possible for him. We must seek to perceive in our lives all those things which are potentially possible for us in God's strength.

2:2 The king's servants were supposed to be always happy and positive in his presence. But Nehemiah's very body language reflected the pain he felt for his impoverished and spiritually weak brethren in Judah. He didn't allow his own wealth and comfortable social standing to isolate himself from them, and as such is a valuable example to the more wealthy and comfortable members of the body of Christ today.

2:4 So I prayed – There are times when we need to pray in a half second, with eyes open and fully engaged in a human situation. But the fact God welcomes and accepts this kind of prayer doesn't mean that we can reduce all our prayer life to this level; carefully prepared, prolonged prayer is also to feature.

request? So I prayed to the God of heaven. <sup>5</sup> I said to the king, If it pleases the king, and if your servant has found favour in your sight, that you would send me to Judah, to the city of my fathers' tombs, that I may build it. <sup>6</sup> The king said to me (the queen was also sitting by him), How long shall your journey be? And when will you return? So it pleased the king to send me; and I set him a time. <sup>7</sup> Moreover I said to the king, If it pleases the king, let letters be given me to the governors beyond the River, that they may let me pass through until I come to Judah; <sup>8</sup> and a letter to Asaph the keeper of the king's forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the citadel by the temple, for the wall of the city, and for the house that I shall enter into. The king granted my requests because of the good hand of my God upon me.

Nehemiah Inspects the Walls of Jerusalem

<sup>9</sup> Then I came to the governors beyond the River, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent with me captains of the army and horsemen. <sup>10</sup> When Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, heard of it, it grieved them exceedingly, because a man had come to seek the welfare of the children of Israel. <sup>11</sup> So I came to Jerusalem, and was there three days. <sup>12</sup> I arose in the night, I and some few men with me; neither told I any man what my God put into my heart to do for Jerusalem. There was no animal with me, except the animal that I rode on. <sup>13</sup> I went out by night by the valley gate, even toward the jackal's well, and to the dung gate, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem which were broken down, and its gates which were consumed with fire. <sup>14</sup> Then I went on to the spring gate and to the king's pool; but there was no place for the animal that was under me to pass. <sup>15</sup> Then went I up in the night by the brook, and viewed the wall; and I turned back, and entered by the valley gate, and so returned. <sup>16</sup> The rulers didn't know where I went, or what I did; neither had I as yet told it to the Jews, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the rulers, nor to the rest who did the work.

Nehemiah Encourages Rebuilding

<sup>17</sup> Then I said to them, You see the evil situation that we are in, how Je-

2:6 The queen was also sitting by him – The implication seems to be that she influenced him to be positive towards Nehemiah and the Jews. She may have been Esther, or some other Jewess.

2:12 God put the idea of rebuilding Jerusalem's walls into Nehemiah's heart, and yet it's clear from 2:2 (see note there) that his own conscience had led him to this idea. God therefore confirms us in the desires of our hearts, positively or negatively.

2:16 We feel here and in :12; 5:7 ("consulted with myself") Nehemiah's loneliness in his mission; a feature of all God's true servants, no matter whether or not they like Nehemiah are flanked by supporters and resources to perform their mission.

Jerusalem lies waste and its gates are burned with fire. Come, let us build up the wall of Jerusalem, that we won't be disgraced. <sup>18</sup> I told them of the hand of my God which was for good upon me, as also of the king's words that he had spoken to me. They said, Let us arise up and build. So they strengthened their hands for the good work. <sup>19</sup> But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian, heard it, they ridiculed us and despised us and said, What is this thing that you are doing? Will you rebel against the king? <sup>20</sup> Then I answered them and said to them, The God of heaven will prosper us. Therefore we, His servants, will arise and build; but you have no portion, nor right, nor memorial, in Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 3 Nov.16

Those Who Rebuilt the Wall

Then Eliashib the high priest rose up with his brothers the priests, and they built the sheep gate. They sanctified it, and set up its doors;

even to the tower of Hammeah they sanctified it, to the tower of Hananel. <sup>2</sup> Next to him built the men of Jericho. Next to them built Zaccur the son of Imri. <sup>3</sup> The sons of Hassenaah built the fish gate; they laid its beams, and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars. <sup>4</sup> Next to them, Meremoth the son of Uriah, the son of Hakkoz made repairs. Next to them, Meshullam the son of Berechiah, the son of Meshezabel made repairs. Next to them, Zadok the son of Baana made repairs. <sup>5</sup> Next to them, the Tekoites made repairs; but their nobles didn't put their necks to the work of their Lord. <sup>6</sup> Joiada the son of Paseah and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah repaired the old gate. They laid its beams, and set up its doors, and its bolts, and its bars. <sup>7</sup> Next to them, Melatiah the Gibeonite, and Jadon the Meronothite, the men of Gibeon and of Mizpah, repaired the residence of the governor beyond the River. <sup>8</sup> Next to him, Uzziel the son of Harhaiah, goldsmiths, made repairs. Next to him, Hananiah one of the perfumers made repairs, and

2:20 Gentiles didn't come and help the Jews in building. It could be that their refusal of Gentile help to build the temple, insisting that only Jews work in it (see too Ezra 4:3), was actually going too far; by being so exclusive, they were disallowing the fulfilment of the prophecies both in Zech. 6 and in Isaiah, that Gentiles would help in the final rebuilding of Zion.

3:5 Their nobles didn't put their necks to the work of their Lord – All these centuries later, God still has note of who amongst His people were true workers and who weren't (He noted too that some “earnestly” did the work, :20). Significantly it was the nobles, the lords and leaders of the people, who found it hard to submit beneath the Lord and Master. The higher our social standing and the more human respect we command in this world, in whatever context, the harder it will be for us to recognize that we are merely humble servants beneath the Lord of all creation.

3:8 Goldsmiths and perfumers were hardly civil engineers and building site labourers; neither were the wealthy daughters of a ruler (:12). But God's work at times requires they fortified Jerusalem even to the broad wall. <sup>9</sup> Next to them, Rephaiah the son of Hur, the ruler of half the district of Jerusalem, made repairs. <sup>10</sup> Next to them, Jedaiah the son of Harumaph made repairs across from his house. Next to him, Hattush the son of Hashabneiah made repairs. <sup>11</sup> Malchijah the son of Harim, and Hasshub the son of Pahathmoab, repaired another portion, and the tower of the furnaces. <sup>12</sup> Next to him, Shalum the son of Hallohesh, the ruler of half the district of Jerusalem, he and his daughters, made repairs. <sup>13</sup> Hanun and the inhabitants of Zanoah repaired the valley gate. They built it, and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars, and one thousand cubits of the wall to the dung gate. <sup>14</sup> Malchijah the son of Rechab, the ruler of the district of Beth Haccherem, repaired the dung gate. He built it, and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars.

Those Who Rebuilt the Southern Part

<sup>15</sup> Shallun the son of Colhozeh, the ruler of the district of Mizpah, repaired the spring gate. He built it and covered it, and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars, and the wall of the pool of Shelah by the king's garden, even to the stairs that go down from the city of David. <sup>16</sup> After him, Nehemiah the son of Azbuk, the ruler of half the district of Beth Zur, made repairs to the place opposite the tombs of David, and to the pool that was made, and to the house of the mighty men. <sup>17</sup> After him the Levites, Rehum the son of Bani, made repairs. Next to him, Hashabiah, the ruler of half the district of Keilah, made repairs for his district. <sup>18</sup> After him, their brothers, Bavvai the son of Henadad, the ruler of half the district of Keilah, made repairs. <sup>19</sup> Next to him, Ezer the son of Jeshua, the ruler of Mizpah, repaired another portion, across from the ascent to the armoury at the turning of the wall. <sup>20</sup> After him, Baruch the son of Zabbai earnestly repaired another portion, from the turning of the wall to the door of the house of Eliashib the high priest. <sup>21</sup> After him, Meremoth the son of Uriah the son of Hakkoz repaired another portion, from the door of the house of Eliashib even to the end of the house of Eliashib. <sup>22</sup> After him, the priests, the men of the Plain, made repairs. <sup>23</sup> After them, Benjamin and Hasshub made repairs across from their house. After them, Azariah the son of us to do what is quite against the grain of our natural inclination; resulting as it did here in men and women of totally different backgrounds, social positions and specialisms working together to do His work. It should be the same in the ecclesia of today.

3:15 The emphasis in the record on bars, gates and locks was perhaps to highlight how the restoration prophecies of Ezekiel, of a people living confidently without those things, had actually not been fulfilled; and therefore the prophesied events of Ez. 38-40 didn't happen – i.e. an invasion of a restored Judah, dwelling without bars and gates, which would lead in to the rebuilding of the temple and establishment of the Kingdom.

Maaseiah the son of Ananiah made repairs beside his own house.<sup>24</sup> After him, Binnui the son of Henadad repaired another portion, from the house of Azariah to the turning of the wall, and to the corner.<sup>25</sup> Palal the son of Uzai made repairs opposite the turning of the wall, and the tower that stands out from the upper house of the king, which is by the court of the guard. After him Pedaiah the son of Parosh made repairs.<sup>26</sup> (Now the Nethinim lived in Ophel, to the place over against the water gate toward the east, and the tower that stands out.)<sup>27</sup> After him the Tekoites repaired another portion, over against the great tower that stands out, and to the wall of Ophel.<sup>28</sup> Above the horse gate, the priests made repairs, each one across from his own house.<sup>29</sup> After them, Zadok the son of Immer made repairs across from his own house. After him, Shemaiah the son of Shecaniah, the keeper of the east gate, made repairs.<sup>30</sup> After him, Hananiah the son of Shelemiah, and Hanun the sixth son of Zalaph, repaired another portion. After him, Meshullam the son of Berechiah made repairs across from his place.<sup>31</sup> After him, Malchijah one of the goldsmiths to the house of the Nethinim, and of the merchants, made repairs over against the Muster gate, and to the ascent of the corner.<sup>32</sup> Between the ascent of the corner and the sheep gate, the goldsmiths and the merchants made repairs.

Opposition to the Work

But it happened that when Sanballat heard that we were building the wall, he was angry, and took great indignation, and mocked the Jews.<sup>2</sup> He spoke before his brothers and the army of Samaria and said, What are these feeble Jews doing? Will they fortify themselves? Will they sacrifice? Will they finish in a day? Will they revive the stones out of the heaps of rubbish, since they are burned?<sup>3</sup> Now Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, What they are building? If a fox climbed up it, he would break down their stone wall.<sup>4</sup> Hear, our God; for

3:31 Nehemiah did his best to bring the potential Kingdom of God about by urging the people to repentance and conformity to God's will, such was his perception of what was going on; that the coming of God's Kingdom was being limited by the apathy of his own people. No fewer than 24 times in Ez. 40-48 are we told that the temple was to be built by 'measure' (e.g. Ez. 40:3,5,10,21,22,24,28,29); and the same word occurs frequently in describing how Nehemiah gave various groups of Jews their own "portion" [s.w. 'measure'] in the work of rebuilding Jerusalem (:11,19,20,22,24,27). He arranged for 12 gates to be built in the wall, as Ez. 48:31-34 had commanded there to be. He built miphkad, "the Muster Gate", the "appointed place" [s.w.] of Ez. 43:21. As he 'measured out' the work of rebuilding Jerusalem, he must have been conscious of the Kingdom prophecy of Jer. 31:38-40. It could have been fulfilled, this could have been the potential Kingdom of God, and he set about to seek to fulfil it; but those places were not kept "holy unto the Lord", and therefore the Jews were to be again plucked up and thrown down.

we are despised. Turn back their reproach on their own head, give them up for a spoil in a land of captivity. <sup>5</sup> Don't cover their iniquity, and don't let their sin be blotted out from before You; for they have insulted the builders. <sup>6</sup> So we built the wall; and all the wall was joined together to half its height; for the people had a mind to work. <sup>7</sup> But it happened that when Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabians, the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites heard that the repairing of the walls of Jerusalem went forward, and that the breaches began to be filled, then they were very angry. <sup>8</sup> They conspired all of them together to come and fight against Jerusalem, and to cause confusion therein. <sup>9</sup> But we made our prayer to our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them. <sup>10</sup> Judah said, The strength of the bearers of burdens is fading, and there is much rubbish; so that we are not able to build the wall. <sup>11</sup> Our adversaries said, They shall not know, neither see, until we come into their midst, and kill them, and cause the work to cease. <sup>12</sup> It happened that when the Jews who lived by them came, they said to us ten times from all places, Wherever you turn, they will attack us. <sup>13</sup> Therefore set I in the lowest parts of the space behind the wall, in the open places, I set the people after their families with their swords, their spears, and their bows. <sup>14</sup> I looked, and rose up, and said to the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, Don't be afraid of them! Remember the Lord, Who is great and awesome, and fight for your brothers, your sons, and your daughters, your wives, and your houses.

Opposition Is Overcome

<sup>15</sup> It happened, when our enemies heard that it was known to us, and God had brought their counsel to nothing, that we returned all of us to the wall, each one to his work. <sup>16</sup> It happened from that time onwards, that half of my servants worked in the work, and half of them held the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the coats of mail; and the rulers were behind all the house of Judah. <sup>17</sup> They all built the wall while those who bore burdens loaded themselves; each one with one of his hands toiled in the work, and with the other held his weapon; <sup>18</sup> and the builders, each one wore his sword at his side, and so built. He who sounded the trumpet was by me. <sup>19</sup> I said to the nobles, to

4:4 Is. 51:3-11 is clearly in a restoration context: "For Yahweh shall comfort Zion: He will comfort all her waste places... Hearken unto me, you that know righteousness, the people in whose heart is My law; fear not the reproach of men [s.w. Neh. 1:3; 2:17; 4:4; 5:9 about the reproach of the Gentiles against the partially rebuilt Jerusalem], neither be afraid of their reviling". Insofar as Nehemiah and the Jews knew this prophecy, they would have taken great encouragement. But maybe they were unfamiliar with it, and yet still did the work, although lacking the encouragement which they could have had. Our familiarity with God's word becomes of great value when in a difficult situation we suddenly perceive how we are being spoken to directly by God's prophetic word.

the rulers and to the rest of the people, The work is great and large, and we are separated on the wall, one far from another. <sup>20</sup> Wherever you hear the sound of the trumpet, rally there to us. Our God will fight for us. <sup>21</sup> So we worked at rebuilding. Half of them held the spears from the rising of the morning until the stars appeared. <sup>22</sup> Likewise at the same time said I to the people, Let each one with his servant lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they may be a guard to us, and may labour in the day. <sup>23</sup> So I, my brothers, my servants, and the men of the guard who followed me, did not take off our clothes except to wash.

The Poor Are Suffering

Then there arose a great cry of the people and of their wives against their brothers the Jews. <sup>2</sup> For there were some that said, We, our sons and our daughters, are many. Let us get grain, that we may eat and live. <sup>3</sup> Some also there were that said, We are mortgaging our fields, our vineyards and our houses. Let us get grain, because of the famine. <sup>4</sup> There were also some who said, We have borrowed money for the king's tribute using our fields and our vineyards as collateral. <sup>5</sup> Yet our flesh is as the flesh of our brothers, our children as their children. Indeed, we have to bring into bondage our sons and our daughters to be servants. Some of our daughters have already been brought into bondage. Neither is it in our power to get out of it; for other men have our fields and our vineyards.

Nehemiah Has a Just Solution

<sup>6</sup> I was very angry when I heard their cry and these words. <sup>7</sup> Then I considered the matter, then contended with the nobles and the rulers and said to them, You exact usury, each one from his brother. I held a great assembly against them. <sup>8</sup> I said to them, We, as much as we could, have redeemed our brothers the Jews that were sold to the nations. Would you really sell your brothers, and should they be sold to us? Then they held their peace, and found never a word to answer. <sup>9</sup> Also I said, The thing

5:1-5 The prophecies of the restored Kingdom emphasized that the princes would not then oppress the people (Ez. 45:8,9; 46:18); but we see here that they did (see too Zech. 7:10; Mal. 3:5). Jer. 7:3-7 made it clear that Judah's return to the land was to be conditional upon them not oppressing the poor – only “then will I cause you to dwell in this place”. Yet in His grace and zeal for His people, it seems God overlooked that condition – for the returned exiles did oppress each other, and yet they returned to the land. And yet they would've dwelt in Zion “for ever and ever” (Jer. 7:7) if they had not been abusive to others and truly loved God. Haggai, Zechariah and Malachi all record social injustice as being the order of the day at the time of the restoration.

5:8 We... have redeemed our brothers – God redeemed the exiles from Babylon (Is. 48:20; 51:11; 52:9; 62:12), and our response to that redemption should be to redeem others and not abuse them.

that you do is not good. Ought you not to walk in the fear of our God, because of the reproach of the nations our enemies? <sup>10</sup> For this reason, I my brothers and my servants lend them money and grain. Please let us stop this usury. <sup>11</sup> Please restore to them, even this day, their fields, their vineyards, their olive groves, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money, and of the grain, the new wine, and the oil, that you are charging them. <sup>12</sup> Then they said, We will restore them, and will require nothing of them; so will we do, even as you say. Then I called the priests, and took an oath of them, that they would do according to this promise. <sup>13</sup> Also I shook out my lap and said, So may God shake out every man from His house and from His work that doesn't perform this promise; even thus may he be shaken out, and emptied. All the assembly said, Amen, and praised Yahweh. The people did according to this promise.

Nehemiah's Unselfishness

<sup>14</sup> Moreover from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year even to the thirty second year of Artaxerxes the king, that is, twelve years, I and my brothers did not eat the bread of the governor. <sup>15</sup> But the former governors who were before me were supported by the people, and took bread and wine from them, besides forty shekels of silver. Yes, even their servants ruled over the people: but I didn't do so, because of the fear of God. <sup>16</sup> Yes, also I continued in the work of this wall, neither bought we any land; and all my servants were gathered there to the work. <sup>17</sup> Moreover there were at my table, of the Jews and the rulers, one hundred and fifty men, besides those who came to us from among the nations that were around us. <sup>18</sup> Now that which was prepared for one day was one ox and six choice sheep; also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days store of all sorts of wine. Yet for all this I didn't demand the bread due to the governor, because the bondage was heavy on this people. <sup>19</sup> Remember me, my God, for good, for all that I have done for this people.

Plots against Nehemiah

It was reported to Sanballat and Tobiah, and to Geshem the Arabian, and to the rest of our enemies, that I

5:15 Is. 58:1,2 is a criticism of Judah in exile and also of those who did return to the land – they sought God daily, and yet abused their brethren (Is. 58:6), just as recorded here. If they had ceased from their sins, “Then shall your light break forth as the morning”, if they had fed the hungry etc, then would’ve been fulfilled the Messianic Kingdom prophecies of the light of Zion rising above the Gentiles etc (Is. 58:10,12 cp. Is. 60:1). These Kingdom predictions will ultimately come true at Christ’s return to earth and the establishment of His Kingdom here, but we will only be there if we learn the lessons from Judah’s failure and don’t abuse our brethren.

6:1 There was no breach left – Amos 9:11-15 refers to this: “In that day will I raise up the tabernacle of David that is fallen, and close up the breaches thereof; and I had built the wall, and that there was no breach left therein (though even to that time I had not set up the doors in the gates). <sup>2</sup> Then Sanballat and Geshem sent to me saying, Come, let us meet together in the villages in the plain of Ono. But they intended to harm me. <sup>3</sup> I sent messengers to them saying, I am doing a great work, so that I can't come down. Why should the work cease while I leave it, and come down to you? <sup>4</sup> They sent to me four times in this manner; and I kept giving them the same answer. <sup>5</sup> Then, again Sanballat sent his servant to me the fifth time with an open letter in his hand, <sup>6</sup> in which was written, It is reported among the nations, and Gashmu says it, that you and the Jews intend to rebel. Because of that, you are building the wall. You would be their king, according to this report. <sup>7</sup> You have also appointed prophets to speak up for you at Jerusalem saying, 'There is a king in Judah!' Now it will be reported to the king according to these words. Come now therefore, and let us take counsel together. <sup>8</sup> Then I sent to him, saying, 'There are no such things done as you say, but you imagine them out of your own heart'. <sup>9</sup> For they all would have made us afraid, saying, Their hands will be weakened from the work, that it not be done. But now, may my hands be will raise up his ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old". The passage goes on to prophecy a time of great fertility and victory over "Edom". "I will raise up" uses a Hebrew word commonly featured in the records of the restoration, when the people were exhorted to "arise up and build" (Ezra 1:5; 3:2; 10:4,15; Neh. 2:18,20). The statement that they would "close up the breaches thereof" is exactly the language of Neh. 6:1, which records that the walls were rebuilt so that there was no breach [s.w.] therein. It was after the Babylonian invasion that Zion was "fallen" and 'ruined' (s.w. Jer. 31:18; 45:4; Lam. 2:2,17). "I will build it" is exactly the theme of the records of the return from Babylon (Ezra 1:2,3,5; 3:2,10; 4:1-4; Neh. 2:5,17,18,20; 3:1-3, 13-15; 4:1,3,5,6,10,17,18; 6:1,6; 7:1). Surely Amos 9 is saying that at the rebuilding at the time of the restoration, God's people could have ushered in the Kingdom age of agricultural plenty and victory over their Arab neighbours. But they intermarried with Edom, and suffered drought because they didn't fulfil the requirements to rebuild Zion correctly. But the words of Amos were still to come true in some form – they are given an application in Acts 15:17 which may appear to be way out of context, i.e. to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus. Thus words which could have had a plain fulfilment at the restoration were given a delayed fulfilment; but they were not fulfilled in a literal sense, but in a spiritual one. And so it may be with many prophecies about us today; they could be fulfilled if God's people are more 'fulfilling' of them.

6:3 Why should the work cease – This should be our perspective in such times of conflict; cries of unity and reconciliation can be used as a mantra to make God's work cease, and we shouldn't be afraid to see them for what they are. The way the opponents of God's work created a false allegation – that Nehemiah was setting himself up as king – and then tried to blackmail him over it (:7,8) is typical of what happens in these situations. We can simply insist we are telling the truth and not be afraid to name false accusation for what it is (:8).

strengthened. <sup>10</sup> I went to the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah the son of Mehetabel, who was shut in at his home; and he said, Let us meet together in God's house, within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple; for they will come to kill you. Yes, in the night will they come to kill you.

Nehemiah Is Not Afraid

<sup>11</sup> I said, Should such a man as I flee? Who is there that, being such as I, would go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in. <sup>12</sup> I perceived that God had not sent him; but that he pronounced this prophecy against me. Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him. <sup>13</sup> He was hired so that I would be afraid, follow his advice, and sin. Thus they would have material for an evil report, that they might reproach me. <sup>14</sup> Remember, my God, Tobiah and Sanballat according to these their works, and also the prophetess Noadiah, and the rest of the prophets, that would have put me in fear.

The Wall is Finished

twenty-fifth day of Elul, in fifty-two days. <sup>16</sup> It happened that when all our enemies heard of it, then all the nations that were about us were afraid, and were much cast down in their own eyes; for they perceived that this work was done of our God. <sup>17</sup> Moreover in those days the nobles of Judah sent many letters to Tobiah, and Tobiah's letters came to them. <sup>18</sup> For there were many in Judah sworn to him, because he was the son-in-law of Shecaniah the son of Arah; and his son Jehohanan had taken the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah as wife. <sup>19</sup> Also they spoke of his good deeds before me, and reported my words to him. Tobiah sent letters to put me in fear.

Protection for Jerusalem

Now it happened, once the wall was built and I had set up the doors, and the porters and the singers and the Levites were appointed, <sup>2</sup> that I put my brother Hanani, and Hananiah the governor of the castle, in charge over Jerusalem: for he was a faithful man, and feared God

6:11 As eunuchs weren't allowed within the temple, this could suggest Nehemiah was a eunuch; for he says that for a man like him to enter the temple would be a sin (:13). He would likely have had to be made one in order to be the king's cupbearer (1:11), but he used the limitations which this world had unreasonably placed upon him in order to funnel his creative energy into God's work and the welfare of His people and the things of His Kingdom.

7:2 Nehemiah's brother Hanani was given "charge over Jerusalem: for he was a faithful man" – not just because he was the boss's brother, which is how the nepotism of those times would have usually required. It can be that human qualification, e.g. being a successful businessman, or the brother of a leading brother, is related to positions of eldership amongst us. Yet the Nehemiah passage shows that although sometimes there may be overlap between both spiritual and human qualification, it is the spiritual qualification which must be paramount.

above many. <sup>3</sup> I said to them, Don't let the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun is hot. While they stand guard, let them shut the doors, and you bar them; and appoint watches of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, everyone in his watch, with everyone near his house.

A List of Those Who Had Returned

<sup>4</sup> Now the city was wide and large; but the people were few therein, and the houses were not built. <sup>5</sup> My God put into my heart to gather together the nobles, and the rulers, and the people, that they might be reckoned by genealogy. I found the book of the genealogy of those who came up at the first, and I found written therein: <sup>6</sup> These are the children of the province, who went up out of the captivity of those who had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away, and who returned to Jerusalem and to Judah, each one to his city. <sup>7</sup> They came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, Baanah. The number of the men of the people of Israel: <sup>8</sup> The children of Parosh, two thousand one hundred and seventy-two. <sup>9</sup> The children of Shephatiah, three hundred and seventy-two. <sup>10</sup> The children of Arah, six hundred and fifty-two. <sup>11</sup> The children of Pahathmoab, of the children of Jeshua and Joab, two thousand eight hundred and eighteen. <sup>12</sup> The children of Elam, one thousand two hundred and fifty-four. <sup>13</sup> The children of Zattu, eight hundred and forty-five. <sup>14</sup> The children of Zaccai, seven hundred and sixty. <sup>15</sup> The children of Binnui, six hundred and forty-eight. <sup>16</sup> The children of Bebai, six hundred and twenty-eight. <sup>17</sup> The children of Azgad, two thousand three hundred and twenty-two. <sup>18</sup> The children of

7:5 Nehemiah made a special study of the genealogies in order to find an acceptable priesthood (:5), and perhaps this was the basis for the genealogies written up in the early chapters of 1 Chronicles. So there were Israel returning from captivity, led by a faithful remnant of the priests, looking back through their history, right back to Abraham and beyond, and seeing that their history was shot through with failure. Such self-examination extended even to considering the names parents gave their children.

7:6 Seeing that the majority of the Jews chose the soft life and remained in Babylon, God was especially sensitive to those who returned; and for over 2500 years these names have been recorded in His word. Such is His awareness of all those who respond to the call of the Kingdom and to forsake this world. Note how the numbers are recorded very exactly. God was sensitive to each and every one who returned.

7:7 This describes Zerubbabel as being at the head of twelve leaders of the returning exiles, who are called "the people of Israel" (cp. Ezra 2:2). Whilst it was Judah who had been taken into captivity, it seems that some of the ten tribes [who had been taken into captivity in Assyria some time earlier] also returned with them; it was God's intention to create a new, unified Israel in the restored Kingdom. But most of God's people then as today chose not to participate in the unity plan He had desired for His people.

of Harsha, <sup>55</sup> the children of Barkos, the children of Sisera, the children of Temah, <sup>56</sup> the children of Neziah, the children of Hatipha. <sup>57</sup> The children of Solomon's servants: the children of Sotai, the children of Sophereth, the children of Perida, <sup>58</sup> the children of Jaala, the children of Darkon, the children of Giddel, <sup>59</sup> the children of Shephatiah, the children of Hattil, the children of Pochereth Hazzebaim, the children of Amon. <sup>60</sup> All the Nethinim, and the children of Solomon's servants, were three hundred and ninety-two. <sup>61</sup> These were those who went up from Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Cherub, Addon, and Immer; but they could not prove their fathers' houses nor their genealogies, whether they were of Israel: <sup>62</sup> The children of Delaiah, the children of Tobiah, the children of Nekoda, six hundred and forty-two. <sup>63</sup> Of the priests: the children of Hobaiah, the children of Hakkoz, the children of Barzillai, who took a wife of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and was called after their name. <sup>64</sup> These searched for their genealogical records, but couldn't find them. Therefore were they deemed polluted and put from the priesthood. <sup>65</sup> The governor told them that they should not eat of the most holy things until there stood up a priest with Urim and Thummim. <sup>66</sup> The whole assembly together was forty-two thousand three hundred and sixty, <sup>67</sup> besides their male and their female servants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred and thirty-seven: and they had two hundred and forty-five singing men and singing women. <sup>68</sup> Their horses were seven hundred and thirty-six; their mules, two hundred and forty-five; <sup>69</sup> their camels, four hundred and thirty-five; their donkeys, six thousand seven hundred and twenty. <sup>70</sup> Some from among the heads of fathers' households gave to the work. The governor gave to the treasury one thousand darics of gold, fifty basins and five hundred and thirty priests' garments. <sup>71</sup> Some of the heads of fathers' households gave into the treasury of the work twenty thousand darics of gold, and two thousand two hundred minas of silver. <sup>72</sup> That which the rest of the people gave was twenty thousand darics of gold, and two thousand minas of silver, and sixty-seven priests' garments. <sup>73</sup> So the priests, the Levites and the porters, and the singers, and some of the people, and the Nethinim, and all Israel, lived in their cities. When the seventh month had come, the children of Israel were in their cities.

Ezra Reads God's Law to the People

All the people gathered themselves together as one man into the broad place that was before the water gate; and they spoke to Ezra the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses, which Yahweh had commanded to Israel. <sup>2</sup> Ezra the priest

brought the law before the assembly, both men and women, and all who could hear with understanding, on the first day of the seventh month. <sup>3</sup> He read therein before the broad place that was before the water gate from early morning until noon, in the presence of the men and the women, and of those who could understand. The ears of all the people were attentive to the book of the law. <sup>4</sup> Ezra the scribe stood on a pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose; and beside him stood Mattithiah, Shema, Anaiah, Uriah, Hilkiah and Maaseiah, on his right hand; and on his left hand, Pedaiah, Mishael, Malchijah, Hashum, Hashbaddanah, Zechariah and Meshullam. <sup>5</sup> Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people; for he was above all the people; and when he opened it, all the people stood up. <sup>6</sup> Ezra blessed Yahweh, the great God. All the people answered, Amen, Amen, with the lifting up of their hands. They bowed their heads, and worshipped Yahweh with their faces to the ground. <sup>7</sup> Also Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah and the Levites caused the people to understand the law; and the people stayed in their place.<sup>8</sup> They read in the book, in the law of God, with interpretation; and they gave the sense, so that they understood the reading. <sup>9</sup> Nehemiah, who was the governor, and Ezra the priest, the scribe, and the Levites who taught the people, said to all the people, This day is holy to Yahweh your God. Don't mourn, nor weep. For all the people wept, when they heard the words of the law. <sup>10</sup> Then he said to them, Go your way. Eat the fat, drink the sweet, and send portions to him for whom nothing is prepared; for this day is holy to our Lord. Don't be grieved; for the joy of Yahweh is your strength. <sup>11</sup> So the Levites stilled all the people saying, Hold your peace, for the day is holy; neither be grieved. <sup>12</sup> All the people went their way to eat and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great joy, because they had understood the words that were declared to them.

The Feast of Booths

<sup>13</sup> On the second day were gathered together the heads of fathers' households of all the people, the priests,

8:10 Send portions to him for whom nothing is prepared – The receipt of forgiveness from God should lead to our being materially generous to others. Hence Paul urges the Corinthians to be materially generous to their poorer brethren because of God's grace to them, thus making a play on the fact that the Greek word translated "grace" essentially means a gift. God's gift of forgiveness to us leads to our giving to others.

The joy of Yahweh – In the context, this refers to His desire to forgive His people; He actually is joyful in forgiving us, as we should be in our forgiveness of others; not doing it from a sense of grudging necessity.

8:12 Because they had understood the words – The need for correct understanding of God's word is because it motivates to action in practice. See 10:28.

and the Levites, to Ezra the scribe, even to give attention to the words of the law. <sup>14</sup> They found written in the law, how that Yahweh had commanded by Moses, that the children of Israel should dwell in booths in the feast of the seventh month; <sup>15</sup> and that they should publish and proclaim in all their cities, and in Jerusalem saying, Go out to the mountain, and get olive branches, and branches of wild olive, and myrtle branches, and palm branches, and branches of thick trees, to make booths, as it is written. <sup>16</sup> So the people went out, and brought them, and made themselves booths, each one on the roof of his house, and in their courts, and in the courts of God's house, and in the broad place of the water gate, and in the broad place of the gate of Ephraim. <sup>17</sup> All the assembly of those who had come again out of the captivity made booths, and lived in the booths; for since the days of Joshua the son of Nun to that day the children of Israel had not done so. There was very great gladness. <sup>18</sup> Also day by day, from the first day to the last day, he read in the book of the law of God. They kept the feast seven days; and on the eighth day was a solemn assembly, according to the ordinance.

The People Confess Their Sins

Now in the twenty-fourth day of this month the children of Israel were assembled with fasting, and with sackcloth, and earth on them. <sup>2</sup> The seed of Israel separated themselves from all foreigners, and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers. <sup>3</sup> They stood up in their place, and read in the book of the law of Yahweh their God a fourth part of the day; and a

8:14-17 Ez. 45:25 had specifically prophesied that the feast of the seventh month would be strictly kept in the restored Kingdom. The fact they hadn't done so until now shows how they didn't want to fulfil the restoration prophecies because the immediate daily issues of life took them away from obedience to God's will. Note that Zech. 7:5 criticised the Jews for keeping this feast only externally, and not "unto Me". Hag. 2:1 records how on the 21st day of the 7th month – i.e. once the seven day feast that began on the 15th had finished – Haggai was sent to rebuke "the prince", Zerubbabel, for being so slack in fulfilling Ezekiel's vision. They subconsciously switched off to Ezekiel's words; just as we can all do. They reasoned that "the time" of which he spoke hadn't come – even though the temple had miraculously been enabled to be rebuilt, for no human benefit at all to Cyrus (Is. 45:13 "not for price nor reward"). Like us, they failed to see the personal reality of God's word to their situation.

9:2 The account of Judah's separation from the surrounding peoples reads similarly to that of the purges from idolatry during the reign of the kings. They separated / purged, and then, within a few years, we read of them doing so again. Initially, the exiles separated from the peoples of the land (Ezra 6:21); by Ezra 9:1 they are in need of separating again; and by Ezra 10:11 likewise; then they separate (Ezra 10:16), only to need another call to separation by the time of Nehemiah 9:2; 13:3. Our spiritual progress often has too much of this kind of pseudo repentance associated with it.

fourth part they confessed, and worshipped Yahweh their God. <sup>4</sup> Then Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani of the Levites stood up on the stairs, and cried with a loud voice to Yahweh their God.

An Account of God's Care of Israel

<sup>5</sup> Then the Levites, Jeshua, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodi-ah, Shebaniah and Pethahiah said, Stand up and bless Yahweh your God from everlasting to everlasting! Blessed be Your glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise! <sup>6</sup> You are Yahweh, even You alone. You have made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their army, the earth and all things that are on it, the seas and all that is in them, and You preserve them all. The army of heaven worships You. <sup>7</sup> You are Yahweh, the God who chose Abram and brought him out of Ur of the Chaldees, and gave him the name of Abraham, <sup>8</sup> and found his heart faithful before You, and made a covenant with him to give the land of the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Amorite, and the Perizzite, and the Jebusite, and the Girgashite, to give it to his seed; and have performed Your words; for You are righteous.<sup>9</sup> You saw the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and heard their cry by the Red Sea.

<sup>10</sup> You showed signs and wonders against Pharaoh, and against all his servants, and against all the people of his land; for You knew that they dealt arrogantly against them, and made a name for Yourself, as it is this day.

<sup>11</sup> You divided the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land; and You cast their pursuers into the depths, as a stone into the mighty waters.

<sup>12</sup> Moreover, You led them by day in a pillar of cloud; and in a pillar of fire by night, to give them light in the way in which they should go. <sup>13</sup> You came down also on Mount Sinai and spoke with them from heaven, and gave them right ordinances and true laws, good statutes and commandments.

<sup>14</sup> You made known to them Your holy Sabbath, and commanded them commandments, and statutes, and a law, by Moses Your servant.

9:6 You are Yahweh, even You alone – There is archaeological evidence that there was another god called 'Yahweh' worshipped by the Canaanites; hence the confession here that Yahweh God of Israel was the only true Yahweh. There are in our world many things which can appear as the true God when they are but fake imitations.

9:10 Made a name for Yourself – God's Name isn't simply a word, it is His entire personality as historically demonstrated and articulated in human history.

lion appointed a captain to return to their bondage. But You are a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, abundant in grace, and didn't forsake them. <sup>18</sup> Yes, they had made them a molten calf and said, 'This is your God who brought you up out of Egypt' and had committed awful blasphemies; <sup>19</sup> yet You in Your many mercies didn't forsake them in the wilderness. The pillar of cloud didn't depart from over them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to show them light, and the way in which they should go. <sup>20</sup> You gave also Your good Spirit to instruct them, and didn't withhold Your manna from their mouth, and gave them water for their thirst. <sup>21</sup> Yes, forty years You sustained them in the wilderness. They lacked nothing. Their clothes didn't grow old, and their feet didn't swell. <sup>22</sup> Moreover You gave them kingdoms and peoples which You allotted according to their portions. So they possessed the land of Sihon, even the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og king of Bashan. <sup>23</sup> You also multiplied their children as the stars of the sky, and brought them into the land concerning which You had said to their fathers, that they should go in to possess it. <sup>24</sup> So the children went in and possessed the land, and You subdued before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gave them into their hands, with their kings, and the peoples of the land, that they might do with them as they pleased. <sup>25</sup> They took fortified cities, and a rich land, and possessed houses full of all good things, cisterns dug out, vineyards, olive groves and fruit trees in abundance. So they ate, were filled, became fat, and delighted themselves in Your great grace.

Disobedience and Deliverance

<sup>26</sup> Nevertheless they were disobedient and rebelled against You, and cast Your law behind their back, and killed your prophets that testified against them to turn them again to You, and they committed awful blasphemies. <sup>27</sup> Therefore You delivered them into the hand of their adversaries, who distressed them. In the time of their trouble, when they cried to You, You heard from heaven; and according to Your many mercies You gave them saviours who saved them out of the hand of their adversaries. <sup>28</sup> But after they had rest, they did evil again before You; therefore You left them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them. Yet, when they returned and cried to You, You heard from heaven; and many times You delivered them according to Your mercies, <sup>29</sup> and testified against them, that You might bring them again to Your law. Yet they dealt proudly, and didn't listen to Your commandments, but sinned against Your ordinances, which, if a man does, he shall live in them, turned their backs, stiffened their neck, and would not hear. <sup>30</sup> Yet many years You put up with them, and testified against them by Your spirit through Your prophets. Yet would they not give ear. Therefore You gave them into the hand of the peoples of the lands.

Confession of Sins

<sup>31</sup> Nevertheless in Your many mercies You did not make a full end of them, nor forsake them; for You are a gracious and merciful God. <sup>32</sup> Now therefore, our God, the great, the mighty, and the awesome God, who keeps covenant and grace, don't let all the travail seem little before You, that has come on us, on our kings, on our princes, priests, prophets, and on our fathers, and on all Your people, since the time of the kings of Assyria to this day. <sup>33</sup> However You are just in all that has come on us; for You have dealt truly, but we have done wickedly. <sup>34</sup> Neither have our kings, our princes, our priests, nor our fathers kept Your law, nor listened to Your commandments and Your testimonies that You pronounced against them. <sup>35</sup> For they have not served You in their kingdom, and in Your great goodness that You gave them, and in the large and rich land which You gave before them, neither did they turn from their wicked works. <sup>36</sup> Indeed, we are servants this day, and as for the land that You gave to our fathers to eat its fruit and its good, we are servants in it. <sup>37</sup> It yields much increase to the kings whom You have set over us because of our sins. They also have power over our bodies, and over our livestock, at their pleasure, and we are in great distress. <sup>38</sup> Yet for all this, we make a sure covenant, and write it; and our princes, our Levites, and our priests, seal it.

The People Make a Covenant

9:30 Your Spirit through Your prophets – The prophets, whose words we have in the Bible, were inspired by God through the process of Divine inspiration (2 Tim. 3:16). Their words which we read in the Bible are thereby God's words and a channel of His Spirit to us.

9:37 Faithful men like Nehemiah felt so identified with the sinful people that they could speak of “our sins”. If we are true members of His people then we will feel the state of the community as being our state, rather than seeing ourselves as somehow separate from them. Nehemiah was therefore the first to seal the covenant of repentance (10:1).

<sup>13</sup> Hodiah, Bani, Beninu. <sup>14</sup> The chiefs of the people: Parosh, Pahath-moab, Elam, Zattu, Bani, <sup>15</sup> Bunni, Azgad, Bebai, <sup>16</sup> Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin, <sup>17</sup> Ater, Hezekiah, Azzur,
 iph, Anathoth, Nobai, <sup>20</sup> Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir, <sup>21</sup> Meshezabel, Zadok, Jaddua, <sup>22</sup> Pelatiah, Hanan, Anaiah, <sup>23</sup> Hoshea, Hananiah, Hasshub, <sup>24</sup> Hallohesh, Pilha, Shobek,
 Harim and Baanah. <sup>28</sup> The rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the porters, the singers, the Nethinim, and all those who had separated themselves from the peoples of the lands unto the law of God, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, each one who had knowledge, and understanding— <sup>29</sup> they joined with their brothers, their nobles, and entered into a curse, and into an oath, to walk in God's law, which was given by Moses the servant of God, and to observe and do all the commandments of Yahweh our Lord, and His ordinances and His statutes; <sup>30</sup> and that we would not give our daughters to the peoples of the land, nor take their daughters for our sons; <sup>31</sup> and if the peoples of the land bring wares or any grain on the Sabbath day to sell, that we would not buy of them on the Sabbath, or on a holy day; and that we would forego the seventh year, and the exaction of every debt.

Various Offerings for the House of God

<sup>32</sup> Also we made ordinances for ourselves, to charge ourselves yearly with the third part of a shekel for the service of the house of our God; <sup>33</sup> for the show bread, and for the continual meal offering, and for the continual burnt offering, for the Sabbaths, for the new moons, for the set feasts, and for the holy things, and for the sin offerings to make atonement for Israel, and for all the work of the house of our God. <sup>34</sup> We cast lots, the priests, the Levites, and the people, for the wood offering, to bring it into the house of our God, according to our fathers' houses, at times appointed, year by year, to burn on the altar of Yahweh our God, as it is written in the law; <sup>35</sup> and to bring the first fruits of our ground, and the first fruits of 10:28, 29 The people “separated themselves from the peoples of the lands unto the law of God, their wives, their sons, and their daughters... they joined with their brothers”. Close fellowship with our brethren arises from having gone out from the surrounding world and being separated unto the things of God's word. The Hebrew idea of “holiness” carries the idea of being separated from the things of this world unto the things of God. We see that happening here; separation isn't a merely negative idea. The separation is positively unto other things.

Each one who had knowledge, and understanding – See on 8:12.

10:32, 33 The Mosaic Law had required a half shekel temple tax, but this was reduced here, apparently with God's blessing – such was His desire to work with them and have them as His people (Ex. 30:11-16).

all fruit of all kinds of trees, year by year, to the house of Yahweh; <sup>36</sup> also the first born of our sons, and of our livestock, as it is written in the law, and the first born of our herds and of our flocks, to bring to the house of our God, to the priests who minister in the house of our God; <sup>37</sup> and that we should bring the first fruits of our dough, and our wave offerings, and the fruit of all kinds of trees, the new wine and the oil, to the priests, to the rooms of the house of our God; and the tithes of our ground to the Levites; for they, the Levites, take the tithes in all the cities of our tillage. <sup>38</sup> The priest the son of Aaron shall be with the Levites, when the Levites take tithes; and the Levites shall bring up the tithe of the tithes to the house of our God, to the rooms, into the treasure house. <sup>39</sup> For the children of Israel and the children of Levi shall bring the wave offering of the grain, of the new wine, and of the oil, to the rooms, where are the vessels of the sanctuary, and the priests who minister, and the porters, and the singers. We will not forsake the house of our God.

People Who Lived in Jerusalem

The princes of the people lived in Jerusalem. The rest of the people also cast lots, to bring one-tenth to

10:39 They divorced their Gentile wives, and then took more (in the times of Ezra, Nehemiah and Malachi). They vowed not to forsake the house of their God, and yet Nehemiah concludes with the record that this is exactly what they did (13:11). They were slack paying the tithes, then they paid them, they slacked again, then they paid them, then Malachi records how they again didn't – several times this cycle is recorded. Likewise the withholding of agricultural blessing occurred several times – in 5:2,3 (as prophesied in Is. 51:19), in Haggai's time, and later in Malachi 3:10,12; when the restored Zion could have been as the garden of Eden, i.e. paradise restored on earth (Is. 51:3). Here we see frightening similarities with ourselves. We know, but often don't do. We sense this cycle of failure, crying out for mercy, receiving it, failing again, crying for mercy, receiving it, failing again...we see it in Israel, in our brethren and those around us, and in ourselves. We can expound it, lament it, feel the shame and tragedy of it all...and yet continue to have a part in it. Eventually, the people stayed in this groove so long that they degenerated into how they were at the time of Malachi – self-righteous, with no sense of failure any more, living self-centred lives of petty materialism, earning wages as they did in Haggai's time, to put into pockets with holes in, life without satisfaction, achieving nothing, passively angry. This is what Malachi clearly portrays. It's a terrible picture, and one which we at times can sail dangerously close to identifying with.

11:1 Neh. 7:4 obliquely comments on the tragedy – that the city was large and great, but the people who returned from Babylon were few who lived in it, and the houses weren't rebuilt there. When “the time to favour Zion” came, at the end of the 70 years, God's servants were to “take pleasure in her stones, and favour [even] the dust thereof”; and then, “when the Lord shall build up Zion, He shall appear in His glory” (Ps. 102:13-16). But the few Jews who returned chose not to live in Jerusalem, preferring to carve out for themselves farmsteads in the countryside, and the strength of those dwell in Jerusalem the holy city, and nine-tenths in the other cities.<sup>2</sup> The people blessed all the men who willingly offered themselves to dwell in Jerusalem.<sup>3</sup> Now these are the chiefs of the province who lived in Jerusalem. However, in the cities of Judah each person lived in his possession in their cities: Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the Nethinim, and the children of Solomon's servants.<sup>4</sup> In Jerusalem lived some of the children of Judah, and of the children of Benjamin. Of the children of Judah: Athaiah the son of Uziah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalalel, of the children of Perez;<sup>5</sup> and Maaseiah the son of Baruch, the son of Colhozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Joiarib, the son of Zechariah, the son of the Shilonite.<sup>6</sup> All the sons of Perez who lived in Jerusalem were four hundred and sixty-eight valiant men.<sup>7</sup> These are the sons of Benjamin: Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiah, the son of Kolai-ah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jeshai-ah.<sup>8</sup> After him Gabbai, Sallai, nine hundred and twenty-eight.<sup>9</sup> Joel the son of Zichri was their overseer; and Judah the son of Hassenuah was second over the city.<sup>10</sup> Of the priests: Jedaiah the son of Joiarib, Jachin,<sup>11</sup> Seraiah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the ruler of God's house,<sup>12</sup> and their brothers who did the work of the house, eight hundred and twenty-two; and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malchijah,<sup>13</sup> and his brothers, chiefs of fathers' households, two hundred and forty-two; and Amashsai the son of Azarel, the son of Ahzai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer,<sup>14</sup> and their brothers, mighty men of valour, one hundred and twenty-eight; and their overseer was Zabdiel, the son of Haggadolim.<sup>15</sup> Of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni;<sup>16</sup> and Shabbethai and Jozabad, of the chiefs of the Levites, who had the oversight of the outside business of God's house;<sup>17</sup> and Mattaniah the son of Mica, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, who was the praise leader who began the thanksgiving in prayer, and Bakbukiah, the second among his brothers; and Abda the son that shifted the rubble in Jerusalem decayed... they saw her dust and scattered stones as a nuisance, and didn't take pleasure in them (4:10). And so the Lord could not then appear in glory. Short term attitudes, satisfied with our little lives and homes, rather than the bigger picture of God's glory, a failure to perceive our potential as individuals and as a community – this is what limits so many possibilities which God has potentially enabled. God was therefore especially sensitive to those who had the faith to live in Jerusalem, and for millennia He has recorded their names and brought them before Bible readers – hence the detailed list of their names in this chapter. Note that the list of names of those who lived in the towns outside Jerusalem isn't so detailed (:25-33).

of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun.<sup>18</sup> All the Levites in the holy city were two hundred and eighty-four.<sup>19</sup> Moreover the porters, Akkub, Talmon, and their brothers, who kept watch at the gates, were one hundred and seventy-two.<sup>20</sup> The rest of Israel, of the priests, the Levites, were in all the cities of Judah, each one in his inheritance.<sup>21</sup> But the Nethinim lived in Ophel; and Ziha and Gishpa were over the Nethinim.<sup>22</sup> The overseer also of the Levites at Jerusalem was Uzzi the son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Mica, of the sons of Asaph, the singers, over the business of God's house.<sup>23</sup> For there was a commandment from the king concerning them, and a settled provision for the singers, as every day required.<sup>24</sup> Pethahiah the son of Meshezabel, of the children of Zerah the son of Judah, was at the king's hand in all matters concerning the people.

Other Places Where People Settled

<sup>25</sup> As for the villages, with their fields, some of the children of Judah lived in Kiriath Arba and its towns, and in Dibon and its towns, and in Jekabzeel and its villages,<sup>26</sup> and in Jeshua, and in Moladah, and Beth Pelet,<sup>27</sup> and in Hazar Shual, and in Beersheba and its towns,<sup>28</sup> and in Ziklag, and in Meconah and in its towns,<sup>29</sup> and in En Rimmon, and in Zorah, and in Jarmuth,<sup>30</sup> Zanoah, Adullam, and their villages, Lachish and its fields, Azekah and its towns. So they encamped from Beersheba to the valley of Hinnom.<sup>31</sup> The chil-

List of Priests and Levites

The Wall of Jerusalem Is Dedicated

to Jerusalem, to keep the dedication with gladness, both with giving thanks, and with singing, with cymbals, stringed instruments, and with harps.<sup>28</sup> The sons of the singers gathered themselves together, both out of the plain around Jerusalem, and from the villages of the Ne-tophathites;<sup>29</sup> also from Beth Gilgal, and out of the fields of Geba and Az-maveth. The singers had built themselves villages around Jerusalem.<sup>30</sup> The priests and the Levites purified themselves; and they purified the people, and the gates, and the wall.<sup>31</sup> Then I brought up the princes of Judah on the wall, and appointed two great companies who gave thanks and went in procession. One went on the right hand on the wall toward the dung gate;<sup>32</sup> and after them went Hoshaiiah, and half of the princes of Judah,<sup>33</sup> and Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam,<sup>34</sup> Judah, and Benjamin, and Shemaiah, and Jeremiah,<sup>35</sup> and some of the priests' sons with trumpets: Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph;<sup>36</sup> and his brothers, Shemaiah, and Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethanel, and Judah, Hanani, with the musical instruments of David the man of God; and Ezra the scribe was before them.<sup>37</sup> By the spring gate, and straight before them, they went up by the stairs of the city of David, at the ascent of the wall, above the house of David, even to the water gate eastward. <sup>38</sup> The other company of those who gave thanks went to meet them, and I after them, with the half of the people, on the wall, above the tower of the furnaces, even to the broad wall, <sup>39</sup> and above the gate of Ephraim, and by the old gate, and by the fish gate, and the tower of Hananel, and the tower of Hammeah, even to the sheep gate; and they stood still in the gate of the guard. <sup>40</sup> So stood the two companies of those who gave thanks in God's house, and I, and the half of the rulers with me; <sup>41</sup> and the priests, Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Micaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, with trumpets; <sup>42</sup> and Maaseiah, and Shemaiah, and Eleazar, and Uzzi, and Jehohanan, and Malchijah, and Elam, and Ezer. The singers sang loud, with Jezrahiah their overseer. <sup>43</sup> They offered great sacrifices that day, and rejoiced; for God had made them rejoice with great joy; and the women also and the children rejoiced; so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off. <sup>44</sup> On that day were men appointed over the rooms for the treasures, for the wave offerings, for the first fruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them, according to the fields of the cities, the portions appointed by the law for the priests and Levites; for Judah rejoiced for the priests and for the Levites who waited. <sup>45</sup> They performed the duty of their God, and the duty of the purification, and so did the singers and the porters, according to the commandment of David, and of Solomon his son. <sup>46</sup> For in the days of David and Asaph of old there was a chief of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving to God. <sup>47</sup> All Israel in the days of Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah, gave the portions of the singers and the porters, as every day required: and they set apart that which was for the Levites; and the Levites set apart that which was for the sons of Aaron.

12:30 Those who purify others must firstly purify themselves. Whatever spiritual work we try to do for others must be based upon our first having achieved it in our own lives; otherwise our appeal to others will lack integrity and power of persuasion. In our context, our purification is through baptism into Christ.

The Mixed Multitude Separated from Israel

On that day they read in the book of Moses in the audience of the people; and therein was found writ-

12:39 Ez. 48:31-34 envisaged the 12 gates of Jerusalem being named after the 12 tribes of Israel. But it seems no accident that twelve separate gates of the city are mentioned in the restoration record – but they weren't renamed after the tribes of Israel. Here are the names of the city gates in Nehemiah: valley (3:13); horse (3:28); east (3:29); Miphkad / muster (3:31); water (8:16); dung (12:31); fountain (12:37); Ephraim, old, fish, sheep and prison gates (12:39). No wonder some wept when the rebuilt temple was finally dedicated – the pattern of Ezekiel's vision hadn't been followed, even on such basic matters as the names of the twelve gates of Jerusalem. They could have renamed them, but lacked the willingness to see God's prophetic word as relevant in detail to their lives, just as we can wish to constantly place a distance between God's word, the black print on white paper, and our lives today.

12:43 They... rejoiced; for God had made them rejoice with great joy – God is able and willing to confirm us in the mental attitudes we choose to have.

ten, that an Ammonite and a Moabite should not enter into the assembly of God forever, <sup>2</sup> because they didn't meet the children of Israel with bread and with water, but hired Balaam against them, to curse them; however our God turned the curse into a blessing. <sup>3</sup> It came to pass, when they had heard the law, that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude.

Nehemiah Makes Other Changes

<sup>4</sup> Now before this, Eliashib the priest, who was appointed over the rooms of the house of our God, being allied to Tobiah, <sup>5</sup> had prepared for him a great room, where before they laid the meal offerings, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithes of the grain, the new wine, and the oil, which were given by commandment to the Levites, and the singers, and the porters; and the wave offerings for the priests. <sup>6</sup> But in all this, I was not at Jerusalem; for in the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon I went to the king; and after certain days asked I leave of the king. <sup>7</sup> When I returned to Jerusalem, and understood the evil that Eliashib had done for Tobiah, in preparing him a room in the courts of God's house, <sup>8</sup> it grieved me severely: therefore I cast forth all the household stuff of Tobiah out of the room. <sup>9</sup> Then I commanded, and they cleansed the rooms; and there brought I again the vessels of God's house, with the

13:1 Their ignorance of God's word seems amazing (cp. 8:17). This may partly be because in an illiterate society, access to God's word depended upon the few literate ones reading it and faithfully explaining it to them. We note that despite ignorance of parts of God's word, and thereby disobedience to them (and sins of ignorance were still counted as sins), God still accepted them. This shouldn't lead us to personal complacency, but to tolerance and patience with those who are disobedient to and even ignorant of parts of God's word.

13:7-9 In the restored Kingdom, there were to be "holy chambers" in the temple for the Levites (Ez. 46:19 and very often in Ezekiel 40-48). The uncircumcised Gentiles were not to be brought into the sanctuary (Ez. 44:7). It was God's intention that when Judah returned from Babylon, the uncircumcised would not come into Zion (the temple), and the Kingdom would be established (Is. 52:1,11). There was to be no Canaanite in the house of Yahweh (Zech. 14:21). Yet Tobiah the Ammonite was given a chamber in the temple for him to use as an office for undermining God's people. All this wasted potential is so tragic; and if it is to us who read from such a great distance in time and understanding, how much more was it for God. We can therefore sense His eagerness to work with us who have vowed to be His new Israel and become the seed of Abraham through baptism (Gal. 3:27-29).

13:8 It grieved me severely – Hearts that bleed will feel not only for the world, but for our brethren too. His grief led him to discipline Tobiah. Grief should likewise be the motive for ecclesial discipline today (as in 1 Cor. 5:2). The same word is translated "sad" in 2:3. The King observed that his "sorrow of heart" was written all over his face, even though he was trying to conceal it. His sadness for his weak people was engraved in his body language. Instead of being naggingly critical of our brethren, there should be this genuine grief.

meal offerings and the frankincense. <sup>10</sup> I perceived that the portions of the Levites had not been given them; so that the Levites and the singers, who did the work, had fled everyone to his field. <sup>11</sup> Then I contended with the rulers and said, Why is God's house forsaken? I gathered them together, and set them in their place. <sup>12</sup> Then brought all Judah the tithe of the grain and the new wine and the oil to the treasuries. <sup>13</sup> I made treasurers over the treasuries, Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedaiah. Next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah; for they were counted faithful, and their business was to distribute to their brothers. <sup>14</sup> Remember me, my God, concerning this, and don't wipe out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for its observances.

Abuses of the Sabbath

<sup>15</sup> In those days I saw in Judah some men treading winepresses on the Sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and loading donkeys; as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all kinds of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day: and I testified against them in the day in which they sold food. <sup>16</sup> There also lived men of Tyre therein, who brought in fish and all kinds of wares, and sold on the Sabbath to the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem. <sup>17</sup> Then I contended with the nobles of Judah and said to them, What evil thing is this that you do, and profane the Sabbath day? <sup>18</sup> Didn't your fathers do thus, and didn't our God bring all this evil on us, and on this city? Yet you bring more wrath on Israel by profaning the Sabbath.

The Sabbath Sanctified

<sup>19</sup> It came to pass that, when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the Sabbath, I commanded that the doors should be shut, and commanded that they should not be opened until after the Sabbath. I set some of my servants over the gates, so that no burden should be brought in on

13:17, 18 The house of the restored Kingdom was not to be profaned (Ez. 44:7); but Judah profaned the Sabbath and profaned the temple by their marriage with Gentiles and their "weariness" with the temple ordinances (Mal. 1:12; 2:10,11). They got bored with the things of the Kingdom, and so they had no part in it.

13:19 Is. 60:10,11 had foretold: "And the sons of strangers shall build up your walls, and their kings shall minister unto you [as happened in the decree of Cyrus]...Therefore your gates shall be open continually; they shall not be shut day nor night"; and then as Ez. 43 had also described, "I will glorify the house of My glory" (Is. 60:7). But due to the Jews' abuse of the Sabbath and their refusal to believe Yahweh would be the promised wall of protecting fire to them, the gates could not be open continually, and had to be shut at night (see too 7:3). And Antiochus quite soon after Nehemiah's time destroyed them [which shows how the spirituality involved in what we do, e.g. the building of the wall, is the essential thing, rather than the achievement of anything in itself]. The implication of the prophecies about Zion's open gates was that whosoever wished could then come at any time to seek Yahweh. But men were potentially turned the Sabbath day. <sup>20</sup> So the merchants and sellers of all kinds of wares lodged outside of Jerusalem once or twice. <sup>21</sup> Then I testified against them and said to them, Why do you stay around the wall? If you do so again, I will lay hands on you. From that time on, they didn't come on the Sabbath. <sup>22</sup> I commanded the Levites that they should purify themselves, and that they should come and keep the gates, to sanctify the Sabbath day. Remember me, my God, for this also, and spare me according to the greatness of Your loving grace.

Foreign Influences Removed

<sup>23</sup> In those days I also saw Jews who had married women of Ashdod, of Ammon, and of Moab: <sup>24</sup> and their children spoke half in the speech of Ashdod, and could not speak in the Jews' language, but according to the language of each people. <sup>25</sup> I contended with them and cursed them, and struck certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them swear

by God, You shall not give your daughters to their sons, nor take their daughters for your sons, or for yourselves. <sup>26</sup> Didn't Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? Yet among many nations was there no king like him that was beloved of his God, and God made him king over all Israel. Nevertheless foreign women caused even him to sin. <sup>27</sup> Shall we then listen to you to do all this great evil, in breaking covenant with our God in marrying foreign wives? <sup>28</sup> One of the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was son-in-law to Sanballat the Horonite: therefore I chased him from me. <sup>29</sup> Remember them, my God, because they have defiled the priesthood, and the covenant of the priesthood, and of the Levites. <sup>30</sup> Thus I cleansed them from all foreigners, and appointed duties for the priests and for the Levites, each one in his work; <sup>31</sup> and for the wood offering, at times appointed, and for the first fruits. Remember me, my God, for good.

away from Him, and His Kingdom not realized... just because greedy, materialistic Jews wanted to have a few more coins in their pocket as a result of their trading on the Sabbath. And so with us, our meanness towards God's word, our selfishness, our desire to have more than we need to cover us in the case of any eventuality, all this effectively shuts up the Kingdom against men. If the Pharisees could do just this, it is possible for us to do it. The salvation of others has been delegated into our hands.

13:19, 20 Ez. 46:3 had predicted that "The people of the land shall worship at the door of this gate before the Yahweh in the Sabbaths and in the new moons". But encouraged by the materialism of the Jews, "the people of the land" hung around the gates of the city on the Sabbath in order to do some trading of goods. Petty materialism was one factor which led even to Christ's betrayal; and it so easily does so time and again in the lives of God's children.

13:27 Nehemiah stridently criticized Israel for yet again marrying Gentiles. He described their action as "breaking covenant with our God in marrying strange wives"; the Levites likewise "defiled the priesthood, and the covenant of the priesthood" (:29) by their marriages. Marriage out of the Faith is this serious; it is a breaking covenant with God.

The King Makes a Feast

Now it happened in the days of Ahasuerus (this is Ahasuerus who reigned from India even to Ethiopia, over one hundred and twenty-seven provinces),<sup>2</sup> that in those days, when the King Ahasuerus sat on the throne of his kingdom which was in Shushan the palace,<sup>3</sup> in the third year of his reign, he made a feast for all his princes and his servants; the powerful ones of Persia and Media, the nobles and princes of the provinces, being before him.<sup>4</sup> He displayed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the honour of his excellent majesty many days, even one hundred and eighty days.<sup>5</sup> When those days were fulfilled, the king made a seven day feast for all the people who were present in Shushan the palace, both great and small, in the court of the garden of the king's palace.<sup>6</sup> There were hangings of white, green and blue material, fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and marble pillars. The couches were of gold and silver, on a pavement of red, white, yellow and black marble.<sup>7</sup> They gave them ample drinks in golden vessels of various kinds, including the wine of the kingdom, according to the bounty of the king.<sup>8</sup> In accordance with the law, the drinking was not compulsory; for so the king had instructed all the officials of his house, that they should do according to every man's pleasure.<sup>9</sup> Also Vashti the queen made a feast for the women in the royal house which belonged to King Ahasuerus.

Queen Vashti Disobeys the King

<sup>10</sup> On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha,

1:6 The language here is exactly that used about God's tabernacle and temple. The cups used in :7 may well have been those taken from Yahweh's temple in Jerusalem (Jer. 52:19; Dan. 5:2). The Persian empire is therefore being presented as a fake Kingdom of God on earth. God's people living there had to break from it and obey the command to return to the desolate land of Judah and rebuild God's true Kingdom there. We have the same call in responding to the Gospel today, in leaving this world, which appears to be God's Kingdom but isn't, and take the hard, self-sacrificial journey in life towards His true Kingdom which will be re-established on earth at Christ's return. "His glorious kingdom" (:4) uses the same two Hebrew words as in Ps. 145:11,12, where we read [in a Psalm that may well have been written or used by the righteous remnant in Babylon] that it is Yahweh God of Israel who has a Kingdom of glory, and who ultimately hears the cry of His people in distress, as Ahasuerus did. The Kingdom of Media and Persia had books in which the good and bad deeds of the citizens were written (10:2); and so in the one true Kingdom, there are 'books' from which the ultimate King will judge His people. Clearly, the Kingdom of Ahasuerus is being set up as an anti-Kingdom of God, with an antichrist figure ruling it, faking the Kingdom of God.

Zethar and Carcass, the seven eunuchs who served in the presence of Ahasuerus the king, <sup>11</sup> to bring Vashti the queen before the king with the royal crown, to show the people and the princes her beauty; for she was beautiful. <sup>12</sup> But the queen Vashti refused to come at the king's commandment by the eunuchs. Therefore the king was very angry, and his anger burned in him. <sup>13</sup> Then the king said to the wise men who knew the times, (for it was the king's custom to consult those who knew law and judgement; <sup>14</sup> and those next to him were Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the seven princes of Persia and Media, who saw the king's face, and sat first in the kingdom), <sup>15</sup> What shall we do to the queen Vashti according to law, because she has not done the bidding of the King Ahasuerus by the eunuchs? <sup>16</sup> Memucan answered before the king and the princes, Vashti the queen has not done wrong to only the king, but also to all the princes, and to all the people who are in all the provinces of the King Ahasuerus. <sup>17</sup> For this deed of the queen will become known to all women, causing them to show contempt for their husbands when it is reported, 'King Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, but she didn't come'. <sup>18</sup> Today, the princesses of Persia and Media who have heard of the queen's deed will likewise tell all the king's princes. This will cause much contempt and wrath.

The King's Decree

<sup>19</sup> If it please the king, let a royal commandment go from him and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, so that it cannot be altered, that Vashti may never again come before King Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal estate to another who is better than she. <sup>20</sup> When the king's decree which he shall make is published throughout all his kingdom (for it is great), all the wives will give their husbands honour, both great and small. <sup>21</sup> This advice pleased the king and the princes, and the king did according to the word of Memucan: <sup>22</sup> for he sent letters into all the king's provinces, into every province according to its writing, and to every people in their language, that every man should rule his own house, and that it should be published in the language of each people.

CHAPTER 2 Nov.27

The King Seeks a New Queen

After these things, when the wrath of King Ahasuerus was pacified, he remembered Vashti and what she had done, and what was decreed against her. <sup>2</sup> Then the king's servants who served him said, Let beautiful young virgins be sought for the king. <sup>3</sup> Let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the beautiful young virgins to the citadel of Susa, to the women's house, to the custody of Hegai the king's eunuch, keeper of the women. Let cosmetics be given them; <sup>4</sup> and let the maiden who pleases the king be queen instead of Vashti. The thing pleased the king, and he did so.

Mordecai and Esther

<sup>5</sup> There was a certain Jew in the citadel of Susa, whose name was Mordecai, son of Jair, son of Shimei, son of Kish a Benjamite, <sup>6</sup> who had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captives who had been carried away with Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away. <sup>7</sup> He brought up Hadassah, that is, Esther, his uncle's daughter; for she had neither father nor mother. The maiden was fair and beautiful; and when her father and mother were dead, Mordecai took her for his own daughter. <sup>8</sup> So it happened that when the king's commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together to the citadel of Susa, to the custody of Hegai, Esther was taken into the king's house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women. <sup>9</sup> The maiden pleased him, and she obtained kindness from him. He quickly gave her cosmetics and her portions of food, and the seven choice maidens who were to be given her out of the king's house. He moved her and her maidens to the best place in the women's house. <sup>10</sup> Esther had not made known her people nor her relatives, because Mordecai had instructed her that she should not make it known. <sup>11</sup> Mordecai walked every day in front of the court of the women's house, to find out how Esther was doing, and what would become of her.

Esther Is Made Queen

<sup>12</sup> Each young woman's turn came to go in to King Ahasuerus after her purification for twelve months (for so were the days of their purification accomplished, six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet fragrances and with preparations for beautifying women). <sup>13</sup> The young woman then came to the king like this: whatever she desired was given her to go with her out of the women's house to the king's house. <sup>14</sup> In the evening she went, and on the

2:5 Mordecai – So much of later Isaiah is taken up with mockery and criticism of the Babylonian gods and the Marduk cult. The book of Esther, with Mordecai as the joint hero, named as he was after Marduk, demonstrates how caught up were the Jews with the Babylonian gods. Ezekiel repeatedly reveals the idolatry of the Jewish captives. Isaiah was therefore an appeal for the Jews to quit the Marduk cult and believe in the radical prophecies about the overthrow of Babylon. The situation is analogous to how the New Testament is full of references to the Roman imperial cult of empire worship. So much of the Bible is like Isaiah and the New Testament – a radical, counter-cultural call to see our present world for what it is, and to perceive that the ways of God simply can't be mixed in, watered down or compromised with the way of this world.

2:7 'Esther' in Persian means 'star' and appears a reference to Ishtar or to the Persian stara, or 'star', the Babylonian goddess of love. Even her Hebrew name Hadassah means 'myrtle', a tree which is a native of Babylon, not Israel.

2:9 See on 4:1-3.

next day she returned into the second women's house, to the custody of Shaashgaz, the king's eunuch, who kept the concubines. She came in to the king no more, unless the king delighted in her, and she was called by name. <sup>15</sup> Now when the turn of Esther, the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for his daughter, came to go in to the king, she required nothing but what Hegai the king's eunuch, the keeper of the women, advised. Esther obtained favour in the sight of all those who looked at her. <sup>16</sup> So Esther was taken to King Ahasuerus into his royal house in the tenth month, which is the month Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign. <sup>17</sup> The king loved Esther more than all the women, and she obtained favour and kindness in his sight more than all the virgins; so that he set the royal crown on her head, and made her queen instead of Vashti. <sup>18</sup> Then the king made a great feast for all his princes and his servants, even Esther's feast; and he proclaimed a holiday in the provinces, and gave gifts according to the king's bounty.

Mordecai Saves the King's Life

<sup>19</sup> When the virgins were gathered together the second time, Mordecai was sitting in the king's gate. <sup>20</sup> Esther had not yet made known her relatives nor her people, as Mordecai had commanded her; for Esther obeyed Mordecai, like she did when she was brought up by him. <sup>21</sup> In those days, while Mordecai was sitting in the king's gate, two of the king's eunuchs who were doorkeepers, Bigthan and Teresh, were angry, and sought to lay hands on the King Ahasuerus. <sup>22</sup> This thing became known to Mordecai, who informed Esther the queen; and Esther informed the king in Mordecai's name. <sup>23</sup> When this matter was investigated, and it was found to be so, they were both hanged on a tree; and it was written in the book of the chronicles in the king's presence.

Haman Seeks to Destroy the Jews

After these things King Ahasuerus promoted Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and advanced him, and set his seat above all the princes who were with him. <sup>2</sup> All the king's servants who were in the king's gate bowed down, and paid homage to Haman; for the king had so commanded concerning him. But Mordecai didn't bow down or pay him homage. <sup>3</sup> Then the king's servants who were in the king's gate said to Mordecai, Why do you disobey the king's commandment? <sup>4</sup> Now it came to pass, when they spoke daily to him and he didn't listen to them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordecai's position would stand; for he had told them that he was a Jew. <sup>5</sup> When Haman saw that Mordecai didn't bow down nor pay him homage, Haman was full of wrath. <sup>6</sup> But he scorned the thought of laying hands on Mordecai alone, for they had made known to him Mordecai's people. Therefore Haman sought to destroy all the Jews who were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus, even Mordecai's people. <sup>7</sup> In the first month, which is the month Nisan, in the twelfth year of King Ahasuerus, they cast Pur, that is, the lot, before Haman from day to day, and from month to month, and chose the twelfth month, which is the month Adar. <sup>8</sup> Haman said to King Ahasuerus, There is a certain people scattered abroad and dispersed among the peoples in all the provinces of your kingdom, and their laws are different from other people's. They don't keep the king's laws. Therefore it is not for the king's profit to allow them to remain. <sup>9</sup> If it pleases the king, let it be written that they be destroyed; and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver into the hands of those who are in charge of the king's business, to bring it into the king's treasuries.

The Decree to Destroy the Jews

<sup>10</sup> The king took his ring from his hand, and gave it to Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the Jews' enemy. <sup>11</sup> The king said to Haman, The silver is given to you, the people also, to do with them as it seems good to you. <sup>12</sup> Then the king's scribes were called in on the first month, on the thirteenth day of the month; and all that Haman commanded was written to the king's satraps and to the governors who were over every province, and to the princes of every people, to every province according to its writing, and to every people in their language. It was written in the name of King Ahasuerus, and it was sealed with the king's ring.

3:7 See on 4:1-3; 7:8. Haman decided on his plan to kill the Jews in the first month, Nisan, but his roll of the dice dictated that he execute it in the 12th month. This gave the Jews and Esther / Mordecai nearly a whole year to try to get out of the situation. The fact this plan was made around Jewish Passover time [hence the mention of the month Nisan] perhaps suggested to the thoughtful that God would work a similar Passover deliverance as He had from Egypt. Here we see providence, a Divine hand intervening (Prov. 16:33). And that Divine hand intervenes and works even through our own failure.

3:9 It's apparent that the Jews were no longer sitting weeping by the rivers of Babylon, but had become influential and wealthy throughout the empire – hence Haman's desire to kill and plunder them. The vast sum he offered to the King for permission to do this was presumably on the basis that a percentage of the plunder would be given to the King; for Herodotus estimated Haman's offer to approximate to two thirds of the annual income of the Persian empire. The only way he could realistically have offered this would've been on the basis that the Jews were wealthy and he would totally plunder them. Hence when the whole plan was reversed, the Jews were allowed to plunder their enemies (8:11). They certainly didn't take any wealth with them into captivity; they must have experienced meteoric prosperity and success in all their business dealings. Hence their desire to materially support the exiles who wished to return, but most of them were too caught up in the good life to heed the call to come out from Babylon / Persia. And we, faced with that same call in these last days, must enquire whether we're not the same.

<sup>13</sup> Letters were sent by couriers into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, even on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and to plunder their possessions. <sup>14</sup> A copy of the letter, that the decree should be given out in every province, was published to all the peoples, that they should be prepared against that day. <sup>15</sup> The couriers went forth in haste by the king's commandment, and the decree was given out in the citadel of Susa. The king and Haman sat down to drink; but the city of Shushan was perplexed.

CHAPTER 4 Nov.28

Mordecai Informs Esther about the King's Decree

Now when Mordecai found out all that was done, Mordecai tore his clothes and put on sackcloth with ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and wailed loudly and a bitterly. <sup>2</sup> He came even before the king's gate; for no one was allowed inside the king's gate clothed with sackcloth. <sup>3</sup> In every province, wherever the king's commandment and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting, weeping and wailing; and many lay in sackcloth and ashes. <sup>4</sup> Esther's maidens and her eunuchs came and told her this, and the queen was exceedingly grieved. She sent clothing to Mordecai, to replace his sackcloth; but he didn't receive it. <sup>5</sup> Then Esther called for Hathach, one of the king's eunuchs, whom he had appointed to attend her, and commanded him to go to Mordecai, to find out what this was, and why it was. <sup>6</sup> So Hathach went out to Mordecai, to the city square which was before the king's

3:13 The decree was made to “destroy... and cause to perish” the Jews throughout the provinces of Persia / Babylon (3:13; 7:4). This phrase uses the two Hebrew words which we find together three times in the list of curses to be brought upon a disobedient Israel (Dt. 28:20,51,63). Yet by her wonderful self-sacrificial mediation, Esther brought about the deferment and even annulment of those justifiable curses. God's prophetic word was again changed – due to a mediator, who of course pointed both backwards to Moses, and forwards to the Lord Jesus. God is so eager to save us that He is willing to change His stated purpose about sinners.

4:1-3 The complete absence of God's Name in Esther indicates how they had forgotten the Name of their God in Babylon. It's also odd that there is no mention of prayer in the story – when prayer was the obvious recourse of God's people. The omission is so obvious – as if to point out that the Jews were not the prayerful community which they should've been. When we read of Mordecai rending his clothes and putting on sackcloth and ashes, we expect to read of him praying – for prayer accompanies those two things in 2 Kings 19:1-4 and Joel 1:14. Even Esther appears to accept her possible destruction in a fatalistic way rather than in faith – “If I perish, I perish” (:16). There's a contrast with Daniel, who gathered his friends and gave himself to prayer before going in to the King; she gathered her friends and asked them to fast, but there's no specific mention of prayer. What she did was brave, but it seems to be more human gate. <sup>7</sup> Mordecai told him of all that had happened to him, and the exact sum of money that Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasuries for the destruction of the Jews. <sup>8</sup> He also gave him the copy of the writing of the decree that was given out in Shushan to destroy them, to show it to Esther, and to declare it to her, and to urge her to go in to the king to make supplication to him, to make request before him for her people.

Messages between Mordecai and Esther

<sup>9</sup> Hathach came and told Esther the words of Mordecai. <sup>10</sup> Then Esther spoke to Hathach and gave him a message to Mordecai: <sup>11</sup> All the king's servants and the people of the king's provinces know that whoever, whether man or woman, comes to the king into the inner court without being invited, there is one law for him, that he be put to death; except those to whom the king might hold out the golden sceptre, that he may live. I have not been called to come in to the king these thirty days. <sup>12</sup> They told to Mordecai Esther's words. <sup>13</sup> Then Mordecai asked them to return answer to Esther, Don't think to yourself that you will escape in the king's house any more than all the Jews. <sup>14</sup> For if you remain silent now, then relief and deliverance will come to the Jews from another place, but you and your father's house will perish. Who knows if you haven't come to the kingdom for such a time as this? <sup>15</sup> Then Esther asked them to answer Mordecai, <sup>16</sup> Go, gather together all bravery than an act of spiritual faith. The omission of any mention of prayer seems intentional – to highlight that the Jewish community were simply not prayerful as they should've been. The book of Esther was surely to encourage the Jews that despite their weakness, God was prepared to work with them. Esther appears to have slept with ['went in unto'] the King before he married her; eaten unclean food (2:9; cp. Dan. 1:5, 8), and finally married a Gentile. And she didn't tell her husband that she was Jewish for the first 5 years of their marriage (2:16; 3:7). It's almost certain that she would've acted like a Persian woman religiously in order for this to be the case; she certainly wasn't an observant keeper of the Mosaic law. She's almost set up in contrast with Daniel, who refused to defile himself in these ways and maintained his conscience in the same environment at whatever cost. But the point of Esther is to show that God was eager to work with such as Esther, He hadn't quit on His people. And of course if Esther and Mordecai had done the right thing and returned to Judah as commanded, the whole situation would never have arisen, and there would've been no Jews left in Babylon to persecute. It seems that the history in the book of Esther is an example of how God sent 'fishers and hunters' to encourage the Jews to return as He commanded them (Jer. 16:16) – but even then, they didn't.

4:8 God had said that He would cast Judah out of their land, they would go to Babylon and serve other gods there, "where I will not show you favour" (Jer. 16:13). But actually Esther and her people were shown favour there [s.w. Esther 4:8; 8:5]. God was gracious [s.w. 'show favour'] to those in exile (Is. 30:18,9; Am. 5:15; Mal. 1:9). Here we see God's pure grace to His weak people.

the Jews who are present in Shushan and fast for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, night or day. I and my maidens will also fast the same way. Then I will go in to the king, which is against the law; and if I perish, I perish. <sup>17</sup> So Mordecai went his way, and did according to all that Esther had commanded him.

Esther Invites the King and Haman to a Banquet

Now it happened on the third day that Esther put on her royal clothing, and stood in the inner court of the king's house, next to the king's house. The king sat on his royal throne in the royal house, next to the entrance of the house. <sup>2</sup> When the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, she obtained favour in his sight; and the king held out to Esther the golden sceptre that was in his hand. So Esther came near, and touched the top of the sceptre. <sup>3</sup> Then the king asked her, What would you like, queen Esther? What is your request? It shall be given you even to the half of the kingdom. <sup>4</sup> Esther said, If it seems good to the king, let the king come with Haman today to the banquet that I have prepared for him. <sup>5</sup> Then the king said, Bring Haman quickly, so that it may be done as Esther has said. So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared. <sup>6</sup> The king said to Esther at the banquet of wine, What is your petition? It shall be granted you. What is your request? Even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed. <sup>7</sup> Then Esther answered and said, My petition and my request is this. <sup>8</sup> If I have found favour in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to grant my petition and to perform my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I will prepare for them, and I will do tomorrow as the king has said.

Haman Plots to Have Mordecai Hanged

<sup>9</sup> Then Haman went out that day joyful and glad of heart, but when Ha-

5:4 When Esther's nerve failed and she cops out of making her request by asking the King and Haman to come to a banquet, she finds herself saying: "Let the King come with Haman today". The Hebrew text reads: "Ybw' Hmlk Whmn Hywm" – the first letters of those four Hebrew words spells YHWH, the Name of God which never occurs in the book of Esther. Truly God's strength is made perfect in human weakness. In that very moment of failure, the cop out, God was revealed in His essence. And He proceeded to work through the element of suspense which her request created... to pique the King's desire to help, and to raise Haman's pride at having been invited, so that he would act even more foolishly, leading to his downfall. It could also be noted that Esther's entire intercession could so easily have been spoilt if Haman had suspected her machinations against him. But he didn't; he felt very honoured to have been invited by Esther to the banquet, and he boasted about it. In other words, Esther concealed her true feelings towards him. And where did she learn to do that? Surely in a lifetime of concealing her true Jewish identity and religious feelings, when actually she shouldn't have done so.

man saw Mordecai in the king's gate, that he didn't stand up nor move for him, he was filled with wrath against Mordecai. <sup>10</sup> Nevertheless Haman restrained himself, and went home. There, he sent and called for his friends and Zeresh his wife. <sup>11</sup> Haman recounted to them the glory of his riches, the multitude of his children, all the things in which the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the princes and servants of the king. <sup>12</sup> Haman also said, Yes, Esther the queen let no man come in with the king to the banquet that she had prepared but myself; and tomorrow I am also invited by her together with the king. <sup>13</sup> Yet all this avails me nothing, so long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king's gate. <sup>14</sup> Then Zeresh his wife and all his friends said to him, Let a gallows be made fifty cubits high, and in the morning speak to the king about hanging Mordecai on it. Then go in merrily with the king to the banquet. This pleased Haman, so he had the gallows made.

The King Remembers Mordecai

On that night, sleep fled from the king. He commanded the book of records of the chronicles to be brought, and they were read to the king. <sup>2</sup> It was found written that Mordecai had told of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's eunuchs, who were doorkeepers, who had tried to lay hands on the King Ahasuerus. <sup>3</sup> The king said, What honour and dignity has been bestowed on Mordecai for this? Then the king's servants who attended him said, Nothing has been done for him. <sup>4</sup> The king said, Who is in the court? Now Haman had come into the outer court of the king's house, to speak to the king about hanging Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him. <sup>5</sup> The king's servants said to him, Behold, Haman stands in the court. The king said, Let him come in. <sup>6</sup> So Haman came in. The king said to him, What shall be done to the man whom the king delights to honour? Now Haman said in his heart, Who would the king delight to honour more than myself? <sup>7</sup> Haman said to the king, For the man whom the king delights to honour, <sup>8</sup> let royal clothing be brought which the king wears, and the horse that the king rides on, and on the head of which a crown royal is set. <sup>9</sup> Let the clothing and the horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king's most noble princes, that they may array the man whom the king delights to honour with them, and have him ride on horseback through the city square, and proclaim before him, 'Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delights to honour!'

Mordecai Is Honoured But Haman Mourns

<sup>10</sup> Then the king said to Haman, Hurry and take the clothing and the horse, as you have said, and do this for Mordecai the Jew, who sits at the king's gate. Let nothing fail of all that you have spoken. <sup>11</sup> Then Haman took the clothing and the horse, and arrayed Mordecai, and had him ride through the city square, and proclaimed before him, Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delights to honour! <sup>12</sup> Mordecai came back to the king's gate, but Haman hurried to his house, mourning and having his head covered. <sup>13</sup> Haman recounted to Zeresh his wife and all his friends everything that had happened to him. Then his wise men and Zeresh his wife said to him, If Mordecai, before whom you have begun to fall is of Jewish descent, you will not prevail against him, but you will surely fall before him. <sup>14</sup> While they were yet talking with him, the king's eunuchs came, and hurried to bring Haman to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

CHAPTER 7 Nov.30

Esther Reveals Haman's Plot to the King

So the king and Haman came to banquet with Esther the queen. <sup>2</sup> The king said again to Esther on the second day at the banquet of wine, What is your petition, queen Esther? It shall be granted you. What is your request? Even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed. <sup>3</sup> Then Esther the queen answered, If I have found favour in your sight, O king, and if it please the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request. <sup>4</sup> For we are sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish. But if we had been sold for bondservants and bondmaids, I would have held my peace, although the adversary could not have compensated for the king's loss. <sup>5</sup> Then King Ahasuerus said to Esther the queen, Who is he, and where is he who dared presume in his heart to do so? <sup>6</sup> Esther said, The adversary and the enemy is even this wicked Haman!

Haman Put to Death

Then Haman was afraid before the king and the queen. <sup>7</sup> The king arose in his wrath from the banquet of wine and went into the palace garden. Haman stood up to make request for his life to Esther the queen; for he saw that there was evil determined against him by the king. <sup>8</sup> Then the king returned out of the palace gar-

7:3 Esther made her request for “my life... my people” in parallel; and when her own safety was assured, she didn’t just relax and mop her brow with relief, she went on to petition for them – with all the risks this involved for her (see too 8:3). We can’t possibly just rejoice in our own salvation, that we have found the Lord and are secured in Him; if we have truly experienced this, we will wish to share it with others.

7:4 Esther, in an eloquent type of Christ’s mediation for us, risked her life because she felt that “we are sold, I and my people, to be destroyed”. If she’d have kept her mouth shut, she wouldn’t have been destroyed. But she fought and won the same battle as we have daily or weekly before us: to identify ourselves with our weaker and more suffering brethren.

7:6 The Septuagint here calls the man Haman ho diabolos – the devil (with the definite article), referring to Haman, not to any supernatural being. The word simply means an enemy.

den into the place of the banquet of wine; and Haman had fallen on the couch where Esther was. Then the king said, Will he even assault the queen in front of me in the house? As the word went out of the king's mouth, they covered Haman's face. <sup>9</sup> Then Harbonah, one of the eunuchs who were with the king said, Behold, the gallows fifty cubits high, which Haman has made for Mordecai, who spoke good for the king, is standing at Haman's house. The king said, Hang him on it! <sup>10</sup> So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then was the king's wrath pacified.

CHAPTER 8 Nov.30

Esther Pleads for Her People

On that day, King Ahasuerus gave the house of Haman, the Jews' enemy, to Esther the queen. Mordecai came before the king; for Esther had told what he was to her. <sup>2</sup> The king took off his ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it to Mordecai. Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman. <sup>3</sup> Esther spoke yet again before the king, and fell down at his feet, and begged him with tears to put away the mischief of Haman the Agagite, and his device that he had devised against the Jews. <sup>4</sup> Then the king held out to Esther the golden sceptre. So Esther arose, and stood before the king. <sup>5</sup> She said, If it pleases the king, and if I have found favour in his sight, and the thing seem right to the king, and I am pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to reverse the letters devised by Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews who are in all the king's provinces. <sup>6</sup> For how can I endure to see the evil that would come to my people? How can I endure to see the destruction of my relatives?

The King Grants Esther's Wish

<sup>7</sup> Then King Ahasuerus said to Esther the queen and to Mordecai the Jew, I have freely granted you all that was

7:8 Although Esther was weak spiritually, yet God worked through her to save His undeserving people. The story brings out a number of coincidences which on reflection could only have been from God. The way Haman collapses and it appears he's tried to rape Esther is one such. Another is the way that Mordecai isn't rewarded for revealing the plot to kill the King – the King seems to have forgotten about it, overlooked it, and therefore he was all the more inclined to do Esther and Mordecai a real favour when required. This is all especially remarkable when we read historian Herodotus' note that Ahasuerus [or Xerxes] was noted for rewarding loyalty. It was surely no mere human co-incidence that the very morning the King has had a bad night and remembered Mordecai and decides to honour him, that Haman arrives to request Mordecai's death. See on 3:7.

8:7 The God who has given us His Son will, through His mediation, surely "freely give us all things" in response to our prayers (Rom. 8:32-34). This passage is alluding to the LXX here: "If I have freely granted you all that was Haman's, because he laid his hand on the Jews, and hanged him on a gallows [cp. the cross], what do you fur-

Haman's, because he laid his hand on the Jews, and hanged him on a gallows, what do you further seek? <sup>8</sup> Write also to the Jews, as it pleases you, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's ring; for the writing which is written in the king's name, and sealed with the king's ring, may not be reversed by any man. <sup>9</sup> Then the king's scribes were called at that time, in the third month Sivan, on the twenty-third day of the first month, which is Nisan; and it was written according to all that Mordecai commanded to the Jews, and to the satraps, the governors and princes of the provinces which are from India to Ethiopia, one hundred and twenty-seven provinces, to every province according to its writing, and to every people in their language, and to the Jews in their writing and in their language. <sup>10</sup> He wrote in the name of King Ahasuerus, and sealed it with the king's ring, and sent letters by courier on horseback, riding on royal horses that were bred from swift steeds.

The Jews Are to Defend Themselves

<sup>11</sup> In those letters, the king granted the Jews who were in every city to gather themselves together, and to defend their life, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish all the power of the people and province that would assault them, their little ones and women, and to plunder their possessions, <sup>12</sup> on one day in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar. <sup>13</sup> A copy of the letter, that the decree should be given out in every province, was published to all the peoples, that the Jews should be ready for that day to avenge themselves on their enemies. <sup>14</sup> So the couriers who rode on royal horses went out, hastened and pressed on by the king's commandment. The decree was given out in the citadel of Susa. <sup>15</sup> Mordecai went out of the presence of the king in royal clothing of blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a robe of fine linen and purple; and the city of Susa shouted and was glad. <sup>16</sup> The Jews had light, gladness, joy, and honour. <sup>17</sup> In every province, and in every city, wherever the king's commandment and his decree came, the Jews had gladness, joy, a feast, and a good day. Many from among the peoples of the land became Jews; for the fear of the Jews was fallen on them.

CHAPTER 9 Dec. 1

The Jews Destroy Their Enemies

Now in the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, on the thirteenth day of the month, when the king's commandment and his decree drew near to be put into effect, on the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to conquer them, (but it was turned about so that the opposite happened- the Jews conquered those who hated them), <sup>2</sup> the Jews gathered themselves together in their cities throughout all the provinces of the King Ahasuerus, to lay hands on those who wanted to harm them. No one could withstand them, because the fear of them had fallen on all the people. <sup>3</sup> All the princes of the provinces, the satraps, the governors, and those who did the king's business helped the Jews, because the fear of Mordecai had fallen on them. <sup>4</sup> For Mordecai was great in the king's house, and his fame went out throughout all the provinces; for the man Mordecai grew greater and greater. <sup>5</sup> The Jews struck all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and with slaughter and destruction, and did what they wanted to those who hated them. <sup>6</sup> In the citadel of Susa, the Jews killed and destroyed five hundred men. <sup>7</sup> They killed Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha, <sup>8</sup> Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha, <sup>9</sup> Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai and Vaizatha, <sup>10</sup> the ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Jew's enemy; but they didn't lay their hand on the plunder. <sup>11</sup> On that day, the number of those who were slain in the citadel of Susa was brought before the king. <sup>12</sup> The king said to Esther the queen, The Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men in the citadel of Susa, including the ten sons of Haman; what then have they done in the rest of the king's provinces! Now what is your petition? It shall be granted you. What is your further request? It shall be done. <sup>13</sup> Then

Esther said, If it pleases the king, let it be granted to the Jews who are in Shushan to do tomorrow also according to this day's decree, and let Haman's ten sons be hanged on the gallows. <sup>14</sup> The king commanded this to be done. A decree was given out in Shushan; and they hanged Haman's ten sons. <sup>15</sup> The Jews who were in Shushan gathered themselves together on the fourteenth day also of the month Adar, and killed three hundred men in Shushan; but they didn't lay their hand on the spoil. <sup>16</sup> The other Jews who were in the king's provinces gathered themselves together, defended their lives, had rest from their enemies, and killed seventy-five thousand of those who hated them; but they didn't lay their hand on the plunder.

The Custom of Purim Begins

<sup>17</sup> This was done on the thirteenth day of the month Adar; and on the fourteenth day of that month they rested and made it a day of feasting and gladness. <sup>18</sup> But the Jews who were in Shushan assembled together on the thirteenth and on the fourteenth days of the month; and on the fifteenth day of that month, they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness. <sup>19</sup> Therefore the Jews of the villages, who lived in the un-walled towns, made the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of gladness and feasting, a good day, and a day of sending presents of food to one another. <sup>20</sup> Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters to all the Jews who were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, both near and far, <sup>21</sup> to enjoin them that they should keep the fourteenth and fifteenth days of the month Adar yearly, <sup>22</sup> as the days in which the Jews had rest from their enemies, and the month which was turned to them from sorrow to gladness, and from mourning into a good day; that they should make them days of feasting and gladness, and of sending presents of food to one another, and gifts to the needy. <sup>23</sup> The Jews accepted the custom that they had begun, as Mordecai had written to them; <sup>24</sup> because Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had plotted against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast Pur, that is, the lot, to consume them, and to destroy them; <sup>25</sup> but when this became known to the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked device, which he had devised against the Jews, should return upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows. <sup>26</sup> Therefore they called these days Purim, from the word ‘Pur’. Therefore because of all the words of this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and that which had come to them, <sup>27</sup> the Jews established and imposed on themselves and on their descendants, and on all those who joined themselves to them, so that it should not fail, that they would keep these two days according to what was written, and according to its appointed time, every year; <sup>28</sup> and that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Purim should not fail from among the Jews, nor their memory perish from their seed. <sup>29</sup> Then Esther the queen, the daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew, wrote with all authority to confirm this second letter of Purim. <sup>30</sup> He sent letters to all the Jews, to the hundred and twenty-seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, with words of peace and truth, <sup>31</sup> to confirm these days of Purim in their appointed times, as Mordecai the Jew and Esther the queen had decreed, and as they had imposed upon themselves and their descendants, in the matter of the fastings and their cry. <sup>32</sup> The commandment of Esther confirmed these matters of Purim; and it was written in the book.

The Greatness of King Ahasuerus and Mordecai

King Ahasuerus laid a tribute on the land, and on the islands of the sea. <sup>2</sup> All the acts of his power and of his might, and the full account of the greatness of Mordecai to which the king advanced him,

10 Ezekiel had prophesied that those who survived the famine and invasion of Judah would go into captivity, “and I will draw out a sword after them” (Ez. 5:2,12). We would expect from this that the exiles would be persecuted and slain in captivity, and this surely was God’s intended judgment. But in Esther we find the exiles in prosperity, in positions of power and respected by their captors; and Jeremiah concludes aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia? <sup>3</sup> For Mordecai the Jew was next to King Ahasuerus, and great among the Jews, and accepted by the multitude of his brothers, seeking the good of his people and speaking peace to all his descendants.

his prophecy with the information that Jehoiachin, Judah's exiled King, was exalted "above the throne of the kings that were with him in Babylon" and he was given special favour and honour by the King of Babylon (Jer. 52:31-34). We can only understand these things as pure grace. God showed tenderness and favour to His people in captivity, far above what He had intended or what they deserved. And He does the same with us – He gives us so much more than we deserve. And yet most of Judah abused that grace; they were so taken up with the good life God gave them in captivity that they chose to remain there and not participate in the restoration. And we so easily can end up abusing His grace likewise. In this sense the book of Esther has a sad ending – the Jews are even more popular, even richer. Our loving Father gives us as His children what we beg Him for materially – but so often, it's not for our good spiritually. God must be so torn – between giving us what we want, what we whine for, what humanly we obviously need and would desperately like to have... and yet knowing that this is not for our spiritual good. We wonder what happened to Esther. Ahasuerus was slain soon after the events of the book of Esther – typically, the wife and supporters of the King would've been slain or persecuted. Was this not another prod from God for Esther and Mordecai to return to Judah?

JOB

The Prologue: Yahweh, Job and the Satan

There was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job. That man was blameless and upright, and one who feared God and turned away from the evil. <sup>2</sup> There were born to him seven sons and three daughters. <sup>3</sup> His possessions also were seven thousand sheep, three thousand camels, five hundred yoke of oxen, five hundred female donkeys and a very great household; so that this man was the greatest of all the children of the east. <sup>4</sup> His sons went and held a feast in the house of each one on his birthday; and they sent and called for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them. <sup>5</sup> It was so, when the days of their feasting had come to an end, that Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, and offered burnt offerings according to the number of them all. For Job said, It may be that my sons have sinned, and renounced God in their hearts. Job did so continually. <sup>6</sup> Now it hap-

1:6 The common idea that Satan in Job was a sinful cosmic being who brought evil upon Job against God's will and tried to make him sin is wrong. "Satan" is only mentioned in the first two chapters of Job and nowhere in the book is he defined as a fallen angel. The word means 'adversary' and of itself has no negative connotation; it can be used about good people (Mt. 16:21-23). "Sons of God" can refer to believers (Rom. 8:14; 2 Cor. 6:17-18; 1 Jn. 3:7). Angels do not bring false accusations against believers "before the Lord" (2 Pet. 2:11). It cannot be conclusively proved that Satan was a son of God – he "came among them". Satan is described as "going to and fro in the earth" – but there is no implication that he was doing anything sinful; Zech. 1:11 implies that this is a Hebraism for observing. How can Satan be in heaven and also on earth in Job's time when, according to popular belief, he was thrown out at the time of Adam, or in 1914, according to some? There cannot be sin or rebellion against God in heaven (Ps. 5:4-5; Hab. 1:13; Mt. 6:10; Ps. 103:19-21); Angels don't sin (Lk. 20:35,36 cp. Rom. 6:23). The major theme of the book of Job is that God brought the problems into Job's life and eventually they made him more righteous (2:10; 16:11; 19:21; 23:16; 42:11). Job did not believe that only good things came from God; he nowhere complains about Satan bringing the problems. Job realized that his sufferings had made him come to know God in practice rather than just in theory (42:5). Seeing that problems make us more righteous people if we respond correctly to them (Heb. 12:5-11), why would a sinful, wicked being, who wants to turn us away from God, bring these things into our lives, when actually they only make us more righteous and closer to God? The fact that Satan and the sons of God were in "the presence of the Lord" and presented themselves "before the Lord" (2:7; 1:6) does not necessarily mean that they were in heaven. The representatives of God carry the name of God, e.g. the angel which led Israel through the wilderness was called "the Lord" because it carried God's name (Ex. 23:20-21), but it was not God Himself in person (Ex. 33:12,20). Similarly, priests represent God (2 Chron. 19:6) and to come before them was to come "before the Lord" (Dt. 19:17). Cain "went out from the presence of pened on the day when the sons of | fore Yahweh, that Satan also came

 God came to present themselves be- | among them. <sup>7</sup> Yahweh said to Satan,

the Lord” (Gen. 4:16) – not out of heaven but probably away from the presence of the angel – cherubim. Jesus was presented as a baby “before the Lord” (Lk. 2:22) – i.e. before the priest. Satan had to get power from God (2:3-6); he had none in his own right, indeed, God brought Job to Satan’s notice (1:8). Job often comments about God being the source of his sufferings (9:24). Job didn’t believe anyone apart from God was responsible. There is no indication that anything Satan did was sinful. Satan never actually says or does anything wrong; he simply makes the observation that there may well be a relationship between Job’s service of God and the material blessing which God has given him. He is then empowered by God to bring calamities into Job’s life. Time and again it is stressed that God brought the problems upon Job, not satan independently (1:12,16; 2:3,10; 6:4; 8:4; 19:21; 42:18). Even if the “satan” (adversary) to Job was an angel, there is no reason to think it was sinful. An angel asked Abraham to offer Isaac to find out exactly how obedient Abraham would be (Gen. 22:12; see too Dt. 8:2). A righteous angel was called a “satan” in Num. 22:22. If we follow through the argument of the book, the orthodox view requires that the logical answer of Job to the friends’ allegations would have been “I’m suffering because Satan has it in for me! He’s doing this, not God!”. For the friends were reasoning that God was bringing such affliction into Job’s life because Job was a sinner. The fact Job doesn’t make this obvious retort indicates that “the Satan” wasn’t understood by either Job nor the friends as a personal supernatural being of evil. The “sons of God” – the believers at that time – presented themselves before a priest or angel, perhaps at a religious feast. Someone there, maybe one of the worshippers, reflected that it was not surprising that Job was such a strong believer, seeing that God had so richly blessed him. God gave that person the power to afflict Job, to demonstrate that Job’s love of God was not proportionate to the blessings God had given him. Maybe the Satan was composed of Job’s three “friends” – they are rebuked at the end of the book (notice that “satan” is not rebuked there by name). Their discussions with Job indicate that they had their doubts as to his integrity and suspected that his faith was now weak because God had taken away the blessings from him (4:5,7). The prologue to Job is a literary device to place theological problems before us, e.g. of the relationship between service of God and receipt of blessing, and sin and suffering. The friends insist that “the destroyer” [by which they surely meant an early equivalent to ‘the devil’ of popular belief today] had touched Job – whereas Job insists that it is God who had destroyed him (15:21 cp. 19:10; 13:21). In some ways the book of Job is a deconstruction of the popular Persian and Canaanite myths about a ‘satan’ figure. Job, both in the story of his sufferings and his specific words, seeks to demonstrate that the essential issue in life is being “just with God”, and not whether or not we are touched by the hand of an evil being; for the hand of God which touched Job (19:21) is the hand of ‘satan’ into which God delivered Job temporarily (1:12). Job says that the attitude of the friends is wrong – they should be looking into themselves, rather than fantasizing about the action of some unseen evil being they imagined (19:28,29). The book of Job is a dialogue concerning evil and suffering, with three popular views being represented by the three friends. These views are examined and corrected by the personal history of Job, as

Where have you come from? Then Satan answered Yahweh and said, From going back and forth in the earth, and from walking up and down in it. <sup>8</sup> Yahweh said to Satan, Have you considered my servant, Job? For there is none like him in the land, a blameless and an upright man, one who fears God, and turns away from evil. <sup>9</sup> Then Satan answered Yahweh and said, Does Job fear God for nothing? <sup>10</sup> Haven't You made a hedge around him and around his family, and around all that he has on every side? You have blessed the work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land. <sup>11</sup> But put forth Your hand now and touch all that he has, and he will renounce You to Your face. <sup>12</sup> Yahweh said to Satan, Behold, all that he has is in your power. Only on himself don't put forth your hand. So Satan went forth from the presence of Yahweh.

Tragedy Strikes Job

<sup>13</sup> It fell on a day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house, <sup>14</sup> that there came a messenger to Job and said, The oxen were ploughing and the donkeys feeding beside them, <sup>15</sup> and the Sabeans attacked and took them away. Yes, they have killed the servants with the edge of the sword, and I alone have escaped to tell you. <sup>16</sup> While he was still speaking, there also came another and said, The fire of God has fallen from the sky and has burned up the sheep and the servants, and consumed them, and I alone have escaped to tell you. <sup>17</sup> While he was still speaking, there came also another and said, The Chaldeans made three bands, and swept down on the camels, and have taken them away, yes, and killed the servants with the edge of the sword; and I alone have escaped to tell you. <sup>18</sup> While he was still speaking, there came also another and said, Your sons and your daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house, <sup>19</sup> and behold, there came a great wind from the wilderness, and struck the four corners of the house, and it fell on the young men, and they are dead. I alone have escaped to tell you. <sup>20</sup> Then Job arose, and tore his robe, and shaved his head, and fell down on the ground and worshiped.

well as by the epilogue and prologue to the book. Eliphaz seems to be representative of the idea that Job is being hit by supernaturally controlled evil – Eliphaz speaks of a force of darkness (22:10,11) and sinful or faulty Angels living in an unclean Heaven (4:18; 15:15). Yet the answer to all this is that the Satan figure is under God's control, all Job's misfortunes come from God, and His Angels – one of whom may have been called 'the adversary' ('Satan') – are in fact perfectly obedient to Him and not disobedient. And finally, Eliphaz and the friends are rebuked for their various wrong understandings, with God declaring Himself supreme and ultimate sovereign. Bildad's view of Angels in 25:5 "The stars are not pure in God's eyes" is corrected by God in Job 38:7, when He says that "the morning stars sang together and all the Sons of God shouted for joy".

<sup>21</sup> He said, Naked I came out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return there. Yahweh gave, and Yahweh has taken away. Blessed be the name of Yahweh. <sup>22</sup> In all this, Job did not sin, nor charge God with wrongdoing.

Job's Health is Taken Away

Again it happened on the day when the sons of God came to present themselves before Yahweh, that Satan came also among them to present himself before Yahweh. <sup>2</sup> Yahweh said to Satan, Where have you come from? Satan answered Yahweh and said, From going back and forth in the land, and from walking up and down in it. <sup>3</sup> Yahweh said to Satan, Have you considered My servant Job? For there is none like him in the land, a blameless and an upright man, one who fears God and turns away from evil. He still maintains his integrity, although you incited Me against him, to ruin him without cause. <sup>4</sup> Satan answered

Yahweh and said, Skin for skin. Yes, all that a man has he will give for his life. <sup>5</sup> But put forth Your hand now and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will renounce You to Your face. <sup>6</sup> Yahweh said to Satan, Behold, he is in your hand. Only spare his life. <sup>7</sup> So Satan went forth from the presence of Yahweh, and struck Job with painful sores from the sole of his foot to his head. <sup>8</sup> He took for himself a potsherd to scrape himself with, and he sat among the ashes. <sup>9</sup> Then his wife said to him, Do you still maintain your integrity? Renounce God, and die. <sup>10</sup> But he said to her, You speak as one of the foolish women would speak. What? Shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil? In all this Job didn't sin with his lips.

The Three Friends Arrive

<sup>11</sup> Now when Job's three friends heard of all this evil that had come on him, they each came from his own place: Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the

2:3 To ruin him without cause – We learn here that God can bring suffering into the lives of His children for reasons other than because they have sinned. There is no direct relationship between sin and suffering in this life; for the wicked often prosper. The day of judgment and reward for how life has been lived is ultimately at the final day of judgment when Christ returns. As Job struggles with the question of 'Why suffering?', he is progressively driven to a clearer understanding of the future day of judgment and resurrection of the dead to get the reward which God's justice requires. Thus he was driven by experience and reflection on life to the doctrinal truths which are made explicit in the New Testament. Job begins the book presented as a complete spiritual person and he ends the book presented the same way. The reason for suffering isn't always so that we personally may develop through it; in Job's case, it was so that others would learn principles, not least the friends and the 'satan' character, and us the readers of subsequent generations. Some experiences and sufferings we have are perhaps more for the benefit of others who are observing, rather than for our own development.

Naamathite, and they made an appointment together to come to sympathize with him and to comfort him.

<sup>12</sup> When they lifted up their eyes from a distance and didn't recognize him, they raised their voices and wept; and they each tore his robe, and sprinkled dust on their heads toward the sky. <sup>13</sup> So they sat down with him on the ground seven days and seven nights, and none spoke a word to him, for they saw that his grief was very great.

Job Wishes to Die

After this Job opened his mouth, and cursed the day of his birth.

<sup>2</sup> Job responded: <sup>3</sup> Let the day perish in which I was born, the night in which it was said, 'There is a boy conceived'. <sup>4</sup> Let that day be darkness. Don't let God from above seek for it, neither let the light shine on it. <sup>5</sup> Let darkness and the shadow of death claim it for their own. Let a cloud dwell on it. Let all that makes black the day terrify it. <sup>6</sup> As for that night, let thick darkness seize on it. Let it not rejoice among the days of the year. Let it not counted in the number of the months. <sup>7</sup> Behold, let that night be barren. Let no joyful voice come therein. <sup>8</sup> Let them curse it who curse the day, who are ready to rouse up Leviathan. <sup>9</sup> Let the stars of its twilight be dark. Let it look for light, but have none, neither let it see the eyelids of the morning, <sup>10</sup> because it didn't shut up the doors of my mother's womb, nor did it hide trouble from my eyes. <sup>11</sup> Why didn't I die from the womb? Why didn't I give up the spirit when my mother bore me? <sup>12</sup> Why did the knees receive me? Or why the breast, that I should nurse? <sup>13</sup> For now should I have lain down and been quiet. I should have slept, then I would have been at rest, <sup>14</sup> with kings and counsellors of the earth, who built up waste places for themselves;

3:3 Job's depressive lament and desire to die in this chapter is quoted and alluded to by Jeremiah when he too was in severe depression and struggling with suicidal tendencies (Jer. 15:10; 20:14). Depression happens to God's people; one simple lesson from all this is that depression itself isn't a sin. It's how we respond to it which can become a moral issue. Jeremiah's way of coping was to associate himself with the words of a depressed faithful believer like Job. Our familiarity with Bible characters will pay great dividends in our hard times, as we see that history – spiritual history, God's patterns of working with men – is repeating; and the sense of existential loneliness, utter aloneness, which is part of the nexus of depression will to some extent be alleviated. Note too that Job's suicidal tendencies here and bitterness that God wouldn't take away his life are not criticized by God; He comments at the end that Job spoke what was right (42:7,8). Yet Job says many hard things about God as the story proceeds; but by grace, God imputed righteousness to him; or made allowance for the pressures upon Job. This isn't to justify any kind of situational ethic – 'I did it because the situation forced me to and I had no choice'. Rather does it simply show God's compassionate, gracious appreciation of situational pressure; and we should bear the same in mind in our consideration of others' words and behaviour under pressure.

<sup>15</sup> or with princes who had gold, who filled their houses with silver: <sup>16</sup> or as a hidden untimely birth I had not been, as infants who never saw light. <sup>17</sup> There the wicked cease from troubling. There the weary are at rest. <sup>18</sup> There the prisoners are at ease together. They don't hear the voice of the taskmaster. <sup>19</sup> The small and the great are there. The servant is free from his master. <sup>20</sup> Why is light given to him who is in misery, life to the bitter in soul, <sup>21</sup> who long for death, but it doesn't come; and dig for it more than for hidden treasures, <sup>22</sup> who rejoice exceedingly, and are glad, when they can find the grave? <sup>23</sup> Why is light given to a man whose way is hidden, whom God has hedged in? <sup>24</sup> For my sighing comes before I eat. My groanings are poured out like water. <sup>25</sup> For the thing which

I fear comes upon me, that of which I was afraid has happened to me. <sup>26</sup> I was not at ease, neither was I quiet, neither had I rest; but trouble came.

Eliphaz's First Speech

Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered, <sup>2</sup> If someone ventures to talk with you, will you be grieved? But who can withhold himself from speaking? <sup>3</sup> Behold, you have instructed many, you have strengthened the weak hands. <sup>4</sup> Your words have supported him who was falling, you have strengthened the feeble knees. <sup>5</sup> But now it has come to you, and you faint. It touches you, and you are troubled. <sup>6</sup> Isn't your piety your confidence? Isn't the integrity of your ways your hope? <sup>7</sup> Remember now, whoever perished, being

3:23 There are many connections between Isaiah and the book of Job; those in Is. 40 are especially marked. Is. 40:14 = Job 21:22; 40:17 = 6:18; 40:22 = 9:8; 40:23 = 12:21; 40:24 = 14:8; 40:26 = 25:3; 40:31 = 29:20. The link between Is.40:27 and Job 3:23 is most significant: "Why do you say, O Jacob, and speak, O Israel, My way is hid from the Lord, and my judgement is passed over from my God?". These are the words of Job here. Thus Job is the prototype of the suffering servant and represents Israel. Israel in captivity in Babylon (which is the context of Isaiah 40) are being bid look to Job, whose family and home were also destroyed by the Chaldeans (1:17) because of their sin. As Job sat in grief and perplexity, so did Judah by the rivers of Babylon. The message of the book of Job to the faithful remnant in captivity was therefore that God had ultimately brought this calamity, and finally He would restore the fortunes of His people. We too in our exiles can see in Job the essence of our own pain, and thereby the sure, ultimate hope of restoration. See on 4:7; 5:14; 21:7; 30:26; 33:27.

3:26 Job complains that although he didn't have a peaceful life anyway, now yet more trouble had come upon him. And yet the impression given by 1:14 is that the animals were quietly grazing and Job was at peace. The simple lesson is that those who appear to others to have a calm, quiet life often have issues going on which are very

4:7 Whoever perished, being innocent – The friends were reasoning from the position that suffering only comes as a punishment for sin; and therefore, they concluded, Job must have been a huge secret sinner. Therefore they laid false guilt upon him, and urged him to repent for things he hadn't done. We too live in a world which often innocent? Or where were the upright cut off? <sup>8</sup> According to what I have seen, those who plough iniquity and sow trouble, reap the same. <sup>9</sup> By the breath of God they perish. By the blast of His anger are they consumed. <sup>10</sup> The roaring of the lion and the voice of the fierce lion, the teeth of the young lions, are broken. <sup>11</sup> The old lion perishes for lack of prey. The cubs of the lioness are scattered abroad. <sup>12</sup> Now a thing was secretly brought to me; my ear received a whisper of it. <sup>13</sup> In thoughts from the visions of the night, when deep sleep falls on men, <sup>14</sup> fear came on me, and trembling, which made all my bones shake. <sup>15</sup> Then a spirit passed before my face. The hair of my flesh stood up. <sup>16</sup> It stood still, but I couldn't discern its appearance. A form was before my eyes. Silence; then I heard a voice saying, <sup>17</sup> 'Shall mortal man be more just than God?

Shall a man be more pure than his Maker? <sup>18</sup> Behold, He puts no trust in His servants. He charges His angels with folly. <sup>19</sup> How much more those who dwell in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, who are crushed before the moth! <sup>20</sup> Between morning and evening they are destroyed. They perish forever without any regarding it. <sup>21</sup> Isn't their tent cord plucked up within them? They die, and that without wisdom'.

Eliphaz Continues his Speech

Call now; is there any who will answer you? To which of the holy ones will you appeal? <sup>2</sup> For resentment kills the foolish man, and jealousy kills the simple. <sup>3</sup> I have seen the foolish taking root, but suddenly I cursed his habitation. <sup>4</sup> His children are far from safety. They are crushed in the gate. Neither is there loads us with false guilt. We must take guilt for our actual sins, and allow the reality of our personal relationship with God to free us from the false guilt others wish to place upon us. The righteous remnant in exile had struggled with the question of how the righteous had perished in the Babylonian invasion (Is. 57:1), and the book of Job was an answer to their struggle over this (see on 3:23).

4:8 According to what I have seen – Eliphaz appeals to personal experience and secular history and wisdom – hence he asks Job to “remember”, to think back and realize, that only the wicked perish (:7). One theme of the book of Job is that God's ways, as revealed in His word and in His history, contradict human wisdom and traditional conclusions.

4:18 He charges His angels with folly – These are Eliphaz's words, and God at the end says that he didn't speak what was right about God (42:7,8). There cannot be sin or rebellion against God in heaven (Ps. 5:4-5; Hab. 1:13; Mt. 6:10; Ps. 103:19-21); Angels don't sin (Lk. 20:35,36 cp. Rom. 6:23). The book of Job actually deconstructs such notions, revealing God as the ultimate source of suffering.

5:4 His children are far from safety – The friends often allude to Job's situation in describing the fate of the wicked. They assumed that because Job's children had been killed, therefore he was wicked. This kind of indirect hitting on a person is very hurtful; when we experience it, we can think of Job.

any to deliver them, <sup>5</sup> whose harvest the hungry eats up, and take it even out of the thorns. They snare gapes for their substance. <sup>6</sup> For affliction doesn't come forth from the dust, neither does trouble spring out of the ground; <sup>7</sup> but man is born to trouble, as the arrows of the sons of Resheph fly upward. <sup>8</sup> But as for me, I would seek God. I would commit my cause to God, <sup>9</sup> who does great things that can't be fathomed, marvellous things without number; <sup>10</sup> who gives rain on the earth, and sends waters on the fields; <sup>11</sup> so that He sets up on high those who are low; those who mourn are exalted to safety. <sup>12</sup> He frustrates the devices of the crafty, so that their hands can't perform their enterprise. <sup>13</sup> He takes the wise in their own craftiness; the counsel of the cunning is carried away headlong. <sup>14</sup> They meet with darkness in the day time, and grope at noonday

5:7 The sons of Resheph – Significantly, it is the friends who make allusion to the 'Satan' figures and gods as if they are real, whereas Job in his responses always denies their reality and sees God as the direct source of His sufferings. Eliphaz here blames Job's troubles upon the "sons of Resheph"; Bildad speaks of how Job's troubles are to be associated with "the king of terrors" (18:14); but Job's response is that the source of the evil in his life is ultimately from God and not any such being. Resheph was known as "the lord of the arrow" and the Ugaritic tablets associate him with archery. Job's response is that "The arrows of the Almighty are in me" (6:4), and he laments that God is an archer using him as His target for practice (7:20; 16:12,13). Job refuses to accept Eliphaz's explanation that Job is a victim of Resheph's arrows. For Job, if God is "the Almighty" then there is no space left for Resheph. Each blow he received, each arrow strike, was from God and not Resheph.

5:12, 13 The New Testament references to Job suggest that he was seen as a symbol of the Jewish system of reliance on human status, self righteousness and works, which all has to be humbled and no longer trusted if we accept God's grace. Thus Paul quotes these verses in 1 Cor. 1:19: "For it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent". Eliphaz is explaining why he thinks Job and his view of life have been brought to nothing. Thus Paul read Job as a type of those who were influenced by the pseudo-wisdom of the Judaizers. Paul continues: "Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world?" (1 Cor. 1:20). Job's constant desire to dispute with God and the friends, and the claims both he and they made to possessing wisdom, show Job was clearly in Paul's mind. "Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world?" he concludes, maybe thinking of the humbled Job. Job was the greatest of the men of the east (1:3), people who were renowned in the ancient world for their wisdom (Mt.2:1; 1 Kings 4:30). Thus Job would have been full of worldly wisdom, and this is maybe behind Paul's words of 1 Cor.3:18,19: "If any man among you seems to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise. For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written [quoting Job 5:13, which is Eliphaz speaking about Job], He takes the wise in their own craftiness".

5:14 Darkness at noon was understood as Divine judgment; hence when this happened at Christ's death, we are invited to understand His death as being the judgment of this as in the night. <sup>15</sup> But He saves from the sword of their mouth, even the needy from the hand of the mighty. <sup>16</sup> So the poor has hope, and injustice shuts her mouth. <sup>17</sup> Behold, happy is the man whom God corrects! Therefore do not despise the chastening of the Almighty. <sup>18</sup> For He wounds, and binds up. He injures, and His hands make whole. <sup>19</sup> He will deliver you in six troubles; yes, in seven no evil shall touch you. <sup>20</sup> In famine He will redeem you from death; in war, from the power of the sword. <sup>21</sup> You shall be hidden from the scourge of the tongue, neither shall you be afraid of destruction when it comes. <sup>22</sup> At destruction and famine you shall laugh, neither shall you be afraid of the animals of the earth. <sup>23</sup> For you shall be allied with the stones of the field. The animals of the field shall be at peace with you. <sup>24</sup> You shall know that your tent is in peace. You shall visit your fold, and shall miss nothing. <sup>25</sup> You shall know also that your seed shall be great, your offspring as the grass of the earth. <sup>26</sup> You shall come to your grave in a full age, like a sheaf of grain comes in its season. <sup>27</sup> Look this, we have examined it, so it is. Hear it, and know it for your good.

Job's Response to Eliphaz

Then Job answered, <sup>2</sup> Oh that my anguish were weighed, and all my calamity laid in the balances! <sup>3</sup> For now it would be heavier than the sand of the seas; therefore have my words been rash. <sup>4</sup> For the arrows of the Almighty are within me. My spirit drinks up their poison. The terrors of God set themselves in array against me. <sup>5</sup> Does the wild donkey bray when he has grass? Or does the ox low over his fodder? <sup>6</sup> Can that which has no flavour be eaten without salt? Or is there any taste in the white of an egg? <sup>7</sup> My soul refuses to touch them. They are as loathsome world (Jn. 12:31). To come before Christ on the cross is to come before our judgment; hence the connection between self-examination at the breaking of bread and at the last day. There are also links between Job and Deuteronomy 28, as if Job was the personification of Israel suffering for their sins (see on 3:23). Yet he was personally spotless to God (1:1,2). Thus he was a type of Christ, who although personally sinless was totally identified with sinful humanity. Suffering darkness at noon and groping in the daytime as in the night = Dt. 28:29; Job's fits of blindness (22:10,11) = Dt. 29:29; boils from head to foot (2:7) = Dt. 28:35; made an astonishment (= Dt. 28:37) and a byword (17:6; 30:9) = Dt. 28:37; wishing for night in the morning and for the morning at night (7:4) = Dt. 28:67; Job's of children and cattle = Dt. 28:41,51.

6:3 Therefore have my words been rash – Job excuses himself by saying that his rash words were an inevitable result of the situational pressure upon him; he likens himself to a donkey who inevitably neighs when there is no grass (:5). Yet seeing the situations came from God, this was effectively blaming God for his failure. We must recognize that sin isn't inevitable. We can only blame ourselves, not the situations which we have caved in to.

food to me. <sup>8</sup> Oh that I might have my request, that God would grant the thing that I long for, <sup>9</sup> even that it would please God to crush me; that He would let loose His hand, and cut me off! <sup>10</sup> Be it still my consolation, yes, let me exult throughout my unending pain, that I have not denied the words of the Holy One. <sup>11</sup> What is my strength, that I should wait further? What is my end, that I should be patient? <sup>12</sup> Is my strength the strength of stones? Or is my flesh of brass? <sup>13</sup> Isn't it that I have no help in me, that wisdom is driven quite from me? <sup>14</sup> To him who is ready to faint, kindness should be shown from his friend; even to him who forsakes the fear of the Almighty. <sup>15</sup> My brothers have dealt deceitfully as a brook, as the channel of brooks that pass away; <sup>16</sup> which are black by reason of the ice, in which the snow hides itself. <sup>17</sup> In the dry season, they vanish. When it is hot, they are consumed out of their place. <sup>18</sup> The caravans that travel beside them turn aside. They go up into the waste, and perish. <sup>19</sup> The caravans of Tema looked. The companies of Sheba waited for them. <sup>20</sup> They were distressed because they were confident. They came there, and were confounded. <sup>21</sup> For now you are nothing. You see a terror, and are afraid. <sup>22</sup> Did I say, 'Give to me?' or, 'Offer a present for me from your substance?' <sup>23</sup> or, 'Deliver me from the adversary's hand?' or, 'Redeem me from the hand of the oppressors?'. <sup>24</sup> Teach me, and I will hold my peace. Cause me to understand wherein I have erred. <sup>25</sup> How forcible are words of uprightness! But your reproof, what does it reprove? <sup>26</sup> Do you intend to reprove words, since the speeches of one who is desperate are as wind? <sup>27</sup> Yes, you would even cast lots for the fatherless, and make merchandise of your friend. <sup>28</sup> Now therefore be pleased to look at me, for surely I shall not lie to your face. <sup>29</sup> Please rethink. Let there be no injustice. Yes, think again. My cause is righteous. <sup>30</sup> Is there injustice on my tongue? Can't my taste discern mischievous things?

Job Continues His Response to Eliphaz

Isn't a man forced to labour on Earth? Aren't his days like the days of a hired hand? <sup>2</sup> As a servant who earnestly desires the shadow, as a hireling who looks for his wages, <sup>3</sup> so am I made to possess months of misery, wearisome nights are appointed to me. <sup>4</sup> When I lie down, I say, 'When shall I arise, and the night be gone?' I toss and turn until the dawning of the day. <sup>5</sup> My flesh is clothed with worms and clods of dust. My skin closes up, and breaks out afresh. <sup>6</sup> My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and are spent without hope. <sup>7</sup> Oh remember that

6:25, 26 Job seems to be saying that there is nothing tangible for him to be reproved over apart from some rash words (:3). Thus he minimizes poor speaking; whereas Christ taught that by our words we are justified or condemned, so important are they (Mt. 12:37).

my life is a breath. My eye shall no more see good. <sup>8</sup> The eye of him who sees me shall see me no more. Your eyes shall be on me, but I shall not be. <sup>9</sup> As the cloud is consumed and vanishes away, so he who goes down to Sheol shall come up no more. <sup>10</sup> He shall return no more to his house, neither shall his place know him any more. <sup>11</sup> Therefore I will not keep silent. I will speak in the anguish of my spirit, I will complain in the bitterness of my soul. <sup>12</sup> Am I a sea, or a sea monster, that You put a guard over me? <sup>13</sup> When I say, ‘My bed shall comfort me. My couch shall ease my complaint’; <sup>14</sup> then You scare me with dreams, and terrify me through visions: <sup>15</sup> so that my soul chooses strangling, death rather than to see my bones. <sup>16</sup> I loathe my life. I don’t want to live forever. Leave me alone, for my days are but a breath. <sup>17</sup> What is man, that You should magnify him, that You should set Your mind on him, <sup>18</sup> that You should visit him every morning, and test him every moment? <sup>19</sup> How long will You not look away from me, nor leave me alone until I swallow down my spittle? <sup>20</sup> If I have sinned, what do I do to You, You watcher of men? Why have You set me as an archer’s target for You, so that I am a burden to myself? <sup>21</sup> Why do You not pardon my disobedience, and take away my iniquity? For now shall I lie down in the dust. You will seek me diligently, but I shall not be.

Bildad’s First Speech

Then Bildad the Shuhite answered, <sup>2</sup> How long will you speak these things? Shall the words of your mouth be a mighty wind? <sup>3</sup> Does God pervert justice? Or does the Almighty pervert righteousness? <sup>4</sup> If your children have sinned against him, He has delivered them into the

7:17 That You should set Your mind on him – The Hebrew for ‘to set the mind on’ is also translated “consider” in 2:3, where God asks the ‘satan’ whether he has “considered My servant Job..?”. Thus Job sees God as considering him, whilst we are told earlier that satan / the adversary was told to do this. Thus whoever the ‘satan’ or adversary figure was, Job saw this being as ultimately representing God.

7:20, 21 Job makes several wrong statements here. In his depression, he wonders why God should be so worried about sin, seeing He is so great. But this is exactly the point – God despite His greatness is so highly sensitive to human behaviour. Job takes comfort in his idea that death will as it were hide him from God (:21), and as he doesn’t want to live for ever (:16), therefore, Job thinks, he will not. But he totally underestimated God’s grace, His desire for us, and to live eternally with us. These things were said by Job in depression and in the grip of suicidal desires (:15); yet at the end, God doesn’t rebuke Job but rather justifies him (42:7). This shows the extent to which God does accept depression as a state which leads to a person saying things which aren’t reflective of the real person, the one whom God sees, loves and judges. It also reflects the extent of the righteousness which God imputes to those He loves.

hand of their disobedience. <sup>5</sup> If you want to seek God diligently, make your supplication to the Almighty. <sup>6</sup> If you were pure and upright, surely now He would awaken for you, and make the habitation of your righteousness prosperous. <sup>7</sup> Though your beginning was small, yet your latter end would greatly increase. <sup>8</sup> Please inquire of past generations. Find out about the learning of their fathers. <sup>9</sup> For we are but of yesterday, and know nothing, because our days on earth are a shadow. <sup>10</sup> Shall they not teach you, tell you, and utter words out of their heart? <sup>11</sup> Can the papyrus grow up without mire? Can the rushes grow without water? <sup>12</sup> While it is yet in its greenness, not cut down, it withers before any other reed. <sup>13</sup> So are the paths of all who forget God. The hope of the godless man shall perish, <sup>14</sup> whose confidence shall break apart, whose trust is in a spider's web. <sup>15</sup> He shall lean on his house, but it shall not stand. He shall cling to it, but it shall not endure. <sup>16</sup> He is green before the sun. His shoots go forth over his garden. <sup>17</sup> His roots are wrapped around the rock pile. He sees the place of stones. <sup>18</sup> If he is destroyed from his place, then it shall deny him, saying, 'I have not seen you'. <sup>19</sup> Behold, this is the joy of his way: out of the earth, others shall spring. <sup>20</sup> Behold, God will not cast away a blameless man, neither will He uphold the evil-doers. <sup>21</sup> He will still fill your mouth with laughter, your lips with shouting. <sup>22</sup> Those who hate you shall be clothed with shame. The tent of the wicked shall be no more.

Job's Response to Bildad

Then Job answered, <sup>2</sup> Truly I know that it is so, but how can man be just with God? <sup>3</sup> If He wishes to contend with him, he can't answer Him one time in a thousand. <sup>4</sup> God who is wise in heart, and mighty in strength: who has hardened himself against Him, and prospered? <sup>5</sup> He removes the mountains, and they don't know it, when He overturns them in His anger. <sup>6</sup> He shakes the earth out of its place. Its pillars tremble. <sup>7</sup> He commands the sun, and it doesn't rise, and seals up the stars. <sup>8</sup> He alone stretches out the heavens, and treads on the back of Yam. <sup>9</sup> He makes the Bear, Orion, and the Pleiades, and the rooms of the south.

8:6 If you were pure and upright – The words of the friends suggest that their view was in fact that of the satan in the prologue; a case can be made that they are in fact the 'satan' / adversary figure. Satan quibbled with God's pronouncement of Job as perfect and upright (1:8). And here Bildad likewise seems to allude to this when he comments that if Job were indeed pure and upright, then God would help him.

8:8-10 Bildad emphasizes the view of traditional wisdom; and one theme of Job is that traditionally accepted ideas about God are shown by His word and by actual experience to be wrong. Bildad insists that Job must have sinned because traditional wisdom taught that calamity is always the result of sin. We see here how wrong understandings lead to damaged personal relationships and tragic misjudgements in practice.

<sup>10</sup> He does great things past finding out; yes, marvellous things without number. <sup>11</sup> Behold, He goes by me, and I don't see Him. He passes on also, but I don't perceive Him. <sup>12</sup> Behold, He snatches away. Who can hinder Him? Who will ask Him, 'What are you doing?'. <sup>13</sup> God will not withdraw His anger. The cohorts of Rahab stoop under Him. <sup>14</sup> How much less shall I answer Him, and choose my words to argue with Him? <sup>15</sup> Though I were righteous, yet I wouldn't answer Him. I would make supplication to my judge. <sup>16</sup> If I had called, and He had answered me, yet I wouldn't believe that He listened to my voice. <sup>17</sup> For He bruises me with a storm, and multiplies my wounds without cause. <sup>18</sup> He will not allow me to catch my breath, but fills me with bitterness. <sup>19</sup> If it is a matter of strength, behold, He is mighty! If of justice, 'Who', says He, 'will summon me?'. <sup>20</sup> Though I am righteous, my own mouth shall condemn me. Though I am blameless, it shall prove me perverse. <sup>21</sup> I am blameless. I don't respect myself. I despise my life. <sup>22</sup> It is all the same. Therefore I say that He destroys the blameless and the wicked. <sup>23</sup> If the scourge kills suddenly, He will mock at the trial of the innocent. <sup>24</sup> The earth is given into the hand of the wicked. He covers the faces of its judges. If it be not He, then who is it? <sup>25</sup> Now my days are swifter than a runner. They flee away, they see no good, <sup>26</sup> they have passed away as the swift ships, as the eagle that swoops on the prey. <sup>27</sup> If I say, 'I will forget my complaint, I will put off my sad face, and cheer up'; <sup>28</sup> I am afraid of all my sorrows,

9:16 I wouldn't believe that He listened to my voice – In times of depression, even clearly answered prayer fails to spiritually register with us. And the ending of the book of Job shows that God in His grace understands that.

9:21 See on 21:7.

9:24 The G.N.B. puts it: "If God didn't do it, who did?". This is a key verse in understanding the book of Job. After all the theories of 'Who's responsible for all this evil in Job's life?', Job concludes that the source simply has to be God – and not anyone else. If He truly is all powerful, then who else could ultimately be responsible? Job states that "the cohorts of Rahab [a Canaanite 'Satan' figure] shall stoop under [God]" (:13), clearly alluding to the helpers of Tiamat in the Babylonian myth. "God alone stretches out the heavens, and treads on the back of Yam" – the sea, or sea-monster (:8). Job believed that it was God who was seeking to swallow him up in death (10:8) – surely alluding to how Mot, the god of death, was thought to have jaws encompassing the earth and swallowing up people at their death into the underworld. But Job rejected that myth – he saw God as the swallower, and death as a return to the dust, albeit in hope of bodily resurrection at the last day (19:25-27).

9:28 I know that You – Note the change of pronoun. As Job talks about God as "He" in replying to Bildad, he moves on to address himself directly to God (see too 16:5-7). Dialogue with others about our faith and turmoils often leads to our direct approach to Him in a way which would never have happened if we'd not bothered to have that dialogue but stored all these things up internally.

I know that You will not hold me innocent. <sup>29</sup> I shall be condemned. Why then do I labour in vain? <sup>30</sup> If I wash myself with snow, and cleanse my hands with lye, <sup>31</sup> yet You will plunge me in the ditch. My own clothes shall abhor me. <sup>32</sup> For He is not a man, as I am, that I should answer Him, that we should come together in judgment. <sup>33</sup> There is no umpire between us, that might lay his hand on us both. <sup>34</sup> Let Him take his rod away from me. Let His terror not make me afraid, <sup>35</sup> then I would speak, and not fear Him; but I am not in such a position within myself.

9:32 Come together in judgment – The prologue opens with the court of Heaven. The ‘Satan’ figure is not in itself evil, but could refer to an Angel [a ‘good’ one, as there are no ‘sinful’ Angels], or an Angel representative of a fellow worshipper on earth. The debates in Heaven between the Angels are reflected and carried out on earth – rather like how in Daniel 1-6 we have events on earth described in historical terms, and then we are given an insight into what’s been going on in Heaven in Daniel 7-12. Yet the court / legal language continues throughout the book – e.g. Job is “perfect”, i.e. legally blameless. Job appeals for ‘witnesses’ (:33-35; 16:18-22; 19:20-27), an advocate in Heaven (:33), denies his guilt and demands a legal list of his sins (13:19), wishes for God to come to trial (:3), and thus Job is described as a man who has taken out a ‘case’ with God (23:4; 40:2). Job 29-31 is effectively Job’s declaration of legal innocence and an appeal to God to hear his case more sympathetically (31:35). God pronounces a final legal verdict at the end (42:7). It’s as if the whole experience of Job was [at least partly] in order to test out the Canaanite theories of ‘Satan’, suffering and evil in the court of Heaven. The friends represent the traditional views of evil, and often make reference to the myths of their day about ‘Satan’ figures. They speak as if they are the final court – Eliphaz speaks of how the judges and elders of their day, the “holy ones”, had concluded Job was guilty, and that they, the friends, were right: “To which of the holy ones will you appeal [legal language]?... we have [legally] examined this, and it [Job’s guilt] is true” (5:1,27). This is of great comfort to those who feel misjudged by man – above them in Heaven the ultimate Heavenly court is considering our case, and that is all that matters. Job perhaps perceived this, even though the vision of the court of Heaven in chapters 1 and 2 was presumably unknown to him as he endured his sufferings; for in response to the friends’ wrong judgment of him, he comments that “God covers the faces of the judges of the earth” (9:24). The final summing up speeches from both God and Job simply emphasize the omnipotence of God; how ultimately He has been the adversary to Job, and there is no room in the cosmos of His creation for any other power, especially any of the various personal ‘Satan’ figures believed in by the worlds of both Canaan and Babylon. The heavenly court of “sons of God” is paralleled with all the stars in 38:7. Bear in mind that the stars were understood as pagan deities. The whole pagan understanding of the cosmos is being deconstructed. The stars are paralleled with the Angelic sons of God who are all totally under God’s control; they are His Heavenly court.

9:33 There is no umpire between us – Job’s sufferings and mental torments led him to perceive the need for a mediator; he was led through it all to understand his need for Christ. And our experiences are designed the same way. See on 10:4.

CHAPTER 10 Dec. 8Job Continues His Response to Bildad

My soul is weary of my life. I will give free course to my complaint. I will speak in the bitterness of my soul. <sup>2</sup> I will tell God, ‘Do not condemn me. Show me why You contend with me. <sup>3</sup> Is it good to You that You should oppress, that You should despise the work of Your hands, and smile on the counsel of the wicked? <sup>4</sup> Do You have eyes of flesh? Or do You see as man sees? <sup>5</sup> Are Your days as the days of mortals, or Your years as man’s years, <sup>6</sup> that You inquire after my iniquity, and search after my sin? <sup>7</sup> Although You know that I am not wicked, there is no one who can deliver out of Your hand. <sup>8</sup> Your hands have framed me and fashioned me altogether, yet You swallow me up. <sup>9</sup> Remember, I beg You, that You have fashioned me as clay. Will You bring me into dust again? <sup>10</sup> Haven’t You poured me out like milk, and curdled me like cheese? <sup>11</sup> You have clothed me with skin and flesh, and knit me together with bones and sinews. <sup>12</sup> You have granted me life and grace. Your visitation has preserved my spirit. <sup>13</sup> Yet You hid these things in Your heart. I know that this is with You: <sup>14</sup> If I sin, then You mark me. You will not acquit me from my iniquity. <sup>15</sup> If I am wicked, woe to me. If I am righteous, I still shall not lift up my head, being filled with disgrace, and conscious of my affliction. <sup>16</sup> If my head is held high, You hunt me like a lion. Again You show Yourself wonderful to me.

10:4 See on 9:33. Job through his sufferings came to so wish that God could fully appreciate things from a human perspective. Unknown to him at the time, Job was coming to long for the real, Biblical Christ – a man of our nature yet God’s Son, our representative who could empathize with us and reveal the human face of God.

10:9 Will You bring me into dust again – Job had no belief in an ‘immortal soul’; he believed the Biblical position, that we are made from dust and will return to dust again, with no inherent immortality. This is alluding to Gen.3:19 – the curse upon sinful Adam that he would return to the dust. Job seems to be admitting that he is like Adam in that it appeared God was going to end his life as a result of his sin – return him to the dust. But he reasons that this is unfair, seeing he has not sinned (10:7,14,15). Thus he oscillates between saying he has sinned and is like Adam, and then claiming that although he is being treated like Adam this is unfair. Similarly Job complains “He bruises me...without cause” (9:17); the same word translated “bruise” in Gen.3:15, thus implying that he is receiving the result of the punishment in Eden for no reason. 27:2-4 also alludes to the record of God’s creation of Adam in Gen.2:7. In 31:33 Job denies that he is like Adam in that unlike him, he has no sin to hide: “If I covered my transgressions as Adam, by hiding mine iniquity...”. And yet like Adam he was humiliated by God’s questioning at the end of the book. See on 13:20-22; 14:20. We too oscillate between accepting our sinfulness and yet considering our judgment for it as unfair. We are all brought like Job to the crushing and total acceptance of it in the end.

10:16 Again You show Yourself wonderful to me – Job felt as we sometimes do that

<sup>17</sup> You renew Your witnesses against me, and increase Your indignation on me. Changes and warfare are within me. <sup>18</sup> ‘Why, then, have You brought me forth out of the womb? I wish I had given up the spirit, and no eye had seen me. <sup>19</sup> I should have been as though I had not been. I should have been carried from the womb to the grave. <sup>20</sup> Aren’t my days few? Cease then. Leave me alone, that I may find a little comfort, <sup>21</sup> before I go where I shall not return from, to the land of darkness and of the shadow of death; <sup>22</sup> the land dark as midnight, of the shadow of death, without any order, where the light is as midnight’.

Zophar's First Speech

Then Zophar the Naamathite responded, <sup>2</sup> Shouldn’t the multitude of words be answered? Should a man full of talk be justified? <sup>3</sup> Should your boastings make men hold their peace? When you mock, shall no man make you ashamed? <sup>4</sup> For you say, ‘My doctrine is pure. I am clean in Your eyes’. <sup>5</sup> But oh that God would speak, and open His lips against you, <sup>6</sup> that He would show you the secrets of wisdom! For true wisdom has two sides. Know therefore that God exacts of you less than your iniquity deserves. <sup>7</sup> Can you fathom the mystery of God? Or can you probe the limits of the Almighty? <sup>8</sup> They are high as heaven. What can you do? They are deeper than Sheol. What can you know? <sup>9</sup> Its measure is longer than the earth, and broader than the sea. <sup>10</sup> If He passes by, or confines, or convenes a court, then who can oppose Him? <sup>11</sup> For He knows false men. He sees iniquity also, even though He doesn’t consider it. <sup>12</sup> An empty-headed man becomes wise when a man is born as a wild donkey’s colt. <sup>13</sup> If you set your heart aright, stretch out your hands toward Him. <sup>14</sup> If iniquity is in your hand, put it far away. Don’t let unrighteousness dwell in your tents. <sup>15</sup> Surely then you shall lift up your face without spot; yes, you shall be steadfast, and shall not fear: <sup>16</sup> for you shall forget your misery. You shall remember it as waters that are passed away. <sup>17</sup> Life shall be clearer than the noonday. Though there is darkness, it shall be as the morning. <sup>18</sup> You shall be secure, because there is hope. Yes, you shall search, and shall take your rest in safety. <sup>19</sup> Also you shall lie down, and none shall make you afraid. Yes, many shall court your favour. <sup>20</sup> But the eyes of the wicked shall fail. They shall have one moment God is tender and gracious, but the next almost violent and rough with us. But this is only because we fail to perceive the full picture of God.

10:21 I go where I shall not return from – Job’s faith in resurrection and ultimate salvation oscillated; for in 19:25-27 he is very clear about it. It could be, however, that Job was forced to a belief in resurrection, judgment and reward at the last day by his sustained reflection on the fact that he as a basically good man was so suffering, the wicked were prospering, and yet God is a God who [for all Job’s doubts of the moment] must ultimately reward the righteous and the wicked.

no way to flee. Their hope shall be the giving up of the spirit.

Job Responds to Zophar

Then Job answered, <sup>2</sup> No doubt, but you are the people, and wisdom shall die with you. <sup>3</sup> But I have understanding as well as you; I am not inferior to you. Yes, who doesn't know such things as these? <sup>4</sup> I am like one who is a joke to his neighbour, because I called on God, and He answered. The just, the blameless man is a joke. <sup>5</sup> In the thought of him who is at ease there is contempt for misfortune. It is ready for them whose foot slips. <sup>6</sup> The tents of robbers prosper. Those who provoke God are secure, who carry their God in their hands. <sup>7</sup> But ask the animals now, and they shall teach you; the birds of the sky, and they shall tell you. <sup>8</sup> Or speak to the earth, and it shall teach you. The fish of the sea shall declare to you. <sup>9</sup> Who doesn't know that in all these, the hand of Yahweh has done this, <sup>10</sup> in whose hand is the life of every living thing, and the breath of all mankind? <sup>11</sup> Doesn't the ear try words, even as the palate tastes its food? <sup>12</sup> With aged men is wisdom, in length of days understanding. <sup>13</sup> With God is wisdom and might. He has counsel and understanding. <sup>14</sup> Behold, He breaks down, and it can't be built again. He imprisons a man, and there can be no release. <sup>15</sup> Behold, He withholds the waters, and they dry up. Again, He sends them out, and they overturn the earth. <sup>16</sup> With Him is strength and wisdom. The deceived and the deceiver are His. <sup>17</sup> He leads counsellors away stripped. He makes judges fools. <sup>18</sup> He loosens the bond of kings. He binds their waist with a belt. <sup>19</sup> He leads priests away stripped, and overthrows the mighty. <sup>20</sup> He removes the speech of those who are trusted, and takes away the understanding of the elders. <sup>21</sup> He pours contempt on princes, and loosens the belt of the strong. <sup>22</sup> He uncovers deep things out of darkness, and brings out to light the shadow of death. <sup>23</sup> He increases the nations, and He destroys them. He enlarges the nations, and He leads them captive. <sup>24</sup> He takes away understanding from the chiefs of the people of the earth, and causes them to wander in a wilderness where there is no way.

11:10 If He... convenes a court... who can oppose Him? – Job disagreed. He felt as did Moses and others that we can enter dialogue with God, disagree with Him, ask Him to change His mind. Zophar is reasoning from the perspective that all we can do is to submit to God, in an almost Islamic sense. Yet God thirsts for relationship with us; and therefore we can reason with God, even in the court of Heaven.

12:3 I am not inferior to you – Job repeats this in 13:2. Job refused to take false guilt, nor to feel himself inferior to those who accused him of sinning and who insisted he take their advice and adopt their perspectives. He realized that those who were trying to push him down beneath them were mere men like him. We too at times have to consciously refuse to be psychologically pushed down beneath others.

 25 They grope in the dark without light. He makes them stagger like a drunken man.

Job Continues His Speech

Behold, my eye has seen all this. My ear has heard and understood it. <sup>2</sup> What you know, I know also. I am not inferior to you. <sup>3</sup> Surely I would speak to the Almighty. I desire to reason with God. <sup>4</sup> But you are forgers of lies. You are all physicians of no value. <sup>5</sup> Oh that you would be completely silent! Then you would be wise. <sup>6</sup> Hear now my reasoning. Listen to the pleadings of my lips. <sup>7</sup> Will you speak unrighteously for God, and talk deceitfully for Him? <sup>8</sup> Will you show partiality to Him? Will you contend for God? <sup>9</sup> Is it good that He should search you out? Or as one deceives a man, will you deceive Him? <sup>10</sup> He will surely reprove you if you secretly show partiality. <sup>11</sup> Shall not His majesty make you afraid, and His dread fall on you? <sup>12</sup> Your memorable sayings are proverbs of ashes, your defences are defences of clay. <sup>13</sup> Be silent, leave me alone, that I may speak. Let come on me what will. <sup>14</sup> Why should I take my flesh in my teeth, and put my life in my hand? <sup>15</sup> Even if He slays me, still I will trust in Him. Nevertheless, I will justify my ways before Him. <sup>16</sup> This also shall be my salvation, in that a Godless man shall not come before Him. <sup>17</sup> Hear diligently my speech. Let my declaration be in Your ears. <sup>18</sup> See now, I have set my cause in order. I know that I am righteous. <sup>19</sup> Who is he who will contend with me? For then would I hold my peace and give up the spirit. <sup>20</sup> Only don't do two things to me; then I will not hide myself from Your face: <sup>21</sup> withdraw Your hand far from me; and

13:15 Even if He slays me, still I will trust in Him – The language of ‘slaying’ takes us back to the Mosaic commands about how a ‘slayer’ of a man might be killed by the ‘avenger of blood’ (Dt. 19:6). Job saw God as slaying him; yet he also sees God as the ‘witness’ in the case (16:19), and the avenger of Job’s blood (19:25). Job even asks God to not let the earth cover his blood, so that God as the avenger of Job’s blood may avenge Job’s death (16:18). Job does not see ‘Satan’ as his slayer, and God as the avenger of his blood. Instead Job – in a quite breathtaking set of associations – sees God in all these things: the slayer, the legal witness to the slayer, the avenger of blood, and the One who will enforce the doing of justice in this case, the One who will not let the earth cover Job’s blood. If Job really believed in a superhuman Satan, in Satan as the bad guy and God as the avenger of the injustice, he surely would’ve expressed himself differently. As Job imagines God as it were taking vengeance on Himself, so he came to portray for all time the way that evil and good are indeed both ultimately from God.

13:20–22 This alludes to the fall of Adam in Eden. Job was recognizing that he had sinned, that he knew that the sense of spiritual limbo he was in paralleled Adam’s hiding from God in Eden, but that he would only respond to God’s call and come out of hiding to confess his sin as he knew God wanted him to, if God withdrew His don't let Your terror make me afraid. <sup>22</sup> Then call, and I will answer; or let me speak, and You answer me. <sup>23</sup> How many are my iniquities and sins? Make me know my disobedience and my sin. <sup>24</sup> Why do You hide Your face, and hold me for Your enemy? <sup>25</sup> Will You harass a driven leaf? Will You pursue the dry stubble? <sup>26</sup> For You write bitter things against me, and make me inherit the iniquities of my youth: <sup>27</sup> You also put my feet in the stocks, and mark all my paths. You set a mark on the soles of my feet, <sup>28</sup> though I am decaying like a rotten thing, like a garment that is moth-eaten.

Further Words from Job

Man, who is born of a woman, is of few days, and full of trouble. <sup>2</sup> He comes forth like a flower, and is cut down. He also flees like a shadow, and doesn't continue. <sup>3</sup> Do You open your eyes on such a one, and bring me into judgment with You? <sup>4</sup> Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? Not one. <sup>5</sup> Seeing his days are determined, the number of his months is with You, and You have appointed his bounds that he can't pass; <sup>6</sup> look away from him, that he may rest, until he shall accomplish, as a hireling, his day. <sup>7</sup> For there is hope for a tree, If it is cut down, that it will sprout again, that the tender branch of it will not cease. <sup>8</sup> Though its root grows old in the earth, and its stock dies in the ground, <sup>9</sup> yet through the scent of water it will bud, and put forth boughs like a plant. <sup>10</sup> But man dies, and is laid low. Yes, man gives up hand – i.e. relieved him of the immediate trials he was then experiencing. Thus Job was trying to barter with God – wanting Him to withdraw the trials in return for Job making the confession which he knew God wanted. See on 10:9; 14:20. In various but differing ways, we all madly struggle against the call to totally repent; whether by pure stubbornness, misinterpreting Scripture, or whatever twisted logic and sophistry. One lesson of the book of Job is the way God seeks to bring us to total and utter repentance.

13:27 The mark on him that was a witness wherever he went echoes that which God put on Cain. God's preservation of Cain from death also finds a parallel in Job's feeling that God is preserving him unnaturally (3:21-23; 10:9-15). As with the similarities with Adam (see on 10:9), Job complains that although he is associated with Cain, this is not really fair. "You set a mark on the soles of my feet" because, Job complains, God observes him with unnecessary detail. Zophar possibly recognized that Job was like Cain in that his face had fallen and he was so angry, although also fearful of God (Gen. 4:5); he said that if Job repented he would "lift up his face and not fear" (11:15). See on 16:17,18. As noted on 13:20-22, all feelings we have that our suffering is unfair are all part of our stubborn refusal to face the enormity and just consequences of our sin.

14:4 Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? – Job seems to be justifying his sins by arguing that sin is inevitable because of our nature. This is just a theological form of the stubborn refusal to face up to our sinfulness as noted on 13:20-22. The

the spirit, and where is he? <sup>11</sup> As the waters fail from the sea, and the river wastes and dries up, <sup>12</sup> so man lies down and doesn't rise. Until the heavens are no more, they shall not awake, nor be roused out of their sleep. <sup>13</sup> Oh that You would hide me in Sheol, that You would keep me secret, until Your wrath is past, that You would appoint me a set time, and remember me! <sup>14</sup> If a man dies, shall he live again? All the days of my warfare would I wait, until my release should come. <sup>15</sup> You would call, and I would answer You. You would have a desire to the work of Your hands. <sup>16</sup> But now You number my steps. Don't You watch over my sin? <sup>17</sup> My disobedience is sealed up in a bag. You fasten up my iniquity. <sup>18</sup> But the mountain falling comes to nothing. The rock is removed out of its place; <sup>19</sup> the waters wear away the stones. The torrents of it wash away the dust of the earth. So

You destroy the hope of man. <sup>20</sup> You forever prevail against him, and he departs. You change his face, and send him away. <sup>21</sup> His sons come to honour, and he doesn't know it. They are brought low, but he doesn't perceive it about them. <sup>22</sup> But his flesh on him has pain, and his soul within him mourns.

Eliphaz's Second Speech

Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered, <sup>2</sup> Should a wise man answer with vain knowledge, and fill himself with the east wind? <sup>3</sup> Should he reason with unprofitable talk, or with speeches with which he can do no good? <sup>4</sup> Yes, you do away with fear, and hinder devotion before God. <sup>5</sup> For your iniquity teaches your mouth, and you choose the language of the crafty. <sup>6</sup> Your own mouth condemns you, and not I. Yes, your own lips testify against

Lord Jesus had our nature and yet didn't sin; all that we say about human nature we say about Him. We aren't inevitable sinners, victims of a human nature which wasn't our fault as it were. See on 15:14,15.

14:12 So man lies down and doesn't rise – Job's faith in and desire for a future resurrection develops throughout the book; in 19:25-27 he is very clear about it and his earnest longing for it.

14:20 The reference to change and sending away refers to Adam being sent out of Eden, or also to Cain's countenance falling and then being sent away from God. Yet in :15 Job is alluding to God's calling to Adam in the garden; and Job is full of reasons which he will give God of his own rightness and innocence. So at this stage, Job is torn between recognizing his sinfulness and yet justifying it, perhaps only seeing it in terms of being a victim of the consequences of Adam's sin in Eden. As the book progresses, he is brought to the total acceptance of personal sinfulness and the justness of Divine punishment which God seeks to bring us all to.

15:6 These words are alluded to by Jesus when He taught that our words will be the basis of our condemnation or acceptance (Mt. 12:37). He also picks up this verse in His words to the one-talent man in the parable: "Out of your own mouth will I judge you" (Lk. 19:22). The only ones to be rejected at the last day are those whose words in you. <sup>7</sup> Are you the first man who was born? Or were you brought forth before the hills? <sup>8</sup> Have you heard the secret counsel of God? Do you limit wisdom to yourself? <sup>9</sup> What do you know, that we don't know? What do you understand, which is not in us? <sup>10</sup> With us are both the gray-headed and the very aged men, much elder than your father. <sup>11</sup> Are the consolations of God too small for you, even the word that is gentle toward you? <sup>12</sup> Why does your heart carry you away? Why do your eyes flash, <sup>13</sup> that you turn your spirit against God, and let such words go out of your mouth? <sup>14</sup> What is man, that he should be clean? What is he who is born of a woman, that he should be righteous? <sup>15</sup> Behold, He puts no trust in His holy ones. Yes, the heavens are not clean in His sight; <sup>16</sup> how much less one who is abominable and corrupt, a man who drinks iniquity like water! <sup>17</sup> I will show you, listen to me; that which I have seen I will declare, <sup>18</sup> which wise men have told by their fathers, and have not hidden it; <sup>19</sup> to whom alone the land was given, and no stranger passed among them: <sup>20</sup> the wicked man writhes in pain all his days, even the number of years that are laid up for the oppressor. <sup>21</sup> A sound of terrors is in his ears. In prosperity the destroyer shall come on him. <sup>22</sup> He doesn't believe that he shall return out of darkness. He is waited for by the sword. <sup>23</sup> He wanders abroad for bread, saying, 'Where is it?'. He knows that the day of darkness is ready at his hand. They prevail against him, as a king ready to the battle. <sup>25</sup> Because he has stretched out his hand against God, and behaves himself proudly against the Almighty; <sup>26</sup> he runs at Him with a stiff neck, with the thick shields of his bucklers; <sup>27</sup> because he has covered his face with his fatness, and gathered fat on his thighs. <sup>28</sup> He has lived in desolate cities, in houses which no one inhabited, which were ready to become heaps. <sup>29</sup> He shall not be rich, neither shall his substance continue, neither shall their possessions be extended on the earth. <sup>30</sup> He shall not depart out of darkness. The flame shall dry up his branches. By the breath of God's mouth shall he go away. <sup>31</sup> Let him not trust in emptiness, deceiving himself; for emptiness shall be his reward. <sup>32</sup> It shall be accomplished before his time. His branch shall not be green. <sup>33</sup> He shall shake off his unripe grape as the vine, and shall cast this life have asked for it. Our words will as it were be quoted back to us in that day. This is how important they are.

15:14, 15 Eliphaz's view of both human beings and Angels was wrong. We aren't inevitable sinners just because of our nature; it's no sin to be human, to be alive, and the wrath of God isn't kindled upon every baby who is conceived and born just because they are humans. See on 14:4. God perhaps answers the wrong idea that Angels sin by commenting that all of them rejoiced in His creation (38:7).

15:21 Eliphaz says that Job's sudden problems amid his prosperity were what would happen to all the wicked. This seems to be alluded to in 1 Thess.5:3 concerning the sudden destruction of rich, spiritually self confident 'believers' at Christ's return.

off his flower as the olive tree. <sup>34</sup> For the company of the Godless shall be barren, and fire shall consume the tents of bribery. <sup>35</sup> They conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity. Their heart prepares deceit.

Job Responds to Eliphaz

Then Job answered, <sup>2</sup> I have heard many such things. You are all miserable comforters! <sup>3</sup> Shall vain words have an end? Or what provokes you that you answer? <sup>4</sup> I also could speak as you do. If your soul were in my soul's place, I could join words together against you, and shake my head at you, <sup>5</sup> but I would strengthen you with my mouth. The solace of my lips would relieve you. <sup>6</sup> Though I speak, my grief is not subsided. Though I forbear, what am I eased? <sup>7</sup> But now, God, you have surely worn me out. You have made desolate all my company. <sup>8</sup> You have shrivelled me up. This is a witness against me. My leanness rises up against me. It testifies to my face. <sup>9</sup> He has torn me in His wrath, and persecuted me. He has gnashed on me with His teeth. My adversary sharpens His eyes on me. <sup>10</sup> They have gaped on me with their mouth. They have struck me on the cheek reproachfully. They gather themselves together against me. <sup>11</sup> God delivers me to the ungodly, and casts me into the hands of the wicked. <sup>12</sup> I was at ease, and He broke me apart. Yes, He has taken me by the neck, and dashed me to pieces. He has also set me up for His target. <sup>13</sup> His archers surround me. He splits my kidneys apart, and does not spare. He pours out my gall on the ground. <sup>14</sup> He breaks me with blow after blow. He runs on me like a giant. <sup>15</sup> I have sewed sackcloth on my skin, and have thrust my horn in the dust. <sup>16</sup> My face is red with weeping. Deep darkness is on my eyelids. <sup>17</sup> Although there is no violence in my hands, and my prayer is 15:35 They conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity. Their heart prepares deceit – Sin is often described as being conceived within the human heart (Acts 5:4; James 1:13-15). Sin is totally our fault; it proceeds out of the human heart (Mk. 7:15-23), not because of any cosmic ‘Satan’ being making us sin.

16:9 My adversary sharpens His eyes on me – The Hebrew word satan means ‘adversary’. Although a different Hebrew word is used here, Job clearly saw God as his adversary and not any wicked cosmic being.

16:9-14 It was so hard for Job to accept that God and not any orthodox ‘Satan’ figure was his adversary. It’s one thing to deduce from the Bible that both good and disaster comes from the Lord, as taught in Is. 45:5-7. It’s of course quite another to accept it in real life, and Job is an inspiring example. The poetry here speaks of Job’s awesome and even angry realization that God is in fact [in a sense] his enemy / adversary. See on 19:26.

16:17, 18 Here Job associates himself with unfairly persecuted Abel; he likens his cry for justice to the crying of Abel’s blood from the ground in Gen.4:10. He is trying to justify his refusal to recognize that he, a relatively righteous man, was in fact a serious pure.<sup>18</sup> Earth, don't cover my blood. Let my cry have no place to rest.<sup>19</sup> Even now, behold, my witness is in heaven. He who vouches for me is on high.<sup>20</sup> My friends scoff at me. My eyes pour out tears to God,<sup>21</sup> that He would maintain the right of a man with God, of a son of man with his neighbour!<sup>22</sup> For when a few years have come, I shall go the way of no return.

Job Continues His Response to Eliphaz

My spirit is consumed. My days are extinct, and the grave is ready for me.<sup>2</sup> Surely there are mockers with me. My eye dwells on their provocation.<sup>3</sup> Now give a pledge, be collateral for me with Yourself. Who is there who will strike hands with me?<sup>4</sup> For You have hidden their heart from understanding, therefore You shall not exalt them.<sup>5</sup> He who denounces his friends for a prey, even the eyes of his children shall fail.<sup>6</sup> But He has made me a byword of the people. They spit in my face.<sup>7</sup> My eye also is dim by reason of sorrow. All my members are as a shadow.<sup>8</sup> Upright men shall be astonished at this. The innocent shall stir up himself against the godless.<sup>9</sup> Yet shall the righteous hold on to his way. He who has clean hands shall grow stronger and stronger.<sup>10</sup> But as for you all, come on now again; I shall not find a wise man among you.<sup>11</sup> My days are past, my plans are broken off, as are the thoughts of my heart.<sup>12</sup> They change the night into day, saying 'The light is near' in the presence of darkness.<sup>13</sup> If I look for Sheol as my house, if I have spread my couch in the darkness,<sup>14</sup> if I have said to corruption, 'You are my father'; to the worm, 'My mother', and 'my sister';<sup>15</sup> where then is my hope? As for my hope, who shall see it?<sup>16</sup> Shall it go down with me to the gates of Sheol, or descend together into the dust?

Bildad's Second Speech

Then Bildad the Shuhite answered,<sup>2</sup> How long will you hunt for words? Consider, and afterwards we will speak.<sup>3</sup> Why are we counted as animals, which have become unclean in your sight?<sup>4</sup> You who tear yourself in your anger, shall the earth be forsaken for you? Or shall the rock be removed out of its place?<sup>5</sup> Yes, the light of the wicked shall be put out, the spark of his fire shall not shine.<sup>6</sup> The light shall be dark in his tent. His lamp above him shall be put out.<sup>7</sup> The steps of his strength sinner. It's perhaps easier for those the world considers sinners to come to repentance than it is for those whom the world considers 'normal' and even righteous. This includes many of us; hence the biting relevance of Job to us. See on 13:20-22.

17:9 Shall grow stronger and stronger – There is an upward spiral in spiritual life, and also a downward spiral, in which, e.g., God hides correct understanding from people (:4) in response to their not really wanting it. Thus He can even delude people to believe lies (2 Thess. 2:11).

shall be shortened. His own counsel shall cast him down.<sup>8</sup> For he is cast into a net by his own feet, and he wanders into its mesh.<sup>9</sup> A snare will take him by the heel. A trap will catch him.<sup>10</sup> A noose is hidden for him in the ground, a trap for him in the way.<sup>11</sup> Terrors shall make him afraid on every side, and shall chase him at his heels.<sup>12</sup> His strength shall be famished. Calamity shall be ready at his side.<sup>13</sup> The members of his body shall be devoured. The firstborn of death shall devour his members.<sup>14</sup> He shall be rooted out of his tent where he trusts. He shall be brought to the king of terrors.<sup>15</sup> There shall dwell in his tent that which is none of his. Sulphur shall be scattered on his habitation.<sup>16</sup> His roots shall be dried up beneath. Above shall his branch be cut off.<sup>17</sup> His memory shall perish from the earth. He shall have no name in the street.<sup>18</sup> He shall be driven from light into darkness, and chased out of the world.<sup>19</sup> He shall have neither son nor grandson among his people, nor any remaining where he lived.<sup>20</sup> Those who come after shall be astonished at his day, as those who went before were frightened.<sup>21</sup> Surely such are the dwellings of the unrighteous. This is the place of him who doesn't know God.

Job Responds to Bildad

Then Job answered,<sup>2</sup> How long will you torment me, and crush me with words?<sup>3</sup> You have reproached me ten times. You aren't ashamed that you attack me.<sup>4</sup> If it is true that I have erred, my error remains with myself.<sup>5</sup> If indeed you will magnify yourselves against me, and plead against me my reproach;

18:14 The king of terrors – Bildad blamed Job's calamity upon pagan versions of the 'Satan' myth such as this supposed king, and the "firstborn of death" (:13). One intention of the book of Job is to deconstruct these ideas and to present God as the ultimate source of both good and disaster.

18:19 Bildad throughout this chapter is alluding to Job's loss of his home and family, and is certain that the next step is for Job himself to die without descendants – because, he assumes, Job has sinned. The restoration of Job's health and the gift of a new family at the end of the book proves Bildad so wrong. We need to learn the lesson not to assume things about others' relationship with God nor about the meaning of events in their lives.

19:2 Crush me with words – We should never assume that words are harmless. One lesson from the book of Job, as we see his mental agony progressing throughout his responses to the friends, is that words do indeed crush and hurt; they are often remembered for years after they have been spoken or written. God's law is unique amongst legal codes for criminalizing words and thoughts as much as actions.

19:4 My error remains with myself – A very true observation. It's often the case that when someone sins against one individual, others, or indeed a whole congregation, consider that the sin has been against them and that they somehow are called to forgive the sin and to demand repentance towards them. By doing so they are making the same mistake as the friends. We are to forgive sin against ourselves, and not take upon ourselves other sins as if they were against us personally.

<sup>6</sup> know now that God has subverted me, and has surrounded me with His net. <sup>7</sup> Behold, I cry out because of injustice, but I am not heard. I cry for help, but there is no justice. <sup>8</sup> He has walled up my way so that I can't pass, and has set darkness in my paths. <sup>9</sup> He has stripped me of my glory, and taken the crown from my head. <sup>10</sup> He has broken me down on every side, and I am gone. My hope He has plucked up like a tree. <sup>11</sup> He has also kindled His wrath against me. He counts me among His adversaries. <sup>12</sup> His troops come on together, build a siege ramp against me, and encamp around my tent. <sup>13</sup> He has put my brothers far from me. My acquaintances are wholly estranged from me. <sup>14</sup> My relatives have gone away. My familiar friends have forgotten me. <sup>15</sup> Those who dwell in my house, and my maids, count me for a stranger. I am an alien in their sight. <sup>16</sup> I call to my servant, and he gives me no answer. I beg him with my mouth. <sup>17</sup> My breath is offensive to my wife. I am loathsome to the children of my own mother. <sup>18</sup> Even young children despise me. If I arise, they speak against me. <sup>19</sup> All my familiar friends abhor me. They whom I loved have turned against me. <sup>20</sup> My bones stick to my skin and to my flesh. I have escaped by the skin of my teeth. <sup>21</sup> Have pity on me, have pity on me, you my friends; for the hand of God has touched me. <sup>22</sup> Why do you persecute me as God, and are not satisfied with my flesh? <sup>23</sup> Oh that my words were now written! Oh that they were inscribed in a book! <sup>24</sup> That with an iron pen and lead they were engraved in the rock forever! <sup>25</sup> But as for me, I know that my Redeemer lives. In the end, he will stand upon the earth. <sup>26</sup> After my skin is destroyed, then in my

19:8 Num. 22:22 describes how an Angel of God stood in a narrow, walled path before Balaam, so that his donkey fell down beneath him. That Angel is described as a “satan”, an adversary, to Balaam. Job comments how the sufferings which the ‘satan’ brought upon him were God ‘walling up my way that I cannot pass’. The connection is clear – and may indicate that Job’s satan was a satan-Angel, acting on God’s behalf as an adversary to Job just as such an Angel did to Balaam. Job and Balaam have certain similarities – both were prophets (in Job’s case see 4:4; 23:12; 29:4 cp. 15:8; Amos 3:7; James 5:10,11); both had genuine difficulty in understanding God’s ways, but they to varying degrees consciously rebelled against what they did understand; both thus became angry with God, and were reproved by God through being brought to consider the Angel-controlled natural creation. Job should’ve learnt from Balaam – or vice versa – that God’s walling us in is because He wants us to go His way, and we shouldn’t try to force our way past Him.

19:21 The hand of God has touched me – God put Job into the hand of the ‘satan’ (1:12). Job saw the satan as basically God in action, not as a cosmic being outside of God’s control and not performing His bidding.

19:26 In 2:4-6 we have the ‘Satan’ commenting that Job’s flesh and skin need to be harmed; but here we have Job stating his faith that even though God destroys his flesh and skin, yet God shall ultimately save him.

flesh shall I see God, <sup>27</sup> whom I, even I, shall see for myself. My eyes shall see it, and not a stranger's. My heart is consumed within me. <sup>28</sup> If you say, 'How we will persecute him!'; because the root of the matter is found in me, <sup>29</sup> be afraid of the sword, for wrath brings the punishments of the sword, that you may know there is a judgment.

Zophar's Second Speech

Then Zophar the Naamathite answered, <sup>2</sup> Therefore do my thoughts make me answer, even by reason of my haste that is in me. <sup>3</sup> I have heard the reproof which seeks to shame me. The spirit of my understanding makes me answer. <sup>4</sup> Don't you know this from old time, since man was placed on earth, <sup>5</sup> that the triumphing of the wicked is short, the joy of the godless but for a moment? <sup>6</sup> Though his height mount up to the heavens, and his head reach to the clouds, <sup>7</sup> yet he shall perish forever like his own dung. Those who have seen him shall say, 'Where is he?'. <sup>8</sup> He shall fly away as a dream, and shall not be found. Yes, he shall be chased away like a vision of the night. <sup>9</sup> The eye which saw him shall see him no more, neither shall his place any more see him. <sup>10</sup> His children shall seek the favour of the poor. His hands shall give back his wealth. <sup>11</sup> His bones are full of his youth, but youth shall lie down with him in the dust. <sup>12</sup> Though wickedness is sweet in his mouth, though he hide it under his tongue, <sup>13</sup> though he spare it, and will not let it go, but keep it still within his mouth; <sup>14</sup> yet his food in his bowels is churned. It is cobra venom within him. <sup>15</sup> He has swallowed down riches, and he shall vomit them up again. God will cast them out of his belly. <sup>16</sup> He shall suck cobra venom. The viper's tongue shall kill him. <sup>17</sup> He shall not look at the rivers, the flowing streams of honey and butter. <sup>18</sup> That for which he laboured he shall restore, and shall not swallow it down. According to the substance that he has gotten, he shall not rejoice. <sup>19</sup> For he has oppressed and forsaken the poor.

19:27 The light at the end of our tunnel is that we will personally see God, with our own eyes we will behold Him, and not through anyone else's eyes (see too Is. 33:17). Job understood God as a personal being.

20:19 Job denies doing these things; if he had, it's unlikely that God would describe his earlier life in such positive terms (1:2). Zophar was once Job's friend, but he now speaks with a seething anger against him and claims all kind of false things against Job – which as his "friend" he surely knew weren't true. This radical change was related to Zophar's false understanding that suffering always comes as a result of sin. He became convinced Job was a sinner, and when he couldn't prove that, he simply fabricated things in his mind and then became persuaded they were true. If Zophar had to admit that Job was righteous, then he would have to revise his view of suffering; admit he had been wrong; and be prepared to accept that suffering may strike him too, despite his own apparent righteousness. And it would seem that his jealousy at Job's wealth was then vented out. He felt that if Job was a sinner, then he could treat him in

He has violently taken away a house, and he shall not build it up. <sup>20</sup> Because he knew no quietness within him, he shall not save anything of that in which he delights. <sup>21</sup> There was nothing left that he didn't devour, therefore his prosperity shall not endure. <sup>22</sup> In the fullness of his sufficiency, distress shall overtake him. The hand of each one who is in misery shall come on him. <sup>23</sup> When he is about to fill his belly, God will cast the fierceness of His wrath upon him. It will rain on him while he is eating. <sup>24</sup> He shall flee from the iron weapon. The bronze arrow shall strike him through. <sup>25</sup> He draws it forth, and it comes out of his body. Yes, the glittering point comes out of his liver. Terrors are upon him. <sup>26</sup> All darkness is laid up for his treasures. An unfanned fire shall devour him. It shall consume that which is left in his tent. <sup>27</sup> The heavens shall reveal his iniquity. The earth shall rise up against him. <sup>28</sup> The increase of his house shall depart. They shall rush away in the day of His wrath. <sup>29</sup> This is the portion of a wicked man from God, the heritage appointed to him by God.

Job Responds to Zophar

Then Job answered, <sup>2</sup> Listen diligently to my speech. Let this be your consolation. <sup>3</sup> Allow me, and I also will speak; after I have spoken, mock on. <sup>4</sup> As for me, is my complaint to man? Why shouldn't I be impatient? <sup>5</sup> Look at me, and be astonished. Lay your hand on your mouth. <sup>6</sup> When I remember, I am troubled. Horror takes hold of my flesh. <sup>7</sup> Why do the wicked live, become old, yes, and grow mighty in a less than human way. Fear of revising ones' own understandings, admission of being wrong forced upon people by others' experiences, dashed expectations and false assumptions... can lead to this kind of seething hatred and false accusation, and is the root of much relationship breakdown today.

21:4 Why shouldn't I be impatient? – Job falls into the trap of justifying poor behaviour because of the extremity of the circumstances. Eventually he is led to the final climax of chapter 42, where he stops making excuses, blaming his nature, his situation and the machinations of others – and accepts his sinfulness in toto. It was so hard for him to do this because relatively speaking he was righteous. But spiritually middle class believers who keep their noses clean publically and avoid major personal scandals have got to all the same radically repent; and this is the pointed relevance of Job to so many believers today.

21:7 In 9:21 and by implication in other places, Job effectively says that there is no point in serving God or striving for obedience to God. This is what the priests of Israel later said at the time of the restoration from exile (Mal. 3:14). Malachi is alluding to Job's words here and in 9:21. Note that Elihu also claimed that Job had said that serving God was of no profit (34:9). Job has much relevance to the returning exiles – see on 3:23. Job was ignoring the very fine sensitivity of God to human behaviour; the fact He is so high and we are so morally low doesn't mean that our behaviour is irrelevant. Job's problem was a refusal to repent, and he is here making the excuse that power? <sup>8</sup> Their child is established with them in their sight, their offspring before their eyes. <sup>9</sup> Their houses are safe from fear, neither is the rod of God upon them. <sup>10</sup> Their bulls breed without fail. Their cows calve, and don't miscarry. <sup>11</sup> They send forth their little ones like a flock. Their children dance. <sup>12</sup> They sing to the tambourine and harp, and rejoice at the sound of the pipe. <sup>13</sup> They spend their days in prosperity. In an instant they go down to Sheol. <sup>14</sup> They tell God, 'Depart from us, for we don't want to know about Your ways. <sup>15</sup> What is the Almighty, that we should serve Him? What profit should we have, if we pray to Him?'. <sup>16</sup> Behold, their prosperity is not in their hand. The counsel of the wicked is far from me. <sup>17</sup> How often is it that the lamp of the wicked is put out, that their calamity comes on them, that God distributes sorrows to them in His anger? <sup>18</sup> How often is it that they are as stubble before the wind, as chaff that the storm carries away? <sup>19</sup> You say, 'God lays up his iniquity for his children'. Let him recompense it to himself, that he may know it. <sup>20</sup> Let his own eyes see his destruction. Let him drink of the wrath of the Almighty. <sup>21</sup> For what does he care for his house after him, when the number of his months is cut off? <sup>22</sup> Shall any teach God knowledge, since He judges those who are high? <sup>23</sup> One dies in his full strength, being wholly at ease and quiet. <sup>24</sup> His pails are full of milk. The marrow of his bones is moistened. <sup>25</sup> Another dies in bitterness of soul, and never tastes of good. <sup>26</sup> They lie down alike in the dust. The worm covers them. <sup>27</sup> Behold, I know your thoughts, the devices with which you would wrong me. <sup>28</sup> For you say, 'Where is the house of the prince? Where is the tent in which the wicked lived?' <sup>29</sup> Haven't you asked wayfaring men? Don't you know their evidences, <sup>30</sup> that the evil man is reserved to the day of calamity, that they are led forth to the day of wrath? <sup>31</sup> Who shall declare his way to his face? Who shall repay him what he has done? <sup>32</sup> Yet he will be carried to the grave. Men shall keep watch over the tomb. <sup>33</sup> The clods of the valley shall be sweet to him. All men shall draw after him, as there were innumerable before him. <sup>34</sup> So how can you comfort me with nonsense, because in your answers there remains only falsehood?

Eliphaz's Third Speech

Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered, <sup>2</sup> Can a man be profitable to God? Surely he who is wise is profitable to himself. <sup>3</sup> Is it any pleasure to the Almighty, that you are righteous? Or does it benefit Him, that you make your ways perfect? <sup>4</sup> Is it for your piety that He reproves you, that He enters with you into judgment? <sup>5</sup> Isn't your wickedness

God's insensitivity to sin meant he didn't have to repent. We must learn the lesson – God's sensitivity to sin is the very reason we should repent of it.

great? Neither is there any end to your iniquities. <sup>6</sup> For you have taken pledges from your brother for nothing, and stripped the naked of their clothing. <sup>7</sup> You haven't given water to the weary to drink, and you have withheld bread from the hungry. <sup>8</sup> But as for the mighty man, he had the earth from you. The honourable man, he lived in it. <sup>9</sup> You have sent widows away empty, and the arms of the fatherless you have broken. <sup>10</sup> Therefore snares are around you. Sudden fear troubles you, <sup>11</sup> or darkness, so that you can not see, and floods of waters cover you. <sup>12</sup> Isn't God in the heights of heaven? See the height of the stars, how high they are! <sup>13</sup> You say, 'What does God know? Can He judge through the thick darkness? <sup>14</sup> Thick clouds are a covering to Him, so that He doesn't see. He walks on the vault of the sky'. <sup>15</sup> Will you keep the old way, which wicked men have trodden, <sup>16</sup> who were snatched away before their time, whose foundation was poured out as a stream, <sup>17</sup> who said to God, 'Depart from us'; and, 'What can the Almighty do for us?'. <sup>18</sup> Yet He filled their houses with good things, but the counsel of the wicked is far from me. <sup>19</sup> The righteous see it, and are glad. The innocent ridicule them, <sup>20</sup> saying, 'Surely those who rose up against us are cut off. The fire has consumed their remnant'. <sup>21</sup> Acquaint yourself with Him, now, and be at peace. Thereby good shall come to you. <sup>22</sup> Please receive instruction from His mouth, and lay up His words in your heart. <sup>23</sup> If you return to the Almighty, you shall be built up, if you put away unright-

22:6 You have taken pledges from your brother for nothing, and stripped the naked – This was absolutely not the case. But Eliphaz was so convinced that suffering comes as a result of sin that he concluded Job must have sinned and therefore imagined these things until he became convinced Job had done them. People who start imagining false things about others because of gut feelings about them end up genuinely believing those things are true. It all arises from an inability to accept we may be wrong in our worldview and therefore in our judgment of others.

22:13 You say, 'What does God know?' – The fact God sees and knows all things leads us to right behaviour. Eliphaz here is reasoning that because Job refused to accept that sin and suffering were related in his case, therefore this implied something about Job's view of God. We must be careful of extrapolating like this – if you believe X then you believe Y about God which means you think God is Z. Such false logic leads to a perilous path of reasoning which results in the breakdown of relationships, slander, misrepresentation and judgmentalism which in itself is so wrong before God. If Eliphaz had left judgment to God and focused instead upon practically helping Job, he wouldn't have slid into this path of false logic.

22:22 Please receive instruction from His mouth – Eliphaz is playing God here. What he means is, 'Please receive instruction from me'; he assumes too quickly that his views are God's. If we accept the Bible as God's word, then our own intuitions and life wisdom must be seen by us as just that – and not God's word. The very specific existence of God's word means quite simply that our word isn't His.

eousness far from your tents. <sup>24</sup> Lay your treasure in the dust, the gold of Ophir among the stones of the brooks. <sup>25</sup> The Almighty will be your treasure, and precious silver to you. <sup>26</sup> For then you will delight yourself in the Almighty, and shall lift up your face to God. <sup>27</sup> You shall make your prayer to Him, and He will hear you. You shall pay your vows. <sup>28</sup> You shall also decree a thing, and it shall be established to you. Light shall shine on your ways. <sup>29</sup> When they cast down, you shall say, ‘Be lifted up’. He will save the humble person. <sup>30</sup> He will even deliver him who is not innocent. Yes, he shall be delivered through the cleanness of your hands.

Job’s Response to Eliphaz

Then Job answered, <sup>2</sup> Even today my complaint is grievous. His hand is heavy in spite of my groaning. <sup>3</sup> Oh that I knew where I might find Him! That I might come even to His seat! <sup>4</sup> I would set my cause in order before Him, and fill my mouth with arguments. <sup>5</sup> I would know the words which He would answer me, and understand what He would tell me. <sup>6</sup> Would He contend with me in the greatness of His power? No, but He would listen to me. <sup>7</sup> There the upright might reason with Him, so I should be delivered forever from my judge. <sup>8</sup> If I go east, He is not there; if west, I can’t find Him; <sup>9</sup> He works to the north, but I can’t see Him. He turns south, but I can’t catch a glimpse of Him. <sup>10</sup> But He knows the way that I take. When He has tried me, I shall come forth like gold. <sup>11</sup> My foot has held fast to His steps. I have kept His way, and not turned aside. <sup>12</sup> I haven’t gone back from the commandment of His lips. I have treasured up the words of His mouth more than my necessary food. <sup>13</sup> But He stands alone, and who can oppose Him? What His soul desires, even that He does. <sup>14</sup> For He performs that which is appointed for me. Many such things are with Him. <sup>15</sup> Therefore I am terrified at His presence.

23:10 When He has tried me, I shall come forth like gold – The allusion may be to a refiner of gold who heats the gold until the dross is purged and becomes so pure that he sees his own face reflected in the molten gold. This is what the heat of trial is intended to achieve in our lives. Job perceived God and not any evil ‘satan’ being as responsible for his trials, and he realized even in his depression that they had a purpose – to bring forth God’s likeness in him.

23:12 The words of His mouth more than my necessary food – As eating is a regular necessity which we automatically find time for, so our feeding upon God’s word each day should likewise be regular and natural. In our generation, it ought to be that we can’t easily lay our head down each night unless we have read or heard His word some time during the day.

23:15 I am terrified at His presence – Job’s speeches are full of contradictions. He feels he is in God’s presence, right before His judgment seat; but at other times he feels he’s desperately searching for God and trying to get an audience, but God is being elusive (:8,9). These oscillations in perception of God are part of depression and

When I consider, I am afraid of Him. <sup>16</sup> For God has made my heart faint. The Almighty has terrified me. <sup>17</sup> Because I was not cut off before the darkness, neither did He cover my face with the thick darkness.

Job Continues His Response

Why aren't times laid up by the Almighty? Why don't those who know Him perceive His days? <sup>2</sup> There are people who remove the landmarks. They violently take away flocks, and feed them. <sup>3</sup> They drive away the donkey of the fatherless, and they take the widow's ox for a pledge. <sup>4</sup> They turn the needy out of the way. The poor of the earth all hide themselves. <sup>5</sup> Behold, as wild donkeys in the desert, they go forth to their work, seeking diligently for food. The wilderness yields them bread for their children. <sup>6</sup> They cut their provender in the field. They glean the vineyard of the wicked. <sup>7</sup> They lie all night naked without clothing, and have no covering in the cold. <sup>8</sup> They are wet with the showers of the mountains, and embrace the rock for lack of a shelter. <sup>9</sup> There are those who pluck the fatherless from the breast, and take a pledge of the poor, <sup>10</sup> so that they go around naked without clothing. Being hungry, they carry the sheaves. <sup>11</sup> They make oil within the walls of these men. They tread wine presses, and suffer thirst. <sup>12</sup> From out of the populous city, men groan. The soul of the wounded cries out, yet God doesn't regard the folly. <sup>13</sup> These are of those who rebel against the light. They don't know its ways, nor stay in its paths. <sup>14</sup> The murderer rises with the light. He kills the poor and needy. In the night he is like a thief. <sup>15</sup> The eye also of the adulterer waits for the

the bi-polar problems Job was obviously experiencing; hence he one moment eagerly looks ahead to the resurrection, at others he denies a resurrection can happen, or says he doesn't want to participate in it. Through it all, God loved and accepted him, so that at the end of the book He commends Job (42:7). In spiritual terms, we're all bi-polar. If we rejoice in God's gracious acceptance of us and His focus upon our better side, we urgently need to have this attitude to our brethren, whose weaker side is often right in our face.

24:1 Whilst God may work according to time periods, those periods aren't known by man. We don't know how long we nor anyone else shall live, nor the exact date of Christ's return. Any study of prophetic 'time periods' should bear this in mind; that God wishes us to live as it were in an eternal now, not pacing ourselves according to our expectations of time, but fully devoted to Him each moment.

24:2 Job in this chapter labours the point that the wicked prosper in this life, and yet because sin is significant to God, Job concluded that death is the punishment for their sin. This is stated explicitly in the New Testament (Rom. 6:23). We shouldn't miss the significance of death; it is in the end the answer as to why the wicked appear to prosper in this life. Again, by implication and inference, Job is driven towards hope in a resurrection from the dead and a recompense in this earth as the result of living righteously before God.

twilight, saying, ‘No eye shall see me’. He disguises his face. <sup>16</sup> In the dark they dig through houses. They shut themselves up in the daytime. They don’t know the light. <sup>17</sup> For the morning is to all of them like thick darkness, for they know the terrors of the thick darkness. <sup>18</sup> They are foam on the surface of the waters. Their portion is cursed in the earth. They don’t turn into the way of the vineyards. <sup>19</sup> Drought and heat consume the snow waters, so does Sheol those who have sinned. <sup>20</sup> The womb shall forget him. The worm shall feed sweetly on him. He shall be no more remembered. Unrighteousness shall be broken as a tree. <sup>21</sup> He devours the barren who don’t bear. He shows no kindness to the widow. <sup>22</sup> Yet God preserves the mighty by His power. He rises up who has no assurance of life. <sup>23</sup> God gives them security, and they rest in it. His eyes are on their ways. <sup>24</sup> They are exalted; yet a little while, and they are gone. Yes, they are brought low, they are taken out of the way as all others, and are cut off as the tops of the ears of grain. <sup>25</sup> If it isn’t so now, who will prove me a liar, and make my speech worth nothing?

Bildad’s Third Speech

Then Bildad the Shuhite answered, <sup>2</sup> Dominion and fear are with Him. He makes peace in His high places. <sup>3</sup> Can His armies be counted? On whom does His light not arise? <sup>4</sup> How then can man be just with God? Or how can he who is born of a woman be clean? <sup>5</sup> Behold, even the moon has no brightness, and the stars are not pure in His sight; <sup>6</sup> how much less man, who is a worm, the son of man, who is a worm!

Job’s Response to Bildad

Then Job answered, <sup>2</sup> How have you helped him who is without power! How have you saved the arm that has no strength! <sup>3</sup> How have you counselled him who has no wisdom, and plentifully declared sound knowledge! <sup>4</sup> To whom have you uttered words? Whose spirit came forth from you? <sup>5</sup> Those who are deceased tremble, those beneath the waters

25:4 The argument here presented is that because God is so great, man can never be right with Him. Job who had lived a good life and been declared as righteous by God must therefore have been driven to wonder how he could be right with God when he was a sinner, whilst also accepting God’s supreme moral height and the depth of human failure to be like Him. The answer he was surely driven to is that God would have to impute His very own righteousness to man. And this is what He does to those reckoned as “in” Christ. Again we see how the sufferings of Job’s life and his struggle to understand them led him by inference to the essence of the Christian Gospel, even if it wasn’t specifically revealed to him in so many words. For the Gospel of imputed righteousness in Christ had in essence been preached to Abraham (Rom. 4:9; Gal. 3:8). 26:6 Job is alluding to the myths about the supposed ‘satan’ figure Mot having the underworld open before him and pushing into it whoever he wishes. When he speaks of how “Sheol is naked before God, and Abaddon has no covering” he is saying that God and all that live in them. <sup>6</sup> Sheol is naked before God, and Abaddon has no covering. <sup>7</sup> He stretches out the north over empty space, and hangs the earth upon nothing. <sup>8</sup> He binds up the waters in His thick clouds, and the cloud is not burst under them. <sup>9</sup> He encloses the face of His throne, and spreads His cloud upon it. <sup>10</sup> He has defined a boundary on the surface of the waters, and to the confines of light and darkness. <sup>11</sup> The pillars of heaven tremble and are astonished at His rebuke. <sup>12</sup> He stirs up the sea with His power, and by His understanding He strikes through Rahab. <sup>13</sup> By His Spirit the heavens are garnished. His hand has pierced the swift serpent.

and not Mot has this power; and in that context speaks as if God is the real attacker, not, therefore, Mot or any other such being. Num. 16:31–35 likewise describes God as swallowing up Korah, Dathan and Abiram into death in the earth – as if to deconstruct the idea that Mot did things like this.

26:10 Job understands that it is God who sends the good and evil, the light and the darkness, into his life (30:26). Significantly, he states his faith that God even marks out the boundary between light and darkness – a similar idea in essence to the reassurance of Is. 45:5 that God creates both light and darkness. The ‘darkness’, however we experience and understand it, is framed and limited by God; it is not a power or being with independent existence outside the realm of God’s power. God confirms Job’s understanding later, when He says that it is He who can swaddle the sea [another figure for uncontrollable evil in pagan thought] in bands of darkness (38:9) – as if to say that it is God who gives things like darkness and the sea their sinister appearance and perception by men; but He is in control of them, using them in His hand. Job’s idea that God fixes limits for the darkness is repeated by God saying that He sets limits for the raging sea (38:10). God controls evil, or human perception of it (e.g. of the sea as being evil), and He sets limits for it – which was exactly what He did to the power of ‘Satan’ in the prologue to Job. All these statements by God about His use of and power over things like darkness and sea, which were perceived as being independent forces of evil, are quite different to Canaanite and Babylonian worldviews. In them, gods like Baal had to fight Yam, the evil sea god, with clubs provided by other deities; in the Babylonian version, Marduk has to arm himself with various weapons in order to try to get supremacy over Tiamat. But Yahweh as revealed in the book of Job has utter and absolute power over the sea [monster] and the [supposed god of] darkness – for He created the sea and the darkness and uses them creatively for His purpose. That’s the whole purpose of the many ‘nature passages’ in the book of Job.

26:11–14 Job understood God to be in control in Heaven; he rejects the idea of a cosmic conflict going on ‘up there’ which the friends seem to allude to. More specifically, Job speaks here of how God’s hand forms and can pierce the “crooked serpent” and smite any monster. It’s as if Job is mocking the idea that God has let him go into the hands of the cosmic monsters which the friends believed in. For Job so often stresses that it is the “hand of God” which has brought His affliction (19:21; 23:2). That Divine hand was far greater than any mythical ‘Satan’ figure. The theme of his speech in Job 28 is that Yahweh alone is to be feared throughout the entire cosmos. Nobody else – such as the ‘Satan’ figures alluded to by the friends – needed to be feared.

26:13 His Spirit... His hand – The Spirit of God isn’t a person nor any part of a sup-

<sup>14</sup> Behold, these are but the outskirts of His ways. How small a whisper do we hear of Him! But the thunder of His power who can understand?

Job's Parables Continue

Job again took up his parable and said, <sup>2</sup> As God lives, who has taken away my right, the Almighty, who has made my soul bitter. <sup>3</sup> For the length of my life is still in me, and the spirit of God is in my nostrils; <sup>4</sup> surely my lips shall not speak unrighteousness, neither shall my tongue utter deceit. <sup>5</sup> Far be it from me that I should justify you. Until I die I will not put away my integrity from me. <sup>6</sup> I hold fast to my righteousness, and will not let it go. My heart shall not reproach me so long as I live. <sup>7</sup> Let my enemy be as the wicked. Let him who rises up against me be as the unrighteous. <sup>8</sup> For what is the hope of the godless, when he is cut off, when God takes away his life? <sup>9</sup> Will God hear his cry when trouble comes on him? <sup>10</sup> Will he delight himself in the Almighty, and call on God at all times? <sup>11</sup> I will teach you about the hand of God. That which is with the Almighty will I not conceal. <sup>12</sup> Behold, all of you have seen it yourselves; why then have you become altogether vain? <sup>13</sup> This is the portion of a wicked man with God, the heritage of oppressors, which they receive from the Almighty. <sup>14</sup> If his children are multiplied, it is for the sword. His offspring shall not be satisfied with bread. <sup>15</sup> Those who remain of him shall be buried in death. His widows shall make no lamentation. <sup>16</sup> Though he heap up silver as the dust, and prepare clothing as the clay; <sup>17</sup> he may prepare it, but the just shall put it on, and the innocent shall divide the silver. <sup>18</sup> He builds his house as the moth, as a booth which the watchman makes.

posed 'Trinity' – a word which never occurs in the Bible. His Spirit is His 'hand', His power in practical operation.

26:14 How small a whisper do we hear of Him! – We must ever bear this in mind when speaking of 'the truth' and the need for correct Biblical interpretation. When in difference with other believers about Biblical interpretation, we must remember that we ourselves only know a fraction of God's truth. We mustn't assume that because we know the Gospel and have responded to it, therefore we know all the truth there is to know. We know just a whisper about the final fullness of God.

27:2-4 See on 10:9.

27:14 Job comments that if the children of the wicked "are multiplied, it is for the sword". Seeing his own children had been destroyed, Job presumably was accepting that he was among the "wicked", as he does elsewhere (e.g. 9:2). Hos. 9:13, 16 repeats such language regarding the punishment of sinful Israel: "Ephraim shall bring forth his children to the murderer". Dt. 28:41 has the same idea. Job was a symbol of the suffering servant, Israel, struggling in Babylon to come to terms with their sinfulness and the rightness of God's judgments against them (see on 3:23). On a personal level, Job is here moving closer to the final total acceptance of sinfulness and personal guilt which brings his sufferings to a close in chapter 42.

<sup>19</sup> He lies down rich, but he shall not do so again. He opens his eyes, and he is not. <sup>20</sup> Terrors overtake him like waters. A storm steals him away in the night. <sup>21</sup> The east wind carries him away, and he departs. It sweeps him out of his place. <sup>22</sup> For it hurls at him, and does not spare, as he flees away from his hand. <sup>23</sup> Men shall clap their hands at him, and shall hiss him out of his place.

Job's Parable about Wisdom

Surely there is a mine for silver, and a place for gold which they refine. <sup>2</sup> Iron is taken out of the earth, and copper is smelted out of the ore. <sup>3</sup> Man sets an end to darkness, and searches out, to the furthest bound of thick darkness, in order to find the stones of obscurity. <sup>4</sup> He breaks open a shaft away from where people live. They are forgotten by the foot walking above. They hang far from men, they swing back and forth. <sup>5</sup> As for the earth, out of it comes bread; underneath it is turned up as it were by fire. <sup>6</sup> Sapphires come from its rocks. It has dust of gold. <sup>7</sup> That path no bird of prey knows, neither has the falcon's eye seen it. <sup>8</sup> The proud animals have not trodden it, nor has the fierce lion passed by there. <sup>9</sup> He puts forth his hand on the flinty rock, and he overturns the mountains by the roots. <sup>10</sup> He cuts out channels among the rocks. His eye sees every precious thing. <sup>11</sup> He binds the streams that they don't trickle. The thing that is hidden he brings forth to light. <sup>12</sup> But where shall wisdom be found? Where is the place of understanding? <sup>13</sup> Man doesn't know its price; neither is it found in the land of the living. <sup>14</sup> The deep says, 'It isn't in me'. The sea says, 'It isn't with me'. <sup>15</sup> It can't be gotten for gold, neither shall silver be weighed for its price. <sup>16</sup> It can't be valued with the gold of Ophir, with the precious onyx, or the sapphire. <sup>17</sup> Gold and glass can't equal it, neither shall it be exchanged for jewels of fine gold. <sup>18</sup> No mention shall be made of coral or of crystal. Yes, the price of wisdom is above rubies. <sup>19</sup> The topaz of Ethiopia shall not equal it, neither shall it be valued with pure gold. <sup>20</sup> Where then does wisdom come from? Where is the place of understanding? <sup>21</sup> Seeing it is hidden from the eyes of all living, and kept close from the birds of the sky. <sup>22</sup> Destruction and Death say, 'We have heard a rumour of it with our ears'. <sup>23</sup> God understands its way, and He knows its place. <sup>24</sup> For He looks to the ends of the earth, and sees under the whole sky. <sup>25</sup> He establishes the force of the wind. Yes, He measures out the waters by measure. <sup>26</sup> When He made a decree for the rain, and a way for the lightning of the thunder; <sup>27</sup> then He saw it, and declared it. He established it, yes, and searched it out. <sup>28</sup> To man He said, 'Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom. To depart from evil is understanding'.

28:28 This verse is the crunch line of this chapter's lengthy description of how wisdom cannot be found in any specific location or hidden part of the planet. The very length of the preamble is only to build up to the colossal significance of this verse: that

CHAPTER 29 Dec. 22Job Describes His Earlier Life

Job again took up his parable and said, <sup>2</sup> Oh that I were as in the months of old, as in the days when God watched over me; <sup>3</sup> when His lamp shone on my head, and by His light I walked through darkness, <sup>4</sup> as I was in the ripeness of my days, when the friendship of God was in my tent, <sup>5</sup> when the Almighty was yet with me, and my children were around me, <sup>6</sup> when my steps were washed with butter, and the rock poured out streams of oil for me, <sup>7</sup> when I went forth to the city gate, when I prepared my seat in the street. <sup>8</sup> The young men saw me and hid themselves. The aged rose up and stood. <sup>9</sup> The princes refrained from talking, and laid their hand on their mouth. <sup>10</sup> The voice of the nobles was hushed, and their tongue stuck to the roof of their mouth. <sup>11</sup> For when the ear heard me, then it blessed me; and when the eye saw me, it commended me: <sup>12</sup> because I delivered the poor who cried, and the fatherless also, who had none to help him, <sup>13</sup> the blessing of him who was ready to perish came wisdom isn't located anywhere, it is experienced in the life of the person who fears God and departs from evil. Especially in the age of over information in which we live, the idea is strongly felt in us all that wisdom is a set of facts, theological propositions, pithy sayings, located with somebody, in the care of some group of people, in some book. But the point is that wisdom isn't theoretical nor abstract, but intensely practical. We would all far rather make an academic study of something 'spiritual' than in practice root out evil from our lives; in this lies the attraction of intellectualizing spirituality. But wisdom as defined here is in experience; hence Job realizes that before his sufferings, he had only heard of God in the ear, but through practical experience he had as it were seen Him (42:5).

29:12 I delivered the poor who cried – False allegation leads us to self defence, and Job seems to fall into the trap of being so self-defensive, listing his good works in such detail, that he forgets his own sinfulness. False accusation, refusal to accept false guilt, not being understood and being rejected by others mustn't lead us to forget our real and actual sins. In the bigger picture, God used the false accusations to try to make Job take a serious inward look at his life in order to try to bring him to total repentance for what he actually had done wrong. But it seems Job didn't respond, he got caught up on the level of answering the false accusations and didn't allow the process of self-examination to go any further as God intended.

29:13 Job's words of 30:1 certainly smack of arrogance: "Whose fathers I would have disdained to put with my sheep dogs". This would mean that his merciful acts to the poor were done in a 'charitable' spirit, thinking that such public acts declared him outwardly righteous; he thought that his charity towards the widow were thereby his righteousness, a clothing and diadem of glory and beauty. This has clear reference to the clothing of the Mosaic High Priest with his outward show of righteousness. God was trying to lead Job beyond this to a trust in the righteousness which God imputes and which isn't our own – see on 25:4. There are times when he realizes this, but the need he felt to clear himself before the friends led him to overlook it; it took God's final intervention to bring him to throw himself totally upon God's righteousness and not his own.

on me, and I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy. <sup>14</sup> I put on righteousness, and it clothed me. My justice was as a robe and a diadem. <sup>15</sup> I was eyes to the blind, and feet to the lame. <sup>16</sup> I was a father to the needy. The cause of him who I didn't know, I searched out. <sup>17</sup> I broke the jaws of the unrighteous, and plucked the prey out of his teeth. <sup>18</sup> Then I said, 'I shall die in my own house, I shall number my days as the sand. <sup>19</sup> My root is spread out to the waters. The dew lies all night on my branch. <sup>20</sup> My glory is fresh in me. My bow is renewed in my hand'. <sup>21</sup> Men listened to me, waited, and kept silence for my counsel. <sup>22</sup> After my words they didn't speak again. My speech fell on them. <sup>23</sup> They waited for me as for the rain. Their mouths drank as with the spring rain. <sup>24</sup> I smiled on them when they had no confidence. They didn't reject the light of my face. <sup>25</sup> I chose out their way, and sat as chief. I lived as a king in the army, as one who comforts the mourners.

Job Describes His Present Situation

But now those who are younger than I have me in derision, whose fathers I would have disdained to put with my sheep dogs. <sup>2</sup> Of what use is the strength of their hands to me, men in whom ripe age has perished? <sup>3</sup> They are gaunt from lack and famine. They gnaw the dry ground, in the gloom of waste and desolation. <sup>4</sup> They pluck salt herbs by the bushes. The roots of the broom are their food. <sup>5</sup> They are driven out from the midst of men. They cry after them as after a thief; <sup>6</sup> so that they dwell in frightful valleys, and in holes of the earth and of the rocks. <sup>7</sup> Among the bushes they bray; and under the nettles they are gathered together. <sup>8</sup> They are children of fools, yes, children of base men. They were flogged out of the land. <sup>9</sup> Now I have become their song. Yes, I am a byword to them. <sup>10</sup> They abhor me, they stand aloof from me, and don't hesitate to spit in my face. <sup>11</sup> For He has untied his cord, and afflicted me; and they have thrown off restraint before me. <sup>12</sup> On my right hand rise the rabble. They thrust aside my feet, they cast up against me their ways of destruction. <sup>13</sup> They mar my path, they set forward my calamity, without anyone's help. <sup>14</sup> As through a wide breach they come, in the midst of the ruin they roll themselves in. <sup>15</sup> Terrors have turned on me. They chase my honour as the wind. My welfare has passed away as a cloud. <sup>16</sup> Now my soul is poured out within me. Days of affliction have taken hold on me. <sup>17</sup> In the night season my bones are pierced in me, and the pains that gnaw me take no rest. <sup>18</sup> By great force is my garment disfigured. It binds me about as the collar of my coat. <sup>19</sup> He has cast me into

29:16 The cause of him who I didn't know, I searched out – Our goodness to others shouldn't be merely a positive response to their requests; rather should we like God think and plan how we can show grace to others, and therefore 'search out' their situations and how we could be kind and gracious to them.

the mire. I have become like dust and ashes. <sup>20</sup> I cry to You, and You do not answer me. I stand up, and You gaze at me. <sup>21</sup> You have turned to be cruel to me. With the might of Your hand You persecute me. <sup>22</sup> You lift me up to the wind, and drive me with it. You dissolve me in the storm. <sup>23</sup> For I know that You will bring me to death, to the house appointed for all living. <sup>24</sup> However, doesn't one stretch out a hand to stop a fall? Or in his calamity therefore cry for help? <sup>25</sup> Didn't I weep for him who was in trouble? Wasn't my soul grieved for the needy? <sup>26</sup> When I looked for good, then evil came; when I waited for light, there came darkness. <sup>27</sup> My heart is troubled, and doesn't rest. Days of affliction have come on me. <sup>28</sup> I go mourning without the sun. I stand up in the assembly, and cry for help. <sup>29</sup> I am a brother to jackals, and a companion to ostriches. <sup>30</sup> My skin grows black and peels from me. My bones are burned with heat. <sup>31</sup> Therefore my harp has turned to mourning, and my pipe into the voice of those who weep.

Job Clears Himself

I made a covenant with my eyes, how then should I look lustfully at a young woman? <sup>2</sup> For what is the portion from God above, and the heritage from the Almighty on high? <sup>3</sup> Is it not calamity to the unrighteous, and disaster to the workers of iniquity? <sup>4</sup> Doesn't He see my ways, and number all my steps? <sup>5</sup> If I have walked with falsehood, and my

30:19 I have become like dust and ashes – But we are by nature “dust and ashes”. Job came to realize his own humanity through his sufferings; God often teaches us those basic truths again and again because we like to see ourselves as more than we really are.

30:21 Job recognized that his trials came from the hand of God, but knew that His hand would not kill him (:24). This was exactly the brief given to ‘satan’ in the prologue – God put Job into Satan’s ‘hand’ in order to try Job, but commanded ‘satan’: “preserve his life”. Again we see that God was effectively the satan or adversary to Job. In similar vein God (in the Angel of the presence) “was turned to be (Israel’s) enemy” because of their sin (Is. 63:10). Job complains that God through the satan-Angel has “turned to be cruel to me”.

30:26 When I looked for good, then evil came; when I waited for light, there came darkness – Job is learning, slowly. He had previously thought that only good would come because of his righteousness. He even expected blessing from God; he believed as do many today who have swallowed the prosperity Gospel. But he learnt otherwise; and he learnt the truth which God tried to teach Judah in captivity, that good and evil, light and darkness, all come from God (Is. 45:5-7); see on 3:23.

31:4 Doesn't He see my ways, and number all my steps? – Job dismissed as monstrous the idea that he had committed adultery or even looked lustfully upon a woman – simply because God sees and knows all things. We cannot passively accept that fact; it will mean that sexual sin, which for the most part is committed in ‘secret’, cannot be a serious option for us because nothing in our lives is secret before God.

foot has hurried to deceit <sup>6</sup> (let me be weighed in an even balance, that God may know my integrity); <sup>7</sup> if my step has turned out of the way, if my heart walked after my eyes, if any defilement has stuck to my hands, <sup>8</sup> then let me sow, and let another eat. Yes, let the produce of my field be rooted out. <sup>9</sup> If my heart has been enticed by a woman, and I have laid wait at my neighbour's door, <sup>10</sup> then let my wife grind for another, and let others sleep with her. <sup>11</sup> For that would be a heinous crime. Yes, it would be an iniquity to be punished by the judges: <sup>12</sup> for it is a fire that consumes to destruction, and would root out all my increase. <sup>13</sup> If I have despised the cause of my male servant or of my female servant, when they contended with me; <sup>14</sup> what then shall I do when God rises up? When He visits, what shall I answer Him? <sup>15</sup> Didn't He who made me in the womb make him? Didn't One fashion us in the womb? <sup>16</sup> If I have withheld the poor from their desire, or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail, <sup>17</sup> or have eaten my morsel alone, and the fatherless has not eaten of it <sup>18</sup> (no, from my youth he grew up with me as with a father, her have I guided from my mother's womb); <sup>19</sup> if I have seen any perish for want of clothing, or that the needy had no covering; <sup>20</sup> if his heart hasn't blessed me, if he hasn't been warmed with my sheep's fleece; <sup>21</sup> if I have lifted up my hand against the fatherless, because I saw my help in the gate, <sup>22</sup> then let my shoulder fall from the shoulder blade, and my arm be broken from the bone. <sup>23</sup> For calamity from God is a terror to me. Because of His majesty, I can do nothing. <sup>24</sup> If I have made gold my hope, and have said to the fine gold, 'You are my confidence'; <sup>25</sup> if I have rejoiced because my wealth was great, and because my hand had gotten much; <sup>26</sup> if I have seen the sun when it shined, or the moon moving in splendour, <sup>27</sup> and my heart has been secretly enticed, and my hand threw a kiss from my mouth, <sup>28</sup> this also would be an iniquity to be punished by the judges; for I should have denied the God who is above. <sup>29</sup> If I have rejoiced at the destruction of him who hated me, or lifted up myself when evil found him; <sup>30</sup> (yes, I have not allowed my mouth to sin by asking his life with a curse); <sup>31</sup> if the men of my tent have not said, 'Who can find one who has not been filled with his meat?' <sup>32</sup> (the foreigner has not lodged in the street, but I have opened my doors to the traveller); <sup>33</sup> if like Adam I have covered my transgressions, by hiding my iniquity in my heart, <sup>34</sup> because I feared the great multitude, and the contempt

31:34 Because I feared the great multitude – It's so often the fear of losing face and image, the fear of the multitude, which stops us from confessing sin. But seeing that all will be open to all our brethren eternally, we should have no need to be hypocritical in this life. God glories to forgive us, so we should have the same openness and zeal in repentance.

of families terrified me, so that I kept silence, and didn't go out of the door—<sup>35</sup> oh that I had one to hear me! Behold, here is my signature, let the Almighty answer me; let the accuser write my indictment! <sup>36</sup> Surely I would carry it on my shoulder; and I would bind it to me as a crown. <sup>37</sup> I would declare to Him the number of my steps. As a prince would I go near to Him. <sup>38</sup> If my land cries out against me, and its furrows weep together; <sup>39</sup> if I have eaten its fruits without money, or have caused its owners to lose their life, <sup>40</sup> let briars grow instead of wheat, and stinkweed instead of barley. The words of Job are ended.

Elihu Is Introduced

So these three men ceased to answer Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes. <sup>2</sup> Then the wrath of Elihu the son of Barachel, the Buzite, of the family of Ram, was kindled against Job. His wrath was kindled because he justified himself rather than God. <sup>3</sup> Also his wrath was kindled against his three friends, because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Job. <sup>4</sup> Now Elihu had waited to speak to Job, because they were elder than he.

<sup>5</sup> When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, his wrath was kindled. <sup>6</sup> Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite answered, I am young, and you are very old; therefore I held back, and didn't dare show you my opinion. <sup>7</sup> I said, 'Days should speak, and multitude of years should teach wisdom'. <sup>8</sup> But there is a spirit in man, and the breath of the Almighty gives them understanding. <sup>9</sup> It is not the great who are wise, nor the aged who understand justice. <sup>10</sup> Therefore I said, 'Listen to me; I also will show my opinion'. <sup>11</sup> Behold, I waited for your words, and I listened for your reasoning, while you searched out what to say. <sup>12</sup> Yes, I gave you my full attention, but there was no one who convinced Job, or who answered his words, among you. <sup>13</sup> Beware lest you say, 'We have found wisdom, God may refute him, not man'; <sup>14</sup> for he has not directed his words against me; neither will I answer him with your speeches. <sup>15</sup> They were amazed. They answered no more. They didn't have a word to say. <sup>16</sup> Shall I wait, because they don't speak, because they stand still, and answer no more? <sup>17</sup> I also will answer my part, and I also will show my opinion. <sup>18</sup> For I am full of words. The spirit within me

31:38 If my land cries out against me – Job was sensitive to the natural creation, even to his land, in the way he farmed it.

32:18 It's unclear whether Elihu refers to his own spirit, or the fact that he was inspired to speak by God's Spirit, and therefore like Jeremiah (Jer. 6:11) was weary at trying not to speak forth the words he was inspired to speak. If we accept Elihu as speaking on God's behalf, as the mediator which Job so begged for, then we have to take a somewhat negative view of Job – in that Elihu is critical of Job and accuses him of arrogant self-righteousness. Note that in God's final summing up, the friends and constrains me. <sup>19</sup> Behold, my breast is as wine which has no vent; like new wineskins it is ready to burst. <sup>20</sup> I will speak, that I may be refreshed. I will open my lips and answer. <sup>21</sup> Please don't let me respect any man's person, neither will I give flattering titles to any man. <sup>22</sup> For I don't know how to give flattering titles; or else my Maker would soon take me away.

Elihu Criticizes Job

However, Job, please hear my speech, and listen to all my words. <sup>2</sup> See now, I have opened my mouth. My tongue has spoken in my mouth. <sup>3</sup> My words shall utter the uprightness of my heart. That which my lips know they shall speak sincerely. <sup>4</sup> The Spirit of God has made me, and the breath of the Almighty gives me life. <sup>5</sup> If you can, answer me. Set your words in order before me, and stand forth. <sup>6</sup> Behold, I am toward God even as you are. I am also formed out of the clay. <sup>7</sup> Behold, my terror shall not make you afraid, neither shall my pressure be heavy on you. <sup>8</sup> Surely you have spoken in my hearing, I have heard the voice of your words, saying, <sup>9</sup> 'I am clean, without disobedience. I am innocent, neither is there iniquity in me.' <sup>10</sup> Behold, He finds occasions against me. He counts me for His enemy. <sup>11</sup> He puts my feet in the stocks. He marks all my paths'. <sup>12</sup> Behold, I will answer you. In this you are not just, for God is greater than man. <sup>13</sup> Why do you strive against Him, because He doesn't give account of any of His matters? <sup>14</sup> For God speaks once, yes twice, though man pays no attention. <sup>15</sup> In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falls on men, in slumbering on the bed; <sup>16</sup> then He opens the ears of men, and seals their instruction, <sup>17</sup> that He may withdraw man from his purpose, and hide pride from man. <sup>18</sup> He keeps back his soul from the pit, and his life from perishing by the sword. <sup>19</sup> He is chastened also with pain on his bed, with continual strife in his bones; <sup>20</sup> so that his life hates bread, and his soul dainty food. <sup>21</sup> His flesh is so consumed away, that it can't be seen. His bones that were not seen stick out. <sup>22</sup> Yes, his soul draws near to the pit, and his life to the destroyers. <sup>23</sup> If there is beside him an angel, an interpreter, one among a thousand, to show to man what is right for him; <sup>24</sup> then God is gracious to him, and says, ‘Deliver him from going down to the pit, I have found a ransom’. <sup>25</sup> His flesh shall be fresher than a child’s. He returns to the days of his youth. <sup>26</sup> He prays to God, and He is gracious to him, so that he sees His face with joy. He restores to man his righteousness. <sup>27</sup> He sings before men, and says, ‘I have sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it didn’t profit me. <sup>28</sup> He has redeemed my soul from going into the pit. My life shall see the light’. <sup>29</sup> Behold, God works all these things, twice, yes three times, with a man, <sup>30</sup> to bring back his soul from the pit, that he may be enlightened with the light of the living. <sup>31</sup> Mark well, Job, and listen to me. Hold your peace, and I will speak. <sup>32</sup> If you have anything to say, answer me. Speak, for I desire to justify you.

Job are criticized, but He says nothing against Elihu. In this case, God's final commendation of Job in 42:7 would be strictly within the context of Job's repentance. However, whilst Elihu often speaks in harmony with God's direct words later in the book, he remains somewhat enigmatic; for his fierce criticism of Job, mixed with what appears to be youthful arrogance and dogmatism, is hard to fully square with God's opening and closing statement that Job was spotless in His sight. Perhaps God didn't want to have to personally intervene in revealing Job's sinfulness to him; He always seeks to work through people rather than by direct intervention. And so perhaps God sent this arrogant young man to Job as a final attempt to appeal to him.

33:13 All refusal to repent is a striving against God in that He is constantly working in our lives to bring us to repentance.

<sup>33</sup> If not, listen to me. Hold your peace, and I will teach you wisdom.

Elihu Criticizes the Friends

Moreover Elihu answered, <sup>2</sup> Hear my words, you wise men. Give ear to me, you who have knowledge. <sup>3</sup> For the ear tries words, as the palate tastes food. <sup>4</sup> Let us choose for us that which is right. Let us know among ourselves what is good. <sup>5</sup> For Job has said, ‘I am righteous, God has taken away my right: <sup>6</sup> notwithstanding my right I am considered a liar. My wound is incurable, though I am without disobedience’. <sup>7</sup> What man is like Job, who drinks scorn like water, <sup>8</sup> who goes in company with the workers of iniquity, and walks with wicked men? <sup>9</sup> For he has said, ‘It profits a man nothing that he should delight himself with God’. <sup>10</sup> Therefore listen to me, you men of understanding: far be it from God, that He should do wickedness, from the Almighty, that He should commit iniquity. <sup>11</sup> For the work of a man He will render to him, and cause every man to find according to his ways. <sup>12</sup> Yes surely, God will not do wickedly, neither will the Almighty pervert justice. <sup>13</sup> Who put Him in charge of the earth? Or who has appointed Him over the whole world? <sup>14</sup> If He set His heart on Himself, if He gathered to Himself His spirit and His breath, <sup>15</sup> all

33:27 Job’s decision to say “I have sinned... and it didn’t profit me” connects with the prodigal son (Lk. 15:21), thus again associating Job with the Jews in their suffering, repentance and final return to God from exile in the Gentile world; see on 3:23.

34:8 Goes in company with the workers of iniquity, and walks with wicked men – This wasn’t true of Job. Elihu may however be sarcastically referring to the three friends of Job as “wicked men”.

34:9 See on 21:7.

34:14 If He set His heart on Himself – If God were selfish, He wouldn’t have created nor maintain the world. We therefore see God’s unselfishness and outgiving grace every microsecond of our existence.

If He gathered to Himself His spirit and His breath – The Spirit of God is His breath, His power by which He sustains all creation. It isn’t a person, as the false doctrine of flesh would perish together, and man would turn again to dust. <sup>16</sup> If now you have understanding, hear this. Listen to the voice of my words. <sup>17</sup> Shall even one who hates justice govern? Will you condemn him who is righteous and mighty? <sup>18</sup> Who says to a king, ‘Vile!’ or to nobles, ‘Wicked!’? <sup>19</sup> Who doesn’t respect the persons of princes, nor respects the rich more than the poor; for they all are the work of His hands. <sup>20</sup> In a moment they die, even at midnight. The people are shaken and pass away. The mighty are taken away without a hand. <sup>21</sup> For His eyes are on the ways of a man. He sees all his goings. <sup>22</sup> There is no darkness, nor thick gloom, where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves. <sup>23</sup> For He doesn’t need to consider a man further, that he should go before God in judgment. <sup>24</sup> He breaks in pieces mighty men in ways past finding out, and sets others in their place. <sup>25</sup> Therefore He takes knowledge of their works. He overturns them in the night, so that they are destroyed. <sup>26</sup> He strikes them as wicked men in the open sight of others; <sup>27</sup> because they turned aside from following Him, and wouldn’t pay attention to any of His ways, <sup>28</sup> so that they caused the cry of the poor to come to Him. He heard the cry of the afflicted. <sup>29</sup> When He gives quietness, who then can condemn? When He hides His face, who then can see Him? Alike whether to a nation, or to a man, <sup>30</sup> that the Godless man may not reign, that there be no one to ensnare the people. <sup>31</sup> For has any said to God, ‘I am guilty, but I will not offend any more. <sup>32</sup> Teach me that which I don’t see. If I have done iniquity, I will do it no more’? <sup>33</sup> Shall His recompense be as you desire, that you refuse it? For you must choose, and not I. Therefore speak what you know. <sup>34</sup> Men of understanding will tell me, yes, every wise man who hears me: <sup>35</sup> ‘Job speaks without knowledge. His words are without wisdom’. <sup>36</sup> I wish that Job were tried to the end, because of his answering like wicked men. <sup>37</sup> For he adds rebellion to his sin. He claps his hands among us, and multiplies his words against God.

Elihu Appeals for Job to Repent

Moreover Elihu answered, <sup>2</sup> Do you think this to be your right, or do you say, ‘My righteousness is more than God’s’, <sup>3</sup> that you ask, ‘What advantage will it be to you? What profit shall I have, if I had not the Trinity supposes; although at times His Spirit, His power, can be personified as many abstract things are.

34:23 The day of judgment is therefore not in order for God to acquire knowledge or facts about us; He knows that already. The process of judgment day will be for our benefit. For if Christ came and we immediately entered the Kingdom without that necessary process, we would have so little appreciation of His grace nor of each other nor of ourselves. The purpose of judgment, even when it is received in part in this life as in Job’s case, is to teach us, rather than provide God with information.

sinned?’ <sup>4</sup> I will answer you, and your companions with you. <sup>5</sup> Look to the heavens, and see. See the skies, which are higher than you. <sup>6</sup> If you have sinned, what effect do you have against Him? If your transgressions are multiplied, what do you do to Him? <sup>7</sup> If you are righteous, what do you give Him? Or what does He receive from your hand? <sup>8</sup> Your wickedness may hurt a man as you are, and your righteousness may profit a son of man. <sup>9</sup> By reason of the multitude of oppressions they cry out. They cry for help by reason of the arm of the mighty. <sup>10</sup> But none says, ‘Where is God my Maker, who gives songs in the night, <sup>11</sup> who teaches us more than the animals of the earth, and makes us wiser than the birds of the sky?’ <sup>12</sup> There they cry, but none gives answer, because of the pride of evil men. <sup>13</sup> Surely God will not hear an empty cry, neither will the Almighty regard it. <sup>14</sup> How much less when you say you don’t see Him. The cause is before Him, and you wait for Him! <sup>15</sup> But now, because He has not visited in His anger, neither does He greatly regard arrogance- <sup>16</sup> therefore Job opens his mouth with empty talk, and he multiplies words without knowledge.

Elihu Speaks Up for God

Elihu also continued and said, <sup>2</sup> Bear with me a little, and I will show you; for I still have something to say on God’s behalf. <sup>3</sup> I will get my knowledge from afar, and will ascribe righteousness to my Maker. <sup>4</sup> For truly my words are not false. One who is perfect in knowledge is with you. <sup>5</sup> Behold, God is mighty, and doesn’t despise anyone. He is mighty in strength of understanding. <sup>6</sup> He doesn’t preserve the life of the wicked, but gives to the afflicted their right. <sup>7</sup> He doesn’t withdraw His eyes from the righteous, but with kings on the throne, He sets them forever, and they are exalted. <sup>8</sup> If they are bound in fetters, and are taken in the cords of afflictions, <sup>9</sup> then He shows them their work, and their transgressions, that they have behaved themselves proudly. <sup>10</sup> He also opens their ears to instruction, and commands that they return from iniquity. <sup>11</sup> If they listen and serve Him, they shall spend their days in prosperity, and their years in pleasures. <sup>12</sup> But if they don’t listen, they shall perish by the sword; they shall die without knowledge. <sup>13</sup> But those who are Godless in heart lay up anger. They don’t cry for help when He binds them. <sup>14</sup> They die in youth. Their life perishes among the unclean. <sup>15</sup> He delivers the afflicted by their affliction, and opens their ear in oppression. <sup>16</sup> Yes, He would have allured you out of distress, into a broad place, where there is no restriction. That which is set on your table would be full of fatness. <sup>17</sup> But you

36:15 He opens their ear in oppression – Our sensitivity to and understanding of God’s word is heightened during times of trial. Sadly we are such empirical learners that we have to suffer many things to make us open our ear to His word; and we needn’t suffer them if we accepted with full meaning the simple foundation truth that are full of the judgment of the wicked. Judgment and justice take hold of you. <sup>18</sup> Don't let riches entice you to wrath, neither let the great size of a bribe turn you aside. <sup>19</sup> Would your wealth sustain you in distress, or all the might of your strength? <sup>20</sup> Don't desire the night, when people are cut off in their place. <sup>21</sup> Take heed, don't regard iniquity; for you have chosen this rather than affliction. <sup>22</sup> Behold, God is exalted in His power. Who is a teacher like Him? <sup>23</sup> Who has prescribed His way for Him? Or who can say, 'You have committed unrighteousness?'. <sup>24</sup> Remember that you magnify His work, whereof men have sung. <sup>25</sup> All men have looked thereon. Man sees it afar off. <sup>26</sup> Behold, God is great, and we don't know Him. The number of His years is unsearchable. <sup>27</sup> For He draws up the drops of water, which distil in rain from His vapour, <sup>28</sup> which the skies pour down and which drop on man abundantly. <sup>29</sup> Yes, can any understand the spreading of the clouds, and the thunderings of His pavilion? <sup>30</sup> Behold, He spreads His light around Him. He covers the bottom of the sea. <sup>31</sup> For by these He judges the people. He gives food in abundance. <sup>32</sup> He covers His hands with the lightning, and commands it to strike the mark. <sup>33</sup> Its noise tells about Him, and the livestock also concerning the storm that comes up.

Elihu Speaks of God's Power

Yes, at this my heart trembles, and is moved out of its place. <sup>2</sup> Hear, oh, hear the noise of His voice, the sound that goes out of His mouth. <sup>3</sup> He sends it forth under the whole sky, and His lightning to the ends of the earth. <sup>4</sup> After it a voice roars. He thunders with the voice of His majesty. He doesn't hold back anything when His voice is heard. <sup>5</sup> God thunders marvellously with His voice. He does great things, which we can't comprehend. <sup>6</sup> For He says to the snow, 'Fall on the earth'; likewise to the Bible is indeed God's word speaking to us. The wonder of the very existence of God's inspired word ought to of itself make us open our ears in sensitivity to it. But because we fail to believe it as we ought to in practice, we are sent tribulation to make us sensitive to it.

36:30, 31 He covers the bottom of the sea. For by these He judges the people – The sea was seen by ancient peoples as the abode of 'satan' type gods of evil. God is showing that He is in full control of the sea, and any beings there which people might imagine would be in any case under His total control and not hidden from Him.

36:33 The storm that comes up – A thunderstorm was brewing as Elihu spoke. Lightning and thunderstorms were seen as the wrath of supposed gods of evil, who were similar to the 'satan' being many believe in today. The point of the thunderstorm was to demonstrate that it was God in control, it was from Him, and not from the 'satan' entities people generally believed in at that time. See on 37:2,15.

37:2 Hear the noise of His voice – See on 36:33. The crash of the thunder in the storm which came down upon them wasn't the voice of any radically independent god of evil, but God's voice.

the shower of rain, and to the showers of His mighty rain. <sup>7</sup> He seals up the hand of every man, that all men whom He has made may know it. <sup>8</sup> Then the animals take cover, and remain in their dens. <sup>9</sup> Out of its room comes the storm, and cold out of the north. <sup>10</sup> By the breath of God, ice is given, and the breadth of the waters is frozen. <sup>11</sup> Yes, He loads the thick cloud with moisture. He spreads abroad the cloud of His lightning. <sup>12</sup> It is turned around by His guidance, that they may do whatever He commands them on the surface of the habitable world, <sup>13</sup> whether it is for correction, or for His land, or for grace, that He causes it to come. <sup>14</sup> Listen to this, Job. Stand still, and consider the wondrous works of God. <sup>15</sup> Do you know how God controls them, and causes the lightning of His cloud to shine? <sup>16</sup> Do you know the workings of the clouds, the wondrous works of Him who is perfect in knowledge? <sup>17</sup> You whose clothing is warm, when the earth is still by reason of the south wind? <sup>18</sup> Can you, with Him, spread out the sky, which is strong as a cast metal mirror? <sup>19</sup> Teach us what we shall tell Him, for we can't make our case by reason of darkness. <sup>20</sup> Shall it be told Him that I would speak? Or should a man wish that he were swallowed up? <sup>21</sup> Now men don't see the light which is bright in the skies, but the wind passes, and clears them. <sup>22</sup> Out of the north comes golden splendour. With God is awesome majesty. <sup>23</sup> We can't reach the Almighty. He is exalted in power. In justice and great righteousness, He will not oppress. <sup>24</sup> Therefore men revere Him. He doesn't regard any who are wise of heart.

God Himself Speaks about His Creation

Then Yahweh answered Job out of the whirlwind, <sup>2</sup> Who is this who makes counsel dark by words without knowledge? <sup>3</sup> Brace yourself like a man, for I will question you, then you answer Me! <sup>4</sup> Where were you when I laid the foundations of the earth? Declare, if you have understanding. <sup>5</sup> Who determined its measures, if you know? Or who stretched the line on it? <sup>6</sup> Whereupon were its foundations fastened? Or who laid its cornerstone, <sup>7</sup> when the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of

37:7 He seals up the hand of every man, that all men whom He has made may know it – Our hand or power is often limited by God through weakness, illness, dysfunction of ourselves or others, so that we may know the strength of His hand and power.

37:15 Do you know how God controls them, and causes the lightning – See on 36:33; the natural creation isn't just ticking on clockwork, God is actively in control of it all. We are therefore never far from evidence of God's active, passionate awareness and power.

38:7 See on 9:32.

All the sons of God shouted for joy – Note that all the Angels are obedient to God and on His side as it were. Angels don't sin (Lk. 20:35,36 cp. Rom. 6:23).

God shouted for joy? <sup>8</sup> Or who shut up the sea with doors, when it broke forth from the womb, <sup>9</sup> when I made clouds its garment, and wrapped it in thick darkness, <sup>10</sup> marked out for it My bound, set bars and doors, <sup>11</sup> and said, ‘Here you may come, but no further. Here your proud waves shall be stayed?’. <sup>12</sup> Have you commanded the morning in your days, and caused the dawn to know its place; <sup>13</sup> that it might take hold of the ends of the earth, and shake the wicked out of it? <sup>14</sup> It is changed as clay under the seal, and stands forth as a garment. <sup>15</sup> From the wicked, their light is withheld. The high arm is broken. <sup>16</sup> Have you entered into the springs of the sea? Or have you walked in the recesses of the deep? <sup>17</sup> Have the gates of death been revealed to you? Or have you seen the gates of the shadow of death? <sup>18</sup> Have you comprehended the earth in its breadth? Declare, if you know it all. <sup>19</sup> What is the way to the dwelling of light? As for darkness, where is its place, <sup>20</sup> that you should take it to its bound, that you should discern the paths to its house? <sup>21</sup> Surely you know, for you were born then, and the number of your days is great! <sup>22</sup> Have you entered the treasures of the snow, or have you seen the treasures of the hail, <sup>23</sup> which I have reserved against the time of trouble, against the day

38:8-11 Who shut up the sea with doors, when it broke forth from the womb – The supposed sea gods of evil (see on 36:30,31) were under God’s control and limitation even if they existed, just as He specified and limited the power of ‘satan’ in the prologue. There are several allusions in Job to Babylonian legends concerning Marduk – indicating that the book may have been re-written in Babylon with allusion to these legends in order to deconstruct them. The Enuma Elish 4.139,140 speaks of how Marduk limited the waters of Tiamat, and set up a bar and watchmen so that the waters wouldn’t go further than he permitted. But this very language is applied to God here and in 7:12. One of the purposes of Job was to urge Judah that Yahweh was greater than Marduk, He and not Marduk was to be Israel’s God. The sea was understood to be the abode of evil monsters. Yet Job stresses how God is in control of the raging sea. Just look out for all the references to the sea in Job. God artlessly claims to have created the sea. In the Canaanite pantheon, Baal was seen as well matched in conflict by Yam, the sea god. But it’s emphasized by God that He created the sea, shuts it up within bounds, brought it out from the womb. In Canaanite myth, Aquhat [another ‘Satan’ figure in their theology] could alone “count the months” – but the same phrase is used in 39:2 about how God alone has this power. As God ‘shut up’ Job (1:10 Heb.), so He could ‘shut up’ the sea, with all the evil associated with it in peoples’ minds at the time (38:8). For at creation, He had commanded the waters where to go and they obeyed just one word from Him. God is using poetry to reframe these pagan myths in the context of His omnipotence, to show that His awesome power means that there’s no room left for these supposed beings to exist. Often the Bible speaks of the power of God over raging seas – for the sea was so deeply associated with evil in the minds of Semitic peoples (e.g. Ps. 77:19; 93:4 and the fact that three of the Gospels emphasize how Jesus walked over raging sea – Mt. 8:23-27; Mk. 4:36-41; Lk. 8:22-25).

of battle and war? <sup>24</sup> By what way is the lightning distributed, or the east wind scattered on the earth? <sup>25</sup> Who has cut a channel for the flood water, or the path for the thunderstorm; <sup>26</sup> to cause it to rain on a land where no man is; on the wilderness, in which there is no man; <sup>27</sup> to satisfy the waste and desolate ground, to cause the tender grass to spring forth? <sup>28</sup> Does the rain have a father? Or who fathers the drops of dew? <sup>29</sup> Out of whose womb came the ice? The gray frost of the sky, who has given birth to it? <sup>30</sup> The waters become hard like stone, when the surface of the deep is frozen. <sup>31</sup> Can you bind the cluster of the Pleiades, or loosen the cords of Orion? <sup>32</sup> Can you lead forth the constellations in their season? Or can you guide the Bear with her cubs? <sup>33</sup> Do you know the laws of the heavens? Can you establish its dominion over the earth? <sup>34</sup> Can you lift up your voice to the clouds, that abundance of waters may cover you? <sup>35</sup> Can you send forth lightnings, that they may go? Do they report to you, 'Here we are?'. <sup>36</sup> Who has put wisdom in the inward parts? Or who has given understanding to the mind? <sup>37</sup> Who can number the clouds by wisdom? Or who can pour out the bottles of the sky, <sup>38</sup> when the dust runs into a mass, and the clods of earth stick together?

God Speaks about the Animals

<sup>39</sup> Can you hunt the prey for the lioness, or satisfy the appetite of the young lions, <sup>40</sup> when they crouch in their dens, and lie in wait in the thicket? <sup>41</sup> Who provides for the raven his prey, when his young ones cry to God, and wander for lack of food?

CHAPTER 39 Dec. 29

Do you know the time when the mountain goats give birth? Do you watch when the doe bears fawns? <sup>2</sup> Can you number the months that they fulfil? Or do you know the time when they give birth? <sup>3</sup> They bow themselves, they bring forth their young, they end their labour pains. <sup>4</sup> Their young ones become strong. They grow up in the open field. They go forth, and don't return again. <sup>5</sup> Who has set the wild donkey free? Or who has loosened the bonds of the swift donkey, <sup>6</sup> whose home I have made the wilderness, and the salt land his dwelling place? <sup>7</sup> He scorns the tumult of the city, neither does he hear the shouting of the driver. <sup>8</sup> The range of the mountains is his pasture, he searches after every green thing. <sup>9</sup> Will the wild ox be content to serve you? Or will he stay by your feeding trough? <sup>10</sup> Can you hold the wild ox in the furrow with his harness? Or will he till the valleys after you? <sup>11</sup> Will you trust him, because his strength is great? Or will you leave to him your labour? <sup>12</sup> Will you confide in him, that he will bring home your seed, and gather the grain of your threshing floor? <sup>13</sup> The wings of the ostrich wave proudly; but are they the feathers and plumage of love? <sup>14</sup> For she leaves her eggs on the earth, warms them in the dust, <sup>15</sup> and forgets that the foot may crush them, or that the wild animal may trample them. <sup>16</sup> She deals harshly with her young ones, as if they were not hers. Though her labour is in vain, she is without fear, <sup>17</sup> because God has deprived her of wisdom, neither has He imparted to her understanding. <sup>18</sup> When she lifts up herself on high, she scorns the horse and his rider. <sup>19</sup> Have you given the horse might? Have you clothed his neck with a quivering mane? <sup>20</sup> Have you made him to leap as a locust? The glory of his snorting is awesome. <sup>21</sup> He paws in the valley, and rejoices in his strength. He goes out to meet the armed men. <sup>22</sup> He mocks at fear, and is not dismayed, neither does he turn back from the sword. <sup>23</sup> The quiver rattles against him, the flashing spear and the javelin. <sup>24</sup> He eats up the ground with fierceness and rage, neither does he stand still at the sound of the trumpet. <sup>25</sup> As often as the trumpet sounds he snorts, ‘Aha!’ He smells the battle afar off, the thunder of the captains, and the shouting. <sup>26</sup> Is it by your wisdom that the hawk soars, and stretches her wings toward the south? <sup>27</sup> Is it at your command that the eagle mounts up, and makes his nest on high? <sup>28</sup> On the cliff he dwells, and makes his home, on the point of the cliff, and the stronghold. <sup>29</sup> From there he spies out the prey.

His eyes see it afar off. <sup>30</sup> His young ones also suck up blood. Where the slain are, there he is.

CHAPTER 40 Dec. 30

Moreover Yahweh answered Job, <sup>2</sup> Shall he who argues contend with the Almighty? He who argues with God, let him answer it.

Job Admits He Cannot Answer

<sup>3</sup> Then Job answered Yahweh, <sup>4</sup> Behold, I am of small account. What shall I answer you? I lay my hand on my mouth. <sup>5</sup> I have spoken once, and I will not answer; Yes, twice, but I will proceed no further.

God Questions Job

<sup>6</sup> Then Yahweh answered Job out of the whirlwind, <sup>7</sup> Now brace yourself like a man. I will question you, and you will answer Me. <sup>8</sup> Will you even annul My judgment? Will you condemn Me, that you may be justified? <sup>9</sup> Or do you have an arm like God? Can you thunder with a voice like Him? <sup>10</sup> Now deck yourself with excellency and dignity. Array yourself with honour and majesty. <sup>11</sup> Pour out the fury of your anger. Look at each one who is proud, and bring him low. <sup>12</sup> Look at each one who is proud, and humble him. Crush the wicked in their place. <sup>13</sup> Hide them in the dust together. Bind their faces in the hidden place. <sup>14</sup> Then I will also admit to you that your own right hand can save you. <sup>15</sup> See now, Behemoth,

40:8 Will you condemn Me, that you may be justified? – God is as it were placed in the dock by our allegation that we have not sinned as He claims, and that our sufferings are unjustified. Paul plays on this idea throughout the legal language of Romans 1-8.

which I made as well as you. He eats grass like an ox. <sup>16</sup> Look now, his strength is in his thighs. His force is in the muscles of his belly. <sup>17</sup> He moves his tail like a cedar. The sinews of his thighs are knit together. <sup>18</sup> His bones are like tubes of brass. His limbs are like bars of iron. <sup>19</sup> He is the chief of the ways of God. He who made him gives him His sword. <sup>20</sup> Surely the mountains produce food for him, where all the animals of the field play. <sup>21</sup> He lies under the lotus trees, in the cover of the reed, and the marsh. <sup>22</sup> The lotuses cover him with their shade. The willows of the brook surround him. <sup>23</sup> Behold, if a river overflows, he doesn't tremble. He is confident, though the Jordan swells even to his mouth. <sup>24</sup> Shall any take him when he is on the watch, or pierce through his nose with a snare?

Leviathan

Can you draw out Leviathan with a fishhook, or press down his tongue with a cord? <sup>2</sup> Can you put

41:1 God almost jokes with Job, that he had been trying to draw out Leviathan with a fish hook; this is a commentary upon so many human attempts to get a handle on the way God is the adversary / satan figure in our lives. Shrugging it off as chance and bad luck, believing in a personal Satan in the sea or in Heaven, thinking God is punishing us... all this is trying to capture Leviathan with a mere fishing rod. The book of Job isn't an explanation for specific human suffering – and many who turn to the book looking for that come away disappointed. Rather is it an account of God's sovereign power, putting meaning into the word "All-mighty" when applied to God. On a 'doctrinal' level it is indeed a deconstruction of the ideas of supernatural 'Satan' figures. But on a more personal level, it challenges us to follow in Job's faithful footsteps, as it challenged Judah in captivity. The monster figures of Leviathan and Behemoth appear at the end of the book of Job, forming a kind of inclusio with the opening reference to Satan; and they are clearly part of God's final answer to Job's "case". Behe-mot can be understood as a reference to Mot, the Canaanite god of death; and Leviathan appears to be the Canaanite version of the orthodox 'Satan' figure, perhaps a reference to the 'Lotan' of the Ugaritic myths. In great detail, these figures are deconstructed. They are shown to be created beings – created by the one almighty God of the Old Testament, to be completely under His control to the point that He can even tease them, so enormously greater is His power than theirs. These Canaanite 'Satan' figures are thereby shown to have no significant existence; and they certainly don't exist as opposed to God. They are totally under His control. 'Evil' in a form independent of Him, in radical opposition to Him, simply isn't there. It is He who not only created Behemoth, but can effortlessly control him in accord with His purpose (40:15). That's the comfort of the message. Indeed the descriptions of the natural world which lead up to the Leviathan / Behemoth passages are there to underline this point; and it's interesting that those passages zoom in upon the cruelties and even brutalities within nature. Yet these are all of God's ultimate design and creation, and under His providential control. Job had earlier perceived this; for he responds to the friends' allusions to an evil 'Satan' figure as the source of his suffering by observing: "Ask the animals... the birds of the air... [they show that] the hand of the Lord [and not any supernatural 'Satan'] has done a rope into his nose, or pierce his jaw through with a hook? <sup>3</sup> Will he make many petitions to you, or will he speak soft words to you? <sup>4</sup> Will he make a covenant with you, that you should take him for a servant forever? <sup>5</sup> Will you play with him as with a bird? Or will you bind him for your girls? <sup>6</sup> Will traders barter for him? Will they part him among the merchants? <sup>7</sup> Can you fill his skin with barbed irons, or his head with fish spears? <sup>8</sup> Lay your hand on him. Remember the battle, and do so no more. <sup>9</sup> Behold, the hope of binding him is vain. Won't one be cast down even at the sight of him? <sup>10</sup> None is so fierce that he dare stir him up. Who then is he who can stand before Me? <sup>11</sup> Who has first given to this" (12:7-9). The same Hebrew words are used about God's binding and loosing of the stars [which were thought to control evil on earth] and His binding, loosing and opening of Leviathan's mouth (38:31 cp. 40:29). Whether or not Leviathan / a 'Satan' figure, or the bad stars, are for real... God is in utter control of them, and there is thus no conflict, no war in Heaven, no ultimate dualism at all in the cosmos. Which is just the message we would expect from a monotheistic Old Testament book. Israel's God is truly the Almighty. Just as Job is described as God's "servant" (1:8), so is Leviathan (40:28; 41:4). No evil power uncontrolled by God is at work in Job's life. We also need to give due weight to the fact that God speaks the Leviathan / Behemoth passages "out of the storm", which had been gathering since 37:2. This is significant because storms were seen as manifestations of evil powers. Yet here (and elsewhere in Scripture), the one true God speaks out of such storms, to demonstrate how far greater He is than any storm god; and showing by implication that such storm gods don't exist, and the 'evil' which supposedly came from them was in fact under His control. Much of the language used about Leviathan and Behemoth is also used about God's manifestation of Himself: Smoke from nostrils, flame from mouth (41:11,12) is said about God in Ps. 18:8; Strength before and dismay behind (Job 41:14) = Hab. 3:5; Strong ones and leaders cringe in fear (41:17 Heb.) = Ps. 18:7; Hab. 3:6; Deep sea stirred up (41:23,24 Heb.) = Ps. 18:5; terrible teeth = 16:9 about God; breath that carries men away = 15:30 about God; none his equal (41:33) = true about God. Leviathan is called the 'cruel one' (41:10) – and the very same word is used by Job about God in His afflicting of Job (30:21). Leviathan, the seemingly overbearing power of evil in the world, is in fact a manifestation of God to such an intense degree that effectively it 'is' God; God, ultimately, is the adversary / satan to Job. The epilogue and prologue to Job are evidently related. Job begins sitting in dust and ashes and ends repenting in dust and ashes (2:8; 42:4). The silence of the friends at the opening of the book is matched by the silence after God has finally spoken (40:4). Job intercedes for his children (1:5) and ends up interceding for his friends. Job begins with the description of being the Lord's servant; and the book concludes on the same note (42:7,8). The question of course is: 'So what's the equivalent of the 'Satan' figure in the epilogue?'. The omission is intended and obvious. Ultimately the answer is the essence of the whole book: the 'satan', the adversary, is none other than God Himself, in His love.

41:3 Will he speak soft words to you – The emphasis is on you. The animals speak softly to God; He is in dialogue with them. All around us, God is in active communication.

Me, that I should repay him? Everything under the heavens is Mine. <sup>12</sup> I will not keep silence concerning his limbs, nor his mighty strength, nor his goodly frame. <sup>13</sup> Who can strip off his outer garment? Who shall come within his jaws? <sup>14</sup> Who can open the doors of his face? Around his teeth is terror. <sup>15</sup> Strong scales are his pride, shut up together with a close seal. <sup>16</sup> One is so near to another, that no air can come between them. <sup>17</sup> They are joined one to another. They stick together, so that they can't be pulled apart. <sup>18</sup> His sneezing flashes out light. His eyes are like the eyelids of the morning. <sup>19</sup> Out of his mouth go burning torches. Sparks of fire leap forth. <sup>20</sup> Out of his nostrils a smoke goes, as of a boiling pot over a fire of reeds. <sup>21</sup> His breath kindles coals. A flame goes forth from his mouth. <sup>22</sup> There is strength in his neck. Terror dances before him. <sup>23</sup> The flakes of his flesh are joined together. They are firm on him. They can't be moved. <sup>24</sup> His heart is as firm as a stone, yes, firm as the lower millstone. <sup>25</sup> When he raises himself up, the mighty are afraid. They retreat before his thrashing. <sup>26</sup> If one attacks him with the sword, it can't prevail; nor the spear, the dart, nor the pointed shaft. <sup>27</sup> He counts iron as straw; and brass as rotten wood. <sup>28</sup> The arrow can't make him flee. Sling stones are like chaff to him. <sup>29</sup> Clubs are counted as stubble. He laughs at the rushing of the javelin. <sup>30</sup> His undersides are like sharp potsherds, leaving a trail in the mud like a threshing sled. <sup>31</sup> He makes the deep to boil like a pot. He makes the sea like a pot of ointment. <sup>32</sup> He makes a path shine after him. One would think the deep had white hair. <sup>33</sup> On earth there is not his equal, that is made without fear. <sup>34</sup> He sees everything that is high. He is king over all the sons of pride.

Job Repents

Then Job answered Yahweh, <sup>2</sup> I know that You can do all things, and that no purpose of Yours can be restrained. <sup>3</sup> You asked, 'Who is this who hides counsel without knowledge?' Therefore I have uttered that which I did not understand, things too wonderful for me, which I didn't know. <sup>4</sup> You said, 'Listen, now, and I will speak; I will question you, and you will answer Me'. <sup>5</sup> I had heard of You by the hearing of the ear, but now my eye sees You. <sup>6</sup> Therefore I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes.

42:2 Job came to realize the massive practical extent of what he had previously known in theory, what he had heard "by the hearing of the ear". Now his eye saw / perceived that truly no plan of God can be thwarted, by any of the various 'Satan' monsters imagined by men. We too may say that we believe in the omnipotence of God; but such a belief requires us to throw out all beliefs in supernatural satan figures. And that's not a merely intellectual exercise; to see the tragedies and cruelties of our lives as being ultimately from God and under His control is something which shakes us to the core.

42:5 My eye sees You – All the theory we may know about God must be transformed into personal relationship with God – and that is the purpose of the sufferings of our lives.

Job Is Restored

<sup>7</sup> It was so, that after Yahweh had spoken these words to Job, Yahweh said to Eliphaz the Temanite, My wrath is kindled against you, and against your two friends; for you have not spoken of Me the thing that is right, as My servant Job has. <sup>8</sup> Now therefore, take to yourselves seven bulls and seven rams, and go to My servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and My servant Job shall pray for you, for I will accept him, that I not deal with you according to your folly. For you have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as My servant Job has. <sup>9</sup> So Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did what Yahweh commanded them, and Yahweh accepted Job. <sup>10</sup> Yahweh turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends. Yahweh gave Job twice as much as he had before. <sup>11</sup> Then came there to him all his brothers, and all his sisters, and all those who had been of his acquaintance before, and ate bread with him in his house. They comforted him, and consoled him concerning all the evil that Yahweh had brought on him. Each one also gave him a piece of money, and each one a ring of gold. <sup>12</sup> So Yahweh blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning. He had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, one thousand yoke of oxen and a thousand female donkeys. <sup>13</sup> He had also seven sons and three daughters. <sup>14</sup> He called the name of the first, Jemimah; and the name of the second, Keziah; and the name of the third, Keren Happuch. <sup>15</sup> In all the land were no women found so beautiful as the daughters of Job. Their father gave them an inheritance among their brothers. <sup>16</sup> After this Job lived one hundred and forty years, and saw his sons, and his sons' sons, to four generations. <sup>17</sup> So Job died, being old and full of days.

42:7 Although Job did not speak wrongly about God (see too 2:10) and kept patiently speaking the word of God despite the mockery it brought from the friends (James 5:10,11), this does not mean that Job or all that he said was blameless. The friends are not reprimanded for speaking wrongly about Job, but about God. Thus there was probably a fair degree of truth in their accusations concerning Job's self righteousness. Elihu also severely rebukes him for this, and unlike the three friends he is not rebuked for anything in the final analysis by God in Job 42; not to mention the accusation of 'darkening counsel without knowledge' (38:2) by God Himself, backed up by four chapters of heavy reprimand of Job's reliance on human strength and wisdom. This led to Job retracting much of what he had said (40:4,5; 42:3-6). This clearly establishes that much of Job's reasoning was faulty, although what he spoke before God was correct. Therefore the final comment that God had spoken of God "the thing that is right" could refer to his final repentance. To repent is to admit that God is right; to refuse to repent is to effectively declare Him wrong. And all his wrong understanding and hard words about God were overlooked because of that.

42:15 Gave them an inheritance among their brothers – Job's understanding of the value and meaning of the human person meant that he valued his daughters as much as his sons, and gave them equal inheritances – unusual, surely, for those days.

THE PSALMS

BOOK I

Psalm 1 Jan. 1

1:5 The wicked shall not stand in the judgment – This may have a literal fulfilment at the day of judgment. We will all naturally fall before Jesus then (Rom. 14:11), but the righteous will be stood up (Lk. 21:36), perhaps by an Angel, in the same way as Daniel had a foretaste of the day of judgment and was stood on his feet and reassured of God's acceptance by an Angel (Dan. 10). Those who come to the judgment will be those who are responsible to God, who have known His ways; yet the wicked amongst them will be swept away like the chaff (:4), which is the judgment which will come upon the kingdoms of men, the Gentile world at large (Dan. 2:35,44). They will share the judgment of this world with which they chose to identify in this life of opportunity to serve God (1 Cor. 11:32).

2:2 His Anointed – The Greek word "Christ" means 'anointed'. This Psalm is quoted in the New Testament in various contexts – e.g. to the Roman and Jewish rulers trying to destroy Christ at His death (Acts 4:26); to the resurrection of Christ (2:7 = Acts 13:33; Heb. 1:5); to the opposition to Christ's people as they preached the Gospel (Acts 4:25) and to the situation soon after His return, when the rebellious nations will seek to overthrow Christ's rule (2:9 = Rev. 2:27). What this shows is that Old Testament scripture can have multiple interpretations, in the same way as different people at different times can find the same Scripture speaking personally to them; and as we can find a single Bible passage amazingly relevant to us in different contexts and various times of our lives.

you shall dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel. <sup>10</sup> Now therefore be wise, you kings; be instructed, you judges of the earth. <sup>11</sup> Serve Yahweh with respect and rejoice with trembling. <sup>12</sup> Give sincere homage to the Son, lest he be angry and you perish in the way, for His wrath will soon be kindled. Blessed are all those who take refuge in Him.

Psalm 3 Jan. 2

A Psalm by David, when he fled from Absalom his son.

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh, how my adversaries have increased! Many are those who rise up against me. <sup>2</sup> Many there are who say of my soul, There is no help for him in God! Selah. <sup>3</sup> But You, Yahweh, are a shield around me, my glory, and the one who lifts up my head. <sup>4</sup> I cry to Yahweh with my voice, and He answers me out of His holy hill. Selah. <sup>5</sup> I laid myself down and slept; I awoke, because Yahweh sustains me. <sup>6</sup> I will not be afraid of tens of thousands of people who have set themselves against me on every side. <sup>7</sup> Arise, Yahweh! Save me, my God! For You have struck all of my enemies on the cheek bone. You have broken the teeth of the wicked. <sup>8</sup> Salvation belongs to Yahweh. Your blessing be on Your people. Selah.

Psalm 4 Jan. 2

<sup>1</sup> Answer me when I call, God of my righteousness. Give me relief from my distress. Have mercy on me, and hear my prayer. <sup>2</sup> You sons of men, how long shall my glory be turned into dishonour? Will you love vanity, and go seeking after falsehood? Selah. <sup>3</sup> But know that Yahweh has set apart for Himself him who is Godly: Yahweh will hear when I call to Him. <sup>4</sup> Be angry, and don't sin. Search your own heart on your bed, and be still. Selah. <sup>5</sup> Offer the sacrifices of righteousness, put your trust in Yahweh. <sup>6</sup> Many say, Who will show us any good? Yahweh, let the light of Your face shine on us. <sup>7</sup> You have put gladness in my heart, more than when their grain and their new wine are increased. <sup>8</sup> In peace I will both lay myself down and sleep, for You, Yahweh alone, make me live in safety.

Psalm 5 Jan. 2

3:2 Selah – The Psalms were originally sung, and this appears to be a musical instruction requiring a pause. For readers, it effectively means 'Pause and meditate on this'.

4:4 Be angry, and don't sin – This verse [from the Septuagint] is applied to us by Paul in Eph. 4:26. He interprets it as meaning that anger is not in itself wrong, but because it can so easily lead us to sin, it is better to not go to sleep whilst angry. This kind of daily self-discipline is vital in the spiritual life; the Psalms often comment upon the importance of how we start and end each day.

in the morning You shall hear my voice; in the morning I will lay my requests before You, and will watch expectantly. <sup>4</sup> For You are not a God who has pleasure in wickedness, evil can't live with You. <sup>5</sup> The arrogant shall not stand in Your sight; you hate all workers of iniquity. <sup>6</sup> You will destroy those who speak lies; Yahweh abhors the bloodthirsty and deceitful man. <sup>7</sup> But as for me, in the abundance of Your grace I will come into Your house. I will bow toward Your holy temple in reverence of You. <sup>8</sup> Lead me, Yahweh, in Your righteousness because of my enemies. Make Your way straight before my face. <sup>9</sup> For there is no faithfulness in their mouth. Their heart is destruction. Their throat is an open tomb. They flatter with their tongue. <sup>10</sup> Hold them guilty, God. Let them fall by their own advice; thrust them out in the multitude of their transgressions, for they have rebelled against You. <sup>11</sup> But let all those who take refuge in You rejoice, let them always shout for joy, because You defend them. Let them also who love Your name be joyful in You. <sup>12</sup> For You will bless the righteous. Yahweh, You will surround him with favour as with a shield.

Psalm 6 Jan. 3

For the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments, upon the eight-stringed lyre. A Psalm by David.

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh, don't rebuke me in Your anger, neither discipline me in Your wrath. <sup>2</sup> Have mercy on me, Yahweh, for I am faint. Yahweh, heal me, for my bones are troubled. <sup>3</sup> My soul is also in great anguish. But You, Yahweh—how long? <sup>4</sup> Return, Yahweh. Deliver my soul, and save me for Your grace' sake. <sup>5</sup> For in death there is no memory of You. In Sheol, who shall give You thanks? <sup>6</sup> I am weary with my groaning; each night I flood my bed, I drench my couch with my tears. <sup>7</sup> My eye wastes away because of grief, it grows old because of all my adversaries. <sup>8</sup> Depart from me, all you workers of iniquity, for Yahweh has heard the voice of my weeping. <sup>9</sup> Yahweh has heard my supplication, Yahweh accepts my prayer. <sup>10</sup> May all my enemies be ashamed and dismayed. They shall turn back, they shall be disgraced suddenly.

5:4 Evil can't live with You – There are therefore no sinful beings in Heaven, contrary to the popular belief of many.

6:5 Even a righteous man like David didn't look forward to conscious survival of death. He wanted to keep on living in this life because he wanted to praise God; and this should be our motivation for asking God for health and victory against illness. If the righteous immediately praise God in Heaven after death, then David's words and reasoning here make no sense. Instead he looked forward to the Biblical hope of resurrection at Christ's return and the establishment of His Kingdom on earth. Note too that sheol, the Hebrew word translated "hell" in some Bibles, is clearly understood as referring to death or the grave. As righteous David expected to go there after death, it isn't the place where sinners go after death.

A meditation by David, which he sang to Yahweh, concerning the words of Cush the Benjamite.

1 Yahweh my God, I take refuge in You. Save me from all those who pursue me and deliver me, <sup>2</sup> lest they tear apart my soul like a lion, ripping it in pieces while there is none to deliver. <sup>3</sup> Yahweh, my God, if I have done this, if there is iniquity in my hands, <sup>4</sup> if I have rewarded evil to him who was at peace with me (yes, if I have delivered him who without cause was my adversary), <sup>5</sup> let the enemy pursue my soul, and overtake it; yes, let him tread my life down to the earth, and lay my glory in the dust. Selah. <sup>6</sup> Arise, Yahweh, in Your anger; lift up Yourself against the rage of my adversaries. Awake for me; You have commanded judgment. <sup>7</sup> Let the congregation of the peoples surround You. Rule over them on high. <sup>8</sup> Yahweh administers judgment to the peoples. Judge me, Yahweh, according to my righteousness, and to my integrity that is in me. <sup>9</sup> Oh let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end, but establish the righteous; their minds and hearts are searched by the righteous God. <sup>10</sup> My shield is with God, who saves the upright in heart. <sup>11</sup> God is a righteous judge, yes, a God who has indignation every day. <sup>12</sup> If a man doesn't relent, He will sharpen His sword; He has bent and strung His bow. <sup>13</sup> He has also Himself prepared the instruments of death, He makes ready His burning arrows. <sup>14</sup> Behold, he travails with iniquity. Yes, he has conceived mischief, and brought forth falsehood. <sup>15</sup> He has dug a hole, and has fallen into the pit which he made. <sup>16</sup> The trouble he causes shall return upon his own head, his violence shall come down on the crown of his own head. <sup>17</sup> I will give thanks to Yahweh according to His righteousness, and will sing praise to the name of Yahweh Most High.

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh, our Lord, how majestic is Your name in all the earth, You who has set Your glory above the heavens! <sup>2</sup> From the lips of babes and infants You have established strength, because of Your adversaries, that You might silence the enemy and the avenger. <sup>3</sup> When I consider Your heavens, the work of Your fingers, the moon and the stars, which You have ordained; <sup>4</sup> what is man,

7 Concerning the words of Cush – David's response to hurtful words and false accusation (:3) was to share his situation with God, rather than brood on the words.

7:4 Him who without cause was my adversary – A reference to Saul's senseless persecution of David.

7:8 Judge me, Yahweh – David didn't fear the day of judgment, but rather he eagerly looked forward to it, as we should. He was secure in his relationship with God, and so that day wasn't a day of terrible uncertainty ever before him – and neither need it be for us.

that You are mindful of him, and the son of man, that You care for him?

<sup>5</sup> For You have made him a little lower than the Angels, and crowned him with glory and honour. <sup>6</sup> You make him ruler over the works of Your hands. You have put all things under his feet: <sup>7</sup> all sheep and cattle, yes, and the animals of the field, <sup>8</sup> the birds of the sky, the fish of the sea, and whatever passes through the paths of the seas. <sup>9</sup> Yahweh our Lord, how majestic is Your name in all the earth!

For the Chief Musician. Set to The Death of the Son. A Psalm by David.

<sup>1</sup> I will give thanks to Yahweh with my whole heart. I will tell others of all Your marvellous works. <sup>2</sup> I will be glad and rejoice in You, I will sing praise to Your name, O Most High. <sup>3</sup> When my enemies turn back, they stumble and perish in Your presence. <sup>4</sup> For You have maintained my just cause. You sit on the throne judging righteously. <sup>5</sup> You have rebuked the nations, You have destroyed the wicked, You have blotted out their name forever and ever. <sup>6</sup> The enemy is overtaken by endless ruin. The very memory of the cities which You have overthrown has perished. <sup>7</sup> But Yahweh reigns forever, He has prepared His throne for judgment. <sup>8</sup> He will judge the world in righteousness, He will administer judgment to the peoples in uprightness. <sup>9</sup> Yahweh will also be a high tower for the oppressed; a high tower in times of trouble. <sup>10</sup> Those who know Your name will put their trust in You, for You, Yahweh, have not forsaken those who seek You. <sup>11</sup> Sing praises to Yahweh who dwells in Zion, and declare among the people what He has done. <sup>12</sup> For He who avenges blood remembers them. He doesn't forget the cry of the afflicted. <sup>13</sup> Have mercy on me, Yahweh. See my affliction by those who hate me, and lift me up from the gates of death; <sup>14</sup> that I may show forth all Your praise. In the gates of the daughter of Zion I will rejoice in Your salvation. <sup>15</sup> The nations have sunk down in the pit that they made. In the net which they hid, their own foot is taken. <sup>16</sup> Yahweh has made Himself known; He has executed judgment. The

8:4 This verse is applied to Jesus as the "son of man" in Heb. 2:6-9 in order to prove that He was of human nature and was not an Angel, as some thought and still think.

8:5 The Angels – This translates the Hebrew word elohim, which is usually translated "God". This word can therefore be applied to those who manifest God, although they aren't God Himself. This is why Angels, men and God's Son, Jesus, can be called "God" without them being God Himself in person.

9:4 God's judgment is ongoing; it's not that God is somehow passive and not paying attention now and will only open the books and consider everything when Christ returns. He is passionately involved in our issues and judges them as they happen.

9:8 He will judge the world in righteousness – Quoted in Acts 17:31 about how God will judge the world through Jesus when He returns to earth.

9:16 Yahweh has made Himself known; He has executed judgment – In observing how wicked is snared by the work of his own hands. Meditation. Selah. <sup>17</sup> The wicked shall be turned back to Sheol, even all the nations that forget God. <sup>18</sup> For the needy shall not always be forgotten, nor the hope of the poor perish forever. <sup>19</sup> Arise, Yahweh! Don't let man prevail. Let the nations be judged in Your sight. <sup>20</sup> Put them in fear, Yahweh, and let the nations know that they are only men. Selah.

at them. <sup>6</sup> He says in his heart, I shall not be shaken. For generations I shall have no trouble. <sup>7</sup> His mouth is full of cursing, deceit, and oppression; beneath his tongue is mischief and iniquity. <sup>8</sup> He lies in wait near the villages. From ambushes, he murders the innocent, his eyes are secretly set against the helpless. <sup>9</sup> He lurks in secret as a lion in his ambush. He lies in wait to catch the helpless. He catches the helpless, when he draws him in his net. <sup>10</sup> The helpless are crushed. They collapse. They fall under his strength. <sup>11</sup> He says in his heart, God has forgotten. He hides His face. He will never see it. <sup>12</sup> Arise, Yahweh! God, lift up Your hand! Don't forget the helpless. <sup>13</sup> Why does the wicked person condemn God and say in his heart, God won't call me into account? <sup>14</sup> But You do see trouble and grief. You consider it to take it into Your hand to deal with. You help the victim and the fatherless. <sup>15</sup> Break the arm of the wicked, as for the evil man, seek out

God has judged people and nations, we come to know Him better (see too :20). This is why the final judgment of individuals will be in a sense public; the whole purpose of the judgment seat will be for our collective as well as individual benefit, to teach us of the essence of God and prepare us to enter eternity. If we simply entered eternity at Christ's return without this educational process of participating in and observing the judgment process, we would simply not appreciate His grace as we should.

10:3 Condemns Yahweh – Not consciously, in so many words. But when we face God's principles and decide whether or not we will live by them or believe them, we effectively place God in the dock, and by doing so the wicked condemn Him. But when He is condemned by human judgment, God overcomes at the last (Rom. 3:4).

10:4 Pride is a sin because it pushes God out of our consciousness, replacing Him with self.

10:7,8 These verses are clearly about the “wicked” who rebel against God; and yet before we shake our heads too disapprovingly, remember that they are quoted about us all in Rom. 3:14. For at some times and in some ways, we are all this wicked – if we examine ourselves properly.

his wickedness until You find none. <sup>16</sup> Yahweh is King forever and ever! The nations will perish out of His land. <sup>17</sup> Yahweh, You have heard the desire of the humble. You will prepare their heart. You will cause Your ear to hear, <sup>18</sup> to judge the fatherless and the oppressed, that man who is of the dust may terrify no more.

For the Chief Musician. By David.

<sup>1</sup> In Yahweh I take refuge. How can you say to my soul, Flee as a bird to Your mountain! <sup>2</sup> For, behold, the wicked bend their bows and set their arrows on the strings, that they may shoot in darkness at the upright in heart. <sup>3</sup> If the foundations are destroyed, what can the righteous do? <sup>4</sup> Yahweh is in His holy temple. Yahweh is on His throne in heaven. His eyes observe, His eyes examine the children of men. <sup>5</sup> Yahweh examines the righteous, but the wicked and him who loves violence His soul hates. <sup>6</sup> On the wicked He will rain blazing coals; fire, sulphur, and scorching wind shall be the portion of their cup. <sup>7</sup> For Yahweh is righteous, He loves righteousness. The upright shall see His face.

10:18 Man who is of the dust – One basic outcome of believing in man's mortality and origin from "dust" is that we won't fear people.

11:4 We are invited to see God enthroned in a Heavenly court which is sitting 24/7, judging multiple cases at once as they occur worldwide.

11:7 Shall see His face – This in a literal sense was the ultimate hope of David (17:5), Job (Job 19:27) and all the faithful (Rev. 22:4); for God exists in a personal, corporeal form, in whose image we are made.

12:3 This verse is alluded to us in James 3:5, which speaks of the tongue being such a small part of the body and yet boasting great things, having spiritual effect far out of proportion to its size; James 1:8 and 4:8 also use the idea of double mindedness being reflected in our words. Note how the tongue is here put for the person – for God will cut off wicked speaking persons, rather than excise tongues from mouths. Our words really are to be identified with us; we needn't think that we can get away with being one person within and yet projecting a quite different image through carefully calculated words.

<sup>8</sup> The wicked walk on every side, when what is vile is exalted among the sons of men.

Psalm 13 Jan. 5

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

<sup>1</sup> How long, Yahweh? Will You forget me forever? How long will You hide Your face from me? <sup>2</sup> How long shall I take counsel in my soul, having sorrow in my heart every day? How long shall my enemy triumph over me? <sup>3</sup> Look, and answer me, Yahweh my God. Give light to my eyes, lest I sleep in death; <sup>4</sup> lest my enemy say, I have prevailed against him; lest my adversaries rejoice when I fall. <sup>5</sup> But I trust in Your grace. My heart rejoices in Your salvation. <sup>6</sup> I will sing to Yahweh, because He has been good to me.

<sup>1</sup> The fool has said in his heart, There is no God. They are corrupt. They have done abominable works. There is none who does good. <sup>2</sup> Yahweh looked down from heaven on the children of men, to see if there were any who understood, who sought after God. <sup>3</sup> They have all gone aside. They have together become corrupt. There is none who does good, no, not one. <sup>4</sup> Have all the workers of iniquity no knowledge, who eat up my people as they eat bread, and don't call on Yahweh? <sup>5</sup> There they were in great fear because God is in the generation of the righteous. <sup>6</sup> You frustrate the plan of the poor, because Yahweh is his refuge. <sup>7</sup> Oh that the salvation of Israel would come out of Zion! When Yahweh restores the fortunes of His people, then Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

13:2, 6 David could have sorrow in his heart and yet rejoice in his heart because he knew that God was listening to his prayers and would one day answer. This is the almost schizophrenic experience of all believers.

14:1 Atheism was almost unheard of in early Israel. Yet the fool who quietly within his heart thinks as if there is no God is effectively as atheistic as the most hardened scientific atheist of our times.

There is none who does good – This is the result of atheism. And yet, frighteningly for those of us who would insist we are not atheists, this is quoted about each of us in Rom. 3:12. We are all atheists at times, in practice, and must throw ourselves upon God's grace to save us.

15:4 He who keeps an oath even when it hurts, and doesn't change – This is very much the language the Bible often uses about how God keeps His covenant promises hurts, and doesn't change; <sup>5</sup> he who doesn't lend out his money for usury, nor take a bribe against the innocent. He who does these things shall never be shaken.

Psalm 16 Jan. 6

A Poem by David.

<sup>1</sup> Preserve me, God, for in You do I take refuge. <sup>2</sup> My soul, you have said to Yahweh, You are my Lord. Apart from You I have no good thing. <sup>3</sup> As for the saints who are in the earth, they are the excellent ones in whom is all my delight. <sup>4</sup> Their sorrows shall be multiplied who give gifts to another god. Their drink offerings of blood I will not offer, nor take their names on my lips. <sup>5</sup> Yahweh assigned my portion and my cup, you made my inheritance secure. <sup>6</sup> The lines have fallen to me in pleasant places; truly I have a good inheritance. <sup>7</sup> I will bless Yahweh, who has given me counsel. Yes, my heart instructs me in the night seasons. <sup>8</sup> I have set Yahweh always before me; because He is at my right hand, I shall not be moved. <sup>9</sup> Therefore my heart is glad, and my tongue rejoices. My body shall also lay to rest in hope. <sup>10</sup> For You will not leave my soul in Sheol, neither will You allow Your holy one to see corruption. <sup>11</sup> You will show me the path of life. In Your presence is fullness of joy, in Your right hand there are pleasures forevermore.

A Prayer by David.

<sup>1</sup> Hear, Yahweh, my righteous plea; give ear to my prayer, that doesn't go out of deceitful lips. <sup>2</sup> Let my sentence come forth from Your presence, let Your eyes look on integrity. <sup>3</sup> You have proved my heart. You have visited me in the night. You have tried me, and found nothing. I have resolved that my mouth shall not disobey. <sup>4</sup> As for the works of men, of grace to us. When we are tempted to go back on our word, we must remember how God doesn't do that to us.

16:3 They are the excellent ones in whom is all my delight – David often speaks of how he loves others who also love God, and he speaks of them in terms of great respect (15:4). We likewise should find ourselves naturally attracted to other believers, and should always be respectful towards them because of the fact they are loved by God. We cannot believe and keep ourselves in isolation from them, physically or mentally.

16:8-11 These verses are quoted about the resurrection and ascension of Jesus, of whom David was a type (Acts 2:27). Jesus is now at God's right hand offering our prayers to God (Rom. 8:34); and yet this is described here as His eternal pleasure (:11). Jesus takes great joy in offering our prayers to God, and this alone should inspire our prayer life.

17:2 We are invited to see our coming before God's throne in prayer as a foretaste of the judgment day, when we shall in reality come before His throne. The positive answer to our prayers now – the sentence going forth from the court of Heaven in response to God having as it were judged them – is therefore an encouragement of our final acceptance in that day.

by the word of Your lips I have kept myself from the ways of the violent.

<sup>5</sup> My steps have held fast to Your paths, my feet have not slipped. <sup>6</sup> I have called on You, for You will answer me, God. Turn Your ear to me, hear my words. <sup>7</sup> Show Your marvelous grace, You who save those who take refuge under Your right hand from their enemies. <sup>8</sup> Keep me as the apple of Your eye, hide me under the shadow of Your wings, <sup>9</sup> from the wicked who oppress me, my deadly enemies, who surround me. <sup>10</sup> They close up their callous hearts. With their mouth they speak proudly. <sup>11</sup> They have now surrounded us in our steps, they set their eyes to cast us down to the earth. <sup>12</sup> He is like a lion that is greedy of his prey, as it were a young lion lurking in secret places. <sup>13</sup> Arise, Yahweh, confront him. Cast him down. Deliver my soul from the wicked by Your sword; <sup>14</sup> from men by Your hand, Yahweh, from men of the world, whose portion is in this life. You fill the belly of Your cherished ones. Your sons have plenty, and they store up wealth for their children. <sup>15</sup> As for me, I shall see Your face in righteousness. I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with seeing Your form.

Psalm 18 Jan. 8

For the Chief Musician. By David the servant of Yahweh, who spoke to Yahweh the words of this song in the day that Yahweh delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul. He said,

<sup>1</sup> I love You, Yahweh, my strength. <sup>2</sup> Yahweh is my rock, my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, my rock, in whom I take refuge; my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower. <sup>3</sup> I call on Yahweh, who is worthy to be praised; and I am saved from my enemies. <sup>4</sup> The cords of death surrounded me, the floods of ungodliness made me afraid. <sup>5</sup> The cords of Sheol were around me, the snares of death came on me. <sup>6</sup> In my distress I called on Yahweh, and cried to my God. He heard my voice out of His temple; my cry before Him came into His ears. <sup>7</sup> Then the earth shook and trembled, the foundations also of the mountains quaked and were shaken, because

17:4 The word of Your lips I have kept myself – Constant reflection upon God’s word is the way to victory against temptation, as Jesus showed by continually quoting from Scripture during His wilderness temptations (Ps. 119:11).

17:8 The apple of Your eye – God is simply so sensitive to us.

Hide me under the shadow of Your wings – Alluding to the wings of the cherubim covering the ark, where the blood of atonement (representing Christ’s blood) was sprinkled. David saw himself as living in the most holy presence of God wherever he was.

17:15 Seeing Your form – Another indication God exists in a literal tangible form, and we shall see Him.

18:5 ‘Sheol’ is the Hebrew word translated “hell” in some Bibles; it is paralleled here with “death” (:4, “the cords of death” are “the cords of Sheol”) and is elsewhere translated “the grave”. It’s not a place where the wicked go for eternal torment; David was a righteous man, and he too went to the grave, or sheol.

He was angry. <sup>8</sup> Smoke went out of His nostrils, consuming fire came out of His mouth; coals were kindled by it. <sup>9</sup> He bowed the heavens also, and came down, thick darkness was under His feet. <sup>10</sup> He rode on a cherub, and flew. Yes, He soared on the wings of the wind. <sup>11</sup> He made darkness His hiding place, His pavilion around Him, darkness of waters, thick clouds of the skies. <sup>12</sup> At the brightness before Him His thick clouds passed, hailstones and coals of fire. <sup>13</sup> Yahweh also thundered in the sky, the Most High uttered His voice: hailstones and coals of fire. <sup>14</sup> He sent out His arrows, and scattered them; yes, great lightning bolts, and defeated them. <sup>15</sup> Then the channels of waters appeared, the foundations of the world were laid bare at Your rebuke, Yahweh, at the blast of the breath of Your nostrils. <sup>16</sup> He sent from on high. He took me, He drew me out of many waters. <sup>17</sup> He delivered me from my strong enemy, from those who hated me; for they were too mighty for me. <sup>18</sup> They came on me in the day of my calamity, but Yahweh was my support.

<sup>19</sup> He brought me forth also into a large place. He delivered me, because He delighted in me. <sup>20</sup> Yahweh has judged me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands has He recompensed me. <sup>21</sup> For I have kept the ways of Yahweh, and have not wickedly departed from my God. <sup>22</sup> For all His ordinances were before me, I didn't put away His statutes from me. <sup>23</sup> I was also blameless with Him, I kept myself from my iniquity. <sup>24</sup> Therefore Yahweh has rewarded me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in His eyesight. <sup>25</sup> With the merciful You will show Yourself merciful. With the perfect man, You will show Yourself perfect. <sup>26</sup> With the pure, You will show Yourself pure; with the crooked You will show Yourself shrewd. <sup>27</sup> For You will save the afflicted people, but the proud eyes You will bring down. <sup>28</sup> For You will light my lamp, Yahweh. My God will light up my darkness. <sup>29</sup> For by You I advance through a troop. By my God, I leap over a wall. <sup>30</sup> As for God, His way is perfect. The word

18:16 He drew me out of many waters – This is an allusion to the name 'Moses' which means just this (Ex. 2:10); :19 alludes to how Israel were brought out of Egypt to the large place of Canaan, and there are many other Moses / Exodus allusions in this Psalm. We like David are to see similarities between our lives and those of Bible characters, taking them as our warnings, inspiration and friends, as David evidently understood Moses. And of course we will one day eternally be united with our heroes and encouragers in faith.

18:22-24 David speaks like this of his own righteousness, although this Psalm was written in later life, after his sin with Bathsheba (:1 = 2 Sam. 22:1). He can only speak like this because he had learnt the lesson that God's righteousness really is imputed to us who are sinners; and he rejoices in this reality, believing it to the point that he really felt it and his self-perception reflected it.

18:30 The word of Yahweh is tried in the furnace – The experiences of our lives are of Yahweh is tried in the furnace. He is a shield to all those who take refuge in Him. <sup>31</sup> For who is God, except Yahweh? Who is a rock besides our God, <sup>32</sup> the God who arms me with strength, and makes my way perfect? <sup>33</sup> He makes my feet like deer's feet, and sets me on my high places. <sup>34</sup> He teaches my hands to war, so that my arms bend a bow of bronze. <sup>35</sup> You have also given me the shield of Your salvation. Your right hand sustains me. Your gentleness has made me great. <sup>36</sup> You have enlarged my steps under me, My feet have not slipped. <sup>37</sup> I will pursue my enemies, and overtake them. Neither will I turn again until they are consumed. <sup>38</sup> I will strike them through, so that they will not be able to rise. They shall fall under my feet. <sup>39</sup> For You have armed me with strength to the battle, You have subdued under me those who rose up against me. <sup>40</sup> You have also made my enemies turn their backs to me, that I might cut off those who hate me. <sup>41</sup> They cried, but there was none to save;

even to Yahweh, but He didn't answer them. <sup>42</sup> Then I beat them small as the dust before the wind. I cast them out as the mire of the streets. <sup>43</sup> You have delivered me from the strivings of the people, You have made me the head of the nations. A people whom I have not known shall serve me. <sup>44</sup> As soon as they hear of me they shall obey me; the foreigners shall submit themselves to me. <sup>45</sup> The foreigners shall fade away, and shall come trembling out of their close places. <sup>46</sup> Yahweh lives; and blessed be my rock. Exalted be the God of my salvation, <sup>47</sup> even the God who executes vengeance for me, and subdues peoples under me. <sup>48</sup> He rescues me from my enemies. Yes, You lift me up above those who rise up against me. You deliver me from the violent man. <sup>49</sup> Therefore I will give thanks to You, Yahweh, among the nations, and will sing praises to Your name. <sup>50</sup> He gives great deliverance to His king, and shows grace to His anointed, to David and to his seed, forevermore.

like the intense fire of a furnace, and God's word like gold comes through those tests; it is proved not only true but wonderful and beautiful, time and again.

18:43 You have made me the head of the nations – But David speaks in :44 as if this had not yet happened. He imagined the things he prayed for as having already happened, just as Jesus taught we should too (Mt. 21:22 Gk.). God speaks of those things which don't exist as if they do, so certain are they of coming to pass (Rom. 4:17), and we are asked to have this same perspective when it comes to prayer.

18:49 I will give thanks to You, Yahweh, among the nations – God's intention was that Israel should be a missionary nation, the light of the Gentile world. But generally they failed to perceive this; David was one of the few who did, because his Psalms often speak of telling the Gentile nations how great God is. He came to this simply from the colossal desire he had to praise God as widely and far as possible because of what God had done for him personally by grace. We should be likewise motivated to take the Gospel to the world around us, on the basis of simply having to tell others the wonderful things which we personally have experienced from God.

servant warned; in keeping them there is a great reward. <sup>12</sup> Who can discern his own errors? Forgive me from sins of ignorance. <sup>13</sup> Keep back Your servant also from presumptuous sins, let them not have dominion over me. Then I will be upright, I will be blameless and innocent of the great transgression. <sup>14</sup> Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in Your sight, Yahweh, my rock and my redeemer.

<sup>1</sup> May Yahweh answer you in the day of trouble. May the name of the God of Jacob set you up on high, <sup>2</sup> send you help from the sanctuary, grant you support from Zion, <sup>3</sup> remember all your offerings and accept your burnt sacrifice. Selah. <sup>4</sup> May He grant you your heart's desire, and fulfil all your word. <sup>5</sup> We will triumph in Your salvation, in the name of our God, we will set up our banners. May Yahweh grant all your requests. <sup>6</sup> Now I know that Yahweh saves His anointed; He will answer him from His holy heaven, with the saving strength of His right hand.

19:4 This is quoted in Rom. 10:18 about the preaching of the Gospel into all the world. Thus in the same way as the sun and stars witness to God's existence worldwide, so the Gospel is to be taken world-wide. The Psalm therefore moves on to talk about the power of God's word (:7,8) which is being preached.

19:12 If we hope for forgiveness for sins of ignorance, we are accepting that we will be forgiven without specific repentance. As we forgive, according to the principles we apply to forgiving others, so we will be forgiven. If we hope ourselves for forgiveness for sins we've not specifically repented of, because we are unaware of them, we likewise must forgive others the sins they do against us without repentance. To insist that we will only forgive others if they repent would mean that we would be unable to pray this prayer.

<sup>7</sup> Some trust in chariots and some in horses, but we trust the name of Yahweh our God. <sup>8</sup> They are bowed down and fallen, but we rise up, and stand upright. <sup>9</sup> Save, Yahweh! Let the King answer us when we call!

<sup>1</sup> The king rejoices in Your strength, Yahweh! How greatly he rejoices in Your salvation! <sup>2</sup> You have given him his heart's desire, and have not withheld the request of his lips. Selah. <sup>3</sup> For You meet him with the blessings of goodness, You set a crown of fine gold on his head. <sup>4</sup> He asked life of You, You gave it to him, even length of days forever and ever. <sup>5</sup> His glory is great in Your salvation; You lay honour and majesty on him, <sup>6</sup> for You make him most blessed forever. You make him glad with joy in Your presence; <sup>7</sup> for the king trusts in Yahweh. Through the grace of the Most High, he shall not be moved. <sup>8</sup> Your hand will find out all of Your enemies; Your right hand will find out those who hate You. <sup>9</sup> You will make them as a fiery furnace in the time of Your anger. Yahweh will swallow them up in His wrath, the fire shall devour them. <sup>10</sup> You will destroy their descendants from the land, their posterity from among the children of men. <sup>11</sup> For they intended evil against You, they plotted evil against You which cannot succeed. <sup>12</sup> For You will make them turn their back when You aim drawn bows at their face. <sup>13</sup> Be exalted, Yahweh, in Your strength; so we will sing and praise Your power.

<sup>1</sup> My God, my God, why have You forsaken me? Why are You so far from helping me, and from the

20:7 Solomon speaks of “my father David” so often that it appears he was dominated by the need he felt to live out David’s parental expectations of him. But Solomon’s obsession with chariots and horses shows that he didn’t follow David in real spiritual terms, just externally. Those whose parents were believers and were raised to believe must ask themselves whether they too are merely living out parental expectation externally.

21:4 David felt that he had been given eternal life in the sense that the covenant blessings had an eternal quality to them (:6). And yet he often speaks about death as the end of conscious existence. We have here an Old Testament equivalent to Christ’s teaching that we can now have eternal life (Jn. 6:54); we will die, in hope of resurrection to eternal life, but we can live now the kind of life which we will eternally live. Hence the parables of the Kingdom of God teach about how life can be lived right now.

22:1 Quoted by Christ on the cross (Mt. 27:46). The way Christ calls God “my God” (see :10 also) and prays to Him is not only disproof of the Trinitarian view of Christ; it enables us to find in Christ true inspiration and comfort knowing that He was our representative, of our nature. We are also comforted that to have doubts, even a crisis of faith and understanding as to why God isn’t acting, isn’t a sin; for Christ had these words of my groaning? <sup>2</sup> My God, I cry in the daytime, but You don't answer; in the night season, and am not silent. <sup>3</sup> But You are holy, You who inhabit the praises of Israel. <sup>4</sup> Our fathers trusted in You- they trusted, and You delivered them, <sup>5</sup> they cried to You, and were delivered. They trusted in You, and were not disappointed. <sup>6</sup> But I am a worm, and no man; a reproach of men, and despised by the people. <sup>7</sup> All those who see me mock me, they insult me with their lips, they shake their heads and say, <sup>8</sup> He trusts in Yahweh; let Him deliver him. Let Him rescue him, since He delights in him. <sup>9</sup> But You brought me out of the womb, You made me trust at my mother's breasts. <sup>10</sup> I was thrown on You from my mother's womb; You are my God since my mother bore me. <sup>11</sup> Don't be far from me, for trouble is near; for there is none else to help. <sup>12</sup> Many bulls have surrounded me, strong bulls of Bashan have encircled me. <sup>13</sup> They open their mouths wide against me, lions tearing prey and roaring. <sup>14</sup> I am poured out like water, all my bones are out of joint. My heart is like wax; it is melted within me. <sup>15</sup> My strength is dried up like a shard of pottery; my tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth. You have brought me into the dust of death. <sup>16</sup> For dogs have surrounded me, a company of evildoers have enclosed me; they have pierced my hands and feet. <sup>17</sup> I can count all of my bones, they look and stare at me. <sup>18</sup> They divide my garments among them, they cast lots for my clothing. <sup>19</sup> But don't be far off, Yahweh. You are my help: hurry to help me. <sup>20</sup> Deliver my soul from the sword, my precious life from the power of the dog! <sup>21</sup> Save me from the lion's mouth! Yes, from the horns of the wild oxen, You have answered me. <sup>22</sup> I will declare Your name to my feelings and yet never sinned. Christ said these words "about the ninth hour" (Mt. 27:46), and yet He died at the ninth hour (Mk. 15:34). That He had some sense of crisis at the very end adds the ultimate in drama to the crucifixion account, and makes His final victory yet more glorious.

22:8 Quoted against Christ on the cross (Mt. 27:43). We are encouraged by the New Testament application of this Psalm to Christ to see the whole Psalm as giving a unique window into the thoughts of God's Son in His time of dying.

22:14 My bones are out of joint – The Messianic Psalms often stress the pain Christ felt in His bones; crucifixion was designed to make the bones of the crucified suffer. We who are baptized into the body of Christ are described as His bones (Eph. 5:30); and yet not one of Christ's bones was broken (Jn. 19:36). In all this we have profound encouragement. We are to suffer with Christ, sharing His cross; and yet ultimately we will not be broken, but rise again to eternity, just as His body and bones did. From the awkward and unnatural position of the crucified, Christ could look down upon His literal bones and feel they were as persons looking at Him (:17); thus it seems He had an awareness of us as He hung there.

22:22 This is quoted in Heb. 2:12 to demonstrate Christ's identity with us, having had brothers, in the midst of the congregation I will praise You. <sup>23</sup> You who fear Yahweh, praise Him! All you descendants of Jacob, glorify Him! Stand in awe of Him, all you descendants of Israel! <sup>24</sup> For He has not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted, neither has He hidden His face from him; but when he cried to Him, He heard. <sup>25</sup> Of You comes my praise in the great assembly; I shall pay my vows before those who fear Him. <sup>26</sup> The humble shall eat and be satisfied, they who seek after Him shall praise Yahweh. May your hearts live forever. <sup>27</sup> All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to Yahweh, all the families of nations shall worship before You. <sup>28</sup> For the kingdom is Yahweh's, He is the ruler over the nations. <sup>29</sup> All the rich ones of the earth shall eat and worship, all those who go down to the dust shall bow before Him, even he who can't keep his own soul alive. <sup>30</sup> Posterity shall serve Him, future generations shall be told about the Lord. <sup>31</sup> They shall come and shall declare His righteousness to a people that shall be born, for He has finished it.

A Psalm by David.

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh is my shepherd: I shall be in need of nothing. <sup>2</sup> He makes me lie down in green meadows, He leads me beside still waters. <sup>3</sup> He restores my soul, He guides me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. <sup>4</sup> Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for You are with me; Your rod and staff, they comfort me. <sup>5</sup> You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; You anoint my head with oil, My cup runs over. <sup>6</sup> Surely goodness and grace shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in Yahweh's house forever.

A Psalm by David.

<sup>1</sup> The earth is Yahweh's, with all its fullness; the world, and they who dwell in it. <sup>2</sup> For He has founded it on the seas, and established it on the floods. <sup>3</sup> Who may ascend to Yahweh's hill? Who may stand in His holy place? <sup>4</sup> He who has clean hands and a pure heart; who has not lifted up his soul to falsehood, and human nature. He was especially close to us in His death, and we likewise can look to Him there and feel close to Him and His closeness to us. The tone of the Psalm now becomes more positive, as Christ comes to think of us, the "congregation" [LXX ekklesia, the church] who would be brought into being on account of His suffering. It could be that He quoted the entire Psalm out loud; "He has finished it" (:31) in the LXX is "It is finished", which were the very last words of Christ (Jn. 19:30).

23:5 A table before me in the presence of my enemies – Sometimes in the depths of despair God will provide an amazing grace to us; and He did this when David fled from his own son through the wilderness, and Barzillai unexpectedly laid out a feast table for David in the semi-desert (2 Sam. 17:27-29). This act of kindness transformed the dry terrain into "green meadows" for David (:2). Our thoughtful grace to others can do the same for them.

has not sworn deceitfully. <sup>5</sup> He shall receive a blessing from Yahweh, namely righteousness from the God of his salvation. <sup>6</sup> This is the generation of those who seek Him, who seek Your face—even that of the God of Jacob. Selah. <sup>7</sup> Lift up your heads, you gatekeepers! Be lifted up, you everlasting doors, and the King of glory will come in. <sup>8</sup> Who is the King of glory? Yahweh strong and mighty, Yahweh mighty in battle. <sup>9</sup> Lift up your heads, you gatekeepers; yes, lift them up, you everlasting doors, and the King of glory will come in. <sup>10</sup> Who is this King of glory? Yahweh of Armies is the King of glory! Selah.

By David.

<sup>1</sup> To You, Yahweh, do I lift up my soul. <sup>2</sup> My God, I have trusted in You; don't let me be shamed. Don't let my enemies triumph over me. <sup>3</sup> Truly, no one who waits for You shall be shamed. They shall be shamed who deal treacherously without cause. <sup>4</sup> Show me Your ways, Yahweh, teach me Your paths. <sup>5</sup> Guide me in Your truth, and teach me, for You are the God of my salvation; I wait for You all day long. <sup>6</sup> Yahweh, remember Your tender mercies and Your grace, for they are from old times. <sup>7</sup> Don't remember the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions. Remember me according to Your grace, for Your goodness' sake, Yahweh. <sup>8</sup> Good and upright is Yahweh, therefore He will instruct sinners in the way. <sup>9</sup> He will guide the humble in justice; He will teach the humble His way. <sup>10</sup> All the ways of Yahweh are grace and truth to such as keep His covenant and His testimonies. <sup>11</sup> For Your name's sake, Yahweh, pardon my iniquity, for it is great. <sup>12</sup> What man is he who fears Yahweh? He shall instruct him in the way that he shall choose. <sup>13</sup> His soul shall dwell at ease, His descendants shall inherit the land. <sup>14</sup> The friendship of Yahweh is with those who fear Him; He will show them His covenant. <sup>15</sup> My eyes are ever on Yahweh, for He will pluck my feet out of the net. <sup>16</sup> Turn to me, and have mercy on me, for I am desolate and afflicted. <sup>17</sup> The troubles of my heart are enlarged. Oh bring me out of my distresses! <sup>18</sup> Consider my affliction and my travail, forgive all

24:5 God's blessing is defined here as His righteousness; the blessing of God promised to Abraham and his seed involves the blessing of forgiveness of sins (Acts 3:25,26). This is achieved by God counting His righteousness to us, looking at us another way – and this becomes possible for us who are baptized into Christ, whereby His righteous character is counted to us.

25:8, 9 He will instruct sinners in the way... He will teach the humble His way – The humble here therefore refer to repentant sinners. This is the frame of mind which makes us most teachable by God, and in this way God works through sin, in that repentance for it makes people more open to His teaching.

25:10 The more we live daily life in harmony with God's will, the more we will perceive that all His ways, His workings, both over history and in our lives, reflect His grace. We will not see Him as hard and unreasonable.

my sins. <sup>19</sup> Consider my enemies, for they are many; they hate me with total hatred. <sup>20</sup> Oh keep my soul, and deliver me; let me not be disappointed, for I take refuge in You. <sup>21</sup> Let integrity and uprightness preserve me, for I wait for You. <sup>22</sup> Redeem Israel, God, out of all of His troubles.

Psalm 26 Jan. 12

By David.

<sup>1</sup> Judge me, Yahweh, for I have walked in my integrity. I have trusted also in Yahweh without wavering. <sup>2</sup> Examine me, Yahweh, and prove me; test my heart and my mind. <sup>3</sup> For Your grace is before my eyes, I have walked in Your truth. <sup>4</sup> I have not sat with deceitful men, neither will I go in with hypocrites. <sup>5</sup> I hate the assembly of evildoers, and will not sit with the wicked. <sup>6</sup> I will wash my hands in innocence, so I will go around Your altar, Yahweh; <sup>7</sup> that I may make the voice of thanksgiving to be heard, and tell of all Your wondrous works. <sup>8</sup> Yahweh, I love the habitation of Your dwelling place, the place where Your glory dwells. <sup>9</sup> Don't gather my soul with sinners, nor my life with bloodthirsty men; <sup>10</sup> in whose hands is wickedness, their right hand is full of bribes. <sup>11</sup> But as for me, I will walk in my integrity. Redeem me, and be merciful to me. <sup>12</sup> My foot stands in an even place; in the congregations I will bless Yahweh.

Psalm 27 Jan. 12

By David.

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh is my light and my salvation- whom shall I fear? Yahweh is the strength of my life- of whom shall I be afraid? <sup>2</sup> When evildoers came at me to eat up my flesh, even my adversaries and my foes, they stumbled and fell. <sup>3</sup> Though an army should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear. Though war should rise against me, even then I will be confident. <sup>4</sup> One thing I have asked of Yahweh, that I will seek after: That I may dwell in the house of Yahweh all the days of my life, to see Yahweh's beauty, and to inquire in His temple. <sup>5</sup> For in the day of trouble He will keep me secretly in His pavilion, under the shadow of His tabernacle He will hide me. He will lift me up on a rock. <sup>6</sup> Now my head will be lifted up above my enemies around me, I will offer sacrifices of joy in His tent. I will sing, yes, I will sing praises to Yahweh. <sup>7</sup> Hear, Yahweh, when I

25:22 Redeem Israel, God – Many of the Psalms are David's personal pleas for mercy, but they merge towards the end of them into a request for God to show mercy to all His people. He looked out of his own sufferings to those of others, and took comfort in the fact that God's ultimate plan is to have a redeemed people living eternally on earth.

26:1 Without wavering – This Psalm appears very self-righteous, with David considering himself separate from sinners (:9); it contrasts with the Psalms written after the sin with Bathsheba, which often talk of David's desire to reach out to sinners rather than about separating from them.

26:3 God's truth refers to a way of life and being, rather than to a set of pure theological propositions. "Truth" is paralleled here with "grace", which is the ultimate truth.

cry with my voice. Have mercy also on me, and answer me. <sup>8</sup> When You said, Seek my face, my heart said to You, I will seek Your face, Yahweh. <sup>9</sup> Don't hide Your face from me; don't put Your servant away in anger. You have been my help, don't abandon me, neither forsake me, God of my salvation. <sup>10</sup> When my father and my mother forsake me, then Yahweh will take me up. <sup>11</sup> Teach me Your way, Yahweh. Lead me in a straight path, because of my enemies. <sup>12</sup> Don't deliver me over to the desire of my adversaries, for false witnesses have risen up against me, such as breathe out cruelty. <sup>13</sup> I am still confident of this: I will see the goodness of Yahweh in the land of the living. <sup>14</sup> Wait for Yahweh, be strong, and let your heart take courage. Yes, wait for Yahweh.

don't be deaf to me; lest, if You are silent to me, I would become like those who go down into the pit. <sup>2</sup> Hear the voice of my petitions when I cry to You, when I lift up my hands toward Your Most Holy Place. <sup>3</sup> Don't draw me away with the wicked, with the workers of iniquity who speak peace with their neighbours, but mischief is in their hearts. <sup>4</sup> Give them according to their work, and according to the wickedness of their doings. Give them according to the working of their own hands; bring back on them what they deserve. <sup>5</sup> Because they don't respect the works of Yahweh, nor the working of His hands, He will break them down and not build them up. <sup>6</sup> Blessed be Yahweh, because He has heard the voice of my petitions. <sup>7</sup> Yahweh is my strength and my shield. My heart has trusted in Him, and I have been helped; therefore my heart greatly rejoices. With my song I will thank Him. <sup>8</sup> Yahweh is their strength, He is a stronghold

27:9 Don't abandon me – Contrast this with the utter confidence expressed elsewhere in this Psalm. We can have the emotions of fear, even of panic, and yet at the same time feel deep faith in God. In this time of need, David reflected how God had earlier delivered him (:2), and this should feature in our response to crises.

27:10 The classic middle aged crisis of loneliness as parents die, the links with the past being cut, is here resolved in the feeling of God's personal parenthood toward us.

27:14 Wait – So often the Psalms speak of the need to "wait" for God. We assume His response must be immediate, but the 'gap' between our prayer and His response is necessary, for the sake of the development of our faith. It maintains that appropriate distance which has to be between God and man at this stage.

28:2 Hear the voice of my petitions – Yet within the same prayer, David can rejoice that God "has heard the voice of my petitions" (:6). We are to pray for things believing and feeling that we have received them (Mk. 11:24); we are to have the perspective of God Himself, who speaks of things which currently aren't as if they are (Rom. 4:17). Therefore David can conclude this prayer with praise that God has actually answered it already (:7).

28:8, 9 Again David looks out of himself in his immediate need to others, rejoicing as of salvation to His anointed. <sup>9</sup> Save Your people, and bless Your inheritance. Be their shepherd also, and bear them up forever.

A Psalm by David.

calve, and strips the forests bare. In His temple everything says, Glory!

Psalm 30 Jan. 13

<sup>1</sup> I will extol You, Yahweh, for You have raised me up, and have not made my enemies to rejoice over me.

<sup>2</sup> Yahweh my God, I cried to You, and You have healed me. <sup>3</sup> Yahweh, You have brought up my soul from Sheol. You have kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit. <sup>4</sup> Sing praise to Yahweh, You saints of His, give thanks to His holy name. <sup>5</sup> For His anger is but for a moment; His grace is for all our lifetime. Weeping may stay for the night, but joy comes in the morning. <sup>6</sup> As for me, I said in my prosperity, I shall never he often does at the end of his Psalms that his positive experience of God will be that of all God's people. We can at least take the lesson that we are to look out of ourselves to others rather than be swamped by the immediacy of our own issues.

29:5 Here and in :8 we have "the voice of Yahweh" paralleled with Yahweh in person. God is His word – hence we read that "the word was God" (Jn. 1:1). Our attitude to God's word is our attitude to God; it's therefore not possible to claim to be in relationship with God if we ignore His word as we now have it in the Bible. There's much talk about "God" but unless this is based upon His word, we are believing in a 'God' of our own creation rather than the true God who is revealed in the Bible.

30:6 David seems to be reflecting upon some life threatening illness he suffered after his sin with Bathsheba (:2,3); the title of the Psalm shows he wrote this as he was preparing for his son Solomon to build the temple, towards the end of his life. He is reflecting how he had fallen into sin as a result of assuming that he could never fall from the spiritual place he felt he was at. Whilst we should be confident that if Christ returns today we shall be saved by grace, we cannot assume that we shall always be where we are now spiritually, and we should always maintain a keen sense of the eternity we may miss if we turn away.

be moved. <sup>7</sup> You, Yahweh, when You favoured me, made my mountain stand strong; but when You hid Your face, I was troubled. <sup>8</sup> I cried to You, Yahweh; to Yahweh I made supplication: <sup>9</sup> What profit is there in my destruction, if I go down to the pit? Shall the dust praise You? Shall it declare Your truth? <sup>10</sup> Hear, Yahweh, and have mercy on me. Yahweh, be my helper. <sup>11</sup> You have turned my mourning into dancing for me. You have removed my sackcloth, and clothed me with gladness, <sup>12</sup> To the end that my heart may sing praise to You, and not be silent. Yahweh my God, I will give thanks to You forever!

<sup>1</sup> In You, Yahweh, I take refuge. Let me never be disappointed. Deliver me in Your righteousness. <sup>2</sup> Bow down Your ear to me, deliver me quickly. Be to me a strong rock, a house of defence to save me. <sup>3</sup> For You are my rock and my fortress, therefore for

Your name's sake lead me and guide me. <sup>4</sup> Pluck me out of the net that they have laid secretly for me, for You are my stronghold. <sup>5</sup> Into Your hand I commend my spirit. You have redeemed me, Yahweh, God of truth. <sup>6</sup> I hate those who regard lying vanities, but I trust in Yahweh. <sup>7</sup> I will be glad and rejoice in Your grace, for You have seen my affliction. You have known my soul in adversities. <sup>8</sup> You have not shut me up into the hand of the enemy, You have set my feet in a large place. <sup>9</sup> Have mercy on me, Yahweh, for I am in distress. My eye, my soul, and my body waste away with grief. <sup>10</sup> For my life is spent with sorrow, my years with sighing. My strength fails because of my sin, my bones are wasted away. <sup>11</sup> Because of all my adversaries I have become utterly contemptible to my neighbours, a fear to my acquaintances. Those who saw me on the street fled from me. <sup>12</sup> I am forgotten from their hearts like a dead man; I am like broken pottery. <sup>13</sup> For I have heard the slander of many, terror on every side, while they con-

30:7 Mountain – Used in Scripture to refer to a Kingdom or family; David's 'mountain' in this sense was "troubled" as a result of his sin with Bathsheba.

30:9 This request indicates that David didn't go to Heaven on death (Acts 2:34), but understood death as total unconsciousness until Christ's return.

31:2, 3 Be to me a strong rock... for You are my rock – David is asking God to be to him in practice what he accepted God to be theoretically. Time and again we seek to make this same conversion from theory to practical reality as we face life's situations.

31:5 Into Your hand I commend my spirit – Chosen by Jesus as His last words from the cross as He died (Lk. 23:46). Perhaps the next half of the sentence were His first thoughts on awaking in resurrection: "You have redeemed me, Yahweh, God of truth".

31:7 You have known my soul in adversities – God as it were gets to know us when He sees us in crises. Although He knows all things, we reveal ourselves to Him by how we feel and respond in those times.

spire together against me, they plot to take away my life. <sup>14</sup> But I trust in You, Yahweh. I said, You are my God. <sup>15</sup> My times are in Your hand. Redeem me from the hand of my enemies, and from those who persecute me. <sup>16</sup> Make Your face to shine on Your servant; save me in Your grace. <sup>17</sup> Let me not be disappointed, Yahweh, for I have called on You. Let the wicked be disappointed, may they be silent in Sheol. <sup>18</sup> Let the lying lips be mute, which speak against the righteous insolently, with pride and contempt. <sup>19</sup> Oh how great is Your goodness, which You have laid up for those who fear You, which You have worked for those who take refuge in You, before the sons of men! <sup>20</sup> In the shelter of Your presence You will hide them from the plotting of man. You will keep them secretly in a dwelling away from the strife of tongues. <sup>21</sup> Praise be to Yahweh, for He has shown me His marvellous grace in a fortified city. <sup>22</sup> As for me, I said in my haste, I am cut off from before Your eyes. Nevertheless You heard the voice of my petitions when I cried to You. <sup>23</sup> Oh love Yahweh, all you His saints! Yahweh preserves the faithful, and fully recompenses him who behaves arrogantly. <sup>24</sup> Be strong, and let your heart take courage, all you who hope in Yahweh.

By David. A contemplative psalm.

31:15 Redeem me – But David has stated that God had already redeemed him (:5). So often in the Psalms we encounter this struggle to believe and feel as if our prayer has been heard before it actually is; and it is the same struggle we daily have in our prayer life.

31:21 He has shown me His marvellous loving kindness in a fortified city – David saw the similarities between himself and the spies who entered the fortified city of Jericho and found themselves trapped within it, with no human way of escape.

32:1, 2 This is a soliloquy, David talking to himself as he meditated upon God's forgiveness of his sin with Bathsheba. But it is quoted in Rom. 4:7 with a subtle change of pronoun; "blessed is he" (:1) is changed to "blessed are they". Thus David's sin with Bathsheba and in murdering Uriah her husband becomes representative of all our sins, and we have received the same amazing grace which David did, seeing that there was no legal way out of what he had done – he deserved only death. See on 38:4.

32:4 This refers to the period of time between the sin and the visit of Nathan which convicted David of his sin (2 Sam. 12).

shall not reach to him. <sup>7</sup> You are my hiding place, You will preserve me from trouble, You will surround me with songs of deliverance. Selah. <sup>8</sup> I will instruct you and teach you in the way which you shall go, I will counsel you with my eye on you. <sup>9</sup> Don't be like the horse or like the mule which have no understanding, who are controlled by bit and bridle, or else they will not come near to you. <sup>10</sup> Many sorrows come to the wicked, but grace shall surround him who trusts in Yahweh. <sup>11</sup> Be glad in Yahweh, and rejoice, you righteous! Shout for joy, all you who are upright in heart!

weh. <sup>6</sup> By Yahweh's word the heavens were made; all their army by the breath of His mouth. <sup>7</sup> He gathers the waters of the sea together as a heap; He lays up the deeps in storehouses. <sup>8</sup> Let all the earth fear Yahweh, let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of Him. <sup>9</sup> For He spoke, and it was done; He commanded, and it stood firm. <sup>10</sup> Yahweh brings the counsel of the nations to nothing; He makes the thoughts of the peoples to be of no power. <sup>11</sup> The counsel of Yahweh stands fast forever, the thoughts of His heart to all generations. <sup>12</sup> Blessed is the nation whose God is Yahweh, the people whom He has chosen for His own inheritance. <sup>13</sup> Yahweh views from heaven; He sees all the sons of men. <sup>14</sup> From the place of His habitation He looks out on all the inhabitants of the earth, <sup>15</sup> He who fashions all of their hearts; and He considers all of their works. <sup>16</sup> There is no king saved by the multitude of an army; a mighty man is not delivered by great strength. <sup>17</sup> A horse is a vain thing for safety, neither does he deliver any by his great

32:6 Let each one who is Godly pray to You – David's experience of sin and utter forgiveness should inspire each sinner to repent; but the repentant sinner is here described as "Godly". Godliness doesn't mean we are sinless, but rather that we believe in God's forgiveness and are willing to repent.

32:8 David's experience of forgiveness became the motive for his preaching of it to others. Isaiah, Peter, the disciples and many others were given preaching commissions immediately after having been convicted of their own sinfulness. For this is the attitude of mind which makes preaching powerful and usable by God.

33:6 By Yahweh's word the heavens were made – This alludes to how the Genesis record of creation states that "God said" and things came into existence (:9). It explains how "all things" were made by God's word (Jn. 1:3). That same word which created all around us is likewise powerful to create a new creation within the formless darkness of our own lives and minds (2 Cor. 5:17). By reading and responding to God's word we expose ourselves to colossal and awesome creative power.

power. <sup>18</sup> Behold, Yahweh's eye is on those who fear Him, on those who hope in His grace; <sup>19</sup> to deliver their soul from death, to keep them alive in famine. <sup>20</sup> Our soul has waited for Yahweh; He is our help and our shield. <sup>21</sup> For our heart rejoices in Him, because we have trusted in His holy name. <sup>22</sup> Let Your grace be on us, Yahweh, according as we have hope in You.

By David; when he pretended to be insane before Abimelech, who drove him away, and he departed.

<sup>1</sup> I will bless Yahweh at all times; His praise will always be in my mouth. <sup>2</sup> My soul shall boast in Yahweh. The humble shall hear of it, and be glad. <sup>3</sup> Oh magnify Yahweh with me, let us exalt His name together! <sup>4</sup> I sought Yahweh and He answered me, and delivered me from all my fears. <sup>5</sup> They looked to Him, and were radiant.; their faces shall never be covered with shame. <sup>6</sup> This poor man cried, and Yahweh heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles. <sup>7</sup> The angel of Yahweh encamps around those who fear Him, and delivers them. <sup>8</sup> Oh taste and see that Yahweh is good. Blessed is the man who takes refuge in Him. <sup>9</sup> Oh fear Yahweh, you His saints, for there is no lack to those who fear Him. <sup>10</sup> The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger, but those who seek Yahweh shall not lack any good thing. <sup>11</sup> Come, you children, listen to me. I will teach you the fear of Yahweh. <sup>12</sup> Who desires life, and loves many days, that he may see good? <sup>13</sup> Keep your tongue from evil, and your lips from speaking lies. <sup>14</sup> Depart from evil, and do good; seek peace, and pursue it. <sup>15</sup> Yahweh's eyes are toward the righteous, His ears listen to their cry. <sup>16</sup> Yahweh's face is against those who do evil, to cut off their memory from the earth. <sup>17</sup> The righteous cry, and Yahweh hears, and delivers them out of all their troubles. <sup>18</sup> Yahweh is near to those who

33:22 God's grace is realized and effective in our lives according to our belief in its extent. It is we and not God who are limiting what is possible. If Abraham had prayed for Sodom to be saved for the sake of just the one righteous man there (Lot), perhaps he would've been heard; the man who thought the Lord's ability to heal was limited by His power was taught that the opposite is true, in that all things are possible but are limited by human faith (Mk. 9:22,23).

34:7 This suggests that we have a guardian Angel permanently settled down (Heb.) around us; the early church believed this (Acts 12:15). The Angels minister to us in order to bring us towards salvation (Heb. 1:14). The reference to Yahweh's "eyes" (:15) may also refer to our guardian Angels.

34:17 The righteous cry, and Yahweh hears – This parallels David's statement that he had cried and Yahweh had heard him (:6). Again he looks out of his own issues and sees them in the wider context of God's people; He has delivered them historically, so He will deliver us; if He delivers us, He will deliver His people in the future, and so we can reason from our personal testimony to persuade them to trust Him as we have. The Psalms are songs, and David was using them to share his faith with others.

have a broken heart, and saves those who have a crushed spirit. <sup>19</sup> Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but Yahweh delivers him out of them all. <sup>20</sup> He protects all of his bones; not one of them is broken. <sup>21</sup> Evil shall kill the wicked; those who hate the righteous shall be condemned. <sup>22</sup> Yahweh redeems the soul of His servants; none of those who take refuge in Him shall be condemned.

Psalm 35 Jan. 18

angel driving them on. <sup>6</sup> Let their way be dark and slippery, Yahweh's angel pursuing them. <sup>7</sup> For without cause they have hidden their net in a pit for me, without cause they have dug a pit for my soul. <sup>8</sup> Let destruction come on him unawares. Let his net that he has hidden catch himself; let him fall into that destruction. <sup>9</sup> My soul shall be joyful in Yahweh, I shall rejoice in His salvation. <sup>10</sup> All my bones shall say, Yahweh, who is like You, who delivers the poor from him who is too strong for him; yes, the poor and the needy from him who robs him? <sup>11</sup> Unrighteous witnesses rise up; they accuse me of things that I know nothing about. <sup>12</sup> They reward me evil for good, to the bereaving of my soul. <sup>13</sup> But as for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth, I afflicted my soul with fasting. My prayer returned into my own bosom. <sup>14</sup> I behaved myself as though it had been my friend or my brother. I bowed down mourn-

34:20 This was supremely fulfilled in the fact that no bone of Jesus was broken by the crucifixion process (Jn. 19:36). See on 22:14.

35:3 Tell my soul, "I am Your salvation" – David so often tells himself and us that God is indeed his salvation. But here he is asking God to speak directly to his heart and persuade him deeper of this truth. We too can ask God to directly increase our faith.

35:5, 6 Threshing and winnowing the wheat from the chaff is a common Biblical metaphor for the final day of judgment. The rejected will be chased away from Christ by the Angels into darkness (:6). The Bible teaches that Jesus will return from Heaven to judge us with the Angels with Him; they will play a part in the judgment process, which will be appropriate as they have been our guardians and stood with us through every moment of our lives (see on 34:7). There are frequent Biblical descriptions of the punishment of the wicked, wallowing at least for some period in darkness, rejected from the Lord they so wish to now be with [hence they are chased away from Him, as Adam was out of Eden, again by Angels]. These aren't to scare us into obedience, but to bring constantly before us the sober importance of the eternal issues which we face (see 2 Cor. 5:11).

ing, as one who mourns his mother. <sup>15</sup> But in my adversity, they rejoiced, and gathered themselves together. The attackers gathered themselves together against me, and I didn't know it. They tore at me, and didn't cease. <sup>16</sup> Like the profane mockers in feasts, they gnashed their teeth at me. <sup>17</sup> Lord, how long will You look on? Rescue my soul from their destruction, my precious life from the lions. <sup>18</sup> I will give You thanks in the great assembly, I will praise You among many people. <sup>19</sup> Don't let those who are my enemies wrongfully rejoice over me; neither let those who hate me without a cause wink their eyes. <sup>20</sup> For they don't speak peace, but they devise deceitful words against those who are quiet in the land. <sup>21</sup> Yes, they opened their mouth wide against me. They said, Aha! Aha! Our eye has seen it! <sup>22</sup> You have seen it, Yahweh. Don't keep silent. Lord, don't be far from me. <sup>23</sup> Wake up! Rise up to defend me, my God! My Lord, contend for me! <sup>24</sup> Vindicate me, Yahweh my God, according to Your righteousness. Don't let them gloat over me. <sup>25</sup> Don't let them say in their heart, Aha! That's just the way we want it! Don't let them say, We have swallowed him up! <sup>26</sup> Let them be disappointed and confounded together who rejoice at my calamity. Let them be clothed with shame and dishonour who magnify themselves against me. <sup>27</sup> Let them shout for joy and be glad, who favour my righteous cause. Yes, let them say continually, Yahweh be magnified, who has pleasure in the prosperity of His servant! <sup>28</sup> My tongue shall talk about Your righteousness and about Your praise all day long.

<sup>1</sup> An oracle is within my heart about the disobedience of the wicked: There is no fear of God before his eyes. <sup>2</sup> For he flatters himself in his own eyes, too much to detect and hate his sin. <sup>3</sup> The words of his mouth are iniquity and deceit; he has ceased to be wise and to do good. <sup>4</sup> He plots iniquity on his bed, he sets himself up in a way that is not good. He doesn't hate evil. <sup>5</sup> Your grace, Yahweh, is in the heavens; Your faithfulness reaches to the skies. <sup>6</sup> Your righteousness is like the great mountains; Your judgments are like a great deep. Yahweh, You preserve man and animal. <sup>7</sup> How precious is

35:14 I bowed down mourning, as one who mourns his mother – David speaks in the context of his love for Saul despite the endless persecution he received from him, and here alludes to his famous lament over Saul at his death (2 Sam. 1). A man mourning for his mother, rather than a woman for her mother or a father for his son, is a carefully chosen similitude. For a man's mourning for his mother features the bitter regret that 'I didn't appreciate her as I should've done'. And this was how David felt for Saul at his end. In this we see a most unusual level of love and sensitivity. And yet even that is but a dim reflection of the colossal love of God and Jesus for us, and their sensitivity to us and appreciation of our feeble spirituality.

Your grace, O God! The children of men take refuge under the shadow of Your wings. <sup>8</sup> They shall be abundantly satisfied with the abundance of Your house; You will make them drink of the river of Your pleasures. <sup>9</sup> For with You is the spring of life; in Your light shall we see light. <sup>10</sup> Oh continue Your grace to those who know You, Your righteousness to the upright in heart. <sup>11</sup> Don't let the foot of pride come against me; don't let the hand of the wicked drive me away. <sup>12</sup> There the workers of iniquity are fallen, they are thrust down, and shall not be able to rise.

By David.

<sup>1</sup> Don't fret because of evildoers, neither be envious against those who work unrighteousness. <sup>2</sup> For they shall soon be cut down like the grass, and wither like the green plant. <sup>3</sup> Trust in Yahweh, and do good. Dwell in the land, and enjoy safe pasture. <sup>4</sup> Also delight yourself in Yahweh, and He will give you the desires of your heart. <sup>5</sup> Commit your way to Yahweh. Trust also in Him, and He will do this: <sup>6</sup> He will make your righteousness go forth as the light, and your justice as the noon day sun. <sup>7</sup> Rest in Yahweh, and wait patiently for Him. Don't fret because of him who prospers in his way, because of the man who makes wicked plots happen. <sup>8</sup> Cease from anger, and forsake wrath. Don't fret, it leads only to evildoing. <sup>9</sup> For evildoers shall be cut off, but those who wait for Yahweh shall inherit the land. <sup>10</sup> For yet a little while, and the wicked will be no more. Yes, though you look for his place, he isn't there.

36:12 There the workers of iniquity are fallen – The obvious question of the Bible student to the statement “there” is “Where?”. And the context seems to provide no answer. But David was imagining in his own mind the final destruction of the wicked at judgment day, as he often does in the Psalms. “There”, in his mind's eye, he sees them fallen and without resurrection to eternal life. And this gives him perspective on his sufferings at their hands. We too can usefully play ‘Bible television’ and try to imagine the scene at judgment day. Whether we get all the details correct or not isn't so important; the exercise provides huge perspective for us in our present life experiences.

37:4 He will give you the desires of your heart – This isn't a blank cheque promise that we will get whatever we ask from God. If we delight in Him, then our greatest desires will be forgiveness from Him, to see His glory extended, and to have a place in His eternal Kingdom. And it is this latter desire which this Psalm speaks of frequently, comforting us in the hope of eternity in God's Kingdom on earth; a hope which means that we will not be jealous of the wicked who are briefly prospering in this very short life (:1). See on 38:9.

drawn out the sword and have bent their bow to cast down the poor and needy, to kill those who are upright in the way. <sup>15</sup> Their sword shall enter into their own heart. Their bows shall be broken. <sup>16</sup> Better is a little that the righteous has, than the abundance of many wicked. <sup>17</sup> For the arms of the wicked shall be broken, but Yahweh upholds the righteous. <sup>18</sup> Yahweh knows the days of the perfect. Their inheritance shall be forever. <sup>19</sup> They shall not be disappointed in the time of evil; in the days of famine they shall be satisfied. <sup>20</sup> But the wicked shall perish, the enemies of Yahweh shall be like the passing beauty of the fields. They will vanish— vanish like smoke. <sup>21</sup> The wicked borrow, and don't pay back, but the righteous give generously. <sup>22</sup> For such as are blessed by Him shall inherit the land. Those who are cursed by Him shall be cut off. <sup>23</sup> A man's goings are established by Yahweh; He delights in his way. <sup>24</sup> Though he stumble, he shall not fall, for Yahweh holds him up with His hand. <sup>25</sup> I have been young, and now am old, yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his children begging for bread. <sup>26</sup> All day long he deals graciously, and lends. His seed is blessed. <sup>27</sup> Depart from evil, and do good. Live securely forever. <sup>28</sup> For Yahweh loves justice, and doesn't forsake His saints. They are preserved forever, but the children of the wicked shall be cut off. <sup>29</sup> The righteous shall inherit the land, and live in it forever. <sup>30</sup> The mouth of the righteous talks of wisdom, his tongue speaks justice. <sup>31</sup> The law of his God is in his heart, none of his steps shall slide. <sup>32</sup> The wicked watches the righteous, and seeks to kill him. <sup>33</sup> Yahweh will not leave him in his hand, nor condemn him when he is judged. <sup>34</sup> Wait for Yahweh, and keep His way, and He will exalt you to inherit the land.

37:21 The righteous give generously – The inspiration for generosity in this life is that we shall eternally inherit the Kingdom on earth (:22). If we really believe that we shall and do even now partake in this ultimate Divine generosity, we will naturally be generous in the few things God has entrusted to us in this life.

37:23 He delights in his way – God delights in our life path, even though that path includes stumbling (:24).

37:25, 26 Just as Israel were provided with basic bread, water and clothing for their wilderness journey towards the promised land, so God has promised to provide us with such basic necessities. We can take colossal comfort from this, although it so easily becomes obscured by our materialistic society, bent as it is on acquisition. The fact that most of us are no longer agriculturally self-sufficient likewise tempts us to doubt this promise. Having this assurance, we can 'afford' to be generous (:26), not just rising to it occasionally, but as a characteristic of our lives, the very spirit by which we live ("all day long").

37:29 This is a clear proof text that the hope of the righteous is eternal life on earth, not in Heaven. The allusion is clearly to the promises to Abraham of eternal inheritance of the land, and these promises are the basis of the Christian Gospel to which we stand related by baptism into Christ (Gal. 3:8, 27-29).

When the wicked are cut off, you shall see it. <sup>35</sup> I have seen the wicked in great power, spreading himself like a green tree in its native soil. <sup>36</sup> But he passed away, and behold, he was not. Yes, I sought him, but he could not be found. <sup>37</sup> Note the perfect man, and see the upright, for there is a future for the man of peace. <sup>38</sup> As for transgressors, they shall be destroyed together. The future of the wicked shall be cut off. <sup>39</sup> But the salvation of the righteous is from Yahweh; He is their stronghold in the time of trouble. <sup>40</sup> Yahweh helps them, and rescues them. He rescues them from the wicked, and saves them, because they have taken refuge in Him.

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh, don't rebuke me in Your wrath, neither chasten me in Your hot displeasure. <sup>2</sup> For Your arrows have pierced me, Your hand presses hard on me. <sup>3</sup> There is no soundness in my flesh because of Your indignation, neither is there any health in my bones because of my sin. <sup>4</sup> For my sins have gone over my head; as a heavy burden, they are too heavy for me. <sup>5</sup> My wounds are loathsome and corrupt because of my foolishness. <sup>6</sup> I am pained and bowed down greatly. I go mourning all day long. <sup>7</sup> For my waist is filled with burning, there is no soundness in my body. <sup>8</sup> I am faint and severely bruised; I have groaned by reason of the anguish of my heart. <sup>9</sup> Lord, all my desire is before You; my groaning is not hidden from You. <sup>10</sup> My heart throbs, my strength fails me. As for the light of my eyes, it has also left me. <sup>11</sup> My lovers and my friends stand aloof from my plague, my kinsmen stand far away. <sup>12</sup> They also who seek after my life lay snares, those who seek my hurt speak mischievous things, and meditate deceits all day long. <sup>13</sup> But I, as a deaf man, don't hear. I am as a mute man who doesn't open his mouth. <sup>14</sup> Yes, I am as a man who doesn't hear, in whose mouth are no reproofs. <sup>15</sup> For in You, Yahweh, do I hope. You will answer, Lord my God. <sup>16</sup> For I said, Don't let them gloat over me, or exalt themselves over me when my foot slips. <sup>17</sup> For I am ready to fall; my pain is continually before me. <sup>18</sup> For I will declare

38:4 As a heavy burden, they are too heavy for me – This is applied to all of us by Jesus when He invites us the heavy burdened to come to Him and find relief for that heavy load (Mt. 11:28). David is talking of his sins related to Bathsheba and Uriah; and again we find them being understood as typical of all our sins (see on 32:1,2).

38:9 All my desire is before You – All David's desire was for forgiveness; see on 37:4.

38:11 The consequence of sin is that it separates and isolates the sinner, as David found after his sin with Bathsheba, which resulted in the breakup of his family and his son conspiring to kill him and take over the kingdom. Some may sin and apparently not experience this isolation; but they feel it internally. That sin isolates the sinner, literally or psychologically, is designed by God; for it is in that isolation and self-analysis that the sinner has the opportunity to reconnect with God on a deeply personal level.

my iniquity, I will be sorry for my sin. <sup>19</sup> But my enemies are vigorous and many. Those who hate me without reason are numerous. <sup>20</sup> They who also render evil for good are adversaries to me, because I follow what is good. <sup>21</sup> Don't forsake me, Yahweh. My God, don't be far from me. <sup>22</sup> Hurry to help me, Lord, my salvation.

<sup>1</sup> I said, I will watch my ways, so that I don't sin with my tongue. I will keep my mouth with a bridle while the wicked is before me. <sup>2</sup> I was mute with silence; I held my peace, even from good. My sorrow was stirred. <sup>3</sup> My heart was hot within me. While I meditated, the fire burned: I spoke with my tongue: <sup>4</sup> Yahweh, show me my end, what is the measure of my days. Let me know how frail I am. <sup>5</sup> Behold, you have made my days mere handbreadths. My lifetime is as nothing before you. Surely every man stands as a breath. Selah. <sup>6</sup> Surely every man walks like a shadow. Surely they busy themselves in vain. He heaps up, and doesn't know who shall gather. <sup>7</sup> Now, Lord, what do I wait for? My hope is in You. <sup>8</sup> Deliver me from all my transgressions. Don't make me the reproach of the foolish. <sup>9</sup> I was mute. I didn't open my mouth, because You did it. <sup>10</sup> Remove Your scourge away from me; I am overcome by the blow of Your hand. <sup>11</sup> When You rebuke and correct man for iniquity, You consume his days like a moth. Surely every man is but a breath. Selah. <sup>12</sup> Hear my prayer, Yahweh, and give ear to my cry. Don't be silent at my tears. For I am a stranger with You, a foreigner, as all my fathers were. <sup>13</sup> Oh spare me, that I may recover strength, before I go away, and exist no more.

<sup>1</sup> I waited patiently for Yahweh. He turned to me, and heard my cry. <sup>2</sup> He brought me up also out of a horrible pit, out of the miry clay. He set my feet on a rock, and gave me a firm

39:1 Keep my mouth with a bridle while the wicked is before me – We need to think ahead as to our likely weaknesses, recognizing that being in the presence of some people is going to provoke us to speak badly. In all our spiritual battles we should talk to ourselves like David did, and be aware of how upcoming situations are likely to lead us into temptation.

39:4-6 David reminded himself of man's mortality in order to steel himself against the temptation to talk wrongly; he realized that sinning with the tongue can lead to losing our hope of eternity, and so he reminded himself of this in the face of the upcoming meeting he was going to have with people who would tempt him to misuse his tongue. We can do the same.

39:13 David didn't go to Heaven at death (Acts 2:34); he understood death as total unconsciousness.

place to stand. <sup>3</sup> He has put a new song in my mouth, even praise to our God. Many shall see it, and fear, and shall trust in Yahweh. <sup>4</sup> Blessed is the man who makes Yahweh his trust and doesn't respect the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies. <sup>5</sup> Many, Yahweh my God, are the wonderful works which You have done, and Your thoughts which are toward us. They can't be declared back to You. If I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered. <sup>6</sup> Sacrifice and offering You didn't desire. You have digged my ears. You have not required burnt offering and sin offering. <sup>7</sup> Then I said, Behold, I have come. It is written about me throughout the book in the scroll. <sup>8</sup> I delight to do Your will, my God. Yes, Your law is within my heart. <sup>9</sup> I have proclaimed glad news of righteousness in the great assembly. Behold, I will not seal my lips, Yahweh, You know. <sup>10</sup> I have not hidden Your righteousness within my heart. I have declared Your faithfulness and Your salvation. I have not concealed Your grace and Your truth from the great assembly. <sup>11</sup> Don't withhold Your tender mercies from me, Yahweh; let Your grace and Your truth continually preserve me. <sup>12</sup> For innumerable evils have surrounded me. My iniquities have overtaken me, so that I am not able to look up. They are more than the hairs of my head. My heart has failed me. <sup>13</sup> Be pleased, Yahweh, to deliver me. Hurry to help me, Yahweh. <sup>14</sup> Let them be disappointed and confounded together who seek after my soul to destroy it. Let them be turned backward and brought to dishonour who delight in my hurt. <sup>15</sup> Let them be desolate by reason of their shame that tell me, Aha! Aha! <sup>16</sup> Let all those who seek You rejoice and be glad in You. Let such as love Your salvation say continually, Let Yahweh be exalted! <sup>17</sup> But I am poor and needy. May the Lord think about me. You are my help and my deliverer. Don't delay, my God.

40:3 Many shall see it – David perceived the influence his spiritual victory or failure would have upon others. Without encouraging posturing and posing, we should also be aware of this dimension to life and be motivated by it in our spiritual battles.

40:6 You have digged my ears – An allusion to the Law's provision for a servant to decide to permanently remain in his master's household and be adopted into the family – see Ex. 21:5,6.

40:6-8 Quoted in Heb. 10:5-8 about the sacrifice of Jesus on the cross. Notice how Jesus addressed God as “my God” – another difficulty for Trinitarian theology. Yet the initial context was David reflecting that his sin with Bathsheba and Uriah couldn't be atoned for by any sacrifice; for there was none prescribed for what he had done. He simply vowed to give himself completely to God and declare God's grace to all men (:9,10). Yet this was fulfilled by Jesus in the death of the cross, which ended the need for animal sacrifices. Indeed many of the Bathsheba Psalms are applied to Jesus in His time of dying on the cross. He there knew fully the feelings of David and every desperate sinner; not that He sinned, but so identified was He with us there that He entered into the feelings of every sinner.

<sup>1</sup> Blessed is he who considers the poor. Yahweh will deliver him in the day of evil. <sup>2</sup> Yahweh will preserve him, and keep him alive. He shall be blessed on the earth, and he will not surrender him to the will of his enemies. <sup>3</sup> Yahweh will sustain him on his sickbed, and restore him from his bed of illness. <sup>4</sup> I said, Yahweh, have mercy on me! Heal me, for I have sinned against You. <sup>5</sup> My enemies speak evil against me: When will he die, and his name perish? <sup>6</sup> If he comes to see me, he speaks falsehood. His heart gathers iniquity to itself. When he goes outside, he tells it. <sup>7</sup> All who hate me whisper together against me. They imagine the worst for me. <sup>8</sup> An evil disease, they say, has afflicted him. Now that he lies he shall rise up no more. <sup>9</sup> Yes, my own familiar friend, in whom I trusted, who ate bread with me, has lifted up his heel against me. <sup>10</sup> But You, Yahweh, have mercy on me, and raise me up, that I may repay them. <sup>11</sup> By this I know that You delight in me, because my enemy doesn't triumph over me. <sup>12</sup> As for me, You uphold me in my integrity, and set me in Your presence forever. <sup>13</sup> Blessed be Yahweh, the God of Israel, from everlasting and to everlasting! Amen and amen.

BOOK II*Psalm 42 Jan. 23For the Chief Musician. A contemplation by the sons of Korah.

41:1 “The day of evil” ultimately refers to the day of judgment. In that day we will be as the poor who beg us for grace in this life; we should therefore be generous to them, even if their poverty, like our spiritual poverty, is ultimately the result of their own poor decision making and sin.

41:9 My own familiar friend – Quoted as Christ's feelings about Judas in Jn. 13:18. Jesus called Judas his “friend” at the moment of betrayal (Mt. 26:50). The question is how could Jesus “trust” Judas and feel hurt at the betrayal when He knew from the beginning who should betray Him (Jn. 6:70,71). One window on this is to remember that Jesus shared our human nature, and we have the possibility within that nature to know something very well about a person, and yet our love for them means that we still trust them. Samson's love and trust in Delilah, when it was obvious she was going to betray him, is a parade example. The love of Christ was and is surpassing in its depth. Love isn't cynical, but hopes all things; and He hoped for Judas, that somehow the humanly inevitable wouldn't happen; just as God told prophets like Ezekiel from the start that Israel wouldn't hear them, and yet He appeals for Israel to hear the words of those prophets. That same hopeful love is focused on us who are in Christ; that is the practical encouragement and comfort we can take from this insight into the Lord's thinking about Judas.

42 Korah died in the wilderness and is often highlighted as the ringleader of the rebellion against Moses. But his sons were faithful, and they or their descendants wrote

God. <sup>2</sup> My soul thirsts for God, for the living God. When shall I come and appear before God? <sup>3</sup> My tears have been my food day and night, while they continually ask me, Where is your God? <sup>4</sup> These things I remember and pour out my soul within me, how I used to go with the crowd, and led them to God's house, with the voice of joy and praise, a multitude keeping a holy day. <sup>5</sup> Why are you in despair, my soul? Why are you disturbed within me? Hope in God! For I shall still praise Him for the saving help of His presence. <sup>6</sup> My God, my soul is in despair within me. Therefore I remember You from the land of the Jordan, the heights of Hermon, from the hill Mizar. <sup>7</sup> Deep calls to deep at the noise of Your waterfalls. All Your waves and Your billows have swept over me. <sup>8</sup> Yahweh will command His grace in the daytime. In the night His song shall be with me: a prayer to the God of my life. <sup>9</sup> I will ask God, my rock, Why have You forgotten me? Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy? <sup>10</sup> As with a sword in my bones, my adversaries reproach me, while they continually ask me, Where is your God? <sup>11</sup> Why are you in despair, my soul? Why are you disturbed within me? Hope in God! For I shall still praise Him, the saving help of my countenance, and my God.

Psalm 43 Jan. 23

<sup>1</sup> Vindicate me, God, and plead my cause against an ungodly nation. Oh, deliver me from deceitful and wicked men. <sup>2</sup> For You are the God of my strength. Why have You rejected me? Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy? <sup>3</sup> Oh, send out Your light and Your truth. Let them lead me. Let them bring me to Your holy hill, to Your great tent. <sup>4</sup> Then I will go to the altar of God, to God, my exceeding joy. I will praise You on the harp, God, my God. <sup>5</sup> Why are you in despair, my soul? Why are you disturbed within me? Hope in God! For I shall still praise Him: my saviour, my helper, and my God.

Psalm 44 Jan. 24

<sup>1</sup> We have heard with our ears, God; our fathers have told us, what work

Psalms which are preserved within the book of Psalms. The lesson is that we can rise above our backgrounds and the influence of unbelieving parents, even when it seems that humanly speaking we are victims of our backgrounds. But in Christ we can be a new creation (2 Cor. 5:17).

42:9 Even in times of doubt and misunderstanding at God's apparent silence, we are to still feel that God is our rock.

43:5 Why are you in despair, my soul? – We all talk to ourselves. It's important that our self talk is positive, urging ourselves spiritually onwards, rather than reflecting on the empty things of life which lead nowhere. Note how these prayers recorded in the Psalms merge between addressing God and addressing ourselves; prayer is a time of reflection and openness before God, not simply a list of requests baldly presented to Him.

You did in their days, in the days of old. <sup>2</sup> You drove out the nations with Your hand, but You planted them. You afflicted the peoples, but You spread them abroad. <sup>3</sup> For they didn't get the land in possession by their own sword, neither did their own arm save them; but Your right hand, and Your arm, and the light of Your face, because You were favourable to them. <sup>4</sup> You are my King, God. Command victories for Jacob! <sup>5</sup> Through You will we push down our adversaries. Through Your name will we tread them under who rise up against us. <sup>6</sup> For I will not trust in my bow, neither shall my sword save me. <sup>7</sup> But You have saved us from our adversaries, and have shamed those who hate us. <sup>8</sup> In God we have made our boast all day long, we will give thanks to Your name forever. Selah. <sup>9</sup> But now You rejected us, and brought us to dishonour, and don't go out with our armies. <sup>10</sup> You make us turn back from the adversary. Those who hate us take spoil for themselves. <sup>11</sup> You have made us like sheep for food, and have scattered us among the nations. <sup>12</sup> You sell Your people for nothing, and have gained nothing from their sale. <sup>13</sup> You make us a reproach to our neighbours, a scoffing and a derision to those who are around us. <sup>14</sup> You make us a byword among the nations, a shaking of the head among the peoples. <sup>15</sup> All day long my dishonour is before me, and shame covers my face <sup>16</sup> at the taunt of one who reproaches and verbally abuses, because of the enemy and the avenger. <sup>17</sup> All this has come on us, yet have we not forgotten You, neither have we been false to Your covenant. <sup>18</sup> Our heart has not turned back, neither have our steps strayed from Your path, <sup>19</sup> though You have crushed us in the haunt of jackals, and covered us with the shadow of death. <sup>20</sup> If we have forgotten the name of our God, or spread forth our hands to a strange god; <sup>21</sup> won't God search this out? For He knows the secrets of the heart. <sup>22</sup> Yes, for Your sake we are killed all day long. We are regarded as sheep for the slaugh-

44:3 They didn't get the land in possession by their own sword – This alludes to how Jacob's final words were a claim that he had taken possession in the land by his own sword and bow (Gen. 48:22). Note how :4 says that it was God who gave Jacob his victories. Jacob was a faithful man who will be in the Kingdom, and yet he didn't achieve perfection, and died with weakness and misunderstanding on his lips. Without encouraging complacency, we can take comfort that we will not of ourselves attain moral perfection and will die with some weaknesses and spiritual blind points; and yet still be saved by God's grace if we abide faithful to Him in our hearts. But in this case it is for us to learn the lesson of Jacob's failure – the Psalm goes on to teach us that our inheritance of the Kingdom will be by grace and not by our own sword and strength (:6).

44:22 For Your sake we are killed all day long – Quoted in Rom. 8:36 in the context of teaching that even though we are killed all day long, this cannot separate us from the saving love of Christ. The context of Ps. 44:22 is speaking of how Israel suffered for their sins in being slaughtered by their enemies. So Paul in Romans is comforting

ter. <sup>23</sup> Wake up! Why do You sleep, Lord? Arise! Don't reject us forever. <sup>24</sup> Why do You hide Your face, and forget our affliction and our oppression? <sup>25</sup> For our soul is bowed down to the dust. Our body clings to the earth. <sup>26</sup> Rise up to help us. Redeem us for Your grace' sake.

<sup>1</sup> My heart overflows with a noble theme. I recite my verses for the king. My tongue is like the pen of a skilful writer. <sup>2</sup> You are the most excellent of the sons of men. Grace has anointed your lips, therefore God has blessed you forever. <sup>3</sup> Strap your sword on your thigh, mighty one, in your splendour and your majesty. <sup>4</sup> In your majesty ride victoriously on behalf of truth, humility, and righteousness. Let your right hand display awesome deeds. <sup>5</sup> Your arrows are sharp. The nations fall under you, with arrows in the heart of the king's enemies. <sup>6</sup> Your throne, God, is forever and ever. A sceptre of equity is the sceptre of your kingdom. <sup>7</sup> You have loved righteousness, and hated wickedness; therefore God, even your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness above your fellows. <sup>8</sup> All your garments smell like myrrh, aloes, and cassia. Out of the ivory palaces the stringed instruments have made you glad. <sup>9</sup> Kings' daughters are among your honourable women. At your right hand the queen stands in gold of Ophir. <sup>10</sup> Listen, daughter, consider, and turn your ear. Forget your own people, and also your father's house. <sup>11</sup> So the king will desire your beauty; honour him, for he is your lord. <sup>12</sup> The daughter of Tyre comes with a gift, the rich among the people entreat your favour. <sup>13</sup> The princess inside is all glorious. Her clothing is interwoven with gold. <sup>14</sup> She shall be led to the king in embroidered work. The virgins, her companions who follow her, shall be brought to you. <sup>15</sup> With gladness and rejoicing they shall be led; they shall enter into the king's palace. <sup>16</sup> Your sons will take the place of your fa-

us that although we may suffer for our sins, even those sufferings do not separate us from the saving love of Christ who quite simply so earnestly wants to save us in the end.

45:6, 7 Quoted in Heb. 1:8,9 to demonstrate the greatness and humanity of Christ. He is clearly not God Himself because God the Father is referred to as Christ's God ("your God"). Yet the term "God" is applied to Him in :6, in the sense that the Hebrew word here translated "God" means simply a "mighty one", a term which has just been used about Christ in :3. We are the "fellows" of Jesus (:7), and He was only exalted above us by God, not because He Himself was in nature above us. This exaltation was not at His birth but at the end of His mortal life, in which He had demonstrated His love for righteousness. He was "anointed" in that He was "made... Christ", which means 'anointed', by God, after His resurrection (Acts 2:36).

45:11 A spiritual man will perceive beauty in a woman in relation to how far she has separated from the things of the world (:10) and is separated unto God's things.

thers; you shall make them princes in all the land. <sup>17</sup> I will make your name to be remembered in all generations. Therefore the peoples shall give you praise forever and ever.

Psalm 46 Jan. 26

For the Chief Musician. By the sons of Korah. According to Alamoth.

tions He has made in the earth. <sup>9</sup> He makes wars cease to the end of the earth. He breaks the bow, and shatters the spear. He burns the chariots in the fire. <sup>10</sup> Be still, and know that I am God. I will be exalted among the nations. I will be exalted in the earth. <sup>11</sup> Yahweh of Armies is with us. The God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah.

46:5 God will help her at dawn – The return of Christ to earth is likened to the rising of the sun at daybreak (Mal. 4:2). The final visible intervention of God in response to our prayers will be at this time. The earthquakes and tidal waves spoken of in :2,3 may refer to the time of trouble which will come on earth just prior to Christ's return.

47:4 Jacob whom He loved. Selah – We are to meditate ("Selah") upon the fact that God so loved Jacob, and was and is the God who was Jacob's God. There are so many references to Jacob in the Psalms. Jacob was spiritually weak for much of his life, and was led by God to a final spiritual maturity, although Jacob responded very slowly and weakly to this leading over the decades of his life. The Psalms encourage us that our God is the God who stuck with and dearly loved Jacob. Abraham showed more faith and spirituality than Jacob, but God is more frequently referred to as Jacob's God rather than Abraham's.

48:8 God will establish it forever. Selah – The point of meditation here ("Selah") is that Jerusalem will last forever – because God promised David that his great son, the princes of the peoples are gathered together, the people of the God of Abraham. For the shields of the earth belong to God. He is greatly exalted!

Psalm 48 Jan. 26

<sup>1</sup> Great is Yahweh, and greatly to be praised in the city of our God, in His holy mountain. <sup>2</sup> Beautiful in elevation, the joy of the whole earth, is Mount Zion, on the north sides, the city of the great King. <sup>3</sup> God has shown Himself in her citadels as a refuge. <sup>4</sup> For, behold, the kings assembled themselves, they passed by together. <sup>5</sup> They saw it, then they were amazed. They were dismayed. They hurried away. <sup>6</sup> Trembling took hold of them there, pain, as of a woman in travail. <sup>7</sup> With the east wind, You break the ships of Tarshish. <sup>8</sup> As we have heard, so we have seen, in the city of Yahweh of Armies, in the city of our God. God will establish it forever. Selah. <sup>9</sup> We have thought about Your grace, God, in the midst of Your temple. <sup>10</sup> As is Your name, God, so is Your praise to the ends of the earth. Your right hand is full of righteousness. <sup>11</sup> Let Mount Zion be glad! Let the daughters of Judah rejoice because of Your judgments. <sup>12</sup> Walk about Zion, and go around her. Number its towers. <sup>13</sup> Mark well her bulwarks. Consider her palaces, that you may tell it to the next generation. <sup>14</sup> For this God is our God forever and ever. He will be our guide even to death.

<sup>1</sup> Hear this, all you peoples. Listen, all you inhabitants of the world, <sup>2</sup> both low and high, rich and poor together. <sup>3</sup> My mouth will speak words of wisdom, my heart shall utter understanding. <sup>4</sup> I will bend my ear to a proverb, I will open my riddle on the harp. <sup>5</sup> Why should I fear in the days of evil, when iniquity barks at my heels, surrounding me? <sup>6</sup> Those who trust in their wealth and boast in the multitude of their riches— <sup>7</sup> none of them can by any means redeem his brother, nor give God a ransom for him. <sup>8</sup> For the redemption of their life is costly, no payment is ever enough, <sup>9</sup> that he should live on forever, that he should not see corruption. <sup>10</sup> For He sees that wise men

Lord Jesus, would reign on his throne, i.e. in Jerusalem, forever (2 Sam. 7:12-16). For all the metaphor and symbology of the Bible, there are some basic literal realities we are to ever keep in mind; and one of these is that Christ shall literally reign for ever from Jerusalem over God's Kingdom on earth.

48:10 The content of our praise is to be the Name of God, which is His characteristics (Ex. 34:4-6).

49:8 It may seem obvious that money can't buy a place in God's Kingdom, but whilst everybody would agree to that statement, effectively those who trust in wealth to the exclusion of faith in God are saying just this. The price of redemption is far more than money – it was ultimately in the blood of God's dear Son.

die; likewise the fool and the senseless perish, and leave their wealth to others. <sup>11</sup> Their inward thought is that their houses will endure forever, and their dwelling places to all generations. They name their lands after themselves. <sup>12</sup> But man, despite his riches, doesn't endure. He is like the animals that perish. <sup>13</sup> This is the destiny of those who are foolish, and of those who approve their sayings. Selah. <sup>14</sup> They are appointed as a flock for Sheol. Death shall be their shepherd. The upright shall have dominion over them in the morning. Their beauty shall decay in Sheol, far from their mansions. <sup>15</sup> But God will redeem my soul from the power of Sheol, for He will receive me. Selah. <sup>16</sup> Don't be afraid when a man is made rich, when the glory of his house is increased. <sup>17</sup> For when he dies he shall carry nothing away; his glory shall not descend after him. <sup>18</sup> Though while he lived he blessed his soul— and men praise you when you do well for yourself— <sup>19</sup> he shall go to the generation of his fathers. They shall never see the light. <sup>20</sup> A man who has riches without understanding is like the animals that perish.

49:11 We live under the illusion that we are somehow rational, logical and sensible in our decision making and attitudes. But in fact we are not. Human beings can be incredibly stupid and live in denial of the obvious. We shall die and in that sense lose whatever wealth or property we have acquired on the earth. But the inward thought of people is that somehow, that wealth remains personally attached to them after their death. This is a penetrating psychological insight. It mocks at any desire to attain personal wealth which will endure after our death; now is the time to use whatever we have in the Lord's service.

49:12 He is like the animals that perish – A proof of man's mortal nature, disproving the myths of reincarnation and life in Heaven after death.

49:19,20 Those who don't understand God's ways and aren't therefore responsible to His judgment will remain dead for ever like the animals.

50:1 Speaks, and calls the earth – God created the world through the medium of His word, He spoke and it was done. But He hasn't as it were turned away from His creation; the cycles within the natural creation may appear to be clockwork, but in a sense God consciously brings them forth again by the medium of His word. That word as manifest to us through the Bible is equally active and powerful in an ongoing and always creative way. The idea of our living in an active universe, in which all things are consciously within God's awareness and a result of the ongoing activity of His word, means that truly God is never far from us; we simply need to look out at the natural creation to feel again His active involvement in our world. See on 65:6.

<sup>5</sup> Gather My saints together to Me, those who have made a covenant with Me by sacrifice. <sup>6</sup> The heavens shall declare His righteousness, for God Himself is judge. Selah. <sup>7</sup> Hear, My people, and I will speak; Israel, and I will testify against you. I am God, your God. <sup>8</sup> I don't rebuke you for your sacrifices. Your burnt offerings are continually before Me. <sup>9</sup> I have no need for a bull from your stall, nor male goats from your pens. <sup>10</sup> For every animal of the forest is Mine, and the cattle on a thousand hills. <sup>11</sup> I know all the birds of the mountains. The wild animals of the field are Mine. <sup>12</sup> If I were hungry, I would not tell you, for the world is Mine, and all that is in it. <sup>13</sup> Will I eat the flesh of bulls, or drink the blood of goats? <sup>14</sup> Offer to God the sacrifice of thanksgiving, pay your vows to the Most High. <sup>15</sup> Call on Me in the day of trouble; I will deliver you, and you will honour Me. <sup>16</sup> But to the wicked God says, What right do you have to declare My statutes and to have taken My covenant on your lips, <sup>17</sup> since you hate instruction, and throw My words behind you? <sup>18</sup> When you saw a thief, you consented with him, and have participated with adulterers. <sup>19</sup> You give your mouth to evil, your tongue frames deceit. <sup>20</sup> You sit and speak against your brother, you slander your own mother's son. <sup>21</sup> You have done these things, and I kept silent. You thought that I was just like you. I will rebuke you, and accuse you in front of your eyes. <sup>22</sup> Now consider this, you who forget God, lest I tear you into pieces, and there be none to deliver. <sup>23</sup> Whoever offers the sacrifice of thanksgiving glorifies Me, and prepares his way so that I will show God's salvation to him.

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David, when Nathan the prophet came to him, after he had gone in to Bathsheba.

<sup>1</sup> Have mercy on me, God, according to Your grace. According to the multitude of Your tender mercies, blot out my transgressions. <sup>2</sup> Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, cleanse me from my sin. <sup>3</sup> For I acknowledge my transgressions; my sin is constantly before me. <sup>4</sup> Against You, and You only, have I sinned, and done

50:5 When Christ returns, the faithful will be gathered to judgment (Mt. 24:31); and it is the gathering of the faithful which this Psalm has in view. But this is only part of the wider Biblical picture, which speaks of all those responsible to God being also gathered to judgment.

50:15 Call on Me in the day of trouble – This is the sacrifice which God wants. Rather than us giving things to God, He wants us to trust in Him, to turn to Him before turning to anything else.

50:21 The apparent silence of God can deceive the wicked into thinking they will not give account to Him. But there will be in some sense a going through with the wicked of all their deeds (Mt. 25:43). This will be such an awful experience for them that it will of itself be their punishment; for ultimately, they will return to the dust never to exist again, seeing that the wages for sin is ultimately death (Rom. 6:23).

that which is evil in Your sight; that You may be proved right when You speak, and justified when You judge.

<sup>5</sup> Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity. In sin my mother conceived me.

<sup>6</sup> Behold, You desire truth in the inward parts; You teach me wisdom in the innermost place. <sup>7</sup> Purify me with hyssop, and I will be clean; wash me, and I will be whiter than snow. <sup>8</sup> Let me hear joy and gladness, so that the bones which You have broken may rejoice. <sup>9</sup> Hide Your face from my sins, and blot out all of my iniquities.

<sup>11</sup> Don't throw me out from Your presence, and don't take Your spirit of holiness from me. <sup>12</sup> Restore to me the joy of Your salvation, uphold me with a willing spirit. <sup>13</sup> Then I will teach transgressors Your ways, sinners shall be converted to You.

<sup>14</sup> Deliver me from blood guiltiness, O God, the God of my salvation. My tongue shall sing aloud of Your righteousness. <sup>15</sup> Lord, open my lips; my mouth shall declare Your praise.

<sup>16</sup> For You don't delight in sacrifice, or else I would give it; You have no pleasure in burnt offering. <sup>17</sup> The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit, a broken and contrite heart, O God, You will not despise. <sup>18</sup> Do well in Your good pleasure to Zion, build the walls of Jerusalem. <sup>19</sup> Then You will delight in the sacrifices of righteousness, in burnt offerings and in whole burnt offerings. Then they will offer bullocks on Your altar.

Psalm 52 Jan. 29

For the Chief Musician. A contemplation by David, when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul, David has come to Abimelech's house.

51:6 Truth in the inward parts – The innermost truth we can come to know is that we really have sinned and been forgiven; this is the ultimate “wisdom” rather than any intellectual knowledge or theological purity.

51:10 God can act directly on our hearts and create mindsets and attitudes, in response to our desire for them.

51:13 David vowed to respond to God's gracious forgiveness of him by preaching to others. Our motivation for witness should be our own very personal awareness of having received forgiveness and grace which we never possibly deserved.

51:16 There was no sacrifice under the Mosaic law which could cleanse David from the sins he had committed.

52:4 You deceitful tongue – David is addressing Doeg (see the Psalm title), but he speaks of Doeg as if Doeg is his tongue. We are identified with our words, they are us, just as God's word is Him (Jn. 1:3). We can't therefore excuse ourselves from bad speaking by reasoning that in our hearts we are not like that. Our words reflect us, and therefore by them we will be condemned or justified in the last judgment (Mt. 12:37).

ever. He will take you up, and pluck you out of your tent, and root you out of the land of the living. Selah. <sup>6</sup> The righteous also will see it, and fear, and laugh at him, saying, <sup>7</sup> Behold, this is the man who didn't make God his strength, but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness. <sup>8</sup> But as for me, I am like a green olive tree in God's house. I trust in God's grace forever and ever. <sup>9</sup> I will give You thanks forever, because You have done it. I will hope in Your name, for it is good, in the presence of Your saints.

Psalm 53 Jan. 30

<sup>1</sup> The fool has said in his heart, There is no God. They are corrupt, and have done abominable iniquity. There is no one who does good. <sup>2</sup> God looks down from heaven on the children of men, to see if there are any who understood, who seek after God. <sup>3</sup> Every one of them has gone back. They have become filthy together. There is no one who does good, no, not one. <sup>4</sup> Have the workers of iniquity no knowledge, who eat up my people as they eat bread, and don't call on God? <sup>5</sup> There they were in great fear, where no fear was, for God has scattered the bones of him who encamps against you. You have put them to shame, because God has rejected them. <sup>6</sup> Oh that the salvation of Israel would come out of Zion! When God brings back His people from captivity, then Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

Psalm 54 Jan. 30

For the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments. A contemplation by David, when the Ziphites came and said to Saul, Isn't David hiding himself among us?

<sup>1</sup> Save me, God, by Your name. Vindicate me in Your might. <sup>2</sup> Hear my prayer, God. Listen to the words of

52:8 I am like a green olive tree in God's house – But David at this time was on the run from Saul in the wilderness, and was not calmly sitting in the tabernacle; nor was he physically “in the presence of Your saints” (:9). And yet within his own heart, David felt identified with God's people and in His presence. This is a comfort for those who may be isolated from church life and from other believers; we can really be there in spirit, as David was in his wilderness years.

53:2 Who understood, who seek after God – To seek for God, thereby recognizing that we don't understand Him to perfection, is considered by Him to be understanding Him.

53:3 These verses speak of a category of people who in their heart are at times pure atheists (:1), and who are described as “filthy” and do no good. We are therefore shocked to find Paul quoting these words about every one of us (Rom. 3:12). There in Romans Paul is seeking to challenge the attitude that ‘I may be a sinner, but I'm not like them’. He does so in order to convict us of our sin, and the just sentence of death which is upon us; in order to help us gasp with more wonder and gratitude at God's amazing grace in having counted us as righteous because we are baptized into Christ.

my mouth. <sup>3</sup> For strangers have risen up against me, violent men have sought after my soul. They haven't set God before them. Selah. <sup>4</sup> Behold, God is my helper, the Lord is the one who sustains my soul. <sup>5</sup> He will repay the evil to my enemies; destroy them in Your truth. <sup>6</sup> With a free will offering, I will sacrifice to You. I will give thanks to Your name, Yahweh, for it is good. <sup>7</sup> For He has delivered me out of all trouble. My eye has seen triumph over my enemies.

On stringed instruments. A contemplation by David.

<sup>1</sup> Listen to my prayer, God. Don't hide Yourself from my supplication. <sup>2</sup> Attend to me, and answer me. I am restless in my complaint and moan, <sup>3</sup> because of the words of the enemy, because of the oppression of the wicked. For they bring suffering on me, in anger they hold a grudge against me. <sup>4</sup> My heart is severely pained within me, the terrors of death have come upon me. <sup>5</sup> Fearfulness and trembling have come upon me, horror has overwhelmed me. <sup>6</sup> I said, Oh that I had wings like a dove! Then I would fly away, and be at rest. <sup>7</sup> Behold, then I would wander far off, I would lodge in the wilderness. Selah. <sup>8</sup> I would hurry to a shelter from the stormy wind and storm. <sup>9</sup> Confuse them, Lord, and confound their language, for I have seen violence and strife in the city. <sup>10</sup> Day and night they prowl around on its walls, malice and abuse are also within her. <sup>11</sup> Destructive forces are within her, threats and lies don't depart from her streets. <sup>12</sup> For it was not an enemy who insulted me, then I could have endured it; neither was it he who hated me who raised himself up against me, then I would have hidden myself from him. <sup>13</sup> But it was you, a man like me, my companion, and my familiar friend. <sup>14</sup> We took sweet fellowship together, we walked to God's house in company. <sup>15</sup> Let death come suddenly on them,

55:3 Because of the words – The mental suffering David describes in these verses was largely because of the words of his enemies; words really can make people feel like dying and lead them to suicidal thoughts. Words can never be treated as 'only words'; they have a real power, and therefore we have a deep responsibility for our words. We must remember this, living as we do in a society which judges behaviour far harder than it does 'mere' words. No threat in this sense is ever an 'empty threat', because words are of themselves so destructive.

55:9 Confound their language – Exactly what God did to those who built the tower of Babel (Gen. 11:7). We like David need to see our abusers in Biblical terms, seeing how in essence our abusers are so similar to those in Biblical incidents.

55:13, 14 This refers to David's betrayal by Ahithophel, Bathsheba's grandfather, and his own one time confidante (2 Sam. 15:31; 1 Chron. 27:33). It is clearly typical of Christ's betrayal by Judas, whom he also calls his "friend" (Mt. 26:50); as to why Christ in this sense trusted Judas so as to be so hurt by his betrayal, see on 41:9. The historical record simply states Ahithophel's betrayal of David, but here we see how David didn't just take it stoically, but was deeply hurt by it and poured out his soul let them go down alive into Sheol. For wickedness is in their dwelling, in their midst. <sup>16</sup> As for me, I will call on God. Yahweh will save me. <sup>17</sup> Evening, morning, and at noon, I will cry out in distress; He will hear my voice. <sup>18</sup> He has redeemed my soul in peace from the battle that was against me, although there are many who oppose me. <sup>19</sup> God, who is enthroned forever, will hear, and answer them. Selah. They never change, those who don't fear God. <sup>20</sup> He raises his hands against his friends, he has violated his covenant. <sup>21</sup> His mouth was smooth as butter, but his heart was war. His words were softer than oil, yet they were drawn swords. <sup>22</sup> Cast your burden on Yahweh, and He will sustain you. He will never allow the righteous to be moved. <sup>23</sup> But You, God, will bring them down into the pit of destruction. Bloodthirsty and deceitful men shall not live out half their days, but I will trust in You.

Psalm 56 Jan. 31

<sup>1</sup> Be merciful to me, God, for man wants to swallow me up. All day long he attacks and oppresses me.

<sup>2</sup> My enemies want to swallow me up all day long, for they are many who fight proudly against me. <sup>3</sup> When I am afraid, I will put my trust in You. <sup>4</sup> In God, I praise His word. In God do I put my trust. I will not be afraid—what can flesh do to me? <sup>5</sup> All day long they twist my words, all their thoughts are against me for evil. <sup>6</sup> They conspire and lurk, watching my steps, they are eager to take my life. <sup>7</sup> Shall they escape by iniquity? In anger cast down the peoples, God. <sup>8</sup> You number my wanderings, You put my tears into Your bottle. Aren't they in Your book? <sup>9</sup> Then my enemies shall turn back in the day that I call. I know this, that God is for me. <sup>10</sup> In God, I will praise His word. In Yahweh, I will praise His word. <sup>11</sup> I have put my trust in God; I will not be afraid. What can man do to me? <sup>12</sup> Your vows are on me, God. I will give thank offerings to You. <sup>13</sup> For You have delivered my soul from death, and prevented my feet from falling, that I may walk before God in the light of the living.

Psalm 57 Jan. 31

to God in hurt and pain. We need to imagine the feelings of the Biblical characters as they went through the events which are historically recorded.

56:8 Tear bottles were kept by mourners at funerals; they put their tears in a bottle which they then kept in memory of the deceased. But David says that his tears are in God's bottle. The idea was that your tears went into your bottle. But David was so intimate with God that he perceived that his tears were in fact God's. The intimacy David achieved with God is absolutely possible for us too.

ful to me, for my soul takes refuge in You. Yes, in the shadow of Your wings I will take refuge, until disaster has passed. <sup>2</sup> I cry out to God Most High, to God who accomplishes my requests for me. <sup>3</sup> He will send from heaven and save me, He rebukes the one who is pursuing me. Selah. God will send out His grace and His truth. <sup>4</sup> My soul is among lions. I lie among those who are set on fire, even the sons of men, whose teeth are spears and arrows, and their tongue a sharp sword. <sup>5</sup> Be exalted, God, above the heavens! Let Your glory be above all the earth! <sup>6</sup> They have prepared a net for my steps. My soul is bowed down, they dig a snare before me. They fall into its midst themselves. Selah. <sup>7</sup> My heart is steadfast, God, my heart is steadfast. I will sing, yes, I will sing praises. <sup>8</sup> Wake up, my glory! Wake up, psaltery and harp! I will wake up the dawn. <sup>9</sup> I will give thanks to You, Lord, among the peoples, I will sing praises to You among the nations. <sup>10</sup> For Your great grace reaches to the heavens, and Your truth to the skies. <sup>11</sup> Be exalted, God, above the heavens. Let Your glory be over all the earth.

<sup>1</sup> Do you indeed speak righteousness, silent ones? Do you judge blamelessly, you sons of men? <sup>2</sup> No, in your heart you plot injustice. You measure out the violence of your hands in the earth. <sup>3</sup> The wicked go astray from the womb. They are wayward as soon as they are born, speaking lies. <sup>4</sup> Their poison is like the poison of a snake; like a deaf cobra that stops its ear, <sup>5</sup> which doesn't listen to the voice of charmers, no matter how skilful the charmer may be. <sup>6</sup> Break their teeth, God, in their mouth. Break out the great teeth of the young lions, Yahweh. <sup>7</sup> Let them vanish as water that flows away. When they draw the bow, let their arrows be made blunt. <sup>8</sup> Let them be like the path of a snail which melts and passes away, like the stillborn child, who has not seen the sun. <sup>9</sup> Before your pots can feel the heat of the thorns,

57:1 David didn't see the physical cave he was hiding in (see Psalm title) as his refuge, but rather perceived God as his refuge. We may use medicines, doctors and all kinds of human things in our times of need, but we must perceive God as our true helper and final saviour rather than any of those things.

57:4 The vagabonds who supported David during his wilderness years were unspiritual men, and David so desperately longed for spiritual company. But David in his heart was ecstatic at God's presence, and must've composed these words whilst laying with those men in the cave. This is a parade example to us of spiritual mindedness in unspiritual company.

58:1 Silent ones – There is a time to keep silence, but if we don't speak out for the abused at times we are paralleled with those who are proactively abusive. So much evil happens because 'good' people do nothing.

he will sweep away the green and the burning alike. <sup>10</sup> The righteous shall rejoice when he sees the vengeance. He shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked; <sup>11</sup> so that men shall say, Most certainly there is a reward for the righteous. Most certainly there is a God who judges the earth.

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of Do Not Destroy. A poem by David, when Saul sent, and they watched the house to kill him.

yourself to punish the nations. Show no mercy to the wicked traitors. Selah. <sup>6</sup> They return at evening, howling like dogs, and prowl around the city. <sup>7</sup> Behold, they spew with their mouth; swords are in their lips, For, they say, who hears us? <sup>8</sup> But You, Yahweh, laugh at them. You scoff at all the nations. <sup>9</sup> Oh my Strength, I watch for You, for God is my high tower. <sup>10</sup> My God will go before me with His grace. God will let me look at my enemies in triumph. <sup>11</sup> Don't kill them immediately, or my people may forget. Scatter them by Your power, and bring them down, Lord our shield. <sup>12</sup> For the sin of their mouth, and the words of their lips, let them be caught in their pride, for the curses and lies which they utter. <sup>13</sup> Consume them in wrath, consume them, and they will be no more. Let them know that God rules in Jacob, to the ends of the earth. Selah. <sup>14</sup> At evening let them return. Let them howl like a dog, and go around the city. <sup>15</sup> They shall wander up and

58:10 Our natural unease at reading these kinds of things is a reflection of our underestimate of the seriousness of sin, and the desperate need which there is for justice to be done. If we have such a perspective, then we will rejoice to see it done at the last day.

59:14, 15 This seems to speak of the rejected at the last day. Just as the rejected virgins knock at the door earnestly wanting Jesus to open to them (Mt. 25:11), as Cain dwelt at the east of Eden in the hope of being readmitted to Paradise (Gen. 4:16), so the wicked of David's time [who were Israelites, members of God's covenant people] will walk around the holy city wishing to be let in, howling like desperate dogs. Rev. 22:15 using the same figure for the rejected – dogs outside God's city. In that final day of eternal truth, nobody will be indifferent; all present there will desperately wish to be in God's Kingdom. If our final destiny is to stand before God desperately desiring to be in His Kingdom, we must live our lives today with the same passion; for we make the answer now. All too late the rejected will come to really believe in God's eternal Kingdom on earth (:13); but it will be too late to change anything, for the judgment is ongoing now.

down for food, and howl all night because they aren't satisfied. <sup>16</sup> But I will sing of Your strength. Yes, I will sing aloud of Your grace in the morning. For You have been my high tower, a refuge in the day of my distress. <sup>17</sup> To You, my strength, I will sing praises. For God is my high tower, the God of my mercy.

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of The Lily of the Covenant. A teaching poem by David, when he fought with Aram Naharaim and with Aram Zobah, and Joab returned, and killed twelve thousand of Edom in the Valley of Salt.

<sup>1</sup> God, You have rejected us. You have broken us down, You have been angry. Restore us again. <sup>2</sup> You have made the land tremble, You have torn it. Mend its fractures, for it quakes. <sup>3</sup> You have shown Your people hard things, You have made us drink the wine that makes us stagger. <sup>4</sup> You have given a banner to those who fear You, that it may be displayed because of the truth. Selah. <sup>5</sup> So that Your beloved may be delivered, save with Your right hand, and answer us.

60:3 You have made us drink the wine – Being given a cup of wine to drink is a double symbol; it speaks of either our eternal blessing (1 Cor. 10:16) or condemnation. The communion service is therefore designed to bring us up against the two possible futures which there are for us; blessing or condemnation. We therefore drink either to our blessing or to our condemnation (1 Cor. 11:29). It is therefore a powerful aid towards self-examination.

60:9 Who has led me to Edom? – The Psalm title shows that this was a song written in response to Israel's victory over Edom, but in it David continually emphasizes how their earlier attempt had failed because of their sin. Even when God does great things for us, we must be ever aware of our sins and unworthiness of any victory He gives us.

<sup>6</sup> God has spoken from His sanctuary: I will triumph. I will divide Shechem, and measure out the valley of Succoth. <sup>7</sup> Gilead is Mine and Manasseh is Mine. Ephraim also is the helmet of My head. Judah is My sceptre. <sup>8</sup> Moab is My wash basin. I will throw My shoe on Edom, I shout in triumph over Philistia. <sup>9</sup> Who will bring me into the strong city? Who has led me to Edom? <sup>10</sup> Haven't You, God, rejected us? You don't go out with our armies, God. <sup>11</sup> Give us help against the adversary, for the help of man is vain. <sup>12</sup> Through God we shall do valiantly, for it is He who will tread down our adversaries.

<sup>1</sup> Hear my cry, God. Listen to my prayer. <sup>2</sup> From the end of the land I will call to You when my heart is overwhelmed. Lead me to the rock that is higher than I. <sup>3</sup> For You have been a refuge for me, a strong tower from the enemy. <sup>4</sup> I will dwell in Your tent forever, I will take refuge in the shelter of Your wings. Selah. <sup>5</sup> For You, God, have heard my vows. You have given me the heritage of those who fear Your name. <sup>6</sup> You will prolong the king's life; his years shall be for generations. <sup>7</sup> He shall be enthroned in God's presence forever. Appoint Your grace and truth that they may preserve him. <sup>8</sup> So I will sing praise to Your name forever, that I may fulfil my vows daily.

<sup>1</sup> My soul rests in God alone. My salvation is from Him. <sup>2</sup> He alone is my rock and my salvation, my fortress— I will never be greatly shaken. <sup>3</sup> How long will you assault a man, would all of you throw him down, like a leaning wall, like a tottering fence? <sup>4</sup> They fully intend to throw him down from his high place. They delight in lies; they bless with their mouth, but they curse inwardly. Selah. <sup>5</sup> My soul, wait in silence for God alone, for my expectation is from Him. <sup>6</sup> He alone is my rock and my salvation, my fortress. I will not be shaken. <sup>7</sup> With God is my salvation and my honour. The rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God. <sup>8</sup> Trust in Him at all times, you people. Pour out your heart before Him. God is a refuge for us. Selah. <sup>9</sup> Surely men of low degree are just a breath, and men of high degree are a lie. In the balances they will go up; they are together lighter than a breath. <sup>10</sup> Don't trust in oppression, don't become vain in robbery. If riches increase, don't set your heart on them. <sup>11</sup> God has spoken once; twice I have heard this, that power belongs to God. <sup>12</sup> Also to You, Lord, belongs grace, for You reward every man according to his work.

61:6, 7 Although David clearly expected to die, as other Psalms indicate, he understood that he had been promised eternal life in that the promises to him were that he would see his great descendant, the Lord Jesus, reigning eternally in Jerusalem (2 Sam. 7:16). This necessitated a resurrection to eternal life. The idea of eternal life is found in the Old Testament because it is required by the promises to Abraham and David which were the basis of God's covenant; it didn't just arise in the New Testament. The future life, death and resurrection of Christ was the basis upon which those earlier promises of eternity had been made, but the basic promise of eternal salvation had begun to be offered in Genesis.

62:1 God alone – The Hebrew word translated “alone” also means “one”. The fact that God is one isn't merely a numerical statement. Because there is only one God, we are to trust Him alone. In life's crises we are to turn to God alone, quite simply because there is only one God. Our belief in the unity of God isn't merely a theological position, it has huge practical meaning – especially in a world where there are so many attempts to replace trust in God, be it through insurance policies, clever lawyers, smart doctors or roadside rescue services.

62:12 You reward every man according to his work – Quoted in Rev. 22:12 about what will happen at the judgment seat of Christ at His return. Because God has this principle, of judging according to behaviour, we thereby see His grace – for despite this, He will still save us. And that, therefore, must be by His grace alone.

A Psalm by David, when he was in the desert of Judah.

<sup>1</sup> God, You are my God; I will earnestly seek You. My soul thirsts for You, my flesh longs for You, in a dry and weary land, where there is no water. <sup>2</sup> So I have seen You in the sanctuary, watching Your power and Your glory. <sup>3</sup> Because Your grace is better than life, my lips shall praise You. <sup>4</sup> So I will bless You while I live, I will lift up my hands in Your name. <sup>5</sup> My soul shall be satisfied as with the richest food. My mouth shall praise You with joyful lips <sup>6</sup> when I remember You on my bed, and think about You in the night watches. <sup>7</sup> For You have been my help; I will rejoice in the shadow of Your wings. <sup>8</sup> My soul stays close to You, Your right hand upholds me. <sup>9</sup> But those who seek my soul to destroy it shall go into the lower parts of the earth. <sup>10</sup> They shall be given over to the power of the sword. They shall be jackal food. <sup>11</sup> But the king shall rejoice in God. Everyone who swears by Him will praise Him, for the mouth of those who speak lies shall be stopped.

63:11 The mouth of those who speak lies shall be stopped – This is quoted about all of us in Rom. 3:19, where Paul reasons that because we're all sinners, we're all liars – for untruth is the essence of sin. By doing so we're not being true to ourselves, to God, to His word, to our brethren... we profess covenant relationship with God, to be His people, and yet we fail to keep the terms of that covenant. In the context, Paul is teaching that the Law of Moses convicted all God's people of this, and in this way led them to the need for Christ. Yet Is. 52:15 prophesied that the crucified Jesus would result in men shutting their mouths. The righteousness and perfection displayed there in one Man, the very human Lord Jesus, has the same effect upon us as the Law of Moses – we shut our mouths, convicted of sin.

64:9 All mankind shall be in awe – We wonder how “all mankind” will be in awe at the judgment of some Israelites in David's time who abused him. The fact is that they will be resurrected and judged, and the judgment will in some sense be public, before all (Rev. 16:15). It will be an amazing teaching mechanism, seeing the lives of billions done. <sup>10</sup> The righteous shall be glad in Yahweh, and shall take refuge in Him. All the upright in heart shall praise Him!

<sup>2</sup> You who hear prayer, to You all men will come. <sup>3</sup> Sins overwhelmed me, but You atoned for our transgressions. <sup>4</sup> Blessed is the person whom You choose and cause to come near, that he may live in Your courts. We will be filled with the goodness of Your house, Your holy temple. <sup>5</sup> By awesome deeds of righteousness You answer us, God of our salvation. You who are the hope of all the ends of the earth, of those who are far away on the sea; <sup>6</sup> who by His power forms the mountains, having armed Yourself with strength; <sup>7</sup> who stills the roaring of the seas, the crashing of their waves, and the turmoil of the nations. <sup>8</sup> They also who dwell in distant places are afraid at Your wonders. You call the morning's dawn and the evening with songs of joy. <sup>9</sup> You visit the earth, and water it; You greatly enrich it. The river of God is full of water. You provide them grain, for so You have ordained it. <sup>10</sup> You drench its furrows, You level its ridges, You soften it with showers, You bless it with a crop. <sup>11</sup> You crown the year with Your bounty, Your carts overflow with abundance. <sup>12</sup> The wilderness grasslands overflow, the hills are clothed with gladness. <sup>13</sup> The pastures are covered with flocks, the valleys also are clothed with grain. They shout for joy! They also sing.

of people played back and analyzed, and observing the condemnation of the wicked. It will prepare us for entry to God's eternal Kingdom, understanding His principles and grace in a way which we have perhaps not risen to in this life – even though His judgments are in His word and are even now made manifest.

65:3 You atoned for our transgressions – The atonement for sin was achieved through the death of Christ, who hadn't died at David's time. But God forgave sin in Old Testament times on the basis that He foresaw the death of Christ, who as it were was slain from the beginning (Rev. 13:8). God speaks of things which don't exist as though they do (Rom. 4:17), because He views from outside the limitations of human time. This is why He can speak of things and persons (not least His Son) as existing before they did. This doesn't mean they pre-existed in any literal sense, but they existed in His plan and purpose.

65:6 By His power forms the mountains – God didn't just form the mountains at the time of Genesis 1 and leave them, He is actively forming mountains to this day. A theme of this Psalm is that God is actively at work in the natural creation; the water cycle doesn't as it were run on clockwork but rather as a result of God's active, conscious and passionate involvement (:9-11) – see on 50:1.

name! Offer glory and praise! <sup>3</sup> Tell God, How awesome are Your deeds! Through the greatness of Your power, Your enemies submit themselves to You. <sup>4</sup> All the earth will worship You, and will sing to You; they will sing to Your name. Selah. <sup>5</sup> Come and see God's deeds— awesome work on behalf of the children of men. <sup>6</sup> He turned the sea into dry land, they went through the river on foot. There we rejoiced in Him. <sup>7</sup> He rules by His might forever, His eyes watch the nations. Don't let the rebellious rise up against Him. Selah. <sup>8</sup> Praise our God, you peoples! Make the sound of His praise heard, <sup>9</sup> who preserves our life among the living, and doesn't allow our feet to be moved. <sup>10</sup> For You, God, have tested us. You have refined us, as silver is refined. <sup>11</sup> You brought us into prison, You laid a burden on our backs. <sup>12</sup> You allowed men to ride over our heads. We went through fire and through water, but You brought us to the place of abundance. <sup>13</sup> I will come into Your temple with burnt offerings. I will pay my vows to You, <sup>14</sup> which my lips promised and my mouth spoke, when I was in distress. <sup>15</sup> I will offer to You burnt offerings of fat animals, with the offering of rams, I will offer bulls with goats. Selah. <sup>16</sup> Come and hear, all you who fear God; I will declare what He has done for my soul. <sup>17</sup> I cried to Him with my mouth. He was extolled with my tongue. <sup>18</sup> If I cherished sin in my heart, the Lord wouldn't have listened. <sup>19</sup> But most certainly, God has listened. He has heard the voice of my prayer. <sup>20</sup> Blessed be God, who has not turned away my prayer, nor His grace from me.

<sup>1</sup> May God be merciful to us, bless us, and cause His face to shine on us. Selah. <sup>2</sup> That Your way may be known on earth, and Your salvation

66:1, 2 Often the Psalms invite the Gentile world to join with Israel in their praise of God as their saviour (also :5). Israel were intended to be a light to the Gentiles around them, and to bring them to faith and covenant relationship with God. They failed in this, for the most part, despite these faithful Psalmists who sought to do so through the medium of producing songs which they hoped would penetrate into the surrounding nations. The great commission bids each of us to take the same message into the Gentile darkness around us.

66:6 We rejoiced in Him – Often in the Psalms we are invited to consider ourselves as Israel in Egypt, subsequently rejoicing at the Red Sea deliverance; hence the Psalmist speaks of “us” as having gone through Israel's experience of suffering and salvation (:11,12). The New Testament likewise invites us to see our baptism as a passing through the Red Sea, and our lives today as like their wilderness journey towards the Kingdom (1 Cor. 10:1-4). We are to as it were play ‘Bible television’, imagining the events as if we were there historically; for spiritually, it is all equally true for us in our salvation from this world of sin.

among all nations, <sup>3</sup> let the peoples praise You, God. Let all the peoples praise You. <sup>4</sup> Oh let the nations be glad and sing for joy, for You will judge the peoples with equity, and govern the nations on earth. Selah. <sup>5</sup> Let the peoples praise You, God. Let all the peoples praise You. <sup>6</sup> The earth has yielded its increase. God, even our own God, will bless us. <sup>7</sup> God will bless us. All the ends of the earth shall fear Him.

<sup>1</sup> Let God arise! Let His enemies be scattered! Let them who hate Him also flee before Him. <sup>2</sup> As smoke is driven away, so drive them away. As wax melts before the fire, so let the wicked perish at the presence of God. <sup>3</sup> But let the righteous be glad, may they rejoice before God; yes, let them rejoice with gladness. <sup>4</sup> Sing to God! Sing praises to His name! Extol Him who rides on the clouds: to Yah, His name! Rejoice before Him! <sup>5</sup> A father of the fatherless, and a defender of the widows, is God in His holy habitation. <sup>6</sup> God sets the lonely in families. He brings out the prisoners with singing, but the rebellious dwell in a sun-scorching land. <sup>7</sup> God, when You went forth before Your people, when You marched through the wilderness... Selah. <sup>8</sup> The earth trembled. The sky also poured down rain at the presence of the God of Sinai— at the presence of God, the God of Israel. <sup>9</sup> You, God, sent a plentiful rain. You confirmed Your inheritance when it was weary. <sup>10</sup> Your congregation lived therein. You, God, prepared Your goodness for the poor. <sup>11</sup> The Lord announced the word; the women who proclaimed it are a great company. <sup>12</sup> Kings of armies flee! They flee! The women who wait at home divide the spoil- <sup>13</sup> while you men sleep among the campfires- the wings of a dove sheathed with silver, her

68:6 God sets the lonely in families – He did this when He brought His prisoner people out from Egyptian bondage. The numbering of the tribes after they had crossed the Red Sea implies that every Israelite had a family group. Those who were alone were therefore placed within families. The community of God's people today, who have likewise passed through the water of baptism as Israel crossed the Red Sea, should likewise be characterized by inclusiveness and a binding of individuals together in a new spiritual family in Christ. Cliques based around existing families or friendship groups mustn't be allowed to stop this unique unity occurring – for it is this mysterious Christian unity which is powerful enough to convert the world if it is lived out as it should be (Jn. 17:21).

68:11 There is here and in :12,25 a strong emphasis on the participation of women in the spreading of the good news of God's redemption of His people. The idea was quite radical in that conservative, male dominated world. The broad picture we are to take away is that absolutely all of us, men and women, whether or not others consider us appropriate witnesses, are to share the good news of God's salvation with the entire world.

feathers with shining gold. <sup>14</sup> When the Almighty scattered kings in her, it snowed on Zalmon. <sup>15</sup> The mountains of Bashan are majestic mountains, the mountains of Bashan are rugged. <sup>16</sup> Why do you look in envy, you rugged mountains, at the mountain where God chooses to reign? Yes, Yahweh will dwell there forever. <sup>17</sup> The chariots of God are tens of thousands and thousands of thousands. The Lord is among them, as in Sinai, in the sanctuary. <sup>18</sup> You have ascended on high, You have led away captives in your victory train, You have received gifts to distribute among men, yes, among the rebellious also, that Yah God might dwell there. <sup>19</sup> Blessed be the Lord, who daily bears our burdens, even the God who is our salvation. Selah. <sup>20</sup> God is to us a God of deliverance; to Yahweh the Lord belongs escape from death. <sup>21</sup> But God will strike through the head of His enemies, the hairy scalp of such a one as still continues in his guiltiness. <sup>22</sup> The Lord said, I will bring you again from Bashan, I will bring you again from the depths of the sea; <sup>23</sup> that you may crush them, dipping your foot in blood, that the tongues of your dogs may have their portion from your enemies. <sup>24</sup> They have seen Your processions, God, even the processions of my God, my King, into the sanctuary. <sup>25</sup> The singers went before, the minstrels followed after in the midst of the ladies playing with tambourines, singing <sup>26</sup> Bless God in the congregations, even the Lord in the assembly of Israel! <sup>27</sup> There is little Benjamin, their ruler, the princes of Judah, their council, the princes of Zebulun, and the princes of Naphtali. <sup>28</sup> Your God has commanded your strength. Strengthen, God, that which You have done for us. <sup>29</sup> Because of Your temple at Jerusalem kings shall bring presents to You. <sup>30</sup> Rebuke the wild animal of the reeds, the multitude of the bulls, with the calves of the peoples. Being humbled, may they bring tribute of bars of silver. Scatter the nations that delight in war. <sup>31</sup> Princes shall come out of Egypt, Ethiopia shall hurry to stretch out her hands to God. <sup>32</sup> Sing to God, you kingdoms of the earth! Sing praises to the Lord! Selah. <sup>33</sup> To Him who rides on the heaven of heavens, which are of old; behold, He utters His voice, a mighty voice. <sup>34</sup> Ascribe strength to God! His excellency is over Israel, His strength is in the skies. <sup>35</sup> You are awesome, God, in Your sanctuaries. The God of Israel gives strength and power to His people. Praise be to God!

68:18 This is applied in Eph. 4:8 to the ascension of Christ in order to receive the gifts of the Holy Spirit which He then gave to the first century church, in order to prepare it to be a place where God might dwell. Whilst the miraculous gifts were withdrawn once the church was established, Christ's parables teach that we have each been given some gift by Him which we are to use to prepare for God's Kingdom and to enable His dwelling amongst men on earth (Mt. 25:15). We have each been given something as a result of Christ's sacrifice and victorious ascension to Heaven, and we are therefore to ensure that we use it.

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of Lilies. By David.

<sup>1</sup> Save me, God, for the waters have come up to my neck! <sup>2</sup> I sink in deep mire, where there is no foothold. I have come into deep waters, where the floods overflow me. <sup>3</sup> I am weary with my crying. My throat is dry. My eyes fail, looking for my God. <sup>4</sup> Those who hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of my head. Those who want to cut me off, being my enemies wrongfully, are mighty. I have to restore what I didn't take away. <sup>5</sup> God, You know my foolishness. My sins aren't hidden from You. <sup>6</sup> Don't let those who wait for You be shamed on my account, Lord Yahweh of Armies. Don't let those who seek You be brought to dishonour through me, God of Israel. <sup>7</sup> Because for Your sake I have borne reproach. Shame has covered my face. <sup>8</sup> I have become a stranger to my brothers, an alien to my mother's children. <sup>9</sup> For the zeal of Your house consumes me. The reproaches of those who reproach You have fallen on me. <sup>10</sup> When I wept and I fasted, that was to my reproach. <sup>11</sup> When I made sackcloth my clothing, I became a byword to them. <sup>12</sup> Those who sit in the gate talk against me; I am the song of the drunkards. <sup>13</sup> But as for me, my prayer is to You, Yahweh, in an acceptable time. God, in the abundance of Your grace, answer me in the truth of Your salvation. <sup>14</sup> Deliver me out of the mire, and don't let me sink. Let me be delivered from those who hate me, and out of the deep waters. <sup>15</sup> Don't let the flood waters overwhelm me, neither let the deep swallow me up. Don't let the pit shut its mouth on me. <sup>16</sup> Answer me, Yahweh, for Your grace is good. According to the multitude of Your tender mercies, turn to me. <sup>17</sup> Don't hide Your face from Your servant, for I am in distress. Answer me speedily! <sup>18</sup> Draw near to my soul, and redeem it. Ransom me because of my enemies. <sup>19</sup> You know my reproach, my shame, and my dishonour; my adversaries are all before You. <sup>20</sup> Reproach has bro-

69:9 For the zeal of Your house consumes me – Applied to Jesus in Jn. 2:17; so many verses in this Psalm are relevant to Him. Verse 8 refers to His estrangement from His half brothers and natural family (Jn. 7:5). “The reproaches of those who reproach You have fallen on me” is referred to Christ in Rom. 15:3, and is therefore applied to us who are in Him – in that we are to be so concerned with others' salvation and welfare that we can rise above the experience of personal reproach and insult rather than being obsessed by it and paralyzed from being of service.

69:14-16 The urgent desire for immediate deliverance is here in the context of a Psalm definitely speaking of Christ's sufferings on the cross. There was certainly a sense of urgency, crisis and desire for immediate deliverance which wasn't answered immediately (see too 22:1). He knew there the crisis of unanswered prayer; He there shared the quintessence of all our crises.

69:20 This looking for comforters and finding none must mean that these verses describe Christ at the very end of the hours of crucifixion, when John and Mary had ken my heart, and I am full of heaviness. I looked for some to take pity, but there was none; for comforters, but I found none. <sup>21</sup> They also gave me gall for my food; in my thirst, they gave me vinegar to drink. <sup>22</sup> Let their table before them become a snare, may it become a retribution and a trap. <sup>23</sup> Let their eyes be darkened, so that they can't see; may their backs be continually bent. <sup>24</sup> Pour out Your indignation on them; let the fierceness of Your anger overtake them. <sup>25</sup> Let their habitation be desolate, may no one dwell in their tents. <sup>26</sup> For they persecute him whom You have wounded. They tell of the sorrow of those whom You have hurt. <sup>27</sup> Add iniquity to their iniquity; don't let them come into Your righteousness. <sup>28</sup> Let them be blotted out of the book of life, and not be written with the righteous. <sup>29</sup> But I am in pain and distress. Let Your salvation, God, protect me. <sup>30</sup> I will praise the name of God with a song, and will magnify Him with thanksgiving. <sup>31</sup> It will please Yahweh better than an ox, or a bull that has horns and hoofs. <sup>32</sup> The humble have seen it, and are glad. You who seek after God, let your heart live. <sup>33</sup> For Yahweh hears the needy, and doesn't despise His captive people. <sup>34</sup> Let heaven and earth praise Him; the seas, and everything that moves therein! <sup>35</sup> For God will save Zion, and build the cities of Judah. They shall settle there, and own it. <sup>36</sup> The children also of His servants shall inherit it. Those who love His name shall dwell therein.

<sup>1</sup> Hurry, God, to deliver me. Come quickly to help me, Yahweh. <sup>2</sup> Let them be disappointed and confounded who seek my soul. Let those who desire my ruin be turned back in disgrace. <sup>3</sup> Let them be turned back because of their shame who say, Aha! Aha! <sup>4</sup> Let all those who seek You rejoice and be glad in You. Let those who love Your salvation continually say, Let God be exalted! <sup>5</sup> But I am poor and needy. Come to me quickly, God. You are my help and my deliverer. Yahweh, don't delay.

walked away. The reproaches shouted by mindless, small minded people in the crowd broke His heart, such was His amazing sensitivity to words, so eager was He to be accepted by Israel as their Messiah.

69:21 Clearly relevant to the offer of vinegar to Christ in response to His plea "I thirst" (Jn. 19:28,29).

69:22 Applied to the Jews who crucified Christ in Rom. 11:9.

69:25 The LXX of this verse is quoted in Acts 1:20 and applied to Judas for his betrayal of Christ.

69:27 God counts those who believe in Him as righteous because He imputes righteousness to them; but He also counts sinners as increasingly sinful. Thus there is both an upward and downward spiral in life; we are always moving one way or the other, and never static.

<sup>1</sup> In You, Yahweh, I take refuge. Never let me be disappointed. <sup>2</sup> Deliver me in Your righteousness and rescue me. Turn Your ear to me and save me. <sup>3</sup> Be to me a rock of refuge to which I may always go. Give the command to save me, for You are my rock and my fortress. <sup>4</sup> Rescue me, my God, from the hand of the wicked, from the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man. <sup>5</sup> For You are my hope, Lord Yahweh; my confidence from my youth. <sup>6</sup> I have relied on You from the womb. You are He who took me out of my mother's womb. I will always praise You. <sup>7</sup> I am a marvel to many, but You are my strong refuge. <sup>8</sup> My mouth shall be filled with Your praise, with Your honour all the day. <sup>9</sup> Don't reject me in my old age. Don't forsake me when my strength fails. <sup>10</sup> For my enemies talk about me, they who watch for my soul conspire together <sup>11</sup> saying, God has forsaken him. Pursue and take him, for no one will rescue him. <sup>12</sup> God, don't be far from me. My God, hurry to help me. <sup>13</sup> Let my accusers be disappointed and consumed. Let them be covered with disgrace and scorn who want to harm me. <sup>14</sup> But I will always hope, and will add to all of Your praise. <sup>15</sup> My mouth will tell others about Your righteousness and Your salvation all day, though I don't know its full measure. <sup>16</sup> I will declare the mighty acts of the Lord Yahweh. I will make mention of Your righteousness, even of Yours alone. <sup>17</sup> God, You have taught me from my youth. Up until now I have declared Your wondrous works. <sup>18</sup> Yes, even when I am old and gray-haired, God, don't forsake me, until I have declared Your strength to the next generation, Your might to everyone who is to come. <sup>19</sup> Your righteousness also, God, reaches to the heavens; You have done great things. God, who is like You? <sup>20</sup> You, who have shown us many and bitter troubles, You will let me live. You will bring us up again from the depths of

71:11 God has forsaken him— David did indeed feel that God had forsaken him (22:1). David, like all of us, was very sensitive to what others said about him – for his many complaints at his being slandered reflect how significant it was for him. We must be secure in our relationship with God, so that others' discounting of our relationship with Him doesn't influence us.

71:15 I don't know its full measure – Like us, David preached of things which he believed and yet openly admitted he didn't fully understand. This humility and recognition of our own limited understanding will make our witness the more compelling, rather than if we arrogantly give the impression of total knowledge.

71:18 David wanted to remain alive so that he could continue his work of teaching and preaching God's grace and salvation to others. This too should be our purpose of living.

71:20 Bring us up again from the depths of the earth – David's hope was clearly in the resurrection of the body, which he may have deduced as necessary on reflection that he would see with his own eyes his Messiah son reigning for ever on his throne (2 Sam. 7:16).

the earth, <sup>21</sup> increase my honour, and comfort me again. <sup>22</sup> I will praise You with the harp for Your faithfulness, my God. I sing praise to You with the lyre, Holy One of Israel. <sup>23</sup> My lips shall shout for joy! My soul, which You have redeemed, sings praises to You! <sup>24</sup> My tongue will also talk about Your righteousness all day long, for they are disappointed and they are confounded who want to harm me.

A Psalm for Solomon.

ple, he will save the children of the needy and will break the oppressor in pieces. <sup>5</sup> They shall fear You while the sun endures; and as long as the moon, throughout all generations. <sup>6</sup> He will come down like rain on the mown grass, as showers that water the earth. <sup>7</sup> In his days, the righteous shall flourish, and abundance of peace, until the moon is no more. <sup>8</sup> He shall have dominion also from sea to sea, from the River to the ends of the land. <sup>9</sup> Those who dwell in the wilderness shall bow before him; his enemies shall lick the dust. <sup>10</sup> The kings of Tarshish and of the islands will bring tribute, the kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts. <sup>11</sup> Yes, all kings shall fall down before him, all nations shall serve him. <sup>12</sup> For he will deliver the needy when he cries; the poor, who has no helper. <sup>13</sup> He will have pity on the poor and needy,

71:22 I will praise you... I sing praise to You – David imagines how after the resurrection at his future glorification, he will, at that future time, praise God; and yet he says he praises God now. We have here an example of living the Kingdom life now. In New Testament terms, this is how we can “have eternal life” now, even though we shall die; for we can live now the kind of life which we will eternally live, the Kingdom life.

72 A Psalm for Solomon – These are David’s prophetic desires for his son, and yet clearly they have reference to the Kingdom of Christ rather than Solomon, even though the Psalm has a limited fulfilment in Solomon. The promises to David in 2 Sam. 7:12-16 stated that the son of David would also be son of God, and David would eternally live in the presence of his great descendant, who would reign eternally from David’s throne. It seems that David came to see these promises as having hope of fulfilment in his son Solomon, although the New Testament is clear that their main fulfilment is in Christ (Lk. 1:31-35). Thus David lost his focus upon the future Messiah because of his obsession with his son Solomon; and Solomon was damaged by this in that his spirituality and works for God were a living out of parental expectation, but at the end of his life he turned away to other gods and according to Ecclesiastes, lost all hope of a future Kingdom of God on earth. This Psalm however remains a wonderful prophecy of Christ’s future Kingdom, based around the land of Israel and His rulership in Jerusalem.

72:8 In Solomon’s time, the territory of Israel was larger than at any other time.

he will save the needy persons. <sup>14</sup> He will redeem their soul from oppression and violence, their blood will be precious in his sight. <sup>15</sup> They shall live, and to him shall be given of the gold of Sheba. Men shall pray for him continually, they shall bless him all day long. <sup>16</sup> Abundance of grain shall be throughout the land, its fruit sways like Lebanon. Let it flourish, thriving like the grass of the field! <sup>17</sup> His name endures forever, his name continues as long as the sun. Men shall be blessed in him, all nations will call him blessed. <sup>18</sup> Praise be to Yahweh God, the God of Israel, who alone does marvellous deeds. <sup>19</sup> Blessed be His glorious name forever! Let the whole earth be filled with His glory! Amen and amen. <sup>20</sup> This ends the prayers by David, the son of Jesse.

BOOK III

A Psalm by Asaph.

<sup>1</sup> Surely God is good to Israel, to those who are pure in heart. <sup>2</sup> But as for me, my feet were almost gone, my steps had nearly slipped. <sup>3</sup> For I was envious of the arrogant, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked. <sup>4</sup> For there are no struggles in their death, but their strength is firm. <sup>5</sup> They are free from the burdens of men, neither are they plagued like other men. <sup>6</sup> Therefore pride is like a chain around their neck, violence covers them like a garment. <sup>7</sup> Their eyes bulge with fat, their minds pass the limits of conceit. <sup>8</sup> They scoff and speak with malice; in arrogance, they threaten oppression. <sup>9</sup> They have set their mouth in the heavens, their tongue walks through the earth. <sup>10</sup> Therefore their people return to them, and they drink up waters of abundance. <sup>11</sup> They say, How does God know? Is there knowledge in the Most High? <sup>12</sup> Behold, these are the wicked. Being always at ease, they increase in riches. <sup>13</sup> Surely in vain I have cleansed my heart, and washed my hands in innocence, <sup>14</sup> for all day long have I been plagued, and punished every morning. <sup>15</sup> If I had said, I will speak thus; behold, I would have betrayed the generation of Your children. <sup>16</sup> When I tried to understand this, it was too painful for me; <sup>17</sup> until I entered God's

72:13, 14 Solomon perhaps consciously tried to fulfil this in his gracious judgment between the two prostitutes (1 Kings 3:16-28); but later in his reign, his bitterness and selfishness led him to abuse his people (1 Kings 12:4). Thus Solomon by his own behaviour disallowed himself from fulfilling this Kingdom prophecy.

72:17 Men shall be blessed in him – Fulfilled in how those baptized “in Christ” become Abraham’s seed and receive the blessing of God’s grace and forgiveness (Acts 3:25,26; Gal. 3:27-29).

73:17 Asaph as a temple servant would have had access to the altar, which was plated with the censers of those sinners who had rebelled against God in the desert (Num. 16:38). There the earth suddenly opened and swallowed them up – alluded to in :18,19. Looking at those plates, he saw that finally judgment does come to the wicked, sanctuary, and considered their latter end. <sup>18</sup> Surely You set them in slippery places, You threw them down to destruction. <sup>19</sup> How they were suddenly destroyed! They were completely swept away with terrors. <sup>20</sup> As a dream when one wakes up, so, Lord, when You awake, You will despise their fantasies. <sup>21</sup> For my soul was grieved, I was embittered in my heart. <sup>22</sup> I was so senseless and ignorant; I was a brute beast before You. <sup>23</sup> Nevertheless, I am continually with You. You have held my right hand, <sup>24</sup> You will guide me with Your word, and afterwards receive me in glory. <sup>25</sup> Whom do I have in heaven? There is no one on earth whom I desire besides You. <sup>26</sup> My flesh and my heart fails, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever. <sup>27</sup> For, behold, those who are far from You shall perish. You have destroyed all those who are unfaithful to You. <sup>28</sup> But it is good for me to come close to God. I have made the Lord Yahweh my refuge, that I may tell of all Your works.

<sup>1</sup> God, why have You rejected us forever? Why does Your anger smoulder against the sheep of Your pasture? <sup>2</sup> Remember Your congregation which You purchased of old, which You have redeemed to be the tribe of Your inheritance; Mount Zion, in which You have lived. <sup>3</sup> Lift up Your feet on the perpetual ruins, see all the evil that the enemy has done in the sanctuary. <sup>4</sup> Your adversaries have roared in the midst of Your assembly. They have set up their standards as signs. <sup>5</sup> They behaved like men wielding axes, cutting through a thicket of trees. <sup>6</sup> Now they break all its carved work down with hatchet and hammers. <sup>7</sup> They have burned Your sanctuary to the ground, they have profaned the dwelling place of Your Name. <sup>8</sup> They said in their heart, We will crush them completely. They have burned up all the places in the land where God was worshiped. <sup>9</sup> We see no miraculous signs. There is no longer any prophet, neither is and even those who appear to die in peace will ultimately be judged. The apparent prosperity of the wicked and the way that they don't always receive judgment in this life simply deepens our faith in the reality of a judgment to come, at which the wicked will be resurrected and judged for their actions in this life. Seeing that God judges sin, and yet sinners don't always get judged in this life, forces us to this understanding – which is in any case presented specifically in the Bible. Asaph admits throughout the Psalm that his jealousy of the wealthy and prosperous sinners had eaten him up to the point of obsession and spiritual destruction; but he came to his senses by realizing the reality of future judgment. That basic doctrine should mean the same for us too.

74:9 This statement is strange seeing that there were prophets at the time when the temple was burnt by the Babylonians (:7) – not least Jeremiah, who had prophesied that Judah would be in captivity for 70 years (Jer. 25:11,12; 29:10). Daniel too appears not to have been immediately aware of Jeremiah's prophecies (Dan. 9:2). There are times when God's people seem not to have been in much contact with each other even though they lived near each other – Melchizedek and Abraham are an example. The

there among us anyone who knows how long. <sup>10</sup> How long, God, shall the adversary reproach? Shall the enemy blaspheme Your name forever? <sup>11</sup> Why do You draw back Your hand, even Your right hand? Take it out of Your pocket and consume them! <sup>12</sup> Yet God is my King of old, working salvation in the midst of the earth. <sup>13</sup> You divided the sea by Your strength. You broke the heads of the sea monsters in the waters. <sup>14</sup> You broke the heads of Leviathan in pieces. You gave him as food to people and desert creatures. <sup>15</sup> You opened up spring and stream. You dried up mighty rivers. <sup>16</sup> The day is Yours, the night is also Yours; You have prepared the light and the sun. <sup>17</sup> You have set all the boundaries of the earth. You have made summer and winter. <sup>18</sup> Remember this, that the enemy has mocked You, Yahweh. Foolish people have blasphemed Your name. <sup>19</sup> Don't deliver the soul of Your dove to wild beasts, don't forget the life of Your poor forever. <sup>20</sup> Honour Your covenant, for haunts of violence fill the dark places of the land. <sup>21</sup> Don't let the oppressed return ashamed; let the poor and needy praise Your name. <sup>22</sup> Arise, God! Plead Your own cause. Remember how the foolish man mocks You all day. <sup>23</sup> Don't forget the voice of Your adversaries; the tumult of those who rise up against You ascends continually.

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of Do Not Destroy. A Psalm by Asaph. A song.

<sup>1</sup> We give thanks to You, God. We give thanks, for Your Name is near. Men tell about Your wondrous works. <sup>2</sup> When I choose the appointed time, I will judge blamelessly. <sup>3</sup> The earth and all its inhabitants quake. I firmly uphold its pillars. Selah. <sup>4</sup> I said to the arrogant, Don't boast!; I said to the wicked, Don't lift up the horn. <sup>5</sup> Don't lift up your horn on high, don't speak with a stiff neck. <sup>6</sup> For neither from the east, nor from the west, nor yet from the south, comes exaltation. <sup>7</sup> But God is the judge. He puts down one, and lifts up an-dysfunction and division we see within the church is lamentable and wrong, but these things happen, and the divided parties still remain God's people – just as Asaph and Jeremiah were.

74:12 This Psalm is a record of how Asaph reasoned with himself. The destruction of the temple by the Babylonians meant that he felt God had totally and permanently rejected His people; and yet he takes comfort in the wonders God has done for His people in the past (:13-15). As a member of God's people he felt that those historical wonders had in a sense been done to him too – hence he reflects that “Yet God is my King of old”. In times when the apparent distance and silence of God is so unbearable, we have to remember what He has done for us and for His people in the past. We can also reflect that the ongoing wonders of creation, the sun's rising and setting, is a sign that God is in fact constantly active (:16,17), even if He's not active for us in the ways we desperately want.

75:7 God is the judge. He puts down one, and lifts up another – We shouldn't think other. <sup>8</sup> For in the hand of Yahweh there is a cup, full of foaming wine mixed with spices. He pours it out; indeed the wicked of the earth drink and drink it to its very dregs. <sup>9</sup> But I will declare this forever: I will sing praises to the God of Jacob. <sup>10</sup> I will cut off all the horns of the wicked, but the horns of the righteous shall be lifted up.

<sup>1</sup> In Judah God is known, His name is great in Israel. <sup>2</sup> His tabernacle is also in Salem; His dwelling place in Zion. <sup>3</sup> There He broke the flaming arrows of the bow, the shield and the sword and the weapons of war. Selah. <sup>4</sup> Glorious are You and excellent, more than mountains of game. <sup>5</sup> Valiant men lie plundered, they have slept their last sleep. None of the men of war can lift their hands. <sup>6</sup> At Your rebuke, God of Jacob, both chariot and horse are cast into a deep sleep. <sup>7</sup> You, even You, are to be feared. Who can stand in Your sight when You are angry? <sup>8</sup> You pronounced judgment from heaven: the earth feared and was silent <sup>9</sup> when God arose to judgment, to save all the afflicted ones of the earth. Selah. <sup>10</sup> Surely the wrath of man praises You. The survivors of Your wrath are restrained. <sup>11</sup> Make vows to Yahweh your God, and fulfil them! Let all of His neighbours bring presents to Him who is to be feared. <sup>12</sup> He will cut off the spirit of princes, He is feared by the kings of the land.

<sup>1</sup> My cry goes to God! Indeed, I cry to God for help, and for Him to listen to me. <sup>2</sup> In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord. My hand was stretched out in the night, and didn't retract. My soul refused to be comforted. <sup>3</sup> I remember God, and I groan. I complain, and my spirit is overwhelmed. Selah. <sup>4</sup> You hold that God isn't watching this world, and will only open the books and consider everything when Christ returns. The judgment is ongoing, right now we are standing before Him and He is judging; the future judgment day will be the revelation of the judgments He has already reached as He watched our faith and behaviour in this life.

76:1 Judah and Israel are often paralleled. Judah refers to the two tribe kingdom based around the tribes of Judah, Benjamin and the half tribe of Manasseh; while Israel refers to the ten tribe kingdom. This division of God's people was a tragedy; and yet from God's perspective they were one, hence His frequent parallel of them. All divisions within the body of Christ are likewise only real from an earthly perspective; God sees His people as one, as we should.

76:3 This reference to a dramatic military victory by God in the Jerusalem area and the subsequent plundering of the invaders, resulting in the neighbouring kings bringing presents to Jerusalem (:11) is all relevant to the situation when the Assyrians were destroyed by God at the time of Hezekiah (2 Kings 19:35; 2 Chron. 32:23).

my eyelids open. I am so troubled that I can't speak. <sup>5</sup> I have considered the days of old, the years of ancient times. <sup>6</sup> I remember my song in the night. I consider in my own heart; my spirit diligently inquires: <sup>7</sup> Will the Lord reject us forever? Will He no more be gracious? <sup>8</sup> Has His grace vanished forever? Does His promise fail for generations? <sup>9</sup> Has God forgotten to be gracious? Has He, in anger, withheld His compassion? Selah. <sup>10</sup> Then I thought, I will appeal to this: the years of the right hand of the Most High. <sup>11</sup> I will remember Yah's deeds; for I will remember Your wonders of old. <sup>12</sup> I will also meditate on all Your work, and consider Your doings. <sup>13</sup> Your way, God, is in the sanctuary. What god is great like God? <sup>14</sup> You are the God who does wonders, You have made Your strength known among the peoples. <sup>15</sup> You have redeemed Your people with Your arm, the sons of Jacob and Joseph. Selah. <sup>16</sup> The waters saw You, God, the waters saw You, and they writhed, the depths also convulsed. <sup>17</sup> The clouds poured out water. The skies resounded with thunder, Your arrows also flashed around. <sup>18</sup> The voice of Your thunder was in the whirlwind, the lightnings lit up the world, the earth trembled and shook. <sup>19</sup> Your way was through the sea, Your paths through the great waters; Your footsteps were not known. <sup>20</sup> You led Your people like a flock, by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

A contemplation by Asaph.

<sup>1</sup> Hear my teaching, my people; turn your ears to the words of my mouth. <sup>2</sup> I will open my mouth in a parable, I will utter dark sayings of old, <sup>3</sup> which we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us. <sup>4</sup> We will not hide them from their children, telling to the generation to come the praises of Yahweh, His strength, and His wondrous works that He has done. <sup>5</sup> For He established a testimony in Jacob and appointed a teaching in Israel, which He commanded our fathers, that they should make them known to their children; <sup>6</sup> that the generation to come might know, even the children who should be born; who should arise and tell their children, <sup>7</sup> that they might set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God, but keep His commandments, <sup>8</sup> and might not be as their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation,

77:10 I will appeal to this – The faithful have always known God as a God open to dialogue. Asaph feels that God has as it were forgotten His graciousness (:9), and so He appeals to God to remember how in the past He saved His people at the Red Sea, even though they were spiritually weak at the time. He thus appeals to God's consistent love for His people as a basis for requesting God to act again in gracious salvation. If God has acted with His right hand over history, why not now? There was no unquestioning submission to the Almighty God as required by Islam and some legalistic forms of Christianity; rather do God's people respectfully engage Him in dialogue and struggle with Him in prayer.

a generation that didn't make their hearts loyal, whose spirit was not steadfast with God. <sup>9</sup> The children of Ephraim, being armed and carrying bows, turned back in the day of battle. <sup>10</sup> They didn't keep God's covenant, and refused to walk in His law. <sup>11</sup> They forgot His doings, His wondrous works that He had shown them. <sup>12</sup> He did marvellous things in the sight of their fathers, in the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan. <sup>13</sup> He split the sea, and caused them to pass through. He made the waters stand as a heap. <sup>14</sup> In the daytime He also led them with a cloud, and all night with a light of fire. <sup>15</sup> He split rocks in the wilderness, and gave them drink abundantly as out of the depths. <sup>16</sup> He brought streams also out of the rock, and caused waters to run down like rivers. <sup>17</sup> Yet they still went on sinning against Him, rebelling against the Most High in the desert. <sup>18</sup> They put God to the test in their heart by asking food according to their lust. <sup>19</sup> Yes, they spoke against God. They said, Can God prepare a table in the wilderness? <sup>20</sup> Behold, He struck the rock, so that waters gushed out, and streams overflowed. Can He give bread also? Will He provide flesh for His people? <sup>21</sup> Therefore Yahweh heard, and was angry. A fire was kindled against Jacob, anger also went up against Israel, <sup>22</sup> because they didn't believe in God, and didn't trust in His salvation. <sup>23</sup> Yet He commanded the skies above, and opened the doors of heaven. <sup>24</sup> He rained down manna on them to eat, and gave them food from the sky. <sup>25</sup> Man ate the bread of angels; He sent them food to the full. <sup>26</sup> He caused the east wind to blow in the sky, by His power He guided the south wind. <sup>27</sup> He rained also flesh on them as the dust; winged birds as the sand of the seas. <sup>28</sup> He let them fall in the midst of their camp, around their dwelling places. <sup>29</sup> So they ate, and were well filled; He gave them their own desire. <sup>30</sup> They didn't turn from their cravings. Their

78:9, 10 Israel turned back in the day of battle, they lost their confidence and nerve, because "they didn't keep God's covenant". Keeping the covenant had an effect upon the crises of life. And keeping it was not a matter of mere outward obedience, it was rather a state of the heart. Thus "their heart was not right with him, neither were they faithful in His covenant" (:37). The covenants / promises made to Abraham and David above all take a grip upon the heart – and we have to keep remembering that those same covenants are made with all who are in Christ as they are the basis of the Gospel (Gal. 3:8).

78:18, 19 Their attitudes to God in their hearts became verbalized in words. How we think about God is so important; we could say that spiritual mindedness is the essence of what Christianity is about.

78:22 They didn't believe in God – Israel weren't atheists; but by not trusting that He will ultimately save us, we are effectively atheistic.

78:28 Around their dwelling places – We see here the sensitivity of God, not only giving them food but bringing it right to their door. That they and so many others should have become bitter with a God of such gentle grace and kindness is indeed tragic.

food was yet in their mouths <sup>31</sup> when the anger of God went up against them, killed some of their fattest, and struck down the young men of Israel. <sup>32</sup> For all this they still sinned, and didn't believe in His wondrous works. <sup>33</sup> Therefore He consumed their days in vanity, and their years in terror. <sup>34</sup> When He slew them, then they inquired after Him; they relented and sought God earnestly. <sup>35</sup> They remembered that God was their rock, the Most High God their redeemer. <sup>36</sup> But they flattered Him with their mouth, and lied to Him with their tongue. <sup>37</sup> For their heart was not right with Him, neither were they faithful in His covenant. <sup>38</sup> But He, being merciful, forgave iniquity, and didn't destroy them. Yes, many times He turned His anger away, and didn't stir up all His wrath. <sup>39</sup> He remembered that they were but flesh, a wind that passes away, and doesn't come again. <sup>40</sup> How often they rebelled against Him in the wilderness, and grieved Him in the desert! <sup>41</sup> They turned around and put God to the test, and provoked the Holy One of Israel. <sup>42</sup> They didn't remember His hand, nor the day when He redeemed them from the adversary; <sup>43</sup> how He set His signs in Egypt, His wonders in the field of Zoan; <sup>44</sup> He turned their rivers and streams into blood so that they could not drink. <sup>45</sup> He sent among them swarms of beetles, which devoured them; and frogs, which destroyed them. <sup>46</sup> He gave also their increase to the caterpillar, and their labour to the locust. <sup>47</sup> He destroyed their vines with hail, their sycamore fig trees with frost. <sup>48</sup> He gave over their livestock also to the hail, and their flocks to hot thunderbolts. <sup>49</sup> He threw on them the fierceness of His anger, wrath, indignation, trouble, and a band of angels of evil.

78:30 Like a parent giving in to the unwise requests of a child just because they love the child, so God gave Israel the food they craved. Yet giving in to lust or wrong desire doesn't make it go away; Israel were given their desire (:29) but their craving remained. In our battles with temptation, let us never reason that if we give in, the lust will go away. It's simply not true. The very experience of sin makes the next sin even easier and the voice of conscience yet weaker.

78:31 Killed some of their fattest – It was the fat ones who were complaining they were perishing from hunger and that God was somehow unreasonable to His children. God had obviously provided very well for them with the manna; but this wasn't enough to satisfy their endless craving to tickle their taste buds and ever be titillating their fancy with something new.

78:49 Angels of evil – God's Angels don't sin (Lk. 20:35,36 cp. Rom. 6:23). They are all doing His work (103:19-21; Heb. 1:14); there is no sin before God's presence in Heaven (Hab. 1:13). The text here doesn't speak of 'sinful Angels', but rather Angels responsible for bringing "evil" in the sense of calamity or disaster. We are often reminded that God brings the good and also creates "evil" in this sense (Is. 45:5-7). And He does it through His Angels. The reference in the context here is to the plagues God brought on Egypt; the work of the "Angels of evil" refers to the killing of the firstborn sons of Egypt by the Lord's Angel.

and was angry with His inheritance. <sup>63</sup> Fire devoured their young men, their young women had no wedding song. <sup>64</sup> Their priests fell by the sword, and their widows couldn't weep. <sup>65</sup> Then the Lord awakened as one out of sleep, like a mighty man who shouts by reason of wine. <sup>66</sup> He struck His adversaries backward, He put them to a perpetual reproach. <sup>67</sup> Moreover He rejected the tent of Joseph and didn't choose the tribe of Ephraim, <sup>68</sup> but chose the tribe of Judah, Mount Zion which He loved. <sup>69</sup> He built His sanctuary like the heights, like the earth which He has established forever. <sup>70</sup> He also chose David His servant and took him from the sheepfolds; <sup>71</sup> from following the ewes that have their young, He brought him to be the shepherd of Jacob His people, and Israel His inheritance. <sup>72</sup> So he was their shepherd according to the integrity of his heart, and guided them by the skillfulness of his hands.

78:54 Had purchased – It had as it were cost God something to give Israel the Kingdom or “mountain”. The same Hebrew word occurs in 74:2 and Gen. 14:22. The cost of our redemption, our place in the Kingdom, was the precious blood of Christ with which we were “bought” (1 Cor. 6:20; 7:23; 1 Pet. 1:18,19). God who knows the future is outside our kind of time, and so in a sense, Christ was as it were the lamb slain from the foundation of the world (Rev. 13:8). God's pain and sacrifice started right from the beginning, and when He offered Israel the forgiveness and Kingdom which He did, this offer was not without pain and immense cost to Him. Their rejection of it was therefore even more tragic and painful for Him.

ants to be food for the birds of the sky, the flesh of Your saints to the beasts of the land. <sup>3</sup> Their blood they have shed like water around Jerusalem, there was no one to bury them. <sup>4</sup> We have become a reproach to our neighbours, a scoffing and derision to those who are around us. <sup>5</sup> How long, Yahweh? Will You be angry forever? Will Your jealousy burn like fire? <sup>6</sup> Pour out Your wrath on the nations that don't know You, on the kingdoms that don't call on Your name; <sup>7</sup> for they have devoured Jacob, and destroyed his homeland. <sup>8</sup> Don't hold the iniquities of our forefathers against us; let Your tender mercies speedily meet us, for we are in desperate need. <sup>9</sup> Help us, God of our salvation, for the glory of Your name. Deliver us and forgive our sins, for Your name's sake. <sup>10</sup> Why should the nations say, Where is their God? Let it be known among the nations, before our eyes, that vengeance for Your servants'

blood is being poured out. <sup>11</sup> Let the sighing of the prisoner come before You. According to the greatness of Your power, preserve those who are sentenced to death. <sup>12</sup> Pay back to our neighbours seven times into their lap their reproach with which they have reproached You, Lord. <sup>13</sup> So we, Your people and sheep of Your pasture, will give You thanks forever. We will praise You forever, to all generations.

79:8 Don't hold the iniquities of our forefathers against us – Ez. 18 criticizes the Jews at the time of the destruction of the temple (:1) for complaining that their sufferings were because of their fathers' sins, and God rejoins that this wasn't the case, He was punishing that generation for their actual personal sins. But Asaph was under the impression that his generation were relatively innocent; likewise his complaint that he doesn't know "how long" the sufferings would last appears to reveal an ignorance of Jer. 25:11,12; 29:10. See on 74:9. We can get some things wrong, be wilfully ignorant of others in our self-justification; and yet still be counted by God as faithful, just as Asaph was. And we must remember this in managing our irritations with others' spiritual immaturity.

79:9 Because of how God is, as revealed in His Name of Yahweh, because mercy and forgiveness are paramount within the texture of His very personality which His Name reveals (Ex. 34:4-6)... therefore, we should repent. Reflection on the Name inspired Asaph's faith in forgiveness and thus helped his repentance. It did the same for David (25:11) and for Jeremiah (Jer. 14:7,21), and it can do so for us too. Because God's Name proclaims God as above all merciful and forgiving, therefore we should repent and ask for forgiveness.

You be angry against the prayer of Your people? <sup>5</sup> You have fed them with the bread of tears, and given them tears to drink in large measure. <sup>6</sup> You make us a source of derision to our neighbours, our enemies laugh among themselves. <sup>7</sup> Turn us again, God of Armies. Cause Your face to shine, and we will be saved. <sup>8</sup> You brought a vine out of Egypt, You drove out the nations and planted it. <sup>9</sup> You cleared the land for it. It took deep root, and filled the land; <sup>10</sup> the mountains were covered with its shadow. Its boughs were like God's cedars. <sup>11</sup> It sent out its branches to the sea, its shoots to the River. <sup>12</sup> Why have You broken down its walls, so that all those who pass by the way pluck it? <sup>13</sup> The boar out of the wood ravages it, the wild beasts of the field feed on it. <sup>14</sup> Turn again, we beg You, God of Armies. Look down from heaven and see, and visit this vine, <sup>15</sup> the stock which Your right hand planted, the branch that You made strong for Yourself. <sup>16</sup> It's burned with fire. It's cut down. They perish at Your rebuke. <sup>17</sup> Let Your hand be on the man of Your right hand, on the son of man whom You made strong for Yourself. <sup>18</sup> So we will not turn away from You; accept us, and we will call on Your name. <sup>19</sup> Turn us again, Yahweh God of Armies. Cause Your face to shine, and we will be saved.

80:9 You cleared the land for it – Potentially, God drove out all the nations in the land of Canaan so that the vine of Israel could grow there without contamination and be spiritually fruitful. But in fact Israel failed to drive out many of the tribes and they remained to be a spiritual thorn to Israel's spirituality. In potential, so much was made possible, just as it is for God's people today; but it requires us to go and realize that potential in faith.

80:12 Why have You broken down its walls – Surely Asaph knew that the nations around the borders of Israel had been allowed by God to invade because of Judah's sinfulness. Asaph in several Psalms appears to underestimate the seriousness of Judah's sin and the rightness and necessity of God's judgment, despite the prophets of his time making these things crystal clear. Yet for all his misunderstanding and wilful ignorance, he still displays faith and God worked with him and inspired the recording of his Psalms. For all our ignorance and misunderstandings [and those of others amongst God's people], God still hears our prayers.

81:5 I heard a language that I didn't know – God of course understands every language and thought of man, including Egyptian. Yet He so identifies with His people

Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it. <sup>11</sup> But My people didn't listen to My voice, Israel desired none of Me. <sup>12</sup> So I let them go after the stubbornness of their hearts, that they might walk in their own counsels. <sup>13</sup> Oh that My people would have listened to me, that Israel would have walked in my ways! <sup>14</sup> I would quickly have subdued their enemies, and turned My hand against their adversaries. <sup>15</sup> The haters of Yahweh would have cringed before Him, and their punishment would have lasted forever. <sup>16</sup> But He would have also fed them with the finest of the wheat, I would have satisfied you with honey out of the rock.

that He speaks from their limited perspective. He has the ability to see and feel life from our viewpoint here on earth. He isn't therefore distant from us.

81:11 God ("me") is paralleled with His voice; if we disregard His word, this is our attitude to Him. We can't divorce our relationship with Him from our relationship with His word. True believers can therefore be nothing but Bible lovers and searchers.

81:14 I would quickly have – We have in these verses the amazing fact that God knows all possible futures; He knew all the things that would have happened if they had been obedient – and He often mentions this in the prophets. In this we have another window into the pain and tragedy of God. We mourn more for those who die young than for those who die in fulfilled old age, because we think of all that might have been. And so it is for God, to an infinitely greater extent. He planned even to give Israel fine wheat as well as manna, and honey as well as water out of the smitten rock (:16); but Israel would not. And yet God continues to plan all kinds of intricate and wonderful possible futures for each of us; and individually and collectively we as His beloved people so often don't enable them to happen because of our short term, faithless attitudes.

82:6 You are gods – The Hebrew word elohim means 'mighty ones'; sometimes it is translated "God", other times it refers to men, in this case the sinful judges of Israel (:1,7). When the Jews falsely accused Jesus of making Himself God, He denied it by quoting this verse. His point was, 'In the Old Testament, men are called God; I'm only saying I'm the Son of God, so what's your problem?' (Jn. 10:34,35). He not only de-

Yes, let them be confounded and perish; <sup>18</sup> that they may know that You alone, whose name is Yahweh, are the Most High over all the earth.

nied being God Himself in any Trinitarian sense; He thus demonstrated that the term "God" can be applied to men, and even if it is used about Him, it doesn't make Him God Himself in person.

83:13 Like chaff before the wind – The language of Dan. 2:35,44 about the destruction of the ten toes of the image, representing Israel's latter day enemies, at Christ's return. Psalm 83 likewise features ten nations who will be bound together against Israel and then be dramatically destroyed by direct Divine intervention. It is tempting to equate these ten nations with the ten toes of the image of Dan. 2, and the ten horns of the latter day beast which we meet in Daniel and Revelation. These ten nations are geographically located in the peoples which currently surround the state of Israel, and the rhetoric they are prophesied as using is exactly the same as that used by the Palestinians and Israel's Arab enemies. The situation around Israel is therefore a sure sign that Christ will soon return.

83:16 That they may seek Your name – The latter day judgments against Israel's enemies, like all God's judgments, are so that those nations may repent and come to relationship with God; they aren't a mere outbreak of anger from an exasperated God.

84:10 Just one day in God's presence would be better than thousands of days lived in this present world; and yet the wonder of it all is that we shall live eternally with God in His Kingdom. 2 Pet. 3:8 alludes here.

85:4 Although God had potentially turned from His anger (:3), Israel still had to turn to God to make this come true in their personal experience.

85:10 Mercy and truth – Somehow it seems that both individually and collectively we cannot achieve this fusion. We are either too soft and compromise and lose the Faith, or we are too hard and lose the spirit of Christ, without which we are “none of His” (Rom. 8:9). The result of this is that whenever God's Truth is revived, that community is in a sense born to roll downhill; after two or three generations the Truth is lost. Either they destroy themselves through bitter subdivision, or they compromise with error and lose the Faith. Perhaps it is God's plan that no one community should hold the Faith through many generations. But the challenge is of showing “grace and truth”

cy and truth meet together, righteousness and peace have kissed each other. <sup>11</sup> Truth springs out of the earth, righteousness has looked down from heaven. <sup>12</sup> Yes, Yahweh will give that which is good. Our land will yield its increase. <sup>13</sup> Righteousness goes before Him, and prepares the way for His steps.

Give Your strength to Your servant, save the son of Your handmaid. <sup>17</sup> Show me a sign of Your goodness, that those who hate me may see it and be shamed, because You, Yahweh, have helped me and comforted me.

in our thinking and judging, even though we cannot fully achieve it; and in the process we are led to appreciate more the beauty and wonder of the way in which these two concepts are linked together in the Father and His Son, and to yearn more to perceive and enter into the glory of God's Name, which totally incorporates these two humanly opposed aspects (Ex. 34:6,7; Rom. 11:22).

86:3 There are verses which speak of many daily prayers as being just one prayer (86:3,6; 88:1,2); prayer is a way / spirit of life, not just something specific which occurs for a matter of minutes each day. The commands to "pray without ceasing" simply can't be literally obeyed (1 Thess. 5:17). "Watch and pray always" (Lk. 21:36) in the last days likewise connects prayer with watchfulness, which is an attitude of mind rather than something done on specific occasions. This is not to say that prayer in no sense refers to formal, specific prayer. Evidently it does, but it is only a verbal crystallization of our general spirit of life.

86:14 God of course knew all this, but part of the healing therapy of prayer is that we verbalize our situations and tell God about them.

87:5 This verse and the whole Psalm may refer to the way that the judgment throne of Christ will be established in Jerusalem, and therefore all those who will live eternally will have in that sense been born again there, in that they began the physical experience of immortal life in that city.

88:2 It's an amazing thought that the words of our prayers enter into God's personal presence. This was symbolized by the way the incense (representing prayer, Rev. 8:3,4) burnt in the holy place permeated into the Most Holy Place.

88:9 I have spread out my hands to You – This is a good physical posture to adopt in our prayers, signifying as it does our openness to God's answer, whatever it may be; and the openness of our heart to Him.

88:10 The faithful Psalmist knew that death was unconsciousness; he wanted to remain alive so as to keep on praising God. And this should also be our very reason for being alive.

88:13 In the morning – Starting each day in prayer is a vital habit of the spiritually successful person. How we start the day affects how that day proceeds spiritually.

Selah. <sup>5</sup> The skies will praise Your wonders, Yahweh; Your faithfulness also in the assembly of the holy ones. <sup>6</sup> For who in the skies can be compared to Yahweh? Who among the sons of the heavenly beings is like

Yahweh, <sup>7</sup> a very awesome God in the council of the holy ones, to be feared above all those who are around Him? <sup>8</sup> Yahweh, God of Armies, who is a mighty one like You? Yah, Your faithfulness is around You. <sup>9</sup> You rule the pride of the sea; when its waves rise up, You calm them. <sup>10</sup> You have broken Rahab in pieces, like one of the slain. You have scattered Your enemies with Your mighty arm. <sup>11</sup> The heavens are Yours, the earth also is Yours; the world and its fullness; You have founded them. <sup>12</sup> The north and the south, You have created them; Tabor and Hermon rejoice in Your name. <sup>13</sup> You have a mighty arm, Your hand is strong and Your right hand is exalted. <sup>14</sup> Righteousness and justice are the foundation of Your throne; grace and truth go before Your face. <sup>15</sup> Blessed are the people who learn to acclaim You; they shall walk in the light of Your face, Yahweh. <sup>16</sup> In Your name they rejoice all day. In Your righteousness, they are exalted. <sup>17</sup> For You are the glory of their strength. In Your favour, our horn will be exalted. <sup>18</sup> For our shield belongs to Yahweh; our king to the Holy One of Israel. <sup>19</sup> Then You spoke in vision to Your saints and said, I have bestowed strength on the warrior. I have exalted a young man from the people. <sup>20</sup> I have found David My servant, I have anointed him with My holy oil, <sup>21</sup> with whom My hand shall be established; My arm will also strengthen him. <sup>22</sup> No enemy will tax him, no wicked man will oppress him. <sup>23</sup> I will beat down his adversaries before him, and strike those who hate him. <sup>24</sup> But My faithfulness and My grace will be with him; in My name, his horn will be exalted. <sup>25</sup> I will set his hand also on the sea and his right hand on the rivers. <sup>26</sup> He will call to me, ‘You are my Father, my God, and the rock of my salvation!’. <sup>27</sup> I will also appoint him My firstborn, the highest of the kings of the earth. <sup>28</sup> I will keep My grace for him forever. My covenant will stand firm through him. <sup>29</sup> I will also make his seed endure forever and his throne as the days of heaven. <sup>30</sup> If his children forsake My law and don’t walk in My ordinances, <sup>31</sup> if they break My statutes and don’t keep My commandments; <sup>32</sup> then I will punish their sin with the rod, and their iniquity with stripes. <sup>33</sup> But I will not completely take My grace away from him, nor allow My faithfulness to fail. <sup>34</sup> I will not break My covenant, nor alter what My lips have uttered. <sup>35</sup> Once have I sworn by My holiness that I will not lie to David. <sup>36</sup> His seed will endure forever, his throne like the sun before Me. <sup>37</sup> It will be established forever like the moon, the faithful witness in the sky. Selah. <sup>38</sup> But you have rejected and spurned, You have been angry with Your anointed. <sup>39</sup> You have renounced the covenant of Your servant; You have defiled his crown in the dust. <sup>40</sup> You have broken down all his hedges, You have brought his strongholds to ruin.

89:2 We often doubt God’s love and whether He will really keep His covenant with us. Yet the very existence of creation, that it’s not been destroyed despite human sin, should be a constant reminder to us of God’s faithfulness – if we let ourselves perceive it.

89:12 This shows how God reckons the points of the compass with reference to Jerusalem; He is believer-centric, so central are we to His thinking. We are never forgotten by Him.

89:20 I have found David My servant – God is in search of man; this is a repeated theme of the prophets (Hos. 9:10; Dt. 32:1; Is. 50:2; 65:1,2; 66:4). So it’s not us as it were reaching out to God; He is fervently reaching out to us, and we have to come to realize that. We don’t so much as find God, as realize that He already is earnestly with us. And yet we of course feel that we are or have been searching for God, for the ultimate Truth. Yet God is searching for us; in conversion to Christ, God and man meet in a profound way; for there, in Christ, God finds us and we find Him.

89:26-32 This is clearly a commentary on the promises to David concerning his great descendant, who was also to be God’s Son (2 Sam. 7:12-16). They were fulfilled in Christ (Lk. 1:31-35). The fact Christ called God “my God” and God was His salvation, His saviour from death through resurrection, is all more evidence that the Trinitarian understanding of Jesus is wrong. Jesus wasn’t God Himself in person.

89:35 The promises God makes involve a solemn commitment by Him to us – the serious, binding nature of His oath to us is easy to forget. God swore to David “by My holiness”. The Hebrew for “holiness” is the same word translated “dedication”. David’s response to God’s dedication to him was to dedicate [s.w.] all the silver and gold which he had won from this world, to the service of God’s house (1 Kings 7:51; 1 Chron. 26:26; 2 Chron. 5:1). Our response to God’s dedication to us should be a like dedication of what we have to Him. Covenant relationship with God requires much of both Him and us.

BOOK IV

Psalm 90 Feb. 21*A Prayer by Moses, the man of God.*

<sup>41</sup> All who pass by the way rob him; he has become a reproach to his neighbours. <sup>42</sup> You have exalted the right hand of his adversaries, You have made all of his enemies rejoice.

89:52 Blessed be Yahweh forever – Despite all the doubts about God expressed in this Psalm, the faithful writer is still committed to thanking and praising God. His apparent silence in specific areas of our lives shouldn't ever stop us from praising Him for who He is.

90:1 There is a repeated Biblical theme that the believer's relationship with God is essentially mutual. We dwell in God, and He dwells in us (1 Cor. 3:16). Thus "he that lives in love lives in God, and God in him" (1 Jn. 4:15,16).

90:10 This is one of many Biblical reasons for understanding the urgency of our need to devote our time to the Lord and not fritter it away. We must number our days, realize their number is only 70 years, and therefore apply our hearts unto wisdom (:10 cp. :12). "Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom" (Prov. 4:7).

and we pass away. <sup>11</sup> Who knows the power of Your anger, Your wrath according to the fear that is due to You? <sup>12</sup> So teach us to number our days so that we may gain a heart of wisdom. <sup>13</sup> Relent, Yahweh! How long? Have compassion on Your servants! <sup>14</sup> Satisfy us in the morning with Your grace, that we may rejoice and be glad all our days. <sup>15</sup> Make us glad for as many days as You have afflicted us, for as many years as we have seen evil. <sup>16</sup> Let Your work appear to Your servants; Your glory to their children. <sup>17</sup> Let the grace of the Lord our God be upon us; establish the work of our hands for us; yes, establish the work of our hands.

<sup>1</sup> He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty. <sup>2</sup> I will say of Yahweh, He is my refuge and my fortress; my God, in whom I trust. <sup>3</sup> For He will deliver you from the snare of the fowler, and from the deadly plague. <sup>4</sup> He will cover you with His feathers, beneath His wings you will take refuge; His faithfulness is your shield and rampart. <sup>5</sup> You shall not be afraid of the terror by night, nor of the arrow that flies by day; <sup>6</sup> nor of the plagues that stalks in darkness, nor of the destruction that wastes at noonday. <sup>7</sup> A thousand may fall at your side, and ten thousand at your right hand; but it will not come near you. <sup>8</sup> You will only look with your eyes and see the recompense of the wicked. <sup>9</sup> Because you have made Yahweh your refuge and the Most High your dwelling place, <sup>10</sup> no evil shall happen to you, neither shall any plague come near your dwelling. <sup>11</sup> For He will put His angels in charge of you, to guard you in all your ways; <sup>12</sup> they will bear you up in their hands, so that you won't dash your foot against a stone. <sup>13</sup> You will tread on the lion and cobra, you will trample the young lion and the ser-

90:13 Relent – Moses several times persuaded God to change His stated purpose concerning Israel, and here once again he is trying to persuade God not to allow the rebellious generation of Israel to perish in the wilderness. The prayer wasn't answered, but it's a fine example of someone very intimate with God pleading with Him to change His mind.

91:1 This Psalm is connected with Ps. 90, and appears to also be part of that prayer of Moses. It's especially addressed to Joshua, who during the wilderness journey lived in the tabernacle (Ex. 33:11), and was one of the few who survived the judgment of the unfaithful generation dying in the wilderness. The situation in :3-7 describes how one by one, that generation died in the wilderness, but Joshua was preserved because he had believed that Israel could inherit the promised land.

91:11, 12 Jesus was tempted to misinterpret these words as meaning that whatever He did from whatever motives, God would somehow preserve Him (Mt. 4:6). Temptation is very subtle; for the believer, misusing God's words in order to justify whatever we feel like doing in the heat of a moment is a common form of temptation. This Psalm was encouragement to Joshua (see on :1), the Hebrew form of 'Jesus'; so it's understandable that Jesus would've been especially aware of these words.

pent underfoot. <sup>14</sup> Because he has set His love on Me, therefore I will deliver him. I will set him on high, because he has known My name. <sup>15</sup> He will call on Me and I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble, I will deliver him and honour him. <sup>16</sup> I will satisfy him with long life, and show him My salvation.

hold, Your enemies, Yahweh, for, behold, Your enemies shall perish; all the evildoers will be scattered. <sup>10</sup> But You have exalted my horn like that of the wild ox; I am anointed with fresh oil. <sup>11</sup> My eye has also seen my enemies, my ears have heard of the wicked enemies who rise up against me. <sup>12</sup> The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree, he will grow like a cedar in Lebanon. <sup>13</sup> They are planted in Yahweh's house, they will flourish in our God's courts. <sup>14</sup> They will still bring forth fruit in old age. They will be full of sap and green, <sup>15</sup> to show that Yahweh is upright. He is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in Him.

91:14 Joshua (see on :1) was preserved because he believed that God would really give His people the promised Kingdom; but this faith is here described as loving God and knowing His Name. Joshua wanted Israel to inherit the Kingdom because he loved God, not because he wanted any personal benefit for himself. We see here how the New Testament triad of faith, hope and love were all interwoven within the character of Joshua.

92:2 A regular regime of morning and evening 'quiet time' with God is so important; spiritual life is really all about having the right habits.

93:1 A proof that God will not destroy the earth but will be faithful to His covenant purpose to establish His eternal Kingdom here. Just as the earth stands firm for ever, so does God's word of promise (:5).

the sea, Yahweh on high is mighty.
 5 Your words stand firm. Holiness adorns Your house, Yahweh, forever.

Psalm 94 Feb. 23

cipline, Yah, and teach out of Your law; <sup>13</sup> that You may give him rest from the days of adversity, until the pit is dug for the wicked. <sup>14</sup> For Yahweh won't reject His people, neither will He forsake His inheritance. <sup>15</sup> For justice will return to the righteous, and all the upright in heart shall follow it. <sup>16</sup> Who will rise up for me against the wicked? Who will stand up for me against the evildoers? <sup>17</sup> Unless Yahweh had been my help, my soul would have soon been silenced. <sup>18</sup> When I said, My foot is slipping! Your grace, Yahweh, held me up. <sup>19</sup> In the multitude of my thoughts within me, Your comforts delight my soul. <sup>20</sup> Shall the throne of wickedness have fellowship with You, which brings about mischief by statute? <sup>21</sup> They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous, and condemn the innocent blood. <sup>22</sup> But Yahweh has been my high tower, my God, the rock of my refuge. <sup>23</sup> He has brought on them their own iniquity, and will cut them off in their own wickedness. Yahweh, our God, will cut them off.

94:1 David sees Yahweh as the God of revenge, the one alone to whom vengeance belongs. Our response to this is to believe that truly vengeance is God's and therefore we will not avenge ourselves (Rom. 12:19). This applies to all the micro-level 'takings of vengeance' which we so easily do in our words, body language, attitudes etc., in response to the hurt received from others.

94:9 One implication of believing that we were created by God as a special, purposefully designed creation is that we will believe that God sees and knows all things; the designer of the eyes and ears which we have 24/7 can surely see and hear everything going on in our lives.

94:12 True hearkening to the word is a chastening experience. It isn't easy; not as easy as reading a book called the Bible and going through the process of interpretation. Our sufferings make sense and are worked through by God insofar as we are open to and aware of His word; for they are designed to assist us in our being conformed to His word.

95:7 The urgency of hearing “today” applied to Israel in the wilderness, to the community at the time of Ps. 95, and to the first century believers to whom it is applied specifically in Heb. 3:7,15; 4:7. The urgency of the call continues to our “today”. God’s word has a unique way of speaking to us in a kind of eternal present; as if we were there in the wilderness, in the time of Ps. 95, and in the first century church.

96:6 Idols are characterized here as being ultimately unable to create anything. Whilst we may not be tempted to worship literal idols, we have many other potential idols in our lives which take us away from God – endless surfing the internet, involvement in social networking, following sport and celebrities, making money, absorbing hobbies. These are uncreative, ultimately; serving God is the only truly creative thing we can do with our lives.

96:10 Say among the nations – The Psalmist was intent on preaching to the Gentiles. See on 18:49.

woods shall sing for joy <sup>13</sup> before Yahweh; for He comes, for He comes to judge the earth. He will judge the world with righteousness, the peoples with His truth.

daughters of Judah rejoiced, because of Your judgments, Yahweh. <sup>9</sup> For You, Yahweh, are most high above all the earth. You are exalted far above all gods. <sup>10</sup> You who love Yahweh, hate evil. He preserves the souls of His saints. He delivers them out of the hand of the wicked. <sup>11</sup> Light is sown for the righteous, and gladness for the upright in heart. <sup>12</sup> Be glad in Yahweh, you righteous people! Give thanks to His holy Name.

A Psalm.

97:7 Worship Him, all you gods – Here as often in the Psalms, the language presupposes that the gods / idols of the nations are real and living, but Yahweh's greatness is such that effectively they have no power or significance. Yet the Bible clearly teaches that these gods / idols had no real existence. The same principle is used in the way the New Testament speaks about demons, who were also associated with idols (1 Cor. 10:20,21). They are spoken of as if they have some real existence, but the evident power of God in Christ's miracles was such that they were effectively declared as having no real existence or at best being powerless and insignificant.

98:3 The "salvation" spoken of in :1-3 isn't God's saving of Himself, but His salvation of His people through Jesus [the Hebrew form of 'Jesus' means 'Yah's salvation']. It is our personal experience of that salvation which should be the witness which persuades the Gentile world to praise Him. It was God's intention that His salvation of His people from Egypt would have this effect; but Israel despised that salvation, in their hearts reversed it by constantly wanting to return to Egypt, and so they didn't declare His salvation and so the Gentiles didn't hear. We can't keep our experience of salvation to ourselves; we will declare it to the whole world if we really grasp the wonder of it all.

salvation of our God. <sup>4</sup> Make a joyful noise to Yahweh, all the earth! Burst out and sing for joy, yes, sing praises! <sup>5</sup> Sing praises to Yahweh with the harp, with the harp and the voice of melody. <sup>6</sup> With trumpets and sound of the ram's horn make a joyful noise before the King, Yahweh. <sup>7</sup> Let the sea roar with its fullness; the world, and those who live therein. <sup>8</sup> Let the rivers clap their hands, let the mountains sing for joy together. <sup>9</sup> Let them sing before Yahweh, for He comes to judge the earth. He will judge the world with righteousness, and the peoples with equity.

His footstool. He is Holy! <sup>6</sup> Moses and Aaron were among His priests, Samuel among those who call on His name; they called on Yahweh, and He answered them. <sup>7</sup> He spoke to them in the pillar of cloud. They kept His testimonies, the statute that He gave them. <sup>8</sup> You answered them, Yahweh our God; You are a God who forgave them, although You took vengeance for their doings. <sup>9</sup> Exalt Yahweh our God. Worship at His holy hill, for Yahweh, our God, is holy!

<sup>1</sup> Shout for joy to Yahweh, all you lands! <sup>2</sup> Serve Yahweh with gladness, come before His presence with singing. <sup>3</sup> Know that Yahweh, He is God. It is He who has made us and not we ourselves, and we are His. We are His people, and the sheep of His pasture. <sup>4</sup> Enter into His gates with thanksgiving, into His courts with praise. Give thanks to Him, and bless His name. <sup>5</sup> For Yahweh is good, His grace endures forever, His faithfulness to all generations.

99:4 You execute justice and righteousness – This is the language of judgment, whereby a judge ‘establishes’ principles. The fact God is enthroned means that He is our constant judge and we are always living our lives before His ongoing judgment. His throne is a throne of judgment, so whenever man is before God – which is always – He is our insistent judge, right now.

99:7 They kept His testimonies – This is in the context of the time when Israel were in the wilderness and God spoke to them in the cloud. They didn't keep His law then, as the prophets and historical record make clear. The Psalmist is reflecting how God imputed righteousness to His people at this time (Num. 23:21), just as He does for us who cross the Red Sea of baptism (1 Cor. 10:1,2).

100:3 The fact that God Himself created us, as His sheep, “and not we ourselves” (a comment applicable, in essence, to theories of atheistic evolution) should lead us to ecstatic singing of praise before Him. Likewise 96:2,5, and so many other examples, invite us to enthusiastically praise God, simply because “the Lord made the heavens”.

Psalm 101 Feb. 25A Psalm by David.

<sup>1</sup> I will sing of grace and justice. To You, Yahweh, I will sing praises. <sup>2</sup> I will be careful to live a blameless life. When will You come to me? I will walk within my house with a blameless heart. <sup>3</sup> I will set no vile thing before my eyes; I hate the deeds of faithless men. They will not cling to me. <sup>4</sup> A perverse heart will be far from me. I will have nothing to do with evil. <sup>5</sup> I will silence whoever secretly slanders his neighbour. I won't tolerate one who is haughty and conceited. <sup>6</sup> My eyes will be on the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me. He who walks in a perfect way, he will serve me. <sup>7</sup> He who practices deceit won't dwell within my house. He who speaks falsehood won't be established before my eyes. <sup>8</sup> Morning by morning, I will destroy all the wicked of the land; to cut off all the workers of iniquity from Yahweh's city.

Psalm 102 Feb. 26A Prayer of the afflicted, when he is overwhelmed and pours out his complaint before Yahweh.

cry come in to You. <sup>2</sup> Don't hide Your face from me in the day of my distress, turn Your ear to me. Answer me quickly in the day when I call. <sup>3</sup> For my days consume away like smoke, my bones are burned as a torch. <sup>4</sup> My heart is blighted like grass and withered, for I forget to eat my bread. <sup>5</sup> By reason of the voice of my groaning, my bones stick to my skin. <sup>6</sup> I am like a pelican of the wilderness, I have become as an owl of the waste places. <sup>7</sup> I watch, and have become like a sparrow that is alone on the housetop. <sup>8</sup> My enemies reproach me all day, those who are mad at me use my name as a curse. <sup>9</sup> For I have eaten ashes like bread and mixed my drink with tears <sup>10</sup> because of Your indignation and Your wrath; for You have taken me up, and thrown me away. <sup>11</sup> My days are like a long shadow, I have withered like grass. <sup>12</sup> But You, Yahweh, will remain forever; Your renown endures to all generations. <sup>13</sup> You will arise and have mercy on Zion; for it is time to have pity on her, yes, the set time has come. <sup>14</sup> For Your servants take pleasure in her stones, and have pity on her dust. <sup>15</sup> So the nations will fear the name of Yahweh;

God as creator results in joy and praise amongst those of His creation who recognize Him as creator.

101:3 I will set no vile thing before my eyes – The context is David speaking of how he strove to be spiritually minded, and he realized that our thoughts are influenced by what we see or watch. These ancient words are so relevant to us who live in the internet generation, where we can privately view many 'vile things' with our eyes. If we want to be spiritually minded, then what we allow ourselves to view must be consciously controlled.

102:13 The set time has come – The Psalmist is writing maybe in captivity in Babylon as the predicted 70 years of Judah's captivity there came to a close, and he looks forward to the promised restoration and rebuilding of Jerusalem.

all the kings of the earth Your glory.
<sup>16</sup> For Yahweh has built up Zion; He has appeared in His glory. <sup>17</sup> He has responded to the prayer of the destitute, and has not despised their prayer. <sup>18</sup> This will be written for the generation to come. A people which will be created will praise Yah. <sup>19</sup> For He has looked down from the height of His sanctuary; from heaven, Yahweh saw the earth; <sup>20</sup> to hear the groans of the prisoner; to free those who are condemned to death; <sup>21</sup> that men may declare the name of Yahweh in Zion, and His praise in Jerusalem, <sup>22</sup> when the peoples are gathered together, the kingdoms, to serve Yahweh. <sup>23</sup> He weakened my strength along the course, He shortened my days. <sup>24</sup> I said, My God, don't take me away in the midst of my days. Your years are throughout all generations. <sup>25</sup> Of old, You laid the foundation of the earth, the heavens are the work of Your hands. <sup>26</sup> They perish, but You will endure. Yes, all of them will wear out like a garment. You will change them like a cloak, and they will be changed. <sup>27</sup> But You are the same, Your years will have no end. <sup>28</sup> The children of Your servants will continue, their seed will be established before You.

102:16 Yahweh has built up Zion – He had not then done so (:13); the earlier part of the Psalm laments this. But the Psalmist believed in God's prophecies of doing so, and considered them as good as already fulfilled. Faith is all about adopting God's perspective, seeing future promises as if they have already been fulfilled, thereby enabling us to live the Kingdom life now in its essence.

102:25 The language of laying foundations is nearly always used about the laying of the foundations of the new, rebuilt temple at the time of return from exile (Ezra 3:10-12; 5:16; Is. 44:28; Hag. 2:18; Zech. 4:9; 8:9); and this is the context of this Psalm (see on :13 and :16). The 'heavens and earth' refer to Israel (Is. 1:2) and the temple. Although they had 'perished' in the Babylonian invasion and destruction of the first temple, God remained and would, the Psalmist believed, install a new temple system (as outlined in Ez. 40-48). However, this never quite happened as God intended due to Judah's weakness, and so these prophecies were reapplied to how the entire Jewish system based around the temple and Law of Moses would 'perish' and God's new temple system based around the exalted Lord Jesus would come into existence (Heb. 1:10 and context).

103:2 The Hebrew translated "benefits" is also translated "praise". The things God gives us are therefore imperatives in themselves to praise Him. Giving thanks before meals is a wonderful habit to get into. As we receive His gifts, or more to the point, perceive the receipt of them, the heart breaks forth into a deep thankfulness. This is the true praise.

isfies your desire with good things, so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's. <sup>6</sup> Yahweh executes righteous acts, and justice for all who are oppressed. <sup>7</sup> He made known His ways to Moses, His deeds to the children of Israel. <sup>8</sup> Yahweh is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abundant in grace. <sup>9</sup> He will not always accuse; neither will He stay angry forever. <sup>10</sup> He has not dealt with us according to our sins, nor repaid us for our iniquities. <sup>11</sup> For as the heavens are high above the earth, so great is His grace toward those who fear Him. <sup>12</sup> As far as the east is from the west, so far has He removed our transgressions from us. <sup>13</sup> Like a father has compassion on His children, so Yahweh has compassion on those who fear Him. <sup>14</sup> For He knows how we are made, He remembers that we are dust. <sup>15</sup> As for man, His days are like grass, as a flower of the field, so he flourishes. <sup>16</sup> For the wind passes over it, and it is gone. Its place remembers it no more. <sup>17</sup> But Yahweh's grace is from everlasting to everlasting with those who fear Him, His righteousness to children's children; <sup>18</sup> to those who keep His covenant, to those who remember to obey His precepts. <sup>19</sup> Yahweh has established His throne in the heavens, His kingdom rules over all. <sup>20</sup> Praise Yahweh, you angels of His, who are mighty in strength, who fulfil His word, obeying the voice of His word. <sup>21</sup> Praise Yahweh, all you armies of His, you servants of His, who do His will. <sup>22</sup> Praise Yahweh, all you works of His, in all places of His dominion. Praise Yahweh, my soul!

103:20,21 The emphasis is that all the Angels are obedient to God and do His will (Heb. 1:14). There aren't two groups of Angels, some good and some sinful. God tolerates no sin in His presence in Heaven (Hab. 1:13). Sin brings death and yet the Angels cannot die, therefore they cannot sin; our hope is to be made like them in this sense after the resurrection at Christ's return (Lk. 20:35,36). See 148:2.

103:22 Praise Yahweh, my soul – David sees himself as in league with the Angels, who likewise are all praising God (:20,21).

104:4 His Angels winds – The Hebrew word translated “wind” is that translated “spirit”. God's Spirit works in many ways, but one of those ways is through His Angels. If we were to ask how, mechanically as it were, God's Spirit operates, how He is everywhere present, how He does things – the answer to some extent is that He achieves all these things through His armies of Angels.

away. <sup>8</sup> The mountains rose, the valleys sank down, to the place which You had assigned to them. <sup>9</sup> You have set a boundary that they may not pass over; that they don't turn again to cover the earth. <sup>10</sup> He sends forth springs into the valleys, they run among the mountains. <sup>11</sup> They give drink to every animal of the field, the wild donkeys quench their thirst. <sup>12</sup> The birds of the sky nest by them, they sing among the branches. <sup>13</sup> He waters the mountains from His rooms, the earth is filled with the fruit of Your works. <sup>14</sup> He causes the grass to grow for the livestock, and plants for man to cultivate, that He may bring forth food out of the earth: <sup>15</sup> wine that makes glad the heart of man, oil to make his face to shine, and bread that strengthens man's heart. <sup>16</sup> Yahweh's trees are well watered, the cedars of Lebanon, which He has planted, <sup>17</sup> where the birds make their nests. The stork makes its home in the fir trees. <sup>18</sup> The high mountains are for the wild goats, the rocks are a refuge for the rock badgers. <sup>19</sup> He appointed the moon for seasons, the sun knows when to set. <sup>20</sup> You make darkness, and it is night, in which all the animals of the forest prowl. <sup>21</sup> The young lions roar after their prey, and seek their food from God. <sup>22</sup> The sun rises, and they steal away and lay down in their dens. <sup>23</sup> Man goes forth to his work, to his labour until the evening. <sup>24</sup> Yahweh, how many are Your works! In wisdom have You made them all. The earth is full of Your riches. <sup>25</sup> There is the sea, great and wide, in which are innumerable living things, both small and large animals. <sup>26</sup> There the ships go, and leviathan, whom You formed to play there. <sup>27</sup> These all wait for You, that You may give them their food in due season. <sup>28</sup> You give to them; they gather. You open Your hand; they are satisfied with good. <sup>29</sup> You hide Your face: they are troubled; You take away their

104:20 You make darkness – The rising and setting of the sun is a conscious expenditure of energy by God, rather than happening by some clockwork mechanism which God set up and then withdrew from. He consciously makes the grass grow (:14), and consciously feeds the animals (:28). Likewise the water cycle is not mere clockwork, unstoppable natural law; the rivers are sent forth consciously by God as they bubble over the rocks (:10). This view of creation means that it's easier to believe that the God who consciously does these things every moment can intervene in them at any time in any way; we aren't the helpless victims of a nature which has a life and will of her own.

104:29 You take away their breath: they die, and return to the dust – The Hebrew words for “breath” and “spirit” are the same. God made man from the dust and put into him the breath or spirit of life (Gen. 2:7). When we die, that spirit, that life force, returns to God and our bodies to the dust. There is no conscious survival of death, no inherent immortality within man. Life and immortality have only been revealed to some men through the Gospel of Christ and the hope of resurrection to immortality which there is in Him (Rom. 2:7; 2 Tim. 1:10). All theories or hopes of reincarnation are disallowed by Bible teaching about the nature of man.

breath: they die, and return to the dust. <sup>30</sup> You send forth Your Spirit: they are created, You renew the face of the ground. <sup>31</sup> Let the glory of Yahweh endure forever, let Yahweh rejoice in His works. <sup>32</sup> He looks at the earth, and it trembles. He touches the mountains, and they smoke. <sup>33</sup> I will sing to Yahweh as long as I live, I will sing praise to my God while I have any being. <sup>34</sup> Let your meditation be sweet to Him. I will rejoice in Yahweh. <sup>35</sup> Let sinners be consumed out of the earth. Let the wicked be no more. Bless Yahweh, my soul. Praise Yah!

His mouth, <sup>6</sup> you seed of Abraham His servant, you children of Jacob, His chosen ones. <sup>7</sup> He is Yahweh, our God; His judgments are in all the earth. <sup>8</sup> He has remembered His covenant forever, the word which He commanded to a thousand generations, <sup>9</sup> the covenant which He made with Abraham, His oath to Isaac, <sup>10</sup> and confirmed the same to Jacob for a statute; to Israel for an everlasting covenant <sup>11</sup> saying, To you I will give the land of Canaan, the lot of your inheritance; <sup>12</sup> when they were but a few men in number, yes, very few, and foreigners in it. <sup>13</sup> They went about from nation to nation, from one kingdom to another people. <sup>14</sup> He allowed no one to do them wrong. Yes, He reprov'd kings for their sakes, <sup>15</sup> Don't touch my anointed ones! Do my prophets no harm! <sup>16</sup> He called for a famine on the land, He destroyed the piles of food. <sup>17</sup> He sent a man before them- Joseph, who was sold for a slave. <sup>18</sup> They bruised his feet with shackles; his soul was locked in iron, <sup>19</sup> until the time that His word came true, and Yahweh's

105:17-23 In the context of the Psalm, God is comforting Israel that all their sufferings had been experienced by Joseph. Israel as a nation are often spoken of as being in prison in a Gentile world (Ps. 79:11; 102:20; Is. 42:7,22; 49:9); just as Joseph was. Prison and death are often associated because a spell in prison was effectively a death sentence, so bad were the conditions. Israel being in prison is therefore a symbol of a living death. Just as God had delivered Joseph, so God's people are to take comfort that when the right time comes, we too will be delivered from our present oppression.

105:18 This highlights the mental aspects of Joseph's suffering. The Hebrew for "hurt" means 'to browbeat or depress'; thus his soul was in iron, trapped, oppressively boxed in as he lay in the darkness. Joseph was in this situation until the determined time came for God to suddenly deliver him thanks to the unexpected word from a king; and so Judah, depressed in Babylon, were being comforted that when the predicted 70 years captivity were ended, they too would be likewise delivered – which came true in the decree of king Cyrus for them to return to their land with his every blessing.

word proved Him true. <sup>20</sup> The king sent and freed him; even the ruler of peoples, and let him go free. <sup>21</sup> He made him lord of his house, and ruler of all of his possessions; <sup>22</sup> to discipline his princes at his pleasure, and to teach his elders wisdom. <sup>23</sup> Israel also came into Egypt, Jacob lived in the land of Ham. <sup>24</sup> He increased his people greatly, and made them stronger than their adversaries. <sup>25</sup> He turned their heart to hate His people, to conspire against His servants. <sup>26</sup> He sent Moses His servant, and Aaron whom He had chosen. <sup>27</sup> They performed miracles among them, and wonders in the land of Ham. <sup>28</sup> He sent darkness, and made it dark. They didn't rebel against His words. <sup>29</sup> He turned their waters into blood, and killed their fish. <sup>30</sup> Their land swarmed with frogs, even in the rooms of their kings. <sup>31</sup> He spoke, and swarms of beetles came, and lice in all their borders. <sup>32</sup> He gave them hail for rain, with lightning in their land. <sup>33</sup> He struck their vines and also their fig trees, and shattered the trees of their country. <sup>34</sup> He spoke, and the locusts came, and the grasshoppers without number <sup>35</sup> ate up every plant in their land and devoured the fruit of their ground. <sup>36</sup> He struck also all the firstborn in their land, the first fruits of all their manhood. <sup>37</sup> He brought them forth with silver and gold, there was not one feeble person among His tribes. <sup>38</sup> Egypt was glad when they departed, for the fear of them had fallen on them. <sup>39</sup> He spread a cloud for a covering, fire to give light in the night. <sup>40</sup> They asked, and He brought quails, and satisfied them with the bread of the sky. <sup>41</sup> He opened the rock, and waters gushed out; they ran as a river in the dry places. <sup>42</sup> For He remembered His holy word, and Abraham His servant. <sup>43</sup> He brought forth His people with joy, His chosen with singing. <sup>44</sup> He gave them the lands of the nations. They took the labour of the peoples in possession, <sup>45</sup> that they might keep His statutes, and observe His laws. Praise Yah!

Psalms 106 Mar. 2

105:19 God has arranged our lives according to a pattern; we have specific times in our lives for various situations. Looking back at the Biblical record of Joseph and Moses, whose life was divided clearly into three periods of 40 years, we see this clearly; but it's of course harder to discern in our own lives as we are still living through it. But God is in control and has a plan for us, desiring only our eternal good in our latter end.

105:37 There was not one feeble person among His tribes – Amazingly, there was nobody sick amongst the three million or so who left Egypt that night. At our exodus from this world through our Red Sea baptism into Christ, we are made spiritually strong – and must abide in that strength.

105:45 That they might keep His statutes – The whole purpose of being in the Kingdom is so that we might be perpetually obedient to God's word; this is the core reason for our wanting to be there.

declare all His praise? <sup>3</sup> Blessed are those who keep justice. Blessed is the one who does what is right at all times. <sup>4</sup> Remember me, Yahweh, with the grace that You show to Your people; visit me with Your salvation, <sup>5</sup> that I may see the prosperity of Your chosen, that I may rejoice in the gladness of Your nation, that I may glory with Your inheritance. <sup>6</sup> We have sinned with our fathers. We have committed iniquity. We have done wickedly. <sup>7</sup> Our fathers didn't understand Your wonders in Egypt. They didn't remember the multitude of Your graces, but were rebellious at the sea, even at the Red Sea. <sup>8</sup> Nevertheless He saved them for His name's sake, that He might make His mighty power known. <sup>9</sup> He rebuked the Red Sea also, and it was dried up; so He led them through the depths, as through a desert.

106:5 That I may see the prosperity of Your chosen – The Psalmist's desire for salvation wasn't merely because he or she wanted to live eternally. There was a desire to see all God's people glorying in salvation. Salvation is made possible in that God's people as a whole have been redeemed; there is such a thing as spiritual selfishness, desiring the Kingdom merely for what it means to us. But if we have the perspective of God's glory, we will desire the coming of salvation because all of us will be glorified. Hence Paul could say that the joy he would have in the Kingdom would be related to his joy that his brethren were also there (1 Thess. 2:19).

106:6 Continuing the thought of :5, the Psalmist felt that he personally was somehow involved in the sin of God's people ("we have sinned"). We aren't called to smug self righteousness, but rather we are to feel a personal involvement in the failures and successes of God's people as a whole.

106:7 Even at the Red Sea – Even at the very moment of their salvation they were rebellious. God didn't save them because they had reached a certain level of righteousness, but because of His grace. The Red Sea crossing represents our baptism (1 Cor. 10:1,2); God has saved us by His grace, not because of our righteousness.

106:15 But sent leanness into their soul – If we fulfil our fleshly craving, we will become internally and spiritually hungry. Giving in to our cravings isn't the way to happiness.

their Saviour who had done great things in Egypt, <sup>22</sup> wondrous works in the land of Ham and awesome things by the Red Sea. <sup>23</sup> Therefore He said that He would destroy them, had not Moses His chosen stood before Him in the breach, to turn away His wrath, so that He wouldn't destroy them. <sup>24</sup> Yes, they despised the pleasant land. They didn't believe His word, <sup>25</sup> but murmured in their tents, and didn't listen to Yahweh's voice. <sup>26</sup> Therefore He swore to them that He would overthrow them in the wilderness, <sup>27</sup> that He would overthrow their seed among the nations, and scatter them in the gentile lands. <sup>28</sup> They joined themselves also to Baal Peor, and ate the sacrifices of the dead. <sup>29</sup> Thus they provoked Him to anger with their deeds. The plague broke in on them. <sup>30</sup> Then Phinehas stood up, and executed judgment, so the plague was stopped. <sup>31</sup> That was credited to him for righteousness, for all generations to come. <sup>32</sup> They angered Him also at the waters of Meribah, so that Moses was troubled for their sakes; <sup>33</sup> because they were rebellious against His spirit, he spoke rashly with his lips. <sup>34</sup> They didn't destroy the peoples as Yahweh commanded them, <sup>35</sup> but mixed themselves with the nations, and learned their works. <sup>36</sup> They served their idols, which became a snare to them. <sup>37</sup> Yes, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters to demons. <sup>38</sup> They shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan. The land was polluted with blood. <sup>39</sup> Thus were they defiled with their works, and prostituted themselves in their deeds. <sup>40</sup> Therefore Yahweh burned with anger against His people, He abhorred His inheritance. <sup>41</sup> He gave them into the hand of the nations. Those who hated them ruled over them. <sup>42</sup> Their enemies also oppressed them, they were brought into subjection under their hand. <sup>43</sup> Many times He delivered them, but they were rebellious in their ways, and were brought low in their iniquity. <sup>44</sup> Nevertheless He regarded their distress, when He heard their cry. <sup>45</sup> He remembered for them His covenant, and relented according to the multitude of His graces. <sup>46</sup> He made them also to be pitied by all those who carried them captive. <sup>47</sup> Save us, Yahweh, our God, gather us from among the nations, to give thanks to Your holy name, to triumph in Your praise! <sup>48</sup> Blessed be Yahweh, the God of Israel, from everlasting even to everlasting! Let all the people say, Amen. Praise Yah!

BOOK V

106:37 Demons refer to idols (:36). Demons or idols have no real existence (1 Cor. 8:4; 10:20). Therefore when we read of demons being cast out in the Gospel records, this is the language of the day used for healing various illnesses rather than any evidence that demons actually exist.

so, whom He has redeemed from the hand of the adversary <sup>3</sup> and gathered out of the lands, from the east and from the west, from the north and from the south. <sup>4</sup> They wandered in the wilderness in a desert way, they found no city to live in. <sup>5</sup> Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them. <sup>6</sup> Then they cried to Yahweh in their trouble and He delivered them out of their distresses, <sup>7</sup> He led them also by a straight way, that they might go to a city to live in. <sup>8</sup> Let them praise Yahweh for His grace, for His wonderful works to the children of men! <sup>9</sup> For He satisfies the longing soul, He fills the hungry soul with good. <sup>10</sup> Some sat in darkness and in the shadow of death, being bound in affliction and iron, <sup>11</sup> because they rebelled against the words of God, and condemned the counsel of the Most High. <sup>12</sup> Therefore He brought down their heart with labour, they fell down, and there was none to help. <sup>13</sup> Then they cried to Yahweh in their trouble, and He saved them out of their distresses. <sup>14</sup> He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death and broke their bonds in sunder. <sup>15</sup> Let them praise Yahweh for His grace, for His wonderful works to the children of men! <sup>16</sup> For He has broken the gates of brass and cut through bars of iron. <sup>17</sup> Fools are afflicted because of their disobedience and because of their iniquities. <sup>18</sup> Their soul abhors every kind of food, they draw near to the gates of death. <sup>19</sup> Then they cry to Yahweh in

107:4 They found no city to live in – The LXX of this phrase is quoted about us in Heb. 13:14. We too are on a wilderness journey after our Red Sea baptism, and find no place we can call home in that journey. Our place of rest and settling down isn't in this life, but in the Kingdom which is to come at Christ's return. The implication could be that Israel wanted to settle in the wilderness. They didn't want to return to Egypt (although they did at times), they didn't really desire the unknown promised land... so, they wanted to just settle down there in the wilderness. And so it can be with us. We can be happy with the way to the Kingdom, it can be that the social aspect of the Christian life suites us... we are content with it, and yet it can be that for all that, we lack a real sense of direction towards the Kingdom. The Christian life is but a path leading towards an end, and the end destination is the Kingdom. If we believe surely that we will be there, we will live lives which reflect this sense of concrete direction and aim.

107:9 Mary quoted this verse about how she had been filled with good things (Lk. 1:53); but Zacharias quoted the next verse, :10, shortly afterwards (Lk. 1:79). Surely Mary had gotten him thinking in the same paths as she did. Our spirituality can influence others positively, consciously and unconsciously. This is why it's important to mix in spiritual company.

107:11 Condemned the counsel of the Most High – This is one of a number of Biblical verses which suggest that we as it were stand in judgment upon God when we encounter His word. He overcomes every claim that His word is untrue and that therefore He is to be condemned (Rom. 3:4). That we mere humans should judge God the judge of all is an arresting concept; but this is what we are in effect doing when we consider His claims, His promises of saving us which are throughout His word.

their trouble, He saves them out of their distresses. <sup>20</sup> He sends His word and heals them, and delivers them from their graves. <sup>21</sup> Let them praise Yahweh for His grace, for His wonderful works to the children of men! <sup>22</sup> Let them offer the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and declare His works with singing. <sup>23</sup> Those who go down to the sea in ships, who do business in great waters; <sup>24</sup> these see Yahweh's works, and His wonders in the deep. <sup>25</sup> For He commands, and raises the stormy wind which lifts up its waves. <sup>26</sup> They mount up to the sky; they go down again to the depths. Their soul melts away because of trouble. <sup>27</sup> They reel back and forth and stagger like a drunken man, all their wisdom disappears. <sup>28</sup> Then they cry to Yahweh in their trouble and He brings them out of their distress. <sup>29</sup> He makes the storm a calm, so that its waves are still. <sup>30</sup> Then they are glad because it is calm, and so He brings them to their desired haven. <sup>31</sup> Let them praise Yahweh for His grace, for His wonderful works for the children of men! <sup>32</sup> Let them exalt Him also in the gathering of the people, and praise Him in the seat of the elders. <sup>33</sup> He turns rivers into a desert, water springs into a thirsty ground, <sup>34</sup> and a fruitful land into a salt waste because of the wickedness of those who dwell in it. <sup>35</sup> He turns a desert into a pool of water, and a dry land into water springs. <sup>36</sup> There He makes the hungry live, that they may prepare a city to live in, <sup>37</sup> sow fields, plant vineyards, and reap the fruits of increase. <sup>38</sup> He blesses them also, so that they are multiplied greatly; He doesn't allow their livestock to decrease. <sup>39</sup> Again, they are diminished and bowed down through oppression, trouble, and sorrow. <sup>40</sup> He pours contempt on princes, and causes them to wander in a trackless waste. <sup>41</sup> Yet He lifts the needy out of their affliction, and increases their families like a flock. <sup>42</sup> The upright will see it, and be glad. All the wicked will shut their mouths. <sup>43</sup> Whoever is wise will pay attention to these things; they will reflect upon the graces of Yahweh.

A Song. A Psalm by David.

<sup>1</sup> My heart is steadfast, God. I will sing and I will make music with my soul. <sup>2</sup> Wake up, harp and lyre! I will wake up the dawn. <sup>3</sup> I will give thanks to You, Yahweh, among the nations, I will sing praises to You among the peoples. <sup>4</sup> For Your grace is great above the heavens, Your faithfulness reaches to the skies. <sup>5</sup> Be exalted, God, above the heavens! Let Your glory be over all the earth. <sup>6</sup> That Your beloved may be delivered, save with Your right hand, and answer us. <sup>7</sup> God has spoken from

107:30 The idea of God stilling a storm and getting terrified sailors immediately to their port clearly had fulfilment in how Christ stilled the storm on the lake of Galilee (Jn. 6:18-21). This doesn't mean that He is God Himself, but rather that Old Testament statements about God were fulfilled in His Son, who manifested the Father to perfection.

His sanctuary: In triumph I will divide Shechem, and measure out the valley of Succoth. <sup>8</sup> Gilead is mine. Manasseh is mine. Ephraim also is my helmet. Judah is my sceptre. <sup>9</sup> Moab is my wash pot, I will toss my sandal on Edom, I will shout over Philistia. <sup>10</sup> Who will bring me into the fortified city? Who has led me to Edom? <sup>11</sup> Haven't You rejected us, God? You don't go forth, God, with our armies. <sup>12</sup> Give us help against the enemy, for the help of man is vain. <sup>13</sup> Through God we will do valiantly, for it is He who will tread down our enemies.

<sup>1</sup> God of my praise, don't remain silent, <sup>2</sup> for they have opened the mouth of the wicked and the mouth of deceit against me. They have spoken to me with a lying tongue. <sup>3</sup> They have also surrounded me with words of hatred, and fought against me without a cause. <sup>4</sup> In return for my love, they are my adversaries; but I am in prayer. <sup>5</sup> They have rewarded me evil for good, and hatred for my love. <sup>6</sup> Set a wicked man over him, let an adversary stand at his right hand. <sup>7</sup> When he is judged, let him come forth guilty, let his prayer be turned into sin. <sup>8</sup> Let his days be few, let another take his office. <sup>9</sup> Let his children be fatherless and his wife a widow; <sup>10</sup> may his children be wandering beggars, let them be sought from their ruins. <sup>11</sup> Let the creditor seize all that he has, let strangers plunder the fruit of his labour. <sup>12</sup> Let there be nobody to extend kindness to him, neither let there be anyone to have pity on his fatherless children. <sup>13</sup> Let his posterity be cut off, in the next generation may their name be blotted out. <sup>14</sup> Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered by Yahweh, don't let the sin of his mother be blotted out. <sup>15</sup> Let them be before Yahweh continually, that He may cut off their memory from the earth;

108:13 The structure of the Psalm is significant in that it begins with praise and then goes on to desperately plead for God's action. There is an intentional double meaning in the Hebrew word translated "hear"; it is also translated "answer". There should be real comfort for us in knowing that prayer really is 'heard'; the hearing is, in a sense, the answer / response, with which a man should be content. Therefore David desired to praise God even before the answer was received; the knowledge God was really hearing him gave such confidence (see too 109:30). We aren't to hide behind the excuse that unanswered prayer just means that God has heard but not answered.

109:6 An adversary – The Hebrew word translated "adversary" here is satan. 'Satan' is simply a Hebrew word meaning an adversary, totally neutral in meaning; it doesn't of itself refer to any sinful being.

109:8 This is quoted about Judas in Acts 1:20. The disciples saw the similarities with Judas and then decided to concretely take action according to those similarities – they proactively decided to find someone to take his place as this verse requires. We need to use the Bible in this same way – see the similarities between our situations and Biblical precedents, and then act on them accordingly.

<sup>16</sup> because he didn't remember to show kindness, but persecuted the poor and needy man, the broken in heart, to kill them. <sup>17</sup> Yes, he loved cursing, and it came to him. He didn't delight in blessing, and so it was far from him. <sup>18</sup> He clothed himself also with cursing as with his garment; it came into his inward parts like water, like oil into his bones. <sup>19</sup> Let it be to him as the clothing with which he covers himself, like the belt that is always around him. <sup>20</sup> This is the reward of my adversaries from Yahweh, of those who speak evil against my soul. <sup>21</sup> But deal with me, Yahweh the Lord, for Your name's sake; because Your grace is good, deliver me; <sup>22</sup> for I am poor and needy. My heart is wounded within me. <sup>23</sup> I fade away like an evening shadow, I am shaken off like a locust. <sup>24</sup> My knees are weak through fasting, my body is thin and lacks fat. <sup>25</sup> I have also become a reproach to them; when they see me, they shake their head. <sup>26</sup> Help me, Yahweh, my God. Save me according to Your grace; <sup>27</sup> that they may know that this is Your hand; that You, Yahweh, have done it. <sup>28</sup> They may curse, but You bless. When they arise, they will be shamed, but Your servant shall rejoice. <sup>29</sup> Let my adversaries be clothed with dishonour, may they cover themselves with their own shame as with a robe. <sup>30</sup> I will give great thanks to Yahweh with my mouth, truly I will praise Him among the multitude. <sup>31</sup> For He will stand at the right hand of the needy, to save him from those who judge his soul.

A Psalm by David.

110:1 This verse is quoted in Mt. 22:44 and Acts 2:34,35 with the understanding that David's "lord" or master was Jesus, who was bidden sit in Heaven at His right hand after His resurrection, declared a priest for us in the order of Melchizedek, until He returns to earth to be King in Jerusalem ("Zion") and destroy all God's enemies.

110:2 Rule in the midst of your enemies – This supports the impression we get from Psalm 2, that when Christ returns He will establish His Kingdom but there will initially be opposition to Him, and the nations will gather together against Him, surrounding Jerusalem (cp. Rev. 20:9). It's amazing how much humanity wants to carry on as it is, with all their religions, and not be disturbed by the intervention of God in their lives. And this feature of our world will be revealed in their attitudes to Christ at His return.

110:3 The exhortation of Ps. 110 is powerful: because Jesus is now seated at the Father's right hand, His people offer themselves as freewill offerings in this, the day of His power. They are arrayed in "holy attire" because He has been made the Priest after the order of Melchizedek – they share in the work which His exaltation has enabled.

110:4 This is repeatedly applied to Christ (Heb. 5:6,10; 6:20; 7:11,17,21). The priests sworn, and will not change His mind: You are a priest forever in the order of Melchizedek. <sup>5</sup> The Lord is at your right hand; He will crush kings in the day of His wrath. <sup>6</sup> He will judge among the nations, He will heap up dead bodies, He will crush the ruler of the whole earth. <sup>7</sup> He will drink of the brook in the way; therefore He will lift up His head.

Psalm 111 Mar. 5

ing them the heritage of the nations. <sup>7</sup> The works of His hands are truth and justice; all His precepts are sure, <sup>8</sup> they are established forever and ever. They are done in truth and uprightness. <sup>9</sup> He has sent redemption to His people, He has ordained His covenant forever. His name is holy and awesome! <sup>10</sup> The fear of Yahweh is the beginning of wisdom. All those who do His work have a good understanding. His praise endures forever!

were from the tribe of Levi, whereas Christ was from Judah. Melchizedek was king of Jerusalem and yet also a priest; but he wasn't a Levite. He is therefore chosen as an appropriate type of Christ, the ultimate king-priest. This argument is deployed in Hebrews to answer the Jewish objection that Christ can't be a priest because He wasn't a Levite.

111:5 God is thinking about the covenant made with us all the time! And yet how often in daily life do we reflect upon the fact that we really are in covenant relationship with God... how often do we recollect the part we share in the promises to Abraham, how frequently do we feel that we really are in a personal covenant with God Almighty?

111:10 Those who do His work have a good understanding – There is an upward spiral in spirituality. The more we do God's work, the more we will come to understand Him. The very process of working with Him reveals more of Him to us.

112:5 The man who deals graciously and lends – Our generosity must reflect that of God, because "He has dispersed, He has given to the poor" (:9). His generosity to us is largely over matters in which we are responsible for the problem we end up in, and the deeper we realize this the less we will be tempted to be mean to others because we consider their poverty to be 'their fault'.

<sup>6</sup> For he will never be shaken; the righteous will be remembered forever. <sup>7</sup> He will not be afraid of evil news; his heart is steadfast, trusting in Yahweh. <sup>8</sup> His heart is established; he will not be afraid in the end when he sees his adversaries. <sup>9</sup> He has dispersed, He has given to the poor; His righteousness endures forever, His horn will be exalted with honour. <sup>10</sup> The wicked will see it, and be grieved. He shall gnash with his teeth, and melt away. The desire of the wicked will perish.

needy from the ash heap; <sup>8</sup> that He may set him with princes, even with the princes of His people. <sup>9</sup> He settles the barren woman in her home, as a joyful mother of children. Praise Yah!

Psalm 115 Mar. 7

112:9 He has given to the poor – Quoted in 2 Cor. 9:9 about how God has given His grace of forgiveness and salvation to us the spiritually poor. The Greek word for “grace” also means “gift”. In the context, Paul is urging the early Christians to be materially generous to their poorer brethren because of the grace they have received from God. His spiritual generosity to us is to be reflected in our material generosity to others (see on :5).

114:2 Israel His kingdom – Israel were declared God's Kingdom on earth with Him as their King, exercising total sovereignty over them (Ex. 19:5,6). But they wanted a human king and worshipped other gods, so that God overturned that Kingdom with the intention to re-establish it on earth at Christ's return to eternally reign on David's throne in Jerusalem (Ez. 21:25-27; Acts 1:6). The future Kingdom of God on earth will be a re-establishment of the Kingdom that once was, again inviting us to understand it as an entity to be literally established on earth. The Bible doesn't teach that the righteous go to Heaven at death to enjoy their salvation there.

the sake of Your grace and truth. <sup>2</sup> Why should the nations say, Where is their God now? <sup>3</sup> But our God is in the heavens. He does whatever He pleases. <sup>4</sup> Their idols are silver and gold, the work of men's hands; <sup>5</sup> they have mouths, but they don't speak, they have eyes, but they don't see. <sup>6</sup> They have ears, but they don't hear, they have noses, but they don't smell. <sup>7</sup> They have hands, but they don't feel; they have feet, but they don't walk, neither do they speak through their throat. <sup>8</sup> Those who make them will be like them; yes, everyone who trusts in them. <sup>9</sup> Israel, trust in Yahweh! He is their help and their shield. <sup>10</sup> House of Aaron, trust in Yahweh! He is their help and their shield. <sup>11</sup> You who fear Yahweh, trust in Yahweh! He is their help and their shield. <sup>12</sup> Yahweh remembers us; He will bless us, He will bless the house of Israel, He will bless the house of Aaron. <sup>13</sup> He will bless those who fear Yahweh, both small and great. <sup>14</sup> May Yahweh increase you more and more, you and your children. <sup>15</sup> Blessed are you by Yahweh, who made heaven and earth. <sup>16</sup> The heavens are the heavens of Yahweh; but the earth has He given to the children of men. <sup>17</sup> The dead don't praise Yah, neither any who go down into silence; <sup>18</sup> but we will bless Yah, from this time forth and forevermore. Praise Yah!

Psalm 116 Mar. 7

<sup>1</sup> I love Yahweh, because He listens to my voice and my cries for mercy. <sup>2</sup> Because He has turned His ear to me, therefore I will call on Him as long as I live. <sup>3</sup> The cords of death surrounded me, the pains of Sheol got a hold on me, I found trouble and sorrow. <sup>4</sup> Then I called on the name of Yahweh: Yahweh, I beg You, deliver my soul. <sup>5</sup> Yahweh is gracious and righteous; yes, our God is merciful. <sup>6</sup> Yahweh preserves the simple; I was brought low, and He saved me. <sup>7</sup> Return to your rest, my soul, for Yahweh has dealt bountifully with you. <sup>8</sup> For You have delivered my soul from death, my eyes from tears, and my feet from falling. <sup>9</sup> I will walk before Yahweh in the land of the living. <sup>10</sup> I believed, therefore I said, I was greatly afflicted. <sup>11</sup> I

115:8 Those who make them will be like them – We become like what we worship. The Gentile idols are often described in the Bible as “vanities”; we may not worship literal idols but we can easily give our hearts over to obsession with the many vain things which crowd this world and the internet. If we do so, we will become as lost and lacking in direction as they are.

115:11 Who fear Yahweh, trust in Yahweh – The implication is that some believed in and feared Yahweh, but had yet to trust Him. We need likewise to convert our acceptance of God's existence into practical faith in Him.

116:2 Because He has turned His ear to me, therefore – The experience of answered prayer is an upward spiral; because prayer is answered, we are inspired to pray the more.

116:11 I said in my haste, “All men are liars” – This verse likely strikes a chord with most of us; we have all likewise at times felt that relationships in this world are useless, nobody is to be trusted.

said in my haste, All men are liars. <sup>12</sup> What will I give to Yahweh for all His benefits toward me? <sup>13</sup> I will take the cup of salvation, and call on the name of Yahweh. <sup>14</sup> I will pay my vows to Yahweh, yes, in the presence of all His people. <sup>15</sup> Precious in the sight of Yahweh is the death of His saints. <sup>16</sup> Yahweh, truly I am Your servant, I am Your servant, the son of Your handmaid. You have freed me from my chains. <sup>17</sup> I will offer to You the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and will call on the name of Yahweh. <sup>18</sup> I will pay my vows to Yahweh, yes, in the presence of all His people, <sup>19</sup> in the courts of Yahweh's house, in the midst of you, Jerusalem. Praise Yah!

116:13 I will take the cup of salvation – This cup was an allusion to one of the cups used at the Passover. In response to all God has done for us, we likewise respond by taking the cup at the communion service. Although our feelings and situations vary each time we take that cup, one strand of motivation within us for doing it should be our desire to do so in gratitude for all the Lord has done for us spiritually and physically.

116:14 In the presence of all His people – As in :18, our devotion to God is to be expressed within the context of other believers. Out of church Christianity is a contradiction in terms; we cannot retreat into our own homes and consider we are Christians in the privacy of our hearts. Difficult as it often is, and notwithstanding all the dysfunctions of the church, the community of believers is to be the arena in which we make our response to God's grace. Of course there may be multiple reasons why physical attendance at a literal gathering isn't possible, all of which are appreciated by God, but so far as we can, we should in whatever way seek to be "in the presence of all His people".

tion is in the tents of the righteous: The right hand of Yahweh does valiantly. <sup>16</sup> The right hand of Yahweh is exalted! The right hand of Yahweh does valiantly! <sup>17</sup> I will not die, but live, and declare Yah's works. <sup>18</sup> Yah has punished me severely, but He has not given me over to death. <sup>19</sup> Open to me the gates of righteousness: I will enter into them. I will give thanks to Yah. <sup>20</sup> This is the gate of Yahweh; the righteous will enter into it. <sup>21</sup> I will give thanks to You, for You have answered me, and have become my salvation. <sup>22</sup> The stone which the builders rejected has become the head of the corner. <sup>23</sup> This is Yahweh's doing, it is marvellous in our eyes. <sup>24</sup> This is the day that Yahweh has made; we will rejoice and be glad in it! <sup>25</sup> Save us now, we beg You, Yahweh! Yahweh, we beg

You, send prosperity now. <sup>26</sup> Blessed is he who comes in the name of Yahweh! We have blessed you out of the house of Yahweh. <sup>27</sup> Yahweh is God, and He has given us light. Bind the sacrifice with cords, even to the horns of the altar. <sup>28</sup> You are my God, and I will give thanks to You; You are my God, I will exalt You. <sup>29</sup> Oh give thanks to Yahweh, for He is good, for His grace endures forever.

Psalm 119 Mar. 9

ALEPH <sup>1</sup> Blessed are those whose ways are blameless, who walk according to Yahweh's law. <sup>2</sup> Blessed are those who keep His statutes, who seek Him with their whole heart. <sup>3</sup> Yes, they do nothing wrong; they walk in His ways. <sup>4</sup> You have commanded Your precepts, that we should fully obey them. <sup>5</sup> Oh that

118:22 The stone which the builders rejected has become the head of the corner – Quoted by Jesus about Himself in Mt. 21:42. The Jews were the “builders” (Acts 4:11) who rejected Christ by crucifying Him, but He resurrected to become the corner stone of the new spiritual temple which is being built (Eph. 2:20; 1 Pet. 2:6,7). Non-Christian religions cannot be the way to God because the foundation and critical point of our spiritual building can only be the resurrected Christ.

118:25 Save us now – ‘Hosanna’ is the Greek word for ‘Save now!’. This and :26 “Blessed is he who comes in the name of Yahweh!” were quoted by the crowds in Mt. 21:9. They perceived Jesus as Messiah in the terms of this Psalm, but that same crowd were screaming “Crucify Him!” just days later. This is how fickle our nature is.

119:1 Yahweh's law – Every verse in this Psalm contains some reference to God's law. It is arranged according to the letters of the Hebrew alphabet, perhaps to indicate how our words, our alphabet, our whole formulation of thought and verbalization, should be dominated by God's word. It was also done in this way to aid memorization; for in illiterate societies, the Psalms would've been memorized. It's a good thing for us to personally memorize parts of God's word.

119:5 Oh that my ways were steadfast to obey Your statutes – This is one of many places in this Psalm (:136) where David laments his own failure to obey God's word completely at all times. And yet the Psalm also speaks of the faithful as being totally obedient to God's word, e.g. “they do nothing wrong” (:3). One resolution of this is that David believed in imputed righteousness, whereby God counts His people as my ways were steadfast to obey Your statutes! <sup>6</sup> Then I wouldn't be ashamed when I obey all of Your commandments. <sup>7</sup> I will give thanks to You with uprightness of heart, when I learn Your righteous judgments. <sup>8</sup> I will observe Your statutes; don't utterly forsake me.

BET <sup>9</sup> How can a young man keep his way pure? By living according to Your word. <sup>10</sup> With my whole heart I have sought You; don't let me wander from Your commandments. <sup>11</sup> I have hidden Your word in my heart, that I might not sin against You. <sup>12</sup> Blessed are You, Yahweh; teach me Your statutes. <sup>13</sup> With my lips I have declared all the ordinances of Your mouth. <sup>14</sup> I have rejoiced in the way of Your testimonies, as much as in all riches. <sup>15</sup> I will meditate on Your precepts, and consider Your ways. <sup>16</sup> I will delight myself in Your statutes, I will not forget Your word.

GIMEL <sup>17</sup> Do good to Your servant; I will live to obey Your word. <sup>18</sup> Open my eyes, that I may see wondrous things out of Your law. <sup>19</sup> I am a stranger on the earth, don't hide Your commandments from me. <sup>20</sup> My soul is consumed with longing for Your ordinances at all times. <sup>21</sup> You have rebuked the proud who are cursed, who wander from Your commandments. <sup>22</sup> Take reproach and contempt away from me, for I have kept Your statutes. <sup>23</sup> Though princes sit and slander me, Your servant will meditate on Your statutes. <sup>24</sup> Indeed Your statutes are my delight and my counsellors.

DALED <sup>25</sup> My soul is laid low in the dust; revive me according to Your word! <sup>26</sup> I declared my ways, and You answered me. Teach me Your statutes. <sup>27</sup> Let me understand the teach-totally obedient to His word even though they are not; Ps. 32:2 cp. Rom. 4:8 indicates David understood this principle well.

119:6 Then I wouldn't be ashamed when I obey all of Your commandments – The result of moments or periods of obedience to God is that we become ashamed of all the times we are not obedient. Spiritual maturity thus involves an ever increasing awareness of our past sins; it doesn't lead to self-righteousness but the very opposite.

119:11 That I might not sin – The presence of God's word within our hearts gives strength against temptation, as demonstrated by Christ's overcoming of the wilderness temptations by quoting from God's word.

119:14 As much as in all riches – The Psalm often contrasts material wealth with the love of God's law (:36, 72, 127). So many sell their souls to employers, taking demanding jobs or second jobs so as to get more money than they need. And inevitably they have little time or mental energy for the things of God's word. Others lament their lack of wealth; but the simple truth is that the true riches are those of God's word.

119:18 Open my eyes – In his search for spiritual mindedness, so often David in this Psalm asks God to directly work on his heart so that he might correctly understand God's word and be obedient to it (:29 "Keep me", :36 "Turn my heart", :133 "establish my footsteps"). God hasn't merely given us the Bible and left us to get on with the job of understanding and obeying it; He is eager to help us in those things.

119:27 David often makes this link between appreciation of God's ways and the ining of Your precepts! Then I will talk of Your wondrous works. <sup>28</sup> My soul is weary with sorrow: strengthen me according to Your word. <sup>29</sup> Keep me from the way of deceit. Grant me Your law graciously! <sup>30</sup> I have chosen the way of truth, I have set Your ordinances before me. <sup>31</sup> I cling to Your statutes, Yahweh; don't let me be disappointed. <sup>32</sup> I run in the path of Your commandments, for You have set my heart free.

HEY <sup>33</sup> Teach me, Yahweh, the way of Your statutes; I will keep them to the end. <sup>34</sup> Give me understanding, and I will keep Your law; yes, I will obey it with my whole heart. <sup>35</sup> Direct me in the path of Your commandments, for I delight in them. <sup>36</sup> Turn my heart toward Your statutes, not toward selfish gain. <sup>37</sup> Turn my eyes away from looking at worthless things. Revive me in Your ways. <sup>38</sup> Fulfill Your promise to Your servant, that You may be feared. <sup>39</sup> Take away my disgrace that I dread, for Your ordinances are good. <sup>40</sup> Behold, I long for Your precepts! Revive me in Your righteousness.

WAW Mar. 10 <sup>41</sup> Let Your grace also come to me, Yahweh, Your salvation, according to Your word <sup>42</sup> so I will have an answer for him who reproaches me, for I trust in Your word. <sup>43</sup> Don't take the word of truth out of my mouth, for I put my hope in Your ordinances; <sup>44</sup> so I will obey Your law continually, forever and ever. <sup>45</sup> I will walk in liberty, for I have sought Your precepts. <sup>46</sup> I will also speak of Your statutes before kings, and will not be disappointed. <sup>47</sup> I will delight myself in Your commandments, because I love them. <sup>48</sup> I reach out my hands for Your commandments which I love; I will meditate on Your statutes.

ZAYIN <sup>49</sup> Remember Your word to Your servant, because You give me hope. <sup>50</sup> This is my comfort in my evitable witness this will result in. The community of believers is not to simply amass intellectual, theological purity by Bible reading – it must be told forth to others.

119:33 Teach me, Yahweh, the way of Your statutes; I will keep them – The better we understand God's word, the more empowered we are to obey it. Understanding and correct interpretation aren't therefore merely of academic interest, or just for those interested in that kind of thing. By the same token, true understanding isn't simply academic, it issues in practical obedience.

119:37 Turn my eyes away from looking at worthless things – A prayer for our internet, entertainment mad, screen transfixed generation.

119:46 Before kings – This is one of several indications that parts of this Psalm reflects David's feelings whilst at the court of Saul as a young man (:100, :161), whereby speaking up for God's word could result in a javelin being thrown at him to kill him if he just happened to touch the conscience of the manic king Saul (1 Sam. 18:11).

119:48 David didn't groan at the number of God's commandments, struggling with a steel will to obey some of them; he so loved God that he asked God to show him more and more of those commandments. Often the verses of this Psalm imply that David sought to know more of God's requirements because they are designed to help us be more obedient to all of them in toto.

affliction, for Your word has revived me. <sup>51</sup> The arrogant mock me excessively, but I don't swerve from Your law. <sup>52</sup> I remember Your ordinances of old, Yahweh, and have comforted myself. <sup>53</sup> Indignation has taken hold on me because of the wicked who forsake Your law. <sup>54</sup> Your statutes have been my songs in the house of my pilgrimage. <sup>55</sup> I have remembered Your name, Yahweh, in the night, and I obey Your law. <sup>56</sup> This is my life's way, keeping Your precepts.

CHET <sup>57</sup> Yahweh is my portion; I promised to obey Your words. <sup>58</sup> I sought Your favour with my whole heart; be merciful to me according to Your word. <sup>59</sup> I considered my ways and turned my steps to Your statutes. <sup>60</sup> I will hurry, and not delay, to obey Your commandments. <sup>61</sup> The ropes of the wicked bind me, but I won't forget Your law. <sup>62</sup> At midnight I will rise to give thanks to You because of Your righteous ordinances. <sup>63</sup> I am a friend of all those who fear You, of those who observe Your precepts. <sup>64</sup> The earth is full of Your grace, Yahweh; teach me Your commands.

TET <sup>65</sup> Do good to Your servant according to Your word, Yahweh. <sup>66</sup> Teach me good judgment and knowledge, for I believe in Your commandments. <sup>67</sup> Before I was afflicted, I went astray; but now I observe Your word. <sup>68</sup> You are good, and do good; teach me Your statutes. <sup>69</sup> The proud have smeared a lie upon me, but with my whole heart I will keep Your precepts. <sup>70</sup> Their heart is callous and fat, but I delight in Your law. <sup>71</sup> It is good for me that I have been afflicted, that I may learn Your statutes. <sup>72</sup> The law of Your mouth is better to me than thousands of pieces of gold and silver.

YUD <sup>73</sup> Your hands have made me and formed me; give me understanding, that I may learn Your commandments. <sup>74</sup> Those who fear You will see me and be glad, because I have put my hope in Your word. <sup>75</sup> Yahweh, I know that Your judgments are righteous, that in faithfulness You have afflicted me. <sup>76</sup> Please let Your grace be for my comfort, according to Your word to Your servant. <sup>77</sup> Let Your tender mercies come to me, that I may live; for Your law is my delight. <sup>78</sup> Let the proud be disappointed, for they have overthrown me wrongfully; but I will meditate on Your precepts. <sup>79</sup> Let those who fear You turn to me; they will know Your statutes. <sup>80</sup> Let my heart be blameless toward Your decrees, that I may not be ashamed.

KAF Mar. 11 <sup>81</sup> My soul faints for Your salvation; I hope in Your word. <sup>82</sup> My eyes fail for Your word; I say, When will You comfort me? <sup>83</sup> For I have become like a wineskin in the smoke, but I don't forget Your statutes. <sup>84</sup> How many are the days of Your servant? When will You execute Your word on those who persecute me? <sup>85</sup> The proud have dug pits for me, contrary to Your law. <sup>86</sup> All of Your commandments are faithful. They persecute me wrongfully. Help me! <sup>87</sup> They had almost wiped me from the earth, but I didn't forsake Your precepts. <sup>88</sup> Preserve my life according to Your grace, so I will obey the statutes of Your mouth.

119:63 Even within the people of God, we must choose our friends well.

119:64 David didn't see grace and law as opposed; rather he understood those commandments as ultimately reflective of God's grace.

119:73 David realized that because he had been made in God's physical image he had a duty to be spiritually reformed in His moral image; and thus he sought strength to be obedient to God's will.

LAMED <sup>89</sup> Yahweh, Your word is settled in heaven forever. <sup>90</sup> Your faithfulness is to all generations. You have by a word established the earth, and it remains. <sup>91</sup> Your laws remain to this day, for all things serve You. <sup>92</sup> Unless Your law had been my delight, I would have perished in my affliction. <sup>93</sup> I will never forget Your precepts, for with them You have revived me. <sup>94</sup> I am Yours. Save me, for I have sought Your precepts. <sup>95</sup> The wicked have waited for me to destroy me; I will consider Your statutes. <sup>96</sup> I have seen a limit to all perfection, but Your commands are boundless.

MEM <sup>97</sup> How I love Your law! It is my meditation all day. <sup>98</sup> Your commandments make me wiser than my enemies, for Your commandments are always with me. <sup>99</sup> I have more understanding than all my teachers, for Your testimonies are my meditation. <sup>100</sup> I understand more than the aged, because I have kept Your precepts. <sup>101</sup> I have kept my feet from every evil way, that I might observe Your word. <sup>102</sup> I have not turned aside from Your ordinances, for You have taught me. <sup>103</sup> How sweet are Your promises to my taste, more than honey to my mouth! <sup>104</sup> Through Your precepts I get understanding; therefore I hate every false way.

NUN <sup>105</sup> Your word is a lamp to my feet, and a light for my path. <sup>106</sup> I have sworn, and have confirmed it, that I will obey Your righteous ordinances. <sup>107</sup> I am afflicted very much. Revive me, Yahweh, according to Your word. <sup>108</sup> Accept, I beg You, the willing offerings of my mouth. Yahweh, teach me Your ordinances. <sup>109</sup> My soul is continually in my hand, yet I won't forget Your law. <sup>110</sup> The wicked have laid a snare for me, yet I haven't gone astray from Your precepts. <sup>111</sup> I have taken Your testimonies as a heritage forever, for they are the joy of my heart. <sup>112</sup> I have set my heart to perform Your statutes forever, even to the end.

119:88 The whole purpose of our lives, and of our eternal living in God's Kingdom, is to be obedient to God's word. We should have that spirit in our lives now, therefore.

119:96 God's law isn't therefore a limitation which we resentfully have to accept, but rather the way to ultimate freedom. In New Testament terms, we changed masters at baptism; from sin to Christ, and through our bondage to Him we paradoxically find ultimate freedom.

119:105 My feet... my path – God's word directs both our short term immediate decisions ("my feet") and also our general direction in life ("my path").

I hope in Your word. <sup>115</sup> Depart from me, You evildoers, that I may keep the commandments of my God. <sup>116</sup> Uphold me according to Your word, that I may live. Let me not be ashamed of my hope. <sup>117</sup> Hold me up and I will be safe, and will have respect for Your statutes continually. <sup>118</sup> You reject all those who stray from Your statutes, for their deceit is in vain. <sup>119</sup> You put away all the wicked of the earth like dross. Therefore I love Your testimonies. <sup>120</sup> My flesh trembles for fear of You; I am afraid of Your judgments.

AYIN <sup>121</sup> I have done what is just and righteous. Don't leave me to my oppressors. <sup>122</sup> Ensure Your servant's well-being. Don't let the proud oppress me. <sup>123</sup> My eyes fail looking for Your salvation, for Your righteous word. <sup>124</sup> Deal with Your servant according to Your grace, teach me Your statutes. <sup>125</sup> I am Your servant. Give me understanding, that I may know Your testimonies. <sup>126</sup> It is time to act, Yahweh, for they break Your law. <sup>127</sup> Therefore I love Your commandments more than gold, yes, more than pure gold. <sup>128</sup> Therefore I consider all of Your precepts to be right; I hate every false way.

PEY Mar. 12 <sup>129</sup> Your testimonies are wonderful, therefore my soul keeps them. <sup>130</sup> The entrance of Your words gives light, it gives understanding to the simple. <sup>131</sup> I opened my mouth wide and panted, for I longed for Your commandments. <sup>132</sup> Turn to me and have mercy on me, as You always do to those who love Your name. <sup>133</sup> Establish my footsteps in Your word; don't let any iniquity have dominion over me. <sup>134</sup> Redeem me from the oppression of man, so that I will observe Your precepts. <sup>135</sup> Make Your face shine on Your servant. Teach me Your statutes. <sup>136</sup> Streams of tears run down my eyes, because they don't observe Your law.

TZADI <sup>137</sup> You are righteous, Yahweh; Your judgments are upright. <sup>138</sup> You have commanded Your statutes in righteousness; they are fully trustworthy. <sup>139</sup> My zeal wears me out, because my enemies ignore Your words. <sup>140</sup> Your promises have been thoroughly tested, and Your servant loves them. <sup>141</sup> I am small and despised but I don't forget Your precepts. <sup>142</sup> Your righteousness is an everlasting righteousness; Your law is truth. <sup>143</sup> Trouble and

119:120 God is again paralleled with His word; our attitude to His word is our attitude to Him.

119:128 Accepting the truths of God's word leads us to perceive and proactively reject that which is false, rather than simply accepting truth and being ambivalent to error.

119:130 There is no 'light within' us, our exposure to ultimate truth comes from God's word.

119:140 Because the word is so pure, therefore we love it. Our acceptance of the Bible as Divinely inspired rather than a human document therefore encourages our obedience to it; if we continually doubt and question its truth, we will hardly be motivated to obedience.

anguish have taken hold of me, but Your commandments are my delight. <sup>144</sup> Your testimonies are righteous forever. Give me understanding, that I may live.

KUF <sup>145</sup> I have called with my whole heart. Answer me, Yahweh! I will keep Your statutes. <sup>146</sup> I have called to You. Save me! I will obey Your statutes. <sup>147</sup> I rise before dawn and cry for help, I put my hope in Your words. <sup>148</sup> My eyes stay open through the night watches, that I might meditate on Your word. <sup>149</sup> Hear my voice according to Your grace. Revive me, Yahweh, according to Your ordinances. <sup>150</sup> They draw near who follow after wickedness, they are far from Your law. <sup>151</sup> You are near, Yahweh. All Your commandments are truth. <sup>152</sup> Of old I have known from Your testimonies, that You have founded them forever.

RESH <sup>153</sup> Consider my affliction and deliver me, for I don't forget Your law. <sup>154</sup> Plead my cause, and redeem me! Revive me according to Your promise. <sup>155</sup> Salvation is far from the wicked, for they don't seek Your statutes. <sup>156</sup> Great are Your tender mercies, Yahweh. Revive me according to Your ordinances. <sup>157</sup> Many are my persecutors and my adversaries, but I haven't swerved from Your testimonies. <sup>158</sup> I look at the faithless with loathing, because they don't observe Your word. <sup>159</sup> Consider how I love Your precepts. Revive me, Yahweh, according to Your grace. <sup>160</sup> All of Your words are truth, every one of Your righteous ordinances endures forever.

SIN AND SHIN <sup>161</sup> Princes have persecuted me without a cause, but my heart stands in awe of Your words. <sup>162</sup> I rejoice at Your word, as one who finds great spoil. <sup>163</sup> I hate and abhor falsehood but I love Your law. <sup>164</sup> Seven times a day I praise You because of Your righteous ordinances. <sup>165</sup> Those who love Your law have great peace; nothing causes them to stumble. <sup>166</sup> I have hoped for Your salvation, Yahweh. I have done Your commandments. <sup>167</sup> My soul has observed Your testimonies because I love them exceedingly. <sup>168</sup> I have obeyed Your precepts and Your testimonies, for all my ways are before You.

TAV <sup>169</sup> Let my cry come near before You, Yahweh. Give me understanding according to Your word. <sup>170</sup> Let my supplication come before You

119:143 So often David says that he refuses life's crises to take him away from his meditation on God's word.

119:160 In God's word we see His judgments – how He judges and will judge. And in the wealth of Bible history we see examples of how these judgments have been articulated with men in practice. The final day of judgement shouldn't therefore be a worrying mystery to us; we know how God will judge, for we have in the Bible His word, His judgments.

119:169 Come near before You – Prayer is described here as coming near to God; and yet God "is" near already (75:1). Prayer, therefore, is a way of making us realize the presence of the God who is always present.

and deliver me according to Your word. <sup>171</sup> Let my lips utter praise, for You teach me Your statutes. <sup>172</sup> Let my tongue sing of Your word, for all Your commandments are righteousness. <sup>173</sup> Let Your hand be ready to help me, for I have chosen Your precepts. <sup>174</sup> I have longed for Your salvation, Yahweh. Your law is my delight. <sup>175</sup> Let my soul live, that I may praise You. Let Your ordinances help me. <sup>176</sup> I have gone astray like a lost sheep. Seek Your servant, for I don't forget Your commandments.

<sup>1</sup> In my distress, I cried to Yahweh. He answered me. <sup>2</sup> Deliver my soul, Yahweh, from lying lips, from a deceitful tongue. <sup>3</sup> What will be given to you, and what will be done more to you, you deceitful tongue? <sup>4</sup> Sharp arrows of the mighty, with coals of juniper. <sup>5</sup> Woe is me, that I live in Meshech, that I dwell among the tents of Kedar! <sup>6</sup> My soul has had her dwelling too long with him who hates peace. <sup>7</sup> I am for peace, but when I speak, they are for war.

A Song of Ascents.

<sup>1</sup> I will lift up my eyes to the hills. Where does my help come from? <sup>2</sup> My help comes from Yahweh, who made heaven and earth. <sup>3</sup> He will not allow your foot to be moved; He who keeps you will not slumber. <sup>4</sup> Behold, He who keeps Israel will neither slumber nor sleep. <sup>5</sup> Yahweh is your keeper, Yahweh is your shade on your right hand. <sup>6</sup> The sun will not harm you by day, nor the moon by night. <sup>7</sup> Yahweh will keep you from all evil; He will keep your soul. <sup>8</sup> Yahweh will keep your going out and your coming in from this time forth and forever.

120 Song of Ascents – These Psalms (120-134) were recited as the Israelite worshippers went 'up' to the temple to keep the feasts (122:2,3). However the word translated "Ascents" also means "Degrees", and may well have been written by Hezekiah when the shadow on the sundial went ten degrees backward as a sign that God had healed him (2 Kings 20:11). In response to this, Hezekiah composed or rearranged songs for the temple worship (Is. 38:20). His sickness was at the same time as the Assyrian invasion, and therefore many of these songs allude to the situation at that time.

121:2 Belief in God as creator (rather than in atheistic evolution) inspires our faith in His ability to likewise creatively deliver us from the crises of our lives.

121:5 Yahweh is your shade – Alluding to how on the wilderness journey, God provided the pillar of cloud as a shade to Israel (105:39). Our lives are repeatedly described in the Bible as being like the wilderness journey towards the promised land. The allusion is also to how God was a shade or shadow to Hezekiah when the shadow on the sundial went backward (Is. 38:8); what He did for Hezekiah He can in essence do for all His people.

as a city that is compact together; <sup>4</sup> where the tribes go up, even Yah's tribes, according to an ordinance for Israel, to give thanks to the name of Yahweh. <sup>5</sup> For there are set thrones for judgment, the thrones of David's house. <sup>6</sup> Pray for the peace of Jerusalem; those who love you will prosper. <sup>7</sup> Peace be within your walls, and prosperity within your palaces. <sup>8</sup> For my brothers' and companions' sakes I will now say, Peace be within you. <sup>9</sup> For the sake of the house of Yahweh our God, I will seek your good.

<sup>1</sup> To You I do lift up my eyes, You who sit in the heavens. <sup>2</sup> Behold, as the eyes of servants look to the hand of their master, as the eyes of a maid to the hand of her mistress; so our eyes look to Yahweh our God until He has mercy on us. <sup>3</sup> Have mercy on us, Yahweh, have mercy on us, for we have endured much contempt. <sup>4</sup> Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scoffing of those who are at ease, with the contempt of the proud.

A Song of Ascents. By David.

<sup>1</sup> If it had not been Yahweh who was on our side, let Israel now say, <sup>2</sup> if it had not been Yahweh who was on our side when men rose up against us; <sup>3</sup> then they would have swallowed us up alive, when their wrath was kindled against us; <sup>4</sup> then the waters would have overwhelmed us, the stream would have gone over our soul; <sup>5</sup> then the proud waters would have gone over our soul. <sup>6</sup> Blessed be Yahweh, who has not given us as a prey to their teeth. <sup>7</sup> Our soul has escaped like a bird out of the fowler's snare. The snare is broken, and we have escaped. <sup>8</sup> Our help is in the name of Yahweh, who made heaven and earth.

<sup>1</sup> Those who trust in Yahweh are as Mount Zion which can't be moved but remains forever. <sup>2</sup> As the mountains surround Jerusalem, so Yahweh surrounds His people from this time forth and forever. <sup>3</sup> For the sceptre of wickedness won't remain over the allotment of the righteous; so that the

122:6 Jerusalem's peace will only be when Christ reigns there on David's throne over God's Kingdom on earth; this is the day the faithful should daily plead for.

123:4 This scoffing likely referred to that of Rabshakeh outside the walls of Jerusalem at the time of Hezekiah's illness and Judah's invasion (2 Kings 18:19-25).

125:3 This is amazing encouragement, echoed in 1 Cor. 10:13, that we will never be tested so hard that our sinning is inevitable. In the heat of temptation we persuade ourselves that our situations are too hard for us to endure and that we have no option given our humanity but to sin. But God here promises that He will never allow circumstances to be too great for our spiritual strength; we are left with no option but to accept full, total responsibility for our sins, with nobody and nothing to blame them on apart from ourselves.

righteous won't put forth their hands to do evil. <sup>4</sup> Do good, Yahweh, to those who are good, to those who are upright in their hearts. <sup>5</sup> But as for those who turn aside to their crooked ways, Yahweh will lead them away with the workers of iniquity. Peace be on Israel.

<sup>1</sup> When Yahweh brought back those who returned to Zion, we were like those who dream. <sup>2</sup> Then our mouth was filled with laughter, and our tongue with singing. Then they said among the nations, Yahweh has done great things for them. <sup>3</sup> Yahweh has done great things for us, and we are glad. <sup>4</sup> Restore our fortunes again, Yahweh, like the streams in the Negev. <sup>5</sup> Those who sow in tears will reap in joy. <sup>6</sup> He who goes out weeping, carrying seed for sowing, will certainly come again with joy carrying his sheaves.

<sup>1</sup> Unless Yahweh builds the house, they labour in vain who build it. Unless Yahweh watches over the city, the watchman guards it in vain. <sup>2</sup> It is vain for you to rise up early, to stay up late, eating the bread of toil; for He gives sleep to His beloved ones. <sup>3</sup> Behold, children are a heritage of Yahweh. The fruit of the womb is His reward. <sup>4</sup> As arrows in the hand of a mighty man, so are the children of youth. <sup>5</sup> Happy is the man who has his quiver full of them; they won't be ashamed when they speak with their enemies in the gate.

A Song of Ascents.

<sup>1</sup> Blessed is each one who fears Yahweh, who walks in His ways. <sup>2</sup> For you will eat the labour of your hands; you will be happy, and it will be well with you. <sup>3</sup> Your wife will be as a fruitful vine in the innermost parts of your house; your children like olive plants around your table. <sup>4</sup> Behold, thus is the man blessed who fears Yahweh. <sup>5</sup> May Yahweh bless you out of Zion, and may you see the good of Jerusalem all the days of your life. <sup>6</sup> Yes, may you see your children's children. Peace be upon Israel.

<sup>1</sup> Many times they have afflicted me from my youth up. Let Israel now say, <sup>2</sup> many times they have afflicted me from my youth up, yet they have not prevailed against me. <sup>3</sup> The ploughers ploughed on my back; they made their furrows long. <sup>4</sup> Yahweh is righteous; He has cut apart the cords of the wicked. <sup>5</sup> Let them be disappointed and turned backward, all those who hate Zion. <sup>6</sup> Let them be as the grass on the housetops, which withers before it grows up; <sup>7</sup> with which the reaper doesn't fill his hand, nor the binder of sheaves his belt. <sup>8</sup> Neither do those who go by say, The blessing of Yahweh be on you. We bless you in the name of Yahweh.

Psalm 131 Mar. 16A Song of Ascents. By David.

weaned child with his mother, like a weaned child is my soul within me. <sup>3</sup> Israel, hope in Yahweh, from this time forth and forever.

Psalm 132 Mar. 16A Song of Ascents.

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh, remember David and all his affliction, <sup>2</sup> how he swore to Yahweh, and vowed to the Mighty One of Jacob: <sup>3</sup> Surely I will not come under the roof of my house, nor go up into my bed; <sup>4</sup> I will not give sleep to my eyes, or slumber to my eyelids; <sup>5</sup> until I find out a place for Yahweh, a dwelling for the Mighty One of Jacob. <sup>6</sup> Behold, we heard of it in Ephrathah. We found it in the field of Jaar: <sup>7</sup> We will go into His dwelling place. We will worship at His footstool. <sup>8</sup> Arise, Yahweh, into Your resting place; You, and the ark of Your strength. <sup>9</sup> Let Your priests be clothed with righteousness, let Your saints shout for joy! <sup>10</sup> For Your servant David's sake, don't turn away the

130:3 God doesn't keep a record or legal list of sins in the sense that He doesn't hold them against us; it's not that He as it were erases those parts of His 'memory', for His word is full of the memory of human sin which He has forgiven. The LXX is applied to each of us in 1 Cor. 13:5 – we too are not to keep a record of others' wrongs against us. God's forgiveness of us is to be the template for our forgiveness of others. It's not possible to forget them, in the sense that we have no power over our brain's mechanism of forgetting; but we can forgive them in the sense that we do not count them any longer against the person.

132 The mutuality possible between God and man is brought out by the structure of several of the Psalms, in which God and David are shown to be involved in a dynamic, two way relationship. Consider this Psalm: A (:1,2) David swears to God; B (:3-5) What David swore; C (:6,7) Search for a dwelling place; D (:8) Prayer to enter into rest; E (:9) Prayer for priests; F (:9) Prayer for saints / holy ones; G (:10) Prayer for Messiah. This was responded to by God: A1 (:11) God swears to David; B1 (:11,12) What God swore; C1 (:13) Designation of the dwelling place; D1 (:14,15) Answer to prayer in D; 1 (:16) Answer to prayer in E; F1 (:16) Answer to prayer in F; G1 (:17,18) Answer to prayer in G.

face of Your anointed one. <sup>11</sup> Yahweh has sworn to David in truth, He will not turn from it: I will set the fruit of your body on your throne. <sup>12</sup> If your children will keep My covenant, My testimony that I will teach them, their children also will sit on your throne forever. <sup>13</sup> For Yahweh has chosen Zion, He has desired it for His habitation. <sup>14</sup> This is my resting place forever. Here I will live, for I have desired it. <sup>15</sup> I will abundantly bless her provision. I will satisfy her poor with bread. <sup>16</sup> Her priests I will also clothe with salvation, her holy people will shout aloud for joy. <sup>17</sup> There I will make the horn of David to bud. I have ordained a lamp for my anointed. <sup>18</sup> I will clothe his enemies with shame, but on himself, his crown will be splendid.

A Song of Ascents. By David.

<sup>1</sup> See how good and how pleasant it is for brothers to live together in unity! <sup>2</sup> It is like the precious oil on the head, that ran down on the beard, even Aaron's beard; that came down on the edge of his robes; <sup>3</sup> like the dew of Hermon, that comes down on the hills of Zion: for there Yahweh gives the blessing, even life forever.

ants of Yahweh, who stand by night in Yahweh's house! <sup>2</sup> Lift up your hands in the sanctuary. Praise Yahweh! <sup>3</sup> May Yahweh bless you from Zion; even He who made heaven and earth.

135:13 God's Name refers to His essential character, which is distinguished firstly by His grace and forgiveness (Ex. 34:4-6). This is unchanging; God isn't going to turn around and show us another face as it were. His Name is paralleled here with His renown, the reputation He has developed throughout Biblical history by acting consistently with His essential character. The Name of God isn't therefore simply the Yahweh, throughout all generations. <sup>14</sup> For Yahweh will judge His people, and be sorry for His servants. <sup>15</sup> The idols of the nations are silver and gold, the work of men's hands. <sup>16</sup> They have mouths, but they can't speak; they have eyes, but they can't see. <sup>17</sup> They have ears, but they can't hear; neither is there any breath in their mouths. <sup>18</sup> Those who make them will be like them; yes, everyone who trusts in them. <sup>19</sup> House of Israel, praise Yahweh! House of Aaron, praise Yahweh! <sup>20</sup> House of Levi, praise Yahweh! You who fear Yahweh, praise Yahweh! <sup>21</sup> Blessed be Yahweh from Zion, He who dwells at Jerusalem. Praise Yah!

grace endures forever: <sup>4</sup> to Him who alone does great wonders; for His grace endures forever: <sup>5</sup> to Him who by understanding made the heavens; for His grace endures forever: <sup>6</sup> to Him who spread out the earth above the waters; for His grace endures forever: <sup>7</sup> to Him who made the great lights; for His grace endures forever: <sup>8</sup> the sun to rule by day; for His grace endures forever; <sup>9</sup> the moon and stars to rule by night; for His grace endures forever: <sup>10</sup> to Him who struck down the Egyptian firstborn; for His grace endures forever; <sup>11</sup> and brought out Israel from among them; for His grace endures forever; <sup>12</sup> with a strong hand, and with an outstretched arm; for His grace endures forever: <sup>13</sup> to Him who divided the Red Sea apart; for His grace endures forever; <sup>14</sup> and made Israel to pass through its midst; for His grace endures forever; <sup>15</sup> but overthrew Pharaoh and His army in the Red Sea; for His grace word Yahweh or Jehovah. That is far too simplistic; the pronunciation and transliteration of Hebrew letters one way or another is irrelevant compared to the essence of the Name itself.

135:14 This parallels the Lord judging His people with His feeling sorry for them. In this sense judgment to come is a comfort not a threat.

135:19, 20 This parallels all Israel with the priestly family. As it was God's intention that Israel were to develop into an entire nation of priests to the rest of the world, so the new Israel likewise are to all discharge the priestly functions of teaching their brethren (Ex. 19:6 cp. 1 Pet. 2:5; Rev. 1:6; 5:9,10). Under the new covenant, we should all teach and admonish one another (Col. 3:16), rather than just leave it to specialists.

136:8 In this hard and graceless world, we have only to look at the sun and moon, indeed at all of creation, to see God's sensitive grace constantly active.

136:10 The death of the Egyptian firstborn and their army (:15) was a reflection of God's grace to Israel. We may struggle with this but ultimately it is a challenge to our perceptions and understanding rather than any bad reflection against God (see 143:12). We are reminded of how the flood was brought to destroy the world of Noah's day in order to save him (2 Pet. 2:5), so that he was as it were saved by that water just as the water of baptism saves us (1 Pet. 3:19-21).

endures forever: <sup>16</sup> to Him who led His people through the wilderness; for His grace endures forever: <sup>17</sup> to Him who struck great kings; for His grace endures forever; <sup>18</sup> and killed mighty kings; for His grace endures forever: <sup>19</sup> Sihon king of the Amorites; for His grace endures forever; <sup>20</sup> Og king of Bashan; for His grace endures forever; <sup>21</sup> and gave their land as an inheritance; for His grace endures forever; <sup>22</sup> even a heritage to Israel His servant; for His grace endures forever: <sup>23</sup> who remembered us in our low estate; for His grace endures forever; <sup>24</sup> and has delivered us from our adversaries; for His grace endures forever: <sup>25</sup> who gives food to every creature; for His grace endures forever. <sup>26</sup> Oh give thanks to the God of heaven; for His grace endures forever.

<sup>1</sup> By the rivers of Babylon there we sat down, and yes, we wept when we remembered Zion. <sup>2</sup> On the willows in its midst we hung up our harps. <sup>3</sup> For there, those who led us captive asked us for songs. Those who tormented us demanded us songs of joy: Sing us one of the songs of Zion! <sup>4</sup> How could we sing Yahweh's song in a foreign land? <sup>5</sup> If I forget you, Jerusalem, let my right hand forget its skill. <sup>6</sup> Let my tongue stick to the roof of my mouth if I don't remember you; if I don't prefer Jerusalem above my chief joy. <sup>7</sup> Remember, Yahweh, against the children of Edom, the day of Jerusalem; who said, Raze it! Raze it even to its foundation! <sup>8</sup> Daughter of Babylon, doomed to destruction, he will be happy who rewards you as you have served us. <sup>9</sup> Happy shall he be, who takes and dashes your little ones against the rock.

Psalm 138 Mar. 18

By David.

<sup>1</sup> I will give You thanks with my whole heart. Before the mighty ones I will sing praises to You. <sup>2</sup> I will bow down toward Your holy temple, and give thanks to Your Name for Your grace and for Your truth; for You have exalted above all things your name and your word. <sup>3</sup> In the day that I called, You answered me; You encouraged me with strength in my soul. <sup>4</sup> All the kings of the land will give You thanks, Yahweh, for they have heard the words of Your mouth.

136:23, 24 Understood by Mary as having fulfilment in the birth of Christ as our ultimate deliverer (Lk. 1:48).

137:8, 9 This extreme language may seem hard to square with the spirit of grace in the New Testament. However, vengeance upon God's enemies is also taught in the New Testament, especially in Revelation. These words are applied in Rev. 18:8,21 to what will finally happen to Babylon. Her spiritual children will be dashed against the rock of Christ, the stone of Dan. 2:44, at His return. Another perspective to explore is that it may also be that the Psalmist's attitude was simply wrong, even though the recording of these words was inspired. David likewise spoke words of great grace and also of bitter vengeance against his enemies; the experience of trauma and real evil in life usually makes the sufferer give vent to such extreme feelings.

<sup>5</sup> Yes, they will sing of the ways of Yahweh; for great is Yahweh's glory.

<sup>6</sup> For though Yahweh is high, yet He looks after the lowly; but the proud, He knows from afar. <sup>7</sup> Though I walk in the midst of trouble, You will revive me; You will stretch forth Your hand against the wrath of my enemies. Your right hand will save me. <sup>8</sup> Yahweh will fulfil that which concerns me; Your grace, Yahweh, endures forever. Don't forsake the works of Your own hands.

Psalm 139 Mar. 18

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh, You have searched me and You know me. <sup>2</sup> You know my sitting down and my rising up, You perceive my thoughts from afar.

<sup>3</sup> You search out my path and my lying down, and are acquainted with all my ways. <sup>4</sup> For there is not a word on my tongue, but, behold, Yahweh, You know it altogether. <sup>5</sup> You hem me in behind and before, You have laid Your hand on me. <sup>6</sup> This knowledge is beyond me. It is lofty and beyond me. <sup>7</sup> Where could I go from Your Spirit? Or where could I flee from Your presence? <sup>8</sup> If I ascend up into heaven, You are there.

If I make my bed in Sheol, behold, You are there! <sup>9</sup> If I take the wings of the dawn, and settle in the uttermost parts of the sea, <sup>10</sup> even there Your hand will lead me, and Your right hand will hold me. <sup>11</sup> If I say, Surely the darkness will overwhelm me then the light around me will be night; <sup>12</sup> even the darkness doesn't hide from You, but the night shines as the day; the darkness is like light to You.

<sup>13</sup> For You formed my inmost being, You knit me together in my mother's womb. <sup>14</sup> I will give thanks to You, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made. Your works are wonderful and my soul knows that very well.

<sup>15</sup> My frame wasn't hidden from You when I was made in secret, woven together in the depths of the earth.

<sup>16</sup> Your eyes saw my body. In Your

138:8 That which concerns me – God has a specific plan for each of us, in the same way as He has given each of us specific talents (Mt. 25:15) and has specified “good works” for us to achieve in our lives (Eph. 2:10). On His part, God will likewise fulfil what He has planned uniquely and individually for each of us – in accordance with our response to the possibilities He has potentially enabled.

139:2 We are now in God's presence, and can't escape from it; and the presence of God is judgment language (Acts 3:19; 2 Thess. 1:9; 2:19; Jude 24; Rev. 14:10). He not only sees and knows everything in our lives but is judging it too.

139:7-9 Jonah knew the Psalms; his prayer from inside the fish is packed with allusion to them. And yet he thought he could flee from God's presence (Jonah 1:3) – even though these verses almost prophesy of Jonah, that nobody can flee from God's presence; neither the sea itself nor geographical distance can hide from God. Jonah knew this. But he simply acted in a way diametrically opposed to that knowledge. We read the same words he did, and are faced with the same choice as to whether we truly believe them or merely know them.

book my body parts were all written and the days that were ordained for me, when as yet there were none of them. <sup>17</sup> How precious to me are Your thoughts, God! How vast is their sum! <sup>18</sup> If I would count them, they are more in number than the sand. When I wake up, I am still with You. <sup>19</sup> If only You, God, would kill the wicked. Get away from me, you bloodthirsty men! <sup>20</sup> For they speak against You wickedly, Your enemies take Your name in vain. <sup>21</sup> Yahweh, don't I hate those who hate You? Am I not grieved with those who rise up against You? <sup>22</sup> I hate them with complete hatred; they have become my enemies. <sup>23</sup> Search me, God, and know my heart; test me, and know my thoughts. <sup>24</sup> See if there is any wicked way in me, and lead me in the everlasting way.

in their hearts. They continually gather themselves together for war, <sup>3</sup> they have sharpened their tongues like a serpent. Viper's poison is under their lips. Selah. <sup>4</sup> Yahweh, keep me from the hands of the wicked. Preserve me from the violent men who have determined to trip my feet. <sup>5</sup> The proud have hidden a snare for me, they have spread the cords of a net by the path, they have set traps for me. Selah. <sup>6</sup> I said to Yahweh, You are my God. Listen to the cry of my petitions, Yahweh. <sup>7</sup> Yahweh, the Lord, the strength of my salvation, You have covered my head in the day of battle. <sup>8</sup> Yahweh, don't grant the desires of the wicked. Don't let their evil plans succeed, or they will become proud. Selah. <sup>9</sup> As for the heads of those who surround me, let the mischief of their own lips cover them. <sup>10</sup> Let burning coals fall upon them! Let them be cast into fire, into miry pits, no more to rise. <sup>11</sup> An evil tongue won't be established in the land; evil will hunt the violent man to overthrow him. <sup>12</sup> I know that Yahweh will maintain

139:15, 16 If this is the level of intention and planning which God put into us, we at least can draw the certain conclusion: life is not aimless. God has a purpose for us and we therefore ought to be living a purposeful life, not just drifting from experience to experience as in a half-conscious dream. God is focused upon us and we should be upon Him.

139:24 Wicked way – The Hebrew translated “wicked” also means ‘sorrow’ or ‘pain’. The way of sin, the path to quick pleasure, is in fact the way of pain and sorrow.

140:11 An evil tongue – The reference is not to the small piece of flesh within our mouths, but to an evil speaking person, paralleled with “the violent man”. But the tongue is put for the person because our words really are a reflection of who we are, in that our words ultimately reflect our hearts (Lk. 6:45) despite our best efforts to insist there's a distance between our real self and our words. Ultimately there isn't, for all our occasional posturing and hypocrisy. How we really think comes out in our words in the end, and thus we ‘are’ our tongue.

the cause of the afflicted, and justice for the needy. <sup>13</sup> Surely the righteous will give thanks to Your name. The upright will dwell in Your presence.

A Psalm by David.

<sup>1</sup> Yahweh, I have called on You. Come to me quickly! Listen to my voice when I call to You. <sup>2</sup> Let my prayer be set before You like incense; the lifting up of my hands like the evening sacrifice. <sup>3</sup> Set a watch, Yahweh, before my mouth, keep the door of my lips. <sup>4</sup> Don't incline my heart to any evil thing, to practice deeds of wickedness with men who work iniquity; don't let me eat of their delicacies. <sup>5</sup> Let the righteous strike me, it is a kindness; let him reprove me, it is like oil on the head; don't let my head refuse it; and my prayer will be for them in their calamities. <sup>6</sup> When their judges are thrown over the cliff, then they shall hear my words, for they are pleasant. <sup>7</sup> As when one ploughs and breaks up the earth, our bones are scattered at the mouth of Sheol; <sup>8</sup> but my eyes are on

You, Yahweh, the Lord. In You I take refuge; don't leave my soul destitute. <sup>9</sup> Keep me from the snare which they have laid for me, from the traps of the workers of iniquity. <sup>10</sup> Let the wicked fall together into their own nets, while I pass on by.

A contemplation by David, when he was in the cave. A Prayer.

<sup>1</sup> I cry with my voice to Yahweh, with my voice I ask Yahweh for mercy. <sup>2</sup> I pour out my complaint before Him, I tell Him my troubles. <sup>3</sup> When my spirit was overwhelmed within me, You knew my path. In the way in which I walk, they have hidden a snare for me. <sup>4</sup> Look on my right hand and see; for there is no one who is concerned for me. Refuge has fled from me, no one cares for my soul. <sup>5</sup> I cried to You, Yahweh. I said, You are my refuge, my portion in the land of the living. <sup>6</sup> Listen to my cry, for I am in desperate need; deliver me from my persecutors, for they are stronger than me. <sup>7</sup> Bring my soul out of prison, that I may give thanks

141:2 Prayer is likened to carefully prepared sacrifice, to painstakingly composed incense, beaten small, mixed in just the right proportions. The penalty for not making the incense properly was death. The lesson is that forethought will precede real prayer; it is an offering to God.

142:2 I tell Him my troubles – It's therapeutic to tell God our life situation, saying it out loud or writing it down as David did. We know that He already knows, but this exercise is good because it enables us to feel we have opened up before Him. The chronic, existential loneliness of people today could be solved by this opening up to God.

142:4 No one cares for my soul – This was indeed how David felt and perhaps it was really so; and yet he recognized that there were a group of people in existence called "the righteous" (:7). Even if we feel none of God's people are helping us as they should, it doesn't mean they aren't God's people or that nobody at all is righteous apart from us.

to Your name. The righteous will surround me, for You will be good to me.

A Psalm by David.

<sup>1</sup> Hear my prayer, Yahweh. Listen to my petitions. In Your faithfulness and righteousness, relieve me. <sup>2</sup> Don't enter into judgment with Your servant, for in Your sight no man living is righteous. <sup>3</sup> For the enemy pursues my soul; he has struck my life down to the ground. He has made me live in dark places, as those who have been long dead. <sup>4</sup> Therefore my spirit is overwhelmed within me. My heart within me is desolate. <sup>5</sup> I remember the days of old, I meditate on all Your doings, I contemplate the work of Your hands. <sup>6</sup> I spread forth my hands to You. My soul thirsts for You, like a parched land. Selah. <sup>7</sup> Hurry to answer me, Yahweh. My spirit fails. Don't hide Your face from me, so that I don't become like those who go down into the pit. <sup>8</sup> Cause me to hear Your grace in the morning, for I trust in You. Cause me to know the way in which I should walk, for I lift up my soul to You. <sup>9</sup> Deliver me, Yahweh, from my enemies. I flee to You to hide me. <sup>10</sup> Teach me to do Your will, for You are my God. Your Spirit is good; lead me in the land of uprightness. <sup>11</sup> Revive me, Yahweh, for Your name's sake. In Your righteousness, bring my soul out of trouble. <sup>12</sup> In Your loving kindness, cut off my enemies, and destroy all those who afflict my soul, for I am Your servant.

By David.

<sup>1</sup> Blessed be Yahweh, my rock, who teaches my hands to war, and my fingers to battle: <sup>2</sup> my source of grace, my fortress, my high tower, my deliverer, my shield and He in whom I take refuge; who subdues my people under me. <sup>3</sup> Yahweh, what is man, that You care for him? Or the son of man, that You think of him? <sup>4</sup> Man is like a breath, his days are like a shadow that passes away. <sup>5</sup> Part Your heavens, Yahweh, and come down; touch the mountains, and they will

143:10 Your Spirit is good; lead me – David felt very strongly that he was being led, and he was confident that although he didn't understand exactly where he was going in the short term, God is fundamentally good and wishes us only good in our latter end. The "spirit" here may refer to an Angel (Ps. 104:4; Heb. 1:7), whom David felt was leading him in his wilderness life under persecution from Saul (:3) just as an Angel led Israel in the wilderness.

143:12 The death of David's enemies was seen by him as God's "kindness". See on 136:10.

144:1, 2 My rock... my fortress, my high tower – There are references in the historical record to how David took refuge from Saul (:3) and other enemies in these things (1 Sam. 23:29; 2 Sam. 5:7,9). But David saw that the essence of his safety was not in them but in God. We may use medicines, doctors, insurance, emergency phone numbers... but the essence is that God is our saviour, even if He works through those things.

smoke. <sup>6</sup> Throw out lightning and scatter them. Send out Your arrows and defeat them. <sup>7</sup> Stretch out Your hand from above, rescue me and deliver me out of great waters, out of the hands of foreigners; <sup>8</sup> whose mouths speak deceit, whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood. <sup>9</sup> I will sing a new song to You, God, on a ten-stringed lyre I will sing praises to You. <sup>10</sup> You are He who gives salvation to kings, who rescues David His servant from the deadly sword. <sup>11</sup> Rescue me, and deliver me out of the hands of foreigners, whose mouths speak deceit, whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood. <sup>12</sup> Then our sons will be like well-nurtured plants, our daughters like corner stones carved to adorn a palace. <sup>13</sup> Our barns will be full, filled with all kinds of provision; our sheep will bring forth thousands and ten thousands in our fields. <sup>14</sup> Our oxen will pull heavy loads, there will be no breaking in and no going away, and no crying in our streets. <sup>15</sup> Happy are the people who are in such a situation. Happy are the people whose God is Yahweh.

A praise psalm by David.

<sup>1</sup> I will exalt You my God as the King. I will praise Your name forever and ever. <sup>2</sup> Every day I will praise You, I will extol Your name forever and ever. <sup>3</sup> Great is Yahweh, and greatly to be praised! His greatness is unsearchable. <sup>4</sup> One generation will commend Your works to another, and will declare Your mighty acts. <sup>5</sup> Of the glorious majesty of Your honour, of Your wondrous works, I will meditate. <sup>6</sup> Men will speak of the might of Your awesome acts; I will declare Your greatness. <sup>7</sup> They will utter the memory of Your great goodness and will sing of Your righteousness. <sup>8</sup> Yahweh is gracious, merciful, slow to anger, and of great grace. <sup>9</sup> Yahweh is good to all, His

144:12 David must have shocked many by singing of how our sons shall be as plants and our daughters as corner stones. For the corner stones of a family were perceived to be the male head of the family. The Biblical view of women always sharply contrasted with that of the surrounding world at the time; such is God's valuing of each of His children regardless of their gender or perception within society.

145:1 You my God as the King – David was king of Israel, but that meant little to him compared to the greatness of God's sovereign Kingship. It may be that we are exalted a little bit in life, in career, social standing or even respect amongst God's people. An awareness of God's greatness will keep this in perspective for us; we will see it as nothing compared to God's exaltation and our subsequent smallness.

145:5 Of Your wondrous works, I will meditate – The rest of this Psalm speaks of David enthusiastically telling others about these things. But the motivation for preaching, the impetus for overcoming the inertia we often face in raising spiritual subjects in conversation, is our personal meditation upon these things, of telling ourselves within our own self-talk of God's greatness and the things of His Kingdom. The more public expression of these things to others will then come naturally without needing to be forced.

tender mercies are over all His works. <sup>10</sup> All Your works will give thanks to You, Yahweh; Your saints will extol You. <sup>11</sup> They will speak of the glory of Your kingdom, and talk about Your power; <sup>12</sup> to make known to the sons of men His mighty acts, the glory of the majesty of His kingdom. <sup>13</sup> Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, Your dominion endures throughout all generations. Yahweh is faithful in all His words, and loving in all His deeds. <sup>14</sup> Yahweh upholds all who fall, and raises up all those who are bowed down. <sup>15</sup> The eyes of all wait for You; You give them their food in due season. <sup>16</sup> You open Your hand to satisfy the desire of every living thing. <sup>17</sup> Yahweh is righteous in all His ways, and gracious in all His works. <sup>18</sup> Yahweh is near to all those who call on Him, to all who call on Him in truth. <sup>19</sup> He will fulfil the desire of those who fear Him, He will also hear their cry and save them. <sup>20</sup> Yahweh preserves all those who love Him, but all the wicked He will destroy. <sup>21</sup> My mouth will speak the praise of Yahweh; let all flesh bless His holy name forever and ever.

<sup>1</sup> Praise Yah! Praise Yahweh, my soul. <sup>2</sup> While I live, I will praise Yahweh. I will sing praises to my God as long as I exist. <sup>3</sup> Don't put your trust in princes, each merely a son of man in whom there is no help. <sup>4</sup> His spirit departs, and he returns to the dust. In that very day, his thoughts perish. <sup>5</sup> Happy is he who has the God of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in Yahweh his God: <sup>6</sup> who made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them; who keeps truth forever; <sup>7</sup> who executes justice for the oppressed; who gives food to the hungry. Yahweh frees the prisoners, <sup>8</sup> Yahweh opens the eyes of the blind, Yahweh raises up those who are bowed down, Yahweh loves the righteous. <sup>9</sup> Yahweh preserves the strangers, He upholds the fatherless and widow, but the way of the wicked He turns upside down. <sup>10</sup> Yahweh will reign forever; your God, O Zion, to all generations. Praise Yah!

145:19 This isn't a blank cheque promise to give us whatever we pray for; the "desire" of God's people is paralleled here with salvation. "I want to live forever in God's Kingdom more than anything else in the world" should be our credo; and if this is really the case in our hearts, we shall receive it (2 Tim. 4:8).

146:4 This clearly teaches that death is unconsciousness; we have no 'immortal soul' which consciously exists after death. The allusion is to how God made man from the dust and put into him the breath or spirit of life (Gen. 2:7). When we die, this spirit or life force returns to God, and we return to dust. The practical implication of correctly understanding human mortality is that we won't trust in people, but rather in God; for we will realize their weakness and ultimate inability to save.

147:2 The Jews returned from Babylon to the land of their own volition; but it was Yahweh who gathered them back, as if He called them almost of His volition rather weh builds up Jerusalem, He gathers together the outcasts of Israel. <sup>3</sup> He heals the broken in heart, and binds up their wounds. <sup>4</sup> He counts the number of the stars, He calls them all by their names. <sup>5</sup> Great is our Lord, and mighty in power; His understanding is infinite. <sup>6</sup> Yahweh upholds the humble; He brings the wicked down to the ground. <sup>7</sup> Sing to Yahweh with thanksgiving, sing praises on the harp to our God, <sup>8</sup> who covers the sky with clouds, who prepares rain for the earth, who makes grass grow on the mountains. <sup>9</sup> He provides food for the livestock, and for the young ravens when they call. <sup>10</sup> He doesn't delight in the strength of the horse, He takes no pleasure in the legs of a man. <sup>11</sup> Yahweh takes pleasure in those who fear Him, in those who hope in His grace. <sup>12</sup> Praise Yahweh, Jerusalem! Praise your God, Zion! <sup>13</sup> For He has strengthened the bars of your gates, He has blessed your children within you. <sup>14</sup> He makes peace in your borders, He fills you with the finest of the wheat. <sup>15</sup> He sends out His commandment to the earth; His word runs very swiftly. <sup>16</sup> He gives snow like wool, and scatters frost like ashes. <sup>17</sup> He hurls down His hail like pebbles- who can stand before His cold? <sup>18</sup> He sends out His word and melts them; He causes His wind to blow and the waters flow. <sup>19</sup> He shows His word to Jacob, His statutes and His ordinances to Israel. <sup>20</sup> He has not done this for any other nation; they don't know His ordinances. Praise Yah!

than theirs. They rebuilt Jerusalem; but actually, Yahweh did, through His confirmation of all the freewill effort of men like Ezra and Nehemiah. In our exodus from this world and journey to the Kingdom, God is willing and able to confirm every freewill effort we make in every aspect of our lives. The returning exiles had to strengthen the bars of Jerusalem's gates as is emphasized throughout Neh. 3; but God worked through them (:13).

148:2 All the Angels are obedient to God; there are no sinful Angels in Heaven; see on 103:20,21.

148:6 God will never destroy the earth and heavens; it is His declared purpose to establish His eternal Kingdom on earth at Christ's return (Dan. 2:44). Any references to the destruction of 'heavens and earth' are using this term in a symbolic sense to describe a system of things on earth (Is. 1:2).

His word; <sup>9</sup> mountains and all hills; fruit trees and all cedars; <sup>10</sup> wild animals and all livestock; small creatures and flying birds; <sup>11</sup> kings of the earth and all peoples; princes and all judges of the earth; <sup>12</sup> both young men and young women; old men and children: <sup>13</sup> let them praise the name of Yahweh, for His name alone is exalted; His glory is above the earth and the skies. <sup>14</sup> He has lifted up the horn of His people, inspiring the praise of all His saints, even of the children of Israel, a people near to Him. Praise Yah!

tion. <sup>5</sup> Let the saints rejoice in glory, let them sing for joy on their beds. <sup>6</sup> May the high praises of God be in their mouths, and a two-edged sword in their hand; <sup>7</sup> to execute vengeance on the nations, and punishments on the peoples; <sup>8</sup> to bind their kings with chains, and their nobles with fetters of iron; <sup>9</sup> to execute on them the judgment written. All His saints have this honour. Praise Yah!

148:14 Saints refers to all God's people, not just a few very righteous people.

149:2 Be joyful in their King – This Psalm would've been written and used when Israel had a human king. But the Psalmist, perhaps king David, wanted them to understand that whatever system of human leadership there is amongst God's people, He is their ultimate King and His Kingship was to be personally felt by every one of His people, so that they might eternally be His Kingdom, the entity of persons over which He extends rulership and sovereign authority.

150:3-5 The idea is that everything using all methods should praise God. We should never therefore limit the way others praise God, nor be critical of it because it's not our method.

PROVERBS

CHAPTER 1 Mar. 23

The Purpose of the Book

The proverbs of Solomon, the son of David, king of Israel: <sup>2</sup> to know wisdom and instruction; to discern the words of understanding; <sup>3</sup> to receive instruction in wise dealing, in righteousness, justice, and equity; <sup>4</sup> to give prudence to the simple, knowledge and discretion to the young man: <sup>5</sup> that the wise man may be obedient, and increase in learning; that the man of understanding may attain to sound counsel: <sup>6</sup> to understand a proverb, and parables, the words and riddles of the wise. <sup>7</sup> The fear of Yahweh is the beginning of knowledge; but the foolish despise wisdom and instruction.

Embrace Wisdom

<sup>8</sup> My son, listen to your father's instruction, and don't forsake your mother's teaching: <sup>9</sup> for they will be a garland to grace your head, and chains around your neck. <sup>10</sup> My son, if sinners entice you, don't consent. <sup>11</sup> If they say, Come with us, let's lay in wait for blood; let's lurk secretly for the innocent without cause; <sup>12</sup> let's swallow them up alive like Sheol, and whole, like those who go down into the pit. <sup>13</sup> We'll find all kinds of wealth. We'll fill our houses with spoil. <sup>14</sup> You shall cast your lot among us, we'll all have one purse. <sup>15</sup> My son, don't walk in the way with them. Keep your foot from their path, <sup>16</sup> for their feet run to evil. They hurry to shed blood. <sup>17</sup> For in vain is the net spread in the sight of any bird: <sup>18</sup> but these lay wait for their own blood. They lurk secretly for their own lives. <sup>19</sup> So are the ways of everyone who is greedy for gain; it takes away the life of its owners.

Do Not Reject Wisdom

<sup>20</sup> Wisdom calls aloud in the street. She utters her voice in the public squares. <sup>21</sup> She calls at the head of busy places, at the entrance of the city gates she utters her words: <sup>22</sup> How long, you simple ones, will you love simplicity? How long will mockers delight themselves in mockery and fools hate knowledge? <sup>23</sup> Turn at my reproof. Behold, I will pour out my spirit on you, I will make known my words to you. <sup>24</sup> Because I have called, and you have refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no one has paid attention; <sup>25</sup> but

1:5 That the wise man may be obedient – There is an upward spiral in spiritual life, whereby God's commandments are designed to lead the wise to yet more obedience if they are obeyed; wisdom leads to more wisdom.

1:12 Sheol is the Hebrew word translated "hell" in some Bibles; it is also translated "the grave", and is here parallel with "the pit". It refers simply to the grave and not to any place of eternal torment.

1:23 My spirit... my words – The Bible is written by inspiration of God. God's words are a vehicle by which His Spirit works in the lives of His children (Jn. 6:63).

you have ignored all my counsel, and wished none of my reproof; <sup>26</sup> I also will laugh at your disaster. I will mock when calamity overtakes you; <sup>27</sup> when calamity overtakes you like a storm, when your disaster comes on like a whirlwind; when distress and anguish come on you. <sup>28</sup> Then will they call on me, but I will not answer. They will seek me diligently, but they will not find me; <sup>29</sup> because they hated knowledge, and didn't choose the fear of Yahweh. <sup>30</sup> They wished for none of my counsel, they despised all my reproof. <sup>31</sup> Therefore they will eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with the fruit of their own schemes. <sup>32</sup> For the backsliding of the simple will kill them. The careless ease of fools will destroy them. <sup>33</sup> But whoever listens to me will dwell securely and will be at ease, without fear of harm.

The Benefits of Wisdom

My son, if you will receive my words and store up my commandments within you <sup>2</sup> so as to turn your ear to wisdom, and apply your heart to understanding; <sup>3</sup> yes, if you cry out for wisdom, and lift up your voice for understanding; <sup>4</sup> if you seek her as silver, and search for her as for hidden treasures: <sup>5</sup> then you will understand the fear of Yahweh, and find the knowledge of God. <sup>6</sup> For Yahweh gives wisdom. Out of His mouth comes knowledge and understanding. <sup>7</sup> He lays up sound wisdom for the upright, He is a shield to those who walk in integrity; <sup>8</sup> that He may guard the paths of justice, and preserve the way of His saints. <sup>9</sup> Then you will understand righteousness and justice, equity and every good path. <sup>10</sup> For wisdom will enter into

1:26 Mock... laugh – God will mock and laugh at the Gentile nations who come against Him in the last day (Ps. 2:4), and yet He will do just the same to those of His people who refuse wisdom's voice. If we are not separate from this world now, we will not be separated from them when the judgments fall. We will be "Condemned with the world..." (1 Cor. 11:32). If we don't come out from Babylon, we will share her judgments (Rev. 18:4).

1:28 Then will they call on me, but I will not answer – In the day of judgment, everybody will desperately want to be in God's Kingdom, to live eternally in the way of wisdom. The rejected will urgently seek acceptance, but it will be too late (Mt. 25:11; Lk. 13:25).

1:29 Hated knowledge – They 'despise' wisdom (:30); but they likely never said so in those words. In their lives they lived in "careless ease" (:32), but this is tantamount to proactively hating spiritual knowledge.

2:3 Wisdom cries out loud to be heard (8:1), and yet the righteous man cries after wisdom, and lifts up his voice for understanding; there is thus a sense of mutuality here between God's wisdom and the sincere seeker. Every genuine believer will have felt this; we urgently cry for wisdom, and yet God's word is crying out to teach us. If this is our attitude, the things of God's word will be our life (4:13). As Israel were to talk about the word as they went out and came in and as they walked along the way, so should the new Israel (7:2,3).

your heart, knowledge will be pleasant to your soul. <sup>11</sup> Discretion will watch over you. Understanding will keep you, <sup>12</sup> to deliver you from the way of evil, from the men who speak perverse things; <sup>13</sup> who forsake the paths of uprightness to walk in the ways of darkness; <sup>14</sup> who rejoice to do evil, and delight in the perverseness of evil; <sup>15</sup> who are crooked in their ways, and wayward in their paths: <sup>16</sup> to deliver you from the Gentile woman, even from the foreigner who flatters with her words; <sup>17</sup> who forsakes the friend of her youth, and forgets the covenant of her God: <sup>18</sup> for her house leads down to death, her paths to the dead. <sup>19</sup> None who go to her return again, neither do they attain to the paths of life: <sup>20</sup> that you may walk in the way of good men, and keep the paths of the righteous. <sup>21</sup> For the upright will dwell in the land; the perfect will eternally remain in it. <sup>22</sup> But the wicked will be cut off from the land, the deceitful will be rooted out of it.

More Benefits of Wisdom

My son, don't forget my teaching but let your heart keep my commandments: <sup>2</sup> for length of days and years of life, and peace, will they add to you. <sup>3</sup> Don't let grace and truth forsake you. Bind them around your neck. Write them on the tablet of your heart. <sup>4</sup> So you will find favour and good understanding in the sight of God and man. <sup>5</sup> Trust in Yahweh with all your heart, and don't lean on your own understanding. <sup>6</sup> In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will make your paths straight. <sup>7</sup> Don't be wise in your own eyes. Fear Yahweh, and depart from evil. <sup>8</sup> It will be health to your body, and nourishment to your bones. <sup>9</sup> Honour Yahweh with your substance, with the first fruits of all your increase: <sup>10</sup> so your barns will be filled with plenty, and your vats will overflow with new wine. <sup>11</sup> My son, don't despise Yahweh's discipline, neither be weary of His reproof: <sup>12</sup> for whom

2:16, 17 Solomon was inspired to write the Proverbs in his youth, and yet he did the very things he warns others against. Here he teaches that wisdom would save a man from the Gentile woman who made a covenant with the God of Israel in her youth (in order to marry an Israelite, by implication), but soon forgot it. This was exactly the case of Solomon, who married Gentile women in his youth; yet he just couldn't see the personal relevance of his own wisdom to himself. The more spiritual knowledge we have, the more prone we are to make this same mistake.

3:4 This is alluded to in Lk. 2:52, where we read that Jesus grew in wisdom and in favour with God and man. The "my Son" spoken of in Proverbs can therefore be understood as the Son, the Lord Jesus. It could be that the various warnings to the son about not getting involved with Gentile women, not getting in with bad company in his youth etc. were all speaking directly to temptations the Lord Jesus encountered in His youth. In this case we could build up some picture of the experiences of the Lord's early life on the basis of the "my son" exhortations of Proverbs.

3:11 All Scripture is recorded for our learning and comfort (Rom. 15:4). The exhortation here in Prov. 3:11 "speaks unto you as unto children..." (Heb. 12:5). We are to constantly personalize Scripture and hear God speaking to us directly.

Yahweh loves, He reproves; even as a father reproves the son in whom he delights. <sup>13</sup> Happy is the man who finds wisdom, the man who gets understanding. <sup>14</sup> For her good profit is better than getting silver, and her return is better than fine gold. <sup>15</sup> She is more precious than rubies. None of the things you can desire are to be compared to her. <sup>16</sup> Length of days is in her right hand, in her left hand are riches and honour. <sup>17</sup> Her ways are ways of pleasantness, all her paths are peace. <sup>18</sup> She is a tree of life to those who lay hold of her. Happy is each one who retains her. <sup>19</sup> By wisdom Yahweh founded the earth, by understanding He established the heavens. <sup>20</sup> By His knowledge the depths were broken up and the skies drop down the dew. <sup>21</sup> My son, let them not depart from your eyes. Keep sound wisdom and discretion: <sup>22</sup> so they will be life to your soul, and grace for your neck. <sup>23</sup> Then you shall walk in your way securely; your foot won't stumble. <sup>24</sup> When you lie down, you will not be afraid. Yes, you will lie down, and your sleep will be sweet. <sup>25</sup> Don't be afraid of sudden fear, neither of the desolation of the wicked when it comes: <sup>26</sup> for Yahweh will be your confidence, and will keep your foot from being taken. <sup>27</sup> Don't withhold good from those to whom it is due when it is in the power of your hand to do it. <sup>28</sup> Don't say to your neighbour, Go, and come again; tomorrow I will give it to you, when you have it by you. <sup>29</sup> Don't devise evil against your neighbour, since he dwells securely by you. <sup>30</sup> Don't strive with a man without cause if he has done you no harm. <sup>31</sup> Don't envy the man of violence; choose none of his ways. <sup>32</sup> For the perverse person is an abomination to Yahweh, but His friendship is with the upright. <sup>33</sup> Yahweh's curse is in the house of the wicked, but He blesses the habitation of the righteous. <sup>34</sup> Surely He mocks the mockers, but He gives grace to the humble. <sup>35</sup> The wise will inherit glory, but shame will be the promotion of fools.

The Supremacy of Wisdom

Listen, sons, to a father's instruction. Pay attention and know understanding; <sup>2</sup> for I give you sound learning. Don't forsake my law.

3:20 And the skies drop down the dew – The historical creation of all things by God's word of command is ongoing, in that His word in an ongoing way commands the dew to fall just as His word re-arranged the waters as recorded in Genesis 1. The idea of :19,20 is that the same word which God used as the agency of physical creation – He said, and it was done – is ongoing in our lives if we respond to the word of wisdom, thereby becoming a new creation through that same word, centred as it is in the Lord Jesus as that word made flesh (2 Cor. 5:17; Jn. 1:14).

3:34 He gives grace to the humble – Quoted in James 4:5,6 in an appeal to us not to be envious but rather to be humble. The truly humble aren't envious; God's gift of grace to them in Christ is so wonderful that we have quite enough to personally glory in, and there will be no envy of others.

<sup>3</sup> For I was a son to my father, tender and an only child in the sight of my mother. <sup>4</sup> He taught me, and said to me: Let your heart retain my words. Keep my commandments, and live. <sup>5</sup> Get wisdom. Get understanding. Don't forget, neither swerve from the words of my mouth. <sup>6</sup> Don't forsake her, and she will preserve you. Love her, and she will keep you. <sup>7</sup> Wisdom is supreme. Get wisdom. Yes, though it costs all your possessions, get understanding. <sup>8</sup> Esteem her, and she will exalt you. She will bring you to honour when you embrace her. <sup>9</sup> She will give to your head a garland of grace. She will deliver a crown of splendour to you. <sup>10</sup> O my son, receive my sayings; and the years of your life shall be many. <sup>11</sup> I have taught you in the way of wisdom, I have led you in straight paths. <sup>12</sup> When you go, your steps will not be hampered. When you run, you will not stumble. <sup>13</sup> Take firm hold of instruction. Don't let her go. Keep her, for she is your life. <sup>14</sup> Don't enter into the path of the wicked. Don't walk in the way of evil men. <sup>15</sup> Avoid it, and don't pass by it; turn from it, and pass on. <sup>16</sup> For they don't sleep, unless they do evil. Their sleep is taken away, unless they make someone fall. <sup>17</sup> For they eat the bread of wickedness, and drink the wine of violence. <sup>18</sup> But the path of the righteous is like the light of the dawn, that shines more and more until the perfect day. <sup>19</sup> The way of the wicked is like darkness. They don't know what they stumble over. <sup>20</sup> My son, attend to my words. Turn your ear to my sayings. <sup>21</sup> Let them not depart from your eyes. Keep them in the midst of your heart. <sup>22</sup> For they are life to those who find them, and health to their whole body. <sup>23</sup> Keep your heart with all diligence, for out of it is the wellspring of life. <sup>24</sup> Put away from yourself a perverse mouth, put corrupt lips far from you. <sup>25</sup> Let your eyes look straight ahead, fix your gaze directly before you. <sup>26</sup> Make the path of your feet level. Let all of your ways be established. <sup>27</sup> Don't turn to the right hand nor to the left, remove your foot from evil.

4:4-9 This is Solomon quoting to his children what his father David had taught him about wisdom. He was raising his children as he had been raised, which is what all parents inevitably tend to do by default. But Solomon himself lived without personally applying the wisdom to himself; all he says is true, but the lesson is that we can accept theoretical truth, pass it on to others with great conviction, and yet be unmoved by it ourselves.

4:16 Doing evil is defined as making another fall. The sinfulness of sin is especially in the negative effect we have upon others.

4:23 The heart is used in the Bible as a metaphor for the mind. To be spiritually minded is the essence of Christianity. How we think now will affect our eternal future.

4:26 Make the path of your feet level – Quoted in Heb. 12:13 about the need to do this so that others don't stumble in the way of life. Our personal life path must be straight not only for ourselves to reach the Kingdom, but so that others can follow us there. Again we see that spirituality is never limited to ourselves; it always affects others.

The Dangers of Adultery

My son, pay attention to my wisdom, turn your ear to my understanding: <sup>2</sup> that you may maintain discretion, that your lips may preserve knowledge. <sup>3</sup> For the lips of an adulteress drip honey. Her mouth is smoother than oil, <sup>4</sup> but in the end she is as bitter as wormwood, and as sharp as a two-edged sword. <sup>5</sup> Her feet go down to death, her steps lead straight to Sheol. <sup>6</sup> She gives no thought to the way of life. Her ways are crooked, and she doesn't know it. <sup>7</sup> Now therefore, my sons, listen to me. Don't depart from the words of my mouth. <sup>8</sup> Remove your way far from her. Don't come near the door of her house, <sup>9</sup> lest you give your honour to others, and your years to the cruel one; <sup>10</sup> lest foreigners feast on your wealth, and your labours enrich another man's house. <sup>11</sup> You will groan at your latter end, when your flesh and your body are consumed, <sup>12</sup> and say, How I have hated instruction, and my heart despised reproof; <sup>13</sup> neither have I obeyed the voice of my teachers, nor turned my ear to those who instructed me! <sup>14</sup> I have come to the brink of utter ruin, in the midst of the gathered assembly. <sup>15</sup> Drink water out of your own cistern, springing water out of your own spring. <sup>16</sup> Should your springs overflow in the streets, streams of water in the public squares? <sup>17</sup> Let them be for yourself alone, not for strangers with you. <sup>18</sup> Let your spring be blessed. Rejoice in the wife of your youth. <sup>19</sup> A loving doe and a graceful deer— let her breasts satisfy you at all times. Be captivated always with her love. <sup>20</sup> For why should you, my son, be captivated with an adulteress? Why embrace the bosom of another? <sup>21</sup> For the ways of man are before the eyes of Yahweh, He examines all his paths. <sup>22</sup> The evil deeds of the wicked ensnare him. The cords of his sin hold him firmly. <sup>23</sup> He will die for lack of instruction.

In the greatness of his own folly he will go astray.

CHAPTER 6 Mar. 28

Avoiding the Trap of Debt and Being Industrious

My son, if you have become collateral for your neighbour, if you have struck your hands in pledge

5:5 Sheol is translated in some Bibles as “hell”, but the word refers simply to the grave, which is how it is often translated. Here it is parallel with “death”, as in 7:27. It doesn't refer to any place of eternal conscious torment.

5:15 Springing water out of your own spring – The metaphor likens the man's wife to a spring of ever fresh water which is personally for himself. A husband should find in his wife something ever fresh, and thus marriages blessed by God don't default into the same old scene scenario, there's always something fresh and new for us in each other if we perceive our partners as we should.

5:21 For the ways of man are before the eyes of Yahweh – Sexual unfaithfulness is precluded by the fact that God sees and knows all things; Job likewise answered a false accusation of marital infidelity by saying that this wasn't possible for him, because he lived in the constant presence of the God who sees all things (Job 31:1-4).

for a stranger,<sup>2</sup> you are trapped by the words of your mouth. You are ensnared with the words of your mouth.<sup>3</sup> Do this now my son and deliver yourself, since you have come into the hand of your neighbour. Go, humble yourself. Press your plea with your neighbour.<sup>4</sup> Give no sleep to your eyes, nor slumber to your eyelids.<sup>5</sup> Free yourself, like a gazelle from the hand of the hunter, like a bird from the snare of the fowler.<sup>6</sup> Go to the ant, you sluggard. Consider her ways, and be wise;<sup>7</sup> which having no chief, overseer or ruler,<sup>8</sup> yet provides her bread in the summer and gathers her food in the harvest.<sup>9</sup> How long will you sleep, lazy one? When will you arise out of your sleep?<sup>10</sup> A little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep:<sup>11</sup> so your poverty will come as a robber, and your scarcity as an armed man.<sup>12</sup> A worthless person, a man of iniquity, is he who walks with a perverse mouth;<sup>13</sup> who winks with his eyes, who signals with his feet, who motions with his fingers;<sup>14</sup> in whose heart is perverseness, who devises evil continually, who always sows discord.<sup>15</sup> Therefore his calamity will come suddenly. He will be broken suddenly, and that without remedy.<sup>16</sup> There are six things which Yahweh hates; yes, seven which are an abomination to Him:<sup>17</sup> proud eyes, a lying tongue, hands that shed innocent blood;<sup>18</sup> a heart that devises wicked schemes, feet that are swift in running to mischief,<sup>19</sup> a false witness who utters lies, and he who sows discord among brothers.

The Dangers of Promiscuity

<sup>20</sup> My son, keep your father's commandment, and don't forsake your mother's teaching.<sup>21</sup> Bind them continually on your heart. Tie them around your neck.<sup>22</sup> When you walk, it will lead you. When you sleep, it will watch over you. When you awake, it will talk with you.<sup>23</sup> For the commandment is a lamp, and the law is light. Reproofs of instruction are the way of life,<sup>24</sup> to keep you from the immoral woman, from the flattery of the wayward wife's tongue.<sup>25</sup> Don't lust after her beauty in your heart, neither let her

6:7 Having no chief, overseer or ruler – We can learn from meditating upon the natural creation. Human beings tend to work best when overseen by a human leader; but in spiritual life, we are to work for God from self motivation, regardless of whether or not we have good leadership within the family of God.

6:13 God is sensitive to the body language of people, and so should we be.

6:14 Who always sows discord – In terms of the sentence structure, this is the crowning characteristic of the wicked man introduced in :12. Division and fracture of human relationships is perceived by God as the end result of sinfulness – thus indicating the huge value He places upon unity amongst His children. Divisiveness is the very essence of sinfulness. Likewise the seven things which God hates culminate in the sin of sowing discord amongst brothers (:16-18). Indeed, :16 could imply that this seventh sin is the ultimate abomination to Him.

captivate you with her eyelids. <sup>26</sup> For a prostitute reduces you to a piece of bread. The adulteress hunts for your precious life. <sup>27</sup> Can a man scoop fire into his lap, and his clothes not be burned? <sup>28</sup> Or can one walk on hot coals, and his feet not be scorched? <sup>29</sup> So is he who goes in to his neighbour's wife. Whoever touches her will not be unpunished. <sup>30</sup> Men don't despise a thief, if he steals to satisfy himself when he is hungry: <sup>31</sup> but if he is found, he shall restore seven times. He shall give all the wealth of his house. <sup>32</sup> He who commits adultery with a woman is void of understanding. He who does it destroys his own soul. <sup>33</sup> He will get wounds and dishonour, his reproach will not be wiped away. <sup>34</sup> For jealousy arouses the fury of the husband. He won't spare in the day of vengeance. <sup>35</sup> He won't regard any ransom, neither will he rest content, though you give many gifts.

Beware of the Adulteress

My son, keep my words. Lay up my commandments within you. <sup>2</sup> Keep my commandments and live! Guard my teaching as the apple of your eye. <sup>3</sup> Bind them on your fingers, write them on the tablet of your heart. <sup>4</sup> Tell wisdom, You are my sister. Call understanding your relative, <sup>5</sup> that they may keep you from the strange woman, from the foreigner who flatters with her words. <sup>6</sup> For at the window of my house I looked out through my lattice. <sup>7</sup> I saw among the simple ones. I discerned among the youths a young man void of understanding, <sup>8</sup> passing through the street near her corner, he went the way to her house, <sup>9</sup> in the twilight, in the evening time and again. He warned the young man about being captivated by the eyelids of the Gentile woman; yet it was the eyes of his Egyptian lover that he openly admitted stole his heart (Song 4:9; 6:5). The Gentile woman has words like a honeycomb (5:3); and yet this is exactly how Solomon found his woman's words (Song 4:11).

6:27 These verses powerfully pierce deeply into the psychology of sin, especially sexual sin. We reason that we can go so far into it, but not too far. But once we launch into sin, we will be damaged by it. The call of wisdom is to total abstinence from it, rather than spiritual brinkmanship.

7:2 The idea of keeping commandments in order to live is a reference back to the many Deuteronomy passages where Moses pleads with Israel to keep God's commands and live. But Solomon came to perceive his father David's commands as those of God, and in his generation he watered this down in his own mind until he assumed that his commands to his children were to be treated by them as the law of God – no matter how far he had strayed himself from God's law. It's a gripping, frightening psychology. "O my son, receive my sayings; and the years of your life shall be many" (4:10) is alluding to the promise of long life for the obedient to God's laws; but never does Solomon make the admission that his laws are only a repetition of God's laws. He was playing God by implying that his words carried the weight of God's words. He taught his son obedience to him as a father, but not to God Himself.

evening of the day, in the middle of the night and in the darkness. <sup>10</sup> Behold, there a woman met him with the attire of a prostitute, and with crafty intent. <sup>11</sup> She is loud and defiant. Her feet don't stay in her house. <sup>12</sup> Now she is in the streets, now in the squares, and lurking at every corner. <sup>13</sup> So she caught him, and kissed him. With an impudent face she said to him: <sup>14</sup> Sacrifices of peace offerings are with me. This day I have paid my vows. <sup>15</sup> Therefore I came out to meet you, to diligently seek your face, and I have found you. <sup>16</sup> I have spread my couch with carpets of tapestry, with striped cloths of the yarn of Egypt. <sup>17</sup> I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon. <sup>18</sup> Come, let's take our fill of loving until the morning. Let's solace ourselves with loving. <sup>19</sup> For my husband isn't at home. He has gone on a long journey. <sup>20</sup> He has taken a bag of money with him; he will come home at the full moon. <sup>21</sup> With persuasive words she led him astray. With the flattering of her lips, she seduced him. <sup>22</sup> He followed her immediately, as an ox goes to the slaughter, as a fool stepping into a noose. <sup>23</sup> Until an arrow strikes through his liver, as a bird hurries to the snare, and doesn't know that it will cost his life. <sup>24</sup> Now therefore, sons, listen to me. Pay attention to the words of my mouth. <sup>25</sup> Don't let your heart turn to her ways. Don't go astray in her paths, <sup>26</sup> for she has thrown down many wounded. Yes, all her slain are a mighty army. <sup>27</sup> Her house is the way to Sheol, going down to the rooms of death.

Wisdom Personified

Doesn't wisdom cry out? Doesn't understanding raise her voice? <sup>2</sup> On the top of high places by the way, where the paths meet, she stands. <sup>3</sup> Beside the gates, at the entry of the city, at the entry doors, she cries aloud: <sup>4</sup> To you people I call! I send my voice to the sons of mankind. <sup>5</sup> You simple, understand prudence. You fools, be of an understanding heart. <sup>6</sup> Hear, for I will speak excellent things. The opening of my lips is for right things. <sup>7</sup> For my mouth speaks truth. Wickedness is an abomination to my lips. <sup>8</sup> All the words of my mouth are in righteousness. There is nothing crooked or perverse in them. <sup>9</sup> They are all plain to him who understands, right to those who find knowledge. <sup>10</sup> Receive my instruction rather than silver; knowledge rather than choice gold. <sup>11</sup> For wisdom is better than rubies. All the things that may be desired can't be compared to it. <sup>12</sup> I, wisdom, have made prudence my dwelling. Find out knowledge and discretion. <sup>13</sup> The fear of Yahweh is to hate evil. I hate pride, arrogance, the evil way, and the perverse mouth. <sup>14</sup> Counsel and sound knowledge are mine. I have understanding and power. <sup>15</sup> By me kings reign, and princes decree justice. <sup>16</sup> By me princes rule; nobles, and all the righteous rulers of the earth. <sup>17</sup> I love those who love me. Those who seek me diligently will find me. <sup>18</sup> With me are riches, honour, enduring wealth, and prosperity. <sup>19</sup> My fruit is better than gold, yes, than fine gold; my yield than choice silver. <sup>20</sup> I walk in the way of righteousness, in the midst of the paths of justice; <sup>21</sup> that I may give wealth to those who love me. I fill their treasuries. <sup>22</sup> Yahweh possessed me in the beginning of His work, before His deeds of old. <sup>23</sup> I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, before the earth existed. <sup>24</sup> When there were no depths, I was brought forth, when there were no springs abounding with water. <sup>25</sup> Before the mountains were settled in place, before the hills, I was brought forth; <sup>26</sup> while as yet He had not made the earth, nor the fields, nor the beginning of the dust of the world. <sup>27</sup> When He established the skies, I was there; when He set a circle on the surface of the deep, <sup>28</sup> when He established the clouds above, when the springs of the deep became strong, <sup>29</sup> when He gave to the sea its boundary, that the waters should not violate His commandment, when He marked out the foundations of the earth; <sup>30</sup> then I was the craftsman by His side. I was a delight day by day, always rejoicing before Him, <sup>31</sup> rejoicing in His whole world. My delight was with the sons of men. <sup>32</sup> Now therefore,

7:14 Sacrifices of peace offerings are with me – It is the mixing of spirituality and sensuality which is such a powerful temptation; in the same way as Israel never totally rejected Yahweh, but mixed His worship with that of idols. Likewise many false doctrines contain a mixture of truth and error.

7:16 With striped cloths of the yarn of Egypt – Solomon perceived the association of Egypt with failure with women; and yet made the very same mistake which he so well perceived and eloquently preached against to others.

7:18 Let's solace ourselves with loving – The justification of any sin, but especially sexual sin, is that we have had hard lives and deserve some break, some solace, some human comfort.

8:11 Often Solomon's Proverbs bring out the tension between wealth and wisdom, and the need to choose wisdom (see too 16:16). But whilst he was inspired to write this, and true as it all was, it is inevitable that Solomon said all this with his mind on the way that he had rejected wealth for wisdom when in his youth he was asked by God for his wish (1 Kings 3:11,12). He thought that his right choice in early life [cp. Christian baptism] justified him in later loving wealth rather than wisdom. He taught that wisdom filled the treasuries of the wise (:21) – just as his treasuries were filled with wealth. Yet in his old age in Ecclesiastes he says that he amassed wealth for himself to see if he could find fulfilment in it – and he seems to have done that because now in his younger days he thought that amassing wealth was justified because he loved the possession of wisdom. Many a middle aged businessman, baptized in his youth and knowing God's truths very well in theory, has made just the same tragic mistake.

8:32 Now therefore, my sons, listen to me – These are words attributed to wisdom, but they are the words Solomon uses about his own instruction of his sons in 5:7. Solomon came to assume that he personally was wisdom personified. He had been given wisdom, but the very possession of it led him to assume that he was somehow infallible and spiritually invincible. This was his downfall. The fact we may possess God's my sons, listen to me, for blessed are those who keep my ways. <sup>33</sup> Hear instruction, and be wise. Don't refuse it. <sup>34</sup> Blessed is the man who hears me, watching daily at my gates, waiting at my door posts. <sup>35</sup> For whoever finds me finds life, and will obtain favour from Yahweh. <sup>36</sup> But he who sins against me wrongs his own soul. All those who hate me love death.

CHAPTER 9 Mar. 30

Wisdom and Foolishness Both Invite Us

Wisdom has built her house, she has carved out her seven pillars, <sup>2</sup> she has prepared her bread, she has mixed her wine. She has also set her table, <sup>3</sup> she has sent out her maidens, she cries from the highest places of the city: <sup>4</sup> Whoever is simple, let him turn in here! As for him who is void of understanding, she says to him, <sup>5</sup> Come, eat some of my bread, drink some of the wine which

I have mixed! <sup>6</sup> Leave your simple ways, and live. Walk in the way of understanding. <sup>7</sup> He who corrects a mocker invites insult; he who reproves a wicked man invites abuse. <sup>8</sup> Don't reprove a scoffer, lest he hate you. Reprove a wise man, and he will love you; <sup>9</sup> instruct a wise man, and he will be still wiser. Teach a righteous man, and he will increase in learning. <sup>10</sup> The fear of Yahweh is the beginning of wisdom, the knowledge of the Holy One is understanding. <sup>11</sup> For by me your days will be multiplied. The years of your life will be increased. <sup>12</sup> If you are wise, you are wise for yourself. If you mock, you alone will bear it. <sup>13</sup> The foolish woman is loud, undisciplined, and knows nothing. <sup>14</sup> She sits at the door of her house, on a seat in the high places of the city, <sup>15</sup> to call to those who pass by, who go straight on their ways, <sup>16</sup> Whoever is simple, let him turn in here. As for him who

Truth doesn't mean that we personally are thereby infallible in every aspect of life. We hold those truths in clay, fallible vessels (2 Cor. 4:7).

9:1 In this chapter we have a classic example of where something abstract – like wisdom – is personified. Personification is widely used in the New Testament, where abstract things like sin and God's power, the Holy Spirit, are spoken of as persons even though they aren't.

9:5 An invitation to bread and wine represents fellowship together. The bread and wine of the communion service likewise speak of our fellowship with God and His Son, and our willingness to learn of them.

9:7-9 These verses appear to be the advice of wisdom to her young women who preach her message (:3). We begin the whole enterprise of sharing wisdom with the recognition that we are likely to be rejected and abused by some who hear our message. Wisdom is calling to everyone, it's not that she advises her preachers to ignore people they consider wicked. But she warns her representatives ahead of time that they can expect rejection and hurt as a result of their work.

9:8 An ability to take criticism is required if we are to become wise. But as people increasingly withdraw within themselves in modern society, this is a characteristic increasingly rarely seen.

is void of understanding, she says to him, <sup>17</sup> Stolen water is sweet. Food eaten in secret is pleasant. <sup>18</sup> But he doesn't know that the dead are there, that her guests are in the depths of Sheol.

CHAPTER 10 Mar. 31

The Proverbs of Solomon The Righteous and the Wicked- Their Attitudes Contrasted

The proverbs of Solomon. A wise son makes a glad father; but a foolish son brings grief to his mother. <sup>2</sup> Treasures of wickedness profit nothing, but righteousness delivers from death. <sup>3</sup> Yahweh will not allow the soul of the righteous to go hungry, but He thrusts away the desire of the wicked. <sup>4</sup> He becomes poor who works with a lazy hand, but the hand of the diligent brings wealth. <sup>5</sup> He who gathers in summer is a wise son, but he who sleeps during the harvest is a son who causes shame. <sup>6</sup> Blessings are on the head of the righteous, but violence covers the mouth of the wicked. <sup>7</sup> The memory of the righteous is blessed, but the name of the wicked will rot. <sup>8</sup> The wise in heart accept commandments, but a chattering fool will fall. <sup>9</sup> He who walks blamelessly walks surely, but he who perverts his ways will be found out. <sup>10</sup> One winking with the eye causes sorrow, and a chattering fool will fall. <sup>11</sup> The mouth of the righteous is a spring of life, but violence covers the mouth of the wicked. <sup>12</sup> Hatred stirs up strife, but love covers all wrongs. <sup>13</sup> Wisdom is found on the lips of him who has discernment, but a rod is for the back of him who is void of understanding. <sup>14</sup> Wise men lay up knowledge, but the mouth of the foolish is near ruin.

A Disciplined Life

10:1 Solomon has himself in view here, for he was known internationally for his wisdom. Yet much of his apparent spirituality and zeal for God seems to have been a result of living out David's parental expectation. The emphasis he places in Proverbs upon pleasing fathers reflects Solomon's personal living out of parental hopes. Hence his collapse of faith later in life.

10:11 Our words really can be the water of life to others; this is why how we speak is so important.

10:12 Love covers all wrongs – The first and second halves of the verses in Proverbs are often related to each other. The way of love is not to turn a blind eye; but it covers wrongs in the sense that it doesn't 'stir up strife' in the sense of continually exposing the fault lines which there are in every relationship, but rather covers them.

10:15, 16 These verses speak of attitudes to wealth; the rich trust in their wealth and become isolated by it, like a man within a fortified city. The poor are soul destroyed because they are poor, and because they think that not having wealth means they are nothing. However, the righteous labour for God with eternal life as their end in view (:16), thus making their economic status simply not an item in their self-perception.

but he who forsakes reproof leads others astray. <sup>18</sup> He who hides hatred has lying lips; he who utters a slander is a fool. <sup>19</sup> In the multitude of words there is no lack of disobedience, but he who restrains his lips does wisely. <sup>20</sup> The tongue of the righteous is like choice silver; the heart of the wicked is of little worth. <sup>21</sup> The lips of the righteous feed many, but the foolish die for lack of understanding.

Life Expanded by the Fear of God

<sup>22</sup> Yahweh's blessing brings wealth, and He adds no trouble to it. <sup>23</sup> It is a fool's pleasure to do wickedness, but wisdom is a man of understanding's pleasure. <sup>24</sup> What the wicked fear will overtake them, but the desire of the righteous will be granted. <sup>25</sup> When the whirlwind passes, the wicked is no more; but the righteous stand firm forever. <sup>26</sup> As vinegar to the teeth, and as smoke to the eyes, so is the sluggard to those who send him. <sup>27</sup> The fear of Yahweh prolongs days, but the years of the wicked shall be shortened. <sup>28</sup> The prospect of the righteous is joy, but the hope of the wicked will perish. <sup>29</sup> The way of Yahweh is a stronghold to the upright, but it is a destruction to the workers of iniquity. <sup>30</sup> The righteous will never be removed, but the wicked will not dwell in the land. <sup>31</sup> The mouth of the righteous brings forth wisdom, but the perverse tongue will be cut off. <sup>32</sup> The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable, but the mouth of the wicked is perverse.

The Righteous and the Wicked— Their Behaviour and Destiny Contrasted

A false balance is an abomination to Yahweh, but accurate weights are His delight. <sup>2</sup> When pride comes then comes shame, but with humility comes wisdom. <sup>3</sup> The integrity of the upright shall guide them, but the perverseness of the treacherous shall destroy them. <sup>4</sup> Riches don't profit in the day of wrath, but righteousness delivers from death. <sup>5</sup> The righteousness of the blameless will direct his way, but the wicked shall fall by his own wickedness. <sup>6</sup> The righteousness of the upright shall deliver them, but the unfaithful will be trapped by evil desires. <sup>7</sup> When a wicked man dies, hope perishes, and

10:20 Note the frequent parallel in Proverbs between the tongue and the heart. Our words reflect how we think; we can't think badly and never reflect it in our speech. Jesus understood, maybe from studying Proverbs, that our mouth speaks in reflection of our heart (Lk. 6:45).

11:4 The day of wrath – A reference to the final day of judgment at Christ's return. As we bow there naked before God's Son, it's bizarre to think that bank accounts, home ownership or wealth of any kind will be in the slightest bit relevant.

11:5 Will direct his way – If we live according to God's principles, we will not have the rudderless spirit which there is in this world. Somehow our life path becomes naturally clear to us.

11:7 Hope perishes – The Bible doesn't teach universal salvation nor some automatic expectation of power comes to nothing. <sup>8</sup> A righteous person is delivered out of trouble, and the wicked walks into it in his place. <sup>9</sup> With his mouth the godless man destroys his neighbour, but the righteous will be delivered through knowledge. <sup>10</sup> When it goes well with the righteous, the city rejoices. When the wicked perishes, there is shouting. <sup>11</sup> By the blessing of the upright the city is exalted, but it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked. <sup>12</sup> One who despises his neighbour is without wisdom, but a man of understanding holds his peace. <sup>13</sup> One who brings gossip betrays a confidence, but one who is of a trustworthy spirit is one who keeps a secret. <sup>14</sup> Where there is no wise guidance the nation falls, but in the multitude of counsellors there is victory. <sup>15</sup> He who is collateral for a stranger will suffer for it, but he who refuses pledges of collateral is secure. <sup>16</sup> A gracious woman obtains honour, but violent men obtain riches.

Base Your Life on God

<sup>17</sup> The merciful man does good to his own soul, but he who is cruel troubles his own flesh. <sup>18</sup> Wicked people earn deceitful wages, but one who sows righteousness reaps a sure reward. <sup>19</sup> He who is truly righteous gets life; he who pursues evil gets death. <sup>20</sup> Those who are perverse in heart are an abomination to Yahweh, but those whose ways are blameless are His delight. <sup>21</sup> Most certainly, the evil man will not be unpunished, but the seed of the righteous will be delivered. <sup>22</sup> Like a gold ring in a pig's snout, so is a beautiful woman who lacks discretion. <sup>23</sup> The desire of the righteous is only for good; the expectation of the wicked is wrath. <sup>24</sup> There is one who scatters, and increases yet more. There is one who withholds more than is appropriate, but gains poverty. <sup>25</sup> The generous soul shall be made fat; he who waters shall be watered also himself. <sup>26</sup> People curse someone who withholds grain, but blessing will be on the head of him who sells it. <sup>27</sup> He who diligently seeks good seeks favour, but he who searches after evil, it shall come to him. <sup>28</sup> He who trusts in his riches will fall, but the righteous shall flourish as the green leaf. <sup>29</sup> He who troubles his own house shall inherit the wind. The foolish shall be servant to the wise of heart. <sup>30</sup> The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; he who is wise wins souls.

reincarnation of the person after death. The wicked will ultimately remain dead without hope.

11:9 The tongue is more powerful than we think; people can be destroyed by others' words; even whole communities can be (:11). But the righteous will not be destroyed by such words, because their focus instead is on their knowledge or relationship with God.

11:26 A reference to Joseph's wisdom in selling grain to the starving.

11:30, 31 We can be to others as the tree of life was in Eden. We can win people for eternal life; their eternity is delegated by God to us. Such is the power and importance

The Basis of a Righteous Life

Whoever loves correction loves knowledge, but he who hates reproof is stupid. <sup>2</sup> A good man shall obtain favour from Yahweh, but He will condemn a man of wicked devices. <sup>3</sup> A man shall not be established by wickedness, but the root of the righteous shall not be moved. <sup>4</sup> A worthy woman is the crown of her husband, but a disgraceful wife is as rotteness in his bones. <sup>5</sup> The thoughts of the righteous are just, but the advice of the wicked is deceitful. <sup>6</sup> The words of the wicked are about lying in wait for blood, but the speech of the upright rescues them. <sup>7</sup> The wicked are overthrown, and are no more, but the house of the righteous shall stand. <sup>8</sup> A man shall be commended according to his wisdom, but he who has a warped mind shall be despised. <sup>9</sup> Better is he who is lightly esteemed and has a servant, than he who honours himself, and lacks bread. <sup>10</sup> A righteous man respects the life of his animal, but the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel. <sup>11</sup> He who tills his land shall have plenty of bread, but he who chases fantasies is void of understanding. <sup>12</sup> The wicked desires the plunder of evil men, but the root of the righteous flourishes.

The Importance of Truthfulness

of preaching. It is our fruit which becomes the fruit which gives eternal life. The fruit of the Spirit as seen in our characters is what will attract people to the eternal life, because we are living now how we will eternally live.

12:10 A gracious and sensitive spirit will be reflected in how we treat the natural creation.

12:14 The way we talk is here paralleled with our works, what we do with our hands. How we speak is really so important; good actions don't displace bad speaking.

12:15 Right in his own eyes – What seems right to us isn't necessarily so. We aren't born with any natural wisdom; unless we have a teachable spirit, open to God's teaching, then we will have only our very dysfunctional natural senses to guide us.

12:17 He who is truthful testifies honestly – This may seem to be obvious; but the idea is that the person who is truthful as a way of life, within their own heart, is going to also be truthful when it comes to having to testify in court.

but joy comes to the promoters of peace. <sup>21</sup> No mischief shall happen to the righteous, but the wicked shall be filled with evil. <sup>22</sup> Lying lips are an abomination to Yahweh, but those who do the truth are His delight. <sup>23</sup> A prudent man keeps his knowledge, but the hearts of fools proclaim foolishness. <sup>24</sup> The hands of the diligent ones shall rule, but laziness ends in slave labour. <sup>25</sup> Anxiety in a man's heart weighs it down, but a kind word makes it glad. <sup>26</sup> A righteous person is cautious in friendship, but the way of the wicked leads them astray. <sup>27</sup> The slothful man doesn't roast his game, but the possessions of diligent men are prized. <sup>28</sup> In the way of righteousness is life; in its path there is no death.

Discipline, Instruction and Prosperity

A wise son listens to his father's instruction, but a scoffer doesn't listen to rebuke. <sup>2</sup> By the fruit of his lips, a man enjoys good things; but the unfaithful crave violence. <sup>3</sup> He who guards his mouth guards his soul; one who opens wide his lips comes to ruin. <sup>4</sup> The soul of the sluggard desires, and has nothing, but the desire of the diligent shall be fully satisfied. <sup>5</sup> A righteous man hates lies, but a wicked man brings shame and disgrace. <sup>6</sup> Righteousness guards the way of integrity, but wickedness overthrows the sinner. <sup>7</sup> There are some who are made rich, yet have nothing. There are some who are made poor, yet have great wealth. <sup>8</sup> The ransom of a man's life is his riches, but the poor hear no threats. <sup>9</sup> The light of the righteous shines brightly, but the lamp of the wicked is snuffed out. <sup>10</sup> Pride only breeds quarrels, but with ones who take advice is wisdom. <sup>11</sup> Wealth gained dishonestly dwindles away, but he who gathers by hand makes it grow. <sup>12</sup> Hope deferred makes the heart

12:25 A kind word makes it glad – Here and in :18 we see how powerful good words can be (Job 6:25). There's a positive power in words, even just one word, which we are prone to ignore, thinking that actions are so much more important than words.

12:28 In its path there is no death – We have here an Old Testament equivalent of the times when Jesus says we can have eternal life right now. It doesn't mean that the righteous don't die. They do, and will be resurrected to eternal life at Christ's return. But we can start living right now the kind of Kingdom life which we will eternally live. In this sense we "have eternal life", and there is "no death" in the way of life of the righteous.

13:3 He who guards his mouth guards his soul – In this sense as Jesus put it, we will be eternally justified or eternally condemned by our words (Mt. 12:37).

13:7 This last phrase is quoted about the Lord Jesus, who made Himself poor on the cross (2 Cor. 8:9). And yet Solomon, who made himself rich, was the very anti-Christ. These words are also part quoted in Phil. 2:7, about how on the cross, the Lord Jesus made himself poor, of no reputation, and now has been so highly exalted. Our living out of the Lord's cross is shown in our making of ourselves poor, in whatever sense. That is surely the unmistakable teaching of this allusion.

sick, but when longing is fulfilled, it is a tree of life. <sup>13</sup> Whoever despises instruction will pay for it, but he who respects a command will be rewarded. <sup>14</sup> The teaching of the wise is a spring of life, to turn others away from the snares of death. <sup>15</sup> Good understanding wins favour; but the way of the unfaithful is hard. <sup>16</sup> Every prudent man acts from knowledge, but a fool exposes folly. <sup>17</sup> A wicked messenger falls into trouble, but a trustworthy envoy gains healing. <sup>18</sup> Poverty and shame come to him who refuses discipline, but he who heeds correction shall be honoured. <sup>19</sup> Longing fulfilled is sweet to the soul, but fools detest turning from evil. <sup>20</sup> One who walks with wise men grows wise, but a companion of fools suffers harm. <sup>21</sup> Misfortune pursues sinners, but prosperity rewards the righteous. <sup>22</sup> A good man leaves an inheritance to his children's children, but the wealth of the sinner is stored for the righteous. <sup>23</sup> An abundance of food is in poor people's fields, but injustice sweeps it away. <sup>24</sup> One who spares the rod hates his son, but one who loves him is careful to discipline him. <sup>25</sup> The righteous one eats to the satisfying of his soul, but the belly of the wicked goes hungry.

Fools: Their Characteristics and Destiny

Every wise woman builds her house, but the foolish one tears it down with her own hands. <sup>2</sup> He who walks in his uprightness fears Yahweh, but he who is perverse in his ways despises Him. <sup>3</sup> The fool's talk brings a rod to his back, but the lips of the wise protect them. <sup>4</sup> Where no oxen are, the crib is clean, but much increase is by the strength of the ox. <sup>5</sup> A truthful witness will not lie, but a false witness pours out lies. <sup>6</sup> A scoffer seeks wisdom, and doesn't find it, but knowledge comes easily to a discerning person. <sup>7</sup> Stay away from a foolish man, for you won't find knowledge on his lips. <sup>8</sup> The wisdom of the prudent is to think about his way, but the folly of fools is deceit. <sup>9</sup> Fools mock at making

13:14 We have it within our power to disentangle people from the snare of eternal death. And we do this by teaching them. See on 14:27.

13:16 A fool exposes folly – The fact something is wrong or foolish doesn't mean that we should therefore always expose it. The way of wisdom is to decide when to speak and when to be silent.

13:19 Longing fulfilled – The opposite of this is to “detest turning from evil”. The “longing” is therefore for spiritual growth, for victory against sin. And this is what is the sweetest thing in spiritual experience.

14:7 Stay away from a foolish man – This is typical of many such commands in Proverbs. But we should remember that Solomon was writing to Israelites living within the people of God. Just because someone is part of God's people doesn't make them wise; we still have to decide wisely as to with whom we will closely walk in life.

14:8 Folly is here parallel with a lack of serious self-examination. In our day, the breaking of bread service is designed to provoke self-examination (1 Cor. 11:28).

atonement for sins, but among the upright there is good will. <sup>10</sup> The heart knows its own bitterness and joy; he will not share these with a stranger. <sup>11</sup> The house of the wicked will be overthrown, but the tent of the upright will flourish. <sup>12</sup> There is a way which seems right to a man, but in the end it leads to death. <sup>13</sup> Even in laughter the heart may be sorrowful, and mirth may end in heaviness.

Consider Carefully Every Word

who despises his neighbour sins, but blessed is he who has pity on the poor. <sup>22</sup> Don't they go astray who plot evil? But love and faithfulness belong to those who plan good. <sup>23</sup> In all hard work there is profit, but the talk of the lips leads only to poverty. <sup>24</sup> The crown of the wise is their riches, but the folly of fools crowns them with folly. <sup>25</sup> A truthful witness saves souls, but a false witness is deceitful. <sup>26</sup> In the fear of Yahweh is a secure fortress, and He will be a refuge for His children. <sup>27</sup> The fear of Yahweh is a fountain of life, turning people from the snares of death. <sup>28</sup> In the multitude of people is the king's glory, but without people the prince is nothing. <sup>29</sup> He who is slow to anger has great understanding, but he who has a quick temper displays folly. <sup>30</sup> The life of the body is a heart at peace, but envy rots the bones. <sup>31</sup> He who oppresses the poor shows contempt for his Maker, but he who is kind to the needy honours Him. <sup>32</sup> The wicked is brought down in his calamity, but in death, the righteous has a refuge. <sup>33</sup> Wisdom remains in the heart of one who has understand-

14:10 The way of wisdom isn't to wear our heart on our sleeve, sharing our innermost thoughts with everyone and anyone.

14:11 Note the contrast between "the house" and "the tent"; the upright have the attitude that they are just passing through this life, with no permanent abode in this world in this present age (Heb. 13:14).

14:17 Quiet craftiness is as bad as hotheaded behaviour which is visible to everyone.

14:27 Turning people from the snares of death – But 13:14 says people are saved from the snares of death by our teaching them. The content of that teaching must therefore be the fear of God. His salvation is there in His word, but it becomes real for people by our teaching of it to them.

14:31 Therefore our attitude to the poor is our attitude to God. Hence Jesus teaches that He will judge us according to how we treated our poor brethren, because they represent Him (Mt. 25:40).

ing, and is even made known in the inward part of fools. <sup>34</sup> Righteousness exalts a nation, but sin is a disgrace to any people. <sup>35</sup> The king's favour is toward a servant who deals wisely, but his wrath is toward one who causes shame.

The Power of the Tongue and the Fear of Yahweh

A gentle answer turns away wrath, but a harsh word stirs up anger. <sup>2</sup> The tongue of the wise commends knowledge, but the mouth of fools gushes out folly. <sup>3</sup> Yahweh's eyes are everywhere, keeping watch on the evil and the good. <sup>4</sup> A gentle tongue is a tree of life, but deceit in it crushes the spirit. <sup>5</sup> A fool despises his father's correction, but he who heeds reproof shows prudence. <sup>6</sup> In the house of the righteous is much treasure, but the income of the wicked brings trouble. <sup>7</sup> The lips of the wise spread knowledge; not so with the heart of fools. <sup>8</sup> The sacrifice made by the wicked is an abomination to Yahweh, but the prayer of the upright is His delight. <sup>9</sup> The way of the wicked is an abomination to Yahweh, but He loves him who follows after righteousness. <sup>10</sup> There is stern discipline for one who forsakes the way: whoever hates reproof shall die. <sup>11</sup> Sheol and Abaddon are before Yahweh— how much more then the hearts of the children of men!

The Great Things of Life

<sup>12</sup> A scoffer doesn't love to be reproofed; he will not go to the wise. <sup>13</sup> A glad heart makes a cheerful face; but an aching heart breaks the spirit. <sup>14</sup> The heart of one who has understanding seeks knowledge, but the

14:33 The fool perceives wisdom in his innermost conscience, but only in passing; it doesn't remain within his consciousness as it does within the heart of the righteous. Passing interest in spirituality is very common in our world; but God's truth must abide within our heart if we are to be truly wise.

15:3 Yahweh's eyes are everywhere – A reference to God's presence everywhere through His Angels. This reminder is given in the context of warning us about our words; if we believe that God is really aware of absolutely everything, this will influence our words.

15:4 People are psychologically crushed when they realize that words spoken to them lacked integrity. The importance of our words is therefore because of their influence upon others. Appropriate gentleness in speech can also lead people to eternal life.

15:7 Again we see how the heart and the tongue ("lips") are paralleled; what we think really issues in our words (Lk. 6:45).

15:8 Here and elsewhere in Scripture, prayer is seen as a sacrifice. It requires the same effort and careful preparation beforehand (Heb. 13:15). The altar of incense represented the offering of prayer as a sacrifice (Rev. 8:3,4).

15:12 The implication is that people don't mix with the wise because they subconsciously fear being criticized, directly or indirectly. Those who can bear criticism relax with the wise (:31).

mouths of fools feed on folly. <sup>15</sup> All the days of the afflicted are wretched, but one who has a cheerful heart enjoys a continual feast. <sup>16</sup> Better is little with the fear of Yahweh, than great treasure with trouble. <sup>17</sup> Better is a dinner of herbs where love is, than a fattened calf with hatred. <sup>18</sup> A wrathful man stirs up contention, but one who is slow to anger appeases strife. <sup>19</sup> The way of the sluggard is like a thorn patch, but the path of the upright is a highway. <sup>20</sup> A wise son makes a father glad, but a foolish man despises his mother. <sup>21</sup> Folly is joy to one who is void of wisdom, but a man of understanding keeps his way straight. <sup>22</sup> Where there is no counsel, plans fail; but in a multitude of counsellors they are established. <sup>23</sup> Joy comes to a man as a result of the reply of his mouth. How good is an appropriate word at the right time! <sup>24</sup> The path of life spirals upward for the wise, to keep him from going downward to Sheol. <sup>25</sup> Yahweh will uproot the house of the proud, but He will keep the widow's borders intact. <sup>26</sup> Yahweh detests the thoughts of the wicked, but the thoughts of the pure are pleasing. <sup>27</sup> He who is greedy for gain troubles his own house, but he who hates bribes will live. <sup>28</sup> The heart of the righteous weighs answers, but the mouth of the wicked gushes out evil. <sup>29</sup> Yahweh is far from the wicked, but He hears the prayer of the righteous. <sup>30</sup> The light of the eyes rejoices the heart; good news gives health to the bones. <sup>31</sup> The ear that listens to reproof lives, and will be at home among the wise. <sup>32</sup> He who refuses correction despises his own soul, but he who listens to reproof gets understanding. <sup>33</sup> The fear of Yahweh teaches wisdom; before honour is humility.

Our Lives Open before Yahweh

The plans of the heart within man, and the answer of the tongue, is from Yahweh. <sup>2</sup> All the ways of a man are clean in his own eyes; but Yahweh weighs the motives. <sup>3</sup> Commit your deeds to Yahweh, and your

15:26 God watches every thought of every person. Such knowledge is amazing. And we can please God Almighty in distant Heaven, just by how we are thinking. Such is the colossal significance of spiritual mindedness.

16:1 The implication is that there is an element to which God controls our thoughts and the words we come out with. This element which is beyond human effort is from God's grace through the operation of His Spirit. This same 'element' is alluded to in :4 – God somehow overrules and uses even the failures of the sinful; and in :9 we have the same theme, that there is an element of Divine direction over and above what we ourselves will in our own minds. Otherwise, salvation would be by steel-willed human effort alone rather than God's grace. This same theme, of God playing a role over and above our own efforts, concludes this chapter in :33. See on 20:24.

16:2 Yahweh weighs the motives – Our justification isn't on the basis that we happen to feel good about ourselves (:25); God's judgment rather than our own gut feelings is all important. Although He is Almighty, God "weighs" our motives, expending some effort in analyzing our deepest heart processes.

plans shall succeed. <sup>4</sup> Yahweh has made everything for its own end—yes, even the wicked for the day of evil. <sup>5</sup> Everyone who is proud in heart is an abomination to Yahweh: they shall certainly not be unpunished. <sup>6</sup> By mercy and truth iniquity is atoned for; by the fear of Yahweh men depart from evil. <sup>7</sup> When a man's ways please Yahweh, He makes even his enemies to be at peace with him. <sup>8</sup> Better is a little with righteousness, than great revenues with injustice. <sup>9</sup> A man's heart plans his course, but Yahweh directs his steps.

Take Life Seriously

gold! Yes, to get understanding is to be chosen rather than silver. <sup>17</sup> The highway of the upright is to depart from evil. He who keeps His way preserves his soul. <sup>18</sup> Pride goes before destruction, and an arrogant spirit before a fall. <sup>19</sup> It is better to be of a humble spirit with the poor, than to divide the plunder with the proud. <sup>20</sup> He who heeds the word finds prosperity; whoever has faith in Yahweh is blessed. <sup>21</sup> The wise in heart shall be called prudent. Pleasantness of the lips promotes instruction. <sup>22</sup> Understanding is a fountain of life to one who has it, but the punishment of fools is their folly. <sup>23</sup> The heart of the wise instructs his mouth, and adds learning to his lips. <sup>24</sup> Pleasant words are a honeycomb, sweet to the soul, and health to the bones. <sup>25</sup> There is a way which seems right to a man, but in the end it leads to death. <sup>26</sup> The appetite of the labouring man labours for him; for his mouth urges him on. <sup>27</sup> A worthless man devises mischief; his speech is like a scorching fire. <sup>28</sup> A perverse man stirs up strife, a gossip separates close friends. <sup>29</sup> A man of violence entices his neighbour, and leads him in a way that is not good. <sup>30</sup> One who winks his eyes to plot perversities, one who compresses his lips, is bent on evil.

16:10 Solomon writes inspired truth in Proverbs, but it seems that much of what he writes was written with an eye to his own self-justification, especially about the need to respect the man who has wisdom and the wise man's superiority over all others (:16). He even writes as if the king must be accepted as automatically infallible: "Inspired judgments are on the lips of the king" (see too 20:2). We too can teach God's truths whilst also motivated in doing so by a desire for our own self-justification rather than His glory.

16:20 We see here the connection between God's word and faith; faith comes by hearing God's word (Rom. 10:17).

16:30 Negative body language may appear so insignificant, but it is judged by God as being "bent on evil".

CHAPTER 17 Apr. 7

The Family, Relationships and Integrity

Better is a dry morsel of bread with quietness, than a house full of feasting with strife. <sup>2</sup> A servant who deals wisely will rule over a son who causes shame, and shall have a part in the inheritance among the brothers. <sup>3</sup> The refining pot is for silver and the furnace for gold, but Yahweh tests the hearts. <sup>4</sup> An evil-doer heeds wicked lips; a liar gives ear to a mischievous tongue. <sup>5</sup> Whoever mocks the poor reproaches his Maker. He who is glad at calamity shall not be unpunished. <sup>6</sup> Children's children are the crown of old men; the glory of children are their parents. <sup>7</sup> Arrogant speech isn't fitting for a fool, much less do lying lips fit a prince. <sup>8</sup> A bribe is a precious stone in the eyes of him who gives it; wherever he turns, he apparently prospers. <sup>9</sup> He who covers an offence promotes love; but he who repeats a matter separates best friends. <sup>10</sup> A rebuke enters deeper into one who has understanding than a hundred lashes into a fool. <sup>11</sup> An evil man seeks only rebellion; therefore a cruel messenger shall be sent against him. <sup>12</sup> Let a bear robbed of her cubs meet a man, rather than a fool in his folly. <sup>13</sup> Whoever rewards evil for good, evil shall not depart from his house. <sup>14</sup> The beginning of strife is like breaching a dam, therefore stop contention before quarreling breaks out. <sup>15</sup> He who justifies the wicked, and he who condemns the righteous, both of them alike are an abomination to Yahweh. <sup>16</sup> Why is there money in the hand of a fool to buy wisdom, since he has no understanding?

The Wisdom of Silence

16:32 One who rules his spirit, than he who takes a city – A reference to Samson.

17:5 The poor are God manifest to us; how we treat our poor brethren is how we treat God, and is the basis of our final judgment (M 25:40). This is a common theme in Proverbs; and we need to remember it constantly, especially as we are often tempted to consider others' poverty as the result of their own poor decision making and to think this excuses us from helping them.

17:9 He who covers an offence – This is paralleled in the second half of the verse with not gossiping about others' failures. It doesn't mean that we are to turn a blind eye to others' sins, rather that we shouldn't gossip about them to others.

17:14 Relationship breakdown needs to be bridged as soon as possible, as a matter of urgency; otherwise irreparable damage will be done and like water bursting from a dam, many others will be affected by it.

loves disobedience loves strife. One who builds a high gate seeks destruction. <sup>20</sup> One who has a perverse heart doesn't find prosperity, and one who has a deceitful tongue falls into trouble. <sup>21</sup> He who becomes the father of a fool grieves; the father of a fool has no joy. <sup>22</sup> A cheerful heart makes good medicine, but a crushed spirit dries up the bones. <sup>23</sup> A wicked man receives a bribe in secret, to pervert the ways of justice. <sup>24</sup> Wisdom is before the face of one who has understanding, but the eyes of a fool wander to the ends of the earth. <sup>25</sup> A foolish son brings grief to his father, and bitterness to her who bore him. <sup>26</sup> Also to punish the righteous is not good, nor to flog officials for their integrity. <sup>27</sup> He who spares his words has knowledge. He who is even tempered is a man of understanding. <sup>28</sup> Even a fool, when he keeps silent, is counted wise. When he shuts his lips, he is thought to be discerning.

CHAPTER 18 Apr. 8

Attitudes about Judgments and Disputes

An unfriendly man pursues selfishness, and defies all sound judgment. <sup>2</sup> A fool has no delight in understanding, but only in revealing his own opinion. <sup>3</sup> When wickedness comes, contempt also comes, and with shame comes disgrace. <sup>4</sup> The words of a man's mouth are like deep waters; the fountain of wisdom is like a flowing brook. <sup>5</sup> To be partial to the faces of the wicked is not good, nor to deprive the innocent of justice. <sup>6</sup> A fool's lips come into strife, and his speech asks for beatings. <sup>7</sup> A fool's mouth is his destruction, and his lips are a snare to his soul. <sup>8</sup> The words of a gossip are like tasty morsels; they go down into a

17:19 One who builds a high gate seeks destruction – Isolationism is actually a proactive seeking of destruction for others. In our age of retreat into ourselves, this needs to be considered carefully. 18:1 likewise exhorts against isolationism – it's a form of selfishness.

17:24 The eyes of a fool wander to the ends of the earth – Those whose hearts aren't focused upon God and His word are rudderless, looking worldwide for wisdom on the internet, but never finding true direction.

18:4 Words are important; yet they are so common, as we hear and speak millions of them each week, that we can easily forget their profound significance in our lives and those of others.

18:6 His speech asks for beatings – According to our words we will be judged at the last day (Mt. 12:37; Lk. 12:47,48); our words now may actually be as it were requesting our punishment then. We must so speak as those who will be judged, knowing that he who showed no mercy in his words will receive none (James 2:12,13); our words of mercy or condemnation, and perhaps the way we say them, will be the basis upon which we will be accepted or rejected. In this sense death or life are in the power of our tongue (:21).

18:8 It's attractive to us to hear gossip; the one who hears it will often not just ignore it but will take it deep within themselves.

person's innermost parts. <sup>9</sup> One who is slack in his work is brother to him who is a master of destruction. <sup>10</sup> The name of Yahweh is a strong tower: the righteous run into Him, and are safe. <sup>11</sup> The rich man's wealth is his strong city, like an unscalable wall in his own imagination. <sup>12</sup> Before destruction the heart of man is proud, but before honour is humility. <sup>13</sup> He who gives answer before he hears, that is folly and shame to him. <sup>14</sup> A man's spirit will sustain him in sickness, but a crushed spirit, who can bear? <sup>15</sup> The heart of the discerning gets knowledge; the ear of the wise seeks knowledge. <sup>16</sup> A man's gift makes room for him, and brings him before great men. <sup>17</sup> He who pleads his cause first seems right; until another comes and questions him. <sup>18</sup> The lot settles disputes, and keeps strong ones apart. <sup>19</sup> A brother offended is more difficult to be won than a fortified city; and disputes are like the bars of a castle. <sup>20</sup> A man's stomach is filled with the fruit of his mouth. With the harvest of his lips he is satisfied. <sup>21</sup> Death and life are in the power of the tongue; those who love it will eat its fruit. <sup>22</sup> Whoever finds a wife finds a good thing, and obtains grace of Yahweh. <sup>23</sup> The poor plead for mercy, but the rich answer harshly. <sup>24</sup> A man of many companions may be ruined, but there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother.

Discipline, Poverty and Families

Better is the poor who walks in his integrity than he who is perverse in his lips and is a fool. <sup>2</sup> It isn't good to have zeal without knowledge; nor being hasty with one's feet and missing the way. <sup>3</sup> The foolishness of man subverts his way; his heart rages against Yahweh. <sup>4</sup> Wealth adds many friends, but the poor is separated from his friend. <sup>5</sup> A false witness shall not be unpunished; he who pours out lies shall not go free. <sup>6</sup> Many will entreat the favour of a ruler, and everyone is a friend to a man who gives gifts. <sup>7</sup> All the relatives of the poor shun him: how much more do his friends avoid him! He pursues them with pleas, but they are gone. <sup>8</sup> He who gets wisdom loves his own soul; he

18:9 Again we see passive behaviour – in this case, laziness – paralleled with proactive destructive behaviour.

18:10 This has relevance to us in that we can be baptized into the Lord's Name.

18:11 One implication of this could be that those who trust in wealth isolate themselves from others.

18:18 The use of lots is seen positively here; they were used by the early church in Acts 1:26.

19:2 Zeal without knowledge – Applied by Paul to the Jews and all people who seek justification by works rather than faith in God's grace which is in Christ (Rom. 10:2), which is for us the ultimate "knowledge". This is like someone who walks earnestly but in the wrong direction, who has missed "the way", which is Christ (Jn. 14:6).

19:8 This verse is in the context of the preceding reflections that in human life, people who have wealth have friends but the poor have few friends. Whether or not we have

who keeps understanding shall find good. <sup>9</sup> A false witness shall not be unpunished; he who utters lies shall perish. <sup>10</sup> Delicate living is not appropriate for a fool, much less for a servant to have rule over princes. <sup>11</sup> The discretion of a man makes him slow to anger; it is his glory to overlook an offence. <sup>12</sup> The king's wrath is like the roaring of a lion, but his favour is like dew on the grass. <sup>13</sup> A foolish son is the calamity of his father. A wife's quarrels are a continual dripping. <sup>14</sup> House and riches are an inheritance from fathers, but a prudent wife is from Yahweh. <sup>15</sup> Slothfulness casts into a deep sleep; the idle person shall suffer hunger. <sup>16</sup> He who keeps the commandment keeps his soul, but he who is disrespectful in his ways shall die. <sup>17</sup> He who has pity on the poor lends to Yahweh; He will reward him. <sup>18</sup> Discipline your son while there is hope; don't be a willing party to his death. <sup>19</sup> A hot-tempered man must pay the penalty, for if you rescue him, you must do it again. <sup>20</sup> Listen to counsel and receive instruction, so that you may be wise in your very end. <sup>21</sup> There are many plans in a man's heart, but Yahweh's counsel will prevail. <sup>22</sup> That which makes a man to be desired is his kindness; a poor man is better than a liar. <sup>23</sup> The fear of Yahweh leads to life, and whoever has it rests satisfied; he will not be visited by harm. <sup>24</sup> The lazy buries his hand in the dish; he will not so much as bring it to his mouth again. <sup>25</sup> Flog a scoffer, and the simple will learn prudence; rebuke one who has understanding, and he will gain knowledge. <sup>26</sup> He who robs his father and drives away his mother, is a son who causes shame and brings popularity with others and human friendships, the wonder of finding the ultimate "understanding" of God, relationship with Him, makes that irrelevant.

19:11 We are not to take up every offence against us with others. There are times when our silence under provocation is in God's eyes our "glory". This verse alludes to the fact that God is slow to anger and overlooks offences without always demanding our specific repentance (Ps. 103:8; 145:8). We are to reflect our experience of this to others.

19:14 A prudent wife is from Yahweh – Marriage is in a human sense a gamble, as we never really know our partner until we have been married some time to them. A good partnership is therefore a "grace" from God (18:22); whilst we can do our human best to have a good marriage, it is ultimately God who does the humanly impossible, of joining two different people together (Mt. 19:6); and marriage is therefore a grace from Him.

19:17 Our attitude to the poor is our attitude to God and will be the basis of our judgment (Mt. 25:40).

19:22 The implication is that the poor can still be kind; in our money-obsessed world, there's the wrong impression that generosity and kindness must involve financial giving.

19:25 The simple will learn – We are to learn by observing how sinners are punished even in this life.

reproach. <sup>27</sup> If you stop listening to instruction, my son, you will stray from the words of knowledge. <sup>28</sup> A corrupt witness mocks justice, and the mouth of the wicked gulps down iniquity. <sup>29</sup> Penalties are prepared for scoffers, and beatings for the backs of fools.

CHAPTER 20 Apr. 10

The Deep Things of the Heart

Wine is a mocker, and beer is a brawler; whoever is led astray by them is not wise. <sup>2</sup> The terror of a king is like the roaring of a lion; whoever provokes him to anger forfeits his own life. <sup>3</sup> It is an honour for a man to keep aloof from strife; but every fool will be quarrelling. <sup>4</sup> The lazy will not plough by reason of the winter; therefore he shall beg in harvest, and have nothing. <sup>5</sup> Counsel in the heart of man is like deep water; but a man of understanding will draw it out. <sup>6</sup> Many men claim to be men of unfailing love, but who can find a faithful man? <sup>7</sup> A righteous man walks in integrity; blessed are his children after him. <sup>8</sup> A king who sits on the throne of judgment scatters away all evil with his eyes. <sup>9</sup> Who can say, I have made my heart pure. I am clean and without sin? <sup>10</sup> Differing weights and differing measures, both of them alike are an abomination to Yahweh. <sup>11</sup> Even a child makes himself known by his doings, whether his work is pure, or whether it is right.

Drink from the Cup of Knowledge

<sup>12</sup> The hearing ear, and the seeing eye, Yahweh has made even both of them. <sup>13</sup> Don't love sleep, lest you come to poverty. Open your eyes, and you shall be satisfied with bread. <sup>14</sup> It's no good, it's no good, says the buyer; but when he is gone his way, then he boasts. <sup>15</sup> There is gold and abundance of rubies; but the lips of knowledge are a rare jewel. <sup>16</sup> Take the garment of one who puts up collateral for a stranger; and hold him in pledge for a wayward woman. <sup>17</sup> Fraudulent food is sweet to a man, but afterwards his mouth is filled

20:1 Beer is a brawler – It is people and not liquid who brawl. The alcoholic drink is therefore put by metonymy for the alcoholic; they become identified with the substance of their addiction. Anything in human life with which we become totally identified, be it football teams or alcohol, is an addiction which takes us away from being the persons God intends us to be.

20:5 There is good wisdom within many faithful people which never becomes apparent until another person draws it out. This should be the result of good company and true spiritual fellowship – bringing out the best in each other which is often latent and would be otherwise unavailable for others' benefit.

20:6 There's much talk in the world about "love", but no word is more misunderstood. Love must be connected to faith and hope if it is to be love as God intends (1 Cor. 13:13); and faith and hope produce love in their ultimate term (Col. 3:14).

20:7 Integrity is what will most influence our children in practice.

20:16 Hold him in pledge for a wayward woman – An allusion to Judah's sin with Tamar (Gen. 38:25).

with gravel. <sup>18</sup> Plans are established by advice; by wise guidance you wage war! <sup>19</sup> He who goes about as a tale-bearer reveals secrets; therefore don't keep company with him who opens wide his lips. <sup>20</sup> Whoever curses his father or his mother, his lamp shall be put out in blackness of darkness.

Truth in the Innermost Parts

God Know All about Us

The king's heart is in Yahweh's hand like the watercourses; He turns it wherever He desires. <sup>2</sup> Every way of a man is right in his own eyes, but Yahweh weighs the hearts. <sup>3</sup> To do righteousness and justice is more acceptable to Yahweh than sacrifice. <sup>4</sup> A high look and a proud heart are the lamp of the wicked, and are sin. <sup>5</sup> The plans of the diligent surely lead to profit; and everyone who is hasty surely rushes to poverty. <sup>6</sup> Getting

20:22 If we are wronged, the ultimate justice will be done when we are eternally saved at the time of Christ's return – and not in this life.

20:24 There is an element of Divine guidance in our lives over and above our own efforts; see on 16:1.

20:27 Our self-examination is what reveals us to the Lord. What we think about at the memorial meeting, as we are faced with the memory of the crucified Saviour, is therefore an epitome of what we really are. If all we are thinking of is the taste of the wine, the cover over the bread, the music, what we didn't agree with in the meeting, all the external things of our Christianity; or if we are sitting there taking bread and wine as a conscience salver, doing our little religious ritual to make us feel psychologically safe – then we simply don't know Him. We are surface level believers only. And this is the message we give Him. Our spirit / attitude is the candle of the Lord, with which He searches us. Our thoughts when confronted by the cross reveal us to Him who died on it. Likewise Joseph (one of the most detailed types of the Lord Jesus) knew / discerned his brethren by his cup (Gen. 44:5). 1 Cor. 11:31,32 suggests that our self-judgment at the breaking of bread is in fact the Lord's judgment of us.

21:2 He turns it wherever He desires – See on 16:1.

21:4 The wicked see life within the light of their own pride; everything becomes subjected to their need to present themselves well.

wealth by a lying tongue is a fleeting vapour for those who seek death. <sup>7</sup> The violence of the wicked will drive them away, because they refuse to do what is right. <sup>8</sup> The way of the guilty is devious, but the conduct of the innocent is upright.

Don't Live Just for Today

remain in the assembly of the dead. <sup>17</sup> He who loves pleasure shall be a poor man; he who loves wine and oil shall not be rich. <sup>18</sup> The wicked is a ransom for the righteous; the treacherous for the upright. <sup>19</sup> It is better to dwell in a desert land, than with a contentious and fretful woman. <sup>20</sup> There is precious treasure and oil in the dwelling of the wise; but a foolish man swallows it up. <sup>21</sup> He who follows after righteousness and kindness finds life, righteousness, and honour. <sup>22</sup> A wise man scales the city of the mighty, and brings down the strength of its confidence. <sup>23</sup> Whoever guards his mouth and his tongue keeps his soul from troubles. <sup>24</sup> The proud and haughty man, scoff-er is his name; he works in the arrogance of pride. <sup>25</sup> The desire of the lazy kills him, for his hands refuse to labour. <sup>26</sup> There are those who covet greedily all day long; but the righteous give and don't withhold. <sup>27</sup> The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination: how much more, when he brings it with a wicked mind!

21:13 We will all cry out for mercy and grace at the day of judgment. The mean may appear prosperous in this life, but we should live ever aware that we are spiritually poor because of our own bad decisions, just as the poor are often poor because of their own weaknesses and poor decision making; and we will cry out to God for His mercy at the last day. We therefore ought to be responsive to the cries of the poor today.

21:16 Remain in the assembly of the dead – The punishment for the wicked, including those who once walked with God, is eternal death, and not eternal conscious torment.

21:19 Solomon often interjects some comment about the misery of living with an unspiritual woman, apparently out of context with what he is writing about (:9 also). Although he was inspired in his writing, this may reflect how always weighing on his mind was the fact that his 1000 wives and concubines never brought him happiness but only a desire for isolationism from everybody (1 Kings 11:3); and he therefore keeps on making this kind of comment. Intimacy between persons can only be achieved God's way, which is through lifelong stable relationships bound together by Him (Mt. 19:6).

CHAPTER 22 Apr. 12

Discipline Provides the Answer

A good name is more desirable than great riches, and loving favour is better than silver and gold.

<sup>2</sup> The rich and the poor have this in common: Yahweh is the maker of them all. <sup>3</sup> A prudent man sees danger, and hides himself; but the simple pass on, and suffer for it. <sup>4</sup> The result of humility and the fear of Yahweh is wealth, honour, and life. <sup>5</sup> Thorns and snares are in the path of the wicked: whoever guards his soul stays away from them. <sup>6</sup> Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it. <sup>7</sup> The rich rule over the poor; the borrower is servant to the lender. <sup>8</sup> He who sows wickedness reaps trouble, and the rod of his fury will be destroyed. <sup>9</sup> He who has a generous eye will be blessed; for he shares his food with the poor. <sup>10</sup> Drive out the mocker, and strife will go out; yes, quarrels and insults will stop. <sup>11</sup> He who loves purity of heart and speaks gracefully is the king's friend. <sup>12</sup> The eyes of Yahweh watch over knowledge; but He frustrates the words of the unfaithful. <sup>13</sup> The lazy one says, There is a lion outside! I will be killed in the streets! <sup>14</sup> The mouth of an adulteress is a deep pit: he who is under Yahweh's wrath will fall into it. <sup>15</sup> Folly is bound up in the heart of a child: the rod of discipline drives it far from him. <sup>16</sup> Whoever

22:2 One implication of believing that God is our personal creator is that we will not be envious of the rich; we will not see them as so fundamentally different from ourselves.

22:4 Wealth, honour, and life – The gift of “life” surely refers to eternal life; this will be given at Christ's return along with wealth and honour.

22:5 Thorns and snares are in the path of the wicked – The Proverbs often allude to the Law of Moses or earlier Israelite history. Here the reference is to the only other time that “thorns and snares” occur together in the Bible, in Josh. 23:13, where Israel are warned that association and intermarriage with the pagan world around them will be as thorns and snares to them. The wicked therefore put these things in their own path; and again, Solomon makes this warning whilst failing spectacularly himself in this very thing.

22:6 God works with individuals and we are each independently judged regardless of whether we had believing or unbelieving parents, and so it cannot be that someone comes to the Kingdom simply because of faithful parents. And yet none of us will reach salvation purely by our own effort; there are other elements over and above that, and faithful parenting is one such element in the final algorithm which determines who is saved and who isn't. It's an endless motivation for parents, therefore, to raise their children in God's way.

oppresses the poor for his own increase and whoever gives to the rich, both come to poverty.

The Thirty Pieces of Advice

<sup>17</sup> Turn your ear, and listen to the words of the wise; apply your heart to my teaching. <sup>18</sup> For it is a pleasant thing if you keep them within you, if all of them are ready on your lips. <sup>19</sup> That your trust may be in Yahweh, I teach you today, even you. <sup>20</sup> Haven't I written to you thirty excellent things of counsel and knowledge, <sup>21</sup> to teach you truth, reliable words, to give sound answers to the ones who sent you? <sup>22</sup> Don't exploit the poor, because he is poor and don't crush the needy in court; <sup>23</sup> for Yahweh will plead their case, and plunder the life of those who plunder them. <sup>24</sup> Don't befriend a hot-tempered man, and don't associate with one who harbours anger: <sup>25</sup> lest you learn his ways, and ensnare your soul. <sup>26</sup> Don't you be one of those who strike hands, of those who are collateral for debts. <sup>27</sup> If you don't have means to pay, why should he take away your bed from under you? <sup>28</sup> Don't move the ancient boundary stone, which your fathers have set up. <sup>29</sup> Do you see a man skilled in his work? He will serve kings. He won't serve obscure men.

CHAPTER 23 Apr. 13

When you sit to eat with a ruler, consider diligently what is before you; <sup>2</sup> put a knife to your throat, if you are a man given to appetite. <sup>3</sup> Don't be desirous of his dainties, since they are deceitful food. <sup>4</sup> Don't weary yourself to be rich; in your wisdom, show restraint. <sup>5</sup> Why do you set your eyes on that which is not? For it certainly sprouts wings like an eagle and flies in the sky. <sup>6</sup> Don't eat the food of him who has a stingy eye, and don't crave his delicacies: <sup>7</sup> for as he thinks about the cost, so he is. Eat and drink! he says to you, but his heart is not with you. <sup>8</sup> The morsel which you have eaten you shall vomit up, and lose your good words. <sup>9</sup> Don't speak in the ears of a fool, for he will despise the wisdom of your words. <sup>10</sup> Don't move the ancient boundary stone; don't encroach on the fields of the fatherless; <sup>11</sup> for their Defender is strong, He will plead their case

22:16 Come to poverty – Considering that the wicked often prosper materially in this life, “poverty” must refer to poverty of spirit.

22:21 To the ones who sent you – People came to hear Solomon's wisdom from many nations (1 Kings 4:34), so the book of Proverbs was maybe first compiled as an answer to be sent back to them.

22:25 Bad company, even amongst the people of God, rubs off on us; we are more vulnerable to negative spiritual influences than we think.

23:5 He had all the right theory. Solomon was an active, industrious person by nature; and whilst all his many proverbs criticizing the lazy and glorifying the diligent are true as they stand, is there not in all this some element of self-justification, interpreting his own natural personality type as inherently righteous?

23:11 He will plead their case – God is here likened to the counsel for the defence in against you. <sup>12</sup> Apply your heart to instruction, and your ears to the words of knowledge. <sup>13</sup> Don't withhold correction from a child. If you punish him with the rod, he will not die. <sup>14</sup> Punish him with the rod, and save his soul from Sheol. <sup>15</sup> My son, if your heart is wise, then my heart will be glad, even mine: <sup>16</sup> yes, my heart will rejoice, when your lips speak what is right. <sup>17</sup> Don't let your heart envy sinners; but rather fear Yahweh all the day long. <sup>18</sup> Indeed surely there is a future hope, and your hope will not be cut off. <sup>19</sup> Listen, My son, and be wise, and keep your heart on the right path! <sup>20</sup> Don't keep company with those who drink too much wine, or those who gorge themselves on meat; <sup>21</sup> for the drunkard and the glutton shall become poor; and drowsiness clothes them in rags. <sup>22</sup> Listen to your father who gave you life, and don't despise your mother when she is old. <sup>23</sup> Buy the truth, and don't sell it. Get wisdom, discipline, and understanding. <sup>24</sup> The father of the righteous has great joy. Whoever fathers a wise child delights in him. <sup>25</sup> Let your father and your mother be glad! Let her who bore you rejoice! <sup>26</sup> My son, give me your heart; and let your eyes observe my ways. <sup>27</sup> For a prostitute is a deep pit; and a Gentile woman is a narrow well. <sup>28</sup> Yes, she lies in wait like a robber, and increases the unfaithful among men. <sup>29</sup> Who has woe? Who has sorrow? Who has strife? Who has complaints? Who has needless bruises? Who has bloodshot eyes? <sup>30</sup> Those who stay long at the wine; those who go to seek out mixed wine. <sup>31</sup> Don't look at the wine when it is red, when it sparkles in the cup, when it goes down smoothly. <sup>32</sup> In the end, it bites like a snake, and poisons like a viper. <sup>33</sup> Your eyes will see strange things, and your mind will imagine confusing things. <sup>34</sup> Yes, you will be as he who lies down in the midst

the final court of Divine justice. And yet He is also the judge of all. Each of the situations we find ourselves in is played out before the court of Heaven, and the judgment of the last day will be a statement of those judgments which are happening in our lives today. God hasn't as it were turned off from this world, to open the books at the end of history and see how we behaved; He is watching and passionately judging today.

23:17 Envy of others just isn't on our agenda if we are rejoicing in our relationship with God, and focused on the future hope we have of eternity in God's Kingdom at Christ's return (:18). These things eclipse any tendency to wish we were like the rich and powerful in this brief, fleeting life. See on 24:20.

23:26, 27 Even when married to Gentile women, Solomon could charge his son to "observe my ways. For... a Gentile woman is a narrow well". The fact he himself had fallen into the pit of marriage to unbelievers just didn't seem to occur to him; he was sure that he was in fact an upright example. This passage reflects more than many the extent to which Solomon's conscience was so deeply damaged. For he wasn't saying 'Do as I say but not as I do'. He was beyond that – doing the very wrong that he warned others not to do, and confidently presenting himself to them as a good example. The death of conscience is something we have to watch against all our days.

of the sea, or as he who lies on top of the rigging: <sup>35</sup> They hit me, and I was not hurt! They beat me, and I don't feel it! When will I wake up so that I can do it again?

The Ways of the Wise

Don't be envious of evil men; neither desire to be with them: <sup>2</sup> for their hearts plot violence, and their lips talk about mischief. <sup>3</sup> Through wisdom a house is built; by understanding it is established; <sup>4</sup> by knowledge the rooms are filled with all rare and beautiful treasure. <sup>5</sup> A wise man has great power and a knowledgeable man increases strength; <sup>6</sup> for by wise guidance you wage your war; and victory is in many advisors. <sup>7</sup> Wisdom is too high for a fool: he doesn't open his mouth in the gate. <sup>8</sup> One who plots to do evil will be called a schemer. <sup>9</sup> The schemes of folly are sin. The mocker is detested by men. <sup>10</sup> If you falter in the time of trouble, your strength is small. <sup>11</sup> Rescue those who are being led away to death! Indeed, hold back those who are staggering to the slaughter! <sup>12</sup> If you say, Behold, we didn't know this; doesn't He who weighs the hearts consider it? He who keeps your soul, doesn't He know it? Shall He not render to every man according to his work? <sup>13</sup> My son, eat honey, for it is good; the droppings of the honeycomb, which are sweet to your taste: <sup>14</sup> so you shall feel wisdom to be to your soul; if you have found it, then there will be a reward, your hope will not be cut off. <sup>15</sup> Don't lay in wait, wicked man, against the habitation of the righteous. Don't destroy his resting place: <sup>16</sup> for a righteous man falls seven times, and rises up again; but the wicked are overthrown by calamity. <sup>17</sup> Don't rejoice when your enemy falls, don't let your heart be glad when he is overthrown; <sup>18</sup> lest Yahweh see it, and it displease Him, and He turn away His wrath from him. <sup>19</sup> Don't fret yourself because of evildoers; neither be envious of the wicked: <sup>20</sup> for there will be no reward to the evil man; and the lamp of the wicked shall be snuffed out. <sup>21</sup> My son, fear Yahweh and the king. Don't join those who are rebellious: <sup>22</sup> for their calamity will rise suddenly; and who knows the destruction of them both?

24:12 As God keeps us from spiritual destruction, so we should try to keep others. We aren't to say within ourselves that we didn't realize that they were going wrong. This is a piercing analysis of our psychology; we hold back from the awkwardness of engagement with others about their life path because we kid ourselves that they are OK really.

24:16 The righteous fall, spiritually and materially – but rise up. This rising up again is one of the characteristics of the righteous, not being swamped by failure.

24:18 God is more angry with gloating over others' fall than over the fall itself.

24:20 Our hope of future, eternal reward at Christ's return means we will not be jealous of others (:19). See on 23:17.

Other Wise Sayings

<sup>23</sup> These also are sayings of the wise. To show partiality in judgment is not good. <sup>24</sup> He who says to the wicked, You are righteous; peoples shall curse him, and nations shall abhor him—<sup>25</sup> but it will go well with those who convict the guilty, and a rich blessing will come on them. <sup>26</sup> An honest answer is like a kiss on the lips. <sup>27</sup> Prepare your work outside, and get your fields ready. Afterwards, build your house. <sup>28</sup> Don't be a witness against your neighbour without cause. Don't deceive with your lips. <sup>29</sup> Don't say, I will do to him as he has done to me; I will render to the man according to his work. <sup>30</sup> I went by the field of the lazy, by the vineyard of the man void of understanding; <sup>31</sup> behold, it was all grown over with thorns. Its surface was covered with nettles, and its stone wall was broken down. <sup>32</sup> Then I saw, and considered well. I saw, and received instruction: <sup>33</sup> a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep; <sup>34</sup> so your poverty will come as a robber, and your want as an armed man.

These also are proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied out. <sup>2</sup> It is the glory of God to conceal a thing, but the glory of kings is to search out a matter. <sup>3</sup> As the heavens for height, and the earth for depth, so the hearts of kings are unsearchable. <sup>4</sup> Take away the dross from the silver, and material comes out for the refiner;

24:25 The Proverbs give so much advice about judgment. At first sight it may appear directed to the tiny minority within Israel who were called to be judges; but whilst we cannot condemn others, we are to judge righteously, to have righteous opinions and draw spiritual conclusions about life situations. This is why we have so much advice about how to 'judge'.

24:29 I will render to the man according to his work – We are not to say this, because Christ is coming to judge and render to each person according to their work (Rev. 22:12). We can know great peace from resigning the need to render others their judgment.

25:3 When Solomon laments that a sinful land has many rulers, but stability comes from a wise ruler (28:2), he is stating an inspired truth; but it is inevitable that he framed it in such terms as justified his own dictatorial rule, as if his wisdom justified him in crushing any opposition leaders. It was really Solomon's self-justification. Solomon taught that the heart of kings is unsearchable, i.e., it cannot be examined, being as far above the earth as heaven is. Solomon thought that his possession of theoretical wisdom placed him in a God-like position above his people, and therefore they dare not even begin to question him or examine him; and none should therefore dare to 'exalt himself' in the King's presence (:6). Truly, "knowledge puffs up". And our very possession of 'the truth' of Christ and the word of God carries with it the same potential temptations, leading us to consider the world so far beneath us, that we can do what we wish with no accountability to anyone.

<sup>5</sup> remove the wicked from the king's presence, and his throne will be established in righteousness. <sup>6</sup> Don't exalt yourself in the presence of the king, or claim a place among great men; <sup>7</sup> for it is better that it be said to you, Come up here, than that you should be put lower in the presence of the prince, whom your eyes have seen. <sup>8</sup> Don't be hasty in bringing charges to court. What will you do in the end when your neighbour shames you? <sup>9</sup> Debate your case with your neighbour, and don't betray the confidence of another; <sup>10</sup> lest one who hears it put you to shame, and your bad reputation never depart. <sup>11</sup> A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in settings of silver. <sup>12</sup> As an earring of gold, and an ornament of fine gold, so is a wise reprover to an obedient ear. <sup>13</sup> As the cold of snow in the time of harvest, so is a faithful messenger to those who send him; for he refreshes the soul of his masters. <sup>14</sup> As clouds and wind without rain, so is he who boasts of gifts deceptively. <sup>15</sup> By patience a ruler is persuaded; a soft tongue breaks the bone.

Causes of Misery and Joy

<sup>16</sup> Have you found honey? Eat as much as is sufficient for you, lest you eat too much and vomit it. <sup>17</sup> Let your foot be seldom in your neighbour's house, lest he be weary of you and hate you. <sup>18</sup> A man who gives false testimony against his neighbour is like a club, a sword, or a sharp arrow. <sup>19</sup> Confidence in someone unfaithful in time of trouble is like a bad tooth or a lame foot. <sup>20</sup> As one who takes away a garment in cold weather, or vinegar on soda, so is one who sings songs to a heavy heart. <sup>21</sup> If your enemy is hungry, give him food to eat. If he is thirsty, give him water to drink: <sup>22</sup> for you will heap coals of fire on his head, and Yahweh will reward you. <sup>23</sup> The north wind brings forth rain: so a backbiting tongue brings an angry face. <sup>24</sup> It is better to dwell in the corner of the housetop, than to share a house with a contentious woman. <sup>25</sup> Like cold water to a thirsty soul, so is good news from a far country. <sup>26</sup> Like a muddied spring, and a polluted well, so is a righteous man who gives way before the wicked. <sup>27</sup> It is not good to eat much honey; nor is it honourable to seek one's own honour. <sup>28</sup> Like a city that is broken down and without walls is a man whose spirit is without restraint.

25:5 This was justifying the way Solomon killed Shimei at the establishment of his kingdom. His teaching of wisdom is constantly mixed with self-justification; our preaching must never be like this. See on 29:7.

25:7 Jesus says that this is exactly what will happen at the day of judgment (Lk. 14:10).

25:16 Solomon warns about only eating a limited amount of the honey you may find. Yet Ecclesiastes 1 and 2 show how Solomon found honey as it were, he had the opportunity to do and experience what he wanted – and he ate so much he became spiritually sick.

25:22 This is applied to each of us in Rom. 12:20.

CHAPTER 26 Apr. 16The Folly of Fools

Like snow in summer and as rain in harvest, so honour is not fitting for a fool. <sup>2</sup> Like a fluttering sparrow, like a darting swallow, so the undeserved curse doesn't come to rest. <sup>3</sup> A whip is for the horse, a bridle for the donkey, and a rod for the back of fools! <sup>4</sup> Don't answer a fool according to his folly, lest you also be like him. <sup>5</sup> Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own eyes. <sup>6</sup> One who sends a message by the hand of a fool is cutting off his own feet and drinking violence. <sup>7</sup> Like the legs of the lame that hang loose: so is a parable in the mouth of fools. <sup>8</sup> As one who binds a stone in a sling, so is he who gives honour to a fool. <sup>9</sup> Like a thorn that goes into the hand of a drunk person, so is a parable in the mouth of fools. <sup>10</sup> As an archer who wounds all, so is he who hires a fool or he who hires those who pass by. <sup>11</sup> As a dog that returns to his vomit, so is a fool who repeats his folly. <sup>12</sup> Do you see a man wise in his own eyes? There is more hope for a fool than for him. <sup>13</sup> The lazy person says, There is a lion in the road! A fierce lion roams the streets! <sup>14</sup> As the door turns on its hinges, so does the lazy one on his bed. <sup>15</sup> The lazy one buries his hand in the dish; he is too lazy to bring it back to his mouth.

The Power of Bad Words

26:4, 5 These verses don't contradict, rather the intention is to teach us that we must treat people in different ways at different times; sometimes we should say something, others we should remain silent. It is wisdom which teaches us. It's too simplistic to respond to people the same way every time.

26:11 This verse is applied in 2 Pet. 2:22 to baptized Christian believers who return to their old way of life. The implication is that at our conversion we as it were vomited up our old way of life; to return to it is as vile as a dog returning to its own vomit.

26:13 Laziness is often justified as caution.

26:16 Just assuming that we are right and refusing to be self-critical, allowing discretion or wisdom to teach us, is a form of laziness.

26:22 We all naturally like to hear gossip, we find it tasty; let's not deceive ourselves that actually, we aren't like that; we are, and must make conscious effort not to listen to it.

is charming, don't believe him; for there are seven abominations in his heart. <sup>26</sup> His malice may be concealed by deception, but his wickedness will be exposed in the assembly. <sup>27</sup> Whoever digs a pit shall fall into it; whoever rolls a stone, it will come back on him. <sup>28</sup> A lying tongue hates those it hurts; and a flattering mouth works ruin.

CHAPTER 27 Apr. 17

Faithfulness to Friends and Recognising True Values

Don't boast about tomorrow; for you don't know what a day may bring forth. <sup>2</sup> Let another man praise you, and not your own mouth; a stranger, and not your own lips. <sup>3</sup> A stone is heavy and sand is a burden;

but a fool's provocation is heavier than both. <sup>4</sup> Wrath is cruel and anger is overwhelming; but who is able to stand before jealousy? <sup>5</sup> Better is open rebuke than hidden love. <sup>6</sup> Faithful are the wounds of a friend; although the kisses of an enemy are profuse. <sup>7</sup> A full soul loathes a honeycomb; but to a hungry soul, every bitter thing is sweet. <sup>8</sup> As a bird that wanders from her nest, so is a man who wanders from his home. <sup>9</sup> Perfume and incense bring joy to the heart; so does earnest counsel from a man's friend. <sup>10</sup> Don't forsake your friend and your father's friend. Don't go to your brother's house in the day of your disaster: better is a neighbour who is near than a distant brother. <sup>11</sup> Be wise, my son, and bring joy to

26:26 Exposed in the assembly – Yet the wicked prosper in this life, and often go to their graves without their deceitful words having been revealed. Yet they shall be exposed “in the assembly”. There is a theme in Bible teaching about the day of judgment, that our individual judgment will somehow be visible to all (Lk. 12:1-3; Rev. 16:15). All our secret words, thoughts and real intentions will then be made public to all; there's therefore no point to be hypocritical in this life, thinking we have cleverly hidden our real positions and feelings, because ultimately all will be public knowledge to everyone for eternity.

27:1 James 4:14,15 alludes to this verse, teaching that our speech should be characterized by frequent statements that our plans are “God willing” or “If the Lord will”.

27:5 The implication is that if we love someone, we must show it – and that may require us to rebuke them at times, as a reflection of that love we have for them (:6).

27:7 To a hungry soul, every bitter thing is sweet – The context of the surrounding verses speak of loving friends rebuking their friends in love. So the idea may be that we are all spiritually hungry, and the bitterness of receiving rebuke from our friends will therefore be sweet to us. It's the spiritually proud, who consider themselves full, who have no liking for rebuke.

27:10 This whole section teaches the importance of having faithful, spiritually minded friends. True fellowship within the family of God's people means that we can relate to each other as if we really are natural family. The idea of ‘out of church Christians’ is a contradiction in terms; we are designed to develop spiritually as a result of true fellowship with other believers. Poor church experiences shouldn't lead us to retreat within ourselves, because there is no path to growth within the body of God's people if we cut ourselves off from them (Jn. 15:5).

my heart, then I can answer my tormentor. <sup>12</sup> A prudent man sees danger and takes refuge; but the simple pass on and suffer for it. <sup>13</sup> Take his garment when he puts up collateral for a stranger; hold it for a wayward woman! <sup>14</sup> He who blesses his neighbour with a loud voice early in the morning, it will be taken as a curse by him. <sup>15</sup> A continual dropping on a rainy day and a contentious wife are alike: <sup>16</sup> restraining her is like restraining the wind, or like grasping oil in his right hand.

Your Heart Shows in Your Face

to all generations. <sup>25</sup> The hay is removed, and the new growth appears, the grasses of the hills are gathered in. <sup>26</sup> The lambs are for your clothing, and the goats are the price of a field. <sup>27</sup> There will be plenty of goats' milk for your food, for your family's food, and for the nourishment of your servant girls.

If You Turn Aside from God's Law

The wicked flee when no one pursues; but the righteous are as bold as a lion. <sup>2</sup> In rebellion, a land has many rulers, but order is maintained by a man of understanding and knowledge. <sup>3</sup> A needy man who oppresses the poor is like a driving rain which leaves no crops. <sup>4</sup> Those who forsake the law praise the wicked; but those who keep the law contend with them. <sup>5</sup> Evil men don't understand justice; but those who seek Yahweh understand it fully. <sup>6</sup> Better is the poor who walks in his integrity, than he who is perverse in his ways, and he is rich. <sup>7</sup> Whoever keeps the law is a wise son; but he who is a companion of gluttons shames his father. <sup>8</sup> He who increases his wealth by excessive interest gathers it for one who has pity on the poor. <sup>9</sup> He who turns away his ear from hear-

27:21 How we respond to praise is an indicator of who we really are spiritually, because our response will indicate whether we are proud or humble.

28:2 See on 25:3.

28:5 Those who seek Yahweh understand it fully – Note the paradox between 'seeking' and 'fully 'understanding'. The seeker recognizes he hasn't yet arrived at full understanding; but that process of humble seeking God is in fact reckoned as 'fully understanding'.

28:9 Our attitude to God's word is related to the effectiveness of our prayers; insofar as God's word abides in us, we will ask for things which God will grant (Jn. 15:7), and

ing the law, even his prayer is an abomination. <sup>10</sup> Whoever causes the upright to go astray in an evil way, he will fall into his own trap; but the blameless will inherit good. <sup>11</sup> The rich man is wise in his own eyes; but the poor who has understanding sees through him. <sup>12</sup> When the righteous triumph, there is great glory; but when the wicked rise, men hide themselves. <sup>13</sup> He who conceals his sins doesn't prosper, but whoever confesses and renounces them finds mercy. <sup>14</sup> Blessed is the man who always fears; but one who hardens his heart falls into trouble. <sup>15</sup> As a roaring lion or a charging bear, so is a wicked ruler over helpless people. <sup>16</sup> A tyrannical ruler lacks judgment. One who hates ill-gotten gain will have long days. <sup>17</sup> A man who is tormented by having taken life blood will be a fugitive until death; no one will support him. <sup>18</sup> Whoever walks blamelessly is kept safe; but one with perverse ways will fall suddenly.

Great Harm in Apparently Harmless Ways

<sup>19</sup> One who works his land will have an abundance of food; but one who chases fantasies will have his fill of poverty. <sup>20</sup> A faithful man is rich with blessings; but one who is eager to be rich will not go unpunished. <sup>21</sup> To show partiality is not good; yet a man will do wrong for a piece of bread. <sup>22</sup> A stingy man hurries after riches, and doesn't know that poverty waits for him. <sup>23</sup> One who rebukes a man will afterward find more favour than one who flatters with the tongue. <sup>24</sup> Whoever robs his father or his mother and says, It's not wrong is a partner with a destroyer. <sup>25</sup> One who is greedy stirs up strife; but one who trusts in Yahweh will prosper. <sup>26</sup> One who trusts in himself is a fool; but one who walks in wisdom is kept safe. <sup>27</sup> One who gives to the poor has no lack; but one who closes his eyes will have many curses. <sup>28</sup> When the wicked rise, men hide

we will ask in faith, because faith comes from hearing God's word (Rom. 10:17). The various aspects of the believing life, e.g. prayer and Bible reading, mesh together to produce an upward spiritual of spiritual development.

28:11 The problem with wealth is the illusion it brings that everything can be bought for a price, including wisdom and spirituality. It's not surprising therefore that the majority of God's people have been kept poor by Him.

28:14 Blessed is the man who always fears – This is in designed contrast to the way :1 speaks of the righteous as bold as a lion, and the wicked as fearful. The 'fear' spoken of here must refer to a fear of God, of sinning against Him – and this, paradoxically, makes us not nervous, but bold and positive in our life path.

28:21 People will betray others and do and say awful things to them just in the hope of a tiny material advantage to them. Judas' betrayal of Christ can be read as largely motivated by a love of money, and a relatively small sum too.

28:25 Seeking after wealth is contrasted with trusting in Yahweh – i.e. in His promise to provide our daily bread and clothing.

28:27 One who closes his eyes – This is the opposite of 'giving to the poor'. We often fail to be generous spirited (and we can give to the poor in many ways apart from themselves; but when they perish, the righteous thrive.

CHAPTER 29 Apr. 19

Consequences of Bad Government

He who is often rebuked and stiffens his neck will be destroyed suddenly, with no remedy. <sup>2</sup> When the righteous thrive, the people rejoice; but when the wicked rule, the people groan. <sup>3</sup> Whoever loves wisdom brings joy to his father; but a companion of prostitutes squanders his wealth. <sup>4</sup> The king by justice makes the land stable, but he who takes bribes tears it down. <sup>5</sup> A man who flatters his neighbour spreads a net for his own feet. <sup>6</sup> An evil man is snared by his sin, but the righteous can sing and rejoice. <sup>7</sup> The righteous care about justice for the poor; the wicked aren't concerned about knowledge. <sup>8</sup> Mockers stir up a city, but wise men turn away anger. <sup>9</sup> If a wise man goes to court with a foolish man, the fool rages or scoffs, and there is no peace. <sup>10</sup> The bloodthirsty hate a man of integrity; and they seek the life of the upright. <sup>11</sup> A fool vents all of his anger, but a wise man brings himself under control. <sup>12</sup> If a ruler listens to lies, all of his officials are wicked. <sup>13</sup> The poor man and the oppressor have this in common: Yahweh gives sight to the eyes of both. <sup>14</sup> The king who fairly judges the poor, his throne shall be established forever.

The Value of Correction

financially) because we pretend we didn't notice human need, we close the eyes of our perception to the situations we encounter. Notice how deeply our psychology is penetrated by the Proverbs!

29:7 This sounds like a reference to the way Solomon judged the two prostitutes. See on 25:5.

29:14 Solomon is clearly referring to the promises to David, which he assumed were about him. He thought that because he had judged the poor harlots wisely, therefore he would be the promised Messiah. And this was just what David his father had hoped and expected of him. David had even asked Solomon to "do wisely" i.e. to show wisdom, in order that the promises to him about Messiah would be fulfilled (1 Kings 2:3). So this was surely one of Solomon's motives in giving them justice and being 'wise'; he sought to live out his father's expectations and to fulfil the requirements of the Messiah figure. Solomon uses language elsewhere used about Messiah's final judgment and applies it to himself in 20:26. He felt that his judgment must be that of God, therefore he had to be right, because he 'had wisdom', he 'had the truth'; he assumed that because he was the king, therefore his heart would inevitably be guided by the Lord (21:1). Those raised in wisdom's way often find it very hard to take criticism in later life. They find tolerance of others' views hard; they perceive themselves to be right to an intolerant extent. Is this not a little bit of the Solomon syndrome?

Divine revelation, the people cast off restraint; but one who keeps the law is blessed. <sup>19</sup> A servant can't be corrected by words; although he understands, yet he will not respond. <sup>20</sup> Do you see a man hasty in his words? There is more hope for a fool than for him. <sup>21</sup> He who pampers his servant from youth will have him become a son in the end. <sup>22</sup> An angry man stirs up strife, and a wrathful man abounds in sin. <sup>23</sup> A man's pride brings him low, but one of lowly spirit gains honour. <sup>24</sup> Whoever is an accomplice of a thief is an enemy of his own soul; he takes an oath, but dares not testify. <sup>25</sup> The fear of man proves to be a snare, but whoever puts his trust in Yahweh is kept safe. <sup>26</sup> Many seek the ruler's favour, but a man's justice comes from Yahweh. <sup>27</sup> A dishonest man detests the righteous, and the upright in their ways detest the wicked.

The Words of Agur

The words of Agur the son of Jakeh, the oracle: the man said to Ithiel, even to Ithiel and Ucal: <sup>2</sup> Surely I am the most ignorant man, and don't have a man's understanding. <sup>3</sup> I have not learned wisdom, neither do I have the knowledge of the Holy One. <sup>4</sup> Who has ascended up into heaven, and descended? Who has gathered the wind in his fists? Who has bound the waters in his garment? Who has established all the ends of the earth? What is his name, and what is his son's name, if you know? <sup>5</sup> Every word of God is flawless. He is a shield to those who take refuge in Him. <sup>6</sup> Don't you add to His words, lest He reprove you, and you be found a liar. <sup>7</sup> Two things I have asked of You; don't deny me before I die: <sup>8</sup> Remove far from me falsehood and lies. Give me neither poverty nor riches. Feed me with the food that is needful for me; <sup>9</sup> lest I be full, deny You, and say, 'Who is Yahweh?', or lest I be poor, and steal, and so dishonour the name of my God. <sup>10</sup> Don't accuse a servant along with his master, lest he curse you, and you be held guilty. <sup>11</sup> There is a generation that curses their fa-

30:6 Although we may accept that the Bible is indeed inspired by God, we have a tendency to add to God's word in that we are tempted to look elsewhere for truth. Because God's word is true ("flawless", :5) any other word is relatively speaking untrue, a lie. Having stated that he himself is ignorant, Agur is directing his pupils to God's word; he recognized that wisdom cannot come from within a teacher, but only from God's word which is taught by the teacher.

30:8 Feed me with the food that is needful for me – Maybe Jesus was influenced by this in commanding us to ask God each day to give us the food necessary for the day (Mt. 6:11).

30:10 Along with his master – Household servants were considered as one with their master. But Agur is teaching that we shouldn't operate guilt by association, but instead recognize that even the humblest member of a community is still an individual and independent person both before God and ourselves.

30:10, 11 Curses... doesn't bless – Note how sins of omission [to not bless, in this case] are parallel with sins of commission [to curse].

ther, and doesn't bless their mother. <sup>12</sup> There is a generation that is pure in their own eyes, yet are not washed from their filthiness. <sup>13</sup> There is a generation, oh how proud are their eyes! Their eyelids are lifted up. <sup>14</sup> There is a generation whose teeth are like swords, and their jaws like knives, to devour the poor from the earth, and the needy from among men.

Four Things Never Satisfied

<sup>15</sup> The leach has two daughters: 'Give, give'. There are three things that are never satisfied; four that don't say, 'Enough.' <sup>16</sup> Sheol; the barren womb; the earth that is not satisfied with water; and the fire that doesn't say, 'Enough'. <sup>17</sup> The eye that mocks at his father, and scorns obedience to his mother: the ravens of the valley shall pick it out, the young eagles shall eat it.

Four Things too Amazing

<sup>18</sup> There are three things which are too amazing for me, four which I don't understand: <sup>19</sup> The way of an eagle in the air; the way of a serpent on a rock; the way of a ship in the midst of the sea; and the way of a man with a maiden. <sup>20</sup> So is the way of an adulterous woman: she eats and wipes her mouth, and says, 'I have done nothing wrong'.

Four Intolerable Things

<sup>21</sup> For three things the earth trembles, and under four, it can't bear up: <sup>22</sup> For a servant when he is king; a fool when he is filled with food; <sup>23</sup> for an unloved woman when she is married; and a handmaid who is heir to her mistress.

Four Amazing Things

<sup>24</sup> There are four things which are little on the earth, but they are exceedingly wise: <sup>25</sup> The ants are not a strong people, yet they provide their food in the summer. <sup>26</sup> The conies are but a feeble folk, yet make they their houses in the rocks. <sup>27</sup> The locusts have no king, yet they advance in ranks. <sup>28</sup> You can catch a lizard with your hands, yet it is in kings' palaces.

Four Dignified Things

<sup>29</sup> There are three things which are stately in their march, four which are stately in going: <sup>30</sup> The lion, which is mightiest among animals, and doesn't turn away for any; <sup>31</sup> the greyhound, the male goat also; and the king against whom there is no rising up. <sup>32</sup> If you have done foolishly

30:12 The fact we may feel no conscience for sin isn't any cleansing from it; the only effective washing from sin is through baptism into Christ, not playing mind games with ourselves whereby we don't feel bad about our sins.

30:20 There's a connection between the things of :18,19 and the adulterous woman who thinks she has done no wrong. Those things of :18,19 leave no visible trace. Because there is at times no trace of sins like adultery, they fade away as the path of a ship through the sea does, we aren't to think that God doesn't notice and that they will not be brought to judgment.

in lifting up yourself, or if you have thought evil, put your hand over your mouth. <sup>33</sup> For as the churning of milk brings forth butter, and the wringing of the nose brings forth blood; so the churning of wrath brings forth judgment.

Make a Case for Justice

The words of king Lemuel; the oracle with which his mother warned him. <sup>2</sup> Oh, my son! Oh, son of my womb! Oh, son of my vows! <sup>3</sup> Don't give your strength to women, nor your ways to that which destroys kings. <sup>4</sup> It is not for kings, Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine; nor for princes to say, 'Where is strong drink?' <sup>5</sup> lest they drink and forget the law, and pervert the justice due to anyone who is afflicted. <sup>6</sup> Give strong drink to him who is ready to perish; and wine to the bitter in soul: <sup>7</sup> let him drink, and forget his poverty, and remember his misery no more. <sup>8</sup> Open your mouth for the mute, in the cause of all who are left desolate. <sup>9</sup> Open your mouth, judge righteously, and serve justice to the poor and needy.

The Worthy Woman

<sup>10</sup> Who can find a worthy woman? For her price is far above rubies. <sup>11</sup> The heart of her husband trusts in her; he shall have no lack of profit. <sup>12</sup> She does him good and not harm all the days of her life. <sup>13</sup> She seeks wool and flax and works eagerly with her hands. <sup>14</sup> She is like the merchant ships; she brings her food from afar. <sup>15</sup> She rises also while it is yet night, gives food to her household and portions for her servant girls. <sup>16</sup> She considers a field and then buys it. With the fruit of her hands she plants a vineyard. <sup>17</sup> She arms her waist with strength and makes her arms strong. <sup>18</sup> She perceives that her merchandise is profitable. Her lamp doesn't go out by night; <sup>19</sup> she lays her hands to the distaff, and her hands hold the spindle. <sup>20</sup> She opens her arms to the

30:32, 33 Just as the things of :30,31 are inexorable in their march and will not be deflected by anything, so just as surely judgment will come for sin, and we must repent rather than continuing to churn up Divine judgment against us.

31:1 Lemuel – An equivalent name for Solomon, having a similar meaning to Solomon's other name, Jedediah (2 Sam. 12:25). This chapter would therefore be the inspired words of his mother Bathsheba.

31:3 Bathsheba was warning Solomon not to make the mistake his father David had, who destroyed his family for the sake of his adultery with Bathsheba. The warning against sinning with women under the influence of alcohol, which would lead the king to forget God's law, could suggest that David sinned with Bathsheba whilst under the influence of alcohol.

31:8 There are those who whilst not physically mute are relatively voiceless; and we are to be a voice for them, to speak up for those who can't speak for themselves.

31:15 Portions for her servant girls – The wise woman is great because she serves those who are her servants; we see here the New Testament principle of servant leadership.

poor; yes, she extends her hands to the needy. <sup>21</sup> She is not afraid of the snow for her household; for all her household are clothed with scarlet. <sup>22</sup> She makes for herself carpets of tapestry, her clothing is fine linen and purple. <sup>23</sup> Her husband is respected in the gates, when he sits among the elders of the land. <sup>24</sup> She makes linen garments and sells them, and delivers sashes to the merchant. <sup>25</sup> Strength and dignity are her clothing, she laughs at the time to come.

CHAPTER 1 Apr. 22

The Vanity of Life 'Under the Sun'

The words of the Preacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem: <sup>2</sup> Vanity of vanities, says the Preacher; Vanity of vanities, all is vanity. What does man gain from all his labour in which he labours under the sun? <sup>4</sup> One generation goes, and another generation comes; but the earth remains forever. <sup>5</sup> The sun also rises, and the sun goes down, and hurries to its place where it rises. <sup>6</sup> The wind goes toward the south, and turns around to the north. It turns around continually as it goes, and the wind returns again to its courses. <sup>7</sup> All the rivers run into the sea, yet the sea is not full. To the place where the rivers flow, there they flow again. <sup>8</sup> All things are full of weariness beyond uttering. The eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing. <sup>9</sup> That which has been is that which shall be; and that which has been done is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun. <sup>10</sup> Is there a thing of which it may be said, Behold, this is new? It has been long ago, in the ages which were before us. <sup>11</sup> There is no memory of the former; neither shall there be any memory of the latter that are to come, among those that shall come after.

The Preacher Decides to Search for Wisdom

<sup>12</sup> I, the Preacher, was king over Israel in Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup> I applied my heart to seek and to search out by wisdom concerning all that is done under the sky. It is a heavy burden that God has given to the sons of men to be afflicted with. <sup>14</sup> I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and behold, all is vanity and a chasing after wind. <sup>15</sup> That which is crooked can't be made straight; and that which is lacking can't be counted. <sup>16</sup> I said to myself, Behold, I have obtained for myself great wisdom above all who were before me in Jerusalem. Yes, my heart has had great experience of wisdom and knowledge. <sup>17</sup> I applied my heart to know wisdom, and to know madness and folly. I perceived that this also was a chasing after wind. <sup>18</sup> For in much wisdom is much grief; and he

1:4 The earth remains forever – It is God's promised plan to establish His eternal Kingdom on this earth; He will not destroy it. The Biblical descriptions of "heaven and earth" being destroyed are to be read as figurative of the destruction of the present world order, rather than literally.

1:12 This book appears to be the meditations of Solomon at the end of his life. He had been given Divine wisdom and retained it (2:9), but he rejected its claim upon him personally. He therefore says much which is true, and yet he speaks with the cynicism of the person who has rejected the true faith for himself whilst still offering it to others, especially the young. This explains the apparently contradictory strands of teaching within the book.

CHAPTER 2 Apr. 23

The Preacher Seeks for Satisfaction in Pleasure

I said in my heart, Come now, I will test you with mirth: therefore enjoy pleasure; and behold, this also was vanity. <sup>2</sup> I said of laughter, It is foolishness; and of mirth, What does it accomplish?

<sup>3</sup> I searched in my heart how to cheer my flesh with wine, my heart yet guiding me with wisdom, and how to lay hold of folly, until I might see what it was good for the sons of men that they should do under heaven all the days of their lives. <sup>4</sup> I made myself great works. I built myself houses. I planted myself vineyards. <sup>5</sup> I made myself gardens and parks, and I planted trees in them of all kinds of fruit. <sup>6</sup> I made myself pools of water, to water from it the forest where trees were reared. <sup>7</sup> I bought male servants and female servants, and had servants born in my house. I also had great possessions of herds and flocks, above all who were before me in Jerusalem; <sup>8</sup> I also gathered silver and gold for myself, and the treasure of kings and of the provinces. I got myself male and female singers, and the delights of the sons of men—musical instruments, and that of all sorts. <sup>9</sup> So I was great, and increased more than all who were before me in Jerusalem. My wisdom also remained with me. <sup>10</sup> Whatever my eyes desired, I didn't keep from them. I didn't withhold my heart from any joy, for my heart rejoiced because of all my labour, and this was my portion from all my labour. <sup>11</sup> Then I looked at all the works that my hands had worked, and at the labour that I had laboured to do; and behold, all was vanity and a chasing after wind, and there was no profit under the sun.

The Preacher Despairs of Earthly Life

<sup>12</sup> I turned myself to consider wisdom, madness, and folly: for what can the king's successor do? Just that which has been done long ago. <sup>13</sup> Then I saw that wisdom excels folly, as far as light excels darkness. <sup>14</sup> The wise man's eyes are in his head, and the fool walks in darkness—and yet I perceived that one event happens to them all. <sup>15</sup> Then I said in my heart, As it happens to the fool, so will it happen even to me; and why was I then more wise? Then I said in my heart that this also is vanity. <sup>16</sup> For of the wise man, even as of the fool, there is no memory for ever, since in the days to come all will have been long forgotten. Indeed, the wise man must die just like the fool! <sup>17</sup> So I hated life, because the work that is worked under the sun was grievous to me; for all

2:9 Solomon insists that throughout his life, his wisdom had remained with him. The theoretical wisdom which he had did not affect his life practically, and thus it was as if he lacked wisdom completely. Mere possession of truth leads to great temptations – for like Solomon, we can reason that this alone justifies us in any behaviour.

is vanity and a chasing after wind. <sup>18</sup> I hated all my labour in which I laboured under the sun, because I must leave it to the man who comes after me. <sup>19</sup> Who knows whether he will be a wise man or a fool? Yet he will have rule over all of my labour in which I have laboured, and in which I have shown myself wise under the sun. This also is vanity. <sup>20</sup> Therefore I began to cause my heart to despair concerning all the labour in which I had laboured under the sun. <sup>21</sup> For there is a man whose labour is with wisdom, with knowledge, and with skilfulness; yet he shall leave it for his portion to a man who has not laboured for it. This also is vanity and a great evil. <sup>22</sup> For what has a man of all his labour, and of the striving of his heart, in which he labours under the sun? <sup>23</sup> For all his days are sorrows, and his travail is grief; yes, even in the night his heart takes no rest. This also is vanity. <sup>24</sup> There is nothing better for a man than that he should eat and drink, and make his soul enjoy good in his labour. This also I saw, that it is from the hand of God. <sup>25</sup> For who can eat, or who can have enjoyment, more than I? <sup>26</sup> For to the man who pleases him, God gives wisdom, knowledge, and joy;

but to the sinner He gives travail, to gather and to heap up, that He may give to him who pleases God. This also is vanity and a chasing after wind.

A Time for All Things.

For everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under heaven: <sup>2</sup> a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; <sup>3</sup> a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; <sup>4</sup> a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; <sup>5</sup> a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; <sup>6</sup> a time to seek, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; <sup>7</sup> a time to tear, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; <sup>8</sup> a time to love, and a time to hate; a time for war, and a time for peace.

The Hand of God in the Midst of Human Frustrations.

<sup>9</sup> What profit has he who works in that in which he labours? <sup>10</sup> I have seen the burden which God has giv-

2:18, 21 Solomon saw “wisdom” as something he had worked for [forgetting it was God’s gracious gift to him], and he treated it as a material possession. Because he saw that he couldn’t take it with him, he felt therefore it was useless – he didn’t, it seems, want to leave it to his son because he felt it was only for him. This was the spirit of the man who buried his talent of Divine Truth in the ground and thought that would be enough – he wouldn’t risk it with others or share it with them. And so Solomon ended up hating all his labour for wisdom because at the end of his life that mere knowledge and teaching of it to others hadn’t transformed his personal life. The rejected at the day of judgment may well, tragically, feel the same. But now is the time to personally apply God’s Truth to ourselves and to be humbled by the very possession of it.

en to the sons of men to be afflicted with. <sup>11</sup> He has made everything beautiful in its time. He has also set eternity in their hearts, yet so that man can't find out the work that God has done from the beginning even to the end. <sup>12</sup> I know that there is nothing better for them than to rejoice, and to do good as long as they live. <sup>13</sup> Also that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy good in all his labour, is the gift of God. <sup>14</sup> I know that whatever God does, it shall be forever. Nothing can be added to it, nor anything taken from it; and God has done it, that men should fear before Him. <sup>15</sup> That which is has been long ago, and that which is to be has been long ago: and God seeks again that which is passed away. <sup>16</sup> Moreover I saw under the sun, in the place of justice, that wickedness was there; and in the place of righteousness, that wickedness was there. <sup>17</sup> I said in my heart, God will judge the righteous and the wicked; for there is a time there for every purpose and for every work. <sup>18</sup> I said in my heart, As for the sons of men, God tests them, so that they may see that they themselves are like animals. <sup>19</sup> For that which happens to the sons of men happens to animals. Even one thing happens to them. As the one dies, so the other dies. Yes, they have all one breath; and man has no advantage over the animals: for all is vanity. <sup>20</sup> All go to one place. All are from the dust, and all turn to dust again. <sup>21</sup> Who knows the spirit of man, whether it goes upward, and the spirit of the animal, whether it goes downward to the earth? <sup>22</sup> Therefore I saw that there is nothing better, than that a man should rejoice in his works; for that is his portion: for who can bring him to see what will be after him?

The Preacher Observes Oppression and Loneliness

Then I returned and saw all the oppressions that are done under the sun: and behold, the tears of those who were oppressed, and they had no comforter; and on the side of their oppressors there was power; but they had no comforter. <sup>2</sup> Therefore I praised the dead who have been long dead more than the living who

3:19 One and the same spirit – The Hebrew word translated “spirit” has a wide range of meaning, but includes the idea of “breath”. By nature, man and the animals are the same. The same thing happens when we die; and Solomon so wished that men would perceive this whilst they were alive (:18) so that they would give themselves to God the more fully. There’s no difference in where the spirit goes after death, whether we are man, animal or plant (:21). We are made of dust and will return to dust; the spirit, or life force which animates us, returns to God, whether we are good or bad. Those who are responsible to God will be resurrected and judged; the wicked will die for ever, the second death, again returning to dust; and those counted righteous by God’s grace will live for ever with immortal bodies in His eternal Kingdom on earth. There is no conscious survival of death taught in the Bible; we’re not born with any ‘immortal soul’. This is a non-Christian idea. Immortality is only revealed to those who are in Christ (2 Tim. 1:10).

are yet alive. <sup>3</sup> Yes, better than them both is him who has not yet been, who has not seen the evil work that is done under the sun. <sup>4</sup> Then I saw all the labour and achievement that is the envy of a man's neighbour. This also is vanity and a striving after wind. <sup>5</sup> The fool folds his hands together and ruins himself. <sup>6</sup> Better is a handful, with quietness, than two handfuls with labour and chasing after wind. <sup>7</sup> Then I returned and saw vanity under the sun. <sup>8</sup> There is one who is alone, and he has neither son nor brother. There is no end to all of his labour, neither are his eyes satisfied with wealth. For whom then, do I labour, and deprive my soul of enjoyment? This also is vanity. Yes, it is a miserable business. <sup>9</sup> Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their labour. <sup>10</sup> For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow; but woe to him who is alone when he falls, and doesn't have another to lift him up. <sup>11</sup> Again, if two lie together, then they have warmth; but how can one keep warm alone? <sup>12</sup> If a man prevails against one who is alone, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken. <sup>13</sup> Better is a poor and wise youth than an old and foolish king who doesn't know how to receive admonition any more. <sup>14</sup> For out of prison he came forth to be king; yes, even in his kingdom he was born poor. <sup>15</sup> I saw all the living who walk under the sun, that they were with the youth, the other, who succeeded him. <sup>16</sup> There was no end of all the people, even of all them over whom he was—yet those who come after shall not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and a chasing after wind.

The Preacher Advises to Fear God

Guard your steps when you go to God's house; for to draw near to listen is better than to give the sacrifice of fools, for they don't know that they do evil. <sup>2</sup> Don't be rash with your mouth, and don't let your heart be hasty to utter anything before God; for God is in heaven, and you on earth. Therefore let your words be few. <sup>3</sup> For as a dream comes with a multitude of cares, so a fool's speech with a multitude of words. <sup>4</sup> When you vow a vow to God, don't defer to pay it; for He has no pleasure in fools. Pay that which you vow. <sup>5</sup> It is better that you should not vow,

4:8 The billionaire always wants another billion... "Hell and destruction are never satisfied, and the eyes of man are never satisfied" (Prov. 27:20 RV), Solomon wrote in his youth; and then in old age, he came to basically the same conclusion, having spent his life working back to the truth that he had been taught in his youth (see too 1:8). And there are many men and women who have done the same. We all tend to be empirical learners; and yet this is the great power of God's word, that through it we don't have to learn everything through our failures; but we can receive His Truth, trust it, and simply live by it. Otherwise we shall be like Solomon...

5:2 God is in heaven, and you on earth – God is revealed as existing as a personal being in a specific location, Heaven. Although He is present everywhere by His Spirit, this doesn't mean that He has no personal existence.

than that you should vow and not pay. <sup>6</sup> Don't allow your mouth to lead you into sin. Don't protest before the messenger that this was a mistake. Why should God be angry at your voice, and destroy the work of your hands? <sup>7</sup> For in the multitude of dreams there are vanities, as well as in many words: but you must fear God. <sup>8</sup> If you see the oppression of the poor, and the violent taking away of justice and righteousness in a district, don't marvel at the matter: for one official is eyed by a higher one; and there are officials over them.

The Preacher Observes Wealth

<sup>9</sup> Moreover the profit of the earth is for all. The king profits from the field. <sup>10</sup> He who loves silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he who loves abundance, with increase: this also is vanity. <sup>11</sup> When goods increase, those who eat them are increased; and what advantage is there to its owner, except to feast on them with his eyes? <sup>12</sup> The sleep of a labouring man is sweet, whether he eats little or much; but the abundance of the rich will not allow him to sleep. <sup>13</sup> There is a grievous evil which I have seen under the sun: wealth kept by its owner to his harm. <sup>14</sup> Those riches perish by misfortune, and if he has fathered a son, there is nothing in his hand. <sup>15</sup> As he came forth from his mother's womb, naked shall he go again as he came, and shall take nothing for his labour, which he may carry away in his hand. <sup>16</sup> This also is a grievous evil, that in all points as he came, so shall he go. And what profit does he have who labours for the wind? <sup>17</sup> All his days he also eats in darkness, he is frustrated, and has sickness and wrath. <sup>18</sup> Behold, that which I have seen to be good and proper is for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy good in all his labour, in which he labours under the sun, all the days of his life which God has given him; for this is his portion. <sup>19</sup> Every man also to whom God has given riches and wealth, and has given him power to eat of it, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labour—this is the gift of God. <sup>20</sup> For he shall not often reflect on the days of his life; because God occupies him with the joy of his heart.

CHAPTER 6 Apr. 27

Frustration from Dependency on Material Things

There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is heavy on men: <sup>2</sup> a man to whom God gives

5:6 Don't protest before the messenger – The Hebrew word 'malak' translated "messenger" is the usual word translated "angel". It can be used of men, e.g. priests, or anyone who is a 'messenger'. The Angels of God don't sin (Lk. 20:35,36 cp. Rom. 6:23), but the word 'malak' can be applied to ordinary men, who of course can sin. The Greek word 'aggelos', usually translated 'angel', is applied to the human messengers of John the Baptist (Lk. 7:24). This confusion has led to some misunderstanding the few Bible verses which speak (in some translations) of 'angels' sinning; but those 'angels' referred to are human beings, representatives, servants or messengers of others, and don't refer to 'angels' in the sense of spirit beings.

riches, wealth, and honour, so that he lacks nothing for his soul of all that he desires, yet God gives him no power to eat of it, but an alien eats it. This is vanity, and it is an evil disease. <sup>3</sup> If a man fathers a hundred children, and lives many years, so that the days of his years are many, but his soul is not filled with good, and moreover he has no burial; I say, that a stillborn child is better than he: <sup>4</sup> for it comes in vanity, and departs in darkness, and its name is covered with darkness. <sup>5</sup> Moreover it has not seen the sun nor known it. This has rest rather than the other. <sup>6</sup> Yes, though he live a thousand years twice told, and yet fails to enjoy good, don't all go to one place? <sup>7</sup> All the labour of man is for his mouth, and yet the appetite is not filled. <sup>8</sup> For what advantage has the wise more than the fool? What has the poor man, who knows how to walk before the living? <sup>9</sup> Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of the desire. This also is vanity and a chasing after wind. <sup>10</sup> Whatever has been, its name was given long ago; and it is known what man is; neither can he contend with him who is mightier than he. <sup>11</sup> For there are many words that create vanity. What does that profit man? <sup>12</sup> For who knows what is good for man in life, all the days of his vain life which he spends like a shadow? For who can tell a man what will be after him under the sun?

Oppression, Anger and Discontent

A good name is better than fine perfume; and the day of death better than the day of one's birth. <sup>2</sup> It is better to go to the house of mourning than to go to the house of feasting: for that is the end of all men, and the living should take this to heart. <sup>3</sup> Sorrow is better than laughter; for by the sadness of the face the heart is made good. <sup>4</sup> The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth. <sup>5</sup> It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools. <sup>6</sup> For as the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool. This also is vanity. <sup>7</sup> Surely extortion makes the wise man foolish; and a bribe destroys the understanding. <sup>8</sup> Better is the end of a thing than its beginning.

6:2 Prov. 6:26 warns the young man that the Gentile woman will take his money and leave him destitute at the end. These words seem to be alluded to by Solomon years later here, where he laments that despite his wealth and success, a Gentile would have it all after his death. He saw in later life that his warnings to the young men of Israel had been in the form of painting a picture of a typical young man who epitomized youthful folly; but now he realized that he had been making a detailed prophecy of himself. Likewise in 2:18,19 he laments that his labours will achieve nothing; doubtless alluding back to his words in Prov. 5:10, where he says that the Gentile wife will make the young Israelite's labours meaningless. Sin never satisfies. We can know truth on a theoretical level as Solomon did, and yet not live it out in practice.

7:2–4 The continual emphasis of society upon 'fun' and 'entertainment' doesn't lead to wisdom before God, but the very opposite.

The patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit. <sup>9</sup> Don't be hasty in your spirit to be angry, for anger rests in the bosom of fools. <sup>10</sup> Don't say, Why were the former days better than these? For you do not ask wisely about this.

Wisdom Excels All Else

<sup>11</sup> Wisdom is as good as an inheritance. Yes, it is more excellent for those who see the sun. <sup>12</sup> For wisdom is a defence, even as money is a defence; but the excellency of knowledge is that wisdom preserves the life of him who has it. <sup>13</sup> Consider the work of God, for who can make that straight, which He has made crooked? <sup>14</sup> In the day of prosperity be joyful, and in the day of adversity consider; yes, God has made the one side by side with the other, to the end that man should not find out anything after Him. <sup>15</sup> All this have I seen in my days of vanity: there is a righteous man who perishes in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man who lives long in his evildoing. <sup>16</sup> Don't be overly righteous, neither make yourself overly wise. Why should you destroy yourself? <sup>17</sup> Don't be too wicked, neither be foolish. Why should you die before your time? <sup>18</sup> It is good that you should take hold of this. Yes, also from that don't withdraw your hand; for he who fears God will come forth from them all. <sup>19</sup> Wisdom is a strength to the wise man more than ten rulers who are in a city. <sup>20</sup> Surely there is not a righteous man on earth, who does good and doesn't sin. <sup>21</sup> Also don't take heed to all words that are spoken, lest you hear your servant curse you; <sup>22</sup> for often your own heart knows that you yourself have likewise cursed others. <sup>23</sup> All this have I proved in wisdom. I said, I will be wise; but it was far from me. <sup>24</sup> That which is, is far off and exceedingly deep. Who can find it out? <sup>25</sup> I turned around, and my heart sought to know and to search out, and to seek wisdom and the scheme of things, and to know that wickedness is stupidity, and that foolishness is madness. <sup>26</sup> I find more bitter than death the woman whose heart is snares and traps, whose hands are chains. Whoever pleases God shall escape from her; but the sinner will be ensnared by her. <sup>27</sup> Behold, I have found this, says the Preacher, one to another, to find out the scheme; <sup>28</sup> which my soul still seeks; but I have not found. One man among a

7:23 Solomon recognized that although he had loved the idea of wisdom, the image of a spiritual life, the wisdom of God had never really impacted him personally: "I said, I will be wise (referring back to his request for wisdom in 1 Kings 3); but it was far from me". His request for wisdom had only been so that he could do the job of leading Israel, living out the parental expectation of his father, whom he admits in Proverbs 4 had taught him to ask for wisdom.

7:28 Solomon had all the instruction he could wish for; but he didn't allow it to really sink home. He started out on the search for an ultimately satisfying woman, but out of the 1000 he had (1 Kings 11:3) he never found one, even when he sat down and analyzed each of them. And even politically, his marriages with all those Gen-thousand have I found; but I have not found a woman among all those.

 29 Behold, this only have I found: that God made man upright; but they search for many schemes.

CHAPTER 8 Apr. 29

The Supremacy of the King.

Who is like the wise man? And who knows the interpretation of a thing? A man's wisdom makes his face shine, and the hardness of his face is changed. <sup>2</sup> I say, Keep the king's command! because of the oath to God. <sup>3</sup> Don't be hasty to go out of his presence. Don't persist in an evil thing, for he does whatever pleases him, <sup>4</sup> for the king's word is supreme. Who can say to him, What are you doing? <sup>5</sup> Whoever keeps the commandment shall not come to harm, and his wise heart will know the time and procedure. <sup>6</sup> For there is a time and procedure for every purpose, although the misery of man is heavy on him. <sup>7</sup> For he doesn't know that which will be; for who can tell him how it will be? <sup>8</sup> There is no man who has power over the spirit to contain the spirit; neither does he have power over the day of death. There is no discharge in war; neither shall wickedness deliver those who practice it.

The Destiny of the Wicked

<sup>9</sup> All this have I seen, and applied my mind to every work that is done under the sun. There is a time in which one man has power over another to his hurt. <sup>10</sup> So I saw the wicked buried. Indeed they came also from holiness. They went and were forgotten in the city where they did this. This also is vanity. <sup>11</sup> Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil. <sup>12</sup> Though a sinner commits crimes a hundred times, and lives long, yet surely I know that it will be better with those who fear tile women didn't seem to achieve the support he desired from their home countries; Egypt gave refuge to Jeroboam, Solomon's main rival (1 Kings 11:40), even though he always acquiesced to his wives and even in his very old age he still didn't destroy the idol temples he built for them (2 Kings 23:13).

8:1 Solomon didn't see the relevance of his wisdom to his own personal family life. Yet he proudly insisted: "Who is like the wise man?", as if the possession of theoretical truth and wisdom was the ultimate possession; and he then goes on to say that this made him beyond criticism (:2-4). This is a danger for any community or individual who says they have "the truth" and who considers the possession of it to be of the utmost importance.

8:4 It is only God who cannot be questioned in this way. But Solomon felt that because he possessed God's wisdom, he could therefore act as God. :2 could suggest that he thought his commandments were in fact God's. So the possession of Truth, which we too have, can lead to an incredible arrogance, a lack of openness to others' comments upon us, and a certainty that we are right in all that we do and are beyond criticism in every area. The hardness of a man is changed by true wisdom (:1) but despite knowing this, Solomon became hard hearted and abused his people. He had the wisdom – but as he said, it was far from him personally.

God, who are reverent before him. <sup>13</sup> But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he lengthen days like a shadow; because he doesn't fear God. <sup>14</sup> There is a vanity which is done on the earth, that there are righteous men to whom it happens according to the work of the wicked. Again, there are wicked men to whom it happens according to the work of the righteous. I said that this also is vanity. <sup>15</sup> Then I commended mirth, because a man has no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be joyful: for that will accompany him in his labour all the days of his life which God has given him under the sun. <sup>16</sup> When I applied my heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done on the earth (for also there is that neither day nor night sees sleep with his eyes), <sup>17</sup> then I saw all the work of God, that man can't find out the work that is done under the sun, because however much a man labours to seek it out, yet he won't find it. Yes even though a wise man thinks he can comprehend it, he won't be able to find it.

CHAPTER 9 Apr. 30

Equality in Death

For all this I laid to my heart, even to explore all this: that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God; whether it is love or hatred, man doesn't know it; all is before them. <sup>2</sup> All things come alike to all. There is one event to the righteous and to the wicked; to the good, to the clean, to the unclean, to him who sacrifices, and to him who doesn't sacrifice. As is the good, so is the sinner; he who takes an oath, as he who fears an oath. <sup>3</sup> This is an evil in all that is done under the sun, that there is one event to all: yes also, the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead. <sup>4</sup> For to him who is joined with all the living there is hope; for a living dog is better than a dead lion. <sup>5</sup> For the living know that they will die, but the dead don't know anything, neither do they have any more a reward; for their memory is forgotten. <sup>6</sup> Also their love, their hatred, and their envy has perished long ago; neither have they any more a portion forever in anything that is done under the sun. <sup>7</sup> Go your way—eat your bread with joy, and drink your wine with a merry heart; for God has already accepted your works. <sup>8</sup> Let your garments be always white, and don't let your head lack oil. <sup>9</sup> Live joyfully with the wife whom you love all the days of your life of vanity, which He has given you under the sun, all your days of vanity: for that is your portion in life, and in your labour in which you labour under the sun. <sup>10</sup> Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with your might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in Sheol, where you are going. <sup>11</sup> I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but time and chance happen to them all. <sup>12</sup> For man also doesn't know his time. As the fish that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare, even so are the sons of men snared in an evil time, when it falls suddenly on them. <sup>13</sup> I have also seen wisdom under the sun in this way, and it seemed great to me. <sup>14</sup> There was a little city, and few men within it; and a great king came against it, besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it. <sup>15</sup> Now a poor wise man was found in it, and he by his wisdom delivered the city; yet no man remembered that same poor man. <sup>16</sup> Then I said, Wisdom is better than strength. Nevertheless the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard. <sup>17</sup> The words of the wise heard in quiet are better than the cry of him who rules among fools. <sup>18</sup> Wisdom is better than weapons of war; but one sinner destroys much good.

9:5 The dead don't know anything – The Bible clearly teaches that death is unconsciousness. See on 3:19.

9:6 Neither have they any more a portion forever in anything that is done under the sun – Human theories of ghosts and reincarnation aren't compatible with the Bible. The Biblical hope for life after death is in the form of a bodily resurrection to stand before God's judgment and then by grace receive eternal life in His Kingdom on earth; and this is not for all, but for those who have consciously made a covenant with God in this life.

Miscellaneous Observations

Dead flies cause the oil of the perfumer to send forth an evil odour; so does a little folly outweigh wisdom and honour. <sup>2</sup> A wise man's heart is at his right hand, but a fool's heart at his left. <sup>3</sup> Yes also, when the fool walks by the way, his understanding fails him, and he says to everyone that he is a fool. <sup>4</sup> If the spirit of the ruler rises up against you, don't leave your place; for gentleness lays great offenses to rest. <sup>5</sup> There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, the sort of error which proceeds from the ruler. <sup>6</sup> Folly is set in great dignity, and the rich sit in a low place. <sup>7</sup> I have seen servants on horses, and princes walking like servants on the earth. <sup>8</sup> He who digs a pit may fall into it; and whoever breaks through

9:10 Sheol, where you are going – ‘Sheol’, translated “hell” in some Bibles and “the grave” in others, is simply death; all people, good and bad, go there. It's not a place of conscious punishment for the wicked, it refers simply to the grave.

10:1 Solomon had “honour” to an unprecedented extent (1 Kings 3:13). But in this same book he admits that he, the man famed world-wide for wisdom, gave himself to folly (2:3). He knew so well the error and folly of his ways, but he could only preach the lesson but not heed it. A true fool is one whose wisdom fails him in practice (when he “walks by the way”, :3); and especially is this acute when this “error... proceeds from the ruler” (:5). It's all about Solomon himself. His self-analysis, like that of many an alcoholic and drug addict, was excellent. The very possession of truth and wisdom seems to be of itself a temptation to live the very opposite way, which is why believers who go wrong often end up behaving far worse than unbelievers.

a wall may be bitten by a snake. <sup>9</sup> Whoever carves out stones may be injured by them. Whoever splits wood may be endangered thereby. <sup>10</sup> If the axe is blunt, and one doesn't sharpen the edge, then he must use more strength; but skill brings success. <sup>11</sup> If the snake bites before it is charmed, then is there no profit for the charmer's tongue. <sup>12</sup> The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious; but a fool is swallowed by his own lips. <sup>13</sup> The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness; and the end of his talk is mischievous madness. <sup>14</sup> A fool also multiplies words. Man doesn't know what will be; and that which will be after him, who can tell him? <sup>15</sup> The labour of fools wearies every one of them; for he doesn't know how to go to the city. <sup>16</sup> Woe to you, land, when your king is a servant, and your princes eat in the morning! <sup>17</sup> Blessed are you, land, when your king is the son of nobles, and your princes eat in due season, for strength, and not for drunkenness! <sup>18</sup> By slothfulness the roof sinks in; and through idleness of the hands the house leaks. <sup>19</sup> A feast is made for laughter, and wine makes the life glad; and money is the answer for all things. <sup>20</sup> Don't curse the king, no, not in your thoughts; and don't curse the rich in your bedroom: for a bird of the sky may carry your voice, and that which has wings may tell the matter.

CHAPTER 11 May 2

The Preacher Observes Generosity and Diligence.

Cast your bread on the waters; for you shall find it after many days. <sup>2</sup> Give a portion to seven, yes, even to eight; for you don't know what evil will be on the earth. <sup>3</sup> If the clouds are full of rain, they empty themselves on the earth; and if a tree falls toward the south, or toward the north, in the place where the tree falls, there shall it be. <sup>4</sup> He who observes the wind won't sow; and he who regards the clouds won't reap. <sup>5</sup> As you don't know what is the way of the wind, nor how the bones grow in the womb of her who is with child; even so you don't know the work of God who does all. <sup>6</sup> In the morning sow your seed, and in the evening don't withhold your hand; for you don't know which will prosper, whether this or that, or whether they both will be equally good. <sup>7</sup> Truly the light is 10:16, 17 Solomon had been so confident that he was or would be the Messiah that he seems to have felt that he was beyond the possibility of sinning; real self-examination and the sense of the possibility of failure just didn't exist for him. He says that the land of Israel is happy or blessed because her king is the son of a noble, and she will be cursed if her ruler is a servant. Solomon proudly presented himself as the son of King David – and he makes a clear swipe at Jeroboam, the pretender to the throne who was a servant (1 Kings 11:26). By reasoning like this, Solomon sets himself in direct opposition to the spirit of Jesus, who declared that the servant is to be the King of all. Thus Solomon's self-justification, his self-defensiveness, his lack of focus on the future Messiah, led him to miss totally the spirit of Christ.

sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to see the sun.<sup>8</sup> Yes, if a man lives many years, let him rejoice in them all; but let him remember the days of darkness, for they shall be many. All that comes is vanity.

The Preacher Appeals to Youth

<sup>9</sup> Rejoice, young man, in your youth, and let your heart cheer you in the days of your youth, and walk in the ways of your heart, and in the sight of your eyes; but know that for all these things there is a God who will bring you into judgment for them.<sup>10</sup> Therefore remove anger from your heart, and put away evil from your flesh; for youth and the dawn of life are vanity.

CHAPTER 12 May 3

Youth, Age and Life's End

Remember also your Creator in the days of your youth, before the evil days come, and the years draw near, when you will say, I have no pleasure in them;<sup>2</sup> Before the sun, the light, the moon, and the stars are

11:9 For all these things there is a God who will bring you into judgment – Solomon knows judgment will come, at least for the young people, but he reasons as if it won't – at least not for him. He knows, but he doesn't know on the personal, experiential level. This is why there are apparently contradictory statements in Ecclesiastes. For example, the wise dies as the fool, with no more eternal remembrance than the fool (2:15,16). This, Solomon, says, is what he himself believes in his own heart. But in 7:12 he says that wisdom gives life to those who have it. But then again in 9:16-18 he observes that although wisdom can help, its benefits are easily undone, so easily as to make it useless. He knew and preached God's Truth, but for him personally, it meant nothing at all. And therefore in practice he advocated the life of self-enjoyment, acting as if all the other truth of wisdom was not operative in practice. His final recommendation in chapter 12 is for young people to go the way of wisdom, as this is their duty. He had evidently minimized the coming of judgment, as his obsession with himself being the Messiah had lead him to minimize the reality of the coming of Christ. How deeply do we struggle with our own humanity, and deeply long for the second coming? Has our materialism made the Hope of the Kingdom mean practically nothing? Solomon's complaint at the pointlessness of wisdom in 2:15-20 is liberally sprinkled with personal pronouns; his self-centredness was part of his materialism and lack of faith in the Kingdom. And for us too, familiarity with the glorious principles of Divine Truth with which we have been entrusted can lead us to the blasphemy of saying, in effect, that those principles are unimportant; they come to mean little to us personally, and thereby we effectively deny their value and worth.

11:10 The tragic brevity of life means that youth is vanity; we should quit the time wasting follies of youth or overgrown childhood (and the modern world is full of these), and therefore we too should remove anger from our hearts. Ecclesiastes uses the mortality of man not only as an appeal to work for our creator and quit anger, but to simply have faith in His existence (as 2 Cor. 1:9).

12:2 And the clouds return after the rain – Solomon's father, David, had in his old age rejoiced in the prospect of God's Kingdom coming on earth at Christ's return, which he imagined would be like the clear shining after the rain (2 Sam. 23:4). Solomon in darkened, and the clouds return after the rain; <sup>3</sup> in the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and the grinders cease because they are few, and those who look out of the windows are darkened, <sup>4</sup> and the doors shall be shut in the street; when the sound of the grinding is low, and one shall rise up at the voice of a bird, and all the daughters of music shall be brought low; <sup>5</sup> yes, they shall be afraid of heights, and terrors will be in the way; and the almond tree shall blossom, and the grasshopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fail; because man goes to his everlasting home, and the mourners go about the streets: <sup>6</sup> before the silver cord is severed, or the golden bowl is broken, or the pitcher is broken at the spring, or the wheel broken at the cistern, and the dust returns to the earth as it was, and the spirit returns to God who gave it.

The Preacher's Final Thoughts

<sup>8</sup> Vanity of vanities, says the Preacher. All is vanity! <sup>9</sup> Further, because the Preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge. Yes, he pondered, sought out, and set in order many proverbs. <sup>10</sup> The Preacher sought to find out acceptable words, and that which was written blamelessly, words of truth. <sup>11</sup> The words of the wise are like goads; and like nails well fastened are words from the masters of assemblies, which are given from one shepherd. <sup>12</sup> Furthermore, my son, be admonished: of making many books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh. <sup>13</sup> This is the end of the matter. All has been heard. Fear God, and keep His commandments; for this is the whole duty of man. <sup>14</sup> For God will bring every work into judgment, with every hidden thing, whether it is good, or whether it is evil.

his old age saw only negativity, the return of the clouds, whereas David in old age looked ahead with hope to the Kingdom. Whilst Solomon spoke so often of his father David, he failed to personally grasp the wonder of the hope of Christ and His Kingdom which his father had; for this cannot be passed on through the generations, that wonder has to be learnt from experience and years of spiritual devotion.

SONG OF SOLOMON

CHAPTER 1 May 4

The Song of songs, which is Solomon's.

The Beloved

<sup>2</sup> Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth; for your lovemaking is better than wine. <sup>3</sup> Your oils have a pleasing fragrance. Your name is oil poured forth, therefore the virgins love you. <sup>4</sup> Take me away with you. Let's hurry. The king has brought me into his rooms!

Daughters of Jerusalem

We will be glad and rejoice in you. We will praise your love more than wine!

Beloved

They are right to love you. <sup>5</sup> I am dark, but lovely, you daughters of Jerusalem, like Kedar's tents, like Solomon's curtains. <sup>6</sup> Don't stare at me because I am dark, because the sun has scorched me. My mother's sons were angry with me. They made me keeper of the vineyards, but I haven't kept my own vineyard. <sup>7</sup> Tell me, you whom my soul loves, where you graze your flock, where you rest them at noon; for why should I be as one who is veiled beside the flocks of your companions?

Lover

<sup>8</sup> If you don't know, most beautiful among women, follow the tracks of

The set of dialogues we have in this Song indicate that here we have a romance which went too far too quickly between Solomon and an Egyptian girl. He ought to have married an Israelite, one of the "daughters of Jerusalem". The Song is full of tension between the girl and these "daughters", whom she fears as being more attractive to Solomon than herself; and they speak to her sarcastically. Solomon in the Proverbs warned the Israelites about being attracted by pretty Gentile women who would lead them astray; and yet he does the very opposite of what he had taught to be true. The Song ends not with a wedding, as the genre of love poems might suggest, but with the couple parting in acrimony. Not running relationships God's way doesn't lead to satisfaction.

1:2 The Song begins by the daughters of Jerusalem and the Egyptian girl being in some kind of competition for Solomon; they both state their desire for him, and both of them compare his love to wine (:2, 4). Note how the Song doesn't begin as a romance is supposed to – with the first meeting, a love at first sight scene. As early as 1:2 she comments that "your lovemaking is more delightful than wine". This is all a subversion of the whole genre of romance. It was all too far too fast. The Egyptian justifies her darker complexion to the Jerusalem girls, and praises her own beauty: "I am dark but lovely" (:5). She likewise yells at them not to sexually stimulate her lover, Solomon (2:7). "My beloved is mine" (2:16) is the same catty kind of defensiveness. The girl is jealous of how the daughters of Jerusalem admire Solomon, not least because of his fame in Israelite circles (:3,4). And the Jerusalem girls respond with sarcasm as in 6:1.

the sheep. Graze your young goats beside the shepherds' tents. <sup>9</sup> I have compared you, my love, to a steed in Pharaoh's chariots. <sup>10</sup> Your cheeks are beautiful with earrings, your neck with strings of jewels. <sup>11</sup> We will make you earrings of gold, with studs of silver.

Beloved

<sup>12</sup> While the king sat at his table, my perfume spread its fragrance. <sup>13</sup> My beloved is to me a sachet of myrrh, that lies between my breasts. <sup>14</sup> My beloved is to me a cluster of henna blossoms from the vineyards of En Gedi.

Lover

<sup>15</sup> Behold, you are beautiful, my love. Behold, you are beautiful. Your eyes are doves.

CHAPTER 2 May 5

Beloved

I am a rose of Sharon, a lily of the valleys.

Lover

<sup>2</sup> As a lily among thorns, so is my darling among the daughters.

Beloved

<sup>3</sup> As the apple tree among the trees of the wood, so is my beloved among the sons. I sat down under his shadow with great delight, his fruit was sweet to my taste. <sup>4</sup> He brought me to the banquet hall. His banner over me is love. <sup>5</sup> Strengthen me with raisins, refresh me with apples; for I

1:9 Solomon should have admired neither the horses nor the women of Egypt; yet he begins his Song with an unashamed breach of the command not to desire either of these things. The unashamedness of Solomon coupled with his spirituality indicates that at this time he was genuinely convinced that what he was doing was deeply spiritual; when in fact it was completely carnal. He totally ignored his own advice in Proverbs about choosing a spiritual Israelite woman as a wife.

1:11 The Song is shot through with allusion to the Law and tabernacle rituals; he speaks of making her borders on her clothes, alluding to the borders of blue to be worn by the faithful Israelite. Solomon wanted her to be a spiritual woman, and he was going to make her one in his mind, to his eyes. He wanted to see her as a spiritual woman, and eventually he became persuaded that she was just this. This is often the psychology of marriage out of the faith.

2:1 The girl says she is merely a common "rose of Sharon", but Solomon responds that in his eyes, she is like a lily among thorns, referring to the Jerusalem girls. Ironically enough, Num. 33:55 had warned that the Gentiles within the land promised to Abraham would be "thorns" to Israel if they married them. And yet Solomon sees the Israelite women as "thorns" and the Gentile as a lily amongst them. He likewise compares her to them in 6:8,9.

am faint with love. <sup>6</sup> His left hand is under my head. His right hand embraces me. <sup>7</sup> I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes, or by the hinds of the field, that you not stir up, nor stimulate love, until it so desires. <sup>8</sup> The voice of my beloved! Behold, he comes, leaping on the mountains, skipping on the hills. <sup>9</sup> My beloved is like a roe or a young hart. Behold, he stands behind our wall! He looks in at the windows. He glances through the lattice. <sup>10</sup> My beloved spoke and said to me, Rise up, my love, my beautiful one, and come away. <sup>11</sup> for, behold, the winter is past. The rain is over and gone. <sup>12</sup> The flowers appear on the earth. The time of the singing has come, and the voice of the turtle-dove is heard in our land. <sup>13</sup> The fig tree ripens her green figs. The vines are in blossom. They give forth their fragrance. Arise, my love, my beautiful one, and come away.

Lover

<sup>14</sup> My dove in the clefts of the rock, in the hiding places of the mountainside; let me see your face. Let me hear your voice; for your voice is sweet, and your face is lovely. <sup>15</sup> Catch foxes for us, the little foxes that spoil the vineyards; for our vineyards are in blossom.

Beloved

<sup>16</sup> My beloved is mine, and I am his. He browses among the lilies. <sup>17</sup> Until the day is cool, and the shadows flee away, turn, my beloved, and be like a roe or a young hart on the mountains of Bether.

CHAPTER 3 May 6

By night on my bed, I sought him whom my soul loves. I sought him, but I didn't find him. <sup>2</sup> I will get up now, and go about the city; in the streets and in the squares I will seek him whom my soul loves. I sought him, but I didn't find him. <sup>3</sup> The watchmen who go about the city found me; I asked, Have you seen him whom my soul loves? <sup>4</sup> I had scarcely passed from them, when I found him whom my soul

2:10-13 Solomon describes her in Jewish terms, likening her to many well-known places in Israel: the Heshbon fishpools, the tower of Lebanon etc. (see too 4:1,4). He wanted to see her as an Israelite girl, and so that was how she appeared to him. Such is the self-deception we are capable of when we seek to justify ourselves. Solomon takes her on a tour of Israel (4:8), enthusing about the sights, speaking of them as the things of "our land". See on 4:16.

2:13, 14 It was because of the impossible tension between the Egyptian girl and the Jerusalem maidens that there's the constant theme of needing to hold meetings in secrecy, often in the countryside or mountains around Jerusalem, and to "go away" in order to be together. They appear to have slept together in the open air, beneath the trees (1:16,17; 7:11). 2:17 and 4:6 suggest they spent a night together in the hills, and then before dawn Solomon got back to Jerusalem. Illicit relationships are powerfully attractive at the time, but doomed to ultimate failure.

3:4 She walked the streets of Jerusalem whilst he was confined in the palace (:2). Her mother moved to Jerusalem from Egypt, but it wasn't possible for Solomon and her to loves. I held him, and would not let him go, until I had brought him into my mother's house, into the room of her who conceived me. <sup>5</sup> I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes and the hinds of the field, that you not stir up, nor stimulate love, until he so desires. <sup>6</sup> Who is this who comes up from the wilderness like pillars of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all spices of the merchant? <sup>7</sup> Behold, it is Solomon's carriage! Sixty mighty men are around it, of the mighty men of Israel. <sup>8</sup> They all handle the sword, and are expert in war. Every man has his sword on his thigh, because of fear in the night. <sup>9</sup> King Solomon made himself a carriage of the wood of Lebanon. <sup>10</sup> He made its pillars of silver, its bottom of gold, its seat of purple, its midst being paved with love, for the daughters of Jerusalem. <sup>11</sup> Go forth, you daughters of Zion, and see king Solomon, with the crown with which his mother has crowned him in the day of his weddings, in the day of the gladness of his heart.

CHAPTER 4 May 7

Lover

Behold, you are beautiful, my love. Behold, you are beautiful. Your eyes are doves behind your veil. Your hair is as a flock of goats, that descend from Mount Gilead. <sup>2</sup> Your teeth are like a newly shorn flock, which have come up from the washing, where every one of them has twins. None is bereaved among them. <sup>3</sup> Your lips are like scarlet thread. Your mouth is lovely. Your temples are like a piece of a pomegranate behind your veil. Your neck is like David's tower built for an armoury, whereon a thousand shields hang, all the shields of the mighty men. <sup>5</sup> Your two breasts are like two fawns that are twins of a roe, which feed among the lilies. <sup>6</sup> Until the day is cool, and the shadows flee away, I will go to the mountain of myrrh, to the hill of frankincense. <sup>7</sup> You are all beauti-easily be together in that house (also 8:2). 3:4 is very similar to Solomon's own warnings against Gentile marriage in Prov. 7:13,27; 5:8. We have an amazing ability to do the very opposite of what we know is right.

3:4, 11 This is her sarcastic comment to the Jerusalem girls, mocking the crown his mother Bathsheba had made for him, wishing instead that he would be under the influence of her mother.

4:1 Parts of the Song are very sexually explicit once the allusions are figured out. He's describing the vaginal lips of his girlfriend, his intended spouse (4:1,3,8 ); and he has seen "behind your veil", the symbol of her virginity. And yet he glorifies all this in his song. Quite clearly, Solomon was guilty of fornication with the one whom he wished to marry, although the ending of the Song seems to imply the relationship somehow broke up. And this was all right at the beginning of his reign.

4:4 She loves him because of his ointment, and he loves her because of her jewellery (:4). He says that deep kissing with her gives the same after effect as drinking enough wine that you talk in your sleep afterwards (7:9). It's all very human and carnal; one lesson of the Song is that superficial attraction isn't the basis for true love.

ful, my love. There is no spot in you.
<sup>8</sup> Come with me from Lebanon, my bride, with me from Lebanon. Look from the top of Amana, from the top of Senir and Hermon, from the lions' dens, from the mountains of the leopards.
<sup>9</sup> You have ravished my heart, my sister, my bride. You have ravished my heart with one of your eyes, with one chain of your neck.
<sup>10</sup> How beautiful is your love, my sister, my bride! How much better is your love than wine! The fragrance of your perfumes than all kinds of spices!
<sup>11</sup> Your lips, my bride, drip like the honeycomb. Honey and milk are under your tongue. The smell of your garments is like the smell of Lebanon.
<sup>12</sup> A locked up garden is my sister, my bride; a locked up spring, a sealed fountain.
<sup>13</sup> Your shoots are an orchard of pomegranates, with precious fruits: henna with spikenard plants, <sup>14</sup> spikenard and saffron, calamus and cinnamon, with every kind of incense tree; myrrh and aloes, with all the best spices, <sup>15</sup> a fountain of gardens, a spring of living waters, flowing streams from Lebanon.

Beloved

<sup>16</sup> Awake, north wind; and come, you south! Blow on my garden, that its spices may flow out. Let my beloved come into his garden, and taste his precious fruits.

CHAPTER 5 May 8

Lover

I have come into my garden, my sister, my bride. I have gathered my myrrh with my spice; I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey; I have drunk my wine with my milk.

4:15, 16 Solomon saw her as a “paradise”, a garden with rivers and exotic fruits, surrounded by a wall – the language of Eden. And she was a fount of “living waters”, the language of Messiah. He saw her as the Kingdom / Eden personified. And yet her response to being described in this way is almost inappropriate – for she invites him to come and eat the fruit of the garden (:16), exactly after the pattern of Eve destroying Adam. Yet Solomon didn't want to see this connection; she was the Kingdom to him, just as so many have felt that having their new partner means that nothing, not even the Kingdom, is meaningful any more. See on 2:10-13.

5:1 Song 5 seems to give insight into the unworthy elements of the potential bride of Christ. Notice the sequence: While she sleeps at night, the bridegroom comes and knocks [unworthy virgins sleeping instead of being awake; the Lord Jesus comes; Lk. 12:36 uses the same figure, of the Lord's return being like a knock]. She replies that she's not dressed properly, makes excuses about her feet, she can't come and open [the unworthy don't respond immediately]. He tries to open the door from the outside, putting his hand through the latch-hole [by grace, after the pattern of Lot being encouraged to leave Sodom when he hesitated, the Lord will be patient even with sleepy virgins in His desire for their salvation]. Her heart is moved with desire for him [the rejected still call Jesus 'Lord, Lord'; they love Him emotionally]. She starts dressing herself up, and then is overtaken by desire and rushes to the door, her hands dripping all kinds of perfume and make up over the lock as she opens it [cp. the virgins going to buy oil, the unworthy trying to prepare themselves all too late, not trusting that their Lord loves them as they are at the moment of His coming]. But he's gone, he with-

Eat, friends! Drink, yes, drink abundantly, beloved.

Beloved

<sup>2</sup> I was asleep, but my heart was awake. It is the voice of my beloved who knocks: Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled; for my head is filled with dew, and my hair with the dampness of the night.

<sup>3</sup> I have taken off my robe. Indeed, must I put it on? I have washed my feet. Indeed, must I defile them?

<sup>4</sup> My beloved thrust his hand in through the latch opening. My heart pounded for him. <sup>5</sup> I rose up to open for my beloved. My hands dripped with myrrh, my fingers with liquid myrrh, on the handles of the lock.

<sup>6</sup> I opened to my beloved; but my beloved had left; he had gone away. My heart went out when he spoke. I looked for him, but I didn't find him.

I called him, but he didn't answer.

<sup>7</sup> The watchmen who go about the city found me. They beat me. They bruised me. The keepers of the walls took my cloak away from me. <sup>8</sup> I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem, if you find my beloved, that you tell him that I am faint with love.

Daughters of Jerusalem

<sup>9</sup> How is your beloved better than another beloved, you fairest among women? How is your beloved better than another beloved, that you so adjure us?

draws himself [all too late, the door is shut, He never knew them]. Her soul fails [the shock of rejection]. She seeks him but doesn't find him, calls but he doesn't answer [Prov. 1:28; Hos. 5:6; the rejected call, but aren't answered; they seek the Lord early, but don't find Him]. She feels tired of her relationship with him ("sick of love"). She is persecuted by the world around her ["condemned with the world"]. If we don't immediately respond to the Lord's knock, we show ourselves to not love Him enough. If we don't open immediately, it's as if we didn't open at all. The Lord wants us as we are, bleary eyed and without our cosmetics, but with a basic overriding love of Him, and faith in the depth of His love, which will lead us to immediately go out to meet Him. This will be the ultimate and crucial divide – between those who believe in the Lord's love for us; and those who think they need to make themselves good enough for Him. Solomon called to the girl through the keyhole: "...my undefiled...". But she doesn't want to immediately come to Him because she doesn't want to meet him with 'defiled' feet (:2,3). She couldn't believe his words, that in his eyes, she was undefiled. And the enormity of the passion of Christ for us is likewise so hard for us to accept. In 3:1 we find the girl again at night, dreaming of having Solomon with her. But when one night he does actually come, she doesn't go to meet him immediately. And there's a warning for us. Like Israel we may 'desire the day of the Lord', study prophecy about it, write about it, enthuse about it. But when He comes, to what end will it be to us? Will we in a moment drop everything and go to Him, believing that He loves us just as we are? Or will we run off to buy oil, slap makeup on...? She finally realized that he had loved her for who she was, how she was. But it was tragically too late. He'd gone. We need to learn that lesson now, to know the love of Christ... so that in that moment when we know for sure 'He's back!', we will without hesitation go to Him with that perfect / mature love, that casts out fear.

Beloved

CHAPTER 6 May 9Daughters of Jerusalem

Where has your beloved gone, you fairest among women? Where has your beloved turned, that we may seek him with you?

Beloved

<sup>2</sup> My beloved has gone down to his garden, to the beds of spices, to feed in the gardens, and to gather lilies. <sup>3</sup> I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine. He browses among the lilies.

Lover

<sup>4</sup> You are beautiful, my love, as Tirzah, lovely as Jerusalem, awesome as an army with banners. <sup>5</sup> Turn away your eyes from me, for they have overcome me. Your hair is like a flock of goats, that lie along the side of Gilead. <sup>6</sup> Your teeth are like a flock of ewes, which have come up from the washing; of which each one has twins; none is bereaved among them. <sup>7</sup> Your temples are like a piece of a pomegranate behind your veil. <sup>8</sup> There are sixty queens, eighty concubines, and virgins without number. <sup>9</sup> My dove, my perfect one, is unique. She is her mother's only daughter. She is the favourite one of her who bore her. The daughters saw her, and called her blessed; the queens and the concubines, and they praised her. <sup>10</sup> Who is she who looks forth as the morning, beautiful as the moon, clear as the sun, and awesome as an army with banners? <sup>11</sup> I went down into the nut tree grove, to see the green plants of the valley, to see whether the vine budded, and the pomegranates were in flower. <sup>12</sup> Without realizing it, my desire set me with my royal people's chariots.

Daughters of Jerusalem

<sup>13</sup> Return, return, Shulammite! Return, return, that we may gaze at you.

6:13 Solomon boasts that he has many Jewish queens and concubines, but there is only one woman, the Egyptian, that he truly loves (6:8,9); he even calls her his "sister", associating himself thereby with Egypt. Perhaps this tension between the two groups – the Jerusalem women and the Egyptian girl and her family – is behind the enigmatic reference to "the company of two armies" or "the dance of the two camps" or lines. She suspects there may be two camps in Solomon's mind.

Lover

Why do you desire to gaze at the Shulammitte, as at the dance of Mahanaim?

CHAPTER 7 May 10

How beautiful are your feet in sandals, prince's daughter! Your rounded thighs are like jewels, the work of the hands of a skilful workman. <sup>2</sup> Your body is like a round goblet, no mixed wine is wanting. Your waist is like a heap of wheat, set about with lilies. <sup>3</sup> Your two breasts are like two fawns, that are twins of a roe. <sup>4</sup> Your neck is like an ivory tower. Your eyes are like the pools in Heshbon by the gate of Bathrabbim. Your nose is like the tower of Lebanon which looks toward Damascus. <sup>5</sup> Your head on you is like Carmel. The hair of your head is like purple. The king is held captive in its tresses. <sup>6</sup> How beautiful and how pleasant you are, love, for delights! <sup>7</sup> This, your stature, is like a palm tree, your breasts like its fruit. <sup>8</sup> I said, I will climb up into the palm tree. I will take hold of its fruit. Let your breasts be like clusters of the vine, the smell of your breath like apples, <sup>9</sup> your mouth like the best wine, that goes down smoothly for my beloved, gliding through the lips of those who are asleep.

7:12 See on 8:1.

8:1 She deeply wished that Solomon was her brother, i.e. an Egyptian, because in that case their relationship could be much more open, they would not be despised because of their love, and Solomon could come and live in her mother's house back in Egypt. Clearly she was attracted to Solomon rather than to the God of Israel. In :2,3 she seems to be saying 'I'll have sex with you, as you offered in 7:12, if you agree to be an Egyptian' (and 4:16; 5:1,4-6 could imply they did have intercourse).

8:5 The daughters of Jerusalem mock her by saying this. We expect a romantic song to end with the wedding; but it doesn't. It ends with the couple parting; and this dream

Beloved

<sup>10</sup> I am my beloved's. His desire is toward me. <sup>11</sup> Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the field. Let us lodge in the villages. <sup>12</sup> Let's go early up to the vineyards. Let's see whether the vine has budded, its blossom is open, and the pomegranates are in flower. There I will give you my love. <sup>13</sup> The mandrakes give forth fragrance. At our doors are all kinds of precious fruits, new and old, which I have stored up for you, my beloved.

CHAPTER 8 May 11

Oh that you were like my brother, who nursed from the breasts of my mother! If I found you outside, I would kiss you; yes, and no one would despise me. <sup>2</sup> I would lead you, bringing you into my mother's house, who would instruct me. I would have you drink spiced wine, of the juice of my pomegranate. <sup>3</sup> His left hand would be under my head. His right hand would embrace me. <sup>4</sup> I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem, that you not stir up, nor stimulate my love, until he so desires.

Daughters of Jerusalem

<sup>5</sup> Who is this who comes up from the wilderness, leaning on her beloved?

Beloved

Under the apple tree I aroused you.
There your mother conceived you.
There she was in labour and bore you.

Lover

<sup>6</sup> Set me as a seal on your heart, as a seal on your arm; for love is strong as death. Jealousy is as cruel as Sheol. Its flashes are flashes of fire, a very flame of Yahweh. <sup>7</sup> Many waters can't quench love, neither can floods drown it. If a man would give all the wealth of his house for love, he would be utterly scorned.

Daughters of Jerusalem

<sup>8</sup> We have a little sister. She has no breasts. What shall we do for our sister in the day when she is to be spoken for? <sup>9</sup> If she is a wall, we will build on her a turret of silver.

If she is a door, we will enclose her with boards of cedar.

Beloved

<sup>10</sup> I was a wall, and my breasts were like towers, then I found acceptance in his eyes. <sup>11</sup> Solomon had a vineyard at Baal Hamon. He leased out the vineyard to keepers. Each was to bring a thousand shekels of silver for its fruit. <sup>12</sup> My own vineyard is mine alone. The thousand are for you, Solomon;
two hundred for those who tend its fruit.

wedding is no more than the Egyptian girl fantasizing. The fact the wedding 'scene', in the form of a dream about it, comes in the middle of the song rather than at the end is again a subversion of the whole genre of romance. The climax is in the wrong place. And this just indicates how unfulfilling are relationships which flout Divine principles.

8:12 She utters the final warning to the daughters of Jerusalem not to stimulate Solomon, and then breaks down with the lament that jealousy is cruel as death (:6) and unrequited love is impossible; Solomon's true love cannot be bought by her. The daughters of Jerusalem then speak of how they have a younger sister whose breasts aren't yet developed, but they will care for her until she is ready for Solomon (:8,9). The Egyptian girl then reminisces in the past tense: "I was a wall, and my breasts were like fortress towers; then I found acceptance in his eyes" (8:10). Solomon throughout the Songs has commented positively upon her breasts; and now she is left to lament that that is all just how it was, it's all over now. She then makes the enigmatic comment about how Solomon has a vineyard which he leases out, and yet she is a vineyard which belongs to her alone. The Songs have likened her to a vineyard (2:13,15), but Solomon's vineyard, she says, was associated with Baal-Hamon, Lord / husband of a multitude. She finally realized that he was a womanizer, who would go on to have over 1000 women in his life... Lord [or husband] of a multitude. Perhaps his 1000 wives and concubines lay behind her reference to the 1000 shekels that Solomon can have for his vineyard (:12). But now she was splitting up with him, her vineyard was hers alone, her grapes were now solely at her disposal and were not his any more. The final couplet of the Song is one of bitter sarcasm, typical of the worst order of romantic breakup. Solomon says that his "companions" – the daughters of Jerusalem whom she had so hated – are listening carefully to her, as he is. And she responds by tains of spices.

<sup>13</sup> You who dwell in the gardens,

telling him to run away, whilst still calling him her “beloved” – for although jealousy is cruel as the grave, her love for him was unquenchable by many waters. So the Song ends with Solomon in rather a bad light – off to his next women, whilst the Egyptian girl walks off the scene bitterly protesting her love for him and how she’s a victim of circumstance and jealousy. Yet Solomon, presumably, authored the Song. We read it therefore in the same way as we do Ecclesiastes – his jaded statement of how life has been for him, how he sought fulfilment of his human lusts but it never worked out, leaving him with a tragic sense of unfulfilment because he had not gone God’s way.

ISAIAH

CHAPTER 1 May 12

The vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

Yahweh Rebukes Judah

<sup>2</sup> Hear, heavens and listen, earth; for Yahweh has spoken: I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against Me. <sup>3</sup> The ox knows his owner, and the donkey his master's crib; but Israel doesn't know Me, My people don't consider. <sup>4</sup> Ah sinful nation, a people loaded with iniquity, a seed of evildoers, children who deal corruptly! They have forsaken Yahweh, they have despised the Holy One of Israel, they are estranged and backward. <sup>5</sup> Why should you be beaten more, that you revolt more and more? The whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint. <sup>6</sup> From the sole of the foot even to the head there is no soundness in it: wounds, welts, and open sores. They haven't been closed, neither bandaged, neither soothed with oil. <sup>7</sup> Your country is desolate, your cities are burned with fire; foreigners devour your land in your presence and it is desolate, as overthrown by strangers. <sup>8</sup> The daughter of Zion is left like a shelter in a vineyard, like a hut in a field of melons, like a besieged city. <sup>9</sup> Unless Yahweh of Armies had left to us a very small remnant, we would have been as Sodom; we would have been like Gomorrah. <sup>10</sup> Hear the word of Yahweh, you rulers of Sodom! Listen to the law of our God, you people of Gomorrah! <sup>11</sup> What are the multitude of your sacrifices to Me?, says Yahweh. I have had enough of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed animals. I don't delight in the blood of

1:2 'Heaven and earth' are used here to describe a whole system of things; maybe the 'heavens' refer to the leaders of Judah, and the 'earth' the ordinary people. Verse 10 addresses the rulers and ordinary people separately in keeping with this. When we read in other Scriptures of the 'heavens and earth' being destroyed, we have to understand this figuratively, as referring to an entire system of things, human society – rather than the literal Heaven, which is God's dwelling place, and the earth, upon which He intends to establish His eternal Kingdom at Christ's return.

1:7 Is desolate... are burned – But this hadn't yet happened at the time Isaiah was prophesying. But so certain was God's word of fulfilment that he could speak in the present tense. We likewise should try to envisage prophesied future things as if they effectively are now – and live accordingly.

1:9 We would have been as Sodom – But :10 speaks to them as if they are Sodom. They were as Sodom to God, but for the sake of the faithful remnant, He wasn't judging them as Sodom. This shows how faithful third parties can have a huge effect upon the destiny of an unspiritual mass of God's people – so sensitive is God to the righteousness of even one man, as exemplified supremely in the achievement of Christ's work for us.

bulls, or of lambs, or of male goats.
<sup>12</sup> When you come to appear before Me, who has required this at your hand, to trample My courts? <sup>13</sup> Bring no more vain offerings. Incense is an abomination to Me; new moons, Sabbaths, and holy gatherings: I can't bear with evil assemblies.
<sup>14</sup> My soul hates your New Moons and your appointed feasts. They are a burden to Me. I am weary of bearing them. <sup>15</sup> When you spread forth your hands, I will hide My eyes from you. Yes, when you make many prayers, I will not hear. Your hands are full of blood. <sup>16</sup> Wash yourselves, make yourself clean. Put away the evil of your doings from before My eyes. Cease to do evil, <sup>17</sup> learn to do well, seek justice, relieve the oppressed judge the fatherless, plead for the widow. <sup>18</sup> Come now, and let us reason together, says Yahweh: Though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow. Though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool. <sup>19</sup> If you are willing and obedient, you shall eat the good of the land; <sup>20</sup> but if you refuse and rebel, you shall be devoured with the sword; for the mouth of Yahweh has spoken it.

The Unfaithful City

<sup>21</sup> How the faithful city has become a prostitute! She was full of justice; righteousness lodged in her, but now murderers. <sup>22</sup> Your silver has become dross, your wine mixed with water. <sup>23</sup> Your princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves. Each one loves bribes and follows after rewards. They don't judge the fatherless, neither does the cause of the widow come to them. <sup>24</sup> Therefore the Lord, Yahweh of Armies, the Mighty One of Israel, says: Ah, I will get relief from My adversaries, and avenge Myself of My enemies; <sup>25</sup> and I will turn My hand on you, thoroughly purge away your dross, and will take away all your tin. <sup>26</sup> I will restore your judges as at the first, and your counsellors as at the beginning. Afterwards you shall be called 'The city of righteousness, a faithful city'. <sup>27</sup> Zion shall be redeemed with justice, and her converts with righteousness. <sup>28</sup> But the destruction of transgressors and sinners shall be together, and those who forsake Yahweh shall be consumed. <sup>29</sup> For they shall be ashamed of the oaks which you have desired, and you shall be confounded for the gardens that you have chosen. <sup>30</sup> For you shall be as an oak whose leaf fades, and as a garden that has no water. <sup>31</sup> The strong will be like tinder, and his work like a spark. They will both burn together, and no one will quench them.

CHAPTER 2 May 13

The Mountain of the Lord

This is what Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup> It shall happen in the latter days,

2:2 'Mountains' are used figuratively in the Bible to refer to kingdoms. Here we have a prophecy of the future establishment of God's Kingdom on earth, centred on Jerusalem. The Bible teaches the literal return of Christ to earth to establish God's Kingdom here, rather than the righteous going to Heaven at death.

that the mountain of Yahweh's house shall be established on the top of the mountains, and shall be raised above the hills; and all nations shall flow to it. <sup>3</sup> Many peoples shall go and say, Come, let's go up to the mountain of Yahweh, to the house of the God of Jacob; and He will teach us of His ways, and we will walk in His paths. For out of Zion the law shall go forth, and the word of Yahweh from Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup> He will judge between the nations, and will decide concerning many peoples; and they shall beat their swords into plough shares, and their spears into pruning-hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. <sup>5</sup> O house of Jacob, come, let us walk in the light of the Lord!

Pride Will be Destroyed

<sup>6</sup> For You have forsaken Your people, the house of Jacob, because they are filled from the east with those who practice divination like the Philistines, and they shake hands with the children of foreigners. <sup>7</sup> Their land is full of silver and gold, neither is there any end of their treasures. Their land also is full of horses, neither is there any end of their chari-

ots. <sup>8</sup> Their land also is full of idols, they worship the work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made. <sup>9</sup> Man is brought low, and mankind is humbled; therefore don't forgive them. <sup>10</sup> Enter into the rock, and hide in the dust, from before the terror of Yahweh, and from the glory of His majesty. <sup>11</sup> The lofty looks of man will be brought low, the arrogance of men will be bowed down, and Yahweh alone will be exalted in that day. <sup>12</sup> For there will be a day of Yahweh of Armies for all that is proud and haughty, and for all that is lifted up; and it shall be brought low: <sup>13</sup> for all the cedars of Lebanon that are high and lifted up, for all the oaks of Bashan, <sup>14</sup> for all the high mountains, for all the hills that are lifted up, <sup>15</sup> for every lofty tower, for every fortified wall, <sup>16</sup> for all the ships of Tarshish and for all pleasant imagery. <sup>17</sup> The pride of man shall be bowed down, and the arrogance of men shall be brought low; and Yahweh alone shall be exalted in that day. <sup>18</sup> The idols shall utterly pass away. <sup>19</sup> Men shall go into the caves of the rocks and into the holes of the earth from before the terror of Yahweh, and from the

2:5 In view of the great future hope of God's Kingdom, God's people should in this life live in the spirit of it, and walk in God's light now as they will eternally.

2:7 The reference to silver, gold, horses and chariots recalls God's forbidding of Israel to trade with other nations in order to get these things, lest they become proud and fear Yahweh alone (Dt. 17:16-20). They did exactly that – and became proud, which is the very reason God wanted to destroy them as this chapter explains in such a repeated manner. Wealth and human strength lead to pride and idolatry – that principle is just as true today. Yet we can so easily seek those things, and the worldly associations through which they can apparently be acquired... Yet humility is of the essence, and this comes from being forced to trust in God alone.

glory of His majesty, when He arises to shake the earth mightily. <sup>20</sup> In that day men shall cast away their idols of silver and their idols of gold which have been made for themselves to worship, to the moles and to the bats; <sup>21</sup> to go into the caverns of the rocks and into the clefts of the ragged rocks, from before the terror of Yahweh, and from the glory of His majesty, when He arises to shake the earth mightily. <sup>22</sup> Stop trusting in man, whose breath is in his nostrils; for of what account is he?

CHAPTER 3 May 14

Judgement on Jerusalem and Judah

For, behold, the Lord Yahweh of Armies takes away from Jerusalem and from Judah supply and support, the whole supply of bread, and the whole supply of water; <sup>2</sup> the mighty man, the man of war, the judge, the prophet, the diviner, the elder, <sup>3</sup> the captain of fifty, the honourable man, the counsellor, the skilled craftsman and the clever enchanter. <sup>4</sup> I will give boys to be their princes, and children shall rule over them. <sup>5</sup> The people will be oppressed, everyone by another, and everyone by his neighbour. The child will behave himself proudly against the old man, and the base against the honourable. <sup>6</sup> Indeed a man shall take hold of his brother in the house of his father, saying, You have clothing, you be our ruler, and let this ruin be under your hand. <sup>7</sup> In that day he will cry out, saying, I will not be a healer; for in my house is neither bread nor clothing. You shall not make me ruler of the people. <sup>8</sup> For Jerusalem is ruined, and Judah is fallen; because their tongue and their doings are against Yahweh, to provoke the eyes of His glory. <sup>9</sup> The look of their faces testify against them. They parade their sin like Sodom. They don't hide it. Woe to their soul! For they have brought judgment upon themselves. <sup>10</sup> Tell the righteous Good! For they shall eat the fruit of their

2:20 In the day of Christ's return, bank accounts, property, investments etc. will be totally irrelevant, indeed people will seek to dissociate themselves from such things. Yet we live in the presence of God's glory and majesty every day of this life, if only we would perceive it.

3:9 The look of their faces testify against them. They parade their sin – God's intense awareness of and sensitivity to human behaviour extends even to His noticing of their body language (see too :16). Out of all the many things for which He could have condemned His people, He focuses on pride. Pride is simply so extremely abhorrent to God. "Testify against them" is legal language – their own body language as it were stands up in court in the witness box and condemns them, and in this sense they "brought judgment upon themselves". It is they rather than God who ask for the sentence of condemnation. He as the final judge arises to proclaim the verdict (:13), but it is Judah who have asked for it. Judgment is in this sense ongoing; it's not that God will only open the books and consider our case at Christ's return. Our own behaviour right now is the statement of the witness in the box, with God now making the judgment and assessing that witness (:13).

deeds. <sup>11</sup> Woe to the wicked! Disaster is upon them; for the deeds of his hands will be paid back to him. <sup>12</sup> As for My people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. My people, those who lead you cause you to err, and destroy the way of your paths.

The Lord Judges His People

<sup>13</sup> Yahweh stands up to contend, and stands to judge the peoples. <sup>14</sup> Yahweh will enter into judgement with the elders of His people, and their leaders: It is you who have eaten up the vineyard. The spoil of the poor is in your houses. <sup>15</sup> What do you mean that you crush My people, and grind the face of the poor? says the Lord, Yahweh of Armies.

A Warning to the Women

<sup>16</sup> Moreover Yahweh said, Because the daughters of Zion are haughty, and walk with outstretched necks and flirting eyes, walking to trip as they go, jingling ornaments on their feet; <sup>17</sup> therefore the Lord brings sores on the crown of the head of the women of Zion, and Yahweh will make their scalps bald. <sup>18</sup> In that day the Lord will take away the beauty of their anklets, the headbands, the crescent necklaces, <sup>19</sup> the earrings, the bracelets, the veils, <sup>20</sup> the headdresses, the ankle chains, the sashes, the perfume bottles, the charms, <sup>21</sup> the signet rings, the nose rings, <sup>22</sup> the fine robes, the capes, the cloaks, the purses, <sup>23</sup> the hand mirrors, the fine linen garments, the tiaras, and the shawls. <sup>24</sup> It shall happen that instead of sweet spices, there shall be rottenness; instead of a belt, a rope; instead of well set hair, baldness; instead of a robe, a wearing of sackcloth; and branding instead of beauty. <sup>25</sup> Your men shall fall by the sword, and your mighty in the war. <sup>26</sup> Her gates shall lament and mourn; and she shall be desolate and sit on the ground.

CHAPTER 4 May 14

Seven women shall take hold of one man in that day, saying, We will eat our own bread, and wear our own clothing: only let us be called by your name. Take away our reproach. Jerusalem To Be Restored

<sup>2</sup> In that day, Yahweh's branch will be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the land will be the beauty and glory of the survivors of Israel. <sup>3</sup> It will happen, that he who is left in Zion, and he who remains in Jerusalem shall be called holy, even everyone who is written among the living in Jerusalem; <sup>4</sup> when the Lord shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from its midst, by the spirit of justice, and by the spirit of burning. <sup>5</sup> Yahweh will create over the whole habita-

3:16 Again, God notices and condemns the body language of people, so closely does He analyze human behaviour and so hypersensitive is He to any human pride; see on :9. 4:5 The allusion is to the pillar of cloud and fire which led Israel through the wilderness. Israel's history, like our personal lives, is a wilderness journey, led by the Angel in the cloud and fire; but finally the pillar comes to rest, over Jerusalem.

tion of Mount Zion and over her assemblies a cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night; for over all the glory will be a canopy. <sup>6</sup> There will be a pavilion for a shade in the daytime from the heat, and for a refuge and for a shelter from storm and from rain.

The Song of the Vineyard

Let me sing for my well beloved a song of my beloved about His vineyard. My beloved had a vineyard on a very fruitful hill. <sup>2</sup> He dug it up, gathered out its stones, planted it with the choicest vine, built a tower in its midst, and also cut out a wine press therein. He looked for it to yield grapes, but it yielded wild grapes. <sup>3</sup> Now, inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah, please judge between Me and My vineyard. <sup>4</sup> What could have been done more to My vineyard, that I have not done in it? Why, when I looked for it to yield grapes, did it yield wild grapes? <sup>5</sup> Now I will tell you what I will do to My vineyard. I will take away its hedge, and it will be eaten up. I will break down its wall of it, and it will be trampled down. <sup>6</sup> I will lay it a wasteland. It won't be pruned nor hoed, but it will grow briars and thorns. I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain on it. <sup>7</sup> For the vineyard of Yahweh of Armies is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah His pleasant plant; and He looked for justice, but, behold, oppression; for righteousness, but, behold, a cry of distress.

The Evil That Men Do

<sup>8</sup> Woe to those who join house to house, who lay field to field until there is no room, and you are made to dwell alone in the midst of the land! <sup>9</sup> In my ears Yahweh of Armies says: Surely many houses will be desolate,

5:3 Please judge between Me and My vineyard – At times, God invites us to judge Him (see Rom. 3:4). We may find this idea of putting God in the dock to be inappropriate and something we shy away from; but every time we doubt that in fact God has created an ideal environment for our bearing of spiritual fruit, this is in fact what we are doing.

5:4 God has done absolutely everything possible so that we His vineyard bring forth fruit. We need to remember this when we complain that if only this or that situation would be different in my life, then I could bring forth far more fruit to God. Jesus based His parable of the vineyard on this song (Mt. 21:33-41). But He concludes it rather differently. Instead of the vineyard being destroyed, the workers (the Jews) are destroyed in judgment and the vineyard is given to other workers (the body of Christ). But the same fruit is required of us as it was from them – justice and righteousness towards others (:7). In these very two things, we exalt God if we exalt the lowly by giving them justice (:16).

5:5, 6 This describes how Judah was trampled by invaders and left waste for 70 years whilst Judah were in captivity in Babylon. God's hope was that the vineyard would again be fruitful at their return, but it wasn't.

5:9 In my ears – Isaiah spoke publically what God had spoken in his ears. The spirit of the prophets should be our spirit in our testimony for Jesus (Rev. 19:10). Jesus con-even great and beautiful ones, uncupied. <sup>10</sup> For ten acres of vineyard shall yield one bath, and a homer of seed shall yield an ephah. <sup>11</sup> Woe to those who rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; who stay late into the night, until wine inflames them! <sup>12</sup> The harp, lyre, tambourine, and flute, with wine, are at their feasts; but they don't respect the work of Yahweh, neither have they considered the operation of His hands. <sup>13</sup> Therefore My people go into captivity for lack of knowledge. Their honourable men are famished, and their multitudes are parched with thirst. <sup>14</sup> Therefore Sheol has enlarged its desire, and opened its mouth without measure; and their glory, their multitude, their pomp, and he who rejoices among them, descend into it. <sup>15</sup> So man is brought low, mankind is humbled, and the eyes of the arrogant ones are humbled; <sup>16</sup> but Yahweh of Armies is exalted in justice, and God the Holy One is sanctified in righteousness. <sup>17</sup> Then the lambs will graze as in their pasture, and strangers will eat the ruins of the rich. <sup>18</sup> Woe to those who draw iniquity with cords of falsehood, and wickedness as with cart rope; <sup>19</sup> who say, Let Him make speed, let Him hasten His work, that we may see it; and let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw near and come, that we may know it! <sup>20</sup> Woe to those who call evil good, and good evil; who put darkness for light, and light for darkness; who put bitter for sweet. <sup>21</sup> Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight! <sup>22</sup> Woe to those who are mighty to drink wine, and champions at mixing strong drink; <sup>23</sup> who acquit the guilty for a bribe, but deny justice for the innocent! <sup>24</sup> Therefore as the tongue of fire devours the stubble, and as the dry grass sinks down in the flame, so their root shall be as rottenness, and their blossom shall go up as dust; because they have rejected the law of Yahweh of Armies, and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel. <sup>25</sup> Therefore Yahweh's anger burns against His people, and He has stretched out His hand against them, and has struck them. The mountains tremble, and their dead bodies are as refuse in the midst of the streets. For all this, His anger is not turned away, but His hand is still stretched out. <sup>26</sup> He will lift up a banner for the nations from far, and He will whistle for them from the end of the land.

firmly this by telling us that what we (like Isaiah) hear in the ear, we are to openly proclaim (Mt. 10:27). It must've been hard and counter-instinctive for Isaiah to proclaim his message to a people who generally didn't want to hear nor have their comfort zones invaded – just as it is for us.

5:13 For lack of knowledge – This “lack” was a moral issue, not an intellectual one. To ‘know’ God doesn't mean to amass theory, but to not follow the selfish materialism criticized in the previous verses.

5:15, 16 Humility exalts God; this paradox is found throughout the Bible, supremely in the exaltation of the supremely humble Jesus to the greatest height.

5:26 The Gentile nations situated at the end or borders of Judah came and attacked her from their own motives, but ultimately God was using them and had called them

Behold, they will come speedily and swiftly. <sup>27</sup> None shall be weary nor stumble among them; none shall slumber nor sleep; neither shall the belt of their waist be untied, nor the latches of their shoes be broken: <sup>28</sup> whose arrows are sharp, and all their bows bent. Their horses' hoofs will be like flint, and their wheels like a whirlwind. <sup>29</sup> Their roaring will be like a lioness, they will roar like young lions. Yes, they shall roar and seize their prey and carry it off, and there will be no one to deliver. <sup>30</sup> They will roar against them in that day like the roaring of the sea. If one looks to the land behold, darkness and distress. The light is darkened in its clouds.

CHAPTER 6 May 16

God Calls to Isaiah

In the year that king Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lifted up; and His train filled the temple. <sup>2</sup> Above Him stood the seraphim. Each one had six wings; with two he covered his face, with two he covered his feet and with two he flew. <sup>3</sup> One called to another and said, Holy, holy, holy, is Yahweh of Armies! The whole earth is full of His glory! <sup>4</sup> The foundations of the thresholds shook at the voice of Him to come and do His work of judgment. Total unbelievers are in God's hand and are moved around the board of life by God in relation to His intentions for His people.

6:1 In 1:4 we have a vision of "the Lord high and lifted up", enthroned in the temple, with an earthquake, the temple filled with smoke, the doorposts that held up the veil being shaken (with the implication that the veil falls, :4). Rev. 15:5-8, building on this passage, has the veil being removed, the Most Holy opened, and the temple filled with smoke. This sends the mind straight to the rending of the temple veil at the crucifixion and the earthquake (Mt. 27:51). The Lord "high and lifted up" is a phrase that occurs later in Isaiah (52:13), concerning the crucified Lord Jesus, lifted up and exalted "very high" by the cross. John 12:37-41 tells us that Isaiah 6 is a prophetic vision of the Lord Jesus in glory; and in this passage John quotes both Isaiah 6 and 53 together, reflecting their connection and application to the same event, namely the Lord's crucifixion. When Isaiah saw this vision he was convicted of his sinfulness, as we should be before the cross: "Woe is me, for I am undone...". And yet the same vision comforted him with the reality of forgiveness, and inspired him to offer to go forth and witness to Israel of God's grace. The vision of the cross convicts men of their sin, and yet inspires them to go forward in service. Rev. 4:9 alludes to the Isaiah 6 vision, and applies it to the future judgment. Yet silhouetted within the vision of the judgment throne is a slain lamb (Rev. 5:6), as if before the judgment, all will be aware of the Lord's sacrifice. The accepted will utter praise immediately after realising the wonderful verdict pronounced for them – in terms of praising Jesus for his sacrifice, and recognising their eternal debt to the blood of His cross (Rev. 5:9). The cross, the judgment and reward are connected. In Jn. 12:31,32, in the same passage in which Isaiah 6 and 53 are connected and applied to the crucifixion, Jesus Himself foretold that His death would be "the judgment of this world". Whenever we come before the cross we come before our judgment, and therefore self-examination at the breaking of bread service is natural.

who called, and the house was filled with smoke. <sup>5</sup> Then I said, Woe is me! For I am undone, because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell amongst a people of unclean lips: for my eyes have seen the King, Yahweh of Armies! <sup>6</sup> Then one of the seraphim flew to me having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar. <sup>7</sup> He touched my mouth with it and said, Behold, this has touched your lips; and your iniquity is taken away and your sin forgiven. <sup>8</sup> I heard the Lord's voice, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then I said, Here I am. Send me! <sup>9</sup> He said, Go, and tell this people, 'You hear indeed, but don't understand; and you see indeed, but don't perceive'. <sup>10</sup> Make the heart of this people fat. Make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and turn again, and be healed. <sup>11</sup> Then I said, Lord, how long? He answered, Until the cities are waste without inhabitant and houses without man and the land becomes utterly waste, <sup>12</sup> and Yahweh has removed men far away, and the forsaken places are many in the midst of the land. <sup>13</sup> If there is a tenth left in it, that also will in turn be consumed: as a terebinth, and as an oak, whose stump remains when they are felled; so the holy seed is its stump.

Isaiah Is Sent to King Ahaz

It happened in the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin the king of Syria and Pekah the son of Remaliah king of Israel, went up to Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail against it. <sup>2</sup> It was told the house of David, saying, Syria is allied with Ephraim! His heart trembled, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the forest tremble with the wind. <sup>3</sup> Then Yahweh said to Isaiah, Go out now to meet Ahaz, you, and Shearjashub your son, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool, on the highway of the fuller's field. <sup>4</sup> Tell him, 'Be careful, and keep calm. Don't be afraid, neither let your heart be faint because of these two tails of smoking torches, for the fierce anger of Rezin and Syria, and of the son of Remaliah. <sup>5</sup> Because Syria, Ephraim and the son of Remaliah have plotted evil against you, saying, <sup>6</sup> Let's go up against Judah and tear it apart, and let's divide it among ourselves, and set up a king in its midst, even the son of Tabeel. <sup>7</sup> This is what the Lord Yahweh says: It shall not stand, neither shall it happen. <sup>8</sup> For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin; and within sixty-five years Ephraim shall be broken in pieces, so that it shall not be a people; <sup>9</sup> and the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. If you will not believe, surely you shall not be established'.

A Sign from God

<sup>10</sup> Yahweh spoke again to Ahaz, saying, <sup>11</sup> Ask a sign of Yahweh your God; ask it either in the depth, or in the height above. <sup>12</sup> But Ahaz said, I will not ask, neither will I tempt Yahweh. <sup>13</sup> He said, Listen now, house of David. Is it not enough for you to try the patience of men, that you will try the patience of My God also? <sup>14</sup> Therefore the Lord Himself will give you a sign. Behold, the virgin will conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel. <sup>15</sup> He shall eat curds and honey when he knows to refuse the evil, and choose the good. <sup>16</sup> For before the child knows to refuse the evil, and choose the good, the land whose two kings you abhor shall be forsaken. <sup>17</sup> Yahweh will bring on you, on your people and on your father's house, days that have not come, from the day that Ephraim departed from Judah; even the king of Assyria. <sup>18</sup> It will happen in that day that Yahweh will whistle for the fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria. <sup>19</sup> They shall come, and shall all rest in the desolate valleys, in the clefts of the rocks, on all thorn hedges, and on all pastures. <sup>20</sup> In that day the Lord will shave with a razor that is hired in the parts beyond the River Euphrates, even with the king of Assyria, the head and the hair of the feet; and it shall also consume the beard. <sup>21</sup> It shall happen in that day that a man shall keep alive a young cow, and two sheep; <sup>22</sup> and it shall happen, that because of the abundance of milk which they shall give he shall eat curds: for everyone will eat curds and honey who is left in the midst of the land. <sup>23</sup> It will happen in that day that every place where there were a thousand vines at a thousand silver shekels, shall be for briers and thorns. <sup>24</sup> People will go there with arrows and with bow, because all the land will be briers and thorns. <sup>25</sup> All the hills that were cultivated with the hoe, you shall not come there for fear of briers and thorns; but it shall be for the sending forth of oxen, and for the treading of sheep.

CHAPTER 8 May 18

The Sign of Isaiah's Son

Yahweh said to me, Take a large tablet, and write on it with a man's pen, 'For Maher Shalal Hash Baz;' <sup>2</sup> and I will take for Myself faithful witnesses to testify: Uriah the priest, and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah. <sup>3</sup> I went to the prophetess, and she conceived, and bore a son. Then Yahweh said to me, Call his name 'Maher Shalal Hash Baz'. <sup>4</sup> For before the child knows how to say, 'My father', and, 'My mother', the riches of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria will be carried away by the king of Assyria.

7:12 False humility is as obnoxious to God as human pride.

7:14 This prophecy is applied to the Lord Jesus, the final "Emmanuel" ["God with us"] in Mt. 1:23. But clearly the prophecy had a primary fulfilment in the time of Isaiah (perhaps in 8:3,4). God's prophecies could be validated by those who first heard them, because they would have a fulfilment in their times (Dt. 18:22), but they also often had their major fulfilment in far distant times.

8:6 This people have refused the waters of Shiloah – Referring to how Isaiah had stood by the gentle waters in 7:3 and urged them not to fear the Syria-Ephraim con-

The Invasion and Warnings

Yahweh spoke to me yet again, saying, <sup>6</sup> Because this people have refused the waters of Shiloah that go softly, and rejoice in Rezin and Remaliah's son; <sup>7</sup> now therefore, behold, the Lord brings upon them the mighty flood waters of the River Euphrates: the king of Assyria and all his glory. It will come up over all its channels, and go over all its banks. <sup>8</sup> It will sweep onward into Judah. It will overflow and pass through; it will reach even to the neck; and the stretching out of its wings will fill the breadth of your land, Immanuel. <sup>9</sup> Make an uproar, you peoples, and be broken in pieces! Listen, all you from far countries: dress for battle, and be shattered! Dress for battle, and be shattered! <sup>10</sup> Take counsel together, and it will be brought to nothing; speak the word, and it will not stand: for God is with us. <sup>11</sup> For Yahweh spoke thus to me with a strong hand, and instructed me not to walk in the way of this people, saying, <sup>12</sup> Don't say, 'A conspiracy!' concerning all about which this people say, 'A conspiracy!' neither fear what they fear, nor be terrorized. <sup>13</sup> Yahweh of Armies is who you must respect as holy. He is the one you must fear; He is the one you must dread. <sup>14</sup> He will be a sanctuary for both houses of Israel, but He will be a trap and a snare for the inhabitants of Jerusalem. <sup>15</sup> Many will stumble over it, fall, be broken, be snared, and be captured. <sup>16</sup> Wrap up the testimony. Seal the law among My disciples. <sup>17</sup> I will wait for Yahweh, who hides His face from the house of Jacob, and I will look for Him. <sup>18</sup> Behold, I and the children whom Yahweh has given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from Yahweh of Armies, who dwells in Mount Zion. <sup>19</sup> When they tell you, Consult with those who have familiar spirits and with the wizards, who chirp and who mutter: shouldn't a people consult with their God? Should they consult the dead on behalf of the living? <sup>20</sup> Turn to the law

federacy but trust in God, who for all their sins was prepared to deliver them from that threat. Yet instead they tried to find salvation from it by human means. Because of this, God was going to go ahead and bring the Assyrians upon them as He had initially planned. Notice that although He had threatened to do this from the start of Isaiah's prophecy, He gave them a potential way out by asking them to trust in Him and not fear Ephraim's threatened invasion. But they failed that test.

8:18 I and the children whom Yahweh has given me – This applies not only to Isaiah's natural children but to his "disciples" who formed a school of prophets who also preached God's word to Judah (:16). Yet this is quoted in Heb. 2:13 as a proof that Christ was of the same nature as us. We are therefore invited to see Isaiah here as a type of Christ, and us as that small group of supporters who assisted him in teaching God's word to a generally unresponsive people. We too are to be people of sign to those around us.

8:20 This is to be our attitude too – we are to assess the claims of others by how far they are in harmony with God's word. By turning to His word in this way, we are 'consulting with our God' rather than men (:19).

and to the testimony! If they don't speak according to this word, surely there is no light in them. <sup>21</sup> They will pass through it, very distressed and hungry; and it will happen that when they are hungry, they will worry, and curse by their king and by their God. They will turn their faces upward, <sup>22</sup> and look to the earth, and see distress, darkness, and the gloom of anguish. They will be driven into thick darkness.

CHAPTER 9 May 19

Unto Us a Child Is Born

But there shall be no more gloom for her who was in anguish. In the former time, He brought into contempt the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali; but in the latter time He has made it glorious, by the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations. <sup>2</sup> The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light, those who lived in the land of the shadow of death, on them the light has shined. <sup>3</sup> You have multiplied the nation, but You have not increased their joy. They will rejoice before You according to the joy in harvest, as men rejoice when they divide the spoil. <sup>4</sup> For the yoke of his burden and the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, You have broken as in the day of Midian. <sup>5</sup> For all the armour of the armed man in the noisy battle and the garments rolled in blood will be for burning, fuel for the fire. <sup>6</sup> For to us a child is born, to us a son is given; and the government will be on his shoulders. His name will be called Wonderful, Counsellor, Divine Warrior, Father of the Eternal Age, Prince of Peace. <sup>7</sup> Of the increase of his government and of peace there shall be no end, on the throne of David, and on his kingdom, to establish it, and to uphold it with justice and with righteousness from that time on, even forever. The zeal of Yahweh of Armies will perform this.

Punishment

9:2 Quoted in Mt. 4:13-16 about how Jesus began His ministry in the areas of northern Israel which were most despised by devout Jews for being associated with Gentiles. God loves working in this way – firstly revealing Himself to those despised by others.

9:6 For to us a child is born – This must have had some primary fulfilment in the promised son of sign who had been promised in Isaiah's time in previous chapters (7:14; 8:3). This son was to be known as 'God with us', 'Immanuel', but this didn't make him God Himself in person. The major fulfilment of the prophecy in Jesus likewise doesn't make Him to be God Himself. His name was to be called "Wonderful, Counsellor, Divine Warrior"; Jesus as God's Son carried God's Name (Jn. 5:43), and therefore all the titles of God can be applied to Him. The list of titles here seems borrowed from the traditional titles of the rulers of the surrounding nations. The point was that Messiah was to be Israel's true king, reigning on God's behalf and carrying His Name and authority.

9:7 Christ will rule "on the throne of David" in the sense that His Kingdom on earth will have a literal centre in Jerusalem (2 Sam. 7:12-16; Lk. 1:31-35).

ple will know, including Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria, who say in pride and in arrogance of heart, <sup>10</sup> The bricks have fallen, but we will rebuild with cut stone. The sycamore fig trees have been cut down, but we will put cedars in their place. <sup>11</sup> Therefore Yahweh will set up on high against him the adversaries of Rezin, and will stir up his enemies, <sup>12</sup> the Syrians in front and the Philistines behind; and they will devour Israel with open mouth. For all this, His anger is not turned away, but His hand is stretched out still.

<sup>13</sup> Yet the people have not turned to Him who struck them, neither have they sought Yahweh of Armies. <sup>14</sup> Therefore Yahweh will cut off from Israel head and tail, palm branch and reed, in one day. <sup>15</sup> The elder and the honourable man is the head, and the prophet who teaches lies is the tail. <sup>16</sup> For those who lead this people lead them astray; and those who are led by them are destroyed. <sup>17</sup> Therefore the Lord will not rejoice over their young men, neither will He have compassion on their fatherless and widows; for each one is profane and an evildoer, and every mouth speaks folly. For all this His anger is not turned away, but His hand is stretched out still.

<sup>18</sup> For wickedness burns like a fire, it devours the briars and thorns; yes, it kindles in the thickets of the forest, and they roll upward in a column of smoke. <sup>19</sup> Through the wrath of Yahweh of Armies, the land is burnt up; and the people are the fuel for the fire. No one spares his brother. <sup>20</sup> One will devour on the right hand, and be hungry; and he will eat on the left hand, and they will not be satisfied. Everyone will eat the flesh of his own arm: <sup>21</sup> Manasseh, Ephraim; and Ephraim, Manasseh; and they together shall be against Judah. For all this His anger is not turned away, but His hand is stretched out still.

CHAPTER 10 May 20

Woe to those who decree unrighteous decrees, and to the writers who write oppressive decrees; <sup>2</sup> to deprive the needy from justice, and to rob the poor among My people of their rights, that widows may be their spoil, and that they may make the fatherless their prey! <sup>3</sup> What will you do in the day of visitation, and in the desolation which will come from afar? To whom will you flee for help? Where will you leave your wealth? <sup>4</sup> They will only bow down under the prisoners, and will fall under the slain. For all this His anger is not turned away, but His hand is stretched out still.

How God Used Assyria

<sup>5</sup> Alas Assyrian, the rod of My anger, the staff in whose hand is My indignation! <sup>6</sup> I will send him against a profane nation, and against the

9:12 With open mouth – The nations surrounding Judah are here likened to a beast; when we later read of a dramatic beast in conflict with God's people in the last days, this may also refer to a confederacy comprised of the nations which surround Israel.

10:7 He doesn't mean so – Unbelieving people and entire nations can be controlled by people who anger Me will I give him a command to take the spoil and to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets. <sup>7</sup> However he doesn't mean so, neither does his heart think so; but it is in his heart to destroy, and to cut off not a few nations. <sup>8</sup> For he says, Aren't all of my princes kings? <sup>9</sup> Isn't Calno like Carchemish? Isn't Hamath like Arpad? Isn't Samaria like Damascus? <sup>10</sup> As my hand has found the kingdoms of the idols, whose engraved images exceeded those of Jerusalem and of Samaria; <sup>11</sup> shall I not, as I have done to Samaria and her idols, so do to Jerusalem and her idols? <sup>12</sup> Therefore it will happen, that when the Lord has performed His whole work on Mount Zion and on Jerusalem, He will punish the fruit of the wilful proud heart of the king of Assyria, and the insolence of his arrogant looks. <sup>13</sup> For he has said, By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom; for I have understanding: and I have removed the boundaries of the peoples, and have robbed their treasures. Like a valiant man I have brought down their rulers. <sup>14</sup> My hand has found the riches of the peoples like a nest, and like one gathers eggs that are abandoned, have I gathered all the earth. There was no one who moved their wing, or that opened their mouth, or chirped. <sup>15</sup> Should an axe brag against him who chops with it? Should a saw exalt itself above him who saws with it? As if a rod should lift those who lift it up, or as if a staff should lift up someone who is not wood. <sup>16</sup> Therefore the Lord Yahweh of Armies will send among his fat ones leanness; and under his glory a burning will be kindled like the burning of fire. <sup>17</sup> The light of Israel will be for a fire, and his Holy One for a flame; and it will burn and devour his thorns and his briars in one day. <sup>18</sup> He will consume the glory of his forest and of his fruitful field, both soul and body. It will be as when a standard bearer faints. <sup>19</sup> The remnant of the trees of his forest shall be few, so that a child could write their number.

A Remnant

<sup>20</sup> It will come to pass in that day that the remnant of Israel and those who have escaped from the house

God to do His purpose, but their hearts are far from consciously realizing the role they are playing. Assyria was used by God to punish various Gentile nations and also Judah to some extent, but when he went too far and thought he would destroy the Jerusalem temple because Yahweh was merely another idol who couldn't withstand his strength (:11-13) – then God punished him. Truly all things are for our sakes as God's people (2 Cor. 4:15), and God even watches and disciplines those unbelievers who play a role in our lives if they intend to go further than what God has intended. His level of involvement in human life is awesome. We need to remember this in those times when we may feel God to be distant and uninvolved.

10:20 Will no more again lean on him who struck them – God's people had a bizarre habit of worshipping the very idols which their enemies worshipped. Any worship of of Jacob will no more again lean on him who struck them, but shall lean on Yahweh, the Holy One of Israel, in truth. <sup>21</sup> A remnant will return, even the remnant of Jacob, to the mighty God. <sup>22</sup> For though your people, Israel, are like the sand of the sea, a remnant of them shall return. A destruction is determined, overflowing with righteousness. <sup>23</sup> For the Lord Yahweh of Armies, will make a full end as already determined, in the midst of all the earth.

The Lord Will Punish Assyria

<sup>24</sup> Therefore the Lord Yahweh of Armies, says My people who dwell in Zion, don't be afraid of the Assyrian, though he strike you with the rod, and lift up his staff against you, as Egypt did. <sup>25</sup> For yet a very little while, and the indignation against you will be accomplished, and My anger will be directed to his destruction. <sup>26</sup> Yahweh of Armies will stir up a scourge against him, as in the slaughter of Midian at the rock of Oreb. His rod will be over the sea, and He will lift it up like He did against Egypt. <sup>27</sup> It will happen in that day, that his burden will depart from off your shoulder, and his yoke from off your neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing oil. <sup>28</sup> He has come to Aiath, he has passed through Migron; at Michmash he stores his baggage; <sup>29</sup> they have gone over the pass; they have taken up their lodging at Geba; Ramah trembles; Gibeah of Saul has fled. <sup>30</sup> Cry aloud with your voice, daughter of Gallim! Listen, Laishah! You poor Anathoth! <sup>31</sup> Madmenah is a fugitive, the inhabitants of Gebim flee for safety, <sup>32</sup> this very day he will halt at Nob. He shakes his hand at the mountain of the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem. <sup>33</sup> Behold, the Lord Yahweh of Armies will lop the boughs with terror. The tall will be cut down, and the lofty will be brought low. <sup>34</sup> He will cut down the thickets of the forest with iron, and Lebanon will fall by the Mighty One.

this world's idols is just as bizarre, but in the heat of our human situation, we don't see the absurdity of it as we should.

10:22 This is quoted in Rom. 9:27 and the remnant is interpreted as the minority of Israel who would believe in Christ. Always God works with relatively small numbers. Israel were one of the smallest of the nations in their world, and yet God chose them; and yet out of them, He finally worked only with a remnant. In the context of Romans 9, Paul also appears to understand God's definition of a remnant here as meaning that they were a remnant only by grace; as if even our correct belief and living before God is to some degree a result of His gracious calling.

10:25 My anger will be directed to his destruction – God's anger isn't emotion out of control. His anger was against Judah, and He was using Assyria to punish them; but He can assure His people that soon that anger will be redirected against the Assyrian, and He will save Jerusalem itself, although the rest of the land of Judah would be conquered – :28-30 describe the Assyrian advance through the other cities of Judah. Even whilst angry with Judah, God felt sorry for them – hence “You poor Anathoth!” (:30). In wrath He remembers mercy (Hab. 3:2).

Perfect Justice in Messiah's Kingdom

A shoot will come out of the stock of Jesse, and a branch out of his roots will bear fruit. <sup>2</sup> The Spirit of Yahweh will rest on him: the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of Yahweh. <sup>3</sup> His delight will be in the fear of Yahweh; he will not judge by the sight of his eyes, neither decide by the hearing of his ears; <sup>4</sup> but with righteousness he will judge the poor, and decide with equity for the humble of the earth. He will strike the earth with the rod of his mouth; and with the breath of his lips he will kill the wicked. <sup>5</sup> Righteousness will be the belt of his waist and faithfulness the belt of his loins. <sup>6</sup> The wolf will live with the lamb, and the leopard will lie down with the young goat; the calf, the young lion, and the fattened calf together; and a little child will lead them. <sup>7</sup> The cow and the bear will graze, their young ones will lie down together. The lion will eat straw like the ox, <sup>8</sup> the nursing child will play near a cobra's hole, and the weaned child will put his hand on the viper's den. <sup>9</sup> They will not hurt nor destroy in all My holy mountain; for the earth will be full of the knowledge of Yahweh, as the waters cover the sea.

The Exiles Will Return

<sup>10</sup> It will happen in that day that the nations will seek the root of Jesse, who stands as a banner of the peoples; and his resting place will be glorious. <sup>11</sup> It will happen in that day that the Lord will set His hand again the second time to recover the remnant that is left of His people from Assyria, from Egypt, from Pathros, from Cush, from Elam, from Shinar, from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea. <sup>12</sup> He will set up a banner for the nations and will assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from

11:1 Jesus was the branch whose root was in David, son of Jesse; He was a literal descendant of David through Mary (Acts 2:30). He therefore couldn't have personally pre-existed before His birth of her.

11:2 These words were clearly true of Christ (Lk. 4:18).

11:4 The descriptions of how Christ in His life and future Kingdom would bring justice to the poor is set within the context of Isaiah's repeated condemnation of Judah for not doing justice to the poor (3:14; 10:2). He would be an embodiment of all that God's people ought to have been; had they followed God's commandments, they could have been His Kingdom on earth. But they failed, as we do. Therefore Christ is presented as the essence of God's Kingdom, it's even one of His titles (Lk. 17:21). If we want to understand what the Kingdom of God will essentially be like, we must look at the character of Christ. If that's not what we wish to be in ourselves 24/7, there will be no point in our being in His Kingdom. But if we long to be like that, and for the whole world to be as Him, then the coming Kingdom of God is truly good news for us.

11:9 A clear prophecy of God's future Kingdom to be established on earth under Christ's rulership – and not in Heaven.

the four corners of the earth. <sup>13</sup> The envy also of Ephraim will depart, and those who persecute Judah will be cut off. Ephraim won't envy Judah, and Judah won't persecute Ephraim. <sup>14</sup> They will fly down on the shoulders of the Philistines on the west. Together they will plunder the children of the east. They will extend their power over Edom and Moab, and the children of Ammon will obey them. <sup>15</sup> Yahweh will utterly destroy the tongue of the Egyptian sea; and with His scorching wind He will wave His hand over the River, and will split it into seven streams, and cause men to march over in sandals. <sup>16</sup> There will be a highway for the remnant that is left of His people from Assyria, like there was for Israel in the day that he came up out of the land of Egypt.

Hymn of Praise

In that day you will say, I will give thanks to You, Yahweh; for though You were angry with me, Your anger has turned away and You comfort me. <sup>2</sup> Behold, God is my salvation. I will trust, and will not be afraid; for Yah, Yahweh, is my strength and song; and He has become my salvation. <sup>3</sup> Therefore with joy you will draw water out of the wells of salvation. <sup>4</sup> In that day you will say, Give thanks to Yahweh! Call on His name. Declare His doings among the peoples. Proclaim that His name is exalted! <sup>5</sup> Sing to Yahweh, for He has done excellent things! Let this be known in all the earth! <sup>6</sup> Cry aloud and shout, you inhabitant of Zion; for the Holy One of Israel is great in the midst of you!

God Will Punish Babylon

The burden of Babylon, which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw: <sup>2</sup> Set up a banner on the bare mountain! Lift up your voice to them! Wave your hand, that they may go into the gates of the nobles. <sup>3</sup> I have commanded My consecrated ones; yes, I have called My mighty men for My anger, even My proudly exulting ones. <sup>4</sup> The noise of a multitude is in the mountains, as of a great people; the noise of an uproar of the kingdoms of the nations gathered together! Yahweh of Armies is mustering the army for the battle. <sup>5</sup> They come from a far country, from the uttermost part of heaven, even Yahweh, and the weapons of His indignation,

12:6 The Holy One of Israel is great in the midst of you – God Himself personally, perhaps manifested through His Son but perhaps in person, will ultimately dwell literally in Jerusalem.

13:1 Prophesying like this against a city like Babylon would've been as bizarre as declaring that the world's great cities such as London, Moscow or New York will soon become deserted wasteland because God is angry with their pride (:19). Isaiah's faith, and that of his hearers, would've been sorely tested in preaching and believing this message; just as our proclamation of Christ's return is a challenge to our faith when we consider its' real implications for our current world.

to destroy the whole land. <sup>6</sup> Wail; for the day of Yahweh is at hand! It will come as destruction from the Almighty. <sup>7</sup> Therefore all hands will be feeble, and everyone's heart will melt. <sup>8</sup> They will be dismayed. Pangs and sorrows will seize them, they will be in pain like a woman in labour. They will look in amazement one at another, their faces will be faces of flickering flame. <sup>9</sup> Behold, the day of Yahweh comes, cruel, with wrath and fierce anger; to make the land a desolation, and to destroy its sinners out of it. <sup>10</sup> For the stars of the sky and its constellations will not give their light, the sun will be darkened in its going forth, and the moon will not cause its light to shine. <sup>11</sup> I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity. I will cause the arrogance of the proud to cease, and will humble the arrogance of the terrible. <sup>12</sup> I will make people more valuable than fine gold, even a person than the pure gold of Ophir. <sup>13</sup> Therefore I will make the heavens tremble, and the earth will be shaken out of its place in the wrath of Yahweh of Armies, and in the day of His fierce anger. <sup>14</sup> It will happen that like a hunted gazelle, and like sheep that no one gathers, they will each turn to their own people, and will each flee to their own land. <sup>15</sup> Everyone who is found will be thrust through. Everyone who is captured will fall by the sword. <sup>16</sup> Their infants also will be dashed in pieces before their eyes. Their houses will be ransacked, and their wives raped. <sup>17</sup> Behold, I will stir up the Medes against them, who will not value silver, and as for gold, they will not delight in it. <sup>18</sup> Their bows will dash the young men in pieces; and they shall have no pity on the fruit of the womb. Their eyes will not spare children. <sup>19</sup> Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldeans' pride, will be like when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah. <sup>20</sup> It will never be inhabited, neither will it be lived in from generation to generation. The Arabian will not pitch a tent there, neither will shepherds make their flocks lie down there. <sup>21</sup> But wild animals of the desert will lie there, and their houses will be full of jackals. Ostriches will dwell there, and wild goats will frolic there. <sup>22</sup> Wolves will cry in their castles, and jackals in the

13:12 I will make people more valuable than fine gold – The value and meaning of persons will be the principle which is to be enforced upon this earth by the destruction of all those systems which mean otherwise.

13:13 Heavens and earth are used figuratively here to describe a system of things – see on 1:2. There is nothing imperfect in Heaven which needs judgment or destruction.

13:20-22 Much has been made of the fact that the historical site of Babylon has been deserted for long periods. But there have been attempts to rebuild it at times and some dwelling there. This prophecy must therefore have its final fulfilment when Christ returns, which suggests there will be a literal Babylon in existence, persecuting God's people as did the historical Babylon. Perhaps the fall of Babylon at Christ's return which is described in Revelation has a literal element to it. Bible students therefore pleasant palaces. Her time is near to come, and her days will not be prolonged.

Israel Allowed to Return

For Yahweh will have compassion on Jacob, and will yet choose Israel, and set them in their own land. The foreigner will join himself with them, and they will unite with the house of Jacob. <sup>2</sup> The peoples will take them, and bring them to their place. The house of Israel will possess them in Yahweh's land for servants and for handmaids. They will take as captives those whose captives they once were; and they shall rule over their oppressors.

Babylon Is Destroyed

It will happen in the day that Yahweh will give you rest from your sorrow from your trouble and from the hard service in which you were made to serve, <sup>4</sup> that you will take up this parable against the king of Babylon and say, How the oppressor has ceased! The golden city has ceased! <sup>5</sup> Yahweh has broken the staff of the wicked, the sceptre of the rulers, <sup>6</sup> who struck the peoples in wrath with a continual stroke, who ruled the nations in anger, with a persecution that none restrained. <sup>7</sup> The whole earth is at rest, and is quiet. They break out in song. <sup>8</sup> Yes, the fir trees rejoice with you, with the cedars of Lebanon, saying, Since you are humbled, no lumberjack has come up against us. <sup>9</sup> Sheol from beneath has moved for you to meet you at your coming. It stirs up the dead for you, even all the rulers of the earth. It has raised up from their thrones all the kings of the nations. <sup>10</sup> They all will answer and ask you, Have you also become as weak as we are? Have you become like us? <sup>11</sup> Your pomp is brought down to Sheol, with the sound of your stringed instruments. Maggots are spread out under you, and worms cover you. <sup>12</sup> How you have fallen from heaven, morning watch the situation in Iran and Iraq, the areas of historical Babylon and Assyria, with great interest.

14:12 It is assumed by some that Lucifer was once a powerful angel who sinned at Adam's time and was therefore cast down to earth. This isn't Biblical. The words "Devil", "Satan" and "angel" never occur in this chapter. This is the only place in Scripture where the word "Lucifer" occurs in some translations. There is no evidence that Isaiah 14 is describing anything that happened in the garden of Eden; if it is, then why are we left 3,000 years from the time of Genesis before being told what really happened there? Lucifer is described as being covered in maggots (:11) and mocked by men (:16) because he no longer has any power; so there is no justification for thinking that Lucifer is now on earth leading believers astray. Why is Lucifer punished for saying, "I will ascend into heaven" (:13), if he was already there? Lucifer is to rot in sheol [the grave] (:11). Seeing angels cannot die (Lk. 20:35,36), Lucifer therefore cannot be an angel; the language is more suited to a man. It wasn't until Milton's Paradise Lost that the term 'Lucifer' took on any connotation of 'Satan' or a force of evil in secular thinking. Isaiah 13–23 is a series of "burdens" on various nations, e.g. Baby-star [Lucifer], son of the dawn! How you are cut down to the ground, who laid the nations low! <sup>13</sup> You said in your heart, I will ascend into heaven! I will exalt my throne above the stars of God! I will sit on the mountain of assembly, in the far north! <sup>14</sup> I will ascend above the heights of the clouds! I will make myself like the Most High! <sup>15</sup> Yet you shall be brought down to Sheol, to the depths of the pit. <sup>16</sup> Those who see you will stare at you. They will ponder you, saying, Is this the man who made the earth to tremble, who shook kingdoms; <sup>17</sup> who made the world like a wilderness, and overthrew its cities; who didn't release his prisoners to their home? <sup>18</sup> All the kings of the nations sleep in glory, each one in his own house. <sup>19</sup> But you are cast away from your tomb like a hated branch, clothed with the slain, who are thrust through with the sword, who go down to the stones of the pit; like a dead body trodden under foot. <sup>20</sup> You will not join them in burial, because you have destroyed your land. You have killed your people. The seed of evildoers will not be mentioned by name forever. <sup>21</sup> Prepare for slaughter of his children because of the iniquity of their fathers, that they rise not up and possess the earth, and fill the surface of the world with cities. <sup>22</sup> I will rise up against them, says Yahweh of Armies, and cut off from Babylon name and remnant, and son and son's son, says Yahweh. <sup>23</sup> I will also make it a possession for the porcupine, and pools of water. I will sweep it with the broom of destruc-

lon, Tyre, Egypt. 14:4 sets the context as being a parable against the king of Babylon. The prophecy is therefore about the human king of Babylon, who is described as the morning star. He is clearly defined as a man in :16, a king like any other king (:9,10). In the parable, this star proudly decides to "ascend (higher) into heaven... exalt my throne above the (other) stars of God" (:13). "The stars of God" can refer to the leaders of Israel (Gen. 37:9; Joel 3:15; Dan. 8:10). Because of this, the star is cast down to the earth. The star represents the king of Babylon. Daniel 4 explains how Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had a pride which reached unto heaven (Dan. 4:22). Because of this he was made as an animal (Dan. 4:33). This sudden humbling of one of the world's most powerful men to a deranged lunatic was such a dramatic event as to call for the parable about the falling of the morning star from heaven to earth. Stars are symbolic of powerful people (Gen. 37:9; Is. 13:10; Ez. 32:7). Ascending to heaven and falling from heaven are Biblical idioms often used for increasing in pride and being humbled (Job 20:6; Jer. 51:53; Lam. 2:1; Mt. 11:23). 14:8 records the relief that now the "Lucifer" figure would no longer cut down cedars in Lebanon and hew mountains. This is exactly the language used by Nebuchadnezzar: "What no former king had done, I achieved: I cut through steep mountains, I split rocks, I opened passages and constructed a straight road for the transport of cedars... To Marduk, my king, mighty cedars... The abundant yield of the Lebanon". Clearly the figure spoken of in Is. 14 was Nebuchadnezzar. 14:12 says that Lucifer was to be "cut down to the ground" – implying he was a tree. This provides a further link with Daniel 4:8–16, where Nebuchadnezzar and Babylon are likened to a tree being cut down.

tion, says Yahweh of Armies. <sup>24</sup> Yahweh of Armies has sworn, saying, Surely, as I have thought, so shall it happen; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand: <sup>25</sup> that I will break the Assyrian in My land, and tread him under foot on My mountains. Then his yoke will leave them, and his burden leave their shoulders. <sup>26</sup> This is the plan that is determined for the whole earth. This is the hand that is stretched out over all the nations. <sup>27</sup> For Yahweh of Armies has planned, and who can stop it? His hand is stretched out, and who can turn it back? <sup>28</sup> This burden was in the year that king Ahaz died.

Philistines Destroyed

Don't rejoice, O Philistia, all of you, because the rod that struck you is broken; for out of the serpent's root an adder will emerge, and his fruit will be a fiery flying serpent. <sup>30</sup> The first-born of the poor will eat, and the needy will lie down in safety; and I will kill your root with famine, and your remnant will be killed. <sup>31</sup> Howl, gate! Cry, city! You are melted away, Philistia, all of you; for smoke comes out of the north, and there is no straggler in his ranks. <sup>32</sup> What will they answer the messengers of the nation? That Yahweh has founded Zion, and in her the afflicted of His people will take refuge.

Moab Destroyed

The burden of Moab: for in a night, Ar of Moab is laid waste, and brought to nothing; for in a night Kir of Moab is laid waste, and brought to nothing. <sup>2</sup> They have gone up to Bayith, and to Dibon, to the high places, to weep. Moab wails over Nebo and over Medeba. Baldness is on all of their heads; every beard is cut off. <sup>3</sup> In their streets they clothe themselves in sackcloth. In their streets and on their housetops everyone wails, weeping abundantly. <sup>4</sup> Heshbon cries out with Elealeh. Their voice is heard even to Jahaz. Therefore the armed men of Moab cry aloud, their souls tremble within them. <sup>5</sup> My heart cries out for Moab! Her nobles flee to Zoar, to Eglath Shelishiyah; for they go up by the ascent of Luhith with weeping; for in the way of Horonaim, they raise up a cry of destruction. <sup>6</sup> For the waters of Nimrim will be desolate; for the grass has withered away, the tender grass fails, there is no green thing. <sup>7</sup> Therefore they will carry away the abundance they have gotten, and that which they have stored up, over the brook of the willows. <sup>8</sup> For the cry has gone around the borders of Moab; its wailing to Eglaim, and its wailing echoes back to Beer Elim. <sup>9</sup> For the waters of Dimon are full of blood; for I will bring yet more on Dimon, a lion on those of Moab who escape, and on the remnant of the land.

15:5 My heart cries out for Moab! – Isaiah was emotionally caught up in his message. Having prophesied how Moab, the enemy of his people, would weep and cry out, Isaiah starts crying for them. Like God, he had no joy in the death or judgment of his enemies. He grieved at any person who turns against God, even if they were his personal enemy. The message of Christ's return is also a message of judgment on this earth, and we must ask ourselves whether we have ever cried tears for the lost? See on 16:7.

Moab's Hopeless Situation

Send the lambs for the ruler of the land from Selah to the wilderness, to the mountain of the daughter of Zion. <sup>2</sup> For it will be that as wandering birds, as a scattered nest, so will the daughters of Moab be at the fords of the Arnon. <sup>3</sup> Give counsel! Execute justice! Make your shade like the night in the midst of the noonday! Hide the outcasts! Don't betray the fugitive! <sup>4</sup> Let My outcasts dwell with you! As for Moab, be a hiding place for him from the face of the destroyer. For the extortioner is brought to nothing. Destruction ceases, the oppressors are consumed out of the land. <sup>5</sup> A throne will be established in grace, one will sit on it in truth, in the tent of David, judging, seeking justice, and swift to do righteousness. <sup>6</sup> We have heard of the pride of Moab, that he is very proud; even of his arrogance, his pride, and his wrath. His boastings are nothing. <sup>7</sup> Therefore Moab will wail for Moab, all of them will wail. You will mourn for the raisin cakes of Kir Hareseth, utterly stricken. <sup>8</sup> For the fields of Heshbon languish like the vine of Sibmah. The lords of the nations have broken down its choice branches which reached even to Jazer, which wandered into the wilderness. Its shoots were spread abroad, they passed over the sea. <sup>9</sup> Therefore I will weep with the weeping of Jazer for the vine of Sibmah. I will water you with my tears, Heshbon, and Elealeh: for on your summer fruits and on your harvest the battle shout has fallen. <sup>10</sup> Gladness is taken away, and joy out of the fruitful field; and in the vineyards there will be no singing, neither joyful noise. Nobody will tread out wine in the presses; I have made the shouting stop. <sup>11</sup> Therefore my heart sounds like a harp for Moab, and my inward parts for Kir Heres. <sup>12</sup> It will happen that when Moab presents himself, when he wearies himself on the high place and comes to his sanctuary to pray, that he will not prevail. <sup>13</sup> This is the word that Yahweh spoke concerning Moab in time past. <sup>14</sup> But now Yah-

16:7 Moab will wail for Moab – And yet Isaiah the Jew wailed for Moab too, such was his identity with and grief for the lost; see on 15:5.

16:9 Therefore I will weep with the weeping of Jazer – Jazer was part of Moab, so Isaiah is saying that he wept as the Moabites did, so much did he identify with the tragedy of his enemies' position. See on 15:5; 16:7; 21:3; 24:16.

16:10 I have made the shouting stop – Isaiah here recognizes the awesome power of the inspired words he was declaring, and felt identified with God to a very deep extent.

16:12 He will not prevail – Prayer is here likened to a struggle, as in Hos. 12:4. It's not a mindless uttering of familiar words and phrases, but real, focused engagement with the mind and heart of God.

weh has spoken, saying, Within three years, as a worker bound by contract would count them, the glory of Moab shall be brought into contempt, with all his great multitude; and the remnant will be very small and feeble.

CHAPTER 17 May 27

Syria Is Punished

The burden of Damascus: Behold, Damascus is taken away from being a city, and it will be a ruinous heap. <sup>2</sup> The cities of Aroer are forsaken. They will be for flocks, which shall lie down, and none shall make them afraid. <sup>3</sup> The fortress shall cease from Ephraim, and the kingdom from Damascus, and the remnant of Syria. They will be as the glory of the children of Israel, says Yahweh of Armies.

Concerning Israel

It will happen in that day that the glory of Jacob will be made thin, and the fatness of his flesh will become lean. <sup>5</sup> It will be like when the harvester gathers the wheat, and his arm reaps the grain. Yes, it will be like when one gleanes grain in the valley of Rephaim. <sup>6</sup> Yet gleanings will be left there, like the shaking of an olive tree, two or three olives in the top of the uppermost bough, four or five in the outermost branches of a fruitful tree, says Yahweh, the God of Israel. <sup>7</sup> In that day, a man will look to his Maker, and his eyes shall perceive the Holy One of Israel. <sup>8</sup> They will not look to the altars, the work of their hands; neither shall they respect that which their fingers have made, neither the Asherim nor the incense altars. <sup>9</sup> In that day their strong cities will be like the forsaken places in the woods and on the mountain top, which were forsaken from before the children of Israel; and it will be a desolation. <sup>10</sup> For you have forgotten the God of your salvation, and have not remembered the rock of your strength. Therefore you plant pleasant plants, and set out foreign seedlings. <sup>11</sup> In the day of your planting, you hedge it in; in the morning, you make your seed blossom, but the harvest flees away in the day of grief and of desperate sorrow. <sup>12</sup> Ah, the uproar of many peoples, who roar like the roaring of the seas; and the rushing of nations, that rush like the rushing of mighty waters! <sup>13</sup> The nations will rush like the rushing of many waters: but He will rebuke them, and they will flee far off, and will be chased like the chaff of the 17:4 The glory of Jacob will be made thin – The context of this section has been a series of prophetic burdens condemning various Gentile nations. And now Isaiah turns to God's people with a message of judgment, as if to make the point that they are no better than the sinful world around them.

17:13 Chased like the chaff – This is the language of Dan. 2:35,44 concerning what will happen to all Gentile nations at Christ's return and the establishment of His Kingdom on the ruins of the kingdoms of men. The fearsome awfulness of that day (:14) must never cease to be part of our thinking; with the result that we beseech people to become part of God's true Israel.

mountains before the wind, and like the whirling dust before the storm. <sup>14</sup> At evening, behold, terror! Before the morning, they are no more. This is the portion of those who plunder us, and the lot of those who rob us.

CHAPTER 18 May 27 Ethiopia Is Punished and Converted

Ah, the land of the rustling of wings, which is beyond the rivers of Ethiopia; <sup>2</sup> that sends ambassadors by the sea, even in vessels of papyrus on the waters, saying, Go, you swift messengers, to a nation tall and smooth, to a people awesome from their beginning onward, a nation that measures out and treads down, whose land the rivers divide! <sup>3</sup> All you inhabitants of the world and you dwellers on the land, when a banner is lifted up on the mountains, look! When the trumpet is blown, listen! <sup>4</sup> For Yahweh said to me, I will be still, and I will be seen in My dwelling place, like clear heat in sunshine, like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest. <sup>5</sup> For before the harvest, when the blossom is over, and the flower becomes a ripening grape, He will cut off the sprigs with pruning hooks, and He will cut down and take away the spreading branches. <sup>6</sup> They will be left together for the ravenous birds of the mountains, and for the animals of the earth. The ravenous birds will summer on them, and all the animals of the earth will winter on them. <sup>7</sup> In that time, a present will be brought to Yahweh of Armies from a people tall and smooth, even from a people awesome from their beginning onward, a nation that measures out and treads down, whose land the rivers divide, to the place of the name of Yahweh of Armies, Mount Zion.

CHAPTER 19 May 28 Egypt Is Punished

The burden of Egypt: Behold, Yahweh rides on a swift cloud, and comes to Egypt. The idols of Egypt will tremble at His presence; and the heart of Egypt will melt in its midst. <sup>2</sup> I will stir up the Egyptians against the Egyptians, and they will fight each one against his brother, and each one against his neighbour; city against city, and kingdom against kingdom. <sup>3</sup> The spirit of Egypt will fail in its midst; I will de-

18:7 The intention of all God's judgments is that some will repent, drop their pride and come to identify with Him and His people. His judgments aren't therefore the outpouring of the uncontrolled anger of an irritated deity, but they are spiritually constructive in their ultimate intent. We see this too in the smaller experience we have of Divine judgment for our sins in this life.

19:2 God can give a community the spirit of division as a sign of His judgment (also in :14), and so a divided community is one which is displeasing to God. If we seek, create and glorify division, we are effectively making ourselves worthy of God's condemnation.

19:3-13 This passage speaks of how Egyptian wisdom is in fact foolish, and will be declared as such in Egypt's final judgment; and how God will thereby destroy the stroy its wisdom. They will seek the idols, the charmers, those who have familiar spirits, and the wizards. <sup>4</sup> I will give over the Egyptians into the hand of a cruel lord; a fierce king will rule over them, says the Lord Yahweh of Armies. <sup>5</sup> The waters will fail from the sea, and the river will be wasted and become dry. <sup>6</sup> The rivers will become foul; the streams of Egypt will be diminished and dried up, the reeds and flags will wither away. <sup>7</sup> The meadows by the Nile, by the brink of the Nile, and all the sown fields of the Nile, will become dry, be driven away, and be no more. <sup>8</sup> The fishermen will lament, and all those who fish in the Nile will mourn, and those who spread nets on the waters will languish. <sup>9</sup> Moreover those who work in combed flax and those who weave white cloth will be confounded. <sup>10</sup> The pillars will be broken in pieces. All those who work for hire will be grieved in soul. <sup>11</sup> The princes of Zoan are utterly foolish, the counsel of the wisest counsellors of Pharaoh has become stupid. How do you say to Pharaoh, I am the son of the wise, the son of ancient kings? <sup>12</sup> Where then are your wise men? Let them tell you now; and let them know what Yahweh of Armies has purposed concerning

Egypt. <sup>13</sup> The princes of Zoan have become fools, the princes of Memphis are deceived. They have caused Egypt to go astray, they who are the cornerstone of her tribes. <sup>14</sup> Yahweh has mixed a spirit of division in the midst of her; and they have caused Egypt to go astray in all of its works, like a drunken man staggers in his vomit. <sup>15</sup> Neither shall there be any work for Egypt, which head or tail, palm branch or rush, may do.

Egypt and Assyria Will Be Blessed

<sup>16</sup> In that day the Egyptians will be like women, they will tremble and fear because of the shaking of the hand of Yahweh of Armies which He shakes over them. <sup>17</sup> The land of Judah will become a terror to Egypt. Everyone to whom mention is made of it will be afraid, because of the plans of Yahweh of Armies which He determines against it. <sup>18</sup> In that day, there will be five cities in the land of Egypt that speak the language of Canaan, and swear to Yahweh of Armies. One will be called The city of destruction. <sup>19</sup> In that day there will be an altar to Yahweh in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar to Yahweh at its border. <sup>20</sup> It will be for a sign and for a witness to Yahweh of Armies in the land of Egypt; for wisdom of this world, for Egypt is a symbol of the world. Paul alludes here in 1 Cor. 1:19,20, where he speaks of just the same principles; that God will bring down the wisdom of this world, and that worldly wisdom is foolishness with Him (as in Rom. 1:22). What the world will learn only when it's too late, we are to learn now. This is not an appeal to any spirit of anti-intellectualism in itself, but rather the simple teaching that what is worldly wise and smart is foolishness with God; and acts and attitudes of faith which may appear foolish in the eyes of the world, are in fact the true wisdom.

they will cry to Yahweh because of oppressors, and He will send them a saviour and a defender, and He will deliver them. <sup>21</sup> Yahweh will be known to Egypt, and the Egyptians will know Yahweh in that day. Yes, they will worship with sacrifice and offering, and will vow a vow to Yahweh, and will perform it. <sup>22</sup> Yahweh will strike Egypt, striking and healing. They will return to Yahweh, and He will be entreated by them, and will heal them. <sup>23</sup> In that day there will be a highway out of Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian shall come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria; and the Egyptians will worship with the Assyrians. <sup>24</sup> In that day, Israel will be the third with Egypt and with Assyria, a blessing in the midst of the earth; <sup>25</sup> because Yahweh of Armies has blessed them, saying, Blessed be Egypt My people, Assyria the work of My hands, and Israel My inheritance.

CHAPTER 20 May 29

The Sign of the Naked Prophet

In the year that Tartan came to Ashdod, when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him, and he fought against Ashdod and took it; <sup>2</sup> at that time Yahweh spoke by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, Go, and loosen the sackcloth from off your waist, and take your shoes from off your feet. He did so, walking naked and barefoot. <sup>3</sup> Yahweh said, As My servant Isaiah has walked naked and barefoot three years for a sign and a wonder concerning Egypt and concerning Ethiopia, <sup>4</sup> so the king of Assyria will lead away the captives of Egypt and the exiles of Ethiopia, young and old, naked and barefoot, and with buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt. <sup>5</sup> They will be dismayed and confounded, because of Ethiopia their expectation, and of Egypt their glory. <sup>6</sup> The inhabitants of this coast land will say in that day, ‘Behold, this is our expectation, where we fled for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria. And we, how will we escape?’.

CHAPTER 21 May 29

The Fall of Babylon

The burden of the wilderness of the sea. As whirlwinds in the South sweep through, it comes from the wilderness, from an awesome land. <sup>2</sup> A grievous vision is declared to me. The treacherous man deals treacherously, and the destroyer destroys. Go up, Elam; attack! I have stopped all

19:21 This prediction that the Egyptians will finally turn to Israel’s God hasn’t yet been fulfilled; it therefore awaits its’ fulfilment around the time of Christ’s return.

20:6 The inhabitants of this coast land – The people of Judah. God speaks in a very positive way of how He believes that His people will cease trusting in Egypt after seeing Isaiah’s graphic portrayal of how the Egyptians were to be led captive. Yet as later Isaiah makes clear, His people didn’t ‘get it’; they continued trusting in Egypt rather than in God for salvation from their enemies. Yet God speaks as if they will positively respond. This reflects His hopefulness (as in Mt. 21:37), and this should be our spirit in our witness to others, preaching with a sure hope in response, as the shepherd who goes looking for the lost sheep in the spirit of searching until it is found (Lk. 15:4).

of Media's sighing. <sup>3</sup> Therefore my thighs are filled with anguish, pains have taken hold on me, like the pains of a woman in labour. I am in so much pain that I can't hear; I so am dismayed that I can't see. <sup>4</sup> My heart flutters. Horror has frightened me. The evening of my pleasure has been turned into trembling for me. <sup>5</sup> They prepare the table, they set the watch; then they eat and drink! But 'Rise up, you princes, oil the shield!'. <sup>6</sup> For the Lord said to me, Go, set a watchman. Let him declare what he sees. <sup>7</sup> When he sees a troop, horsemen in pairs, a troop of donkeys, a troop of camels, he shall listen diligently with great attentiveness. <sup>8</sup> He cried like a lion: Lord, I stand continually on the watchtower in the daytime, and every night I stay at my post. <sup>9</sup> Behold, here comes a troop of men, horsemen in pairs. He answered, Fallen, fallen is Babylon; and all the engraved images of her gods are broken to the ground. <sup>10</sup> You are My threshing, and the grain of My floor! That which I have heard from Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, I have declared to you.

A Message about Edom

<sup>11</sup> The burden of Dumah. One calls to me out of Seir, Watchman, what of the night? Watchman, what of the night? <sup>12</sup> The watchman said, The morning comes, and also the night. What hour of the night will it come? Turn back again.

A Message about Arabia

<sup>13</sup> The burden on Arabia. In the forest in Arabia you will lodge, you caravans of Dedanites. <sup>14</sup> They brought water to him who was thirsty. The inhabitants of the land of Tema met the fugitives with their bread. <sup>15</sup> For they fled away from the swords, from the drawn sword, from the bent bow, and from the heat of battle. <sup>16</sup> For

21:3, 4 Isaiah's emotional grief for those outside of God's people as he spoke of their judgment is really impressive – see on 16:9.

21:4 What would have been pleasure for Isaiah – that the great enemy of His people was to be judged – became awful for him as he realized the tragic human destruction it involved. Strangely, he achieved identity with Belshazzar king of Babylon, who likewise had his evening of pleasure broken up by fear – see on :5. Unconsciously, we too can achieve identity with the objects of our witness if we have a true heart for people as Isaiah did.

21:5 This is exactly the situation of Daniel 5, where Belshazzar has a feast, sees the writing on the wall, and then suddenly there was a cry that the Medes had attacked and taken the city.

21:12 What hour of the night will it come?... Turn back again – The exact timing of the fulfilment of God's prophecies is dependent to some extent upon human response. The ending of the night of judgment for these people would be when they turned back, i.e. repented. The morning might come, or the night might continue – it depended upon their response. The same idea is found in Acts 1:7,8; Mk. 13:28-33, where the answer to the question 'When will Jesus return?' is basically: 'Preach to Israel; lead them to repentance. That's when the Lord Jesus will return'.

the Lord said to me, Within a year, as a worker bound by contract would count it, all the glory of Kedar will fail,<sup>17</sup> and the residue of the number of the archers, the mighty men of the children of Kedar, will be few; for Yahweh, the God of Israel, has spoken it.

CHAPTER 22 May 30

A Message about Jerusalem

The burden of the valley of vision. What ails you now, that you have all gone up to the housetops? <sup>2</sup> You that are full of shouting, a tumultuous city, a joyous town; your slain are not slain with the sword, neither are they dead in battle. <sup>3</sup> All your rulers fled away together. They were bound by the archers. All who were found by you were bound together. They fled far away. <sup>4</sup> Therefore I said, Look away from me. I will weep bitterly. Don't labour to comfort me for the destruction of the daughter of my people. <sup>5</sup> For it is a day of confusion and of treading down and of perplexity from the Lord Yahweh of Armies, in the valley of vision; a breaking down of the walls, and a crying to the mountains. <sup>6</sup> Elam carried his quiver, with chariots of men and horsemen; and Kir uncovered the shield. <sup>7</sup> It happened that your choicest valleys were full of chariots, and the horsemen set themselves in array at the gate. <sup>8</sup> He took away the covering of Judah; and you looked in that day to the armour in the house of the forest. <sup>9</sup> You saw the breaches of the city of David, that they were many; and you gathered together the waters of the lower pool. <sup>10</sup> You numbered the houses of Jerusalem, and you broke down the houses to fortify the wall. <sup>11</sup> You also made a reservoir between the two walls for the water of the old pool. But you didn't look to Him who had done this, neither did you have respect for Him who purposed it long ago. <sup>12</sup> In that day, the Lord Yahweh of Armies called to weeping and to mourning and to baldness and to dressing in sackcloth: <sup>13</sup> and behold, joy and gladness, killing cattle and killing sheep, eating flesh and

22:8 He took away the covering of Judah – God's judgment makes a person naked (Hos. 2:3; 7:1; Rev. 16:15). Now is the time to see ourselves as we really are before God, rather than have to be stripped of all appearances at the final day of truth.

22:10, 11 This appears to refer to the preparations made by Hezekiah against the Assyrian invasion (2 Kings 20:20). Yet God perceived that the hearts of the people who did the work did it thinking that this piece of human ingenuity would save them rather than their faith in God. Hezekiah, whose initiative it was, appears to have acted with faith in God. We see therefore how within a group of people apparently doing the Lord's work, God perceives some may do it in faith in God, seeing the work as merely a means to an end, of His deliverance; whereas others trust in the work itself with no faithful heart.

22:13 Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we will die – Quoted by Paul in 1 Cor. 15:32 as the attitude we may as well have if we have no hope of resurrection to eternal life. Exactly because we will not die eternally, we are to not live merely for today, like the Jews in Isaiah's time, shrugging at the prospect of future judgment. Paul is saying that drinking wine: Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we will die. <sup>14</sup> Yahweh of Armies revealed Himself in my ears, Surely this iniquity will not be forgiven you until you die, says the Lord, Yahweh of Armies.

A Message to the Chief Treasurer

<sup>15</sup> Thus says the Lord, Yahweh of Armies, Go, get yourself to this treasurer, even to Shebna, who is over the house, and say, <sup>16</sup> ‘What are you doing here? Whom do you have here, that you have dug out a tomb here?’. Cutting himself out a tomb on high, chiselling a habitation for himself in the rock! <sup>17</sup> Behold, Yahweh will overcome you and hurl you away violently. Yes, He will grasp you firmly. <sup>18</sup> He will surely wind you around and around, and throw you like a ball into a large country. There you will die, and there the chariots of your glory will be, you shame of your lord’s house. <sup>19</sup> I will thrust you from your office. You will be pulled down from your station. <sup>20</sup> It will happen in that day that I will call My servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiyah, <sup>21</sup> and I will clothe him with your robe, and strengthen him with your belt. I will commit your government into his hand; and he will be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah. <sup>22</sup> I will lay the key of the house of David on his shoulder. He will open, and no one will shut. He will shut, and no one will open. <sup>23</sup> I will fasten him like a nail in a sure place. He will be for a throne of glory to his father’s house. <sup>24</sup> They will hang on him all the glory of his father’s house, the offspring and the issue, every small vessel, from the cups even to all the pitchers. <sup>25</sup> In that day, says Yahweh of Armies, the nail that was fastened in a sure place will give way. It will be cut down, and fall. The burden that was on it will be cut off, for Yahweh has spoken it.

A Message about Tyre and Sidon

The burden of Tyre. Howl, you ships of Tarshish! For it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in. From the land of Kittim it is revealed to them. <sup>2</sup> Be still, you inhabitants of the coast, you whom the merchants of Sidon, that pass over the sea, have replenished. <sup>3</sup> On great waters, the seed of the Shihor, the harvest of the Nile, was her revenue. She was the market of nations. <sup>4</sup> Be ashamed, Sidon; for the sea has spoken, the stronghold of the sea, saying, I have not travailed, nor brought forth, neither have I nourished young men, nor brought he for one would live like that if he had no hope of eternity. Our belief in future salvation has profound effect upon our lives today.

22:22 Applied by Jesus to Himself in Rev. 3:7. Eliakim could perhaps have been the Messiah figure of his time, but it seems he failed to live up to the potential, and so the prophecy was rescheduled and reapplied to Jesus. God sets up so many potentials for individuals and for His people as a whole; it’s so tragic for Him and for us all that so much potential is unfulfilled.

up virgins. <sup>5</sup> When the report comes to Egypt, they will be in anguish at the report of Tyre. <sup>6</sup> Pass over to Tarshish! Wail, you inhabitants of the coast! <sup>7</sup> Is this your joyous city, whose antiquity is of ancient days, whose feet carried her far away to travel? <sup>8</sup> Who has planned this against Tyre, the giver of crowns, whose merchants are princes, whose traffickers are the honourable of the earth? <sup>9</sup> Yahweh of Armies has planned it, to stain the pride of all glory, to bring into contempt all the honourable of the earth. <sup>10</sup> Pass through your land like the Nile, daughter of Tarshish. There is no restraint any more. <sup>11</sup> He has stretched out His hand over the sea, He has shaken the kingdoms. Yahweh has ordered the destruction of Canaan's strongholds. <sup>12</sup> He said, You shall rejoice no more, you oppressed virgin daughter of Sidon. Arise, pass over to Kittim. Even there you will have no rest. <sup>13</sup> Behold, the land of the Chaldeans. This people was not until the Assyrians founded it for those who dwell in the wilderness. They set up their towers; they overthrew its palaces, they made it a ruin. <sup>14</sup> Howl, you ships of Tarshish, for your stronghold is laid waste! <sup>15</sup> It will come to pass in that day that Tyre will be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king. After the end of seventy years it will be to Tyre like in the song of the prostitute. <sup>16</sup> Take a harp; go about the city, you prostitute that has been forgotten. Make sweet melody. Sing many songs, that you may be remembered. <sup>17</sup> It will happen after the end of seventy years that Yahweh will visit Tyre, and she shall return to her wages, and will play the prostitute with all the kingdoms of the world on the surface of the earth. <sup>18</sup> Her merchandise and her wages will be holiness to Yahweh. It will not be treasured nor laid up; for her merchandise will be for those who dwell before Yahweh, to eat sufficiently, and for durable clothing.

23:9 To stain the pride of all glory – All the various prophecies of judgment could have chosen many sinful aspects of the peoples' behaviour as being the reason for the judgments. But repeatedly, pride is the sin which God focuses upon. God is so sensitive to human pride that He even notices it amongst those not in relationship with Him, and takes the trouble to punish it and bring it down. It is so important to be humble. God gave Judah all this information about the impending fall of the surrounding nations so that His people would perceive the principles He works according to, and therefore humble themselves lest the same inevitable judgment for pride come upon them. We are intended to reflect upon the people who form the environment God has surrounded us with, and to learn from their rises and falls.

23:15 God's prophesied 70 year silencing of Tyre was perhaps to encourage Judah to believe that the prophecies of their 70 year captivity in Babylon and subsequent revival would likewise be fulfilled (Jer. 25:12; 29:10). God may make situations occur in the unbelieving world around us which parallel our own, in order that we may be encouraged that His word will come true in our lives and that His principles will be upheld in the end.

CHAPTER 24 Jun. 1Punishment on the Whole Land

Behold, Yahweh creates the earth empty, creates it waste, turns it upside down, and scatters its inhabitants. <sup>2</sup> It will be as with the people, so with the priest; as with the servant, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the creditor, so with the debtor; as with the taker of interest, so with the giver of interest. <sup>3</sup> The earth will be utterly emptied and utterly laid waste; for Yahweh has spoken this word. <sup>4</sup> The earth mourns and fades away, the world languishes and fades away; the proud people of the earth languish. <sup>5</sup> The earth also is polluted under its inhabitants, because they have transgressed the laws, violated the statutes, and broken the everlasting covenant. <sup>6</sup> Therefore the curse has devoured the earth, and those who dwell therein are found guilty. Therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left. <sup>7</sup> The new wine mourns, the vine languishes. All the merry-hearted sigh, <sup>8</sup> the mirth of tambourines ceases, the sound of those who rejoice ends, the joy of the harp ceases. <sup>9</sup> They will not drink wine with a song, strong drink will be bitter to those who drink it. <sup>10</sup> The confused city is broken down, every house is shut up so that no man may come in. <sup>11</sup> There is a crying in the streets because of the wine- all joy is darkened, the mirth of the land is gone. <sup>12</sup> The city is left in desolation, and the gate is struck with destruction. <sup>13</sup> For it will be so in the midst of the earth among the peoples, as the shaking of an olive tree, as the gleanings when the vintage is done. <sup>14</sup> These shall lift up their voice, they will shout for the majesty of Yahweh, they cry aloud from the sea. <sup>15</sup> Therefore glorify Yahweh in the east, even the name of Yahweh the God of Israel, in the islands of the sea! <sup>16</sup> From the uttermost part of 24:1 The earth, moon and sun (:23) are clearly spoken of figuratively, to describe the system of things in Judah – see on 1:2. However, often in this chapter we must remember that the Hebrew eretz translated “earth” can mean both the earth as in the whole planet, and also “the land”, as specifically the land of Israel or the land promised to Abraham.

Empty... waste is an allusion to how the earth was originally empty and waste in Gen. 1:2 (the same Hebrew words are used). The implication is that God was going to make a new creation with Judah out of the emptiness which His judgments would create. Again we see that God even has a creative purpose in the destruction of the wicked and judgment of our sins – hence to make something empty and waste is in fact to create something. Yet even this intended new creation of Judah after the 70 years captivity didn’t work out; the concept has been reapplied to how by baptism in Christ, we become a new creation once we have allowed God to make empty and waste our old personality (2 Cor. 5:17).

24:4 The world languishes... the proud people of the earth languish – We could probably understand “the world” here and often in the prophets as referring to people, i.e. society, rather than any reference to the physical planet.

the earth have we heard songs of glory to the righteous! But I said, I pine away! I pine away! Woe is me! The treacherous have dealt treacherously, yes, the treacherous have dealt very treacherously.<sup>17</sup> Fear, the pit and the snare are on you who inhabitant the earth.<sup>18</sup> It will happen that he who flees from the noise of the fear will fall into the pit; and he who comes up out of the midst of the pit will be taken in the snare; for the windows on high are opened, and the foundations of the earth tremble.<sup>19</sup> The earth is utterly broken. The earth is torn apart, the earth is shaken violently,<sup>20</sup> the earth will stagger like a drunken man, and will sway back and forth like a hammock. Its disobedience will be heavy on it, and it will fall and not rise again.<sup>21</sup> It shall happen in that day that Yahweh will punish the army of the high ones on high, and the kings of the earth on the earth.<sup>22</sup> They shall be gathered together, as prisoners are gathered in the pit, and shall be shut up in the prison; and after many days shall they be visited.<sup>23</sup> Then the moon shall be confounded, and the sun ashamed; for Yahweh of Armies will reign on Mount Zion, and in Jerusalem; and before His elders will be glory.

CHAPTER 25 Jun. 2

A Hymn of Praise

Yahweh, You are My God. I will exalt You! I will praise Your name, for You have done wonderful things, things planned long ago, in complete faithfulness and truth.<sup>2</sup> For You have made a city into a heap, a fortified city into a ruin, a palace of strangers to be no city; it will never be built.<sup>3</sup> Therefore a strong people will glorify You, a city of awesome nations will fear You.<sup>4</sup> For You have been a stronghold to the poor, a stronghold to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shade from the heat, when the blast of the dreaded ones is like a storm against the wall.<sup>5</sup> As the heat in a dry place will You bring down the noise of strangers; as the heat by the shade of a cloud, the song of the dreaded ones will be brought low.

Death Removed for Ever

In this mountain Yahweh of Armies will make to all peoples a feast of fat things, a feast of choice wines, of fat things full of marrow, of well refined choice wines.<sup>7</sup> He will destroy in this mountain the surface of the covering that covers all peoples, and the veil that is spread over all nations.<sup>8</sup> He

24:16 Isaiah's sorrow to the extent of wanting to pine away is purposefully juxtaposed alongside the reference to the fact that there would be a righteous remnant out of all the destruction. This is to show how pained he was at the fact that so many would be lost. We noted his extreme compassion for those who left or never knew God's ways in the note on 16:9.

25:6 A reference to the marriage supper of the Lord Jesus being held in Jerusalem, on the temple mount, at His return (Rev. 19:9).

25:8 He has swallowed up death forever – Quoted in 1 Cor. 15:54 about how death will be no more after Christ has returned, we have been resurrected and immortalized.

has swallowed up death forever! The Lord Yahweh will wipe away tears from off all faces. He will take the reproach of His people away from off all the earth, for Yahweh has spoken it. <sup>9</sup> It shall be said in that day, Behold, this is our God! We have waited for Him, and He will save us! This is Yahweh! We have waited for Him. We will be glad and rejoice in His salvation! <sup>10</sup> For in this mountain the hand of Yahweh will rest.

But Punishment for Moab

Moab will be trodden down in his place, even like straw is trodden down in the water of the dunghill. <sup>11</sup> He will spread out his hands in its midst, like one who swims spreads out hands to swim, but his pride will be humbled together with the craft of his hands. <sup>12</sup> He has brought down the high fortress of your walls, laid them low and brought them to the ground, even to the dust.

CHAPTER 26 Jun. 3

God Gives Victory for His People

In that day this song will be sung in the land of Judah: We have a strong city. God appoints salvation for walls and defences. <sup>2</sup> Open the gates, that the righteous nation may enter: the one which keeps faith. <sup>3</sup> You will keep whoever's mind is steadfast in perfect peace, because he trusts in You. <sup>4</sup> Trust in Yahweh forever; for in Yah, Yahweh, is an everlasting Rock. <sup>5</sup> For He has brought down those who dwell on high, the lofty city. He lays it low, He lays it low even to the ground, He brings it even to the dust. <sup>6</sup> The foot shall tread it down; even the feet of the poor, and the footsteps of the needy. <sup>7</sup> The way of the just is uprightness; You who are upright make the path of the righteous level. <sup>8</sup> Yes, in the way of Your judgements, Yahweh, have we waited for You. Your name and Your renown are the desire of our soul. <sup>9</sup> With my soul have I desired You in the night. Yes, with my spirit within me will I seek You earnestly; for when Your judgements are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world learn righteousness. <sup>10</sup> Let grace be shown to the wicked, yet he will not learn righteousness; in the land of uprightness he will deal wrongfully, and will not perceive Yahweh's majesty. <sup>11</sup> Yahweh, Your hand is lifted up, yet they don't see; but they will see Your zeal for the

The Lord Yahweh will wipe away tears from off all faces – Quoted in Rev. 7:17; 21:4 as being done by God at Christ's return when the righteous are given eternal life.

25:9 These will be our feelings after Christ has returned, and we stand immortalized before His judgment seat. Our faith in God's final, visible intervention on this earth and in our own lives will have finally come to realization.

26:1 In that day – See notes on 25:6,8,9. This day is the day of Christ's return and the establishment of God's Kingdom on earth.

26:10 This seems to be saying that it would be pointless to allow wicked people into God's Kingdom because even there they would not wish to be righteous. If we wish above all things to be eternally righteous, then the Kingdom of God will be for us.

people, and be disappointed; yes, fire will consume Your adversaries. <sup>12</sup> Yahweh, You will ordain peace for us, for You have also worked all our works for us. <sup>13</sup> Yahweh our God, other lords besides You have had dominion over us, but by You only will we make mention of Your name. <sup>14</sup> Their dead shall not live, their deceased shall not rise. Therefore have You visited and destroyed them, and caused all memory of them to perish. <sup>15</sup> You have increased the nation, O Yahweh, You have increased the nation! You are glorified! You have enlarged all the borders of the land. <sup>16</sup> Yahweh, in trouble they have come to You; they poured out a prayer when Your chastening was on them. <sup>17</sup> Like as a woman with child who draws near the time of her delivery and is in pain and cries out in her pangs; so we have been before You, Yahweh. <sup>18</sup> We have been with child, we have been in pain, we gave birth, it seems, only to wind. We have not worked any deliverance in the earth; neither have the inhabitants of the world fallen. <sup>19</sup> Your dead shall live; my dead body also shall arise. Awake and sing, you who dwell in the dust; for your dew is like the dew of herbs, and the earth will cast forth her dead.

Judgement on the Earth

<sup>20</sup> Come, My people, enter into your rooms, and shut your doors behind you. Hide yourself for a little moment, until the indignation is past. <sup>21</sup> For behold, Yahweh comes forth out of His place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity. The earth also will disclose her blood, and will no longer cover her slain.

Israel Restored

In that day, Yahweh with His hard Land great and strong sword will punish leviathan, the fleeing serpent, and leviathan the twisted serpent; and He will kill the dragon that is in the sea. <sup>2</sup> In that day, sing to her, A pleasant vineyard! <sup>3</sup> I, Yahweh, am its keeper. I will water it every moment. Lest anyone damage it, I will keep it

26:14 The Gentile nations not in saving covenant relationship with God will not be resurrected. Human beings have no inherent ‘immortal soul’; immortality is revealed only to God’s people (2 Tim. 1:10). Those who don’t know the Gospel will not be resurrected to judgment, nor will they be punished after death; they return to dust as the animals (Ps. 49:20). Knowledge is the basis of responsibility to God (Lk. 12:47,48).

26:20, 21 These verses are speaking of the situation around the time of the resurrection at Christ’s return (:19). It seems God’s people will be somehow hidden from the effects of the final judgments which will come upon the earth, in the same way as the Israelites in Egypt were untouched by the plagues which came on the rest of their surrounding world.

27:3 The vineyard owner in this simile is almost obsessive – he waters it continually, and day and night watches its borders. This unusual level of care by God for the vineyard of His people (5:7) is so that the vineyard has no excuse for not bringing forth fruit. God has done all that He can so that we should bring forth fruit (5:4). We cannot night and day. <sup>4</sup> Wrath is not in Me, but if I should find briers and thorns, I would do battle! I would march on them and I would burn them together. <sup>5</sup> Or else let him take hold of My strength, that he may make peace with Me; and he will make peace with Me. <sup>6</sup> In days to come, Jacob will take root, Israel will blossom and bud; they will fill the face of the world with fruit. <sup>7</sup> Has He struck them as He struck those who struck them? Or are they killed like those who killed them were killed? <sup>8</sup> In measure, when You send them away, You contend with them. He has removed them with His rough blast in the day of the east wind. <sup>9</sup> Therefore by this the iniquity of Jacob will be forgiven, and this is all the fruit of taking away his sin: that he makes all the stones of the altar as chalk stones that are beaten in pieces, so that the Asherim and the incense altars shall rise no more. <sup>10</sup> For the fortified city is solitary, a habitation deserted and forsaken, like the wilderness. The calf will feed there and there he will lie down and consume its branches. <sup>11</sup> When its boughs are withered, they will be broken off. The women will come and set them on fire, for they are a people of no understanding. Therefore He who made them will not have compassion on them, and He who formed them will show them no grace. <sup>12</sup> It will happen in that day, that Yahweh will thresh from the flowing stream of the Euphrates to the brook of Egypt; and you will be gathered one by one, you children of Israel. <sup>13</sup> It will happen in that day that a great trumpet will be blown; and those who were ready to perish in the land of Assyria, and those who were outcasts in the land of Egypt, shall come; and they will worship Yahweh in the holy mount at Jerusalem.

Judgement on Drunkards

Woe to the crown of pride of the drunkards of Ephraim, and to the fading flower of his glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fertile valley of those who are overcome with wine! <sup>2</sup> Behold, the Lord has a mighty and strong one; like a storm of hail, a destroying storm, and like a storm of mighty waters overflowing, He will cast them down to the earth with His hand. <sup>3</sup> The crown of pride of the drunkards of Ephraim will be trodden under foot. <sup>4</sup> The fading flower of his glorious therefore excuse our lack of fruitfulness by saying that if we had a better or different situation, we would then be fruitful. God has given us exactly the required environment in order to be fruitful, and the level of His care should never be doubted.

27:9 This is all the fruit of taking away his sin – God isn't saying that if Israel destroyed their altars, then He would forgive them. Instead His way of grace is to take away sin and then hope that we will make response to that, in this case, by destroying the altars.

28:1 Here we see again God's persistent hatred of pride; He condemned drunkenness because it made people proud (see too :3).

beauty, which is on the head of the fertile valley, shall be like the first-ripe fig before the summer, which someone picks and eats as soon as he sees it. <sup>5</sup> In that day, Yahweh of Armies will become a crown of glory, and a diadem of beauty, to the remains of His people; <sup>6</sup> and a spirit of justice to him who sits in judgement, and strength to those who turn back the battle at the gate. <sup>7</sup> They also reel with wine, and stagger with strong drink; the priest and the prophet reel with strong drink. They are swallowed up by wine, they stagger with strong drink. They err in vision, they stumble in judgement. <sup>8</sup> For all tables are completely full of filthy vomit and filthiness. <sup>9</sup> Whom will He teach knowledge? To whom will He explain the message? Those who are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts? <sup>10</sup> For it is precept on precept, precept on precept; line on line, line on line; here a little,

there a little. <sup>11</sup> But He will speak to this nation with stammering lips and in another language; <sup>12</sup> to whom He said, This is the resting place. Give rest to the weary; and This is the refreshing; yet they would not hear. <sup>13</sup> Therefore the word of Yahweh will be to them precept after precept, precept after precept; line on line, line on line; here a little, there a little; that they may go, fall backward, be broken, be snared, and be taken.

A Message for Jerusalem's Rulers

Therefore hear the word of Yahweh, you scoffers, that rule this people in Jerusalem: <sup>15</sup> Because you have said, 'We have made a covenant with death, and with Sheol are we in agreement; when the overflowing scourge passes through, it won't come to us; for we have made lies our refuge, and we have hidden ourselves under falsehood'. <sup>16</sup> Therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh, Behold,

28:13 Therefore the word of Yahweh will be to them precept after precept... line on line – This is declared as a judgment upon Judah, with the result that it would make them fall. Israel throughout their Biblical history always claimed to be believers in Yahweh and to be obedient to His word; their sin was in that they additionally did other things and worshipped other gods which were quite contrary to God's word. The problem was in their attitude to the word of God, which they claimed to study and be aware of. They saw it as merely a series of disjointed, unrelated commands; they didn't perceive the overall spirit behind it. Our Bible reading can be the same, indeed it is often like this for unbelievers who start reading the Bible for the first time. This is why we must pray for God to guide and assist our Bible reading so that we make the connections and join the dots, until we hear the voice of God Himself speaking to us through those lines and precepts.

28:15 Because you have said – It's unlikely these people actually openly said these words. But this was how they thought in their hearts, and God reads our quiet thoughts as if we have spoken them out loud. To be spiritually minded is the essence of Christian living.

28:16 Quoted in 1 Pet. 2:6-8 about Jesus, who is either a stone to be stumbled over (8:14), or to be built upon as the foundation of our lives. Those who encounter Christ

I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious cornerstone of a sure foundation. He who believes shall not be ashamed. <sup>17</sup> I will make justice the measuring line, and righteousness the plumb line. The hail will sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters will overflow the hiding place. <sup>18</sup> Your covenant with death shall be annulled, and your agreement with Sheol shall not stand. When the overflowing scourge passes through, then you will be trampled down by it. <sup>19</sup> As often as it passes through, it will seize you; for morning by morning it will pass through, by day and by night; and it will be nothing but terror to understand the message. <sup>20</sup> For the bed is too short to stretch out on, and the blanket is too narrow to wrap oneself in. <sup>21</sup> For Yahweh will rise up as on Mount Perazim, He will be angry as in the valley of Gibeon; that He may do His work, His unusual work, and bring to pass His act, His extraordinary act. <sup>22</sup> Now therefore don't be scoffers, lest your bonds be made strong; for I have heard a decree of destruction from the Lord Yahweh of Armies, upon the whole earth. <sup>23</sup> Give ear, and hear my voice! Listen, and hear my speech! <sup>24</sup> Does he who ploughs to sow plough continually? Does he keep turning the soil and breaking the clods? <sup>25</sup> When he has levelled its surface, doesn't he plant the dill, and scatter the cumin seed, and put in the wheat in rows, the barley in the appointed place, and the spelt in its place? <sup>26</sup> For his God instructs him in right judgment, and teaches him. <sup>27</sup> For the dill are not threshed with a sharp instrument, neither is a cart wheel turned over the cumin; but the dill is beaten out with a stick, and the cumin with a rod. <sup>28</sup> Bread flour must be ground; so he will not always be threshing it. Although he drives the wheel of his threshing cart over it, his horses don't grind it. <sup>29</sup> This also comes forth from Yahweh of Armies, who is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in wisdom.

The Siege of Jerusalem

Woe to Ariel! Ariel, the city where David encamped! Add year to year; let the feasts come around; <sup>2</sup> then I will distress Ariel, and there will be mourning and lamentation. She shall be to Me as an altar hearth. <sup>3</sup> I will encamp against you all around you, and will lay cannot be passive to Him or unaffected by that encounter; knowledge brings responsibility.

28:24-28 Although the trials and judgments God brings into our lives may appear pointlessly repetitious, they aren't. They last for a limited time and to a specific end.

29:3 I will encamp against you... and will lay siege against you – It was understood that each city had its god, who was supposed to protect it from invaders. But here the God of Israel says that He Himself will camp with Jerusalem's enemies, and enable and support their campaign against His own people. This was more radical a concept of God at that time than we can likely realize. Yet it's all very hard for us to under-siege against you with a mount; I will raise siege works against you.

<sup>4</sup> You will be brought down, and will speak out of the ground. Your speech will mumble out of the dust. Your voice will be as of one who has a familiar spirit, out of the ground, and your speech will whisper out of the dust. <sup>5</sup> But the multitude of your foes will be like fine dust, and the multitude of the ruthless ones like chaff that blows away. Yes, it will be in an instant, suddenly. <sup>6</sup> She will be visited by Yahweh of Armies with thunder, with earthquake, with great noise, with whirlwind and storm, and with the flame of a devouring fire.

<sup>7</sup> The multitude of all the nations that fight against Ariel, even all who fight against her and her stronghold and who distress her, will be like a dream, a vision of the night. <sup>8</sup> It will be like when a hungry man dreams, and behold, he eats; but he awakes, and his hunger isn't satisfied; or like when a thirsty man dreams, and behold, he drinks; but he awakes, and behold, he is faint, and he is still thirsty. The multitude of all the nations that fight against Mount Zion will be like that.

<sup>9</sup> Pause and wonder, take your pleasure and be blind. They are drunken, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink. <sup>10</sup> For Yahweh has poured out on you a spirit of deep sleep, and has closed your eyes, O prophets; and He has covered your heads, O seers. <sup>11</sup> All vision has become to you like the words of a book that is sealed, which men deliver to one who is educated, saying, Read this, please; and he says, I can't, for it is sealed: <sup>12</sup> and the book is delivered to one who is not educated, saying, Read this, please; and he says, I can't read. <sup>13</sup> The Lord said, Because this people draws near with their mouth and with their lips to honour Me, but they have removed their heart far from Me, and their fear of Me is a commandment of men which has been taught; <sup>14</sup> therefore, behold, I will proceed to do a marvellous work among this people, even a marvellous work and a wonder; and the wisdom of their wise men will per-stand that the God of all grace can allow and bring about the most awful suffering in the lives of His children – with the aim of developing us even through our weaknesses so that we shall enter His Kingdom.

29:10 Yahweh has poured out on you a spirit of deep sleep – Quoted in Rom. 11:8 about what God has done to all Israel, in closing their eyes to perceiving Jesus as their Messiah – in response to the fact that they had already closed their eyes to Him. There were many similarities between the Jews of Isaiah's time and those of Christ's (see on :13).

29:13 These words are quoted in Mt. 15:7,8 and interpreted by Jesus as a specific prophecy of the hypocrites who confronted Him in the first century. But the context of Isaiah 29 clearly requires that they had relevance to the Jews of Isaiah's day. In this we see the uniquely living, constantly relevant nature of God's word. It can speak to different generations in different contexts with perfect and Divinely designed relevance. This is the result of the Bible being written by the inspiration process of God's Spirit; it isn't, therefore, like the black print and white paper of any human book.

ish, and the understanding of their prudent men will be hidden. <sup>15</sup> Woe to those who deeply hide their counsel from Yahweh, and whose works are in the dark, and who say, Who sees us? and Who knows us? <sup>16</sup> You turn things upside down! Should the potter be thought to be like clay; that the thing made should say about him who made it, He didn't make me; or the thing formed say of him who formed it, He has no understanding? <sup>17</sup> Isn't it yet a very little while, and Lebanon will be turned into a fruitful field, and the fruitful field will be regarded as a forest? <sup>18</sup> In that day, the deaf will hear the words of the book, and the eyes of the blind will see out of obscurity and out of darkness. <sup>19</sup> The humble also will increase their joy in Yahweh, and the poor among men will rejoice in the Holy One of Israel. <sup>20</sup> For the ruthless is brought to nothing, and the scoffer ceases, and all those who are alert to do evil are cut off—<sup>21</sup> who cause a person to be indicted by a word, and lay a snare for the arbiter in the gate, and who deprive the innocent of justice with false testimony. <sup>22</sup> Therefore thus says Yahweh who redeemed Abraham concerning the house of Jacob: Jacob shall no longer be ashamed, neither shall his face grow pale. <sup>23</sup> But when he sees his children, the work of My hands, in the midst of him, they will sanctify My name. Yes, they will sanctify the Holy One of Jacob, and will stand in awe of the God of Israel. <sup>24</sup> They also who err in spirit will come to understanding, and those who grumble will receive instruction.

A Treaty with Egypt

Woe to the rebellious children, says Yahweh, who take counsel, but not from Me; and who make an alliance, but not with My Spirit, that they may add sin to sin, <sup>2</sup> who set out to go down into Egypt, and have not asked My advice; to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to take refuge in the shadow of Egypt! <sup>3</sup> Therefore the strength of Pharaoh will be your shame, and the refuge in the shadow of Egypt your confusion. <sup>4</sup> For their princes are at Zoan, and their ambassadors have come to Hanes. <sup>5</sup> They shall all be ashamed because of a people that can't profit them, that are not a help nor profit, but a shame, and also a reproach. <sup>6</sup> The burden of the animals of the South. Through the land

30:1 This must have been very hard for Isaiah to tell Judah, because for three years he had walked barefoot amongst his people to try to persuade them how Egypt would go into captivity, and Judah should hope only in God (20:1-4). Our tendency too is to treat God as a kind of extra insurance policy; to turn firstly to human strength, and only to Him if all else fails. His desire is that we should trust totally in Him, and however we might use 'Egypt', it should never be our strength and trust.

30:6 They carry their rich gifts – This is a picture of the people of Judah braving wild animals in the desert (Dt. 8:15) as they carried their wealth down into Egypt, reversing their exodus, in order to buy Egyptian support against Assyria. People will go to huge of trouble and anguish, of the lioness and the lion, the viper and fiery flying serpent, they carry their rich gifts on the shoulders of young donkeys, and their treasures on the humps of camels, to an unprofitable people. <sup>7</sup> For Egypt helps in vain, and to no purpose; therefore have I called her Rahab who sits still.

A Disobedient People

Now go, write it before them on a tablet, and inscribe it in a book, that it may be for the time to come forever and ever. <sup>9</sup> For it is a rebellious people, lying children, children who will not hear the law of Yahweh; <sup>10</sup> who tell the seers, Don't see! and to the prophets, Don't prophesy to us right things. Tell us pleasant things, prophesy deceits, <sup>11</sup> get out of the way, turn aside from the path; cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us. <sup>12</sup> Therefore thus says the Holy One of Israel, Because you despise this word, and trust in oppression and perverseness and rely on it; <sup>13</sup> therefore this iniquity shall be to you like a breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking comes suddenly in an instant. <sup>14</sup> He will break it as a potter's vessel is broken, breaking it in pieces without sparing, so that there won't be found among the broken pieces one piece good enough to take fire from the hearth, or to dip up water out of the cistern. <sup>15</sup> For thus said the Lord Yahweh, the Holy One of Israel, You will be saved by returning and rest; your strength will be in quietness and in confidence. You refused, <sup>16</sup> but you said, No, for we will flee on horses; therefore you will flee; and, We will ride on the swift; therefore those who pursue you will be swift. <sup>17</sup> One thousand will flee at the threat of one; at the threat of five, you will flee until you are left like a beacon on the top of a mountain, and like a banner on a hill.

Yahweh Will be Gracious

Therefore Yahweh will wait, that He may be gracious to you; and therefore He will be exalted, that He may have mercy on you, for Yahweh is a God of justice. Blessed are all those who wait for Him. <sup>19</sup> For the people will dwell in Zion at Jerusalem; you efforts and expense to obtain human strength; when the answer is ultimately in God and not man.

30:9 Lying children – Yet when He brought them out of Egypt, God had been certain that “Surely they are My people, children that will not lie: so He was their saviour” (63:8). The God who can know the end from the beginning was so in love with His people, as He is with us, that He felt the very best about them. Hence the bitter disappointment when those positive hopes were dashed by their fickleness. God has great hopes for each of us.

30:18 Yahweh will wait, that He may be gracious to you – There's similar reasoning in 2 Pet. 3:14,15; the reason why the return of Christ is delayed is so that God may be gracious to even more people than He had otherwise planned. God's delay is often because He is seeking a way to be yet more gracious. Hence “Blessed are all those who wait for Him”.

will weep no more. He will surely be gracious to you at the voice of your cry; when He hears you, He will answer you. <sup>20</sup> Though the Lord may give you the bread of adversity and the water of affliction, yet your teachers won't be hidden any more, but your eyes will see your teachers; <sup>21</sup> and when you turn to the right hand, and when you turn to the left, your ears will hear a voice behind you saying, This is the way, walk in it. <sup>22</sup> You shall defile the overlaying of your engraved images of silver, and the plating of your molten images of gold. You shall cast them away as an unclean thing. You shall tell it, Go away! <sup>23</sup> He will give the rain for your seed, with which you will sow the ground; and the bread from the increase of the ground will be rich and plentiful. In that day, your livestock will feed in large pastures; <sup>24</sup> the oxen likewise and the young donkeys that till the ground will eat savoury provender, which has been winnowed with the shovel and with the fork. <sup>25</sup> There shall be brooks and streams of water on every lofty mountain and on every high hill in the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall. <sup>26</sup> Moreover the light of the moon will be like the light of the sun, and the light of the sun will be seven times brighter, like the light of seven days, in the day that Yahweh binds up the fracture of His people, and heals the wound they were struck with.

Yahweh will Punish Assyria

Behold, the name of Yahweh comes from far away, burning with His anger, and in thick rising smoke. His lips are full of indignation, and His tongue is as a devouring fire. <sup>28</sup> His breath is as an overflowing stream that reaches even to the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of destruction; and a bridle that leads to ruin will be in the jaws of the peoples. <sup>29</sup> You will have a song, as in the night when a holy feast is kept; and gladness of heart, as when one goes with a flute to come to Yahweh's mountain, to Israel's Rock. <sup>30</sup> Yahweh will cause His glorious voice to be heard, and will show the descent of His arm, with the indignation of His anger, and the flame of a devouring fire, with a blast, storm, and hailstones. <sup>31</sup> For through the voice of Yahweh the Assyrian will be dismayed. He will strike him with His rod. <sup>32</sup> Every stroke of the rod of punishment which Yahweh will lay on him will be with the sound of tambourines and harps. He will fight with them in battles, brandishing weapons. <sup>33</sup> For his burning

30:26 This could be a poetic way of saying that the meaning of time [as defined by sun and moon] will be changed around the time of Christ's return. This would enable the various predicted events to happen with no problem of chronology.

30:33 This language of fire and sulphur ["brimstone"] is clearly figurative and not literal – it speaks of the anger of God in destroying His enemies. This verse clearly describes the death of the Assyrian invaders, as fulfilled in 37:36. There was no literal place of sulphur with an angry God stirring it up with His breath. Likewise the Lord place has long been ready. Yes, for the king it is prepared; He has made its pyre deep and large with fire and much wood. Yahweh's breath, like a stream of sulphur, kindles it.

No Safety in Egypt

Woe to those who go down to Egypt for help, and rely on horses and trust in chariots because they are many, and in horsemen because they are very strong, but they don't look to the Holy One of Israel, and they don't seek Yahweh! <sup>2</sup> Yet He also is wise, and will bring disaster, and will not call back His words, but will arise against the house of the evildoers, and against the helpers of those who work iniquity. <sup>3</sup> Now the Egyptians are men, and not God; and their horses flesh, and not spirit. When Yahweh stretches out His hand, both he who helps shall stumble, and he who is helped shall fall, and they all shall be consumed together. <sup>4</sup> For thus says Yahweh to me, As the lion and the young lion growling over his prey who will not be dismayed if a multitude of shepherds is called together against him, nor will he abase himself for their noise, so Yahweh of Armies will come down to fight on Mount Zion and on its mount. <sup>5</sup> As birds hovering, so Yahweh of Armies will protect Jerusalem. He will protect and deliver it, He will pass over and preserve it. <sup>6</sup> Return to Him from whom you have deeply revolted, children of Israel! <sup>7</sup> For in that day everyone shall cast away his idols of silver and his idols of gold—the sin which your own hands have made for you. <sup>8</sup> The Assyrian will fall by the sword, not of man; and the sword, not of mankind, shall devour him. He will flee from the sword, and his young men will become subject to forced labour. <sup>9</sup> His rock will pass away by reason of terror, and his princes will be afraid of the banner, says Yahweh,

Jesus used the language of Gehenna in a figurative manner – constant fire, brimstone etc. are symbols of total destruction, and shouldn't be forced into a literal reading.

31:3 The implication is that God also has horses and chariots – His invisible Angelic cherubim. Although Judah preferred to believe in the visible horses of Egypt, yet in His amazing grace, God still used His Angelic cherubim to destroy the Assyrians (37:36). This is grace itself.

31:4 Yahweh of Armies – God uses this title of Himself in this context to remind Judah that He has armies of Angels at His disposal. Judah were running to Egypt to enlist the help of their human armies; and by doing so were disbelieving that Yahweh really is the Yahweh of Armies of Angels.

31:7 This means that at the time of the Assyrian siege of Jerusalem in Hezekiah's time (which is the context of the chapter), the people were still worshipping idols. Yet Hezekiah had supposedly purged Judah of idols. This shows that true faith is sometimes only found in a minority of God's people; they may go along with the guidance of faithful leadership externally, but even good leaders cannot reform the hearts of individuals. It also shows how the Angelic deliverance of Jerusalem was due to the prayers and faith of a very small remnant, centred around Isaiah and Hezekiah.

whose fire is in Zion and His furnace in Jerusalem.

A King will Reign Righteously

Behold, a king shall reign in righteousness, and princes shall rule in justice. <sup>2</sup> A man shall be as a hiding place from the wind, and a covert from the storm, as streams of water in a dry place, as the shade of a large rock in a weary land. <sup>3</sup> The eyes of those who see will not be dim, and the ears of those who hear will listen. <sup>4</sup> The heart of the rash will understand knowledge, and the tongue of the stammerers will be ready to speak plainly. <sup>5</sup> The fool will no longer be called noble, nor the scoundrel be highly respected. <sup>6</sup> For the fool will speak folly, and his heart will work iniquity, to practice profanity, and to utter error against Yahweh, to make empty the soul of the hungry and to cause the drink of the thirsty to fail. <sup>7</sup> The ways of the scoundrel are evil. He devises wicked devices to destroy the humble with lying words, even when the needy speaks right. <sup>8</sup> But the noble devises noble things; and he will continue in noble things.

A Warning to Women

<sup>9</sup> Rise up, you women who are at ease! Hear My voice, you careless daughters, give ear to My speech! <sup>10</sup> For days beyond a year you will be troubled, you careless women; for the vintage shall fail. The harvest won't come. <sup>11</sup> Tremble, you women who are at ease! Be troubled, you careless ones! Strip yourselves, make yourselves naked and put sackcloth on your waist. <sup>12</sup> Beat your breasts for the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vine. <sup>13</sup> Thorns and briers will come up on My people's land; yes, on all the houses of joy in the joyous city. <sup>14</sup> For the palace will be forsaken, the populous city will be deserted. The hill and the watchtower will be

32:6 Attitudes to the poor amongst Israel were interpreted by God as blasphemy against Him. In our age, all those baptized into the Name manifest God, and our attitude to them is our attitude to God, and will be the basis of our judgment at the last day (Mt. 25:40).

32:10 It seems Isaiah was making this prophecy a year before it would be fulfilled. His request for the women to wear sackcloth (:12) was a call for them to repent – so that the promised judgments might be averted. We note God's granting of full significance and spiritual meaning to women, making an appeal specifically to them – at a time when religion in the surrounding world considered women largely irrelevant in religious decisions, and would never have considered that the repentance of a group of women could have changed the destiny of an entire nation, far beyond whatever their male leaders might decide.

32:14 The threatened judgments against “the city” (also in :19) presumably refers to Jerusalem. It seems that on one hand, it was God's intention to allow the Assyrians to destroy Jerusalem as well as Judah, and yet He saved it for the sake of the faithful minority who were there, based around Isaiah and Hezekiah. God is so sensitive to His people that He is willing to change His stated purpose if He hears powerful prayer and sees genuine spirituality amongst even a minority.

for dens forever, a delight for wild donkeys, a pasture of flocks;

Restored Again

<sup>15</sup> Until the Spirit is poured on us from on high, and the wilderness becomes a fruitful field, and the fruitful field is considered a forest. <sup>16</sup> Then justice will dwell in the wilderness; and righteousness will remain in the fruitful field. <sup>17</sup> The work of righteousness will be peace; and the effect of righteousness, quietness and confidence forever. <sup>18</sup> My people will live in a peaceful habitation, in safe dwellings and in quiet resting places—<sup>19</sup> though for now hail flattens the forest, and the city is levelled completely. <sup>20</sup> Blessed are you who sow beside all waters, who send out the feet of the ox and the donkey.

The Destruction of the Assyrians Propheied

Woe to you who destroy, but you weren't destroyed; and who betray, but nobody betrayed you. When you have finished destroying, you will be destroyed; and when you have made an end of betrayal, you will be betrayed. <sup>2</sup> Yahweh, be gracious to us; we have waited for You. Be our strength every morning, our salvation also in the time of trouble. <sup>3</sup> At the noise of the thunder, the peoples have fled. When You lift

Yourself up, the nations are scattered. <sup>4</sup> Your spoil will be gathered as the caterpillar gathers. Men will leap on it as locusts leap. <sup>5</sup> Yahweh is exalted, for He dwells on high; He has filled Zion with justice and righteousness. <sup>6</sup> There will be stability in your times, abundance of salvation, wisdom, and knowledge. The fear of Yahweh is your treasure. <sup>7</sup> Behold, their valiant ones cry outside; the ambassadors of peace weep bitterly. <sup>8</sup> The highways are desolate, the travelling man ceases. The covenant is broken; He has despised the cities. He doesn't respect man. <sup>9</sup> The land mourns and languishes, Lebanon is confounded and withers away, Sharon is like a desert, and Bashan and Carmel are stripped bare. <sup>10</sup> Now I will arise, says Yahweh; Now I will lift Myself up. Now I will be exalted. <sup>11</sup> You will conceive chaff, you will bring forth stubble, your breath is a fire that will devour you. <sup>12</sup> The peoples will be like the burning of lime, like thorns that are cut down and burned in the fire. <sup>13</sup> Hear, you who are far off, what I have done; and, you who are near, acknowledge My might. <sup>14</sup> The sinners in Zion are afraid. Trembling has seized the godless ones. Who among us can live with the devouring fire? Who among us can live with everlasting burning? <sup>15</sup> He who walks righteously, and speaks blamelessly; he who despises

33:11 Your breath is a fire that will devour you – This is a common theme, that the rejected are those who condemn and destroy themselves, often by their own words (“breath”).

33:15 Shuts his eyes from looking at evil – Very relevant to us in the age when all manner of evil can be viewed without others knowing. This verse teaches that our hands, the gain of oppressions, who gestures with his hands, refusing to take a bribe, who stops his ears from hearing of blood, and shuts his eyes from looking at evil—<sup>16</sup> he will dwell on high. His place of defence will be the fortress of rocks. His bread will be supplied, his waters will be sure.<sup>17</sup> Your eyes will see the king in His beauty, they will see the land that is distant.<sup>18</sup> Your heart will meditate on the terror. Where is he who counted? Where is he who weighed? Where is he who counted the towers?<sup>19</sup> You will no longer see the fierce people, a people of a deep speech that you can't comprehend, with a strange language that you can't understand.<sup>20</sup> Look toward Zion, the city of our appointed festivals! Your eyes will see Jerusalem a quiet habitation, a tent that won't be removed; her stakes will never be plucked up, nor will any of her cords be broken.<sup>21</sup> But there Yahweh will be with us in majesty, a place of broad rivers and streams, in which no galley with oars will go, neither will any gallant ship pass by there.<sup>22</sup> For Yahweh is our judge, Yahweh is our lawgiver, Yahweh is our king; He will save us.<sup>23</sup> Your rigging is untied; they couldn't strengthen the foot of their mast, they failed to spread the sail. Then the prey of a great spoil was divided, the lame took the prey.<sup>24</sup> The inhabitant won't say, I am sick because the people who dwell therein will be forgiven their iniquity.

God's Punishment on the Nations

Come near, you nations, to hear! Listen, you peoples. Let the earth and all it contains hear; the world, and everything that comes from it.<sup>2</sup> For Yahweh is enraged against all the nations and angry with all their armies. He has utterly destroyed them, He has given them over for eyes and ears really can come under our control. There is the impression given that human behaviour is somehow automatic; and yet we can take control of our senses and responses to them.

33:18 This refers to the Assyrian military personnel outside Jerusalem, wisely analyzing the situation as they besieged the city. But Paul alludes to the LXX of this verse in 1 Cor. 1:20, where he says that we too are surrounded by the wise and powerful of this world, but 'Where are they...?' compared to the power of the Gospel of Christ, which declares their wisdom and human strength as nothing. Paul therefore understands each of us as being as it were in essence in the same position as the Jews of Isaiah's time, tempted to rely upon Egypt rather than God, and likely to be awed by the human strength of those things which are against us. And yet we are to see them in the perspective of faith as nothing, as foolish and weak.

33:24 There is a connection between sin and sickness, as made also by Jesus (Mt. 9:5). It doesn't mean that sickness always comes as a result of sin, but rather that because of our fallen state as a result of sin we are generally prone to sickness and death. The ultimate answer to sickness, therefore, is the complete removal of our sin, being counted righteous by God, and therefore being related (by His grace) to eternal life. In our age this is possible through baptism into Christ.

slaughter. <sup>3</sup> Their slain will also be cast out, and the stench of their dead bodies will come up; and the mountains will melt in their blood. <sup>4</sup> All of the army of the sky will be dissolved, the sky will be rolled up like a scroll, and all its armies will fade away, as a leaf fades from off a vine or a fig tree. <sup>5</sup> For My sword has drunk its fill in the sky. Behold, it will come down on Edom and on the people of My curse for judgement. <sup>6</sup> Yahweh's sword is filled with blood, it is covered with fat, with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams; for Yahweh has a sacrifice in Bozrah and a great slaughter in the land of Edom. <sup>7</sup> The wild oxen will come down with them and the young bulls with the mighty bulls; and their land will be drunken with blood and their dust made greasy with fat. <sup>8</sup> For Yahweh has a day of vengeance, a year of recompense for the cause of Zion. <sup>9</sup> Her streams will be turned into pitch, her dust into sulphur, and her land will become burning pitch; <sup>10</sup> it won't be quenched night nor day, the smoke will go up forever; from generation to generation, it will lie waste. Nobody will pass through it forever and ever; <sup>11</sup> but the pelican and the porcupine will possess it, the owl and the raven will dwell in it. He will stretch the line of confusion over it, and the plumb line of emptiness. <sup>12</sup> They shall call its nobles to the kingdom, but none shall be there; and all its princes shall be nothing. <sup>13</sup> Thorns will come up in its palaces, nettles and thistles in its fortresses; and it will be a habitation of jackals, a court for ostriches. <sup>14</sup> The wild animals of the desert will meet with the wolves, and the wild goat will cry to his fellow. Yes, the night creature shall settle there and shall find herself a place of rest. <sup>15</sup> The arrow snake will make her nest there, and lay, hatch, and gather under her shade. Yes, the kites will be gathered there, every one with her mate.

34:8 In human terms, this seems rather unjust. God had called the nations to attack and destroy Judah because of her sins, and yet now He takes vengeance for Zion (as in 35:4) as if she has been unfairly treated, and those nations require punishment for what they did. The final algorithm of God's justice is far beyond our total comprehension, but perhaps we are to perceive in this the passionate love God has for His sinful people – in that He so loved them that even when they were justly punished, He punished those by whom they were punished with great fury. This was in a sense just because they were also sinners. But whoever touches God's people, even when they are in rebellion against Him, has touched Him at a highly sensitive spot. In these things we see the depth of God's love for us, and how He counts us as His very own, and feels to us that way, even when we are in rebellion against Him.

34:10 Smoke will go up forever; from generation to generation, it will lie waste – Eternal fire and smoke is again used figuratively, as a symbol of total, permanent destruction. It can't be literal, for the 'eternal' smoke is paralleled with laying calm and desolate for ever. We need to remember this in considering Christ's use of the image of 'eternal fire' as a symbol for complete destruction, rather than forcing his words into any literal interpretation.

<sup>16</sup> Search in the book of Yahweh, and read: not one of these will be missing; none will lack her mate. For My mouth has commanded, and His Spirit has gathered them. <sup>17</sup> He has cast the lot for them, and His hand has divided it to them with a measuring line. They shall possess it for ever, from generation to generation they will dwell in it.

God's Promise for Israel

The wilderness and the dry land will be glad. The desert will rejoice and blossom like a rose. <sup>2</sup> It will blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy and singing. Lebanon's glory will be given to it, the excellence of Carmel and Sharon; they will see Yahweh's glory, the excellence of our God. <sup>3</sup> Strengthen the weak hands, and make firm the feeble knees. <sup>4</sup> Tell those who have a fearful heart, Be strong, don't be afraid. Behold, your God will come with vengeance, God's retribution. He will come and save you. <sup>5</sup> Then the eyes of the blind will be opened, and the ears of the deaf will be unstopped. <sup>6</sup> Then the lame man will leap like a deer and the tongue of the mute will sing; for waters will break out in the wilderness, and streams in the desert. <sup>7</sup> The burning sand will become a pool, and the thirsty ground springs of water. Grass with reeds and rushes will be in the habitation of jackals, where they used to lay. <sup>8</sup> A highway will be there, a road, and it will be called The Holy Way. The unclean shall not pass over it, but it will be for those who walk in the Way. Wicked fools will not go there, <sup>9</sup> no lion will be there, nor will any ravenous animal go up on it. They will not be found there; but the redeemed will walk there. <sup>10</sup> Yahweh's ransomed ones will return, and come with singing to Zion; and everlasting joy will be on their heads. They will obtain gladness and joy, and sorrow and sighing will flee away.

Assyria Invades Judah

Now it happened in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah,

35:4 Vengeance... retribution – see on 34:8.

35:10 Whatever possible application this may have had to Hezekiah's time (e.g. the return of those who had fled Zion in fear) and what might have been after the destruction of the Assyrian invaders, or at the return of the exiles from Babylon, it is clearly a prophecy of God's future Kingdom on earth when Christ returns. Our joy will be "everlasting", whereas all joy in this life is tinged by the sense that it shall come to an end, the emotion has to subside, with the prospect of death ever before us. The joy we will then have shall have no fading away from a crescendo back into normality, but will have this 'eternal' aspect to it.

36:1 The Assyrian invasion was in the 14th year of Hezekiah's reign. He reigned twenty nine years (2 Kings 14:2). His sickness unto death from which he was miraculously healed gave him another 15 years to live (38:5); his serious illness was therefore in the same year in which Judah was invaded. So often, several things go seriously wrong in our lives all at the same time. The chance of that happening is negligible; clearly such that Sennacherib king of Assyria attacked all of the fortified cities of Judah, and captured them. <sup>2</sup> The king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem to king Hezekiah with a large army; he came and stood by the aqueduct from the upper pool in the fuller's field highway. <sup>3</sup> Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder came out to him. <sup>4</sup> Rabshakeh said to them, Now tell Hezekiah, 'Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria, What confidence is this in which you trust?' <sup>5</sup> I say that your counsel and strength for the war are only vain words. Now in whom do you trust, that you have rebelled against me? <sup>6</sup> Behold, you trust in the staff of this bruised reed, even in Egypt, which if a man leans on it, it will go into his hand and pierce it. So is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who trust in him. <sup>7</sup> But if you tell me, 'We trust in Yahweh our God', isn't that He whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has taken away, and has said to Judah and to Jerusalem, 'You shall worship before this altar?' <sup>8</sup> Now therefore, please make a pledge to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able on your part to set riders on them. <sup>9</sup> How then can you turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put your trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? <sup>10</sup> Have I come up now without Yahweh against this land to destroy it? Yahweh said to me, Go up against this land, and destroy it'. <sup>11</sup> Then Eliakim, Shebna and Joah said to Rabshakeh, Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand it; and don't speak to us in the Jews' language in the hearing of the people who are on the wall. <sup>12</sup> But Rabshakeh said, Has my master sent me only to your master and to you, to speak these words, and not to the men who sit on the wall, who will eat their own dung and drink their own urine with you? <sup>13</sup> Then Rabshakeh stood, and called out with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and said, Hear the words of the great king, the king of Assyria! <sup>14</sup> Thus says the king, 'Don't let Hezekiah deceive you; for he will not be able to deliver you. <sup>15</sup> Don't let Hezekiah make you trust in Yahweh, saying, Yahweh will surely deliver us. This negative coincidences are all under God's controlling hand [not that of any cosmic 'Satan' being]. The coincidences would be too great to write off as merely chance. Note also that Hezekiah had lived a good life and acted in faith despite being surrounded by many of weak or weaker faith – and then, double tragedy struck him. Good living is no guarantee of a charmed life now, indeed, given all the Biblical examples of good people like Hezekiah suffering bad things, we should be surprised if we don't receive them.

36:10 The way Rabshakeh uses the term "Yahweh", speaks Hebrew (:11) and is aware of Isaiah's prophecies about Assyria being sent to punish Judah, and the fact that Judah had trusted on Egypt when Yahweh had told them not to (:6), would all suggest that Rabshakeh was an apostate Jew who had gone over to the Assyrian side.

city won't be given into the hand of the king of Assyria'. <sup>16</sup> Don't listen to Hezekiah, for thus says the king of Assyria, 'Make your peace with me, and come out to me; and each of you eat from his vine, and each one from his fig tree, and each one of you drink the waters of his own cistern; <sup>17</sup> until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards. <sup>18</sup> Beware lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying, Yahweh will deliver us. Have any of the gods of the nations delivered their lands from the hand of the king of Assyria? <sup>19</sup> Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? Have they delivered Samaria from my hand? <sup>20</sup> Who are they among all the gods of these countries that have delivered their country out of my hand, that Yahweh should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand? <sup>21</sup> But they remained silent and said nothing in reply, for the king's commandment was Don't answer him. <sup>22</sup> Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

The King Asks Isaiah for Advice

It happened, when king Hezekiah heard it, that he tore his clothes, covered himself with sackcloth, and went into Yahweh's house. <sup>2</sup> He sent Eliakim who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz. <sup>3</sup> They said to him, Thus says Hezekiah, 'This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of rejection; for the children have come to the birth, and there is no strength to bring forth. <sup>4</sup> It may be Yahweh your God will hear the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master has sent to defy the living God, and will rebuke the words which Yahweh your God has heard. Therefore lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left'. <sup>5</sup> So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah. <sup>6</sup> Isaiah said to them, Tell your

36:16, 17 This is a parody of Micah's prophecy of what God's future Kingdom on earth would be like (Mic. 4:4). The allusion is so strong that it would seem Rabshakeh knew that prophecy, confirming the suggestion made under :10 that he was an apostate Jew. The kingdoms of this world offer us a fake kingdom of God in this life – if we submit to them and reject the vision of God's Kingdom. Going the way of the world may appear to give all that God's Kingdom offers – but the kingdoms of men shall come to an end, all is not what it seems, they will not last eternally as God's Kingdom will; and it is for us to have the wisdom to see that we face a choice between the Kingdom of God, and the kingdoms of men which are a poor imitation of it.

37:1 In times of crisis, our response should be the same – to turn to God, to His house (the ecclesia), to His word and to His faithful people, asking them to pray for us. Maybe there are times when we can literally place a letter or hospital report on a table and pray to God over it, bringing it as it were in a special sense before Him (:14).

master, ‘Thus says Yahweh, Don’t be afraid of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed Me. <sup>7</sup> Behold, I will put a spirit in him and he will hear news, and will return to his own land. I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land’. <sup>8</sup> So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah, for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish. <sup>9</sup> He heard news concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, He has come out to fight against you. When he heard it he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying, <sup>10</sup> Thus you shall speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, ‘Don’t let your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying, Jerusalem won’t be given into the hand of the king of Assyria. <sup>11</sup> Behold, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly. Shall you be delivered? <sup>12</sup> Have the gods of the nations delivered them, which my fathers have destroyed, Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the children of Eden who were in Telassar? <sup>13</sup> Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivvah?’.

Hezekiah’s Prayer

<sup>14</sup> Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers and read it. Then Hezekiah went up to Yahweh’s house, and spread it before Yahweh. <sup>15</sup> Hezekiah prayed to Yahweh, saying, <sup>16</sup> Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, who is enthroned among the cherubim, You are the God, even You alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; You have made heaven and earth. <sup>17</sup> Turn Your ear Yahweh and hear; open Your eyes Yahweh and behold; hear all of the words of Sennacherib, who has sent to defy the living God. <sup>18</sup> Truly Yahweh, the kings of Assyria have destroyed all the countries and their land, <sup>19</sup> and have cast their gods into the fire; for they were no gods, but the work of men’s hands, wood and stone; therefore they have destroyed them. <sup>20</sup> Now therefore, Yahweh our God, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that You are Yahweh, even You only.

37:7 A spirit – Can refer to an attitude of mind. God is quite capable of giving people mindsets, over and above their own thinking. There are many situations in life where we realize that we simply cannot change another’s mind. But God can.

37:16 Yahweh of Armies – Hezekiah uses that title for God in recognition of the fact that God has armies of invisible Angels far mightier than the armies of the Assyrians which surrounded him.

You have made heaven and earth – The Psalms record many other prayers where believers in extremity have been inspired in their faith by the fact that God is creator. As He has created all things that are, it follows that to change one small thing within that creation on the face of one of the smallest planets of the cosmos... is in fact nothing at all difficult for Him. Such inspiration to faith is not present for those who believe the myth that all things evolved without God’s creative input.

37:20 That all the kingdoms of the earth may know that You are Yahweh – A common

The Fall of Sennacherib

<sup>21</sup> Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel, ‘Because you have prayed to Me against Sennacherib king of Assyria, <sup>22</sup> this is the word which Yahweh has spoken concerning him. The virgin daughter of Zion has despised you and ridiculed you. The daughter of Jerusalem has shaken her head at you. <sup>23</sup> Whom have you defied and blasphemed? Against whom have you exalted your voice and lifted up your eyes on high? Against the Holy One of Israel. <sup>24</sup> By your servants have you defied the Lord and have said, With the multitude of my chariots I have come up to the height of the mountains, to the innermost parts of Lebanon. I will cut down its tall cedars and its choice fir trees. I will enter into its farthest height, the forest of its fruitful field. <sup>25</sup> I have dug and drunk water, and with the sole of my feet I will dry up all the rivers of Egypt. <sup>26</sup> Have you not heard how I have done it long ago, and formed it in ancient times? Now I have brought it to pass, that it should be yours to destroy fortified cities, turning them into ruinous heaps. <sup>27</sup> Therefore their inhabitants had little power; they were dismayed and confounded, they were like the grass of the field and like the green herb, like the grass on the housetops, and like a field before its crop has grown. <sup>28</sup> But I know your sitting down, your going out, your coming in, and your raging against Me. <sup>29</sup> Because of your raging against Me, and because your arrogance has come up into My ears, therefore will I put My hook in your nose and My bridle in your lips, and I will turn you back by the way by which you came. <sup>30</sup> This shall be the sign to you. You will eat this year that which grows of itself, and in the second year that which springs from the same; and in the third year sow and reap and plant vineyards, and eat their fruit. <sup>31</sup> The remnant that is escaped of the reason given by faithful believers when begging God to hear their prayer. It should be most important to us to see His glory worked out through the answer to our requests, rather than merely personal benefit to us. This approach will also influence what we pray for, as well as how we pray for it.

37:22 The virgin daughter of Zion has despised you and ridiculed you – This “daughter” refers to the faithful remnant in Jerusalem. But God speaks of them as being far more confident and full of faith than they really were; they feared the Assyrians and didn’t exactly laugh at them. But we see here one of many examples of how God is so thrilled with the faith of His children that He counts what faith and spirituality they have as far more than it actually is, so thrilled by it is He.

37:23 Against whom have you exalted your voice? – Rabshakeh spoke with an exalted, loud voice to all the Jews guarding Jerusalem (36:13). But God says that effectively, he had been shouting against the most holy God. God in all His holiness was manifest in those spiritually weak members of His people who were then in Jerusalem. His identity with His people is amazing; and it doesn’t end when they become weak or are in double mind about Him, just as it doesn’t in a natural family.

house of Judah will again take root downward, and bear fruit upward.

<sup>32</sup> For out of Jerusalem a remnant will go forth, and survivors will escape from Mount Zion. The zeal of Yahweh of Armies will perform this'.<sup>33</sup> Therefore thus says Yahweh concerning the king of Assyria, 'He will not come to this city, nor shoot an arrow there, neither will he come before it with shield, nor cast up a mound against it. <sup>34</sup> By the way that he came, by the same he shall return, and he shall not come to this city', says Yahweh. <sup>35</sup> 'For I will defend this city to save it, for My own sake, and for My servant David's sake'.

<sup>36</sup> The angel of Yahweh went out and struck one hundred and eighty-five thousand men in the camp of the Assyrians. When men arose early in the morning, behold, these were all dead bodies. <sup>37</sup> So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, went away, returned to Nineveh, and stayed there.

<sup>38</sup> It happened that as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god that Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons struck him with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Ararat. Esar Haddon his son reigned in his place.

Hezekiah's Illness and Recovery

In those days was Hezekiah sick and near death. Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, came to him, and said to him, Thus says Yahweh, 'Set your house in order, for you will die, and not live'. <sup>2</sup> Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to Yahweh, <sup>3</sup> and said, Remember now, Yahweh, I beg You, how I have walked before You in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in Your sight. Hezekiah wept bitterly. <sup>4</sup> Then the word of Yahweh came to Isaiah, saying, <sup>5</sup> Go, and tell Hezekiah, 'Thus says Yahweh the God of David your father, I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears. Behold, I will add fifteen years to your life. <sup>6</sup> I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria, and I will defend this city. <sup>7</sup> This shall be the sign to you from Yahweh, that Yahweh will do this thing that He has spoken. <sup>8</sup> Behold, I will cause the shadow on the sundial, which has gone down on the sundial of Ahaz with the sun, to return backward ten steps. ' So the sun returned ten steps on the sundial on which it had gone down. <sup>9</sup> The writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick, and had recovered of his sickness. <sup>10</sup> I said, In the middle of my life I go into the gates of Sheol. I am deprived of the residue of my years. <sup>11</sup> I said, I won't see Yah, Yah in the land of the living. I will see man no more with the inhabitants of the world. <sup>12</sup> My dwelling is removed, and is carried away from me like a shepherd's tent. I have rolled up, like a weaver, my life. He will cut me off from the loom. From day even to night You will make an end of me. <sup>13</sup> I waited patiently until morning. He breaks all my bones like a lion. From now until tonight You will make an end of me. <sup>14</sup> I am chattering like a swallow or a crane, moaning like a dove. My eyes weaken looking upward. Lord, I am oppressed. Be my salvation. <sup>15</sup> What will I say? He has both spoken to me, and Himself has done it. I will walk carefully all my years because of that anguished experience of my soul. <sup>16</sup> Lord, men live by these things; and my spirit finds life in all of them: You restore me, and cause me to live. <sup>17</sup> Behold, for peace I had great anguish, but You have in love for my soul delivered it from the pit of corruption; for You have cast all my sins behind Your back. <sup>18</sup> For Sheol can't praise You.

38:1 In those days – His sickness was at the same time as the invasion. See on 36:1.

38:3 Hezekiah simply puts his situation before God, he doesn't actually specifically ask for healing. But God saw the essence of his heart, and read this as a prayer requesting healing and the extension of life. At times, typically during illness, we find it hard to verbalize prayer; and yet God sees to the core of our hearts, and understands what are really our heart's desires, and understands these as requests to Him.

38:5 I have heard your prayer; I have seen – Hezekiah had just been begging God to hear and see the behaviour of the Assyrians (37:17). God teaches us how to pray through some desperate experience, and then gives us another crisis in which we can as it were practice the style and intensity of prayer which we learnt in the previous experience.

Death can't celebrate You. Those who go down into the pit can't hope for Your truth. <sup>19</sup> The living, the living, he shall praise You, as I do this day. The father shall make known Your truth to the children. <sup>20</sup> Yahweh will save me. Therefore we will sing my songs with stringed instruments all the days of our life in the house of Yahweh. <sup>21</sup> Now Isaiah had said, Let them take a cake of figs, and lay it for a poultice on the boil, and he shall recover. <sup>22</sup> Hezekiah also had said, What is the sign that I will go up to the house of Yahweh?

Visitors from Babylon

At that time, Merodach Baladan the son of Baladan king of Babylon sent letters and a present to Hezekiah; for he heard that he had been sick, and had recovered. <sup>2</sup> Hezekiah was pleased with them, and showed them the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, the spices, and the precious oil, and all the house of his armour, and all that was found in his treasures. There was nothing in his house nor in all his dominion that Hezekiah didn't show them. <sup>3</sup> Then Isaiah the prophet came to king Hezekiah and asked him, What did these men say? Where did they come from to you?

38:19 Hezekiah didn't want to die because he understood that after death he couldn't praise God. His understanding of death was as a state of total unconsciousness, where he would meet with neither God nor man (:11). There was no 'immortal soul' or conscious survival of death in his theology, these were pagan ideas of the time which he clearly rejected – as should we. The devotional point is that life is for praising God; and given the brevity of it, every minute must be harnessed into His praise, rather than frittered away.

Hezekiah said, They have come from a country far from me, even from Babylon. <sup>4</sup> Then he asked, What have they seen in your house? Hezekiah answered, They have seen all that is in my house. There is nothing among my treasures that I have not shown them. <sup>5</sup> Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, Hear the word of Yahweh of Armies: <sup>6</sup> ‘Behold, the days are coming when all that is in your house, and that which your fathers have stored up until this day, will be carried to Babylon. Nothing will be left’, says Yahweh. <sup>7</sup> ‘They will take away your sons who will issue from you, whom you shall father, and they will be eunuchs in the king of Babylon’s palace’. <sup>8</sup> Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, Yahweh’s word which you have spoken is good. He said moreover, For there will be peace and truth in my days.

A Message of Comfort

Comfort you, comfort My people, says your God. <sup>2</sup> Speak comfortably to Jerusalem; and call out to her that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned, that she has received of Yahweh’s hand double for all her sins. <sup>3</sup> The voice of one who calls out, Prepare you the way

39:8 The Hezekiah story has a spiritually sad ending, with Hezekiah appearing selfishly content that he himself won’t suffer too much for his prideful friendship with the world and indeed, with those who were God’s especial enemies. We inevitably wonder whether in spiritual terms it wouldn’t have been better for him to die when God first offered him the chance to, as it were. We need to consider relatively ‘premature’ deaths in this light; maybe they are a case of ‘die young stay pretty’ in spiritual terms. For it is far better to die in youth and rise again to live eternally, than live a ‘long’ human life only to in middle or older age turn away from faith and the hope of the Kingdom.

40:3 Quoted about John the Baptist preaching the Gospel of Christ (Mt. 3:3). Before the final coming of the Lord, there will be a proclamation of this by His people: “Prepare you [plural] the way”. As the King’s servants went ahead of him to make the path he had to travel smooth and plain [remember there were no motorways then!], so we go ahead of the returning Lord of all the earth, to prepare the way / road for Him. The fulfilment of this commission by John the Baptist in the first century is therefore a great pattern for our fulfilment of it before the Lord’s second coming in our age. And yet God prepares His own way (43:19; 49:11). The element of unreality here, the ‘new thing’, is that the King Himself prepares His own way or road. The connection with :3 is that in the work of preparing the Lord’s way, in the last great preaching appeal of all time in the lead up to the second coming, the Lord Himself will work with us to make that way plain and clear. We are to “cry” unto Zion that “her iniquity is pardoned” (:2), but we are also to ‘cry’ for her to repent, to be “made straight” (:2-4; 58:1). It’s exactly because we have in prospect been forgiven that we are called to repent. The forgiveness has already been granted; iniquity has been pardoned. We are to ‘cry’ out this fact; and also to ‘cry out’ for repentance. But we have to respond to that. The world’s redemption was achieved through the cross; but we have to appeal to the world to accept it. The same Hebrew word translated ‘cry’ occurs in the same context in 40:26;

of Yahweh in the wilderness! Make a level highway in the desert for our God. <sup>4</sup> Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low. The uneven shall be made level, and the rough places a plane. <sup>5</sup> The glory of Yahweh shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together; for the mouth of Yahweh has spoken it. <sup>6</sup> The voice of one saying, Cry! Another one said, What shall I cry? All flesh is like grass, and all its glory is like the flower of the field. <sup>7</sup> The grass withers, the flower fades, because Yahweh's breath blows on it; surely the people are like grass. <sup>8</sup> The grass withers, the flower fades; but the word of our God stands forever. <sup>9</sup> You who tell good news to Zion, go up on a high mountain. You who tell good news to Jerusalem, lift up your voice with strength— lift it up, don't be afraid. Say to the cities of Judah, Behold, your God! <sup>10</sup> Behold, the Lord Yahweh will come as a mighty one and His arm will rule for him. Behold, His reward is with Him, and His recompense before him. <sup>11</sup> He will feed His flock like a shepherd, He will gather the lambs in His arm, and carry them in His bosom; He will gently lead those who have their young.

God Is Incomparable

<sup>12</sup> Who has measured the waters in the hollow of His hand, and marked off the sky with His span, and calculated the dust of the earth in a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales, and the hills in a balance? <sup>13</sup> Who has directed the Spirit of Yahweh, or has taught Him as His counsellor? <sup>14</sup> Who did He take counsel with, and who instructed Him and taught Him in the path of justice, and taught Him knowledge and showed Him the way of understanding? <sup>15</sup> Behold, the nations are like a drop in a bucket, and are re-

43:1; 45:3,4; 48:12; 54:6, where we read that it is God Himself who calls every one of Israel back to Him, just as He calls every star by its own personal name. And so in our personal calling of men and women, in our crying out to them in these last days to be prepared for the Lord's coming, we are workers together with God. He is crying out to them, through our feeble, shy, embarrassed, uncertain words of witness. Likewise it is God Himself who makes the crooked places straight in 42:16 and 45:2 – whereas here in :3, it is we the preachers who are to do this.

40:4 In the prospect of Christ's coming and our meeting with Him, those with a too low self esteem are lifted up, and the proud brought down to their level; so that between them, the prepared people of God are the road over which God's glory in Christ shall advance. "Made low" uses the same word as in 2:11, which predicts that in the day of judgment, the proud looks of man shall be humbled [s.w. 'made low']".

40:8 The word of our God – Interpreted in 1 Pet. 1:24,25 as the Gospel of Christ.

40:10 Applied by Christ to His second coming in Rev. 22:12. The reward is brought to us from Heaven to earth at His return; we don't go to Heaven after death to receive it. Statements about God are fulfilled in Christ, as His Son who has been given by God all authority to act in His Name; but this doesn't make Jesus God Himself in person.

40:15 The nations are like a drop in a bucket – This was said in the context of Judah garded as a speck of dust on a balance. Behold, He lifts up the islands like a very little thing. <sup>16</sup> Lebanon's forest is not sufficient to burn, nor its animals sufficient for a burnt offering. <sup>17</sup> All the nations are like nothing before Him, they are regarded by Him as less than nothing, and vanity. <sup>18</sup> To whom then will you liken God? Or what likeness will you compare to Him? <sup>19</sup> A workman has cast an image, and the goldsmith overlays it with gold, and casts silver chains for it. <sup>20</sup> He who is too impoverished for such an offering chooses a tree that will not rot. He seeks a skilful workman to set up an engraved image for him that will not be moved. <sup>21</sup> Haven't you known? Haven't you heard, yet? Haven't you been told from the beginning? Haven't you understood from the foundations of the earth? <sup>22</sup> It is He who sits above the circle of the earth, and its inhabitants are like grasshoppers; who stretches out the heavens like a curtain, and spreads them out like a tent to dwell in; <sup>23</sup> who brings princes to nothing; who makes the judges of the earth meaningless. <sup>24</sup> They are planted scarcely, they are sown scarcely, their stock has scarcely taken root in the ground. He merely blows on them, and they wither, and the whirlwind takes them away as stubble. <sup>25</sup> To whom then will you liken Me? Who is My equal? says the Holy One. <sup>26</sup> Lift up your eyes on high, and see who has created these, who brings out their army by number. He calls them all by name, by the greatness of His might, and because He is strong in power, not one is lacking. <sup>27</sup> Why do you say, Jacob, and speak, Israel, My way is hidden from Yahweh, and the justice due me is disregarded by my God? <sup>28</sup> Haven't you known? Haven't you heard? The everlasting God, Yahweh, the Creator of the ends of the earth, doesn't faint. He isn't weary, His understanding is unsearchable. <sup>29</sup> He gives power to the weak, He increases the strength of him who has no might. <sup>30</sup> Even the being tempted to trust in the nations around them rather than in God. Reflection on the extent of His power as seen in the natural creation (:12-14) is intended to inspire faith in practice.

40:17 Regarded by Him as less than nothing – This is not to say that God considers human beings as irrelevant; the significance of the human person is ever before us in the Bible. The context of these statements about the smallness of man is the appeal not to trust in human strength but in God, compared to whose strength humanity is nothing.

40:22 The circle of the earth – Although people at the time generally believed the earth was flat, God's word doesn't contradict true scientific fact, even though at times He speaks to people in the unscientific language which they can cope with.

40:27 The justice due me – The pain of injustice afflicts people in so many ways; but the answer given here is to look to the future day of God's Kingdom, whilst meanwhile remembering God's amazing knowledge and sensitivity to the nuances of every human situation, better than we ourselves know them. His present knowledge and future revelation of judgment is the answer presented to our search for justice today.

youths faint and get weary, and the young men utterly fall; <sup>31</sup> but those who wait for Yahweh will renew their strength. They will mount up with wings like eagles, they will run, and not be weary, they will walk, and not faint.

God Reassures Judah

Keepest silent before Me, islands, and let the peoples renew their strength. Let them come near, then let them speak. Let's meet together for judgement. <sup>2</sup> Who has raised up one from the east? Who called him to His foot in righteousness? He hands over nations to him, and makes him rule over kings. He gives them like the dust to his sword, like the driven stubble to his bow. <sup>3</sup> He pursues them, and passes by safely, even by a way that he had not gone with his feet. <sup>4</sup> Who has worked and done it, calling the generations from the beginning? I Yahweh, the first and with the last, I am He. <sup>5</sup> The islands have seen and fear. The ends of the earth tremble; they approach, and come. <sup>6</sup> Everyone helps his neighbour, they say to their brothers, Be strong! <sup>7</sup> So the carpenter encourages the goldsmith. He who smoothes with the hammer encourages him who strikes the anvil, saying of the soldering, It is good; and he fastens it with nails, that it might not totter. <sup>8</sup> But you, Israel My servant, Jacob whom I have chosen, the seed of Abraham My friend, <sup>9</sup> you whom I have taken hold of from the ends of the earth and called from its corners and said to you, 'You are My servant, I have chosen you and not cast you away'; <sup>10</sup> don't you be afraid, for I am with you. Don't be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you. Yes, I will help you. Yes, I will uphold you with the right hand of My righteousness. <sup>11</sup> Behold, all those who are incensed against you will be disappointed and confounded. Those who strive with you will be like nothing, and shall perish. <sup>12</sup> You will seek them, and won't find them, even those who contend with you. Those who war against you will be as nothing, as a non-existent thing. <sup>13</sup> For I, Yahweh your God, will hold your right hand, saying to you, 'Don't be afraid. I will help you'. <sup>14</sup> Don't be afraid, you worm Jacob, and you men of Israel. I will help you, says Yahweh, and your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel. <sup>15</sup> Behold, I have made you into a new sharp threshing instrument with teeth. You will thresh the mountains, and beat them small, and will make the hills like chaff. <sup>16</sup> You will winnow them, and the wind will carry them away, and the whirlwind

41:8 The servant of Isaiah's prophecies is "the seed of Abraham", but Gal. 3:16 interprets this seed as a singular person, Jesus. The "servant" is therefore both Israel and Jesus. He is their (our) representative, the One to whom every one of God's people should aspire. Wherein Israel failed to fulfil these servant prophecies, Jesus did. We can now become God's "servant" people, Israel of the Spirit, by baptism into Christ – so that all that is true of Him becomes true of us.

will scatter them. You will rejoice in Yahweh, you will glory in the Holy One of Israel. <sup>17</sup> The poor and needy seek water, and there is none, their tongue fails for thirst. I Yahweh, will answer them, I the God of Israel will not forsake them. <sup>18</sup> I will open rivers on the bare heights and springs in the midst of the valleys. I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water. <sup>19</sup> I will put cedar, acacia, myrtle, and oil trees in the wilderness. I will set fir trees, pine, and box trees together in the desert; <sup>20</sup> that they may see, know, consider, and understand together, that the hand of Yahweh has done this, and the Holy One of Israel has created it.

Why Trust in Idols?

<sup>21</sup> Produce your cause, says Yahweh. Bring forth your strong reasons, says the King of Jacob. <sup>22</sup> Let them announce and declare to us what shall happen. Declare the former things, what they are, that we may consider them, and know the latter end of them; or show us things to come. <sup>23</sup> Declare the things that are to come hereafter, that we may know that you are gods. Yes, do good, or do evil, that we may be dismayed, and see it together. <sup>24</sup> Behold, you are of nothing, and your work is of nothing. He who chooses you is an abomination. <sup>25</sup> I have raised up one from the north, and he has come; from the rising of the sun, one who calls on My name; and he shall come on rulers as on mortar, and as the potter treads clay. <sup>26</sup> Who has declared it from the beginning, that we may know? And before, that we may say, ‘He is right?’. Surely, there is no one who declares like this. Surely, there is no one who shows, surely, there is no one who hears your words. <sup>27</sup> I am the first to say to Zion, ‘Behold, look at them;’ and I will give one who brings good news to Jerusalem. <sup>28</sup> When I look, there is no man; even among them there is no counsellor who, when I ask of them, can answer a word. <sup>29</sup> Behold, all of them, their works are vanity and nothing. Their molten images are wind and confusion.

CHAPTER 42 Jun. 18

The Lord’s Chosen Servant

Behold, My servant, whom I uphold; My chosen, in whom My soul delights—I have put My Spirit on him. He will bring justice to the nations. <sup>2</sup> He will not shout, nor

41:22 Declare the former things – Not only is God’s prediction of future events a sign of His supremacy as God, but we must consider too that He is the only ultimate historian; He alone can attach meaning to the events of history, interpreting in a way so unique that we are persuaded that surely, He alone is God. This is why so much of the Bible is in one sense history, and God’s interpretation of it. This of itself ought to persuade us of Him and His word, quite apart from His predictions of future things.

41:25 He shall come on rulers as on mortar, and as the potter treads clay – This connects with the prophecy of Dan. 2:44, that Christ’s second coming will be like a stone hitting the feet of clay of human kingdoms.

raise his voice, nor cause it to be heard in the street. <sup>3</sup> He won't break a bruised reed. He won't quench a dimly burning wick. He will faithfully bring justice. <sup>4</sup> He will not fail nor be discouraged until he has set justice in the earth, and the islands will wait for his law. <sup>5</sup> Thus says God Yahweh, He who created the heavens and stretched them out, He who spread out the earth and that which comes out of it, He who gives breath to its people and spirit to those who walk in it. <sup>6</sup> I, Yahweh, have called you in righteousness, and will hold your hand and will keep you, and make you a covenant for the people, as a light for the nations; <sup>7</sup> to open the blind eyes, to bring the prisoners out of the dungeon, and those who sit in darkness out of the prison. <sup>8</sup> I am Yahweh; that is My name. I will not give My glory to another, nor My praise to engraved images. <sup>9</sup> Behold, the former things have happened, and I declare new things. I tell you about them before they come up.

A Song of Praise

<sup>10</sup> Sing to Yahweh a new song, and His praise from the end of the earth, you who go down to the sea, and all that is therein, the islands and their inhabitants. <sup>11</sup> Let the wilderness and its cities raise their voices, with the villages that Kedar inhabits. Let the inhabitants of Sela sing, let them shout from the top of the mountains! <sup>12</sup> Let them give glory to Yahweh, and declare His praise in the islands. <sup>13</sup> Yahweh will go out like a mighty man, He will stir up zeal like a man of war, He will raise a war cry. Yes, He will shout aloud, He will triumph over His enemies.

God's Promise

<sup>14</sup> I have been silent a long time, I have been quiet and restrained Myself; now I will cry out like a travailing woman, I will both gasp and pant. <sup>15</sup> I will destroy mountains and hills and dry up all their herbs. I will make the rivers islands and will dry up the pools. <sup>16</sup> I will bring the blind by a way that they don't know, I will

42:3 Quoted about the preaching of Jesus in Mt. 12:18-20. He didn't turn away from human weakness, but rather tried to fan what spiritual fire there was into a greater flame; we should have the same attitude to people. Isaiah prophesied in the context of the Assyrian invasion, at which time Judah were tempted to trust in the "broken reed" of Egypt (2 Kings 18:21). This is the only other time the phrase is used. God was even unwilling to break Egypt, but rather sought even their salvation (19:24).

42:4 He will not fail nor be discouraged – This is a prophecy of Jesus. He had so much to discourage Him, and yet it seems He never felt totally discouraged even once – because He looked at the short term ups and downs of His ministry from a Kingdom perspective, knowing that ultimately all would work out. We need to look at the down cycles of our own experience the same way.

42:14 God likens Himself here to a woman; characteristics of both male and female are found in Him, in whose image both male and female were created (Gen. 1:27; 5:1,2).

lead them in paths that they don't know. I will make darkness light before them, and crooked places straight. I will do these things, and I will not forsake them.<sup>17</sup> Those who trust in engraved images, who tell molten images, 'You are our gods' will be turned back. They will be utterly disappointed.

Israel's Failure to Learn

<sup>18</sup> Hear, you deaf, and look, you blind, that you may see. <sup>19</sup> Who is blind, but My servant? Or who is as deaf as My messenger whom I send? Who is as blind as he who is at peace, and as blind as Yahweh's servant? <sup>20</sup> You see many things, but don't observe. His ears are open, but he doesn't listen. <sup>21</sup> It pleases Yahweh, for His righteousness' sake, to magnify the law, and make it honourable. <sup>22</sup> But this is a robbed and plundered people. All of them are snared in holes, and they are hidden in prisons. They have become a prey, and no one delivers; and a spoil, and no one says, 'Restore them!'. <sup>23</sup> Who is there among you who will give ear to this? Who will listen and hear bearing in mind the time to come? <sup>24</sup> Who gave Jacob as plunder, and Israel to the robbers? Didn't Yahweh,

He against whom we have sinned? For they would not walk in His ways, and they disobeyed His law. <sup>25</sup> Therefore He poured the fierceness of His anger on him, and the strength of battle; and it set him on fire all around, but he didn't know; and it burned him, but he didn't take it to heart.

Judah's Saviour

But now thus says Yahweh who created you, Jacob, and He who formed you, Israel: Don't be afraid, for I have redeemed you. I have called you by your name. You are Mine. <sup>2</sup> When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they will not overflow you. When you walk through the fire, you will not be burned, and flame will not scorch you. <sup>3</sup> For I am Yahweh your God, the Holy One of Israel your Saviour. I have given Egypt as your ransom, Ethiopia and Sheba in your place. <sup>4</sup> Since you have been precious and honoured in My sight and I have loved you; therefore I will give people in your place, and nations instead of your life. <sup>5</sup> Don't be afraid; for I am with you. I will bring your seed from the

42:22 No one says, 'Restore them!' – Nobody at that time was saying that, but God had prophesied so many times that His people would be restored at the end of 70 years, and Cyrus did indeed make the amazing call to restore Judah then (see Ezra 1). The challenge at Isaiah's time was to view the discouragement of the moment in the context of God's prophetic word – to suffer the apparent silence of God "bearing in mind the time to come" (:23) when one would say "Restore them!".

43:4 That God should 'honour' His weak people is amazing. But this is what it means to be loved by God; for the object of love is thereby respected and honoured in the eyes of the lover. And this is how God also sees us today.

east, and gather you from the west. <sup>6</sup> I will tell the north, ‘Give them up!’ and tell the south, ‘Don’t hold them back! Bring My sons from far, and My daughters from the ends of the earth— <sup>7</sup> each one who is called by My name, and whom I have created for My glory, whom I have formed, yes, whom I have made’.

Israel, the Lord’s Witness

<sup>8</sup> Bring out the blind people who have eyes, and the deaf who have ears.

<sup>9</sup> Let all the nations be gathered together, and let the peoples be assembled. Who among them can declare this, and show us former things? Let them bring their witnesses, that they may be justified; or let them hear, and say, That is true. <sup>10</sup> You are My witnesses, says Yahweh, With My servant whom I have chosen; that you may know and believe Me, and understand that I am He. Before Me there was no God formed, neither will there be after Me. <sup>11</sup> I Myself am Yahweh; and besides Me there is no saviour. <sup>12</sup> I have declared, I have saved, and I have shown; and there was no strange god among you. Therefore you are My witnesses, says Yahweh, That I am God. <sup>13</sup> Yes, since the day was I am He; and there is no one who can deliver out of My hand. I will work, and who can hinder it? <sup>14</sup> Thus says Yahweh your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: For your sake I have sent to Babylon, and I will bring all of them down as fugitives, even the Chaldeans, in the ships of their rejoicing. <sup>15</sup> I am Yahweh your Holy One, the Creator of Israel- your King. <sup>16</sup> Thus says Yahweh, who makes a way in the sea, and a path in the mighty waters; <sup>17</sup> who brings forth the chariot and horse, the army and the mighty man (they lie down together, they shall not rise; they are extinct, they are quenched like a wick): <sup>18</sup> Don’t remember the former things, and don’t consider the things of old. <sup>19</sup> Behold, I will do a new thing. It springs forth now; don’t you perceive it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert. <sup>20</sup> The animals of the field shall honour Me, the jackals and the ostriches; because I give water in the

43:7 Each one – Every single Jew in captivity was created potentially for God’s glory. At the end of the 70 years captivity He did indeed command the Persian empire to allow the Jews to return; but the majority chose to stay where they were rather than return to the ruined, hard land of Judah – to glorify God. The frequent emphasis on how “each one” would be gathered shows the colossal significance of the individual human person to God, and how He sees us as individuals rather than merely His people en masse.

43:15 The Creator of Israel – your King – Because Yahweh God was Israel’s creator, therefore He ought to have been their King. If we really believe His creative authority over us, then He will rule in every aspect of our lives; this is an implication of our belief that God created us and we didn’t create ourselves by fluke chance.

43:17 They shall not rise – Another proof that those who don’t know God will die and remain dead. Hence the urgent importance of spreading the knowledge of God to those who have not yet heard.

wilderness and rivers in the desert, to give drink to My people, My chosen, <sup>21</sup> the people which I formed for Myself, that they might show forth My praise. <sup>22</sup> Yet you have not called on Me, Jacob; but you have been weary of Me, Israel. <sup>23</sup> You have not brought Me of your sheep for burnt offerings; neither have you honoured Me with your sacrifices. I have not burdened you with offerings, nor wearied you with frankincense. <sup>24</sup> You have bought Me no sweet cane with money, nor have you filled Me with the fat of your sacrifices; but you have burdened Me with your sins. You have wearied Me with your iniquities. <sup>25</sup> I, even I, am He who blots out your transgressions for My own sake; and I will not remember your sins. <sup>26</sup> Put Me in remembrance, let us plead together. Set forth your case, that you may be justified. <sup>27</sup> Your first father sinned, and your teachers have transgressed against Me. <sup>28</sup> Therefore I will profane the princes of the sanctuary; and I will make Jacob a curse, and Israel an insult.

CHAPTER 44 Jun. 20

Yet listen now, Jacob My servant, and Israel, whom I have chosen.

and formed you from the womb, who will save you, says: Don't be afraid, Jacob My servant; and you, Jeshurun, whom I have chosen. <sup>3</sup> For I will pour water on him who is thirsty, and streams on the dry ground. I will pour My Spirit on your seed, and My blessing on your offspring: <sup>4</sup> and they will spring up among the grass, as willows by the watercourses. <sup>5</sup> One will say, 'I am Yahweh's' and another will be called by the name of Jacob; and another will write with his hand 'to Yahweh', and honour the name of Israel. <sup>6</sup> This is what Yahweh the King of Israel and His Redeemer, Yahweh of Armies, says: I am the first, and I am the last; and besides Me there is no God. <sup>7</sup> Who is like Me? Who will call, and will declare it, and set it in order for Me, since I established the ancient people? Let them declare the things that are coming, and that will happen. <sup>8</sup> Don't fear, neither be afraid. Haven't I declared it to you long ago, and shown it? You are My witnesses. Is there a God besides Me? Indeed there is not. I don't know any other Rock.

The Foolishness of Idolatry

43:24 You have wearied Me with your iniquities – God speaks here of being burdened by Israel's sins – and yet this is a prelude to the passages which speak of the Lord Jesus bearing our sins on the cross (53:4,11,12). He was wearied by Israel's sins even though God does not "grow weary" (40:28) by nature; in His full entering into His people's situation, in His extreme sensitivity to our behavior, He does allow Himself to grow weary with the sins of those with whom He is in covenant relationship. It was this kind of capacity which God has which was supremely revealed in His 'sharing in' the crucifixion of His Son.

witnesses don't see nor know, that they may be disappointed. <sup>10</sup> Who has fashioned a god or moulds an image that is profitable for nothing? <sup>11</sup> Behold, all his fellows will be disappointed; and the workmen are mere men. Let them all be gathered together. Let them stand up. They will fear. They will be put to shame together. <sup>12</sup> The blacksmith takes an axe, works in the coals, fashions it with hammers, and works it with his strong arm. He is hungry, and his strength fails; he drinks no water, and is faint. <sup>13</sup> The carpenter stretches out a line. He marks it out with a pencil. He shapes it with planes. He marks it out with compasses, and shapes it like the figure of a man, with the beauty of a man, to reside in a house. <sup>14</sup> He cuts down cedars for himself, and takes the cypress and the oak, and strengthens for himself one among the trees of the forest. He plants a fir tree, and the rain nourishes it. <sup>15</sup> Then it will be for a man to burn; and he takes some of it, and warms himself. Yes, he burns it, and bakes bread. Yes, he makes a god, and worships it; he makes it an engraved image, and falls down to it. <sup>16</sup> He burns part of it in the fire. With part of it, he eats meat. He roasts a roast, and is satisfied. Yes, he warms himself and says, Ah! I am warm, I have seen the fire. <sup>17</sup> The rest of it he makes into a god, even his engraved image. He bows down to it and worships and prays to it and says, Deliver me; for you are my god! <sup>18</sup> They don't know neither do they consider: for He has shut their eyes that they can't see; and their hearts that they can't understand. <sup>19</sup> No one thinks neither is there knowledge nor understanding to say, I have burned part of it in the fire. Yes, I have also baked bread on its coals. I have roasted meat and eaten it. Shall I make the rest of it into an abomination? Shall I bow down to a tree trunk? <sup>20</sup> He feeds on ashes. A deceived heart has turned him aside; and he can't deliver his soul, nor say, Isn't there a lie in my right hand?

The Lord, Creator and Saviour

<sup>21</sup> Remember these things, Jacob and Israel; for you are My servant. I have formed you; you are My servant. Israel, you will not be forgotten by Me. <sup>22</sup> I have blotted out as a thick cloud your iniquities, and, as a cloud, your sins. Return to Me, for

44:14-18 The folly of sin is only fully evident to God. We may go along with the text here, poking fun at the idiocy of idolatry – and yet we all have a tendency to this kind of thing, because every sin is in essence a form of idolatry.

44:22 God appeals for Israel to respond by pointing out that in prospect, He has already forgiven them. This not only inspires our personal repentance, but can be the basis upon which we appeal to others to repent – that for the sake of Christ, God has forgiven them, but they need to claim that and identify with it. Isaiah urged the Jews to return to the land by saying that God had forgiven them, and on this basis He appealed for them to both 'repent' and 'return' to the land. The two terms are related. Thus He showed His grace; forgiveness preceded, not followed, repentance. As Paul put it, the goodness of God leads to repentance (Rom. 2:4). And we are asked to show that same

I have redeemed you. <sup>23</sup> Sing you heavens, for Yahweh has done it! Shout, you lower parts of the earth! Break out into singing, you mountains, O forest, all of your trees, for Yahweh has redeemed Jacob, and will glorify Himself in Israel. <sup>24</sup> Thus says Yahweh your Redeemer, and He who formed you from the womb: I am Yahweh who makes all things, who alone stretches out the heavens; who spreads out the earth by Myself; <sup>25</sup> who frustrates the signs of the liars, and makes diviners mad; who turns wise men backward, and makes their knowledge foolish; <sup>26</sup> who confirms the word of His servant, and performs the counsel of His messengers; who says of Jerusalem, ‘She will be inhabited;’ and of the cities of Judah, ‘They will be built’, and ‘I will raise up its waste places;’ <sup>27</sup> who says to the deep, ‘Be dry’, and ‘I will dry up your rivers;’ <sup>28</sup> who says of Cyrus, ‘He is My shepherd, and shall perform all My pleasure’, even saying of Jerusalem, ‘She will be built;’ and of the temple, ‘Your foundation will be laid’.

CHAPTER 45 Jun. 21

The Lord Appoints Cyrus

Thus says Yahweh to His anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have held, to subdue nations before him, and strip kings of their armour; to open the doors before him, and the gates shall not be shut: <sup>2</sup> I will go before you, and make the rough places smooth. I will break the doors of brass in pieces, and cut apart the bars of iron. <sup>3</sup> I will give you the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, that you may know that it is I, Yahweh, who call you by your name, even the God of Israel. <sup>4</sup> For Jacob My servant’s sake, and Israel My chosen, I have called you by your name. I have surnamed you, though you have not known Me. <sup>5</sup> I am Yahweh, and there is none else. Besides Me, there is no God. I will “goodness” of God to others, being “kind [s.w. ‘goodness’] one to another... forgiving one another, even as God for Christ’s sake has forgiven you” (Eph. 4:32). We too are to show this grace of forgiveness-before-repentance; but perhaps in no other area has formalized, institutionalized Christianity failed worse. The Greek word translated “goodness” is rendered “gracious” in 1 Pet. 2:3 – newly converted babes in Christ taste of this gracious goodness, and it leads to repentance.

44:26 Who confirms the word of His servant, and performs the counsel of His messengers – The singular servant is equated with His “messengers”, whose “counsel” to others is the word which is Jesus, the true servant. If we are “in Christ” then we are His witnesses, and He is especially with us in our witness for Him.

44:28 The command of Cyrus to allow the Jews to return to Judah and rebuild their temple at his expense as recorded in Ezra 1 was clearly a result of God working on the hearts of unbelievers to make them do things which otherwise have little sense or human wisdom. The tragedy is that most of the Jews preferred the soft life in Babylon and didn’t return.

45:5-7 Of especially significant influence upon Judaism were the Persian views of Zoroastrianism. This was a philosophy which began in Persia about 600 B.C., and strengthen you, though you have not known Me; <sup>6</sup> that they may know from the rising of the sun, and from the west, that there is none besides Me. I am Yahweh, and there is no one else. <sup>7</sup> I form the light, and create darkness. I make peace, and create calamity. I am Yahweh, who does all these things. <sup>8</sup> Distil, you heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness. Let the earth open, that it may bring forth salvation, and let it cause righteousness to spring up with it. I, Yahweh, have created it.

Yahweh's Supremacy

<sup>9</sup> Woe to him who strives with his Maker— a clay pot among the clay pots of the earth! Shall the clay ask Him who fashions it, ‘What are you making?’ or your work, ‘He has no hands?’ <sup>10</sup> Woe to him who says to a father, ‘What have you become the father of?’ or to a mother, ‘To what have you given birth?’ <sup>11</sup> Thus says Yahweh the Maker and Holy One of Israel: You can ask Me about the things that are to come, concerning My sons, and you command Me concerning the work of My hands! <sup>12</sup> I have made the earth, and created man on it. I, even My hands, have stretched out the heavens; and I have commanded all their army. <sup>13</sup> I have raised him up in righteousness, and I will make straight all his ways. He shall build My city, and he shall let My exiles go free, not for price nor reward, says Yahweh of Armies.

was growing in popularity when Judah went to Babylon / Persia in captivity. This philosophy taught that there was a good god of light (Mazda) and an evil god of darkness (Ahriman). :5–7 is a clear warning to the Jews in captivity not to buy into this— Israel’s God alone made the light and the darkness, the good and the calamity or “evil”. The Jews were influenced by the Zoroastrian idea that somehow God Himself would never cause evil in our lives— and therefore, God is to be seen as somehow distanced from all good or evil actions, as these are under the control of the good and evil gods. The fact is, God personally is passionately involved with this world and with our lives; and so it is He who brings about the dark and the light, good and evil. “In pre-exilic Hebrew religion, Yahweh made all that was in heaven and earth, both of good and of evil. The Devil did not exist”. During their captivity in Babylon, the Jews shifted towards understanding that there was actually a separate entity responsible for disaster. Hence :5–8 warns them not to adopt the views of Babylon in this area, but to remain firm in their faith that God, their God, the God of Israel, the one and only Yahweh, was the ultimate source of all things, both positive and negative, having no equal or competitor in Heaven. This becomes a frequent theme of Isaiah and other prophets who wrote in the context of Israel in captivity. The Jews of course were monotheists, and these ideas were developed in order to allow them to believe in both one God, and yet also the dualistic, god of evil / god of good idea of the Persians. It was in this period that the Jews adopted the idea of sinful Angels, even though the Old Testament knows nothing of them. They didn’t want to compromise their monotheism by saying there was more than one God; and so they set up the ‘evil god’ as in fact a very powerful, sinful Angel. And this wrong notion was picked up by early Christians equally eager to accommodate the surrounding pagan ideas about evil.

<sup>14</sup> Thus says Yahweh: The labour of Egypt, and the merchandise of Ethiopia, and the Sabeans, men of stature, shall come over to you, and they shall be yours. They will go after you. They shall come over in chains and they will bow down to you. They will make supplication to you: ‘Surely God is in you; and there is none else. There is no other god. <sup>15</sup> Most certainly You are a God who has hidden Yourself, God of Israel, the Saviour’. <sup>16</sup> They will be disappointed, yes, confounded, all of them. Those who are makers of idols will go into confusion together. <sup>17</sup> Israel will be saved by Yahweh with an everlasting salvation. You will not be disappointed nor confounded to ages everlasting. <sup>18</sup> For thus says Yahweh who created the heavens, the God who formed the earth and made it, who established it and didn’t create it in vain, who formed it to be inhabited: I am Yahweh; and there is no other. <sup>19</sup> I have not spoken in secret, in a place of the land of darkness. I didn’t say to the seed of Jacob, ‘Seek Me in vain’. I, Yahweh, speak righteousness. I declare things that are right. <sup>20</sup> Assemble yourselves and come. Draw near together, you who have escaped from the nations. Those have no knowledge who carry the wood of their engraved image, and pray to a god that can’t save. <sup>21</sup> Declare and present it. Yes, let them take counsel together. Who has shown this from ancient time? Who has declared it of old? Haven’t I, Yahweh? There is no other God besides Me, a just God and a Saviour; There is no one besides Me. <sup>22</sup> Look to Me and be saved, all the ends of the earth; for I am God, and there is no other. <sup>23</sup> I have sworn by Myself, the word has gone out of My mouth in righteousness and will not return, that to Me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall take an oath. <sup>24</sup> They will say of Me, ‘There is righteousness and strength only in Yahweh’. Even to Him shall men come; and all those who were incensed against Him shall be disappointed. <sup>25</sup> In Yahweh shall all the seed of Israel be justified, and shall glory.

The Foolishness of Idols

Bel bows down, Nebo stoops; their idols are on the animals, and on the livestock: the things that

45:18 This verse is proof enough that God won’t allow the world to be destroyed – He has a glorious purpose with it.

45:20–24 These words are quoted in Phil. 2:9–11 in description of the believer’s response to the suffering Saviour. And yet they are quoted again in Rom. 14:10–12 regarding our confession of sin before Christ at judgment day. The connections mean simply this: before the Lord’s cross, we bow our knee and confess our failures, knowing the imputation of His righteousness, in anticipation of how we will bow before Him and give our miserable account at the judgment. And both processes are wonderfully natural. We must allow the power of a true faith in His cross to work out its own way in us. At the judgment, no flesh will glory in himself, but only in the Lord Jesus (1 Cor. 1:29). And even now, we glory in His cross (Gal. 6:14).

you carried about are made a load, a burden to the weary. <sup>2</sup> They stoop, they bow down together; they could not deliver the burden, but themselves have been carried away into captivity. <sup>3</sup> Listen to Me, house of Jacob, and all the remnant of the house of Israel, that have been carried from their birth, that have been carried from the womb; <sup>4</sup> and even to old age I am He, and even to grey hairs will I carry you. I have made, and I will bear; yes, I will carry, and will deliver. <sup>5</sup> To whom will you liken Me and make Me equal, and compare Me, that we may be alike? <sup>6</sup> Some pour out gold from the bag, and weigh silver in the balance. They hire a goldsmith, and he makes it a god. They fall down—yes, they worship. <sup>7</sup> They bear it on the shoulder, they carry it, and set it in its place, and it stands, from its place it shall not move: yes, one may cry to it, yet it can not answer, nor save him out of his trouble. <sup>8</sup> Remember this, and show yourselves men; bring it again to mind, you transgressors. <sup>9</sup> Remember the former things of old: for I am God, and there is none else; I am God, and there is none like Me; <sup>10</sup> declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times things that are not yet done; saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all My pleasure; <sup>11</sup> calling a ravenous bird from the east, the man of My counsel from a far country; yes, I have spoken, I will also bring it to pass; I have purposed, I will also do it. <sup>12</sup> Listen to Me, you stout-hearted, who are far from righteousness: <sup>13</sup> I bring near My righteousness, it shall not be far off, and My salvation shall not wait; and I will place salvation in Zion for Israel My glory.

46:3, 4 God is likening Himself to a woman who carries a child in her womb, then bears it, and then carries it as a baby, but still carries it when the child is an old man. The God of all knowledge is aware of a fundamental psychological phenomena in all men; the fear, however passive and buried, of being without their mother; the fear of loneliness, the fear of eternal separation from the woman who bore and carried them. From the president to the happy village grandfather, this sense is there. Perhaps David appreciated this when he referred to a man weeping at his mother's funeral (not his father's) as the ultimate cameo of grieving and desolation of soul (Ps. 35:14). And yet God says that He is in some ways the eternal mother, the one who bore and carried us in babyhood, but the One who will yet carry us when we are gray headed and once again unable to walk. Yet He is also the everlasting Father to us, through His Son (9:6). It's a picture of exquisite beauty. Our relationship with God as the One who will never leave us is the only answer to what philosophers call 'the existential problem'; the awareness that has come to every thoughtful soul, the terror of being so alone as we get older, the dread of being without our human roots, of becoming the one to whom others (e.g. our children) look to as their background and root, whilst we ourselves have no tangible link with our past. This horror of existential loneliness can only be met by our sure knowledge that we have a very personal relationship in the Kingdom of God with our Heavenly Father, who will never leave us, and will preserve us unto His eternal Kingdom.

CHAPTER 47 Jun. 22Judgement on Babylon

Come down and sit in the dust, virgin daughter of Babylon; sit on the ground without a throne, daughter of the Chaldeans: for you shall no more be called tender and delicate. <sup>2</sup> Take the millstones, and grind meal; remove your veil, strip off the train, uncover the leg, pass through the rivers. <sup>3</sup> Your nakedness shall be uncovered, yes, your shame shall be seen: I will take vengeance, and will spare no man. <sup>4</sup> Our Redeemer, Yahweh of Armies is His name, is the Holy One of Israel. <sup>5</sup> Sit in silence, and go into darkness, daughter of the Chaldeans; for you shall no more be called the mistress of kingdoms. <sup>6</sup> I was angry with My people, I profaned My inheritance, and gave them into your hand: you showed them no mercy; on the aged you have very heavily laid your yoke. <sup>7</sup> You said, ‘I shall be a mistress forever,’ so that you did not lay these things to your heart, nor did you remember the latter end of it. <sup>8</sup> Now therefore hear this, you who are given to pleasures, who sit securely, who say in your heart, ‘I am, and there is none else besides me; I shall not sit as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of children:’ <sup>9</sup> but these two things shall come to you in a moment in one day, the loss of children, and widowhood; in their full measure shall they come on you, in the multitude of your sorceries, and the great abundance of your enchantments. <sup>10</sup> For you have trusted in your wickedness; you have said, ‘No one sees me’; your wisdom and your knowledge, it has perverted you, and you have said in your heart, ‘I am, and there is none else besides me’. <sup>11</sup> Therefore evil will come on you; you won’t know when it dawns: and mischief will fall on you; you will not be able to put it away: and desolation shall come on you suddenly, which you don’t know. <sup>12</sup> Stand now with your enchantments, and with the multitude of your sorceries in which you have laboured from your youth; if so be you shall be able to profit, if so be you may prevail! <sup>13</sup> You are wearied in the multitude of your counsellors: let now the astrologers, the stargazers, the monthly prognosticators, stand up and save

47:8 I am and there is none else – We bear the Name of Yahweh / Jehovah, by reason of our baptism into it. His Name is declared as His character – merciful, truthful, judging sin, patient etc (Ex. 34:5-7). He who will be who He will be, manifesting His characteristics as He does so, must have His way in us too. Babylon and Nineveh were condemned for having the attitude that “I am, and there is none beside me” (Zeph. 2:15). Their self-perception was a parody on the Name and being of Yahweh: He alone can say “I am, and there is none else” (43:11; 44:6; 45:6,21) and seek to be who He is. He alone can seek to articulate the characteristics that make up His Name onto the lives of others, and onto the things that comprise His Kingdom. We are not to be who we are in a fleshly sense; to ‘just be yourself’; to ‘just do it’, as foolish slogans and adverts encourage us. We are here to show forth His mercy, truth, judgment of sin, patient saving of the weak etc., not our own human agenda. We are to be Yahweh manifested to this world, through our participation in His Name in Christ.

you from the things that shall come on you. <sup>14</sup> Behold, they shall be as stubble; the fire shall burn them; they shall not deliver themselves from the power of the flame: it shall not be a coal to warm at, nor a fire to sit before. <sup>15</sup> Thus shall the things be to you in which you have laboured: those who have trafficked with you from your youth shall wander each one to his place; there shall be none to save you.

The Lord's Patience with Israel

Hear this, house of Jacob, you who are called by the name of Israel, and have come forth out of the waters of Judah; who swear by the name of Yahweh, and make mention of the God of Israel, but not in truth nor in righteousness <sup>2</sup> (for they call themselves of the holy city, and rest themselves on the God of Israel; Yahweh of Armies is His name): <sup>3</sup> I have declared the former things from of old; yes, they went forth out of My mouth, and I showed them: suddenly I did them, and they happened. <sup>4</sup> Because I knew that you are obstinate, and your neck is an iron sinew, and your brow brass, <sup>5</sup> therefore I have declared it in advance to you from of old; before it came to pass I showed it to you; lest you should say, 'My idol has done them, and my engraved image, and my molten image, has commanded them'. <sup>6</sup> You have heard it; see all this; and you, will you not declare it? I have shown you new things from this time, even hidden things, which you have not known. <sup>7</sup> They are created now, and not from of old; and before this day you didn't hear them; lest you should say, 'Behold, I knew them'. <sup>8</sup> Yes, you didn't hear; yes, you didn't know; yes, from of old your ear was not opened: for I knew that you dealt very treacherously, and were called a transgressor from the womb. <sup>9</sup> For My name's sake will I defer My anger, and for the sake of My praise will I refrain for you, that I not cut you off. <sup>10</sup> Behold, I have refined you, but not as silver; I have chosen you in the furnace of affliction. <sup>11</sup> For My own sake, for My own sake, will I do it; for how should My name be profaned? I will not give My glory to another. <sup>12</sup> Listen to Me, O Jacob, and Israel My called: I am He; I am the first, I also am the last. <sup>13</sup> Yes, My hand has laid the foundation of the earth, and My right hand has spread out the heavens: when I call to them, they stand up together. <sup>14</sup> Assemble yourselves all of you, and hear; who among them has declared these things? He whom Yahweh loves shall perform His will on Babylon, and his arm shall be on the

48:3 Suddenly I did them, and they happened – Another of Isaiah's allusions to creation. All that happens in our lives is a creation from God's word of command; even the bad things in our experience have ultimately a creative, positive intent from God.

48:6 And you, will you not declare it? – God is the One who 'declared' things in advance (:5), and we in our turn are to declare to the world what He has declared. In our work of witness there is a mutuality between God and us.

Chaldeans. <sup>15</sup> I, even I, have spoken; yes, I have called him; I have brought him, and he shall make his way prosperous. <sup>16</sup> Come near to Me and hear this: ‘From the beginning I have not spoken in secret; from the time that it was, there am I’. Now the Lord Yahweh has sent me, with His Spirit.

The Lord’s Plan

<sup>17</sup> Thus says Yahweh, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: I am Yahweh your God, who teaches you to profit, who leads you by the way that you should go. <sup>18</sup> Oh that you had listened to My commandments! then your peace would have been like a river, and your righteousness like the waves of the sea: <sup>19</sup> your seed also had been as the sand, and the offspring of your body like its grains: his name would not be cut off nor destroyed from before Me. <sup>20</sup> Go forth from Babylon, flee from the Chaldeans; with a voice of singing declare, tell this, utter it even to the end of the earth: say, ‘Yahweh has redeemed His servant Jacob’.

<sup>21</sup> They didn’t thirst when He led them through the deserts; He caused the waters to flow out of the rock for them; He split the rock also, and the waters gushed out. <sup>22</sup> There is no peace, says Yahweh, for the wicked.

Israel, a Light to the Nations

Listen, islands, to me; and listen, you peoples, from far: Yahweh has called me from the womb; from the bowels of my mother has He made mention of my name: <sup>2</sup> and He has made my mouth like a sharp sword; in the shadow of His hand has He hidden me: and He has made me a polished shaft; in His quiver has He kept me close: <sup>3</sup> and He said to me, You are My servant; Israel, in whom I will be glorified. <sup>4</sup> But I said, I have laboured in vain, I have spent my strength for nothing and vanity; yet surely the justice due to me is with Yahweh, and my reward with my God. <sup>5</sup> Now says Yahweh who formed me from the womb to be His servant, to bring Jacob again to Him, and that Israel be gathered

48:18 The fact God knows all possible futures must make His experience with us His people so tragic. For sorrow is largely related to our awareness of what could have been; and God knows that so much could have been. The promises to Abraham and the coming of the Messianic seed of Abraham could have been fulfilled; but because Israel chose to be wicked, there was no such peace to them (:22). For all their wealth in Babylon, they had no peace with God.

48:20 Flee from the Chaldeans – Judah were comfortable and prosperous in Babylon, as the conclusion to the book of Esther shows. Jews were senior in commerce and politics (as witness the book of Daniel). Yet they were to “flee” from this situation because of its huge spiritual danger. Generally they didn’t perceive the spiritual danger of the world in which they lived, and most Jews remained in Babylon, to their spiritual destruction.

49:2 The Lord Jesus is described as having a sharp sword going out of His mouth (Rev. 1:16; 2:16; 19:15); this is a prophecy of Him personally.

to Him (for I am honourable in the eyes of Yahweh, and my God has become my strength); <sup>6</sup> yes, He says, It is too light a thing that you should be My servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved of Israel: I will also give you for a light to the nations, that you may be My salvation to the end of the earth. <sup>7</sup> Thus says Yahweh, the Redeemer of Israel, and His Holy One, to him whom man despises, to him whom the nation abhors, to a servant of rulers: Kings shall see and arise; princes, and they shall worship; because of Yahweh who is faithful, even the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you.

Judah's Final Return

<sup>8</sup> Thus says Yahweh, In an acceptable time have I answered you, and in a day of salvation have I helped you; and I will preserve you, and give you for a covenant of the people, to raise up the land, to make them inherit the desolate heritage: <sup>9</sup> saying to those who are bound, 'Come out!'; to those who are in darkness, 'Show yourselves!' They shall feed in the ways, and on all bare heights shall be their pasture. <sup>10</sup> They shall not hunger nor thirst; neither shall the heat nor sun strike them: for He who has mercy on them will lead them, even by springs of water He will guide them. <sup>11</sup> I will make all My mountains a way, and My highways shall be exalted. <sup>12</sup> Behold, these shall come from far; and behold, these from the north and from the west; and these from the land of Sinim. <sup>13</sup> Sing, heavens; and be joyful, earth; and break forth into singing, mountains: for Yahweh has comforted His people, and will have compassion on His afflicted. <sup>14</sup> But Zion said, Yahweh has forsaken me, and the Lord has forgotten me. <sup>15</sup> Can a woman forget her nursing child, that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? Yes, these may forget, yet I will not forget you! <sup>16</sup> Behold, I have engraved you on the palms of My hands; your walls are continually before Me. <sup>17</sup> Your children make

49:8 2 Cor. 6:2 interprets this time of salvation and acceptance as "now". The window of opportunity which there was for Judah to return from exile and inherit the restored Kingdom of God is "now" in that we should likewise be appealing to men and women to quit this world of "Babylon" and journey towards God's Kingdom. The spiritual opportunities which there are "now" are amazing; but there is an urgency to our appeal in that the time of acceptance is "now" and the amazing opportunity must be grasped "now".

49:10 Quoted about how we shall be led by Jesus in the future Kingdom of God on earth (Rev. 7:16,17).

49:16 Judah in captivity must've thought that God had forgotten them and His land as it lay there desolated. We too at times feel the apparent silence of God means that He is somehow there but too far away. But He assures them and us that His silence is only apparent. They were engraven upon His palms, perhaps alluding to the fact that it seems that to this day the Lord Jesus has on His hands the marks from the nails with which He was crucified (Zech. 13:6; Jn. 20:25-27; Rev. 1:7).

haste; your destroyers and those who made you waste shall go forth from you. <sup>18</sup> Lift up your eyes all around, and see: all these gather themselves together, and come to you. As I live, says Yahweh, you shall surely clothe yourself with them all as with an ornament, and dress yourself with them, like a bride. <sup>19</sup> For, as for your waste and your desolate places, and your land that has been destroyed, surely now you shall be too small for the inhabitants, and those who swallowed you up shall be far away. <sup>20</sup> The children of your bereavement shall yet say in your ears, ‘The place is too small for me; give more space to me that I may dwell!’ <sup>21</sup> Then you will say in your heart, ‘Who has conceived these for me, since I have been bereaved of my children, and am solitary, an exile, and wandering back and forth? Who has brought up these? Behold, I was left alone; these, where were they?’ <sup>22</sup> Thus says the Lord Yahweh, Behold, I will lift up My hand to the nations, and set up My banner to the peoples; and they shall bring your sons in their bosom, and your daughters shall be carried on their shoulders.

<sup>23</sup> Kings shall be your nursing fathers, and their queens your nursing mothers: they shall bow down to you with their faces to the earth, and lick the dust of your feet; and you shall know that I am Yahweh; and those who wait for Me shall not be disappointed. <sup>24</sup> Can prey be taken from a warrior? Or can prisoners of a tyrant be rescued? <sup>25</sup> But thus says Yahweh, Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away, and the prey of the terrible shall be delivered; for I will contend with him who contends with you, and I will save your children. <sup>26</sup> I will feed those who oppress you with their own flesh; and they shall be drunken with their own blood, as with sweet wine: and all flesh shall know that I, Yahweh, am your Saviour, and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

Reasons and Rewards

Thus says Yahweh, Where is the bill of your mother’s divorce, for which I have put her away? Or which of My creditors is it to whom I have sold you? Behold, for your iniquities were you sold, and for

49:24 Despite having enabled their exit from Babylon, they complained: “Vindication remains far removed from us and deliverance does not reach us” (59:9). This was an awful spurning of the great salvation enabled for them. They remonstrated against God’s message of deliverance from captivity: “Can prey be taken from a warrior? Or can prisoners of a tyrant be rescued?” (:24). They thought their salvation was too hard even for God. They made the same mistake as all who reason that their situation or personality is too far gone for God to redeem. For the ‘salvation’ of the exiles in Babylon is alluded to in the New Testament as a prototype of our salvation in Christ. The good news of potential deliverance from Babylon is quoted as the good news of salvation from sin (Is. 52:7-10 = Mk. 1:15; Mt. 10:7,8; Rom. 10:15; Eph. 6:15; Is. 61:1,2 = Lk. 4:16-21).

50:1 God was angry with their sins, but kept no record of them – hence He could your transgressions was your mother put away. <sup>2</sup> Why, when I came, was there no man? When I called, was there none to answer? Is My hand shortened at all, that it can't redeem? Or have I no power to deliver? Behold, at My rebuke I dry up the sea, I make the rivers a wilderness: their fish stink, because there is no water, and die for thirst. <sup>3</sup> I clothe the heavens with blackness, and I make sackcloth their covering. <sup>4</sup> The Lord Yahweh has given me the tongue of those who are taught, that I may know how to sustain with words him who is weary: He wakens me morning by morning, He wakens my ear to hear as those who are taught. <sup>5</sup> The Lord Yahweh has opened my ear, and I was not rebellious, neither turned away backward. <sup>6</sup> I gave my back to the strikers, and my cheeks to those who plucked off the hair; I didn't hide my face from shame and spitting. <sup>7</sup> For the Lord Yahweh will help me; therefore I have not been confounded: therefore have I set my face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be disappointed. <sup>8</sup> He is near who justifies me; who will bring charges against me? Let us stand up together: who is my adversary? Let him come near to me. <sup>9</sup> Behold, the Lord Yahweh will help me; who is he who shall condemn me? Behold, all they shall wax old as a garment, the moth shall eat them up. <sup>10</sup> Who is among you who fears Yahweh, who obeys the voice of His servant? He who walks in darkness, and has no light, let him trust in the name of Yahweh, and rely on his God. <sup>11</sup> Behold, all you who kindle a fire, who adorn yourselves with torches around yourselves; walk in the flame of your fire, and among the brands that you have kindled. You shall have this of My hand; you shall lie down in sorrow.

The Lord Comforts Jerusalem

Listen to Me, you who follow after righteousness, you who seek Yahweh: look to the rock you were cut from, and to the hold of the pit you were dug from. <sup>2</sup> Look to Abraham your father, and to Sarah who bore you; for when he was but one I called him, and I blessed him, and made him many. <sup>3</sup> For Yahweh has comforted Zion; He has comforted all her waste places, and has made her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of Yahweh; joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving, and the voice of melody. <sup>4</sup> Listen to Me, My people; and comfort Judah that there was actually no documentary evidence for their divorce and therefore she could return to Him.

50:6, 7 I gave... I didn't hide my face... set my face like a flint – The body language of Jesus as He endured His sufferings is worth trying to imagine. His spirit of self-sacrifice and willing suffering with and for us would've shone through it. Lk. 9:51,53 notes how He set His face to go to Jerusalem and die there, His determination and conscious self-dedication were visible in how His face was set. We are asked to carry His cross with the same devotion.

give ear to Me, My nation: for a law shall go forth from Me, and I will establish My justice for a light of the peoples. <sup>5</sup> My righteousness is near, My salvation is gone forth, and My arms shall judge the peoples; the islands shall wait for Me, and on My arm shall they trust. <sup>6</sup> Lift up your eyes to the skies, and look on the land beneath; for the skies shall vanish away like smoke, and the land shall wax old like a garment; and those who dwell therein shall die in the same way: but My salvation shall be eternal, and My righteousness shall not be abolished. <sup>7</sup> Listen to Me, you who know righteousness, the people in whose heart is My law; don't fear the reproach of men, neither be dismayed at their insults. <sup>8</sup> For the moth shall eat them up like a garment, and the worm shall eat them like wool; but My righteousness shall be forever, and My salvation to all generations. <sup>9</sup> Awake, awake, put on strength, arm of Yahweh; awake, as in the days of old, the generations of ancient times. Isn't it You who cut Rahab in pieces, who pierced the monster? <sup>10</sup> Isn't it You who dried up the sea, the waters of the great deep;

who made the depths of the sea a way for the redeemed to pass over? <sup>11</sup> The ransomed of Yahweh shall return, and come with singing to Zion; and everlasting joy shall be on their heads. They shall obtain gladness and joy; sorrow and weeping shall flee away. <sup>12</sup> I, even I, am He who comforts you: who are you, that you are afraid of man who shall die, and of the son of man who shall be made as grass; <sup>13</sup> and have forgotten Yahweh your Maker, who stretched forth the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth; and fear continually all the day because of the fury of the oppressor, when he makes ready to destroy; and where is the fury of the oppressor? <sup>14</sup> The captive exile shall speedily be freed; and he shall not die and go down into the pit, neither shall his bread fail. <sup>15</sup> For I am Yahweh your God, who stirs up the sea, so that its waves roar: Yahweh of Armies is His name. <sup>16</sup> I have put My words in your mouth, and have covered you in the shadow of My hand, that I may plant the heavens, and lay the foundations of the earth, and tell Zion, 'You are My people'. <sup>17</sup> Awake, awake, stand up, Jerusalem, that has

51:8 God's salvation is paralleled with His righteousness; He saves people by counting them as if they are righteous on account of their relationship with Him. In our times our baptism into Christ means that His righteousness is counted to us, and on this basis we shall be saved.

51:14 This sounds as if they were all willing and eager to leave that spiritually dreadful place. But the reality was that Judah didn't hasten to be loosed, they preferred the Babylon life, and didn't perceive it for the spiritual pit that was killing them which it was. Most of them chose to remain there. So this passage is therefore a prophecy, a command, about how God wanted Judah to respond.

51:17 God 'stirred up' the spirit of Cyrus and also of the Jews who returned (Ezra 1:1,5). Isaiah uses the same Hebrew term to describe how Israel's saviour would drunk at the hand of Yahweh the cup of His wrath; you have drunken the bowl of the cup of staggering, and drained it. <sup>18</sup> There is none to guide her among all the sons whom she has brought forth; neither is there any who takes her by the hand among all the sons whom she has brought up. <sup>19</sup> These two things have happened to you; who will bemoan you? Desolation and destruction, and the famine and the sword; how shall I comfort you? <sup>20</sup> Your sons have fainted, they lie at the head of all the streets, as an antelope in a net; they are full of the wrath of Yahweh, the rebuke of your God. <sup>21</sup> Therefore hear now this, you afflicted and drunken, but not with wine: <sup>22</sup> Thus says your Lord Yahweh, and your God who pleads the cause of His people, Behold, I have taken out of your hand the cup of staggering, even the bowl of the cup of My wrath; you shall no more drink it again: <sup>23</sup> and I will put it into the hand of those who afflict you, who have said to your soul, ‘Bow down, that we may walk over you;’ and you have laid your back as the ground, and as the street, to those who walk over.

Jerusalem is Rescued

Awake, awake, put on your strength, Zion; put on your beautiful garments, Jerusalem, the holy city: for henceforth there shall no more come into you the uncircumcised and the unclean. <sup>2</sup> Shake yourself from the dust! Arise, sit up, Jerusalem! Release yourself from the bonds of your neck, captive daughter of Zion! <sup>3</sup> For thus says Yahweh, You were sold for nothing; and you shall be redeemed without money. <sup>4</sup> For thus says the Lord Yahweh, My people went down at the first into Egypt to live there: and the Assyrian has oppressed them without cause. <sup>5</sup> Now therefore, what do I do here, says Yahweh, seeing that My people are taken away for nothing? Those who rule over them mock, says Yahweh, and My name continually all the day is blasphemed. <sup>6</sup> Therefore My people shall know My name. Therefore they shall know in that be “raised up” – 41:2,25; 45:13. Isaiah pleads with Zion, i.e. the faithful, to indeed be stirred up – 51:17; 52:1 appeal to Zion to “Awake!” – the same word translated “stirred up”. But Isaiah tragically concluded that there were so few who would ‘stir up themselves’ (64:7). God had given them the potential to be ‘stirred up’ in their hearts and minds to leave Babylon and return – but they wouldn’t respond. And today, the same happens. God is willing to change hearts, to stir up materialistic and complacent spirits – but because we’re not robots, we have to respond.

51:22 To be given a cup of wine to drink from the Lord is a double symbol; of condemnation, as it is here; or of blessing (1 Cor. 10:16). When we take the cup of the Lord at the breaking of bread service, we are drinking either to our eternal blessing or condemnation – hence the need for self-examination, so that we drink to our blessing and not our condemnation (1 Cor. 11:29).

52:2 The Jews didn’t perceive the soft life of Babylon as chains around their necks, and so they didn’t loose themselves and leave.

day that I am He who speaks; behold, it is I. <sup>7</sup> How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of him who brings good news, who publishes peace, who brings good news of good, who publishes salvation, who says to Zion, Your God reigns! <sup>8</sup> The voice of your watchmen! They lift up the voice, together do they sing; for they shall see eye to eye, when Yahweh brings Zion back. <sup>9</sup> Break forth into joy, sing together, you waste places of Jerusalem; for Yahweh has comforted His people, He has redeemed Jerusalem. <sup>10</sup> Yahweh has made bare His holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God. <sup>11</sup> Depart, depart, go out from there, touch no unclean thing! Go out of the midst of her! Cleanse yourselves, you who bear the temple vessels of Yahweh. <sup>12</sup> For you shall not go out in haste, neither shall you go by flight: for Yahweh will go before you; and the God of Israel will be your vanguard.

The Suffering Servant

<sup>13</sup> Behold, My servant shall deal wisely, he shall be exalted and lifted up, and shall be very high. <sup>14</sup> Just as many were astonished at you (his appearance was marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men), <sup>15</sup> so shall he sprinkle many nations; kings shall shut their mouths at him: for that which had not been told them shall they see; and that which they had not heard shall they understand.

CHAPTER 53 Jun. 28

Who has believed our message? To whom has the arm of Yahweh been revealed? <sup>2</sup> For he grew

52:7 The feet of him – A prophecy of Christ’s preaching of the Gospel. But it is quoted in Rom. 10:15 with a significant change of pronoun – “the feet of them”. We who are baptized into Christ are His witnesses; His preaching is ours and vice versa. We will experience His especial identity with us in our efforts to preach the Gospel.

52:7-10 See on 49:24.

52:13 From here to the end of chapter 53 we have the ‘Servant song’ which speaks most clearly of the death and work of Christ for us. Many phrases in it are applied to Jesus in the New Testament (Mt. 8:17; 20:28; Mk. 15:28; Jn. 1:29; 12:38; Rom. 4:25; 10:16; 1 Cor. 15:3; Phil. 2:4-8; Col. 1:20; 1 Pet. 2:22,24).

52:14 There was something especially awful about the physical appearance of Christ on the cross, a reflection of the huge mental struggle there was within His holy mind as He finally overcame sin in all its forms.

53:1 Who has believed our message? was fulfilled both in the final, friendless rejection of the crucifixion, and also in the failure of Israel to really believe as a result of the Lord’s miracles done during His life (Jn. 12:38). “He has borne our sickness, and carried our suffering” is how :4 described the cross; but these words are quoted in Mt. 8:16,17 about Christ’s healing of people. The miracles therefore were performed in the spirit of the cross – personally identifying with the sick and healing them through that identification. His whole life was a being acquainted with disease (Heb. “grief”) (:3); and yet we read in this same context that He was put to grief in His death (:10). The grief of His death was an extension of the grief of His life. “He bore the sin of up before Him as a tender plant, and as a root out of dry ground. He has no good looks or majesty; when we see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him. <sup>3</sup> He was despised, and rejected by men; a man of suffering, and acquainted with disease. He was despised as one from whom men hide their face; and we didn't respect him. <sup>4</sup> Surely he has borne our sickness, and carried our suffering; yet we considered him plagued, struck by God, and afflicted. <sup>5</sup> But he was pierced for our transgressions. He was crushed for our iniquities. The punishment that brought our peace was on him; and by his wounds we are healed. <sup>6</sup> All we like sheep have gone astray; each one has turned to his own way; and Yahweh has laid on him the iniquity of us all. <sup>7</sup> He was oppressed, yet when he was afflicted he didn't open his mouth. As a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and as a sheep that before its shearers is mute, so he didn't open his mouth. <sup>8</sup> He was taken away by oppression and judgement; and as for his generation, who considered that he was cut off out of the land of the living and stricken for the disobedience of My people? <sup>9</sup> They made his grave with the wicked, and with a rich man in his death; although he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth. <sup>10</sup> Yet it was Yahweh's will to bruise him; He has caused him to suffer. When You make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed. He shall prolong his days, and the will of Yahweh shall prosper in his hand. <sup>11</sup> After the suffering of his soul, he will see the light and be satisfied. My righteous servant will justify many by the knowledge of himself; and he will bear their iniquities. <sup>12</sup> Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he poured out his soul to death, and was numbered with the transgressors; yet he bore the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

many" (:12) is applied by Jn. 1:29 to how during His ministry, Jesus bore the sin of the world. All this shows that the cross wasn't an unusual, one time act of supreme devotion; the spirit of it was lived out in Christ's daily life. We who are to carry His cross must see it the same way.

53:2 As a root out of dry ground – There was nothing around Jesus in His environment which encouraged spirituality. He grew as we do, as a tender green plant in a desert.

53:6 All we like sheep have gone astray – We tend to sin as a result of group mentality; and yet this influences us individually to each turn to our own personal, unique way of sinning.

53:7 As a sheep that before its shearers is mute – A sheep is dumb in this situation from total fear. Jesus was human and in His time of dying went through all the usual human emotions in the face of death.

53:9 A detailed prophecy of how Jesus died with the wicked but was buried in the tomb of the rich Joseph of Arimathea.

53:10 He shall see his seed – Did Jesus have a vision of us the ones He would redeem, which inspired Him at the end, at the very time He was making an offering for sin?

CHAPTER 54 Jun. 29God's Promise of Everlasting Peace

Sing, barren, you who didn't bear; break forth into singing, and cry aloud, you who did not travail with child: for more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married wife, says Yahweh. <sup>2</sup> Enlarge the place of your tent, and let them stretch forth the curtains of your habitations; don't spare: lengthen your cords, and strengthen your stakes. <sup>3</sup> For you shall spread out on the right hand and on the left; and your seed shall possess the nations, and make the desolate cities to be inhabited. <sup>4</sup> Don't be afraid; for you shall not be ashamed: neither be confounded; for you shall not be disappointed: for you shall forget the shame of your youth; and the reproach of your widowhood you shall remember no more. <sup>5</sup> For your Maker is your husband; Yahweh of Armies is His name: and the Holy One of Israel is your Redeemer; the God of the whole earth shall He be called. <sup>6</sup> For Yahweh has called you as a wife forsaken and grieved in spirit, even a wife of youth, when she is cast off, says your God. <sup>7</sup> For a small moment have I forsaken you; but with great mercies will I gather you. <sup>8</sup> In overflowing wrath I hid My face from you for a moment; but with everlasting loving kindness will I have mercy on you, says Yahweh your Redeemer. <sup>9</sup> For this is like the waters of Noah to Me; for as I have sworn that the waters of Noah shall no more go over the earth, so have I sworn that I will not be angry with you, nor rebuke you. <sup>10</sup> For the mountains may depart, and the hills be removed; but My loving kindness shall not depart from you, neither shall My covenant of peace be removed, says Yahweh who has mercy on you. <sup>11</sup> You afflicted, tossed with storms, and not comforted, behold, I will set your stones in beautiful colours, and lay your foundations with sapphires. <sup>12</sup> I will make your pinacles of rubies, and your gates of sparkling jewels, and all your walls of precious stones. <sup>13</sup> All your children shall be taught of Yahweh; and great shall be the peace of your chil-

54:4 Your widowhood – The implication is that God as their husband (:5) had died – and somehow returned to life to remarry them. This doesn't mean that Jesus is God, for God by nature cannot die; rather does it speak of the intensity to which God was manifest in Christ and went through the pain of death as it were because of what Israel's unfaithfulness and rejection felt like to Him.

54:6 In this language God as it were takes false guilt over His divorce with Israel; such is His gushing love for His unfaithful people who now return to Him.

54:7 God clearly has emotions of a kind which are not unrelated to the emotions we experience, as beings made in His image. But those emotions involve a time factor in order to be emotions. We read of the anger of God “for a moment” (:7,8; Ps. 30:5), and of His wrath coming and going, leaving Him “calm” and no longer angry (Ez. 16:42). When we sin, we provoke God to anger – i.e. at a point in time, God sees our sin, and becomes angry. This is attested many times in Scripture. But it's meaningless if God is totally outside of our time and emotions.

dren. <sup>14</sup> In righteousness you shall be established: you shall be far from oppression, for you shall not be afraid; and from terror, for it shall not come near you. <sup>15</sup> Behold, they may gather together, but not by Me: whoever shall gather together against you shall fall because of you. <sup>16</sup> Behold, I have created the smith who blows the fire of coals, and brings forth a weapon for his work; and I have created the waster to destroy. <sup>17</sup> No weapon that is formed against you will prevail; and you will condemn every tongue that rises against you in judgement. This is the heritage of the servants of Yahweh, and their righteousness which is of Me, says Yahweh.

God's Offer of Mercy

Come, everyone who thirsts, to the waters! Come, he who has no money, buy, and eat! Yes, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. <sup>2</sup> Why do you spend money for that which is not bread? and your labour for that which doesn't satisfy? Listen diligently to Me, and eat you that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness. <sup>3</sup> Turn your ear, and come to Me; hear, and your soul shall live: and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David. <sup>4</sup> Behold, I have given him for a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander to the peoples. <sup>5</sup> Behold, you shall call a nation that you don't know; and a nation that didn't know you shall run to you, because of Yahweh your God, and for the Holy One of Israel; for He has glorified you. <sup>6</sup> Seek Yahweh while He may be found; call you on Him while He is near: <sup>7</sup> let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; and let him return to Yahweh, and He will have mercy on him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon. <sup>8</sup> For My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways My ways, says Yahweh. <sup>9</sup> For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts. <sup>10</sup> For as the rain comes down and the snow from the sky and doesn't return there but waters the earth, and makes it bring forth and bud, and

54:17 Their righteousness which is of Me – Again we meet the New Testament idea of imputed righteousness, for Isaiah makes clear enough elsewhere that Israel had no righteousness of their own. We too have God's righteousness imputed to us by being in Christ.

55:1 Whilst we don't have to actually pay money for God's blessings, we are expected to go through the feelings of having paid, given something, in response to what He has already given us so as to take them to ourselves.

55:3 The sure mercies of David result in the wicked man forsaking his way (:3,7). The description of the promises to David as "sure mercies" (1 Chron. 17:13) may perhaps be with a reference to his sin with Bathsheba; his forgiveness in that incident is typical of that which we all receive (Rom. 4:6-8). The very existence of the "mercies of / to David" therefore inspire us in forsaking sinful thoughts and wicked ways (:7).

gives seed to the sower and bread to the eater; <sup>11</sup> so shall My word be that goes forth out of My mouth: it shall not return to Me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing I sent it to do. <sup>12</sup> For you shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing; and all the trees of the fields shall clap their hands. <sup>13</sup> Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree; and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree: and it shall be to Yahweh for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

CHAPTER 56 Ju1. 1

Faithful Gentiles Will Be Accepted

Thus says Yahweh, Keep justice, and do righteousness; for My salvation is near to come, and My righteousness to be revealed. <sup>2</sup> Blessed is the man who does this, and the son of man who holds it fast; who keeps the Sabbath from profaning it, and keeps his hand from doing any evil. <sup>3</sup> Neither let the foreigner who has joined himself to Yahweh speak, saying, Yahweh will surely separate me from His people; neither let the eunuch say, Behold, I am a dry tree. <sup>4</sup> For thus says Yahweh, To the eunuchs who keep My Sabbaths, and choose the things that please Me, and hold fast My covenant: <sup>5</sup> to them I will give in My house and within My walls a memorial and a name better than of sons and of daughters; I will give them an everlasting name, that shall not be cut off. <sup>6</sup> Also the foreigners who join themselves to Yahweh, to minister to Him and to love the name of Yahweh, to be His servants, each one who keeps the Sabbath from profaning it, and holds fast covenant; <sup>7</sup> even them will I bring to My holy mountain, and make them joyful in My house of prayer: their burnt

55:11 The parallel between the seed and the convert is such as to suggest that the word of God will produce converts in some sense; it will not return void (:11). The apparent dearth of response to some preaching therefore poses a challenging question. Are we preaching the word of God alone, or our own ideas? Does God withhold blessing for some reason unknown to us? Or is this only part of a wider picture, in which somehow the word does return void due to man's rejection? Thus the word of God was 'made void' by the Pharisees (Mk. 7:13 RV – a conscious allusion to 55:11). One possible explanation is that "the word" which is sent forth and prospers, achieving all God's intention, is in fact Messiah. The same word is used about the 'prospering' of the Servant in His work: 48:15; 53:10 cp. Ps. 45:4. Another is to accept the LXX reading of this passage: "...until whatsoever I have willed shall have been accomplished". Here at least is the implication that something happens and is achieved when we preach God's word. The same idiom occurs in Ez. 9:11 Heb., where we read that "the man clothed with linen" – representing Ezekiel or his representative Angel – "returned the word, saying, I have done as You have commanded me". The word 'returned' in the sense that someone, somewhere, was obedient to it even if others weren't.

56:7 My house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples – Quoted by Jesus in Mt 21:13 as a demand for God's house now to not be a forum for personal financial offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted on My altar; for My house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples. <sup>8</sup> The Lord Yahweh who gathers the outcasts of Israel says, Yet will I gather others to him, besides his own who are gathered. <sup>9</sup> All you animals of the field, come to devour, all you animals in the forest. <sup>10</sup> His watchmen are blind, they are all without knowledge; they are all mute dogs, they can't bark; dreaming, lying down, loving to slumber. <sup>11</sup> Yes, the dogs are greedy, they can never have enough; and these are shepherds who can't understand: they have each turned to their own way, each one to his gain, from every quarter. <sup>12</sup> Come, say they, I will get wine, and we will fill ourselves with strong drink; and tomorrow shall be as this day, great beyond measure.

CHAPTER 57 Jul. 1

Idol Worship Again Condemned

The righteous perishes, and no man lays it to heart; and merciful men are taken away, none considering that the righteous is taken away from the coming evil. <sup>2</sup> He enters into peace; they rest in their beds, each one who walks in his uprightness. <sup>3</sup> But draw near here, you sons of the sorceress, the seed of the adulterer and the prostitute. <sup>4</sup> Against whom do you sport yourselves? Against whom do you make a wide mouth, and stick out your tongue? Aren't you children of disobedience, a seed of falsehood, <sup>5</sup> you who inflame yourselves among the oaks, under every green tree; who kill the children in the valleys, under the clefts of the rocks? <sup>6</sup> Among the smooth stones of the valley is your portion; they, they are your lot; you have even poured a drink offering to them. You have offered an offering; but shall I be appeased for these things? <sup>7</sup> On a high and lofty mountain you have set your bed; there also you went up to offer sacrifice. <sup>8</sup> Behind the doors and the posts you have set up your memorial: for you have uncovered to someone besides Me, and have gone up; you have enlarged your bed, and made you a covenant with them: you loved their bed wherever you saw it. <sup>9</sup> You went to the king with oil and increased your perfumes, and sent your ambassadors far off, and debased yourself even to Sheol. <sup>10</sup> You were wearied with the length of your way; yet you didn't say, 'It is in vain'. You found a reviving of your strength; therefore you weren't faint. <sup>11</sup> Of whom have you gain. If we are living the Kingdom life now, then whatever is said of the future Kingdom must in essence be the rule of our lives today.

56:11 Each turned to their own way – This phrase connects with 53:6, which says that although we have each done this, Christ's death was for us, to save us from that situation. The group in view in 56:11 were obsessed with money and personal pleasure, whilst claiming faith in God. Those types may seem the hardest to convert; but we are each in essence the same, and the connection with 53:6 shows that the cross is powerful enough to shake even them, even us, from such complacency.

57:11 One thing that works against truthfulness is the neuroses that come from fear, been afraid and in fear, that you lie, and have not remembered Me, nor laid it to your heart? Haven't I held peace even of long time, and you don't fear Me? <sup>12</sup> I will declare your righteousness; and as for your works, they shall not profit you. <sup>13</sup> When you cry, let those who you have gathered deliver you; but the wind shall take them, a breath shall carry them all away: but he who takes refuge in Me shall possess the land, and shall inherit My holy mountain.

A Promise of Help and Healing

<sup>14</sup> He will say, Cast up, cast up, prepare the way, take up the stumbling-block out of the way of My people. <sup>15</sup> For thus says the high and lofty

One who inhabits eternity, whose name is Holy: I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also who is of a broken and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite. <sup>16</sup> For I will not contend forever, neither will I be always angry; for the spirit would faint before Me, and the souls who I have made. <sup>17</sup> For the iniquity of his covetousness was I angry, and struck him; I hid Myself and was angry; and he went on backsliding in the way of his heart. <sup>18</sup> I have seen his ways, and will heal him: I will lead him also, and restore comforts to him and to his mourners. <sup>19</sup> I create the fruit of the lips: Peace, peace, to him who is far off and to him who is near, says the fearful tensions that arise between our real self and the false self. Fear and truth are opposed. This isn't merely psychobabble. Consider God's words about this here: "Of whom have you been afraid and in fear, that you lie, and have not remembered Me?". The life of brave faith, the life that is lived in the overcoming of fears, the fearless breaking out of our comfort zones... this is the true life, the life in which we have no need to lie nor believe in lies. But of course it's hard, because we think that the truth, the reality, is what we see around us; whereas faith is believing in what is not seen. Yet actually what is not seen is the reality, and what is seen is very often a lie. And the true life is a life of faith in those things which are not yet visibly seen.

57:14 *Stumbling block – The ultimate rock of stumbling for the Jewish people is accepting Jesus of Nazareth as the Christ (Rom. 9:32,33; 1 Pet. 2:8). The preparation of the highway for Christ's return involves Israel accepting Jesus as Christ. This is why we should preach to Israel in the last days, for the sooner they accept Christ, the quicker He will return.
